4:<sup>1</sup> Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple to the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>2</sup> they approached Zerub'babel and the heads of fathers' houses and said to them, "Let us build with you; for we worship your God<sup>1</sup> as you do, and we have been sacrificing to him ever since the days of E'sar-had'don king of Assyria who brought us here." <sup>3</sup> But Zerub'babel, Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses in Israel said to them, "You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we alone will build to the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."

<sup>7</sup> And in the days of Ar-ta-xerx'es, Bishlam and Mith'redath and Tab'eel and the rest of their associates wrote to Ar-ta-xerx'es king of Persia; the letter was written in Aramaic and translated. <sup>8</sup> Rehum the commander and Shim'shai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Ar-ta-xerx'es the king as follows-- <sup>9</sup> then wrote Rehum the commander, Shim'shai the scribe, and the rest of their associates, the judges, the governors, the officials, the Persians, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites, <sup>10</sup> and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnap'par deported and settled in the cities of Sama'ria and in the rest of the province Beyond the River, and now <sup>11</sup> this is a copy of the letter that they sent-- "To Ar-ta-xerx'es the king: Your servants, the men of the province Beyond the River, send greeting. And now <sup>12</sup> be it known to the king that the Jews who came up from you to us have gone to Jerusalem. They are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city; they are finishing the walls and repairing the foundations. <sup>13</sup> Now be it known to the king that, if this city is rebuilt and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and the royal revenue will be impaired. <sup>14</sup> Now because we eat the salt of the palace and it is not fitting for us to witness the king's dishonour, therefore we send and inform the king, <sup>15</sup> in order that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. You will find in the book of the records and learn that this city is a rebellious city, hurtful to kings and provinces, and that sedition was stirred up in it from of old. That was why this city was laid waste. <sup>16</sup> We make known to the king that, if this city is rebuilt and its walls finished, you will then have no possession in the province Beyond the River."

<sup>17</sup> The king sent an answer: "To Rehum the commander and Shim'shai the scribe and the rest of their associates who live in Sama'ria and in the rest of the province Beyond the River, greeting. And now <sup>18</sup> the letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. <sup>19</sup> And I made a decree, and search has been made, and it has been found that this city from of old has risen against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it. <sup>20</sup> And mighty kings have been over Jerusalem, who ruled over the whole province Beyond the River, to whom tribute, custom, and toll were paid. <sup>21</sup> Therefore make a decree that these men be made to cease, and that this city be not rebuilt, until a decree is made by me. <sup>22</sup> And take care not to be slack in this matter; why should damage grow to the hurt of the king?"

<sup>23</sup> Then, when the copy of King Ar-ta-xerx'es' letter was read before Rehum and Shim'shai the scribe and their associates, they went in haste to the Jews at Jerusalem and by force and power made them cease. <sup>24</sup> Then the work on the house of God which is in Jerusalem stopped; and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

5:<sup>1</sup> Now the prophets, Haggai and Zechari'ah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel who was over them. <sup>2</sup>

Then Zerub'babel the son of She-al'ti-el and Jeshua the son of Jo'zadak arose and began to rebuild the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them.

<sup>6</sup> The copy of the letter which Tat'tenai the governor of the province Beyond the River and She'thar-boz'enai and his associates the governors who were in the province Beyond the River sent to Darius the king; <sup>7</sup> they sent him a report, in which was written as follows: "To Darius the king, all peace. <sup>8</sup> Be it known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God. It is being built with huge stones, and timber is laid in the walls; this work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands. <sup>9</sup> Then we asked those elders and spoke to them thus, 'Who gave you a decree to build this house and to finish this structure?' <sup>10</sup> We also asked them their names, for your information, that we might write down the names of the men at their head. <sup>11</sup> And this was their reply to us: 'We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished. <sup>12</sup> But because our fathers had angered the God of heaven, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chalde'an, who destroyed this house and carried away the people to Babylonia. <sup>13</sup> However in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree that this house of God should be rebuilt. <sup>14</sup> And the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple that was in Jerusalem and brought into the temple of Babylon, these Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Shesh-baz'zar, whom he had made governor; <sup>15</sup> and he said to him, "Take these vessels, go and put them in the temple which is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its site." <sup>16</sup> Then this Shesh-baz'zar came and laid the foundations of the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and from that time until now it has been in building, and it is not yet finished.' <sup>17</sup> Therefore, if it seem good to the king, let search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon, to see whether a decree was issued by Cyrus the king for the rebuilding of this house of God in Jerusalem. And let the king send us his pleasure in this matter."

<sup>6</sup> "Now therefore, Tat'tenai, governor of the province Beyond the River, She'thar-boz'enai, and your associates the governors who are in the province Beyond the River, keep away; <sup>7</sup> let the work on this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this house of God on its site. <sup>8</sup> Moreover I make a decree regarding what you shall do for these elders of the Jews for the rebuilding of this house of God; the cost is to be paid to these men in full and without delay from the royal revenue, the tribute of the province from Beyond the River. <sup>9</sup> And whatever is needed-- young bulls, rams, or sheep for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, or oil, as the priests at Jerusalem require-- let that be given to them day by day without fail, <sup>10</sup> that they may offer pleasing sacrifices to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his sons. <sup>11</sup> Also I make a decree that if any one alters this edict, a beam shall be pulled out of his house, and he shall be impaled upon it, and his house shall be made a dunghill. <sup>12</sup> May the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow any king or people that shall put forth a hand to alter this, or to destroy this house of God which is in Jerusalem. I Darius make a decree; let it be done with all diligence."

<sup>16</sup> And the people of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the returned exiles, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy. <sup>17</sup> They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. <sup>18</sup> And they set the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

<sup>7</sup> And there went up also to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Ar-ta-xerx'es the king, some of the people of Israel, and some of the priests and Levites, the singers and gatekeepers, and the temple servants. <sup>8</sup> And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king; <sup>9</sup> for on the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylonia, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, for the good hand of his God was upon him. <sup>10</sup> For Ezra had set his heart to study the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach his statutes and ordinances in Israel.

<sup>11</sup> This is a copy of the letter which King Ar-ta-xerx'es gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, learned in matters of the commandments of the LORD and his statutes for Israel: <sup>12</sup> "Ar-ta-xerx'es, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven. And now <sup>13</sup> I make a decree that any one of the people of Israel or their priests or Levites in my kingdom, who freely offers to go to Jerusalem, may go with you. <sup>14</sup> For you are sent by the king and his seven counsellors to make inquiries about Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of your God, which is in your hand, <sup>15</sup> and also to convey the silver and gold which the king and his counsellors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, <sup>16</sup> with all the silver and gold which you shall find in the whole province of Babylonia, and with the freewill offerings of the people and the priests, vowed willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> With this money, then, you shall with all diligence buy bulls, rams, and lambs, with their cereal offerings and their drink offerings, and you shall offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> Whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and gold, you may do, according to the will of your God. <sup>19</sup> The vessels that have been given you for the service of the house of your God, you shall deliver before the God of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup> And whatever else is required for the house of your God, which you have occasion to provide, you may provide it out of the king's treasury.

how much. <sup>23</sup> Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done in full for the house of the God of heaven, lest his wrath be against the realm of the king and his sons<sup>3</sup>. <sup>24</sup> We also notify you that it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll upon any one of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the doorkeepers, the temple servants, or other servants of this house of God.

<sup>25</sup> "And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges who may judge all the people in the province Beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and those who do not know them, you shall teach. <sup>26</sup> Whoever will not obey the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgement be strictly executed upon him, whether for 1) death or for 2) banishment or for 3) confiscation of his goods or for 4) imprisonment<sup>4</sup>."

<sup>15</sup> I gathered them to the river that runs to Aha'va, and there we encamped three days. As I reviewed the people and the priests, I found there none of the sons of Levi. <sup>16</sup> Then I sent for Elie'zer, Ar'i-el, Shemai'ah, Elna'than, Jarib, Elna'than, Nathan, Zechari'ah, and Meshul'lam, leading men, and for Joi'arib and Elna'than, who were men of insight, <sup>17</sup> and sent them to Iddo, the leading man at the place Casiphi'a, telling them what to say to Iddo and his brethren the temple servants at the place Casiphi'a, namely, to send us ministers for the house of our God. <sup>18</sup> And by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, son of Israel, namely Sherebi'ah with his sons and kinsmen, eighteen; <sup>19</sup> also Hashabi'ah and with him Jeshai'ah of the sons of Merar'i, with his kinsmen and their sons, twenty; <sup>20</sup> besides two hundred and twenty of the temple servants, whom David and his officials had set apart to attend the Levites. These were all mentioned by name.

<sup>21</sup> Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Aha'va, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a straight way for ourselves, our children, and all our goods. <sup>22</sup> For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemy on our way; since we had told the king, "The hand of our God is for good upon all that seek him, and the power of his wrath is against all that forsake him." <sup>23</sup> So we fasted and besought our God for this, and he listened to our entreaty.

<sup>24</sup> Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests: Sherebi'ah, Hashabi'ah, and ten of their kinsmen with them. <sup>25</sup> And I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counsellors and his lords and all Israel there present had offered; <sup>26</sup> I weighed out into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels worth a hundred talents, and a hundred talents of gold, <sup>27</sup> twenty bowls of gold worth a thousand darics, and two vessels of fine bright bronze as precious as gold. <sup>28</sup> And I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers. <sup>29</sup> Guard them and keep them until you weigh them before the chief priests and the Levites and the heads of fathers' houses in Israel at Jerusalem, within the chambers of the house of the LORD." <sup>30</sup> So the priests and the Levites took over the weight of the silver and the gold and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.

<sup>31</sup> Then we departed from the river Aha'va on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem; the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambushes by the way. <sup>32</sup> We came to Jerusalem, and there we remained three days. <sup>33</sup> On the fourth day, within the house of our God, the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed into the hands of Mer'emoth the priest, son of Uri'ah, and with him was Elea'zar the son of Phin'ehas, and with them were the Levites, Jo'zabad the son of Jeshua and No-adi'ah the son of Bin'nui. <sup>34</sup> The whole was counted and weighed, and the weight of everything was recorded.

<sup>35</sup> At that time those who had come from captivity, the returned exiles, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and as a sin offering twelve he-goats; all this was a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>36</sup> They also delivered the king's commissions to the king's satraps and to the governors of the province Beyond the River; and they aided the people and the house of God.

9: After these things had been done, the officials approached me and said, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands with their abominations, from the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Per'izzites, the Jeb'usites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. <sup>2</sup> For they have taken some of their daughters to be wives for themselves and for their sons; so that the holy race has mixed itself with the peoples of the lands. And in this faithlessness the hand of the officials and chief men has been foremost." <sup>3</sup> When I heard this, I rent my garments and my mantle, and pulled hair from my head and beard, and sat appalled. <sup>4</sup> Then all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the faithlessness of the returned exiles, gathered round me while I sat appalled until the evening sacrifice. <sup>5</sup> And at the evening sacrifice I rose from my fasting, with my garments and my mantle rent, and fell upon my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God, <sup>6</sup> saying:

"O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift my face to thee, my God, for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has mounted up to the heavens. <sup>7</sup> From the days of our fathers to this day we have been in great guilt; and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to utter shame, as at this day. <sup>8</sup> But now for a brief moment favour has been shown by the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant, and to give us a secure hold within his holy place, that our God may brighten our eyes and grant us a little reviving in our bondage. <sup>9</sup> For we are bondmen; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended to us his steadfast love before the kings of Persia, to grant us some reviving to set up the house of our God, to repair its ruins, and to give us protection in Judea and Jerusalem.

10: While Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, a very great assembly of men, women, and children, gathered to him out of Israel; for the people wept bitterly. <sup>2</sup> And Shecani'ah<sup>5</sup> the son of Jehi'el, of the sons of Elam, addressed Ezra<sup>6</sup>: "We have broken faith with our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land, but even now there is hope for Israel in spite of this. <sup>3</sup> Therefore let us<sup>7</sup> make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God<sup>8</sup>; and let it be done according to the law. <sup>4</sup> Arise, for it is your task, and we are with you; be strong and do it." <sup>5</sup> Then Ezra arose and made the leading priests and Levites and all Israel take oath that they would do as had been said. So they took the oath.

<sup>6</sup> Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God, and went to the chamber of Jehoha'nan the son of Eli'ashib, where he spent the night, neither eating bread nor drinking water; for he was mourning over the faithlessness of the exiles. <sup>7</sup> And a proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the returned exiles that they should assemble at Jerusalem, <sup>8</sup> and that if any one did not come within three days, by order of the officials and the elders all his property should be forfeited, and he himself banned from the congregation of the exiles.

<sup>9</sup> Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. And all the people sat in the open square before the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the heavy rain. <sup>10</sup> And Ezra the priest stood up and said<sup>9</sup> to them, "You have trespassed and married foreign women, and so increased the guilt of Israel. <sup>11</sup> Now then make confession to the LORD the God of your fathers, and do his will; separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives." <sup>12</sup> Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, "It is so; we must do as you have said. <sup>13</sup> But the people are many, and it is a time of heavy rain; we cannot stand in the open. Nor is this a work for one day or for two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. <sup>14</sup> Let our officials stand for the whole assembly; let all in our cities who have taken foreign wives come at appointed times, and with them the elders and judges of every city, till the fierce wrath of our God over this matter be averted from us."<sup>10n</sup> <sup>15</sup> Only Jonathan the son of As'ahel and Jahzei'ah the son of Tikvah opposed<sup>11</sup> this, and Meshul'lum and Shab'bethai the Levite supported them.

The book of Nehemiah

1: The words of Nehemi'ah the son of Hacali'ah.

Now it happened in the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Susa the capital, <sup>2</sup> that Hana'ni, one of my brethren, came with certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that survived, who had escaped exile, and concerning Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> And they said to me, "The survivors there in the province who escaped exile are in great trouble and shame; the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates are destroyed by fire."

<sup>4</sup> When I heard these words I sat down and wept, and mourned for days; and I continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven. <sup>5</sup> And I said, "O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments; <sup>6</sup> let thy ear be attentive, and thy eyes open, to hear the prayer of thy servant which I now pray before thee day and night for the people of Israel thy servants, confessing the sins of the people of Israel, which we have sinned against thee. Yea, I and my father's house have sinned. <sup>7</sup> We have acted very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, the statutes, and the ordinances which thou didst command thy servant Moses. <sup>8</sup> Remember the word which thou didst command thy servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples; <sup>9</sup> but if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, though your dispersed be under the farthest skies, I will gather them thence and bring them to the place which I have chosen, to make my name dwell there.' <sup>10</sup> They are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power and by thy strong hand. <sup>11</sup> O Lord, let thy ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants who delight to fear thy name; and give success to thy servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man."

Now I was cupbearer to the king.

<sup>2:</sup> In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Ar-ta-xerx'es, when wine was before him, I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad in his presence. <sup>2</sup> And the king said to me, "Why is your face sad, seeing you are not sick? This is nothing else but sadness of the heart." Then I was very much afraid. <sup>3</sup> I said to the king, "Let the king live for ever! Why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lies waste, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?" <sup>4</sup> Then the king said to me, "For what do you make request?" So I prayed to the God of heaven. <sup>5</sup> And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favour in your sight, that you send me<sup>1</sup> to Judah, to the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may rebuild it." <sup>6</sup> And the king said to me (the queen sitting beside him), "How long will you be gone, and when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. <sup>7</sup> And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors of the province Beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah; <sup>8</sup> and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress of the temple, and for the wall of the city, and for the house which I shall occupy." And the king granted me what I asked, for the good hand of my God was upon me.

<sup>9</sup> Then I came to the governors of the province Beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me officers of the army and horsemen. <sup>10</sup> But when Sanball'at the Hor'onite and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard this, it displeased them greatly that some one had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days<sup>2</sup>. <sup>12</sup> Then I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; and I told no one what my God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. There was no beast with me but the beast on which I rode. <sup>13</sup> I went out by night by the Valley Gate to the Jackal's Well and to the Dung Gate, and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which had been destroyed by fire. <sup>14</sup> Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool; but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass. <sup>15</sup> Then I went up in the night by the valley and inspected the wall; and I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned. <sup>16</sup> And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing; and I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, and the rest that were to do the work.

disgrace." <sup>18</sup> And I told them of the hand of my God which had been upon me for good, and also of the words which the king had spoken to me. And they said, "Let us rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work. <sup>19</sup> But when Sanbal'lat the Hor'onite and Tobi'ah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they derided us and despised us and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?" <sup>20</sup> Then I replied to them, "The God of heaven will make us prosper, and we his servants will arise and build; but you have no portion or right or memorial in Jerusalem."

<sup>3</sup> And the sons of Hassena'ah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars. <sup>4</sup> And next to them Mer'emoth the son of Uri'ah, son of Hakkoz repaired. And next to them Meshul'lam the son of Berechiah, son of Meshez'abel repaired. And next to them Zadok the son of Ba'ana repaired. <sup>5</sup> And next to them the Teko'ites repaired; but their nobles did not put their necks to the work of their Lord.

<sup>6</sup> And Joi'ada the son of Pase'ah and Meshul'lam the son of Besodei'ah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars. <sup>7</sup> And next to them repaired Melati'ah the Gib'eonite and Jadon the Mero'nothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, who were under the jurisdiction of the governor of the province Beyond the River. <sup>8</sup> Next to them Uz'ziel the son of Harhai'ah, goldsmiths, repaired. Next to him Hanani'ah, one of the perfumers, repaired; and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall. <sup>9</sup> Next to them Rephai'ah the son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired. <sup>10</sup> Next to them Jedai'ah the son of Haru'maph repaired opposite his house; and next to him Hattush the son of Hashabnei'ah repaired. <sup>11</sup> Malchi'jah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pa'hath-mo'ab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens. <sup>12</sup> Next to him Shallum the son of Hallo'hesh, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired, he and his daughters.

<sup>15</sup> And Shallum the son of Colho'zeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he rebuilt it and covered it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars; and he built the wall of the Pool of Shelah of the king's garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David. <sup>16</sup> After him Nehemi'ah the son of Azbuk, ruler of half the district of Beth-zur, repaired to a point opposite the sepulchres of David, to the artificial pool, and to the house of the mighty men. <sup>17</sup> After him the Levites repaired: Rehum the son of Bani; next to him Hashabi'ah, ruler of half the district of Kei'lah, repaired for his district. <sup>18</sup> After him their brethren repaired: Bav'vai the son of Hen'adad, ruler of half the district of Kei'lah; <sup>19</sup> next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section opposite the ascent to the armoury at the Angle. <sup>20</sup> After him Baruch the son of Zab'bai repaired another section from the Angle to the door of the house of Eli'ashib the high priest. <sup>21</sup> After him Mer'emoth the son of Uri'ah, son of Hakkoz repaired another section from the door of the house of Eli'ashib to the end of the house of Eli'ashib. <sup>22</sup> After him the priests, the men of the Plain, repaired. <sup>23</sup> After them Benjamin and Hasshub repaired opposite their house. After them Azari'ah the son of Ma-asei'ah, son of Anani'ah repaired beside his own house. <sup>24</sup> After him Bin'nui the son of Hen'adad repaired another section, from the house of Azari'ah to the Angle <sup>25</sup> and to the corner. Palal the son of Uzai repaired opposite the Angle and the tower projecting from the upper house of the king at the court of the guard. After him Pedai'ah the son of Parosh <sup>26</sup> and the temple servants living on Ophel repaired to a point opposite the Water Gate on the east and the projecting tower. <sup>27</sup> After him the Teko'ites repaired another section opposite the great projecting tower as far as the wall of Ophel.

Meshul'lam the son of Berechi'ah repaired opposite his chamber. <sup>31</sup> After him Malchi'jah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, opposite the Muster Gate, and to the upper chamber of the corner. <sup>32</sup> And between the upper chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants repaired.

4:<sup>1</sup> Now when Sanbal'lat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry and greatly enraged, and he ridiculed the Jews. <sup>2</sup> And he said in the presence of his brethren and of the army of Sama'ria, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore things? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish up in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, and burned ones at that?" <sup>3</sup> Tobi'ah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, "Yes, what they are building-- if a fox goes up on it he will break down their stone wall!" <sup>4</sup> Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn back their taunt upon their own heads, and give them up to be plundered in a land where they are captives. <sup>5</sup> Do not cover their guilt, and let not their sin be blotted out from thy sight; for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

<sup>7</sup> But when Sanbal'lat and Tobi'ah and the Arabs and the Ammonites and the Ash'dodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem was going forward and that the breaches were beginning to be closed, they were very angry; <sup>8</sup> and they all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it. <sup>9</sup> And we prayed to our God, and set a guard<sup>4</sup> as a protection against them day and night.

<sup>10</sup> But Judah said, "The strength of the burden-bearers is failing, and there is much rubbish; we are not able to work on the wall." <sup>11</sup> And our enemies said, "They will not know or see till we come into the midst of them and kill them and stop the work." <sup>12</sup> When the Jews who lived by them came they said to us ten times, "From all the places where they live they will come up against us." <sup>13</sup> So in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in open places, I stationed the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows. <sup>14</sup> And I looked, and arose, and said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes."

<sup>15</sup> When our enemies heard that it was known to us and that God had frustrated their plan, we all returned to the wall, each to his work. <sup>16</sup> From that day on, half of my servants worked on construction, and half<sup>5</sup> held the spears, shields, bows, and coats of mail; and the leaders stood behind all the house of Judah, <sup>17</sup> who were building on the wall. Those who carried burdens were laden in such a way that each with one hand laboured on the work and with the other held his weapon. <sup>18</sup> And each of the builders had his sword girded at his side while he built. The man who sounded the trumpet was beside me. <sup>19</sup> And I said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "The work is great and widely spread, and we are separated on the wall, far from one another. <sup>20</sup> In the place where you hear the sound of the trumpet<sup>6</sup>, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us."

5:<sup>1</sup> Now there arose a great outcry of the people and of their wives against their Jewish brethren. <sup>2</sup> For there were those who said, "With our sons and our daughters, we are many; let us get grain, that we may eat and keep alive." <sup>3</sup> There were also those who said, "We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses to get grain because of the famine." <sup>4</sup> And there were those who said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tax upon our fields and our vineyards. <sup>5</sup> Now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children are as their children; yet we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters have already been enslaved; but it is not in our power to help it, for other men have our fields and our vineyards."

<sup>6</sup> I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words. <sup>7</sup> I took counsel with myself, and I brought charges against the nobles and the officials. I said to them, "You are exacting interest, each from his brother." And I held a great assembly against them, <sup>8</sup> and said to them, "We, as far as we are able, have bought back our Jewish brethren who have been sold to the nations; but you even sell your brethren that they may be sold to us!" They were silent, and could not find a word to say. <sup>9</sup> So I said, "The thing that you are doing is not good. Ought you not to walk in the fear of our God to prevent the taunts of the nations our enemies? <sup>10</sup> Moreover I and my brethren and my servants are lending them money and grain. Let us leave off this interest. <sup>11</sup> Return to them this very day their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses, and the hundredth of money, grain, wine, and oil which you have been exacting of them." <sup>12</sup> Then they said, "We will restore these and require nothing from them. We will do as you say." And I called the priests, and took an oath of them to do as they had promised. <sup>13</sup> I also shook out my lap and said, "So may God shake out every man from his house and from his labour who does not perform this promise. So may he be shaken out and emptied." And all the assembly said "Amen" and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

6: <sup>1</sup> Now when it was reported to Sanbal'lat and Tobi'ah and to Geshem the Arab and to the rest of our enemies that I had built the wall and that there was no breach left in it (although up to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates), <sup>2</sup> Sanbal'lat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come and let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono." But they intended to do me harm. <sup>3</sup> And I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?" <sup>4</sup> And they sent to me four times in this way and I answered them in the same manner. <sup>5</sup> In the same way Sanbal'lat for the fifth time sent his servant to me with an open letter in his hand. <sup>6</sup> In it was written, "It is reported among the nations, and Geshem also says it, that you and the Jews intend to rebel; that is why you are building the wall; and you wish to become their king, according to this report. <sup>7</sup> And you have also set up prophets to proclaim concerning you in Jerusalem, 'There is a king in Judah.' And now it will be reported to the king according to these words. So now come, and let us take counsel together." <sup>8</sup> Then I sent to him, saying, "No such things as you say have been done, for you are inventing them out of your own mind." <sup>9</sup> For they all wanted to frighten us, thinking, "Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done." But now, O God, strengthen thou my hands.

<sup>10</sup> Now when I went into the house of Shemai'ah the son of Delai'ah, son of Mehet'abel, who was shut up, he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple; for they are coming to kill you, at night they are coming to kill you." <sup>11</sup> But I said, "Should such a man as I flee? And what man such as I could go into the temple and live? I will not go in." <sup>12</sup> And I understood, and saw that God had not sent him, but he had pronounced the prophecy against me because Tobi'ah and Sanbal'lat had hired him. <sup>13</sup> For this purpose he was hired, that I should be afraid and act in this way and sin, and so they could give me an evil name, in order to taunt me. <sup>14</sup> Remember Tobi'ah and Sanbal'lat, O my God, according to these things that they did, and also the prophetess No-adi'ah and the rest of the prophets who wanted to make me afraid.

good deeds in my presence, and reported my words to him. And Tobi'ah sent letters to make me afraid.

<sup>7</sup>:<sup>1</sup> Now when the wall had been built and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed, <sup>2</sup> I gave my brother Hana'ni and Hanani'ah the governor of the castle charge over Jerusalem, for he was a more faithful and God-fearing man than many. <sup>3</sup> And I said to them, "Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they are still standing guard let them shut and bar the doors. Appoint guards from among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each to his station and each opposite his own house." <sup>4</sup> The city was wide and large, but the people within it were few and no houses had been built.

<sup>5</sup> Then God put it into my mind to assemble the nobles and the officials and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written in it:

The number of the men of the people of Israel: <sup>8</sup> the sons of Parosh, two thousand a hundred and seventy-two. <sup>9</sup> The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two. <sup>10</sup> The sons of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two. <sup>11</sup> The sons of Pahath-mo'ab, namely the sons of Jeshua and Jo'ab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen. <sup>12</sup> The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. <sup>13</sup> The sons of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five. <sup>14</sup> The sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Bin'nui, six hundred and forty-eight. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two. <sup>18</sup> The sons of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-seven. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Bigvai, two thousand and sixty-seven. <sup>20</sup> The sons of Adin, six hundred and fifty-five. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Ater, namely of Hezekiah, ninety-eight. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Hashum, three hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-four. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Hariph, a hundred and twelve. <sup>25</sup> The sons of Gibeon, ninety-five. <sup>26</sup> The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, a hundred and eighty-eight. <sup>27</sup> The men of Anathoth, a hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>28</sup> The men of Beth-azmaveth, forty-two. <sup>29</sup> The men of Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three. <sup>30</sup> The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one. <sup>31</sup> The men of Michmas, a hundred and twenty-two. <sup>32</sup> The men of Bethel and Ai, a hundred and twenty-three. <sup>33</sup> The men of the other Nebo, fifty-two. <sup>34</sup> The sons of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. <sup>35</sup> The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty. <sup>36</sup> The sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five. <sup>37</sup> The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one. <sup>38</sup> The sons of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

they belonged to Israel: <sup>62</sup> the sons of Delai'ah, the sons of Tobai'ah, the sons of Neko'da, six hundred and forty-two. <sup>63</sup> Also, of the priests: the sons of Hobai'ah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzil'lai (who had taken a wife of the daughters of Barzil'lai the Gileadite and was called by their name). <sup>64</sup> These sought their registration among those enrolled in the genealogies, but it was not found there, so they were excluded from the priesthood as unclean; <sup>65</sup> the governor told them that they were not to partake of the most holy food, until a priest with Urim and Thummim should arise.

And when the seventh month had come, the children of Israel were in their towns. 8:1 And all the people gathered as one man into the square before the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the LORD had given to Israel. <sup>2</sup> And Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. <sup>3</sup> And he read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. <sup>4</sup> And Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden pulpit which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithi'ah, Shema, Anai'ah, Uri'ah, Hilki'ah, and Ma-asei'ah on his right hand; and Pedai'ah, Mish'a-el, Malchi'jah, Hashum, Hashbad'danah, Zechari'ah, and Meshull'am on his left hand. <sup>5</sup> And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people; and when he opened it all the people stood. <sup>6</sup> And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God; and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands; and they bowed their heads and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground. <sup>7</sup> Also Jesh'ua, Bani, Sherebi'ah, Jamin, Akkub, Shab'bethai, Hodi'ah, Ma-asei'ah, Keli'ta, Azari'ah, Jo'zabad, Hanan, Pelai'ah, the Levites, helped the people to understand the law, while the people remained in their places. <sup>8</sup> And they read from the book, from the law of God, clearly; and they gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

<sup>9</sup> And Nehemi'ah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. <sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength." <sup>11</sup> So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, "Be quiet, for this day is holy; do not be grieved." <sup>12</sup> And all the people went their way to eat and drink and to send portions and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

<sup>13</sup> On the second day the heads of fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and the Levites, came together to Ezra the scribe in order to study the words of the law. <sup>14</sup> And they found it written in the law that the LORD had commanded by Moses that the people of Israel should dwell in booths during the feast of the seventh month, <sup>15</sup> and that they should publish and proclaim in all their towns and in Jerusalem, "Go out to the hills and bring branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make booths, as it is written." <sup>16</sup> So the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each on his roof, and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at the Water Gate and in the square at the Gate of E'phraim. <sup>17</sup> And all the assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and dwelt in the booths; for from the days of Jeshua the son of Nun to that day the people of Israel had not done so. And there was very great rejoicing. <sup>18</sup> And day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read from the book of the law of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

<sup>16</sup> "But they and our fathers acted presumptuously and stiffened their neck and did not obey thy commandments; <sup>17</sup> they refused to obey, and were not mindful of the wonders which thou didst perform among them; but they stiffened their neck and appointed a leader to return to their bondage in Egypt. But thou art a God ready to forgive, gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and didst not forsake them. <sup>18</sup> Even when they had made for themselves a molten calf and said, 'This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,' and had committed great blasphemies, <sup>19</sup> thou in thy great mercies didst not forsake them in the wilderness; the pillar of cloud which led them in the way did not depart from them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night which lighted for them the way by which they should go. <sup>20</sup> Thou gavest thy good Spirit to instruct them, and didst not withhold thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. <sup>21</sup> Forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, and they lacked nothing; their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell. <sup>22</sup> And thou didst give them kingdoms and peoples, and didst allot to them every corner; so they took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the land of Og king of Bashan. <sup>23</sup> Thou didst multiply their descendants as the stars of heaven, and thou didst bring them into the land which thou hadst told their fathers to enter and possess. <sup>24</sup> So the descendants went in and possessed the land, and thou didst subdue before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and didst give them into their hands, with their kings and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they would. <sup>25</sup> And they captured fortified cities and a rich land, and took possession of houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards, olive orchards and fruit trees in abundance; so they ate, and were filled and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

of their enemies, who made them suffer; and in the time of their suffering they cried to thee and thou didst hear them from heaven; and according to thy great mercies thou didst give them saviours who saved them from the hand of their enemies. <sup>28</sup> But after they had rest they did evil again before thee, and thou didst abandon them to the hand of their enemies, so that they had dominion over them; yet when they turned and cried to thee thou didst hear from heaven, and many times thou didst deliver them according to thy mercies. <sup>29</sup> And thou didst warn them in order to turn them back to thy law. Yet they acted presumptuously and did not obey thy commandments, but sinned against thy ordinances, by the observance of which a man shall live, and turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck and would not obey. <sup>30</sup> Many years thou didst bear with them, and didst warn them by thy Spirit through thy prophets; yet they would not give ear. Therefore thou didst give them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. <sup>31</sup> Nevertheless in thy great mercies thou didst not make an end of them or forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

<sup>32</sup> "Now therefore, our God, the great and mighty and terrible God, who keepest covenant and steadfast love, let not all the hardship seem little to thee that has come upon us, upon our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, our fathers, and all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria until this day. <sup>33</sup> Yet thou hast been just in all that has come upon us, for thou hast dealt faithfully and we have acted wickedly; <sup>34</sup> our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers have not kept thy law or heeded thy commandments and thy warnings which thou didst give them. <sup>35</sup> They did not serve thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness which thou gavest them, and in the large and rich land which thou didst set before them; and they did not turn from their wicked works. <sup>36</sup> Behold, we are slaves this day; in the land that thou gavest to our fathers to enjoy its fruit and its good gifts, behold, we are slaves. <sup>37</sup> And its rich yield goes to the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins; they have power also over our bodies and over our cattle at their pleasure, and we are in great distress."

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all who have separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, their daughters, all who have knowledge and understanding, <sup>29</sup> join with their brethren, their nobles, and enter into a curse and an oath to walk in God's law which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord and his ordinances and his statutes. <sup>30</sup> We will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons; <sup>31</sup> and if the peoples of the land bring in wares or any grain on the sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the sabbath or on a holy day; and we will forego the crops of the seventh year and the exaction of every debt.

<sup>32</sup> We also lay upon ourselves the obligation to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God: <sup>33</sup> for the showbread, the continual cereal offering, the continual burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moons, the appointed feasts, the holy things, and the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. <sup>34</sup> We have likewise cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law. <sup>35</sup> We obligate ourselves to bring the first fruits of our ground and the first fruits of all fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of the LORD; <sup>36</sup> also to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God, the first-born of our sons and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks; <sup>37</sup> and to bring the first of our coarse meal, and our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the wine and the oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and to bring to the Levites the tithes from our ground, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all our rural towns. <sup>38</sup> And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive the tithes; and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers, to the storehouse. <sup>39</sup> For the people of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring the contribution of grain, wine, and oil to the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the gatekeepers and the singers. We will not neglect the house of our God.

11:<sup>1</sup> Now the leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem; and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to live in Jerusalem the holy city, while nine tenths remained in the other towns. <sup>2</sup> And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered to live in Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshul'lam, son of Jo'ed, son of Pedai'ah, son of Kolai'ah, son of Ma-asei'ah, son of I'thi-el, son of Jeshai'ah. <sup>8</sup> And after him Gabba'i, Salla'i, nine hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>9</sup> Jo'el the son of Zichri was their overseer; and Judah the son of Hassen'u-ah was second over the city.

<sup>10</sup> Of the priests: Jedai'ah the son of Joi'arib, Jachin, <sup>11</sup> Serai'ah the son of Hilki'ah, son of Meshul'lam, son of Zadok, son of Merai'oth, son of Ahi'tub, ruler of the house of God, <sup>12</sup> and their brethren who did the work of the house, eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adai'ah the son of Jero'ham, son of Pelali'ah, son of Amzi, son of Zechari'ah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchi'jah, <sup>13</sup> and his brethren, heads of fathers' houses, two hundred and forty-two; and Amash'sai, the son of Az'arel, son of Ah'zai, son of Meshil'lemoth, son of Immer, <sup>14</sup> and their brethren, mighty men of valour, a hundred and twenty-eight; their overseer was Zab'diel the son of Hagedo'lim.

<sup>25</sup> And as for the villages, with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kir'iath-ar'ba and its villages, and in Dibon and its villages, and in Jekab'zeel and its villages, <sup>26</sup> and in Jeshua and in Mola'dah and Beth-pelet, <sup>27</sup> in Ha'zar-shu'al, in Beer-sheba and its villages, <sup>28</sup> in Ziklag, in Meco'nah and its villages, <sup>29</sup> in En-rim'mon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth, <sup>30</sup> Zano'ah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, and Aze'kah and its villages. So they encamped from Beer-sheba to the valley of Hinnom. <sup>31</sup> The people of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash, Ai'ja, Bethel and its villages, <sup>32</sup> An'athoth, Nob, Anani'ah, <sup>33</sup> Hazor, Ramah, Git'taim, <sup>34</sup> Hadid, Zebo'im, Nebal'lat, <sup>35</sup> Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. <sup>36</sup> And certain divisions of the Levites in Judah were joined to Benjamin.

<sup>44</sup> On that day men were appointed over the chambers for the stores, the contributions, the first fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them the portions required by the law for the priests and for the Levites according to the fields of the towns; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and the Levites who ministered. <sup>45</sup> And they performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the command of David and his son Solomon. <sup>46</sup> For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and there were songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. <sup>47</sup> And all Israel in the days of Zerub'babel and in the days of Nehemi'ah gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers; and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aaron.

13:<sup>1</sup> On that day they read from the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God; <sup>2</sup> for they did not meet the children of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them-- yet our God turned the curse into a blessing. <sup>3</sup> When the people heard the law, they separated from Israel all those of foreign descent.

<sup>10</sup> I also found out that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled each to his field. <sup>11</sup> So I remonstrated with the officials and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them together and set them in their stations. <sup>12</sup> Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, wine, and oil into the storehouses. <sup>13</sup> And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouses Shelemi'ah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedai'ah of the Levites, and as their assistant Hanan the son of Zaccur, son of Mattani'ah, for they were counted faithful; and their duty was to distribute to their brethren. <sup>14</sup> Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for his service.

<sup>15</sup> In those days I saw in Judah men treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in heaps of grain and loading them on asses; and also wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day; and I warned them on the day when they sold food. <sup>16</sup> Men of Tyre also, who lived in the city, brought in fish and all kinds of wares and sold them on the sabbath to the people of Judah, and in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> Then I remonstrated with the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this evil thing which you are doing, profaning the sabbath day? <sup>18</sup> Did not your fathers act in this way, and did not our God bring all this evil on us and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath."

<sup>19</sup> When it began to be dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut and gave orders that they should not be opened until after the sabbath. And I set some of my servants over the gates, that no burden might be brought in on the sabbath day. <sup>20</sup> Then the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice. <sup>21</sup> But I warned them and said to them, "Why do you lodge before the wall? If you do so again I will lay hands on you." From that time on they did not come on the sabbath. <sup>22</sup> And I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves and come and guard the gates, to keep the sabbath day holy. Remember this also in my favour, O my God, and spare me according to the greatness of thy steadfast love.

<sup>23</sup> In those days also I saw the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab; <sup>24</sup> and half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and they could not speak the language of Judah, but the language of each people. <sup>25</sup> And I contended with them and cursed them and beat some of them and pulled out their hair; and I made them take oath in the name of God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, or take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves. <sup>26</sup> Did not Solomon king of Israel sin on account of such women? Among the many nations there was no king like him, and he was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel; nevertheless foreign women made even him to sin. <sup>27</sup> Shall we then listen to you and do all this great evil and act treacherously against our God by marrying foreign women?"

<sup>28</sup> And one of the sons of Jehoi'ada, the son of Eli'ashib the high priest, was the son-in-law of Sanbal'lat the Hor'onite; therefore I chased him from me. <sup>29</sup> Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

<sup>30</sup> Thus I cleansed them from everything foreign, and I established the duties of the priests and Levites, each in his work; <sup>31</sup> and I provided for the wood offering, at appointed times, and for the first fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good. <sup>32</sup> Thus I cleansed them from everything foreign, and I established the duties of the priest and Levites, each in his work; <sup>33</sup> and I provided for the wood offering, at appointed times, and for the first fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

The book of Esther

1: In the days of Ahasu-e'rus, the Ahasu-e'rus who reigned from India to Ethiopia over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, <sup>2</sup> in those days when King Ahasu-e'rus sat on his royal throne in Susa the capital, <sup>3</sup> in the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his princes and servants, the army chiefs of Persia and Media and the nobles and governors of the provinces being before him, <sup>4</sup> while he showed the riches of his royal glory and the splendour and pomp of his majesty for many days, a hundred and eighty days. <sup>5</sup> And when these days were completed, the king gave for all the people present in Susa the capital, both great and small, a banquet lasting for seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace. <sup>6</sup> There were white cotton curtains and blue hangings caught up with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars, and also couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and precious stones. <sup>7</sup> Drinks were served in golden goblets, goblets of different kinds, and the royal wine was lavished according to the bounty of the king. <sup>8</sup> And drinking was according to the law, no one was compelled<sup>1</sup>; for the king had given orders to all the officials of his palace to do as every man desired. <sup>9</sup> Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the palace which belonged to King Ahasu-e'rus.

<sup>13</sup> Then the king said to the wise men who knew the times-- for this was the king's procedure toward all who were versed in law and judgement, <sup>14</sup> the men next to him being Carshe'na, Shethar, Adma'tha, Tarshish, Meres, Marse'na, and Memu'can, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom--: <sup>15</sup> "According to the law, what is to be done to Queen Vashti, because she has not performed the command of King Ahasu-e'rus conveyed by the eunuchs?" <sup>16</sup> Then Memu'can said in presence of the king and the princes, "Not only to the king has Queen Vashti done wrong, but also to all the princes and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasu-e'rus. <sup>17</sup> For this deed of the queen will be made known to all women, causing them to look with contempt upon their husbands, since they will say, 'King Ahasu-e'rus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, and she did not come.' <sup>18</sup> This very day the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's behaviour will be telling it to all the king's princes, and there will be contempt and wrath in plenty. <sup>19</sup> If it please the king, let a royal order go forth from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes so that it may not be altered, that Vashti is to come no more before King Ahasu-e'rus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she. <sup>20</sup> So when the decree made by the king is proclaimed throughout all his kingdom, vast as it is, all women will give honour to their husbands, high and low." <sup>21</sup> This advice pleased the king and the princes, and the king did as Memu'can proposed; <sup>22</sup> he sent letters to all the royal provinces, to every province in its own script and to every people in its own language, that every man be lord in his own house and speak according to the language of his people.

2: After these things, when the anger of King Ahasu-e'rus had abated, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decreed against her. <sup>2</sup> Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought out for the king. <sup>3</sup> And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom to gather all the beautiful young virgins to the harem in Susa the capital, under custody of Hegai the king's eunuch who is in charge of the women; let their ointments be given them. <sup>4</sup> And let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." This pleased the king, and he did so.

Esther, the daughter of his uncle, for she had neither father nor mother; the maiden was beautiful and lovely, and when her father and her mother died, Mor'decai adopted her as his own daughter. <sup>8</sup> So when the king's order and his edict were proclaimed, and when many maidens were gathered in Susa the capital in custody of Hegai, Esther also was taken into the king's palace and put in custody of Hegai who had charge of the women. <sup>9</sup> And the maiden pleased him and won his favour; and he quickly provided her with her ointments and her portion of food, and with seven chosen maids from the king's palace, and advanced her and her maids to the best place in the harem. <sup>10</sup> Esther had not made known her people or kindred, for Mor'decai had charged her not to make it known. <sup>11</sup> And every day Mor'decai walked in front of the court of the harem, to learn how Esther was and how she fared.

<sup>15</sup> When the turn came for Esther the daughter of Ab'ihail the uncle of Mor'decai, who had adopted her as his own daughter, to go in to the king, she asked for nothing except what Hegai the king's eunuch, who had charge of the women, advised. Now Esther found favour in the eyes of all who saw her. <sup>16</sup> And when Esther was taken to King Ahasu-e'rus into his royal palace in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign, <sup>17</sup> the king loved Esther more than all the women, and she found grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins, so that he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti. <sup>18</sup> Then the king gave a great banquet to all his princes and servants; it was Esther's banquet. He also granted a remission of taxes to the provinces, and gave gifts with royal liberality.

3: After these things King Ahasu-e'rus promoted Haman the Ag'agite<sup>3</sup>, the son of Hammeda'tha, and advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. <sup>2</sup> And all the king's servants who were at the king's gate bowed down and did obeisance to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mor'decai did not bow down or do obeisance<sup>4</sup>. <sup>3</sup> Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mor'decai, "Why do you transgress the king's command?" <sup>4</sup> And when they spoke to him day after day and he would not listen to them, they told Haman, in order to see whether Mor'decai's words would avail; for he had told them that he was a Jew. <sup>5</sup> And when Haman saw that Mor'decai did not bow down or do obeisance to him, Haman was filled with fury. <sup>6</sup> But he disdained to lay hands on Mor'decai alone. So, as they had made known to him the people of Mor'decai, Haman sought to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mor'decai, throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasu-e'rus.

king's treasuries." <sup>10</sup> So the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman the Ag'agite, the son of Hammeda'tha, the enemy of the Jews. <sup>11</sup> And the king said to Haman, "The money is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you."

<sup>12</sup> Then the king's secretaries were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and an edict, according to all that Haman commanded, was written to the king's satraps and to the governors over all the provinces and to the princes of all the peoples, to every province in its own script and every people in its own language; it was written in the name of King Ahasu-e'rus and sealed with the king's ring. <sup>13</sup> Letters were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces, to destroy, to slay, and to annihilate all Jews, young and old, women and children, in one day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods. <sup>14</sup> A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province by proclamation to all the peoples to be ready for that day. <sup>15</sup> The couriers went in haste by order of the king, and the decree was issued in Susa the capital. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Susa was perplexed.

5:<sup>1</sup> On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, opposite the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne inside the palace opposite the entrance to the palace; <sup>2</sup> and when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she found favour in his sight and he held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. Then Esther approached and touched the top of the sceptre. <sup>3</sup> And the king said to her, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you, even to the half of my kingdom." <sup>4</sup> And Esther said, "If it please the king, let the king and Haman come this day to a dinner that I have prepared for the king." <sup>5</sup> Then said the king, "Bring Haman quickly, that we may do as Esther desires." So the king and Haman came to the dinner that Esther had prepared. <sup>6</sup> And as they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled." <sup>7</sup> But Esther said, "My petition and my request is: <sup>8</sup> If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition and fulfil my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the dinner which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said."

6:<sup>1</sup> On that night the king could not sleep; and he gave orders to bring the book of memorable deeds, the chronicles, and they were read before the king. <sup>2</sup> And it was found written how Mor'decai had told about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who guarded the threshold, and who had sought to lay hands upon King Ahasu-e'rus. <sup>3</sup> And the king said, "What honour or dignity has been bestowed on Mor'decai for this?" The king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him." <sup>4</sup> And the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to speak to the king about having Mor'decai hanged on the gallows that he had prepared for him. <sup>5</sup> So the king's servants told him, "Haman is there, standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in." <sup>6</sup> So Haman came in, and the king said to him, "What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honour?" And Haman said to himself, "Whom would the king delight to honour more than me?" <sup>7</sup> and Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honour, <sup>8</sup> let royal robes be brought, which the king has worn, and the horse which the king has ridden, and on whose head a royal crown is set; <sup>9</sup> and let the robes and the horse be handed over to one of the king's most noble princes; let him array the man whom the king delights to honour, and let him conduct the man on horseback through the open square of the city, proclaiming before him: `Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honour.'" <sup>10</sup> Then the king said to Haman, "Make haste, take the robes and the horse, as you have said, and do so to Mor'decai the Jew who sits at the king's gate. Leave out nothing that you have mentioned." <sup>11</sup> So Haman took the robes and the horse, and he arrayed Mor'decai and made him ride through the open square of the city, proclaiming, "Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honour."

7:<sup>1</sup> So the king and Haman went in to feast with Queen Esther. <sup>2</sup> And on the second day, as they were drinking wine, the king again said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled." <sup>3</sup> Then Queen Esther answered, "If I have found favour in your sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. <sup>4</sup> For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to be annihilated. If we had been sold merely as slaves, men and women, I would have held my peace; for our affliction is not to be compared with the loss to the king." <sup>5</sup> Then King Ahasu-e'rus said to Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, that would presume to do this?" <sup>6</sup> And Esther said, "A foe and enemy! This wicked Haman!" Then Haman was in terror before the king and the queen. <sup>7</sup> And the king rose from the feast in wrath and went into the palace garden; but Haman stayed to beg his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king. <sup>8</sup> And the king returned from the palace garden to the place where they were drinking wine, as Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was; and the king said, "Will he even assault the queen in my presence, in my own house?" As the words left the mouth of the king, they covered Haman's face. <sup>9</sup> Then said Harbo'na, one of the eunuchs in attendance on the king, "Moreover, the gallows which Haman has prepared for Mor'decai, whose word saved the king, is standing in Haman's house, fifty cubits high." <sup>10</sup> And the king said, "Hang him on that." So they hanged Haman on the gallows which he had prepared for Mor'decai. Then the anger of the king abated.

<sup>9</sup> The king's secretaries were summoned at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and an edict was written according to all that Mor'decai commanded concerning the Jews to the satraps and the governors and the princes of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to every province in its own script and to every people in its own language, and also to the Jews in their script and their language. <sup>10</sup> The writing was in the name of King Ahasu-e'rus and sealed with the king's ring, and letters were sent by mounted couriers riding on swift horses that were used in the king's service, bred from the royal stud. <sup>11</sup> By these the king allowed the Jews who were in every city to gather and defend their lives, to destroy, to slay, and to annihilate any armed force of any people or province that might attack them, with their children and women, and to plunder their goods, <sup>12</sup> upon one day throughout all the provinces of King Ahasu-e'rus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar. <sup>13</sup> A copy of what was written was to be issued as a decree in every province, and by proclamation to all peoples, and the Jews were to be ready on that day to avenge themselves upon their enemies. <sup>14</sup> So the couriers, mounted on their swift horses that were used in the king's service, rode out in haste, urged by the king's command; and the decree was issued in Susa the capital.

9:<sup>1</sup> Now in the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's command and edict were about to be executed, on the very day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to get the mastery over them, but which had been changed to a day when the Jews should get the mastery over their foes,<sup>2</sup> the Jews gathered in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasu-e'rus to lay hands on such as sought their hurt. And no one could make a stand against them, for the fear of them had fallen upon all peoples. <sup>3</sup> All the princes of the provinces and the satraps and the governors and the royal officials also helped the Jews, for the fear of Mor'decai had fallen upon them. <sup>4</sup> For Mor'decai was great in the king's house, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for the man Mor'decai grew more and more powerful. <sup>5</sup> So the Jews smote all their enemies with the sword, slaughtering, and destroying them, and did as they pleased to those who hated them. <sup>6</sup> In Susa the capital itself the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men, <sup>7</sup> and also slew Par-shan-da'tha and Dalphon and Aspa'tha <sup>8</sup> and Pora'tha and Ada'lia and Arida'tha <sup>9</sup> and Parmash'ta and Ar'isai and Ar'idai and Vaiza'tha, <sup>10</sup> the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammeda'tha, the enemy of the Jews; but they laid no hand on the plunder.

<sup>11</sup> That very day the number of those slain in Susa the capital was reported to the king. <sup>12</sup> And the king said to Queen Esther, "In Susa the capital the Jews have slain five hundred men and also the ten sons of Haman. What then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. And what further is your request? It shall be fulfilled." <sup>13</sup> And Esther said, "If it please the king, let the Jews who are in Susa be allowed tomorrow also to do according to this day's edict. And let the ten sons of Haman be hanged on the gallows." <sup>14</sup> So the king commanded this to be done; a decree was issued in Susa, and the ten sons of Haman were hanged. <sup>15</sup> The Jews who were in Susa gathered also on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and they slew three hundred men in Susa; but they laid no hands on the plunder.

<sup>20</sup> And Mor'decai recorded these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasu-e'rus, both near and far, <sup>21</sup> enjoining them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and also the fifteenth day of the same, year by year, <sup>22</sup> as the days on which the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month that had been turned for them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, days for sending choice portions to one another and gifts to the poor. <sup>23</sup> So the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mor'decai had written to them. <sup>24</sup> For Haman the Ag'agite, the son of Hammeda'tha, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is the lot, to crush and destroy them; <sup>25</sup> but when Esther came before the king, he gave orders in writing that his wicked plot which he had devised against the Jews should come upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. <sup>26</sup> Therefore they called these days Purim, after the term Pur. And therefore, because of all that was written in this letter, and of what they had faced in this matter, and of what had befallen them, <sup>27</sup> the Jews ordained and took it upon themselves and their descendants and all who joined them, that without fail they would keep these two days according to what was written and at the time appointed every year, <sup>28</sup> that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, in every family, province, and city, and that these days of Purim should never fall into disuse among the Jews, nor should the commemoration of these days cease among their descendants.

10: King Ahasu-e'rus laid tribute on the land and on the coastlands of the sea. <sup>2</sup> And all the acts of his power and might, and the full account of the high honour of Mor'decai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? <sup>3</sup> For Mor'decai the Jew was next in rank to King Ahasu-e'rus, and he was great among the Jews and popular with the multitude of his brethren, for he sought the welfare of his people and spoke peace to all his people.

The book of Job

1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was blameless and upright, one who feared God, and turned away from evil. 2 There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. 3 He had seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and very many servants; so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the east. 4 His sons used to go and hold a feast in the house of each on his day; and they would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. 5 And when the days of the feast had run their course, Job would send and sanctify them, and he would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts<sup>1</sup>." Thus Job did continually.

6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them. 7 The LORD said to Satan, "Whence have you come?" Satan answered the LORD, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it." 8 And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered<sup>2</sup> my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil?" 9 Then Satan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nought? 10 Hast thou not put a hedge about him and his house and all that he has, on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. 11 But put forth thy hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse thee to thy face." 12 And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power<sup>3</sup>; only upon himself do not put forth your hand." So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 Now there was a day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house; 14 and there came a messenger to Job, and said, "The oxen were ploughing and the asses feeding beside them; 15 and the Sabe'ans fell upon them and took them, and slew the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you." 16 While he was yet speaking, there came another, and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I alone have escaped to tell you." 17 While he was yet speaking, there came another, and said, "The Chalde'ans formed three companies, and made a raid upon the camels and took them, and slew the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you." 18 While he was yet speaking, there came another, and said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house; 19 and behold, a great wind came across the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

20 Then Job arose, and rent his robe, and shaved his head, and fell upon the ground, and worshipped. 21 And he said, "Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return; the LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD."

2:1 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD. 2 And the LORD said to Satan, "Whence have you come?" Satan answered the LORD, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it." 3 And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil? He still holds fast his integrity, although you moved me against him, to destroy him without cause." 4 Then Satan answered the LORD, "Skin for skin! All that a man has he will give for his life. 5 But put forth thy hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face." 6 And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your power; only spare his life."

7 So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD, and afflicted Job with loathsome sores from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 And he took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes.

<sup>10</sup> But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

<sup>11</sup> Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, they came each from his own place, Eli'phaz the Te'manite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Na'amathite. They made an appointment together to come to condole with him and comfort him. <sup>12</sup> And when they saw him from afar, they did not recognise him; and they raised their voices and wept; and they rent their robes and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven. <sup>13</sup> And they sat with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was very great.

and the night which said, 'man-child is conceived.'

Let clouds dwell upon it;

let the blackness of the day terrify it.

let it not rejoice among the days of the year,

let it not come into the number of the months.

<sup>7</sup> Yea, let that night be barren;

let no joyful cry be heard in it.

<sup>8</sup> Let those curse it who curse the day,

who are skilled to rouse up Levi'athan.

<sup>9</sup> Let the stars of its dawn be dark;

let it hope for light,

but have none, nor see the eyelids of the morning;

<sup>10</sup> because it did not shut the doors of my mother's womb,

come forth from the womb and expire?

<sup>12</sup> Why did the knees receive me?

Or why the breasts, that I should suck?

<sup>13</sup> For then I should have lain down and been quiet;

I should have slept; then I should have been at rest,

<sup>14</sup> with kings and counsellors of the earth

<sup>15</sup> or with princes who had gold,

who filled their houses with silver.

as infants that never see the light?

<sup>17</sup> There the wicked cease from troubling,
and there the weary are at rest.

they hear not the voice of the taskmaster.

and the slave is free from his master.

<sup>20</sup> "Why is light given to him that is in misery,
and life to the bitter in soul,

<sup>21</sup> who long for death, but it comes not,

and dig for it more than for hid treasures;

<sup>22</sup> who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad,

whom God has hedged in?
24 For my sighing comes as my bread,
and my groanings are poured out like water.
25 For the thing that I fear<sup>6</sup> comes upon me,
and what I dread befalls me.
26 I am not at ease, nor am I quiet;
I have no rest; but trouble comes."

4:1 Then Eli'phaz the Te'manite answered:

2 "If one ventures a word with you, will you be offended?
Yet who can keep from speaking?
3 Behold, you have instructed many,
and you have strengthened the weak hands.
4 Your words have upheld him who was stumbling,
and you have made firm the feeble knees.
5 But now it has come to you, and you are impatient;
it touches you, and you are dismayed.
6 Is not your fear of God your confidence,
and the integrity of your ways your hope?

7 "Think now, who that was innocent ever perished?
Or where were the upright cut off
8 As I have seen,
those who plough iniquity and sow trouble reap the same.
9 By the breath of God they perish,
and by the blast of his anger they are consumed.
10 The roar of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion,
the teeth of the young lions, are broken.
11 The strong lion perishes for lack of prey,
and the whelps of the lioness are scattered.

12 "Now a word was brought to me stealthily,
my ear received the whisper of it.
13 Amid thoughts from visions of the night,
when deep sleep falls on men, 14 dread came upon me, and trembling,
which made all my bones shake.
15 A spirit glided past my face;
the hair of my flesh stood up.
16 It stood still, but I could not discern its appearance.
A form was before my eyes; there was silence,
then I heard a voice:
17 `Can mortal man be righteous before God?
Can a man be pure before his Maker?
18 Even in his servants he puts no trust,
and his angels he charges with error;
19 how much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth.
20 Between morning and evening they are destroyed;
they perish for ever without any regarding it.
21 If their tent-cord is plucked up within them,
do they not die, and that without wisdom?'

5:1 "Call now; is there any one who will answer you?

To which of the holy ones will you turn?
2 Surely vexation kills the fool,
and jealousy slays the simple.
3 I have seen the fool taking root,

<sup>6</sup>Job's knowledge of God is based on fear (Job 1:6). As fear is a form of faith, he receives what he fears but suddenly I cursed his dwelling.

4 His sons are far from safety,
they are crushed in the gate, and there is no one to deliver them.
5 His harvest the hungry eat, and he takes it even out of thorns; and the thirsty pant after his wealth.
6 For affliction does not come from the dust,
nor does trouble sprout from the ground;
7 but man is born to trouble as the sparks fly upward.

8 "As for me, I would seek God,
and to God would I commit my cause; 9 who does great things and unsearchable, marvellous things without number:
10 he gives rain upon the earth and sends waters upon the fields; 11 he sets on high those who are lowly,
and those who mourn are lifted to safety.
12 He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
so that their hands achieve no success.
13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness;
and the schemes of the wily are brought to a quick end.
14 They meet with darkness in the daytime,
and grope at noonday as in the night.
15 But he saves the fatherless from their mouth,
the needy from the hand of the mighty.
16 So the poor have hope,
and injustice shuts her mouth.

17 "Behold, happy is the man whom God reproves;
therefore despise not the chastening of the Almighty.
18 For he wounds, but he binds up;
he smites, but his hands heal.
19 He will deliver you from six troubles;
in seven there shall no evil touch you.
20 In famine he will redeem you from death,
and in war from the power of the sword.
21 You shall be hid from the scourge of the tongue,
and shall not fear destruction when it comes.
22 At destruction and famine you shall laugh,
and shall not fear the beasts of the earth.
23 For you shall be in league with the stones of the field, and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.
24 You shall know that your tent is safe,
and you shall inspect your fold and miss nothing.
25 You shall know also that your descendants shall be many,
and your offspring as the grass of the earth.
26 You shall come to your grave in ripe old age,
as a shock of grain comes up to the threshing floor in its season.
27 Lo, this we have searched out; it is true.
Hear, and know it for your good."

6:1 Then Job answered:

2 "O that my vexation were weighed,
and all my calamity laid in the balances!
3 For then it would be heavier than the sand of the sea;
therefore my words have been rash.
4 For the arrows of the Almighty are in me;
my spirit drinks their poison;
the terrors of God are arrayed against me.
5 Does the wild ass bray when he has grass,

or the ox low over his fodder?
6 Can that which is tasteless be eaten without salt,
or is there any taste in the slime of the purslane?
7 My appetite refuses to touch them;
they are as food that is loathsome to me.

8 "O that I might have my request,
and that God would grant my desire;
9 that it would please God to crush me,
that he would let loose his hand and cut me off!
10 This would be my consolation;
I would even exult in pain unsparing;
for I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
11 What is my strength, that I should wait?
And what is my end, that I should be patient?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones,
or is my flesh bronze?
13 In truth I have no help in me,
and any resource is driven from me.

14 "He who withholds kindness from a friend
forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
15 My brethren are treacherous as a torrent-bed,
as freshets that pass away, 16 which are dark with ice,
and where the snow hides itself.
17 In time of heat they disappear;
when it is hot, they vanish from their place.
18 The caravans turn aside from their course;
they go up into the waste, and perish.
19 The caravans of Tema look,
the travellers of Sheba hope.
20 They are disappointed because they were confident;
they come thither and are confounded.
21 Such you have now become to me;
you see my calamity, and are afraid.
22 Have I said, 'Make me a gift'?
Or, 'From your wealth offer a bribe for me'?
23 Or, 'Deliver me from the adversary's hand'?
Or, 'Ransom me from the hand of oppressors'?

24 "Teach me, and I will be silent;
make me understand how I have erred.
25 How forceful are honest words!
But what does reproof from you reprove?
26 Do you think that you can reprove words,
when the speech of a despairing man is wind?
27 You would even cast lots over the fatherless,
and bargain over your friend.

28 "But now, be pleased to look at me;
for I will not lie to your face.
29 Turn, I pray, let no wrong be done.
Turn now, my vindication is at stake.
30 Is there any wrong on my tongue?
Cannot my taste discern calamity?

7:1 "Has not man a hard service upon earth,
and are not his days like the days of a hireling?
2 Like a slave who longs for the shadow,

and like a hireling who looks for his wages, 3 so I am allotted months of emptiness,
and nights of misery are apportioned to me.
4 When I lie down I say, `When shall I arise?'
But the night is long, and I am full of tossing till the dawn.
5 My flesh is clothed with worms and dirt;
my skin hardens, then breaks out afresh.
6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
and come to their end without hope.

7 "Remember that my life is a breath;
my eye will never again see good.
8 The eye of him who sees me will behold me no more;
while thy eyes are upon me, I shall be gone.
9 As the cloud fades and vanishes,
so he who goes down to Sheol does not come up; 10 he returns no more to his house,
nor does his place know him any more.

11 "Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12 Am I the sea, or a sea monster,
that thou settest a guard over me?
13 When I say, `My bed will comfort me,
my couch will ease my complaint,' 14 then thou dost scare me with dreams and terrify me with visions, 15 so that I would choose strangling
and death rather than my bones.
16 I loathe my life; I would not live for ever.
Let me alone, for my days are a breath.
17 What is man, that thou dost make so much of him,
and that thou dost set thy mind upon him, 18 dost visit him every morning,
and test him every moment?
19 How long wilt thou not look away from me,
nor let me alone till I swallow my spittle?
20 If I sin, what do I do to thee, thou watcher of men?
Why hast thou made me thy mark?
Why have I become a burden to thee?
21 Why dost thou not pardon my transgression
and take away my iniquity?
For now I shall lie in the earth;
thou wilt seek me, but I shall not be."

8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:

2 "How long will you say these things,
and the words of your mouth be a great wind?
3 Does God pervert justice?
Or does the Almighty pervert the right?
4 If your children have sinned against him,
he has delivered them into the power of their transgression.
5 If you will seek God and make supplication to the Almighty, 6 if you are pure and upright,
surely then he will rouse himself for you
and reward you with a rightful habitation.
7 And though your beginning was small,
your latter days will be very great.

8 "For inquire, I pray you, of bygone ages,
and consider what the fathers have found;
9 for we are but of yesterday, and know nothing,
for our days on earth are a shadow.
10 Will they not teach you, and tell you,
and utter words out of their understanding?

11 "Can papyrus grow where there is no marsh?
Can reeds flourish where there is no water?
12 While yet in flower and not cut down,
they wither before any other plant.
13 Such are the paths of all who forget God;
the hope of the godless man shall perish.
14 His confidence breaks in sunder,
and his trust is a spider's web.
15 He leans against his house,
but it does not stand;
he lays hold of it, but it does not endure.
16 He thrives before the sun,
and his shoots spread over his garden.
17 His roots twine about the stoneheap;
he lives among the rocks.
18 If he is destroyed from his place,
then it will deny him, saying, 'I have never seen you.'
19 Behold, this is the joy of his way;
and out of the earth others will spring.

20 "Behold, God will not reject a blameless man,
nor take the hand of evildoers.
21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter,
and your lips with shouting.
22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame,
and the tent of the wicked will be no more."

9:1 Then Job answered:

2 "Truly I know that it is so:
But how can a man be just before God?
3 If one wished to contend with him,
one could not answer him once in a thousand times.
4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength who has hardened himself against him, and succeeded?-- 5 he who removes mountains, and they know it not,
when he overturns them in his anger;
6 who shakes the earth out of its place,
and its pillars tremble;
7 who commands the sun, and it does not rise;
who seals up the stars;
8 who alone stretched out the heavens,
and trampled the waves of the sea;
9 who made the Bear and Orion,
the Pleiades and the chambers of the south;
10 who does great things beyond understanding,
and marvellous things without number.
11 Lo, he passes by me, and I see him not;
he moves on, but I do not perceive him.
12 Behold, he snatches away; who can hinder him?
Who will say to him, 'What doest thou'?

13 "God will not turn back his anger;
beneath him bowed the helpers of Rahab.

14 How then can I answer him,
choosing my words with him?
15 Though I am innocent, I cannot answer him;
I must appeal for mercy to my accuser.
16 If I summoned him and he answered me,
I would not believe that he was listening to my voice.
17 For he crushes me with a tempest,
and multiplies my wounds without cause; 18 he will not let me get my breath,
but fills me with bitterness.
19 If it is a contest of strength, behold him!
If it is a matter of justice, who can summon him?
20 Though I am innocent, my own mouth would condemn me;
though I am blameless, he would prove me perverse.
21 I am blameless; I regard not myself;
I loathe my life.
22 It is all one;
therefore I say, he destroys both the blameless and the wicked.
23 When disaster brings sudden death,
he mocks at the calamity of the innocent.
24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked;
he covers the faces of its judges--
if it is not he, who then is it?

25 "My days are swifter than a runner;
they flee away, they see no good.
26 They go by like skiffs of reed,
like an eagle swooping on the prey.
27 If I say,
'I will forget my complaint,
I will put off my sad countenance, and be of good cheer,' 28 I become afraid of all my suffering, for I know thou wilt not hold me innocent.
29 I shall be condemned; why then do I labour in vain?
30 If I wash myself with snow, and cleanse my hands with lye, 31 yet thou wilt plunge me into a pit,
and my own clothes will abhor me.
32 For he is not a man, as I am,
that I might answer him, that we should come to trial together.
33 There is no umpire between us,
who might lay his hand upon us both.
34 Let him take his rod away from me,
and let not dread of him terrify me.
35 Then I would speak without fear of him,
for I am not so in myself.

10:<sub>1</sub> "I loathe my life;
I will give free utterance to my complaint;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say to God, Do not condemn me;
let me know why thou dost contend against me.
3 Does it seem good to thee to oppress, to despise the work of thy hands
and favour the designs of the wicked?
4 Hast thou eyes of flesh?
Dost thou see as man sees?
5 Are thy days as the days of man,
or thy years as man's years,
6 that thou dost seek out my iniquity
and search for my sin,

7 although thou knowest that I am not guilty,
and there is none to deliver out of thy hand?
8 Thy hands fashioned and made me;
and now thou dost turn about and destroy me.
9 Remember that thou hast made me of clay;
and wilt thou turn me to dust again?
10 Didst thou not pour me out like milk
and curdle me like cheese?
11 Thou didst clothe me with skin and flesh,
and knit me together with bones and sinews.
12 Thou hast granted me life and steadfast love;
and thy care has preserved my spirit.
13 Yet these things thou didst hide in thy heart;
I know that this was thy purpose.
14 If I sin, thou dost mark me,
and dost not acquit me of my iniquity.
15 If I am wicked, woe to me!
If I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head,
for I am filled with disgrace and look upon my affliction.
16 And if I lift myself up,
thou dost hunt me like a lion,
and again work wonders against me;
17 thou dost renew thy witnesses against me,
and increase thy vexation toward me;
thou dost bring fresh hosts against me.

18 "Why didst thou bring me forth from the womb?
Would that I had died before any eye had seen me, 19 and were as though I had not been,
carried from the womb to the grave.
20 Are not the days of my life few?
Let me alone, that I may find a little comfort 21 before I go whence I shall not return, to the land of gloom and deep darkness, 22 the land of gloom and chaos,
where light is as darkness."

11: Then Zophar the Na'amathite answered:

2 "Should a multitude of words go unanswered,
and a man full of talk be vindicated?
3 Should your babble silence men,
and when you mock, shall no one shame you?
4 For you say, 'My doctrine is pure,
and I am clean in God's eyes.'
5 But oh, that God would speak,
and open his lips to you,
6 and that he would tell you the secrets of wisdom!
For he is manifold in understanding.
Know then that God exacts of you less than your guilt deserves.

7 "Can you find out the deep things of God?
Can you find out the limit of the Almighty?"

8 It is higher than heaven what can you do?
Deeper than Sheol-- what can you know?
9 Its measure is longer than the earth,
and broader than the sea.
10 If he passes through, and imprisons,
and calls to judgement, who can hinder him?
11 For he knows worthless men;
when he sees iniquity, will he not consider it?

<sup>12</sup> But a stupid man will get understanding,
when a wild ass's colt is born a man.

<sup>13</sup> "If you set your heart aright,
you will stretch out your hands toward him.
<sup>14</sup> If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away,
and let not wickedness dwell in your tents.
<sup>15</sup> Surely then you will lift up your face without blemish;
you will be secure, and will not fear.
<sup>16</sup> You will forget your misery;
you will remember it as waters that have passed away.
<sup>17</sup> And your life will be brighter than the noonday;
its darkness will be like the morning.
<sup>18</sup> And you will have confidence, because there is hope;
you will be protected and take your rest in safety.
<sup>19</sup> You will lie down, and none will make you afraid;
many will entreat your favour.
<sup>20</sup> But the eyes of the wicked will fail;
all way of escape will be lost to them,
and their hope is to breathe their last."

12: Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> "No doubt you are the people,
and wisdom will die with you.
<sup>3</sup> But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Who does not know such things as these?
<sup>4</sup> I am a laughingstock to my friends;
I, who called upon God and he answered me,
a just and blameless man, am a laughingstock.
<sup>5</sup> In the thought of one who is at ease
there is contempt for misfortune;
it is ready for those whose feet slip.
<sup>6</sup> The tents of robbers are at peace,
and those who provoke God are secure,
who bring their god in their hand.

<sup>7</sup> "But ask the beasts, and they will teach you;
the birds of the air, and they will tell you;
<sup>8</sup> or the plants of the earth, and they will teach you;
and the fish of the sea will declare to you.
<sup>9</sup> Who among all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?
<sup>10</sup> In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of all mankind.
<sup>11</sup> Does not the ear try words as the palate tastes food?
<sup>12</sup> Wisdom is with the aged,
and understanding in length of days.

he has counsel and understanding.
<sup>14</sup> If he tears down, none can rebuild;
if he shuts a man in, none can open.
<sup>15</sup> If he withholds the waters, they dry up;
if he sends them out, they overwhelm the land.
<sup>16</sup> With him are strength and wisdom;
the deceived and the deceiver are his.
<sup>17</sup> He leads counsellors away stripped,
and judges he makes fools.
<sup>18</sup> He looses the bonds of kings,

and binds a waistcloth on their loins.
19 He leads priests away stripped,
and overthrows the mighty.
20 He deprives of speech those who are trusted,
and takes away the discernment of the elders.
21 He pours contempt on princes,
and looses the belt of the strong.
22 He uncovers the deeps out of darkness,
and brings deep darkness to light.
23 He makes nations great, and he destroys them:
he enlarges nations, and leads them away.
24 He takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth, and makes them wander in a pathless waste.
25 They grope in the dark without light;
and he makes them stagger like a drunken man.

13:1 "Lo, my eye has seen all this,
my ear has heard and understood it.
2 What you know, I also know;
I am not inferior to you.
3 But I would speak to the Almighty,
and I desire to argue my case with God.
4 As for you, you whitewash with lies;
worthless physicians are you all.
5 Oh that you would keep silent,
and it would be your wisdom!
6 Hear now my reasoning,
and listen to the pleadings of my lips.
7 Will you speak falsely for God,
and speak deceitfully for him?
8 Will you show partiality toward him,
will you plead the case for God?
9 Will it be well with you when he searches you out?
Or can you deceive him, as one deceives a man?
10 He will surely rebuke you if in secret you show partiality.
11 Will not his majesty terrify you,
and the dread of him fall upon you?
12 Your maxims are proverbs of ashes,
your defences are defences of clay.

13 "Let me have silence, and I will speak,
and let come on me what may.
14 I will take my flesh in my teeth,
and put my life in my hand.
15 Behold, he will slay me; I have no hope;
yet I will defend my ways to his face.
16 This will be my salvation,
that a godless man shall not come before him.
17 Listen carefully to my words,
and let my declaration be in your ears.
18 Behold, I have prepared my case;
I know that I shall be vindicated.
19 Who is there that will contend with me?
For then I would be silent and die.
20 Only grant two things to me,
then I will not hide myself from thy face:
21 withdraw thy hand far from me,
and let not dread of thee terrify me.
22 Then call, and I will answer;

or let me speak, and do thou reply to me.
23 How many are my iniquities and my sins?
Make me know my transgression and my sin.
24 Why dost thou hide thy face,
and count me as thy enemy?
25 Wilt thou frighten a driven leaf and pursue dry chaff 26 For thou writest bitter things against me,
and makest me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
27 Thou puttest my feet in the stocks, and watchest all my paths;
thou settest a bound to the soles of my feet.
28 Man wastes away like a rotten thing,
like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14: "Man that is born of a woman is of few days,
and full of trouble.

2 He comes forth like a flower, and withers;
he flees like a shadow, and continues not.
3 And dost thou open thy eyes upon such a one
and bring him into judgement with thee?
4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
There is not one.
5 Since his days are determined,
and the number of his months is with thee,
and thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass, 6 look away from him,
and desist, that he may enjoy, like a hireling, his day.

7 "For there is hope for a tree, if it be cut down,
that it will sprout again, and that its shoots will not cease.
8 Though its root grow old in the earth,
and its stump die in the ground, 9 yet at the scent of water it will bud
and put forth branches like a young plant.
10 But man dies, and is laid low;
man breathes his last, and where is he?
11 As waters fail from a lake,
and a river wastes away and dries up, 12 so man lies down and rises not again;
till the heavens are no more he will not awake,
or be roused out of his sleep.
13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in Sheol,
that thou wouldest conceal me until thy wrath be past,
that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!
14 If a man die, shall he live again?
All the days of my service I would wait,
till my release should come.
15 Thou wouldest call, and I would answer thee;
thou wouldest long for the work of thy hands.
16 For then thou wouldest number my steps,
thou wouldest not keep watch over my sin;
17 my transgression would be sealed up in a bag,
and thou wouldest cover over my iniquity.

18 "But the mountain falls and crumbles away,
and the rock is removed from its place;
19 the waters wear away the stones;
the torrents wash away the soil of the earth;
so thou destroyest the hope of man.
20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passes;

thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.
21 His sons come to honour, and he does not know it;
they are brought low, and he perceives it not.
22 He feels only the pain of his own body,
and he mourns only for himself."

15: Then Eli'phaz the Te'manite answered:

2 "Should a wise man answer with windy knowledge,
and fill himself with the east wind?
3 Should he argue in unprofitable talk,
or in words with which he can do no good?
4 But you are doing away with the fear of God,
and hindering meditation before God.
5 For your iniquity teaches your mouth,
and you choose the tongue of the crafty.
6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;
your own lips testify against you.

7 "Are you the first man that was born?
Or were you brought forth before the hills?
8 Have you listened in the council of God?
And do you limit wisdom to yourself
9 What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand that is not clear to us?
10 Both the grey-haired and the aged are among us,
older than your father.
11 Are the consolations of God too small for you,
or the word that deals gently with you?
12 Why does your heart carry you away,
and why do your eyes flash, 13 that you turn your spirit against God,
and let such words go out of your mouth?
14 What is man, that he can be clean?
Or he that is born of a woman, that he can be righteous?
15 Behold, God puts no trust in his holy ones,
and the heavens are not clean in his sight;
16 how much less one who is abominable and corrupt,
a man who drinks iniquity like water!

17 "I will show you, hear me;
and what I have seen I will declare 18 (what wise men have told,
and their fathers have not hidden, 19 to whom alone the land was given,
and no stranger passed among them).
20 The wicked man writhes in pain all his days, through all the years that are laid up for the ruthless.
21 Terrifying sounds are in his ears;
in prosperity the destroyer will come upon him.
22 He does not believe that he will return out of darkness, and he is destined for the sword.
23 He wanders abroad for bread, saying, 'Where is it?'
He knows that a day of darkness is ready at his hand;
24 distress and anguish terrify him;
they prevail against him, like a king prepared for battle.
25 Because he has stretched forth his hand against God,
and bids defiance to the Almighty,
26 running stubbornly against him with a thick-bossed shield;
27 because he has covered his face with his fat,
and gathered fat upon his loins,

28 and has lived in desolate cities,
in houses which no man should inhabit,
which were destined to become heaps of ruins;
29 he will not be rich, and his wealth will not endure,
nor will he strike root in the earth;
30 he will not escape from darkness;
the flame will dry up his shoots,
and his blossom will be swept away by the wind.
31 Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself;
for emptiness will be his recompense.
32 It will be paid in full before his time,
and his branch will not be green.
33 He will shake off his unripe grape, like the vine,
and cast off his blossom, like the olive tree.
34 For the company of the godless is barren,
and fire consumes the tents of bribery.
35 They conceive mischief and bring forth evil
and their heart prepares deceit."

16: Then Job answered:

2 "I have heard many such things;
miserable comforters are you all.
3 Shall windy words have an end?
Or what provokes you that you answer?
4 I also could speak as you do, if you were in my place;
I could join words together against you, and shake my head at you.
5 I could strengthen you with my mouth,
and the solace of my lips would assuage your pain.

6 "If I speak, my pain is not assuaged,
and if I forbear, how much of it leaves me?
7 Surely now God has worn me out;
he has made desolate all my company.
8 And he has shrivelled me up, which is a witness against me;
and my leanness has risen up against me, it testifies to my face.
9 He has torn me in his wrath, and hated me;
he has gnashed his teeth at me;
my adversary sharpens his eyes against me.
10 Men have gaped at me with their mouth,
they have struck me insolently upon the cheek,
they mass themselves together against me.
11 God gives me up to the ungodly,
and casts me into the hands of the wicked.
12 I was at ease, and he broke me asunder;
he seized me by the neck and dashed me to pieces;
he set me up as his target,
13 his archers surround me.
He slashes open my kidneys, and does not spare;
he pours out my gall on the ground.
14 He breaks me with breach upon breach;
he runs upon me like a warrior.
15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin,
and have laid my strength in the dust.
16 My face is red with weeping,
and on my eyelids is deep darkness;
17 although there is no violence in my hands,
and my prayer is pure.

18 "O earth, cover not my blood,
and let my cry find no resting place.

19 Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven,
and he that vouches for me is on high.
20 My friends scorn me; my eye pours out tears to God, 21 that he would maintain the right of a man with God,
like that of a man with his neighbour.
22 For when a few years have come
I shall go the way whence I shall not return.
17: My spirit is broken, my days are extinct,
the grave is ready for me.
2 Surely there are mockers about me,
and my eye dwells on their provocation.

3 "Lay down a pledge for me with thyself;
who is there that will give surety for me?
4 Since thou hast closed their minds to understanding,
therefore thou wilt not let them triumph.
5 He who informs against his friends to get a share of their property,
the eyes of his children will fail.

6 "He has made me a byword of the peoples,
and I am one before whom men spit.
7 My eye has grown dim from grief,
and all my members are like a shadow.
8 Upright men are appalled at this,
and the innocent stirs himself up against the godless.
9 Yet the righteous holds to his way,
and he that has clean hands grows stronger and stronger.
10 But you, come on again, all of you,
and I shall not find a wise man among you.
11 My days are past, my plans are broken off,
the desires of my heart.
12 They make night into day;
'The light,' they say, 'is near to the darkness.'
13 If I look for Sheol as my house,
if I spread my couch in darkness,
14 if I say to the pit, 'You are my father,'
and to the worm, 'My mother,' or 'My sister,' 15 where then is my hope? Who will see my hope?
16 Will it go down to the bars of Sheol?
Shall we descend together into the dust?"

18: Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:

2 "How long will you hunt for words?
Consider, and then we will speak.
3 Why are we counted as cattle?
Why are we stupid in your sight?
4 You who tear yourself in your anger,
shall the earth be forsaken for you,
or the rock be removed out of its place?

5 "Yea, the light of the wicked is put out,
and the flame of his fire does not shine.
6 The light is dark in his tent,
and his lamp above him is put out.
7 His strong steps are shortened
and his own schemes throw him down.
8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
and he walks on a pitfall.
9 A trap seizes him by the heel,

a snare lays hold of him.
10 A rope is hid for him in the ground,
a trap for him in the path.
11 Terrors frighten him on every side,
and chase him at his heels.
12 His strength is hunger-bitten,
and calamity is ready for his stumbling.
13 By disease his skin is consumed,
the first-born of death consumes his limbs.
14 He is torn from the tent in which he trusted,
and is brought to the king of terrors.
15 In his tent dwells that which is none of his;
brimstone is scattered upon his habitation.
16 His roots dry up beneath,
17 His memory perishes from the earth,
and he has no name in the street.
18 He is thrust from light into darkness,
and driven out of the world.
19 He has no offspring or descendant among his people,
and no survivor where he used to live.
20 They of the west are appalled at his day,
and horror seizes them of the east.
21 Surely such are the dwellings of the ungodly,
such is the place of him who knows not God."

19:1 Then Job answered:

2 "How long will you torment me,
and break me in pieces with words?
3 These ten times you have cast reproach upon me;
are you not ashamed to wrong me?
4 And even if it be true that I have erred,
my error remains with myself.
5 If indeed you magnify yourselves against me,
and make my humiliation an argument against me, 6 know then that God has put me in the wrong,
and closed his net about me.
7 Behold, I cry out, "Violence!" but I am not answered;
I call aloud, but there is no justice.
8 He has walled up my way, so that I cannot pass,
and he has set darkness upon my paths.
9 He has stripped from me my glory,
and taken the crown from my head.
10 He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone,
and my hope has he pulled up like a tree.
11 He has kindled his wrath against me,
and counts me as his adversary.
12 His troops come on together;
they have cast up siegeworks against me,
and encamp round about my tent.

13 "He has put my brethren far from me,
and my acquaintances are wholly estranged from me.
14 My kinsfolk and my close friends have failed me;
15 the guests in my house have forgotten me;
my maidservants count me as a stranger;
I have become an alien in their eyes.
16 I call to my servant, but he gives me no answer;
I must beseech him with my mouth.
17 I am repulsive to my wife,

loathsome to the sons of my own mother.
18 Even young children despise me;
when I rise they talk against me.
19 All my intimate friends abhor me,
and those whom I loved have turned against me.
20 My bones cleave to my skin and to my flesh,
and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.
21 Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you my friends,
for the hand of God has touched me!
22 Why do you, like God, pursue me?
Why are you not satisfied with my flesh?

23 "Oh that my words were written!
Oh that they were inscribed in a book!
24 Oh that with an iron pen
and lead they were graven in the rock for ever!
25 For I know that my Redeemer lives,
and at last he will stand upon the earth;
26 and after my skin has been thus destroyed,
then from my flesh I shall see God, 27 whom I shall see on my side,
and my eyes shall behold, and not another.
My heart faints within me!
28 If you say, 'How we will pursue him!' and,
'The root of the matter is found in him';
29 be afraid of the sword,
for wrath brings the punishment of the sword,
that you may know there is a judgement."

20: Then Zophar the Na'amathite answered:

2 "Therefore my thoughts answer me,
because of my haste within me.
3 I hear censure which insults me,
and out of my understanding a spirit answers me.
4 Do you not know this from of old,
since man was placed upon earth,
5 that the exulting of the wicked is short,
and the joy of the godless but for a moment?
6 Though his height mount up to the heavens,
and his head reach to the clouds, 7 he will perish for ever like his own dung;
those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'
8 He will fly away like a dream, and not be found;
he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
9 The eye which saw him will see him no more,
nor will his place any more behold him.
10 His children will seek the favour of the poor,
and his hands will give back his wealth.
11 His bones are full of youthful vigour,
but it will lie down with him in the dust.

12 "Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth,
though he hides it under his tongue, 13 though he is loath to let it go,
and holds it in his mouth, 14 yet his food is turned in his stomach;
it is the gall of asps within him.
15 He swallows down riches and vomits them up again;
God casts them out of his belly.
16 He will suck the poison of asps;

the tongue of a viper will kill him.
17 He will not look upon the rivers,
the streams flowing with honey and curds.
18 He will give back the fruit of his toil,
and will not swallow it down;
from the profit of his trading he will get no enjoyment.
19 For he has crushed and abandoned the poor,
he has seized a house which he did not build.

20 "Because his greed knew no rest,
he will not save anything in which he delights.
21 There was nothing left after he had eaten;
therefore his prosperity will not endure.
22 In the fullness of his sufficiency he will be in straits;
all the force of misery will come upon him.
23 To fill his belly to the full God will send his fierce anger into him,
and rain it upon him as his food.
24 He will flee from an iron weapon;
a bronze arrow will strike him through.
25 It is drawn forth and comes out of his body,
the glittering point comes out of his gall;
terrors come upon him.
26 Utter darkness is laid up for his treasures;
a fire not blown upon will devour him;
what is left in his tent will be consumed.
27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity,
and the earth will rise up against him.
28 The possessions of his house will be carried away, dragged off in the day of God's wrath.
29 This is the wicked man's portion from God,
the heritage decreed for him by God."

21: Then Job answered:

2 "Listen carefully to my words,
and let this be your consolation.
3 Bear with me, and I will speak,
and after I have spoken, mock on.
4 As for me, is my complaint against man?
Why should I not be impatient?
5 Look at me, and be appalled,
and lay your hand upon your mouth.
6 When I think of it I am dismayed,
and shuddering seizes my flesh.
7 Why do the wicked live, reach old age,
and grow mighty in power?
8 Their children are established in their presence,
and their offspring before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from fear,
and no rod of God is upon them.
10 Their bull breeds without fail;
their cow calves, and does not cast her calf.
11 They send forth their little ones like a flock,
and their children dance.
12 They sing to the tambourine and the lyre,
and rejoice to the sound of the pipe.
13 They spend their days in prosperity,
and in peace they go down to Sheol.
14 They say to God, "Depart from us!
We do not desire the knowledge of thy ways."

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
And what profit do we get if we pray to him?
16 Behold, is not their prosperity in their hand?
The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 "How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out?
That their calamity comes upon them?
That God distributes pains in his anger?
18 That they are like straw before the wind,
and like chaff that the storm carries away?
19 You say, 'God stores up their iniquity for their sons.'
Let him recompense it to themselves, that they may know it.
20 Let their own eyes see their destruction,
and let them drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
21 For what do they care for their houses after them,
when the number of their months is cut off?
22 Will any teach God knowledge,
seeing that he judges those that are on high?
23 One dies in full prosperity,
being wholly at ease and secure,
24 his body full of fat and the marrow of his bones moist.
25 Another dies in bitterness of soul,
never having tasted of good.
26 They lie down alike in the dust,
and the worms cover them.

27 "Behold, I know your thoughts,
and your schemes to wrong me.
28 For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince?
Where is the tent in which the wicked dwelt?'
29 Have you not asked those who travel the roads, and do you not accept their testimony 30 that the wicked man is spared in the day of calamity, that he is rescued in the day of wrath?
31 Who declares his way to his face,
and who requites him for what he has done?
32 When he is borne to the grave,
watch is kept over his tomb.
33 The clods of the valley are sweet to him;
all men follow after him,
and those who go before him are innumerable.
34 How then will you comfort me with empty nothings?
There is nothing left of your answers but falsehood."

22:<sub>1</sub> Then Eli'phaz the Te'manite answered:

<sub>2</sub> "Can a man be profitable to God?
Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself.
<sub>3</sub> Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous, or is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?
<sub>4</sub> Is it for your fear of him that he reproves you,
and enters into judgement with you?
<sub>5</sub> Is not your wickedness great?
There is no end to your iniquities.
<sub>6</sub> For you have exacted pledges of your brothers for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing.
<sub>7</sub> You have given no water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry.
<sub>8</sub> The man with power possessed the land,
and the favoured man dwelt in it.
<sub>9</sub> You have sent widows away empty,

and the arms of the fatherless were crushed.
10 Therefore snares are round about you,
and sudden terror overwhelms you;
11 your light is darkened, so that you cannot see,
and a flood of water covers you.

12 "Is not God high in the heavens?
See the highest stars, how lofty they are!
13 Therefore you say, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the deep darkness?
14 Thick clouds enwrap him, so that he does not see,
and he walks on the vault of heaven.'
15 Will you keep to the old way which wicked men have trod?
16 They were snatched away before their time;
their foundation was washed away.
17 They said to God, 'Depart from us,'
and 'What can the Almighty do to us?'
18 Yet he filled their houses with good things-- but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
19 The righteous see it and are glad;
the innocent laugh them to scorn, 20 saying, 'Surely our adversaries are cut off,
and what they left the fire has consumed.'

21 "Agree with God, and be at peace;
thereby good will come to you.
22 Receive instruction from his mouth, and lay up his words in your heart<sup>7</sup>.
23 If you return to the Almighty and humble yourself,
if you remove unrighteousness far from your tents, 24 if you lay gold in the dust,
and gold of Ophir among the stones of the torrent bed, 25 and if the Almighty is your gold,
and your precious silver;
26 then you will delight yourself in the Almighty,
and lift up your face to God.
27 You will make your prayer to him,
and he will hear you;
and you will pay your vows.
28 You will decide<sup>8</sup> on a matter,
and it will be established for you,
and light will shine on your ways.
29 For God abases the proud,
but he saves the lowly.
30 He delivers the innocent man<sup>9</sup>;
you will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands."

23:<sub>1</sub> Then Job answered:

<sub>2</sub> "Today also my complaint is bitter,
his hand is heavy in spite of my groaning.
<sub>3</sub> Oh, that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his seat!
<sub>4</sub> I would lay my case before him
and fill my mouth with arguments.
<sub>5</sub> I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.

6 Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; he would give heed to me.

7 There an upright man could reason with him,
and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge.

8 "Behold, I go forward, but he is not there;
and backward, but I cannot perceive him;
9 on the left hand I seek him, but I cannot behold him;
I turn to the right hand, but I cannot see him.
10 But he knows the way that I take;
when he has tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
11 My foot has held fast to his steps;
I have kept his way and have not turned aside.
12 I have not departed from the commandment of his lips;
I have treasured in my bosom the words of his mouth.
13 But he is unchangeable and who can turn him?
What he desires, that he does.
14 For he will complete what he appoints for me;
and many such things are in his mind.
15 Therefore I am terrified at his presence;
when I consider, I am in dread of him.
16 God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;
17 for I am hemmed in by darkness,
and thick darkness covers my face.

24: "Why are not times of judgement kept by the Almighty, and why do those who know him never see his days?

2 Men remove landmarks;
they seize flocks and pasture them.
3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless;
they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
4 They thrust the poor off the road;
the poor of the earth all hide themselves.
5 Behold, like wild asses in the desert
they go forth to their toil, seeking prey in the wilderness as food for their children.
6 They gather their fodder in the field and they glean the vineyard of the wicked man.
7 They lie all night naked, without clothing,
and have no covering in the cold.
8 They are wet with the rain of the mountains,
and cling to the rock for want of shelter.
9 (There are those who snatch the fatherless child from the breast,
and take in pledge the infant of the poor.)
10 They go about naked, without clothing;
hungry, they carry the sheaves;
11 among the olive rows of the wicked they make oil;
they tread the wine presses, but suffer thirst.
12 From out of the city the dying groan,
and the soul of the wounded cries for help;
yet God pays no attention to their prayer.

13 "There are those who rebel against the light,
who are not acquainted with its ways,
and do not stay in its paths.

14 The murderer rises in the dark,
that he may kill the poor and needy;
and in the night he is as a thief.

<sup>15</sup> The eye of the adulterer also waits for the twilight, saying, 'No eye will see me';
and he disguises his face.

<sup>16</sup> In the dark they dig through houses;
by day they shut themselves up;
they do not know the light.

<sup>17</sup> For deep darkness is morning to all of them;
for they are friends with the terrors of deep darkness.

'They are swiftly carried away upon the face of the waters;
their portion is cursed in the land;
no treader turns toward their vineyards.

so does Sheol those who have sinned.

their name is no longer remembered;
so wickedness is broken like a tree.'

and do no good to the widow.

they rise up when they despair of life.

<sup>23</sup> He gives them security, and they are supported;
and his eyes are upon their ways.

<sup>24</sup> They are exalted a little while, and then are gone;
they wither and fade like the mallow;
they are cut off like the heads of grain.

<sup>25</sup> If it is not so, who will prove me a liar,
and show that there is nothing in what I say?"

25: Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:

<sup>2</sup> "Dominion and fear are with God;
he makes peace in his high heaven.

<sup>3</sup> Is there any number to his armies?
Upon whom does his light not arise?

How can he who is born of woman be clean?

and the stars are not clean in his sight;

and the son of man, who is a worm!"

26: Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> "How you have helped him who has no power!
How you have saved the arm that has no strength!

<sup>3</sup> How you have counselled him who has no wisdom,
and plentifully declared sound knowledge!

<sup>4</sup> With whose help have you uttered words,
and whose spirit has come forth from you?

the waters and their inhabitants.

and Abaddon has no covering.

<sup>7</sup> He stretches out the north over the void,
and hangs the earth upon nothing.

and the cloud is not rent under them.

<sup>9</sup> He covers the face of the moon,
and spreads over it his cloud.

10 He has described a circle upon the face of the waters
at the boundary between light and darkness.
11 The pillars of heaven tremble,
and are astounded at his rebuke.
12 By his power he stilled the sea;
by his understanding he smote Rahab.
13 By his wind the heavens were made fair;
his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
14 Lo, these are but the outskirts of his ways;
and how small a whisper do we hear of him!
But the thunder of his power who can understand?"

27:1 And Job again took up his discourse, and said:
2 "As God lives, who has taken away my right,
and the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter; 3 as long as my breath is in me,
and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;
4 my lips will not speak falsehood,
and my tongue will not utter deceit.
5 Far be it from me to say that you are right;
till I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
6 I hold fast my righteousness,
and will not let it go;
my heart does not reproach me for any of my days.

7 "Let my enemy be as the wicked, and let him that rises up against me be as the unrighteous.
8 For what is the hope of the godless
when God cuts him off, when God takes away his life?
9 Will God hear his cry, when trouble comes upon him?
10 Will he take delight in the Almighty?
Will he call upon God at all times?
11 I will teach you concerning the hand of God;
what is with the Almighty I will not conceal.
12 Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves;
why then have you become altogether vain?

13 "This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage which oppressors receive from the Almighty: 14 If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword;
and his offspring have not enough to eat.
15 Those who survive him the pestilence buries,
and their widows make no lamentation.
16 Though he heap up silver like dust,
and pile up clothing like clay;
17 he may pile it up, but the just will wear it,
and the innocent will divide the silver.
18 The house which he builds is like a spider's web,
like a booth which a watchman makes.
19 He goes to bed rich, but will do so no more;
he opens his eyes, and his wealth is gone.
20 Terrors overtake him like a flood;
in the night a whirlwind carries him off.
21 The east wind lifts him up and he is gone;
it sweeps him out of his place.
22 It hurls at him without pity;
he flees from its power in headlong flight.
23 It claps its hands at him,
and hisses at him from its place.

28:<sup>1</sup> "Surely there is a mine for silver,
and a place for gold which they refine.
<sup>2</sup> Iron is taken out of the earth,
and copper is smelted from the ore.
<sup>3</sup> Men put an end to darkness,
and search out to the farthest bound the ore
in gloom and deep darkness.
<sup>4</sup> They open shafts in a valley away from where men live;
they are forgotten by travellers, they hang afar from men,
they swing to and fro.
<sup>5</sup> As for the earth, out of it comes bread;
but underneath it is turned up as by fire.
<sup>6</sup> Its stones are the place of sapphires,
and it has dust of gold.

<sup>7</sup> "That path no bird of prey knows,
and the falcon's eye has not seen it.
<sup>8</sup> The proud beasts have not trodden it;
the lion has not passed over it.

and overturns mountains by the roots.
<sup>10</sup> He cuts out channels in the rocks,
and his eye sees every precious thing.
<sup>11</sup> He binds up the streams so that they do not trickle,
and the thing that is hid he brings forth to light.

And where is the place of understanding?
<sup>13</sup> Man does not know the way to it, and it is not found in the land of the living.
<sup>14</sup> The deep says, 'It is not in me,'
and the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
<sup>15</sup> It cannot be gotten for gold, and silver cannot be weighed as its price.
<sup>16</sup> It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir,
in precious onyx or sapphire.
<sup>17</sup> Gold and glass cannot equal it,
nor can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
<sup>18</sup> No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal;
the price of wisdom is above pearls.
<sup>19</sup> The topaz of Ethiopia cannot compare with it,
nor can it be valued in pure gold.

<sup>20</sup> "Whence then comes wisdom?
And where is the place of understanding?
<sup>21</sup> It is hid from the eyes of all living,
and concealed from the birds of the air.
'We have heard a rumour of it with our ears.'

<sup>23</sup> "God understands the way to it,
and he knows its place.
<sup>24</sup> For he looks to the ends of the earth,
and sees everything under the heavens.
<sup>25</sup> When he gave to the wind its weight,
and meted out the waters by measure;
<sup>26</sup> when he made a decree for the rain,
and a way for the lightning of the thunder;
<sup>27</sup> then he saw it and declared it;

he established it, and searched it out.
28 And he said to man,
'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom;
and to depart from evil is understanding.'

29:<sub>1</sub> And Job again took up his discourse, and said:
2 "Oh, that I were as in the months of old,
as in the days when God watched over me;
3 when his lamp shone upon my head,
and by his light I walked through darkness;
4 as I was in my autumn days,
when the friendship of God was upon my tent;
5 when the Almighty was yet with me,
when my children were about me;
6 when my steps were washed with milk,
and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!
7 When I went out to the gate of the city,
when I prepared my seat in the square, 8 the young men saw me and withdrew,
and the aged rose and stood;
9 the princes refrained from talking,
and laid their hand on their mouth;
10 the voice of the nobles was hushed,
and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.
11 When the ear heard, it called me blessed,
and when the eye saw, it approved;
12 because I delivered the poor who cried,
and the fatherless who had none to help him.
13 The blessing of him who was about to perish came upon me,
and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my justice was like a robe and a turban.
15 I was eyes to the blind,
and feet to the lame.
16 I was a father to the poor,
and I searched out the cause of him whom I did not know.
17 I broke the fangs of the unrighteous,
and made him drop his prey from his teeth.
18 Then I thought,
'I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand, 19 my roots spread out to the waters,
with the dew all night on my branches, 20 my glory fresh with me,
and my bow ever new in my hand.'

21 "Men listened to me, and waited,
and kept silence for my counsel.
22 After I spoke they did not speak again,
and my word dropped upon them.
23 They waited for me as for the rain;
and they opened their mouths as for the spring rain.
24 I smiled on them when they had no confidence;
and the light of my countenance they did not cast down.
25 I chose their way, and sat as chief,
and I dwelt like a king among his troops,
like one who comforts mourners.

30:<sub>1</sub> "But now they make sport of me, men who are younger than I,
whose fathers I would have disdained

to set with the dogs of my flock.
2 What could I gain from the strength of their hands,
men whose vigour is gone?
3 Through want and hard hunger
they gnaw the dry and desolate ground;
4 they pick mallow and the leaves of bushes,
and to warm themselves the roots of the broom.
5 They are driven out from among men;
they shout after them as after a thief.
6 In the gullies of the torrents they must dwell,
in holes of the earth and of the rocks.
7 Among the bushes they bray;
under the nettles they huddle together.
8 A senseless, a disreputable brood,
they have been whipped out of the land.

9 "And now I have become their song,
I am a byword to them.
10 They abhor me, they keep aloof from me;
they do not hesitate to spit at the sight of me.
11 Because God has loosed my cord and humbled me,
they have cast off restraint in my presence.
12 On my right hand the rabble rise,
they drive me forth,
they cast up against me their ways of destruction.
13 They break up my path, they promote my calamity;
no one restrains them.
14 As through a wide breach they come;
amid the crash they roll on.
15 Terrors are turned upon me;
my honour is pursued as by the wind,
and my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

16 "And now my soul is poured out within me;
days of affliction have taken hold of me.
17 The night racks my bones,
and the pain that gnaws me takes no rest.
18 With violence it seizes my garment;
it binds me about like the collar of my tunic.
19 God has cast me into the mire,
and I have become like dust and ashes.
20 I cry to thee and thou dost not answer me;
I stand, and thou dost not heed me.
21 Thou hast turned cruel to me;
with the might of thy hand thou dost persecute me.
22 Thou liftest me up on the wind,
thou makest me ride on it,
and thou tосsest me about in the roar of the storm.
23 Yea, I know that thou wilt bring me to death,
and to the house appointed for all living.

24 "Yet does not one in a heap of ruins stretch out his hand,
and in his disaster cry for help?
25 Did not I weep for him whose day was hard?
Was not my soul grieved for the poor?
26 But when I looked for good, evil came;
and when I waited for light, darkness came.
27 My heart is in turmoil, and is never still;
days of affliction come to meet me.
28 I go about blackened, but not by the sun;

I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.
29 I am a brother of jackals,
and a companion of ostriches.
30 My skin turns black and falls from me,
and my bones burn with heat.
31 My lyre is turned to mourning,
and my pipe to the voice of those who weep.

31:<sub>1</sub> "I have made a covenant with my eyes;
how then could I look upon a virgin?
2 What would be my portion from God above,
and my heritage from the Almighty on high?
3 Does not calamity befall the unrighteous,
and disaster the workers of iniquity?
4 Does not he see my ways,
and number all my steps?

5 "If I have walked with falsehood,
and my foot has hastened to deceit;
6 (Let me be weighed in a just balance, and let God know my integrity!)
7 if my step has turned aside from the way,
and my heart has gone after my eyes,
and if any spot has cleaved to my hands;
8 then let me sow, and another eat;
and let what grows for me be rooted out.

9 "If my heart has been enticed to a woman,
and I have lain in wait at my neighbour's door;
10 then let my wife grind for another,
and let others bow down upon her.
11 For that would be a heinous crime;
that would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges;
12 for that would be a fire which consumes unto Abaddon,
and it would burn to the root all my increase.

13 "If I have rejected the cause of my manservant or my maidservant,
when they brought a complaint against me;
14 what then shall I do when God rises up?
When he makes inquiry, what shall I answer him?
15 Did not he who made me in the womb make him?
And did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 "If I have withheld anything that the poor desired,
or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, 17 or have eaten my morsel alone,
and the fatherless has not eaten of it 18 (for from his youth I reared him as a father, and from his mother's womb I guided him);
19 if I have seen any one perish for lack of clothing,
or a poor man without covering;
20 if his loins have not blessed me,
and if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
21 if I have raised my hand against the fatherless,
because I saw help in the gate;
22 then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder,
and let my arm be broken from its socket.
23 For I was in terror of calamity from God,

and I could not have faced his majesty.

24 "If I have made gold my trust,
or called fine gold my confidence;
25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
or because my hand had gotten much;
26 if I have looked at the sun when it shone,
or the moon moving in splendour, 27 and my heart has been secretly enticed,
and my mouth has kissed my hand;
28 this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges,
for I should have been false to God above.

29 "If I have rejoiced at the ruin of him that hated me,
or exulted when evil overtook him 30 (I have not let my mouth sin
by asking for his life with a curse); 31 if the men of my tent have not said,
'Who is there that has not been filled with his meat?' 32 (the sojourner has not lodged in the street;
I have opened my doors to the wayfarer);
33 if I have concealed my transgressions from men,
by hiding my iniquity in my bosom, 34 because I stood in great fear of the multitude,
and the contempt of families terrified me,
so that I kept silence, and did not go out of doors-- 35 Oh, that I had one to hear me!
(Here is my signature! let the Almighty answer me!)
Oh, that I had the indictment written by my adversary!
36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder;
I would bind it on me as a crown;
37 I would give him an account of all my steps;
like a prince I would approach him.

38 "If my land has cried out against me,
and its furrows have wept together;
39 if I have eaten its yield without payment,
and caused the death of its owners; 40 let thorns grow instead of wheat,
and foul weeds instead of barley."

The words of Job are ended.

32:<sub>1</sub> So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. <sub>2</sub> Then Eli'hu the son of Bar'achel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became angry. He was angry at Job because he justified himself rather than God; <sub>3</sub> he was angry also at Job's three friends because they had found no answer, although they had declared Job to be in the wrong. <sub>4</sub> Now Eli'hu had waited to speak to Job because they were older than he. <sub>5</sub> And when Eli'hu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, he became angry.

<sub>6</sub> And Eli'hu the son of Bar'achel the Buzite answered:

"I am young in years, and you are aged;
therefore I was timid and afraid to declare my opinion to you.
7 I said, 'Let days speak, and many years teach wisdom.'
8 But it is the spirit in a man, the breath of the Almighty, that makes him understand.
9 It is not the old that are wise,
nor the aged that understand what is right.
10 Therefore I say, 'Listen to me;
let me also declare my opinion.'

11 "Behold, I waited for your words,
I listened for your wise sayings,
while you searched out what to say.
12 I gave you my attention,
and, behold, there was none that confuted Job,
or that answered his words, among you.
13 Beware lest you say, 'We have found wisdom;
God may vanquish him, not man.'
14 He has not directed his words against me,
and I will not answer him with your speeches.

15 "They are discomfited, they answer no more;
they have not a word to say.
16 And shall I wait, because they do not speak,
because they stand there, and answer no more?
17 I also will give my answer;
I also will declare my opinion.
18 For I am full of words,
the spirit within me constrains me.
19 Behold, my heart is like wine that has no vent;
like new wineskins, it is ready to burst.
20 I must speak, that I may find relief;
I must open my lips and answer.
21 I will not show partiality to any person or use flattery toward any man.
22 For I do not know how to flatter, else would my Maker soon put an end to me.

33:<sub>1</sub> "But now, hear my speech, O Job,
and listen to all my words.
2 Behold, I open my mouth;
the tongue in my mouth speaks.
3 My words declare the uprightness of my heart,
and what my lips know they speak sincerely.
4 The spirit of God has made me,
and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
5 Answer me, if you can;
set your words in order before me;
take your stand.
6 Behold, I am toward God as you are;
I too was formed from a piece of clay.
7 Behold, no fear of me need terrify you;
my pressure will not be heavy upon you.

8 "Surely, you have spoken in my hearing,
and I have heard the sound of your words.
9 You say, 'I am clean, without transgression;
I am pure, and there is no iniquity in me.'
10 Behold, he finds occasions against me,
he counts me as his enemy;
11 he puts my feet in the stocks,
and watches all my paths.'

12 "Behold, in this you are not right.
I will answer you. God is greater than man.
13 Why do you contend against him,
saying, 'He will answer none of my words'?
14 For God speaks in one way, and in two,
though man does not perceive it.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night,
when deep sleep falls upon men,
while they slumber on their beds, 16 then he opens the ears of men,
and terrifies them with warnings, 17 that he may turn man aside from his deed,
and cut off pride<sup>10</sup> from man;
18 he keeps back his soul from the Pit,
his life from perishing by the sword.

19 "Man is also chastened with pain upon his bed,
and with continual strife in his bones;
20 so that his life loathes bread,
and his appetite dainty food.
21 His flesh is so wasted away that it cannot be seen;
and his bones which were not seen stick out.
22 His soul draws near the Pit,
and his life to those who bring death.
23 If there be for him an angel, a mediator,
one of the thousand, to declare to man what is right for him;
24 and he is gracious to him, and says,
'Deliver him from going down into the Pit, I have found a ransom; 25 let his flesh become fresh with youth;
let him return to the days of his youthful vigour';
26 then man prays to God, and he accepts him,
he comes into his presence with joy.
He recounts to men his salvation,
27 and he sings before men, and says:
'I sinned and perverted what was right,
and it was not requited to me.
28 He has redeemed my soul from going down into the Pit,
and my life shall see the light.'

29 "Behold, God does all these things,
twice, three times, with a man, 30 to bring back his soul from the Pit,
that he may see the light of life.
31 Give heed, O Job, listen to me;
be silent, and I will speak.
32 If you have anything to say, answer me;
speak, for I desire to justify you.
33 If not, listen to me;
be silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

34:<sub>1</sub> Then Eli'hu said:

2 "Hear my words, you wise men,
and give ear to me, you who know;
3 for the ear tests words as the palate tastes food.
4 Let us choose what is right;
let us determine among ourselves what is good.
5 For Job has said,
'I am innocent, and God has taken away my right;
6 in spite of my right I am counted a liar;
my wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'
7 What man is like Job,
who drinks up scoffing like water, 8 who goes in company with evildoers
and walks with wicked men?

<sup>10</sup>A purpose in suffering. Job to know all is of grace (Zeph 2:3)

<sup>9</sup> For he has said,
'It profits a man nothing that he should take delight in God.'

<sup>10</sup> "Therefore, hear me, you men of understanding, far be it from God that he should do wickedness,
and from the Almighty that he should do wrong.
<sup>11</sup> For according to the work of a man he will requite him,
and according to his ways he will make it befall him.
<sup>12</sup> Of a truth, God will not do wickedly, and the Almighty will not pervert justice.
<sup>13</sup> Who gave him charge over the earth and who laid on him the whole world?
<sup>14</sup> If he should take back his spirit to himself, and gather to himself his breath, <sup>15</sup> all flesh would perish together,
and man would return to dust.

<sup>16</sup> "If you have understanding, hear this;
listen to what I say.
<sup>17</sup> Shall one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty, <sup>18</sup> who says to a king, 'Worthless one,'
and to nobles, 'Wicked man'; <sup>19</sup> who shows no partiality to princes,
nor regards the rich more than the poor,
for they are all the work of his hands?
<sup>20</sup> In a moment they die;
at midnight the people are shaken and pass away,
and the mighty are taken away by no human hand.

<sup>21</sup> "For his eyes are upon the ways of a man,
and he sees all his steps.
<sup>22</sup> There is no gloom or deep darkness
where evildoers may hide themselves.
<sup>23</sup> For he has not appointed a time
for any man to go before God in judgement.
<sup>24</sup> He shatters the mighty without investigation,
and sets others in their place.
<sup>25</sup> Thus, knowing their works,
he overturns them in the night, and they are crushed.
<sup>26</sup> He strikes them for their wickedness in the sight of men, <sup>27</sup> because they turned aside from following him,
and had no regard for any of his ways, <sup>28</sup> so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him, and he heard the cry of the afflicted-- <sup>29</sup> When he is quiet, who can condemn?
When he hides his face, who can behold him,
whether it be a nation or a man?-- <sup>30</sup> that a godless man should not reign, that he should not ensnare the people.

<sup>31</sup> "For has any one said to God, 'I have borne chastisement;
I will not offend any more;
<sup>32</sup> teach me what I do not see;
if I have done iniquity, I will do it no more'?
<sup>33</sup> Will he then make requital to suit you,
because you reject it?
For you must choose, and not I;
therefore declare what you know.
<sup>34</sup> Men of understanding will say to me,

and the wise man who hears me will say:
35 `Job speaks without knowledge<sup>11</sup>,
his words are without insight.'
36 Would that Job were tried to the end,
because he answers like wicked men.
37 For he adds rebellion to his sin;
he claps his hands among us,
and multiplies his words against God."

35: And Eli'hu said:

2 "Do you think this to be just?
Do you say, `It is my right before God,'
3 that you ask, `What advantage have I?
How am I better off than if I had sinned?'
4 I will answer you and your friends with you.
5 Look at the heavens, and see;
and behold the clouds, which are higher than you.
6 If you have sinned, what do you accomplish against him?
And if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?
7 If you are righteous, what do you give to him;
or what does he receive from your hand?
8 Your wickedness concerns a man like yourself,
and your righteousness a son of man.

9 "Because of the multitude of oppressions people cry out;
they call for help because of the arm of the mighty.
10 But none says,
`Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night, 11 who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth,
and makes us wiser than the birds of the air?'
12 There they cry out, but he does not answer,
because of the pride of evil men.
13 Surely God does not hear an empty cry,
nor does the Almighty regard it.
14 How much less when you say that you do not see him,
that the case is before him, and you are waiting for him!
15 And now, because his anger does not punish,
and he does not greatly heed transgression, 16 Job opens his mouth in empty talk<sup>12</sup>,
he multiplies words without knowledge."

36: And Eli'hu continued, and said:

2 "Bear with me a little, and I will show you,
for I have yet something to say on God's behalf.
3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar,
and ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
4 For truly my words are not false;
one who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

5 "Behold, God is mighty, and does not despise any;
he is mighty in strength of understanding.
6 He does not keep the wicked alive,
but gives the afflicted their right.
7 He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous,
but with kings upon the throne he sets them for ever,
and they are exalted.
8 And if they are bound in fetters

and caught in the cords of affliction, 9 then he declares to them their work
and their transgressions,
that they are behaving arrogantly.
10 He opens their ears to instruction,
and commands that they return from iniquity.
11 If they hearken and serve him,
they complete their days in prosperity,
and their years in pleasantness.
12 But if they do not hearken,
they perish by the sword,
and die without knowledge.

13 "The godless in heart cherish anger;
they do not cry for help when he binds them.
14 They die in youth, and their life ends in shame.
15 He delivers the afflicted by their affliction,
and opens their ear by adversity.
16 He also allured you out of distress into a broad place where there was no cramping, and what was set on your table was full of fatness.

17 "But you are full of the judgement on the wicked;
judgement and justice seize you.
18 Beware lest wrath entice you into scoffing;
and let not the greatness of the ransom turn you aside.
19 Will your cry avail to keep you from distress,
or all the force of your strength?
20 Do not long for the night,
when peoples are cut off in their place.
21 Take heed, do not turn to iniquity,
for this you have chosen rather than affliction.
22 Behold, God is exalted in his power;
who is a teacher like him?
23 Who has prescribed for him his way,
or who can say, 'Thou hast done wrong'?

24 "Remember to extol his work,
of which men have sung.
25 All men have looked on it;
man beholds it from afar.
26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not;
the number of his years is unsearchable.
27 For he draws up the drops of water,
he distils his mist in rain 28 which the skies pour down,
and drop upon man abundantly.
29 Can any one understand the spreading of the clouds,
the thunderings of his pavilion?
30 Behold, he scatters his lightning about him,
and covers the roots of the sea.
31 For by these he judges peoples;
he gives food in abundance.
32 He covers his hands with the lightning,
and commands it to strike the mark.
33 Its crashing declares concerning him,
who is jealous with anger against iniquity.

37:<sub>1</sub> "At this also my heart trembles,
and leaps out of its place.

2 Harken to the thunder of his voice and the rumbling that comes from his mouth.
3 Under the whole heaven he lets it go,
and his lightning to the corners of the earth.
4 After it his voice roars;
he thunders with his majestic voice
and he does not restrain the lightnings when his voice is heard.
5 God thunders wondrously with his voice;
he does great things which we cannot comprehend.
6 For to the snow he says, 'Fall on the earth';
and to the shower and the rain, 'Be strong.'
7 He seals up the hand of every man,
that all men may know his work.
8 Then the beasts go into their lairs,
and remain in their dens.
9 From its chamber comes the whirlwind,
and cold from the scattering winds.
10 By the breath of God ice is given,
and the broad waters are frozen fast.
11 He loads the thick cloud with moisture;
the clouds scatter his lightning.
12 They turn round and round by his guidance, to accomplish all that he commands them
on the face of the habitable world.
13 Whether for correction, or for his land,
or for love, he causes it to happen.

14 "Hear this, O Job;
stop and consider the wondrous works of God.
15 Do you know how God lays his command upon them,
and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?
16 Do you know the balancings of the clouds,
the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge, 17 you whose garments are hot when the earth is still because of the south wind?
18 Can you, like him, spread out the skies,
hard as a molten mirror?
19 Teach us what we shall say to him;
we cannot draw up our case because of darkness.
20 Shall it be told him that I would speak?
Did a man ever wish that he would be swallowed up?

21 "And now men cannot look on the light
when it is bright in the skies,
when the wind has passed and cleared them.
22 Out of the north comes golden splendour;
God is clothed with terrible majesty.
23 The Almighty-- we cannot find him;
he is great in power and justice,
and abundant righteousness he will not violate.
24 Therefore men fear him;
he does not regard any who are wise in their own conceit<sup>13</sup>."

38: Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind:
2 "Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge<sup>14</sup>?
3 Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you,
and you shall declare to me.

4 "Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?
Tell me, if you have understanding.

5 Who determined its measurements-- surely you know!
Or who stretched the line upon it?

6 On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone,
7 when the morning stars<sup>15</sup> sang together,
and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 "Or who shut in the sea with doors,
when it burst forth from the womb;
9 when I made clouds its garment,
and thick darkness its swaddling band, 10 and prescribed bounds for it,
and set bars and doors,
11 and said, `Thus far shall you come, and no farther,
and here shall your proud waves be stayed'?

12 "Have you commanded the morning since your days began,
and caused the dawn to know its place, 13 that it might take hold of the skirts of the earth,
and the wicked be shaken out of it?
14 It is changed like clay under the seal,
and it is dyed like a garment.
15 From the wicked their light is withheld,
and their uplifted arm is broken.

16 "Have you entered into the springs of the sea,
or walked in the recesses of the deep?
17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you,
or have you seen the gates of deep darkness?
18 Have you comprehended the expanse of the earth?
Declare, if you know all this.

19 "Where is the way to the dwelling of light,
and where is the place of darkness, 20 that you may take it to its territory
and that you may discern the paths to its home?
21 You know, for you were born then,
and the number of your days is great!

22 "Have you entered the storehouses of the snow,
or have you seen the storehouses of the hail, 23 which I have reserved for the time of trouble,
for the day of battle and war?
24 What is the way to the place where the light is distributed,
or where the east wind is scattered upon the earth?

25 "Who has cleft a channel for the torrents of rain,
and a way for the thunderbolt, 26 to bring rain on a land where no man is,
on the desert in which there is no man; 27 to satisfy the waste and desolate land,
and to make the ground put forth grass?

28 "Has the rain a father, or who has begotten the drops of dew?
29 From whose womb did the ice come forth,
and who has given birth to the hoarfrost of heaven?

30 The waters become hard like stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

31 "Can you bind the chains of the Plei'ades, or loose the cords of Orion?
32 Can you lead forth the Maz'zaroth in their season,
or can you guide the Bear with its children?
33 Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?
Can you establish their rule on the earth?

34 "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
that a flood of waters may cover you?
35 Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go and say to you, 'Here we are'?
36 Who has put wisdom in the clouds,
or given understanding to the mists?
37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom?
Or who can tilt the waterskins of the heavens, 38 when the dust runs into a mass and the clods cleave fast together?

39 "Can you hunt the prey for the lion,
or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, 40 when they crouch in their dens,
or lie in wait in their covert?
41 Who provides for the raven its prey,
when its young ones cry to God,
and wander about for lack of food?

39:<sub>1</sub> "Do you know when the mountain goats bring forth?
Do you observe the calving of the hinds?
2 Can you number the months that they fulfil,
and do you know the time when they bring forth, 3 when they crouch, bring forth their offspring,
and are delivered of their young?
4 Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open;
they go forth, and do not return to them.

5 "Who has let the wild ass go free?
Who has loosed the bonds of the swift ass,
6 to whom I have given the steppe for his home,
and the salt land for his dwelling place?
7 He scorns the tumult of the city;
he hears not the shouts of the driver.
8 He ranges the mountains as his pasture,
and he searches after every green thing.

9 "Is the wild ox willing to serve you?
Will he spend the night at your crib?
10 Can you bind him in the furrow with ropes,
or will he harrow the valleys after you?
11 Will you depend on him because his strength is great,
and will you leave to him your labour?
12 Do you have faith in him that he will return,
and bring your grain to your threshing floor?

13 "The wings of the ostrich wave proudly;
but are they the pinions and plumage of love?
14 For she leaves her eggs to the earth,
and lets them be warmed on the ground,

15 forgetting that a foot may crush them,
and that the wild beast may trample them.
16 She deals cruelly with her young,
as if they were not hers;
though her labour be in vain, yet she has no fear; 17 because God has made her forget wisdom,
and given her no share in understanding.
18 When she rouses herself to flee,
she laughs at the horse and his rider.

19 "Do you give the horse his might?
Do you clothe his neck with strength?
20 Do you make him leap like the locust?
His majestic snorting is terrible.
21 He paws in the valley, and exults in his strength;
he goes out to meet the weapons.
22 He laughs at fear, and is not dismayed;
he does not turn back from the sword.
23 Upon him rattle the quiver,
the flashing spear and the javelin.
24 With fierceness and rage he swallows the ground;
he cannot stand still at the sound of the trumpet.
25 When the trumpet sounds, he says `trumpet sounds,
he says `Aha!' He smells the battle from afar,
the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

26 "Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars,
and spreads his wings toward the south?
27 Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up and makes his nest on high?
28 On the rock he dwells and makes his home
in the fastness of the rocky crag.
29 Thence he spies out the prey;
his eyes behold it afar off.
30 His young ones suck up blood;
and where the slain are, there is he."

40:1 And the LORD said to Job:

2 "Shall a faultfinder<sup>16</sup> contend with the Almighty?
He who argues with God, let him answer it<sup>17</sup>."

3 Then Job answered the LORD:

4 "Behold, I am of small account; what shall I answer thee?
I lay my hand on my mouth.
5 I have spoken once, and I will not answer;
twice, but I will proceed no further."

6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind:

7 "Gird up your loins like a man;
I will question you, and you declare to me.
8 Will you even put me in the wrong?
Will you condemn me that you may be justified<sup>18</sup>?
9 Have you an arm like God,
and can you thunder with a voice like his?

10 "Deck yourself with majesty and dignity;

clothe yourself with glory and splendour.
11 Pour forth the overflowings of your anger,
and look on every one that is proud, and abase him.
12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low;
and tread down the wicked where they stand.
13 Hide them all in the dust together;
bind their faces in the world below.
14 Then will I also acknowledge to you,
that your own right hand can give you victory.

15 "Behold, Be'hemoth, which I made as I made you;
he eats grass like an ox.
16 Behold, his strength in his loins,
and his power in the muscles of his belly.
17 He makes his tail stiff like a cedar;
the sinews of his thighs are knit together.
18 His bones are tubes of bronze,
his limbs like bars of iron.

19 "He is the first of the works of God;
let him who made him bring near his sword!
20 For the mountains yield food for him
where all the wild beasts play.
21 Under the lotus plants he lies,
in the covert of the reeds and in the marsh.
22 For his shade the lotus trees cover him;
the willows of the brook surround him.
23 Behold, if the river is turbulent he is not frightened;
he is confident though Jordan rushes against his mouth.
24 Can one take him with hooks,
or pierce his nose with a snare?

41:<sub>1</sub> "Can you draw out Levi'athan with a fishhook, or press down his tongue with a cord?
2 Can you put a rope in his nose,
or pierce his jaw with a hook<sup>19</sup>?
3 Will he make many supplications to you?
Will he speak to you soft words?
4 Will he make a covenant with you to take him for your servant for ever?
5 Will you play with him as with a bird,
or will you put him on leash for your maidens?
6 Will traders bargain over him?
Will they divide him up among the merchants?
7 Can you fill his skin with harpoons,
or his head with fishing spears?
8 Lay hands on him; think of the battle;
you will not do it again!
9 Behold, the hope of a man is disappointed;
he is laid low even at the sight of him.
10 No one is so fierce that he dares to stir him up.
Who then is he that can stand before me?
11 Who has given to me, that I should repay him?
Whatever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 "I will not keep silence concerning his limbs,
or his mighty strength, or his goodly frame.
13 Who can strip off his outer garment?

<sup>19</sup>If an animal cannot be tamed, how much less can God

Who can penetrate his double coat of mail?
 14 Who can open the doors of his face?
 Round about his teeth is terror.
 15 His back is made of rows of shields,
 shut up closely as with a seal.
 16 One is so near to another that no air can come between them.
 17 They are joined one to another;
 they clasp each other and cannot be separated.
 18 His sneezings flash forth light,
 and his eyes are like the eyelids of the dawn.
 19 Out of his mouth go flaming torches;
 sparks of fire leap forth.
 20 Out of his nostrils comes forth smoke,
 as from a boiling pot and burning rushes.
 21 His breath kindles coals,
 and a flame comes forth from his mouth.
 22 In his neck abides strength,
 and terror dances before him.
 23 The folds of his flesh cleave together,
 firmly cast upon him and immovable.
 24 His heart is hard as a stone,
 hard as the nether millstone.
 25 When he raises himself up the mighty are afraid;
 at the crashing they are beside themselves.
 26 Though the sword reaches him, it does not avail;
 nor the spear, the dart, or the javelin.
 27 He counts iron as straw,
 and bronze as rotten wood.
 28 The arrow cannot make him flee;
 for him slingstones are turned to stubble.
 29 Clubs are counted as stubble;
 he laughs at the rattle of javelins.
 30 His underparts are like sharp potsherds;
 he spreads himself like a threshing sledge on the mire.
 31 He makes the deep boil like a pot;
 he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
 32 Behind him he leaves a shining wake;
 one would think the deep to be hoary.
 33 Upon earth there is not his like,
 a creature without fear.
 34 He beholds everything that is high;
 he is king over all the sons of pride."

<sup>7</sup> After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eli'phaz the Te'manite: "My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has. <sup>8</sup> Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept his prayer not to deal with you according to your folly; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has." <sup>9</sup> So Eli'phaz the Te'manite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Na'amathite went and did what the LORD had told them; and the LORD accepted Job's prayer.

<sup>10</sup> And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job, when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. <sup>11</sup> Then came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and ate bread with him in his house; and they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a ring of gold. <sup>12</sup> And the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses. <sup>13</sup> He had also seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup> And he called the name of the first Jemi'mah; and the name of the second Kezi'ah; and the name of the third Ker'en-hap'puch. <sup>15</sup> And in all the land there were no women so fair as Job's daughters; and their father gave them inheritance among their brothers. <sup>16</sup> And after this Job lived a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, four generations. <sup>17</sup> And Job died, an old man, and full of days.

"I will place him in the safety for which he longs."
6 The promises of the LORD are promises that are pure, silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times.

7 Do thou, O LORD, protect us, guard us ever from this generation.
8 On every side the wicked prowls,
as vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

13:<sub>1</sub> To the choirmaster.
A Psalm of David.

How long, O LORD? Wilt thou forget me for ever?
How long wilt thou hide thy face from me?
2 How long must I bear pain in my soul,
and have sorrow in my heart all the day?
How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and answer me, O LORD my God;
lighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;
4 lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him";
lest my foes rejoice because I am shaken.

5 But I have trusted in thy steadfast love;
my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.
6 I will sing to the LORD,
because he has dealt bountifully with me.

Of David.

The fool says in his heart, "There is no God"<sup>67</sup>.
They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds,
there is none that does good.

2 The LORD looks down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there are any that act wisely, that seek after God.

3 They have all gone astray, they are all alike corrupt<sup>68</sup>;
there is none that does good, no, not one.

4 Have they no knowledge,
all the evildoers who eat up my people as they eat bread,
and do not call upon the LORD?

5 There they shall be in great terror,
for God is with the generation of the righteous.

6 You would confound the plans of the poor,
but the LORD is his refuge.

7 O that deliverance for Israel would come out of Zion!
When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people,
Jacob shall rejoice, Israel shall be glad.

A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who addressed the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.

He said:

I love thee, O LORD, my strength.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield,
and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

<sup>3</sup> I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised,
and I am saved from my enemies.

<sup>4</sup> The cords of death encompassed me,
the torrents of perdition assailed me;

<sup>5</sup> the cords of Sheol entangled me,
the snares of death confronted me.

<sup>6</sup> In my distress I called upon the LORD;
to my God I cried for help.

From his temple he heard my voice,
and my cry to him reached his ears.

<sup>7</sup> Then the earth reeled and rocked;
the foundations also of the mountains trembled and quaked,
because he was angry.

8 Smoke went up from his nostrils,
and devouring fire from his mouth;
glowing coals flamed forth from him.
9 He bowed the heavens, and came down;
thick darkness was under his feet.
10 He rode on a cherub, and flew;
he came swiftly upon the wings of the wind.
11 He made darkness his covering around him,
his canopy thick clouds dark with water.
12 Out of the brightness before him
there broke through his clouds hailstones and coals of fire.
13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered his voice, hailstones and coals of fire.
14 And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them;
he flashed forth lightnings, and routed them.
15 Then the channels of the sea were seen,
and the foundations of the world were laid bare,
at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 He reached from on high, he took me,
he drew me out of many waters.
17 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
and from those who hated me;
for they were too mighty for me.
18 They came upon me in the day of my calamity;
but the LORD was my stay.
19 He brought me forth into a broad place;
he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
according to the cleanness of my hands he recompensed me.
21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
and have not wickedly departed from my God.
22 For all his ordinances were before me,
and his statutes I did not put away from me.
23 I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from guilt.
24 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me
according to my righteousness,
according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.

25 With the loyal thou dost show thyself loyal<sup>70</sup>;
with the blameless man thou dost show thyself blameless; 26 with the pure thou dost show thyself pure;
and with the crooked thou dost show thyself perverse<sup>71</sup>.
27 For thou dost deliver a humble people;
but the haughty eyes thou dost bring down.
28 Yea, thou dost light my lamp;
the LORD my God lightens my darkness.
29 Yea, by thee I can crush a troop;
and by my God I can leap over a wall.
30 This God-- his way is perfect<sup>72</sup>;
the promise of the LORD proves true<sup>73</sup>;
he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him.

31 For who is God, but the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?-- 32 the God who girded me with strength, and made my way safe.
33 He made my feet like hinds' feet,
and set me secure on the heights.
34 He trains my hands for war<sup>74</sup>,
so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
35 Thou hast given me the shield of thy salvation, and thy right hand supported me, and thy help made me great.
36 Thou didst give a wide place for my steps under me,
and my feet did not slip.
37 I pursued my enemies and overtook them;
and did not turn back till they were consumed.
38 I thrust them through, so that they were not able to rise;
they fell under my feet.
39 For thou didst gird me with strength for the battle;
thou didst make my assailants sink under me.
40 Thou didst make my enemies turn their backs to me,
and those who hated me I destroyed.
41 They cried for help, but there was none to save,
they cried to the LORD, but he did not answer them.
42 I beat them fine as dust before the wind;
I cast them out like the mire of the streets.

43 Thou didst deliver me from strife with the peoples;
thou didst make me the head of the nations;
people whom I had not known served me.
44 As soon as they heard of me they obeyed me;
foreigners came cringing to me.
45 Foreigners lost heart,
and came trembling out of their fastnesses.

46 The LORD lives; and blessed be my rock,
and exalted be the God of my salvation, 47 the God who gave me vengeance
and subdued peoples under me; 48 who delivered me from my enemies;
yea, thou didst exalt me above my adversaries;
thou didst deliver me from men of violence.
49 For this I will extol thee, O LORD, among the nations,
and sing praises to thy name.

7 All who see me mock at me,
they make mouths at me, they wag their heads;
8 "He committed his cause to the LORD;

strong bulls of Bashan surround me;
13 they open wide their mouths at me,

19 But thou, O LORD, be not far off!
O thou my help, hasten to my aid!
20 Deliver my soul from the sword,
my life from the power of the dog!
21 Save me from the mouth of the lion,

24 For he has not despised or abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;
and he has not hid his face from him,
but has heard, when he cried to him.

25 From thee comes my praise in the great congregation;
my vows I will pay before those who fear him.
26 The afflicted shall eat and be satisfied;
those who seek him shall praise the LORD!
May your hearts live for ever!

27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD;
and all the families of the nations shall worship before him.
28 For dominion belongs to the LORD,
and he rules over the nations.

29 Yea, to him shall all the proud of the earth bow down;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust,

 and he makes known to them his covenant.
 15 My eyes are ever toward the LORD,
 for he will pluck my feet out of the net.

 16 Turn thou to me, and be gracious to me;
 for I am lonely and afflicted<sup>113</sup>.
 17 Relieve the troubles of my heart,
 and bring me out of my distresses.
 18 Consider my affliction and my trouble,
 and forgive all my sins.

 19 Consider how many are my foes,
 and with what violent hatred they hate me.
 20 Oh guard my life, and deliver me;
 let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in thee.
 21 May integrity and uprightness preserve me,
 for I wait<sup>114</sup> for thee.

 22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

26: A Psalm of David.

Vindicate me, O LORD,
 for I have walked in my integrity,
 and I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.
 2 Prove me, O LORD, and try me;
 test my heart and my mind.
 3 For thy steadfast love is before my eyes,
 and I walk in faithfulness to thee.

 4 I do not sit with false men,
 nor do I consort with dissemblers;
 5 I hate the company of evildoers,
 and I will not sit with the wicked.

 6 I wash my hands in innocence,
 and go about thy altar, O LORD, 7 singing aloud a song of thanksgiving,
 and telling all thy wondrous deeds.

 8 O LORD, I love the habitation of thy house,
 and the place where thy glory dwells.
 9 Sweep me not away with sinners,
 nor my life with bloodthirsty men, 10 men in whose hands are evil devices,
 and whose right hands are full of bribes.

 11 But as for me, I walk in my integrity;
 redeem me, and be gracious to me.
 12 My foot stands on level ground;

The LORD is my light and my salvation;

The LORD is the stronghold<sup>115</sup> of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy;
I will sing and make melody to the LORD.

as I lift up my hands toward thy most holy sanctuary.

<sub>3</sub> Take me not off with the wicked,
with those who are workers of evil,
who speak peace with their neighbours,
while mischief is in their hearts.

<sub>4</sub> Requite them according to their work,
and according to the evil of their deeds;
requite them according to the work of their hands;
render them their due reward.

<sub>5</sub> Because they do not regard the works of the LORD,
or the work of his hands,
he will break them down and build them up no more.

A Song at the dedication of the Temple.

I will extol thee, O LORD,
for thou hast drawn me up,
and hast not let my foes rejoice over me.

<sup>2</sup> O LORD my God, I cried to thee for help,
and thou hast healed me.

restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.

and give thanks to his holy name.

<sup>5</sup> For his anger is but for a moment,
and his favour is for a lifetime.

Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

<sup>6</sup> As for me, I said in my prosperity,
"I shall never be moved."

thou hadst established me as a strong mountain;
thou didst hide thy face, I was dismayed.

<sup>8</sup> To thee, O LORD, I cried;
and to the LORD I made supplication:

<sup>9</sup> "What profit is there in my death,
if I go down to the Pit?

Will the dust praise thee? Will it tell of thy faithfulness?

<sup>10</sup> Hear, O LORD, and be gracious to me!
O LORD, be thou my helper!"

thou hast loosed my sackcloth and girded me with gladness,

A Psalm of David.

In thee, O LORD, do I seek refuge;
let me never be put to shame;
in thy righteousness deliver me!

Be thou a rock of refuge for me, a strong fortress to save me!

<sup>3</sup> Yea, thou art my rock and my fortress;

for thy name's sake lead me and guide me, 4 take me out of the net which is hidden for me,
for thou art my refuge.
5 Into thy hand I commit my spirit;
thou hast redeemed me, O LORD, faithful God.

6 Thou hatest those who pay regard to vain idols;
but I trust in the LORD.
7 I will rejoice and be glad for thy steadfast love,
because thou hast seen my affliction,
thou hast taken heed of my adversities,
8 and hast not delivered me into the hand of the enemy;
thou hast set my feet in a broad place<sup>121</sup>.

9 Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am in distress<sup>122</sup>;
my eye is wasted from grief, my soul and my body also.
10 For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing<sup>123</sup>;
my strength fails because of my misery, and my bones waste away.

11 I am the scorn of all my adversaries,
a horror to my neighbours,
an object of dread to my acquaintances;
those who see me in the street flee from me.
12 I have passed out of mind like one who is dead;
I have become like a broken vessel.
13 Yea, I hear the whispering of many-- terror on every side!--
as they scheme together against me, as they plot to take my life.

14 But I trust in thee, O LORD,
I say, "Thou art my God."
15 My times are in thy hand;
deliver me from the hand of my enemies and persecutors!
16 Let thy face shine on thy servant;
save me in thy steadfast love!
17 Let me not be put to shame, O LORD, for I call on thee;
let the wicked be put to shame, let them go dumbfounded to Sheol.
18 Let the lying lips be dumb,
which speak insolently against the righteous in pride and contempt.

19 O how abundant is thy goodness,
which thou hast laid up for those who fear thee,
and wrought for those who take refuge in thee,
in the sight of the sons of men!
20 In the covert of thy presence thou hidest them from the plots of men;
thou holdest them safe under thy shelter from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD, for he has wondrously shown his steadfast love to me
when I was beset as in a besieged city.
22 I had said in my alarm, "I am driven far from thy sight."
But thou didst hear my supplications, when I cried to thee for help.

A Maskil.

Blessed<sup>124</sup> is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered<sup>125</sup>.
2 Blessed is the man to whom the LORD imputes no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit<sup>126</sup>.

3 When I<sup>127</sup> declared not my sin, my body wasted away<sup>128</sup> through my groaning<sup>129</sup> all day long.
4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me;
my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer.

5 I acknowledged my sin to thee,
and I did not hide my iniquity;
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD";
then thou didst forgive the guilt of my sin.
Selah

6 Therefore let every one who is godly offer prayer to thee;
when he may be found<sup>130</sup>,
in the rush of great waters, they shall not reach him.
7 Thou art a hiding place for me,
thou preservest me from trouble;
thou dost encompass me with deliverance.
Selah

8 I will instruct you and teach you
the way<sup>131</sup> you should go;
I will counsel you with my eye<sup>132</sup> upon you.
9 Be not like a horse or a mule<sup>133</sup>, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle,
else it will not keep with you.

10 Many are the pangs of the wicked<sup>134</sup>;

Praise befits the upright.
2 Praise the LORD with the lyre, make melody to him with the harp of ten strings!
3 Sing to him a new song,
play skilfully on the strings, with loud shouts.

4 For the word of the LORD is upright;
and all his work is done in faithfulness.
5 He loves righteousness and justice;
the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
and all their host by the breath of his mouth.
7 He gathered the waters of the sea as in a bottle;
he put the deeps in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD,
let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him!
9 For he spoke, and it came to be;
he commanded, and it stood forth.

10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nought;
he frustrates the plans of the peoples.
11 The counsel of the LORD stands for ever,
the thoughts of his heart to all generations.
12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people whom he has chosen as his heritage!

13 The LORD looks down from heaven,
he sees all the sons of men;
14 from where he sits enthroned he looks forth
on all the inhabitants of the earth, 15 he who fashions the hearts of them all,
and observes all their deeds.
16 A king is not saved by his great army;
a warrior is not delivered by his great strength.
17 The war horse is a vain hope for victory,
and by its great might it cannot save.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him,
on those who hope in his steadfast love, 19 that he may deliver their soul from death,
and keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul waits for the LORD;
he is our help and shield.
21 Yea, our heart is glad in him,
because we trust in his holy name.
22 Let thy steadfast love, O LORD,
be upon us, even as we hope in thee.

35:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of David.

Contend, O LORD, with those who contend with me;
fight against those who fight against me!

<sub>2</sub> Take hold of shield and buckler,
and rise for my help!

<sub>3</sub> Draw the spear and javelin against my pursuers!
Say to my soul, "I am your deliverance!"

<sub>4</sub> Let them be put to shame and dishonour who seek after my life!
Let them be turned back and confounded who devise evil against me!

<sub>5</sub> Let them be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them on!

<sub>6</sub> Let their way be dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD pursuing them!

<sub>7</sub> For without cause they hid their net for me;
without cause they dug a pit for my life.

<sub>8</sub> Let ruin come upon them unawares!
And let the net which they hid ensnare them;
let them fall therein to ruin!

<sub>9</sub> Then my soul shall rejoice in the LORD, exulting in his deliverance.

<sub>10</sub> All my bones shall say, "O LORD, who is like thee, thou who deliverest the weak from him who is too strong for him,
the weak and needy from him who despoils him?"

<sub>11</sub> Malicious witnesses rise up;
they ask me of things that I know not.

<sub>12</sub> They requite me evil for good;
my soul is forlorn.

<sub>13</sub> But I, when they were sick-- I wore sackcloth,
I afflicted myself with fasting.

I prayed with head bowed on my bosom,
<sub>14</sub> as though I grieved for my friend or my brother;
I went about as one who laments his mother,
bowed down and in mourning.

<sub>15</sub> But at my stumbling they gathered in glee,
they gathered together against me;
cripples whom I knew not slandered me without ceasing;

<sub>16</sub> they impiously mocked more and more,
gnashing at me with their teeth.

<sub>17</sub> How long, O LORD, wilt thou look on?
Rescue me from their ravages, my life from the lions!

<sub>18</sub> Then I will thank thee in the great congregation;
in the mighty throng I will praise thee.

<sub>19</sub> Let not those rejoice over me who are wrongfully my foes, and let not those wink the eye who hate me without cause.

<sub>20</sub> For they do not speak peace, but against those who are quiet in the land
they conceive words of deceit.

<sub>21</sub> They open wide their mouths against me;
they say, "Aha, Aha! our eyes have seen it!"

<sub>22</sub> Thou hast seen, O LORD;
be not silent! O Lord, be not far from me!

<sub>23</sub> Bestir thyself, and awake for my right,

for my cause, my God and my Lord!
24 Vindicate me, O LORD, my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me!
25 Let them not say to themselves,
"Aha, we have our heart's desire!"
Let them not say, "We have swallowed him up."

26 Let them be put to shame and confusion altogether who rejoice at my calamity!
Let them be clothed with shame and dishonour
who magnify themselves against me!

27 Let those who desire my vindication shout for joy and be glad,
and say evermore, "Great is the LORD,
who delights in the welfare of his servant!"
28 Then my tongue shall tell of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long.

36:<sub>1</sub> To the choirmaster.

A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

Transgression speaks to the wicked deep in his heart;
there is no fear of God before his eyes.
2 For he flatters himself in his own eyes
that his iniquity cannot be found out and hated.
3 The words of his mouth are mischief and deceit;
he has ceased to act wisely and do good.
4 He plots mischief while on his bed;
he sets himself in a way that is not good; he spurns not evil.

5 Thy steadfast love, O LORD, extends to the heavens,
thy faithfulness to the clouds.
6 Thy righteousness is like the mountains of God,
thy judgements are like the great deep;
man and beast thou savest, O LORD.

7 How precious is thy steadfast love, O God!
The children of men take refuge in the shadow of thy wings.
8 They feast on the abundance of thy house,
and thou givest them drink from the river of thy delights.
9 For with thee is the fountain of life;
in thy light do we see light.

10 O continue thy steadfast love to those who know thee,
and thy salvation to the upright of heart!
11 Let not the foot of arrogance come upon me,
nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.
12 There the evildoers lie prostrate,
they are thrust down, unable to rise.

37:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of David.

Fret<sup>149</sup> not yourself because of the wicked,
be not envious of wrongdoers!
2 For they will soon fade like the grass,

<sup>3</sup> Trust in the LORD, and do good;
so you will dwell in the land, and enjoy security.

and he<sup>150</sup> will give you the desires of your heart.

<sup>5</sup> Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in him, and he will act.

<sup>6</sup> He will bring forth your vindication as the light,
and your right as the noonday.

<sup>7</sup> Be still before the LORD,
and wait patiently for him;
fret not yourself over him who prospers in his way,
over the man who carries out evil devices!

Fret not yourself; it tends only to evil.

but those who wait for the LORD shall possess the land<sup>152</sup>.

<sup>10</sup> Yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more;
though you look well at his place, he will not be there.

and delight themselves in abundant prosperity.

and gnashes his teeth at him;

<sup>13</sup> but the LORD laughs at the wicked,
for he sees that his day is coming.

<sup>14</sup> The wicked draw the sword and bend their bows,
to bring down the poor and needy,
to slay those who walk uprightly;

<sup>15</sup> their sword shall enter their own heart,
and their bows shall be broken.

<sup>16</sup> Better is a little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked.

but the LORD upholds the righteous.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their heritage will abide for ever;

<sup>19</sup> they are not put to shame in evil times,
in the days of famine they have abundance.

38:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of David, for the memorial offering.
O LORD, rebuke me not in thy anger,
nor chasten me in thy wrath!
<sub>2</sub> For thy arrows have sunk into me,
and thy hand has come down on me.

<sup>3</sup> There is no soundness in my flesh because of thy indignation;
there is no health in my bones because of my sin.

<sup>4</sup> For my iniquities have gone over my head;
they weigh like a burden too heavy for me.

<sup>5</sup> My wounds grow foul and fester
because of my foolishness,

<sup>6</sup> I am utterly bowed down and prostrate;

like a dumb man who does not open his mouth.

<sup>14</sup> Yea, I am like a man who does not hear,
and in whose mouth are no rebukes.

<sup>15</sup> But for thee, O LORD, do I wait;

I said, "I will guard my ways,

so long as the wicked are in my presence."

<sup>2</sup> I was dumb and silent, I held my peace to no avail;
my distress grew worse,

As I mused, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:

<sup>4</sup> "LORD, let me know my end,

42:1 BOOK II.

To the choirmaster. A Maskil of the Sons of Korah.

As a hart longs for flowing streams,
so longs my soul for thee, O God.

When shall I come and behold the face of God?

<sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food day and night,
while men say to me continually, "Where is your God?"

<sup>4</sup> These things I remember, as I pour out my soul:
how I went with the throng,
and led them in procession to the house of God,
with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving,
a multitude keeping festival.

<sup>5</sup> Why are you cast down, O my soul,
and why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help <sup>6</sup> and my God.

My soul is cast down within me, therefore I remember thee from the land of Jordan and of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

all thy waves and thy billows have gone over me.

<sup>8</sup> By day the LORD commands his steadfast love;
and at night his song is with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.

<sup>9</sup> I say to God, my rock: "Why hast thou forgotten me?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

<sup>10</sup> As with a deadly wound in my body,
my adversaries taunt me,
while they say to me continually, "Where is your God?"

<sup>11</sup> Why are you cast down, O my soul,
and why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

43:1 Vindicate me, O God,

to God my exceeding joy;
and I will praise thee with the lyre, O God, my God.

<sup>5</sup> Why are you cast down, O my soul,
and why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

A Maskil of the Sons of Korah.

We have heard with our ears, O God,
our fathers have told us,
what deeds thou didst perform in their days, in the days of old:
<sup>2</sup> thou with thy own hand didst drive out the nations, but them thou didst plant;
thou didst afflict the peoples, but them thou didst set free; <sup>3</sup> for not by their own sword did they win the land, nor did their own arm give them victory;
but thy right hand, and thy arm, and the light of thy countenance;
for thou didst delight in them.

<sup>4</sup> Thou art my King and my God,
who ordainest victories for Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> Through thee we push down our foes;
through thy name we tread down our assailants.

<sup>6</sup> For not in my bow do I trust,
nor can my sword save me.

<sup>7</sup> But thou hast saved us from our foes,
and hast put to confusion those who hate us.

<sup>8</sup> In God we have boasted continually,
and we will give thanks to thy name for ever.

Selah

<sup>9</sup> Yet thou hast cast us off and abased us,
and hast not gone out with our armies.

<sup>10</sup> Thou hast made us turn back from the foe;
and our enemies have gotten spoil.

<sup>11</sup> Thou hast made us like sheep for slaughter,
and hast scattered us among the nations.

<sup>12</sup> Thou hast sold thy people for a trifle,
demanding no high price for them.

<sup>13</sup> Thou hast made us the taunt of our neighbours,
the derision and scorn of those about us.

<sup>14</sup> Thou hast made us a byword among the nations,
a laughingstock among the peoples.

<sup>15</sup> All day long my disgrace is before me,
and shame has covered my face,

<sup>16</sup> at the words of the taunters and revilers,
at the sight of the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>17</sup> All this has come upon us,
though we have not forgotten thee,

or been false to thy covenant.

<sup>18</sup> Our heart has not turned back,
nor have our steps departed from thy way, <sup>19</sup> that thou shouldst have broken us in the place of jackals, and covered us with deep darkness.

<sup>20</sup> If we had forgotten the name of our God,
or spread forth our hands to a strange god, <sup>21</sup> would not God discover this?
For he knows the secrets of the heart.
<sup>22</sup> Nay, for thy sake we are slain all the day long,
and accounted as sheep for the slaughter.
<sup>23</sup> Rouse thyself! Why sleepest thou, O Lord?
Awake! Do not cast us off for ever!
Why dost thou forget our affliction and oppression?
<sup>25</sup> For our soul is bowed down to the dust;
our body cleaves to the ground.
<sup>26</sup> Rise up, come to our help!
Deliver us for the sake of thy steadfast love!

when the iniquity of my persecutors surrounds me,

6 men who trust<sup>190</sup> in their wealth

7 Truly no man can ransom himself, or give to God the price of his life,

8 for the ransom of his life is costly,

and can never suffice,

9 that he should continue to live on for ever,

and never see the Pit.

10 Yea, he shall see that even the wise die,

the fool and the stupid alike must perish

and leave their wealth to others.

Have mercy on me, O God, according to thy steadfast love;

2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,
and cleanse me from my sin!

3 For I know my transgressions,

<sup>15</sup> I will offer to thee burnt offerings of fatlings,
with the smoke of the sacrifice of rams;
I will make an offering of bulls and goats.
<sup>16</sup> Come and hear, all you who fear God,
and I will tell what he has done for me.

<sup>17</sup> I cried aloud to him,
and he was extolled with my tongue.
<sup>18</sup> If I had cherished iniquity in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened.
<sup>19</sup> But truly God has listened;
he has given heed to the voice of my prayer.

because he has not rejected my prayer
or removed his steadfast love from me!

A Psalm.

A Song.

May God be gracious to us and bless us
and make his face to shine upon us,
Selah

<sup>2</sup> that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving power among all nations.

let all the peoples praise thee!

for thou dost judge the peoples with equity
and guide the nations upon earth.

let all the peoples praise thee!

<sup>6</sup> The earth has yielded its increase;
God, our God, has blessed us.

<sup>7</sup> God has blessed us;
let all the ends of the earth fear him!

68:<sup>1</sup> To the choirmaster.

A Psalm of David.

A Song.

Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered;
let those who hate him flee before him!

<sup>2</sup> As smoke is driven away, so drive them away;
as wax melts before fire, let the wicked perish before God!

<sup>3</sup> But let the righteous be joyful;
let them exult before God; let them be jubilant with joy!

<sup>4</sup> Sing to God, sing praises to his name;
lift up a song to him who rides upon the clouds;
his name is the LORD, exult before him!

<sup>5</sup> Father of the fatherless and protector of widows is God in his holy habitation.

<sup>6</sup> God gives the desolate a home to dwell in;
he leads out the prisoners to prosperity;
but the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

<sup>7</sup> O God, when thou didst go forth before thy people,
when thou didst march through the wilderness,

Selah

<sup>8</sup> the earth quaked, the heavens poured down rain, at the presence of God;
yon Sinai quaked at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
<sup>9</sup> Rain in abundance, O God, thou didst shed abroad;
thou didst restore thy heritage as it languished;
<sup>10</sup> thy flock found a dwelling in it;
in thy goodness, O God, thou didst provide for the needy.
<sup>11</sup> The Lord gives the command;
great is the host of those who bore the tidings:
<sup>12</sup> "The kings of the armies, they flee, they flee!"
The women at home divide the spoil, <sup>13</sup> though they stay among the sheepfolds--
the wings of a dove covered with silver,
its pinions with green gold.
<sup>14</sup> When the Almighty scattered kings there, snow fell on Zalmon.

O many-peaked mountain, mountain of Bashan!
<sup>16</sup> Why look you with envy, O many-peaked mountain,
at the mount which God desired for his abode,
yea, where the LORD will dwell for ever?

<sup>17</sup> With mighty chariotry, twice ten thousand,
thousands upon thousands,
the Lord came from Sinai into the holy place.
<sup>18</sup> Thou didst ascend the high mount,
leading captives in thy train,
and receiving gifts among men,
even among the rebellious,
that the LORD God may dwell there.

<sup>19</sup> Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up;
God is our salvation.
<sup>20</sup> Our God is a God of salvation;
and to GOD, the Lord, belongs escape from death.

<sup>21</sup> But God will shatter the heads of his enemies,
the hairy crown of him who walks in his guilty ways.
<sup>22</sup> The Lord said, "I will bring them back from Bashan,
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea, <sup>23</sup> that you may bathe your feet in blood, that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from the foe."

the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary-- <sup>25</sup> the singers in front, the minstrels last,
between them maidens playing timbrels:
the LORD, O you who are of Israel's fountain!" <sup>27</sup> There is Benjamin, the least of them, in the lead,
the princes of Judah in their throng,
the princes of Zeb'ulun, the princes of Naph'tali.

<sup>28</sup> Summon thy might, O God;
show thy strength, O God, thou who hast wrought for us.
<sup>29</sup> Because of thy temple at Jerusalem kings bear gifts to thee.
<sup>30</sup> Rebuke the beasts that dwell among the reeds,
the herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples.

Trample under foot those who lust after tribute;
scatter the peoples who delight in war.

let Ethiopia hasten to stretch out her hands to God.

<sup>32</sup> Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth;
sing praises to the Lord,

Selah

<sup>33</sup> to him who rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens;
lo, he sends forth his voice, his mighty voice.

<sup>34</sup> Ascribe power to God,
whose majesty is over Israel,
and his power is in the skies.

<sup>35</sup> Terrible is God in his sanctuary, the God of Israel, he gives power and strength to his people.

Blessed be God!

69:<sup>1</sup> To the choirmaster: according to Lilies.
A Psalm of David.

Save me, O God!

For the waters have come up to my neck.

<sup>2</sup> I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold;
I have come into deep waters, and the flood sweeps over me.

My eyes grow dim with waiting for my God.

<sup>4</sup> More in number than the hairs of my head
are those who hate me without cause;
mighty are those who would destroy me,
those who attack me with lies.

What I did not steal must I now restore?

<sup>5</sup> O God, thou knowest my folly;
the wrongs I have done are not hidden from thee.

<sup>6</sup> Let not those who hope in thee be put to shame through me, O Lord GOD of hosts;
let not those who seek thee be brought to dishonour through me,
O God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> For it is for thy sake that I have borne reproach,
that shame has covered my face.

<sup>8</sup> I have become a stranger to my brethren,
an alien to my mother's sons.

<sup>9</sup> For zeal for thy house has consumed me,
and the insults of those who insult thee have fallen on me.

<sup>10</sup> When I humbled my soul with fasting,
it became my reproach.

<sup>11</sup> When I made sackcloth my clothing,
I became a byword to them.

<sup>12</sup> I am the talk of those who sit in the gate,
and the drunkards make songs about me.

<sup>13</sup> But as for me, my prayer is to thee, O LORD.

At an acceptable time, O God,
in the abundance of thy steadfast love answer me.

With thy faithful help <sup>14</sup> rescue me from sinking in the mire;
let me be delivered from my enemies and from the deep waters.

<sup>15</sup> Let not the flood sweep over me,

or the deep swallow me up,
or the pit close its mouth over me.

<sup>16</sup> Answer me, O LORD, for thy steadfast love is good;
according to thy abundant mercy, turn to me.

<sup>17</sup> Hide not thy face from thy servant;
for I am in distress, make haste to answer me.

<sup>18</sup> Draw near to me, redeem me,
set me free because of my enemies!

<sup>19</sup> Thou knowest my reproach,
and my shame and my dishonour;
my foes are all known to thee.

<sup>20</sup> Insults have broken my heart, so that I am in despair.
I looked for pity, but there was none;
and for comforters, but I found none.

<sup>21</sup> They gave me poison for food,
and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

<sup>22</sup> Let their own table before them become a snare;
let their sacrificial feasts be a trap.

and make their loins tremble continually.

<sup>24</sup> Pour out thy indignation upon them,
and let thy burning anger overtake them.

<sup>25</sup> May their camp be a desolation,
let no one dwell in their tents.

<sup>26</sup> For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten,
and him whom thou hast wounded, they afflict still more.

<sup>27</sup> Add to them punishment upon punishment;
may they have no acquittal from thee.

<sup>28</sup> Let them be blotted out of the book of the living;
let them not be enrolled among the righteous.

<sup>29</sup> But I am afflicted and in pain;
let thy salvation, O God, set me on high!

<sup>30</sup> I will praise the name of God with a song;
I will magnify him with thanksgiving.

<sup>31</sup> This will please the LORD more than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs.

<sup>32</sup> Let the oppressed see it and be glad;
you who seek God, let your hearts revive.

and does not despise his own that are in bonds.

<sup>34</sup> Let heaven and earth praise him,
the seas and everything that moves therein.

and his servants shall dwell there and possess it;

<sup>36</sup> the children of his servants shall inherit it,
and those who love his name shall dwell in it.

70: To the choirmaster.

A Psalm of David, for the memorial offering.

Be pleased, O God, to deliver me!

O LORD, make haste to help me!

<sup>2</sup> Let them be put to shame and confusion who seek my life!

Let them be turned back and brought to dishonour who desire my hurt!
3 Let them be appalled because of their shame who say, "Aha, Aha!"

4 May all who seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee!
May those who love thy salvation say evermore, "God is great!"
5 But I am poor and needy; hasten to me, O God!
Thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, do not tarry!

71:1 In thee, O LORD, do I take refuge;
let me never be put to shame!
2 In thy righteousness deliver me and rescue me;
incline thy ear to me, and save me!
3 Be thou to me a rock of refuge,
a strong fortress, to save me,
for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked,
from the grasp of the unjust and cruel man.
5 For thou, O Lord, art my hope,
my trust, O LORD, from my youth.
6 Upon thee I have leaned from my birth;
thou art he who took me from my mother's womb.
My praise is continually of thee.

7 I have been as a portent to many;
but thou art my strong refuge.
8 My mouth is filled with thy praise,
and with thy glory all the day.
9 Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
forsake me not when my strength is spent.
10 For my enemies speak concerning me,
those who watch for my life consult together, 11 and say, "God has forsaken him;
pursue and seize him, for there is none to deliver him."

12 O God, be not far from me;
O my God, make haste to help me!
13 May my accusers be put to shame and consumed;
with scorn and disgrace may they be covered who seek my hurt.
14 But I will hope continually,
and will praise thee yet more and more.
15 My mouth will tell of thy righteous acts,
of thy deeds of salvation all the day,
for their number is past my knowledge.
16 With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come,
I will praise thy righteousness, thine alone.

17 O God, from my youth thou hast taught me,
and I still proclaim thy wondrous deeds.
18 So even to old age and grey hairs,
O God, do not forsake me,
till I proclaim thy might to all the generations to come.
Thy power 19 and thy righteousness, O God, reach the high heavens.

Thou who hast done great things, O God, who is like thee?
20 Thou who hast made me see many sore troubles
wilt revive me again;

from the depths of the earth thou wilt bring me up again.
21 Thou wilt increase my honour, and comfort me again.

22 I will also praise thee with the harp
for thy faithfulness, O my God;
I will sing praises to thee with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel.
23 My lips will shout for joy, when I sing praises to thee;
my soul also, which thou hast rescued.
24 And my tongue will talk of thy righteous help
all the day long,
for they have been put to shame and disgraced
who sought to do me hurt.

72:1 A Psalm of Solomon.

Give the king thy justice, O God,
and thy righteousness to the royal son!
2 May he judge thy people with righteousness,
and thy poor with justice!
3 Let the mountains bear prosperity for the people,
and the hills, in righteousness!
4 May he defend the cause of the poor of the people,
give deliverance to the needy, and crush the oppressor!

5 May he live while the sun endures,
and as long as the moon, throughout all generations!
6 May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass,
like showers that water the earth!
7 In his days may righteousness flourish,
and peace abound, till the moon be no more!

8 May he have dominion from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth!
9 May his foes bow down before him,
and his enemies lick the dust!
10 May the kings of Tarshish and of the isles render him tribute,
may the kings of Sheba and Seba bring gifts!
11 May all kings fall down before him,
all nations serve him!

12 For he delivers the needy when he calls,
the poor and him who has no helper.
13 He has pity on the weak and the needy,
and saves the lives of the needy.
14 From oppression and violence he redeems their life;
and precious is their blood in his sight.

15 Long may he live,
may gold of Sheba be given to him!
May prayer be made for him continually,
and blessings invoked for him all the day!
16 May there be abundance of grain in the land;
on the tops of the mountains may it wave;
may its fruit be like Lebanon;
and may men blossom forth from the cities
like the grass of the field!
17 May his name endure for ever,
his fame continue as long as the sun!

May men bless themselves by him, all nations call him blessed!

<sup>18</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
who alone does wondrous things.

<sup>19</sup> Blessed be his glorious name for ever;
may his glory fill the whole earth!
Amen and Amen!

73:1 BOOK III

A Psalm of Asaph<sup>209</sup>.

Truly God is good to the upright,
to those who are pure in heart.

<sup>2</sup> But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled,
my steps had well nigh slipped.

<sup>3</sup> For I was envious of the arrogant,
when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

<sup>4</sup> For they have no pangs;
their bodies are sound and sleek.

<sup>5</sup> They are not in trouble as other men are;
they are not stricken like other men.

violence covers them as a garment.

<sup>7</sup> Their eyes swell out with fatness,
their hearts overflow with follies.

<sup>8</sup> They scoff and speak with malice;
loftily they threaten oppression.

<sup>9</sup> They set their mouths against the heavens,
and their tongue struts through the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore the people turn and praise them;
and find no fault in them<sup>210</sup>.

Is there knowledge in the Most High?"

always at ease, they increase in riches.

<sup>13</sup> All in vain have I kept my heart clean and washed my hands in innocence.

<sup>14</sup> For all the day long I have been stricken,
and chastened every morning.

<sup>15</sup> If I had said, "I will speak thus,"
I would have been untrue to the generation of thy children.

<sup>16</sup> But when I thought how to understand this,
it seemed to me a wearisome task,

<sup>17</sup> until I went into the sanctuary of God;
then I perceived their end.

thou dost make them fall to ruin.

<sup>19</sup> How they are destroyed in a moment,
swept away utterly by terrors!

<sup>20</sup> They are like a dream when one awakes,

on awaking you despise their phantoms.

<sup>21</sup> When my soul was embittered,
when I was pricked in heart,
<sup>22</sup> I was stupid and ignorant,
I was like a beast toward thee.
<sup>23</sup> Nevertheless I am continually with thee;
thou dost hold my right hand.
<sup>24</sup> Thou dost guide me with thy counsel,
and afterward thou wilt receive me to glory.
<sup>25</sup> Whom have I in heaven but thee?
And there is nothing upon earth that I desire besides thee.
<sup>26</sup> My flesh and my heart may fail,
but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever.

<sup>27</sup> For lo, those who are far from thee shall perish;
thou dost put an end to those who are false to thee.
<sup>28</sup> But for me it is good to be near God;
I have made the Lord GOD my refuge,
that I may tell of all thy works.

74:<sub>1</sub> A Maskil of Asaph.

O God, why dost thou cast us off for ever?
Why does thy anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?
<sup>2</sup> Remember thy congregation,
which thou hast gotten of old,
which thou hast redeemed to be the tribe of thy heritage!
Remember Mount Zion, where thou hast dwelt.
<sup>3</sup> Direct thy steps to the perpetual ruins;
the enemy has destroyed everything in the sanctuary!

<sup>4</sup> Thy foes have roared in the midst of thy holy place;
they set up their own signs for signs.
<sup>5</sup> At the upper entrance they hacked the wooden trellis with axes.
<sup>6</sup> And then all its carved wood they broke down with hatchets and hammers.
<sup>7</sup> They set thy sanctuary on fire;
to the ground they desecrated the dwelling place of thy name.
<sup>8</sup> They said to themselves, "We will utterly subdue them";
they burned all the meeting places of God in the land.

<sup>9</sup> We do not see our signs;
there is no longer any prophet,
and there is none among us who knows how long.
<sup>10</sup> How long, O God, is the foe to scoff?
Is the enemy to revile thy name for ever?
<sup>11</sup> Why dost thou hold back thy hand,
why dost thou keep thy right hand in thy bosom?

<sup>12</sup> Yet God my King is from of old,
working salvation in the midst of the earth.
<sup>13</sup> Thou didst divide the sea by thy might;
thou didst break the heads of the dragons on the waters.
<sup>14</sup> Thou didst crush the heads of Leviathan, thou didst give him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.
<sup>15</sup> Thou didst cleave open springs and brooks;
thou didst dry up ever-flowing streams.
<sup>16</sup> Thine is the day, thine also the night;

thou hast established the luminaries and the sun.
17 Thou hast fixed all the bounds of the earth;
thou hast made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, O LORD, how the enemy scoffs,
and an impious people reviles thy name.
19 Do not deliver the soul of thy dove to the wild beasts;
do not forget the life of thy poor for ever.

20 Have regard for thy covenant;
for the dark places of the land are full of the habitations of violence.
21 Let not the downtrodden be put to shame;
let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22 Arise, O God, plead thy cause;
remember how the impious scoff at thee all the day!
23 Do not forget the clamour of thy foes,
the uproar of thy adversaries which goes up continually!

75:<sub>1</sub> To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy.
A Psalm of Asaph.
A Song.

We give thanks to thee, O God; we give thanks;
we call on thy name and recount thy wondrous deeds.

2 At the set time which I appoint I will judge with equity.
3 When the earth totters, and all its inhabitants,
it is I who keep steady its pillars.

Selah

4 I say to the boastful, "Do not boast,"
and to the wicked, "Do not lift up your horn;
5 do not lift up your horn on high,
or speak with insolent neck."

6 For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up; 7 but it is God who executes judgement,
putting down one and lifting up another.
8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
with foaming wine, well mixed;
and he will pour a draught from it,
and all the wicked of the earth shall drain it down to the dregs.

9 But I will rejoice for ever,
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
10 All the horns of the wicked he will cut off,
but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

A Psalm of Asaph.
A Song.

In Judah God is known<sup>212</sup>, his name is great in Israel.
2 His abode has been established in Salem,

his dwelling place in Zion.

<sup>3</sup> There he broke the flashing arrows,
the shield, the sword, and the weapons of war.

<sup>4</sup> Glorious art thou,
more majestic than the everlasting mountains.
<sup>5</sup> The stouthearted were stripped of their spoil;
they sank into sleep;
all the men of war were unable to use their hands.
<sup>6</sup> At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob,
both rider and horse lay stunned.

Who can stand before thee when once thy anger is roused?
<sup>8</sup> From the heavens thou didst utter judgement;
the earth feared and was still,
<sup>9</sup> when God arose to establish judgement to save all the oppressed of the earth<sup>213</sup>.

<sup>10</sup> Surely the wrath of men shall praise thee;
the residue of wrath thou wilt gird upon thee.
<sup>11</sup> Make your vows to the LORD your God, and perform them;
let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared, <sup>12</sup> who cuts off the spirit of princes, who is terrible to the kings of the earth<sup>214</sup>.

77:<sub>1</sub> To the choirmaster: according to Jeduthun.
A Psalm of Asaph.

I cry aloud to God,
aloud to God, that he may hear me.
<sup>2</sup> In the day of my trouble I seek the Lord;
in the night my hand is stretched out without wearying;
my soul refuses to be comforted.

<sup>3</sup> I think of God, and I moan;
I meditate, and my spirit faints.

I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

<sup>5</sup> I consider the days of old,
I remember the years long ago.

<sup>6</sup> I commune with my heart in the night;
I meditate and search my spirit:

<sup>7</sup> "Will the Lord spurn for ever,
and never again be favourable?

<sup>8</sup> Has his steadfast love for ever ceased?
Are his promises at an end for all time?

<sup>9</sup> Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he in anger shut up his compassion?"

Selah

<sup>10</sup> And I say, "It is my grief that the right hand of the Most High has changed."

<sup>11</sup> I will call to mind the deeds of the LORD;
yea, I will remember thy wonders of old.
<sup>12</sup> I will meditate on all thy work,
and muse on thy mighty deeds.
<sup>13</sup> Thy way, O God, is holy.
What god is great like our God?
<sup>14</sup> Thou art the God who workest wonders, who hast manifested thy might among the peoples.
<sup>15</sup> Thou didst with thy arm redeem thy people,
the sons of Jacob and Joseph.
Selah

<sup>16</sup> When the waters saw thee, O God, when the waters saw thee, they were afraid,
yea, the deep trembled.
<sup>17</sup> The clouds poured out water;
the skies gave forth thunder;
thy arrows flashed on every side.
<sup>18</sup> The crash of thy thunder was in the whirlwind;
thy lightnings lighted up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.
<sup>19</sup> Thy way was through the sea,
thy path through the great waters;
yet thy footprints were unseen.
<sup>20</sup> Thou didst lead thy people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

78:<sub>1</sub> A Maskil of Asaph.

Give ear, O my people, to my teaching;
incline your ears to the words of my mouth!
<sup>2</sup> I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter dark sayings from of old,
<sup>3</sup> things that we have heard and known,
that our fathers have told us.
<sup>4</sup> We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD,
and his might, and the wonders which he has wrought.

<sup>5</sup> He established a testimony in Jacob,
and appointed a law in Israel,
which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children; <sup>6</sup> that the next generation might know them,
the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children, <sup>7</sup> so that they should set their hope in God,
and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;
<sup>8</sup> and that they should not be like their fathers,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation whose heart was not steadfast,
whose spirit was not faithful to God.

<sup>9</sup> The E'phraimites, armed with the bow,
turned back on the day of battle.
<sup>10</sup> They did not keep God's covenant,
but refused to walk according to his law.
<sup>11</sup> They forgot what he had done,
and the miracles that he had shown them.
<sup>12</sup> In the sight of their fathers he wrought marvels in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zo'an.

13 He divided the sea and let them pass through it,
and made the waters stand like a heap.

14 In the daytime he led them with a cloud,
and all the night with a fiery light.

15 He cleft rocks in the wilderness,
and gave them drink abundantly as from the deep.

16 He made streams come out of the rock,
and caused waters to flow down like rivers.

17 Yet they sinned still more against him,
rebellng against the Most High in the desert.

18 They tested God in their heart
by demanding the food they craved.

19 They spoke against God, saying,
"Can God spread a table in the wilderness?"

20 He smote the rock so that water gushed out and streams overflowed.

Can he also give bread, or provide meat for his people?"

21 Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of wrath;
a fire was kindled against Jacob, his anger mounted against Israel;

22 because they had no faith in God,
and did not trust his saving power.

23 Yet he commanded the skies above,
and opened the doors of heaven;

24 and he rained down upon them manna to eat,
and gave them the grain of heaven.

25 Man ate of the bread of the angels;
he sent them food in abundance.

26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens,
and by his power he led out the south wind;

27 he rained flesh upon them like dust,
winged birds like the sand of the seas;

28 he let them fall in the midst of their camp,
all around their habitations.

29 And they ate and were well filled,
for he gave them what they craved.

30 But before they had sated their craving,
while the food was still in their mouths,

31 the anger of God rose against them
and he slew the strongest of them,
and laid low the picked men of Israel.

32 In spite of all this they still sinned;
despite his wonders they did not believe.

33 So he made their days vanish like a breath,
and their years in terror.

34 When he slew them, they sought<sup>216</sup> for him;
they repented and sought God earnestly.

35 They remembered that God was their rock,
the Most High God their redeemer.

36 But they flattered him with their mouths;
they lied to him with their tongues.

37 Their heart was not steadfast toward him;
they were not true to his covenant.

38 Yet he, being compassionate, forgave their iniquity,
and did not destroy them;

he restrained his anger often, and did not stir up all his wrath.

<sup>216</sup>why God punishes sin

39 He remembered that they were but flesh,
a wind that passes and comes not again.
40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the desert!
41 They tested him again and again,
and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
42 They did not keep in mind his power,
or the day when he redeemed them from the foe;
43 when he wrought his signs in Egypt,
and his miracles in the fields of Zo'an.
44 He turned their rivers to blood,
so that they could not drink of their streams.
45 He sent among them swarms of flies,
which devoured them, and frogs, which destroyed them.
46 He gave their crops to the caterpillar,
and the fruit of their labour to the locust.
47 He destroyed their vines with hail,
and their sycamores with frost.
48 He gave over their cattle to the hail,
and their flocks to thunderbolts.
49 He let loose on them his fierce anger,
wrath, indignation, and distress,
a company of destroying angels.
50 He made a path for his anger;
he did not spare them from death,
but gave their lives over to the plague.
51 He smote all the first-born in Egypt,
the first issue of their strength in the tents of Ham.
52 Then he led forth his people like sheep,
and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
53 He led them in safety,
so that they were not afraid;
but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
54 And he brought them to his holy land,
to the mountain which his right hand had won.
55 He drove out nations before them;
he apportioned them for a possession
and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

56 Yet they tested and rebelled against the Most High God,
and did not observe his testimonies, 57 but turned away and acted treacherously like their fathers;
they twisted like a deceitful bow.
58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places;
they moved him to jealousy with their graven images.
59 When God heard, he was full of wrath,
and he utterly rejected Israel.
60 He forsook his dwelling at Shiloh,
the tent where he dwelt among men, 61 and delivered his power to captivity,
his glory to the hand of the foe.
62 He gave his people over to the sword,
and vented his wrath on his heritage.
63 Fire devoured their young men,
and their maidens had no marriage song.
64 Their priests fell by the sword,
and their widows made no lamentation.
65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,
like a strong man shouting because of wine.
66 And he put his adversaries to rout;

he put them to everlasting shame.

<sup>67</sup> He rejected the tent of Joseph,
he did not choose the tribe of E'phraim;

<sup>68</sup> but he chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion, which he loves.

<sup>69</sup> He built his sanctuary like the high heavens,
like the earth, which he has founded for ever.

and took him from the sheepfolds;

<sup>71</sup> from tending the ewes that had young he brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob his people, of Israel his inheritance.

<sup>72</sup> With upright heart he tended them,
and guided them with skilful hand.

79:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of Asaph.

O God, the heathen have come into thy inheritance;
they have defiled thy holy temple;
they have laid Jerusalem in ruins.

<sup>2</sup> They have given the bodies of thy servants to the birds of the air for food,
the flesh of thy saints to the beasts of the earth.

<sup>3</sup> They have poured out their blood like water round about Jerusalem,
and there was none to bury them.

<sup>4</sup> We have become a taunt to our neighbours, mocked and derided by those round about us.

<sup>5</sup> How long, O LORD? Wilt thou be angry for ever?
Will thy jealous wrath burn like fire?

<sup>6</sup> Pour out thy anger on the nations that do not know thee,
and on the kingdoms that do not call on thy name!

<sup>7</sup> For they have devoured Jacob,
and laid waste his habitation.

<sup>8</sup> Do not remember against us the iniquities of our forefathers;
let thy compassion come speedily to meet us,
for we are brought very low.

<sup>9</sup> Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name;
deliver us, and forgive our sins, for thy name's sake!

Let the avenging of the outpoured blood of thy servants be known among the nations before our eyes!

<sup>11</sup> Let the groans of the prisoners come before thee;
according to thy great power preserve those doomed to die!

<sup>12</sup> Return sevenfold into the bosom of our neighbours
the taunts with which they have taunted thee, O Lord!

<sup>13</sup> Then we thy people, the flock of thy pasture, will give thanks to thee for ever;
from generation to generation we will recount thy praise.

A Testimony of Asaph.

A Psalm.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
thou who leadest Joseph like a flock!
Thou who art enthroned upon the cherubim, shine forth
Stir up thy might, and come to save us!

<sup>3</sup> Restore us, O God;
let thy face shine, that we may be saved!

<sup>4</sup> O LORD God of hosts,
how long wilt thou be angry with thy people's prayers?
<sup>5</sup> Thou hast fed them with the bread of tears,
and given them tears to drink in full measure.
<sup>6</sup> Thou dost make us the scorn of our neighbours;
and our enemies laugh among themselves.

<sup>7</sup> Restore us, O God of hosts;
let thy face shine, that we may be saved!

<sup>8</sup> Thou didst bring a vine out of Egypt;
thou didst drive out the nations and plant it.
<sup>9</sup> Thou didst clear the ground for it;
it took deep root and filled the land.
<sup>10</sup> The mountains were covered with its shade,
the mighty cedars with its branches; <sup>11</sup> it sent out its branches to the sea,
and its shoots to the River.
<sup>12</sup> Why then hast thou broken down its walls,
so that all who pass along the way pluck its fruit?
<sup>13</sup> The boar from the forest ravages it,
and all that move in the field feed on it.

Look down from heaven, and see; have regard for this vine, <sup>15</sup> the stock which thy right hand planted.
<sup>16</sup> They have burned it with fire,
they have cut it down;
may they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance!
<sup>17</sup> But let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand,
the son of man whom thou hast made strong for thyself!
<sup>18</sup> Then we will never turn back from thee;
give us life, and we will call on thy name!

<sup>19</sup> Restore us, O LORD God of hosts!
let thy face shine, that we may be saved!

A Psalm of Asaph.

Sing aloud to God our strength;
shout for joy to the God of Jacob!
<sup>2</sup> Raise a song, sound the timbrel,
the sweet lyre with the harp.
<sup>3</sup> Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
at the full moon, on our feast day.
<sup>4</sup> For it is a statute for Israel,
an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
<sup>5</sup> He made it a decree in Joseph,
when he went out over the land of Egypt.

I hear a voice I had not known:
6 "I relieved your shoulder of the burden;
your hands were freed from the basket.
7 In distress you called, and I delivered you;
I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Mer'ibah.

Selah

8 Hear, O my people, while I admonish you!
O Israel, if you would but listen to me!
9 There shall be no strange god among you;
you shall not bow down to a foreign god.
10 I am the LORD your God,
who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 "But my people did not listen to my voice;
Israel would have none of me.
12 So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts,
to follow their own counsels.
13 O that my people would listen<sup>217</sup> to me, that Israel would walk<sup>218</sup> in my ways!
14 I would soon subdue their enemies,
and turn my hand against their foes.
15 Those who hate the LORD would cringe toward him,
and their fate would last for ever.
16 I would feed you with the finest of the wheat, and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you."

82:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of Asaph.

3 Give justice to the weak and the fatherless;

4 Rescue the weak and the needy;

they walk about in darkness;
all the foundations of the earth are shaken.

6 I say, "You are gods, sons of the Most High, all of you;
7 nevertheless, you shall die like men,
and fall like any prince."

8 Arise, O God, judge the earth;
for to thee belong all the nations!

2 For lo, thy enemies are in tumult;
those who hate thee have raised their heads.
3 They lay crafty plans against thy people;
they consult together against thy protected ones.
4 They say, "Come, let us wipe them out as a nation;
let the name of Israel be remembered no more!"
5 Yea, they conspire with one accord;
against thee they make a covenant--

13 O my God, make them like whirling dust, like chaff before the wind<sup>219</sup>.
14 As fire consumes the forest,
as the flame sets the mountains ablaze,

<sup>15</sup> Blessed are the people who know the festal shout, who walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance<sup>258</sup>, <sup>16</sup> who exult in thy name all the day, and extol thy righteousness.
<sup>17</sup> For thou art the glory of their strength;
 by thy favour our horn is exalted.
<sup>18</sup> For our shield belongs to the LORD,
 our king to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>19</sup> Of old thou didst speak in a vision to thy faithful one,
 and say: "I have set the crown upon one who is mighty,
 I have exalted one chosen from the people<sup>259</sup>.
<sup>20</sup> I have found David, my servant;
 with my holy oil I have anointed him;
<sup>21</sup> so that my hand shall ever abide with him,
 my arm also shall strengthen him.
<sup>22</sup> The enemy shall not outwit him,
 the wicked shall not humble him.
<sup>23</sup> I will crush his foes before him
 and strike down those who hate him.
<sup>24</sup> My faithfulness and my steadfast love shall be with him, and in my name shall his horn be exalted.
<sup>25</sup> I will set his hand on the sea
 and his right hand on the rivers.
<sup>26</sup> He shall cry to me, 'Thou art my Father,
 my God, and the Rock of my salvation.'
<sup>27</sup> And I will make him the first-born,
 the highest of the kings of the earth.
<sup>28</sup> My steadfast love I will keep for him for ever,
 and my covenant will stand firm for him.
<sup>29</sup> I will establish his line for ever
 and his throne as the days of the heavens.
<sup>30</sup> If his children<sup>260</sup> forsake my law and do not walk according to my ordinances<sup>261</sup>, <sup>31</sup> if they violate my statutes and do not keep my commandments, <sup>32</sup> then I will punish their transgression with the rod<sup>262</sup> and their iniquity with scourges<sup>263</sup>; <sup>33</sup> but I will not remove from him my steadfast love, or be false to my faithfulness.
<sup>34</sup> I will not violate my covenant,
 or alter the word that went forth from my lips.

38 But now thou hast cast off and rejected,

45 Thou hast cut short the days of his youth;
thou hast covered him with shame.

Selah

46 How long, O LORD? Wilt thou hide thyself for ever?
How long will thy wrath burn like fire?
47 Remember, O Lord, what the measure of life is,
for what vanity thou hast created all the sons of men!
48 What man can live and never see death?
Who can deliver his soul from the power of Sheol?

49 Lord, where is thy steadfast love of old,
which by thy faithfulness thou didst swear to David?
50 Remember, O Lord, how thy servant is scorned;
how I bear in my bosom the insults of the peoples, 51 with which thy enemies taunt, O LORD,
with which they mock the footsteps of thy anointed.

52 Blessed be the LORD for ever!
Amen and Amen.

90:1 BOOK IV

A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

<sup>2</sup> Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.

<sup>3</sup> Thou turnest man back to the dust,
and sayest, "Turn back, O children of men!"
<sup>4</sup> For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

<sup>5</sup> Thou dost sweep men away;
they are like a dream, like grass which is renewed in the morning:

---

<sup>264</sup>We think God has failed because we misunderstand Him

<sup>6</sup> in the morning it flourishes and is renewed;
in the evening it fades and withers.

<sup>7</sup> For we are consumed by thy anger;
by thy wrath we are overwhelmed.

<sup>8</sup> Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,
our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

<sup>9</sup> For all our days pass away under thy wrath,
our years come to an end like a sigh.
<sup>10</sup> The years of our life are threescore and ten,
or even by reason of strength fourscore;
yet their span is but toil and trouble;
they are soon gone, and we fly away.

<sup>11</sup> Who considers the power of thy anger,
and thy wrath according to the fear of thee?

<sup>12</sup> So teach us to number our days
that we may get a heart of wisdom.

<sup>13</sup> Return, O LORD! How long?
Have pity on thy servants!

<sup>14</sup> Satisfy us in the morning with thy steadfast love,
that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

<sup>15</sup> Make us glad as many days as thou hast afflicted us,
and as many years as we have seen evil.

<sup>16</sup> Let thy work be manifest to thy servants,
and thy glorious power to their children.

<sup>17</sup> Let the favour of the Lord our God be upon us,
and establish thou the work of our hands upon us,
yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

91:<sup>1</sup> He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, who abides in the shadow of the Almighty<sup>265</sup>, <sup>2</sup> will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress;

<sup>3</sup> For he will deliver you from the snare<sup>267</sup> of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence; <sup>4</sup> he will cover you with his pinions,
and under his wings you will find refuge;
his faithfulness is a shield<sup>268</sup> and buckler.
<sup>5</sup> You will not fear the terror of the night,
nor the arrow that flies by day, <sup>6</sup> nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness,
nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.

<sup>7</sup> A thousand may fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right hand;
but it will not come near you.

<sup>8</sup> You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked.

<sup>9</sup> Because you have made the LORD your refuge,
the Most High your habitation,

92:1 A Psalm.

A Song for the Sabbath.

It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praises to thy name, O Most High;
2 to declare thy steadfast love in the morning,
and thy faithfulness by night,
3 to the music of the lute and the harp,
to the melody of the lyre.
4 For thou, O LORD, hast made me glad by thy work;
at the works of thy hands I sing for joy.

5 How great are thy works, O LORD!
Thy thoughts are very deep!
6 The dull man cannot know,
the stupid cannot understand this:
7 that, though the wicked sprout like grass
and all evildoers flourish,
they are doomed to destruction for ever,
8 but thou, O LORD, art on high for ever.
9 For, lo, thy enemies, O LORD,
for, lo, thy enemies shall perish;
all evildoers shall be scattered.

10 But thou hast exalted my horn like that of the wild ox;
thou hast poured over me fresh oil.
11 My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies,
my ears have heard the doom of my evil assailants.

12 The righteous flourish like the palm tree,
and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
13 They are planted in the house of the LORD,
they flourish in the courts of our God.

they are ever full of sap and green, <sup>15</sup> to show that the LORD is upright;
he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

93:<sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns; he is robed in majesty;
the LORD is robed, he is girded with strength.
Yea, the world is established; it shall never be moved;
<sup>2</sup> thy throne is established from of old;
thou art from everlasting.

<sup>3</sup> The floods<sup>275</sup> have lifted up, O LORD,
the floods have lifted up their voice,
the floods lift up their roaring.
<sup>4</sup> Mightier than the thunders of many waters,
mightier than the waves of the sea, the LORD on high is mighty!

<sup>5</sup> Thy decrees are very sure;
holiness befits thy house, O LORD, for evermore.

94:<sup>1</sup> O LORD, thou God of vengeance, thou God of vengeance, shine forth!
<sup>2</sup> Rise up, O judge of the earth;
render to the proud their deserts!
<sup>3</sup> O LORD, how long shall the wicked,
how long shall the wicked exult?

<sup>4</sup> They pour out their arrogant words,
they boast, all the evildoers.
<sup>5</sup> They crush thy people, O LORD,
and afflict thy heritage.
<sup>6</sup> They slay the widow and the sojourner,
and murder the fatherless;
<sup>7</sup> and they say, "The LORD does not see;
the God of Jacob does not perceive."

<sup>8</sup> Understand, O dumbest of the people!
Fools, when will you be wise?
<sup>9</sup> He who planted the ear, does he not hear?
He who formed the eye, does he not see?
<sup>10</sup> He who chastens the nations, does he not chastise?
He who teaches men knowledge,
<sup>11</sup> the LORD, knows the thoughts of man,
that they are but a breath.

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is the man whom thou dost chasten, O LORD,
and whom thou dost teach out of thy law <sup>13</sup> to give him respite from days of trouble, until a pit is dug for the wicked.
<sup>14</sup> For the LORD will not forsake his people;
he will not abandon his heritage;
<sup>15</sup> for justice will return to the righteous,
and all the upright in heart will follow it.
<sup>16</sup> Who rises up for me against the wicked?
Who stands up for me against evildoers?
<sup>17</sup> If the LORD had not been my help,

<sup>275</sup> the floods clear away evil into a heap, so it is with the flood of the Holy Spirit through our lives

my soul would soon have dwelt in the land of silence.
18 When I thought, "My foot slips," thy steadfast love, O LORD, held me up.
19 When the cares of my heart are many,
thy consolations cheer my soul.
20 Can wicked rulers be allied with thee,
who frame mischief by statute?
21 They band together against the life of the righteous, and condemn the innocent to death.
22 But the LORD has become my stronghold,
and my God the rock of my refuge.
23 He will bring back on them their iniquity and wipe them out for their wickedness;
the LORD our God will wipe them out.

95:<sub>1</sub> O come, let us sing to the LORD;
let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!
2 Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!
3 For the LORD is a great God,
and a great King above all gods.
4 In his hand are the depths of the earth;
the heights of the mountains are his also.
5 The sea is his, for he made it;
for his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down,
let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!
7 For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep of his hand.

O that today you would hearken to his voice!
8 Harden not your hearts, as at Mer'ibah<sup>276</sup>, as on the day at Massah<sup>277</sup> in the wilderness, 9 when your fathers tested me,
and put me to the proof, though they had seen my work.
10 For forty years I loathed that generation and said, "They are a people who err in heart,
and they do not regard my ways."
11 Therefore I swore in my anger that they should not enter my rest.

96:<sub>1</sub> O sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all the earth!
2 Sing to the LORD, bless his name;
tell of his salvation from day to day.
3 Declare his glory among the nations,
his marvellous works among all the peoples!
4 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
he is to be feared above all gods.
5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols;
but the LORD made the heavens.
6 Honour and majesty are before him;
strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!
<sup>8</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name;
bring an offering, and come into his courts!
<sup>9</sup> Worship the LORD in holy array;
tremble before him, all the earth!

<sup>10</sup> Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns!
Yea, the world is established, it shall never be moved;
he will judge the peoples with equity."
<sup>11</sup> Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
<sup>12</sup> let the field exult, and everything in it!
Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy <sup>13</sup> before the LORD, for he comes,
for he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness,
and the peoples with his truth.

97:<sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns; let the earth rejoice;
let the many coastlands be glad!
<sup>2</sup> Clouds and thick darkness are round about him;
righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
<sup>3</sup> Fire goes before him,
and burns up his adversaries round about.
<sup>4</sup> His lightnings lighten the world;
the earth sees and trembles.
<sup>5</sup> The mountains melt like wax before the LORD,
before the Lord of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup> The heavens proclaim his righteousness;
and all the peoples behold his glory.
<sup>7</sup> All worshippers of images are put to shame,
who make their boast in worthless idols;
all gods bow down before him.
<sup>8</sup> Zion hears and is glad,
and the daughters of Judah rejoice,
because of thy judgements, O God.
<sup>9</sup> For thou, O LORD, art most high over all the earth;
thou art exalted far above all gods.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD loves those who hate evil;
he preserves the lives of his saints;
he delivers them from the hand of the wicked.
<sup>11</sup> Light dawns for the righteous,
and joy for the upright in heart.
<sup>12</sup> Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous,
and give thanks to his holy name!

98:<sup>1</sup> A Psalm.

O sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done marvellous things!
His right hand and his holy arm have gotten him victory.
<sup>2</sup> The LORD has made known his victory,
he has revealed his vindication in the sight of the nations.
<sup>3</sup> He has remembered his steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

<sup>4</sup> Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth;
break forth into joyous song and sing praises!
<sup>5</sup> Sing praises to the LORD with the lyre,
with the lyre and the sound of melody!
<sup>6</sup> With trumpets and the sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the LORD!

<sup>7</sup> Let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
the world and those who dwell in it!
<sup>8</sup> Let the floods clap their hands;
let the hills sing for joy together
<sup>9</sup> before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness,
and the peoples with equity.

He sits enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake!

<sup>2</sup> The LORD is great in Zion;
he is exalted over all the peoples.

<sup>3</sup> Let them praise thy great and terrible name!

Holy is he!

thou hast executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> Extol the LORD our God; worship at his footstool!

Holy is he!

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were among his priests,
Samuel also was among those who called on his name.
They<sup>280</sup> cried to the LORD, and he answered them.

<sup>7</sup> He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud;
they kept his testimonies, and the statutes that he gave them.

<sup>8</sup> O LORD our God, thou didst answer them;
thou wast a forgiving God to them,

but an avenger of their wrongdoings.

<sup>9</sup> Extol the LORD our God, and worship at his holy mountain<sup>281</sup>;
for the LORD our God is holy!

100:<sup>1</sup> A Psalm for the thank offering.

Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the lands!

<sup>2</sup> Serve the LORD with gladness!

Come into his presence with singing!

<sup>3</sup> Know that the LORD is God!

It is he that made us, and we are his;

we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

<sup>4</sup> Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise!

Give thanks to him, bless his name!

and his faithfulness to all generations.

I will sing of loyalty and of justice;
to thee, O LORD, I will sing.
<sup>2</sup> I will give heed to the way that is blameless.
Oh when wilt thou come to me?

I will walk with integrity of heart within my house;
<sup>3</sup> I will not set before my eyes anything that is base.
I hate the work of those who fall away;
it shall not cleave to me.
<sup>4</sup> Perverseness of heart shall be far from me;
I will know nothing of evil.

<sup>5</sup> Him who slanders his neighbour secretly I will destroy.
The man of haughty looks and arrogant heart I will not endure.

<sup>6</sup> I will look with favour on the faithful in the land,
that they may dwell with me;
he who walks in the way that is blameless shall minister to me.

<sup>7</sup> No man who practices deceit shall dwell in my house;
no man who utters lies shall continue in my presence.

<sup>8</sup> Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked in the land, cutting off all the evildoers from the city of the LORD.

102:<sup>1</sup> A prayer of one afflicted, when he is faint and pours out his complaint before the Lord.

Hear my prayer, O LORD; let my cry come to thee!
<sup>2</sup> Do not hide thy face from me in the day of my distress!
Incline thy ear to me;
answer me speedily in the day when I call!

<sup>3</sup> For my days pass away like smoke,
and my bones burn like a furnace.
<sup>4</sup> My heart is smitten like grass, and withered;
I forget to eat my bread.
<sup>5</sup> Because of my loud groaning my bones cleave to my flesh.
<sup>6</sup> I am like a vulture of the wilderness,
like an owl of the waste places;
<sup>7</sup> I lie awake,
I am like a lonely bird on the housetop.
<sup>8</sup> All the day my enemies taunt me,
those who deride me use my name for a curse.
<sup>9</sup> For I eat ashes like bread,
and mingle tears with my drink, <sup>10</sup> because of thy indignation and anger;
for thou hast taken me up and thrown me away.
<sup>11</sup> My days are like an evening shadow;
I wither away like grass.

<sup>12</sup> But thou, O LORD, art enthroned for ever;

thy name endures to all generations.
<sup>13</sup> Thou wilt arise and have pity on Zion;
it is the time to favour her; the appointed time has come.
<sup>14</sup> For thy servants hold her stones dear,
and have pity on her dust.
<sup>15</sup> The nations will fear the name of the LORD,
and all the kings of the earth thy glory.
<sup>16</sup> For the LORD will build up Zion,
he will appear in his glory;
<sup>17</sup> he will regard the prayer of the destitute,
and will not despise their supplication.

<sup>18</sup> Let this be recorded for a generation to come,
so that a people yet unborn may praise the LORD:
<sup>19</sup> that he looked down from his holy height,
from heaven the LORD looked at the earth, <sup>20</sup> to hear the groans of the prisoners,
to set free those who were doomed to die;
<sup>21</sup> that men may declare in Zion the name of the LORD,
and in Jerusalem his praise, <sup>22</sup> when peoples gather together,
and kingdoms, to worship the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> He has broken my strength in mid-course;
he has shortened my days.
<sup>24</sup> "O my God," I say, "take me not hence in the midst of my days,
thou whose years endure throughout all generations!"

<sup>25</sup> Of old thou didst lay the foundation of the earth,
and the heavens are the work of thy hands.
<sup>26</sup> They will perish, but thou dost endure;
they will all wear out like a garment.
Thou changest them like raiment, and they pass away;
<sup>27</sup> but thou art the same, and thy years have no end.
<sup>28</sup> The children of thy servants shall dwell secure;
their posterity shall be established before thee.

103:<sup>1</sup> A Psalm of David.

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all that is within me, bless his holy name!
<sup>2</sup> Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits, <sup>3</sup> who forgives all your iniquity,
who heals all your diseases<sup>282</sup>, <sup>4</sup> who redeems your life from the Pit,
who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, <sup>5</sup> who satisfies you with good as long as you live so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD works vindication and justice for all who are oppressed.
<sup>7</sup> He made known his ways<sup>A</sup> to Moses,
his acts<sup>A283</sup> to the people of Israel.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD is merciful and gracious,

---

slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

<sup>9</sup> He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger for ever<sup>284</sup>.

<sup>10</sup> He does not deal with us according<sup>285</sup> to our sins, nor require us according to our iniquities.

<sup>11</sup> For as the heavens are high above the earth<sup>286</sup>,
so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;

<sup>12</sup> as far as the east is from the west,
so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

<sup>13</sup> As a father pities his children,
so the LORD pities those who fear him<sup>287</sup>.

<sup>14</sup> For he knows our frame;
he remembers that we are dust.

<sup>15</sup> As for man, his days are like grass;
he flourishes like a flower of the field;
<sup>16</sup> for the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
and its place knows it no more.

<sup>17</sup> But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon those who fear him,
and his righteousness to children's children,

<sup>18</sup> to those who keep his covenant
and remember to do his commandments.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.

<sup>20</sup> Bless the LORD, O you his angels,
you mighty ones who do his word,
hearkening to the voice of his word!

<sup>21</sup> Bless the LORD, all his hosts, his ministers that do his will!

<sup>22</sup> Bless the LORD, all his works,
in all places of his dominion. Bless the LORD, O my soul!

104:<sup>1</sup> Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD my God, thou art very great!

Thou art clothed with honour and majesty,

<sup>2</sup> who coverest thyself with light as with a garment,
who hast stretched out the heavens like a tent,

<sup>3</sup> who hast laid the beams of thy chambers on the waters,
who makest the clouds thy chariot,

who ridest on the wings of the wind,

<sup>4</sup> who makest the winds thy messengers,
fire and flame thy ministers.

<sup>5</sup> Thou didst set the earth on its foundations<sup>288</sup>,
so that it should never be shaken.

<sup>6</sup> Thou didst cover it with the deep as with a garment;
the waters stood above the mountains.

<sup>7</sup> At thy rebuke they fled;
at the sound of thy thunder they took to flight.

<sup>8</sup> The mountains rose, the valleys sank down to the place which thou didst appoint for them.

<sup>287</sup>God tolerates a great deal (Ps 103:10), so that we learn his ways, often the hard way. This implies we must often allow others to learn for themselves

9 Thou didst set a bound which they should not pass,
so that they might not again cover the earth.
10 Thou makest springs gush forth in the valleys;
they flow between the hills, 11 they give drink to every beast of the field;
the wild asses quench their thirst.
12 By them the birds of the air have their habitation;
they sing among the branches.
13 From thy lofty abode thou waterest the mountains;
the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy work.

14 Thou dost cause the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants for man to cultivate,
that he may bring forth food from the earth, 15 and wine to gladden the heart of man,
oil to make his face shine,
and bread to strengthen man's heart.
16 The trees of the LORD are watered abundantly,
the cedars of Lebanon which he planted.
17 In them the birds build their nests;
the stork has her home in the fir trees.
18 The high mountains are for the wild goats;
the rocks are a refuge for the badgers.
19 Thou hast made the moon to mark the seasons;
the sun knows its time for setting.
20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night,
when all the beasts of the forest creep forth.
21 The young lions roar for their prey,
seeking their food from God.
22 When the sun rises, they get them away
and lie down in their dens.
23 Man goes forth to his work
and to his labour until the evening.

24 O LORD, how manifold are thy works!
In wisdom hast thou made them all;
the earth is full of thy creatures.
25 Yonder is the sea, great and wide,
which teems with things innumerable,
living things both small and great.
26 There go the ships,
and Leviathan which thou didst form to sport in it.

27 These all look to thee,
to give them their food in due season.
28 When thou givest to them, they gather it up;
when thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good things.
29 When thou hidest thy face, they are dismayed;
when thou takest away their breath,
they die and return to their dust.
30 When thou sendest forth thy Spirit, they are created;
and thou renewest the face of the ground.

31 May the glory of the LORD endure for ever,
may the LORD rejoice in his works, 32 who looks on the earth and it trembles,
who touches the mountains and they smoke!
33 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God while I have being.
34 May my meditation be pleasing to him,

for I rejoice in the LORD.
35 Let sinners be consumed from the earth,
and let the wicked be no more!
Bless the LORD, O my soul!
Praise the LORD!

105:<sub>1</sub> O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name,
make known his deeds among the peoples!
<sub>2</sub> Sing to him, sing praises to him,
tell of all his wonderful works!
<sub>3</sub> Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!
<sub>4</sub> Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his presence continually!
<sub>5</sub> Remember the wonderful works that he has done,
his miracles, and the judgements he uttered, <sub>6</sub> O offspring of Abraham his servant,
sons of Jacob, his chosen ones!

<sub>7</sub> He is the LORD our God;
his judgements are in all the earth.
<sub>8</sub> He is mindful of his covenant for ever,
of the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations, <sub>9</sub> the covenant which he made with Abraham,
his sworn promise to Isaac, <sub>10</sub> which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute,
to Israel as an everlasting covenant, <sub>11</sub> saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as your portion for an inheritance."

<sub>12</sub> When they were few in number,
of little account, and sojourners in it, <sub>13</sub> wandering from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another people, <sub>14</sub> he allowed no one to oppress them;
he rebuked kings on their account, <sub>15</sub> saying, "Touch not my anointed ones,
do my prophets no harm!"

<sub>16</sub> When he summoned a famine on the land,
and broke every staff of bread,
<sub>17</sub> he had sent a man ahead of them,
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
<sub>18</sub> His feet were hurt with fetters,
his neck was put in a collar of iron;
<sub>19</sub> until what he had said came to pass
the word of the LORD tested him.
<sub>20</sub> The king sent and released him,
the ruler of the peoples set him free;
<sub>21</sub> he made him lord of his house,
and ruler of all his possessions, <sub>22</sub> to instruct his princes at his pleasure,
and to teach his elders wisdom.

<sub>23</sub> Then Israel came to Egypt;
Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
<sub>24</sub> And the LORD made his people very fruitful,
and made them stronger than their foes.
<sub>25</sub> He turned their hearts to hate his people, to deal craftily with his servants.

26 He sent Moses his servant,
and Aaron whom he had chosen.
27 They wrought his signs among them,
and miracles in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness, and made the land dark;
they rebelled against his words.
29 He turned their waters into blood,
and caused their fish to die.
30 Their land swarmed with frogs,
even in the chambers of their kings.
31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,
and gnats throughout their country.
32 He gave them hail for rain,
and lightning that flashed through their land.
33 He smote their vines and fig trees,
and shattered the trees of their country.
34 He spoke, and the locusts came,
and young locusts without number;
35 which devoured all the vegetation in their land,
and ate up the fruit of their ground.
36 He smote all the first-born in their land,
the first issue of all their strength.

37 Then he led forth Israel with silver and gold,
and there was none among his tribes who stumbled.
38 Egypt was glad when they departed,
for dread of them had fallen upon it.
39 He spread a cloud for a covering,
and fire to give light by night.
40 They asked, and he brought quails,
and gave them bread from heaven in abundance.
41 He opened the rock, and water gushed forth;
it flowed through the desert like a river.
42 For he remembered his holy promise,
and Abraham his servant.

43 So he led forth his people with joy,
his chosen ones with singing.
44 And he gave them the lands of the nations;
and they took possession of the fruit of the peoples' toil, 45 to the end that they should keep his statutes,
and observe his laws. Praise the LORD!

106:<sub>1</sub> Praise the LORD!

O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
for his steadfast love endures for ever!

<sub>2</sub> Who can utter the mighty doings of the LORD,
or show forth all his praise?

<sub>3</sub> Blessed are they who observe justice,
who do righteousness at all times!

<sub>4</sub> Remember me, O LORD, when thou showest favour to thy people;
help me when thou deliverest them;

<sub>5</sub> that I may see the prosperity of thy chosen ones,
that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation,
that I may glory with thy heritage.

6 Both we and our fathers have sinned;
we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.
7 Our fathers, when they were in Egypt,
did not consider thy wonderful works;
they did not remember the abundance of thy steadfast love,
but rebelled against the Most High at the Red Sea.
8 Yet he saved them for his name's sake,
that he might make known his mighty power.
9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it became dry;
and he led them through the deep as through a desert.
10 So he saved them from the hand of the foe,
and delivered them from the power of the enemy.
11 And the waters covered their adversaries;
not one of them was left.
12 Then they believed his words;
they sang his praise.

13 But they soon forgot his works;
they did not wait for his counsel.
14 But they had a wanton craving in the wilderness,
and put God to the test in the desert;
15 he gave them what they asked,
but sent a wasting disease among them.

16 When men in the camp were jealous of Moses and Aaron,
the holy one of the LORD, 17 the earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,
and covered the company of Abi'ram.
18 Fire also broke out in their company;
the flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb
and worshipped a molten image.
20 They exchanged the glory of God
for the image of an ox that eats grass.
21 They forgot God, their Saviour,
who had done great things in Egypt, 22 wondrous works in the land of Ham,
and terrible things by the Red Sea.
23 Therefore he said he would destroy them-- had not Moses, his chosen one,
stood in the breach before him,
to turn away his wrath from destroying them.

24 Then they despised the pleasant land,
having no faith in his promise.
25 They murmured in their tents,
and did not obey the voice of the LORD.
26 Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would make them fall in the wilderness, 27 and would disperse their descendants among the nations, scattering them over the lands.

28 Then they attached themselves to the Ba'al of Pe'or,
and ate sacrifices offered to the dead;
29 they provoked the LORD to anger with their doings,
and a plague broke out among them.
30 Then Phin'ehas stood up and interposed,
and the plague was stayed.
31 And that has been reckoned to him as righteousness

from generation to generation for ever.

<sup>32</sup> They angered him at the waters of Mer'ibah, and it went ill with Moses on their account; <sup>33</sup> for they made his spirit bitter,
and he spoke words that were rash.

<sup>34</sup> They did not destroy the peoples,
as the LORD commanded them, <sup>35</sup> but they mingled with the nations
and learned to do as they did.
<sup>36</sup> They served their idols, which became a snare to them.
<sup>37</sup> They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons;
<sup>38</sup> they poured out innocent blood,
the blood of their sons and daughters,
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
and the land was polluted with blood.
<sup>39</sup> Thus they became unclean by their acts,
and played the harlot in their doings.

<sup>40</sup> Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people,
and he abhorred his heritage;
<sup>41</sup> he gave them into the hand of the nations,
so that those who hated them ruled over them.
<sup>42</sup> Their enemies oppressed them,
and they were brought into subjection under their power.
<sup>43</sup> Many times he delivered them,
but they were rebellious in their purposes,
and were brought low through their iniquity.
<sup>44</sup> Nevertheless he regarded their distress,
when he heard their cry.
<sup>45</sup> He remembered for their sake his covenant,
and relented according to the abundance of his steadfast love.
<sup>46</sup> He caused them to be pitied
by all those who held them captive.

<sup>47</sup> Save us, O LORD our God,
and gather us from among the nations,
that we may give thanks to thy holy name and glory in thy praise.

<sup>48</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting!
And let all the people say,
"Amen!" Praise the LORD!

107:1 BOOK V

O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
for his steadfast love endures for ever!
<sup>2</sup> Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
whom he has redeemed from trouble <sup>3</sup> and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

<sup>4</sup> Some wandered in desert wastes, finding no way to a city to dwell in;

5 hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted within them.
6 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress<sup>289</sup>;
7 he led them by a straight way,
till they reached a city to dwell in.
8 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works to the sons of men!
9 For he satisfies him who is thirsty,
and the hungry he fills with good things.

10 Some sat<sup>290</sup> in darkness and in gloom, prisoners in affliction and in irons, 11 for they had rebelled against the words of God, and spurned<sup>291</sup> the counsel of the Most High.
12 Their hearts were bowed down with hard<sup>292</sup> labour;
they fell down, with none to help.
13 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress<sup>293</sup>; 14 he brought them out of darkness and gloom,
and broke their bonds asunder.
15 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works to the sons of men!
16 For he shatters the doors of bronze,
and cuts in two the bars of iron.

17 Some were sick<sup>294</sup> through their sinful ways,
and because of their iniquities suffered affliction; 18 they loathed any kind of food,
and they drew near to the gates of death.
19 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress;
20 he sent forth his word, and healed them,
and delivered them from destruction.
21 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works to the sons of men!
22 And let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving,
and tell of his deeds in songs of joy!

23 Some went down to the sea in ships,
doing business on the great waters;
24 they saw the deeds of the LORD,
his wondrous works in the deep.
25 For he commanded, and raised the stormy wind,
which lifted up the waves of the sea.
26 They mounted up to heaven, they went down to the depths;
their courage melted away in their evil plight;
27 they reeled and staggered like drunken men,
and were at their wits' end.
28 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress;
29 he made the storm be still,
and the waves of the sea were hushed.
30 Then they were glad because they had quiet,

and he brought them to their desired haven.
31 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works to the sons of men!
32 Let them extol him in the congregation of the people,
and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He turns rivers into a desert,
springs of water into thirsty ground, 34 a fruitful land into a salty waste,
because of the wickedness of its inhabitants.
35 He turns a desert into pools of water,
a parched land into springs of water.
36 And there he lets the hungry dwell,
and they establish a city to live in;
37 they sow fields, and plant vineyards,
and get a fruitful yield.
38 By his blessing they multiply greatly;
and he does not let their cattle decrease.

39 When they are diminished and brought low through oppression, trouble, and sorrow, 40 he pours contempt upon princes and makes them wander in trackless wastes; 41 but he raises up the needy out of affliction,
and makes their families like flocks.
42 The upright see it and are glad;
and all wickedness stops its mouth.
43 Whoever is wise, let him give heed to these things;
let men consider the steadfast love of the LORD.

108:<sub>1</sub> A Song.

A Psalm of David.

My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast!
I will sing and make melody! Awake, my soul!
2 Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn!
3 I will give thanks to thee, O LORD, among the peoples,
I will sing praises to thee among the nations.
4 For thy steadfast love is great above the heavens,
thy faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens!
Let thy glory be over all the earth!
6 That thy beloved may be delivered,
give help by thy right hand, and answer me!

7 God has promised in his sanctuary:
"With exultation I will divide up Shechem,
and portion out the Vale of Succoth.
8 Gilead is mine; Manas'seh is mine;
E'phraim is my helmet; Judah my sceptre.
9 Moab is my washbasin;
upon Edom I cast my shoe;
over Philistia I shout in triumph."

10 Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
11 Hast thou not rejected us, O God?
Thou dost not go forth, O God, with our armies.

<sup>12</sup> O grant us help against the foe,
for vain is the help of man!
<sup>13</sup> With God we shall do valiantly;
it is he who will tread down our foes.

109: To the choirmaster.
A Psalm of David.

Be not silent, O God of my praise!
<sup>2</sup> For wicked and deceitful mouths are opened against me, speaking against me with lying tongues.
<sup>3</sup> They beset me with words of hate,
and attack me without cause.
<sup>4</sup> In return for my love they accuse me,
even as I make prayer for them.
<sup>5</sup> So they reward me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.

<sup>6</sup> Appoint a wicked man against him;
let an accuser bring him to trial.
<sup>7</sup> When he is tried, let him come forth guilty;
let his prayer be counted as sin!
<sup>8</sup> May his days be few; may another seize his goods!
<sup>9</sup> May his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow!
<sup>10</sup> May his children wander about and beg;
may they be driven out of the ruins they inhabit!
<sup>11</sup> May the creditor seize all that he has;
may strangers plunder the fruits of his toil!
<sup>12</sup> Let there be none to extend kindness to him,
nor any to pity his fatherless children!
<sup>13</sup> May his posterity be cut off;
may his name be blotted out in the second generation!
<sup>14</sup> May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD, and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out!
<sup>15</sup> Let them be before the LORD continually;
and may his memory be cut off from the earth!
<sup>16</sup> For he did not remember to show kindness, but pursued the poor and needy
and the brokenhearted to their death.
<sup>17</sup> He loved to curse; let curses come on him!
He did not like blessing; may it be far from him!
<sup>18</sup> He clothed himself with cursing as his coat, may it soak into his body like water, like oil into his bones!
<sup>19</sup> May it be like a garment which he wraps round him, like a belt with which he daily girds himself!

<sup>20</sup> May this be the reward of my accusers from the LORD,
of those who speak evil against my life!
<sup>21</sup> But thou, O GOD my Lord, deal on my behalf for thy name's sake;
because thy steadfast love is good, deliver me!
<sup>22</sup> For I am poor and needy,
and my heart is stricken within me.
<sup>23</sup> I am gone, like a shadow at evening;
I am shaken off like a locust.
<sup>24</sup> My knees are weak through fasting;
my body has become gaunt.
<sup>25</sup> I am an object of scorn to my accusers;
when they see me, they wag their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God!
Save me according to thy steadfast love!
27 Let them know that this is thy hand;
thou, O LORD, hast done it!
28 Let them curse, but do thou bless!
Let my assailants be put to shame; may thy servant be glad!
29 May my accusers be clothed with dishonour;
may they be wrapped in their own shame as in a mantle!

30 With my mouth I will give great thanks to the LORD;
I will praise him in the midst of the throng.
31 For he stands at the right hand of the needy,
to save him from those who condemn him to death.

110:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of David.

The LORD says to my lord: "Sit at my right hand,
till I make your enemies your footstool."

2 The LORD sends forth from Zion your mighty sceptre.
Rule in the midst of your foes!
3 Your people will offer themselves freely on the day you lead your host upon the holy mountains.
From the womb of the morning like dew your youth will come to you.
4 The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind,
"You are a priest for ever after the order of Melchiz'edek."

5 The Lord is at your right hand;
he will shatter kings on the day of his wrath.
6 He will execute judgement among the nations,
filling them with corpses;
he will shatter chiefs over the wide earth.
7 He will drink from the brook by the way;
therefore he will lift up his head.

111:<sub>1</sub> Praise the LORD.

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart,
in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

2 Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who have pleasure in them.

---

3 Full of honour and majesty is his work,
and his righteousness endures for ever.
4 He has caused his wonderful works to be remembered;
the LORD is gracious and merciful.
5 He provides food for those who fear him;
he is ever mindful of his covenant.
6 He has shown his people the power of his works,
in giving them the heritage of the nations.
7 The works of his hands are faithful and just;
all his precepts are trustworthy,
8 they are established for ever and ever,
to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.
9 He sent redemption to his people;
he has commanded his covenant for ever.
Holy and terrible is his name!
10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
a good understanding have all those who practice it.
His praise endures for ever!

112:<sub>1</sub> Praise the LORD.

Blessed is the man who fears the LORD,
who greatly delights in his commandments!
<sub>2</sub> His descendants will be mighty in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.
<sub>3</sub> Wealth and riches are in his house;
and his righteousness endures for ever.
<sub>4</sub> Light rises in the darkness for the upright;
the LORD is gracious, merciful, and righteous.
<sub>5</sub> It is well with the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice.
<sub>6</sub> For the righteous will never be moved;
he will be remembered for ever.
<sub>7</sub> He is not afraid of evil tidings;
his heart is firm, trusting in the LORD.
<sub>8</sub> His heart is steady, he will not be afraid, until he sees his desire on his adversaries.
<sub>9</sub> He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor;
his righteousness endures for ever;
his horn is exalted in honour.
<sub>10</sub> The wicked man sees it and is angry;
he gnashes his teeth and melts away;
the desire of the wicked man comes to nought.

113:<sub>1</sub> Praise the LORD!

Praise, O servants of the LORD,
praise the name of the LORD!

<sub>2</sub> Blessed be the name of the LORD
from this time forth and for evermore!
<sub>3</sub> From the rising of the sun to its setting the name of the LORD is to be praised!
<sub>4</sub> The LORD is high above all nations,
and his glory above the heavens!

<sub>5</sub> Who is like the LORD our God,
who is seated on high,
<sub>6</sub> who looks far down upon the heavens and the earth?
<sub>7</sub> He raises the poor from the dust,
and lifts the needy from the ash heap, <sub>8</sub> to make them sit with princes,
with the princes of his people.
<sub>9</sub> He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyous mother of children.
Praise the LORD!

114:<sub>1</sub> When Israel went forth from Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of strange language,

<sub>2</sub> Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his dominion.

<sub>3</sub> The sea looked and fled,
Jordan turned back.
<sub>4</sub> The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills like lambs.

5 What ails you, O sea, that you flee?
O Jordan, that you turn back?
6 O mountains, that you skip like rams?
O hills, like lambs?

7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the LORD,
at the presence of the God of Jacob, 8 who turns the rock into a pool of water,
the flint into a spring of water.

115:<sub>1</sub> Not to us, O LORD, not to us,
but to thy name give glory,
for the sake of thy steadfast love and thy faithfulness!
2 Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"

3 Our God is in the heavens; he does whatever he pleases.
4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.
5 They have mouths, but do not speak; eyes, but do not see.
6 They have ears, but do not hear; noses, but do not smell.
7 They have hands, but do not feel; feet, but do not walk;
and they do not make a sound in their throat.
8 Those who make them are like them;
so are all who trust in them.

9 O Israel, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and their shield.
10 O house of Aaron, put your trust in the LORD!
He is their help and their shield.
11 You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and their shield.

12 The LORD has been mindful of us; he will bless us;
he will bless the house of Israel;
he will bless the house of Aaron;
13 he will bless those who fear the LORD, both small and great.

14 May the LORD give you increase, you and your children!
15 May you be blessed by the LORD, who made heaven and earth!

16 The heavens are the LORD's heavens,
but the earth he has given to the sons of men.
17 The dead do not praise the LORD,
nor do any that go down into silence.
18 But we will bless the LORD
from this time forth and for evermore.
Praise the LORD!

116:<sub>1</sub> I love the LORD,
because he has heard my voice and my supplications.
2 Because he inclined his ear to me,
therefore I will call<sup>295</sup> on him as long as I live.
3 The snares of death encompassed me;
the pangs of Sheol laid hold on me;
I suffered distress and anguish.
4 Then I called on the name of the LORD:
"O LORD, I beseech thee, save my life!"

5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; our God is merciful.
6 The LORD preserves the simple;
when I was brought low, he saved me.
7 Return, O my soul, to your rest;
for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling;
9 I walk before the LORD in the land of the living.
10 I kept my faith, even when I said,
"I am greatly afflicted";
11 I said in my consternation, "Men are all a vain hope."

12 What shall I render to the LORD for all his bounty to me?
13 I will lift up the cup of salvation
and call on the name of the LORD, 14 I will pay my vows<sup>296</sup> to the LORD
in the presence of all his people.
15 Precious in the sight of the LORD
is the death of his saints.
16 O LORD, I am thy servant;
I am thy servant, the son of thy handmaid.
Thou hast loosed my bonds.
17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving
and call on the name of the LORD.
18 I will pay my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people, 19 in the courts of the house of the LORD,
in your midst, O Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD!

117:<sub>1</sub> Praise the LORD, all nations!

"His steadfast love endures for ever."
4 Let those who fear the LORD say,
"His steadfast love endures for ever."

5 Out of my distress I called on the LORD;
the LORD answered me and set me free<sup>297</sup>.
6 With the LORD on my side I do not fear.

<sup>12</sup> They surrounded me like bees,
they blazed like a fire of thorns;
in the name of the LORD I cut them off!
<sup>13</sup> I was pushed hard, so that I was falling,
but the LORD helped me.
<sup>14</sup> The LORD is my strength and my song;
he has become my salvation.

<sup>15</sup> Hark, glad songs of victory in the tents of the righteous:
"The right hand of the LORD does valiantly, <sup>16</sup> the right hand of the LORD is exalted,
the right hand of the LORD does valiantly!"
<sup>17</sup> I shall not die, but I shall live,

<sup>23</sup> This is the LORD's doing;
it is marvellous in our eyes.
<sup>24</sup> This is the day which the LORD has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.
<sup>25</sup> Save us, we beseech thee, O LORD!
O LORD, we beseech thee, give us success!

<sup>300</sup>Job

2 Blessed are those who keep his testimonies,
who seek him with their whole heart,
3 who also do no wrong, but walk in his ways!
4 Thou hast commanded thy precepts to be kept diligently.
5 O that my ways may be steadfast in keeping thy statutes!
6 Then I shall not be put to shame,
having my eyes fixed on all thy commandments.
7 I will praise thee with an upright heart,
when I learn thy righteous ordinances<sup>301</sup>.
8 I will observe thy statutes; O forsake me not utterly!

9 How can a young man keep his way pure?
By guarding it according to thy word.

---

10 With my whole heart I seek thee;
let me not wander from thy commandments!
11 I have laid up thy word in my heart,
that I might not sin against thee.
12 Blessed be thou, O LORD;
teach me thy statutes!
13 With my lips I declare all the ordinances of thy mouth.
14 In the way of thy testimonies I delight
as much as in all riches.
15 I will meditate on thy precepts,
and fix my eyes on thy ways.
16 I will delight in thy statutes;
I will not forget thy word.

17 Deal bountifully with thy servant,
that I may live and observe thy word.
18 Open my eyes,
that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.
19 I am a sojourner on earth;
hide not thy commandments from me!
20 My soul is consumed with longing for thy ordinances at all times.
21 Thou dost rebuke the insolent, accursed ones,
who wander from thy commandments;
22 take away from me their scorn and contempt,
for I have kept thy testimonies.
23 Even though princes sit plotting against me,
thy servant will meditate on thy statutes.
24 Thy testimonies are my delight, they are my counsellors.

25 My soul cleaves to the dust;
revive me according to thy word!
26 When I told of my ways, thou didst answer me;
teach me thy statutes!
27 Make me understand the way of thy precepts,
and I will meditate on thy wondrous works.
28 My soul melts away for sorrow;
strengthen me according to thy word!
29 Put false ways far from me;
and graciously teach me thy law!
30 I have chosen the way of faithfulness,
I set thy ordinances before me.
31 I cleave to thy testimonies, O LORD;
let me not be put to shame!
32 I will run in the way of thy commandments

<sup>43</sup> And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth, for my hope is in thy ordinances.
<sup>44</sup> I will keep thy law continually, for ever and ever;
<sup>45</sup> and I shall walk at liberty,
for I have sought thy precepts.
<sup>46</sup> I will also speak of thy testimonies before kings,
and shall not be put to shame;
<sup>47</sup> for I find my delight in thy commandments, which I love.
<sup>48</sup> I revere thy commandments, which I love, and I will meditate on thy statutes.

<sup>49</sup> Remember thy word to thy servant,
in which thou hast made me hope.
<sup>50</sup> This is my comfort in my affliction that thy promise gives me life.
<sup>51</sup> Godless men utterly deride me,
but I do not turn away from thy law.
<sup>52</sup> When I think of thy ordinances from of old,
I take comfort, O LORD.
<sup>53</sup> Hot indignation seizes me because of the wicked, who forsake thy law.
<sup>54</sup> Thy statutes have been my songs
in the house of my pilgrimage.
<sup>55</sup> I remember thy name in the night, O LORD, and keep thy law.
<sup>56</sup> This blessing has fallen to me, that I have kept thy precepts.

<sup>57</sup> The LORD is my portion; I promise to keep thy words.
<sup>58</sup> I entreat thy favour with all my heart;
be gracious to me according to thy promise.
<sup>59</sup> When I think of thy ways,
I turn my feet to thy testimonies;
<sup>60</sup> I hasten and do not delay to keep thy commandments.
<sup>61</sup> Though the cords of the wicked ensnare me,
I do not forget thy law.
<sup>62</sup> At midnight I rise to praise thee,
because of thy righteous ordinances.
<sup>63</sup> I am a companion of all who fear thee,

of those who keep thy precepts.

<sup>64</sup> The earth, O LORD, is full of thy steadfast love;
teach me thy statutes!

<sup>65</sup> Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD,
according to thy word.

<sup>66</sup> Teach me good judgement and knowledge,
for I believe in thy commandments.

<sup>67</sup> Before I was afflicted I went astray;
but now I keep thy word.

<sup>68</sup> Thou art good and doest good;
teach me thy statutes.

<sup>69</sup> The godless besmear me with lies,
but with my whole heart I keep thy precepts;

that I might learn thy statutes<sup>303</sup>.

<sup>72</sup> The law of thy mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces<sup>304</sup>.

<sup>73</sup> Thy hands have made and fashioned me;
give me understanding that I may learn thy commandments.

<sup>74</sup> Those who fear thee shall see me and rejoice, because I have hoped in thy word.

<sup>75</sup> I know, O LORD, that thy judgements are right,
and that in faithfulness thou hast afflicted me.

<sup>76</sup> Let thy steadfast love be ready to comfort me
according to thy promise to thy servant.

<sup>77</sup> Let thy mercy come to me, that I may live;
for thy law is my delight.

<sup>78</sup> Let the godless be put to shame,
because they have subverted me with guile;
as for me, I will meditate on thy precepts.

<sup>79</sup> Let those who fear thee turn to me<sup>305</sup>,
that they may know thy testimonies.

<sup>80</sup> May my heart be blameless in thy statutes, that I may not be put to shame!

I ask, "When wilt thou comfort me?"

<sup>83</sup> For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke, yet I have not forgotten thy statutes.

<sup>84</sup> How long must thy servant endure?
When wilt thou judge those who persecute me?

<sup>85</sup> Godless men have dug pitfalls for me,
men who do not conform to thy law.

<sup>86</sup> All thy commandments are sure;
they persecute me with falsehood; help me!

<sup>87</sup> They have almost made an end of me on earth;
but I have not forsaken thy precepts.

<sup>88</sup> In thy steadfast love spare my life,
that I may keep the testimonies of thy mouth.

90 Thy faithfulness endures to all generations;
thou hast established the earth, and it stands fast.

91 By thy appointment they stand this day;
for all things are thy servants.

92 If thy law had not been my delight,
I should have perished in my affliction.

93 I will never forget thy precepts;
for by them thou hast given me life.

94 I am thine, save me;
for I have sought thy precepts.

95 The wicked lie in wait to destroy me;
but I consider thy testimonies.

96 I have seen a limit to all perfection,
but thy commandment is exceedingly broad.

97 Oh, how I love thy law! It is my meditation all the day<sup>306</sup>.

98 Thy commandment makes me wiser than my enemies,
for it is ever with me.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers,
for thy testimonies are my meditation.

100 I understand more than the aged,
for I keep thy precepts.

101 I hold back my feet from every evil way,
in order to keep thy word.

102 I do not turn aside from thy ordinances,
for thou hast taught me.

103 How sweet are thy words to my taste,
sweeter than honey to my mouth!

104 Through thy precepts I get understanding;
therefore I hate every false way.

105 Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

106 I have sworn an oath and confirmed it,
to observe thy righteous ordinances.

107 I am sorely afflicted;
give me life, O LORD, according to thy word!

108 Accept my offerings of praise, O LORD,
and teach me thy ordinances.

109 I hold my life in my hand continually,
but I do not forget thy law.

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me,
but I do not stray from thy precepts.

111 Thy testimonies are my heritage for ever;
yea, they are the joy of my heart.

112 I incline my heart to perform thy statutes
for ever, to the end.

113 I hate double-minded men, but I love thy law.

114 Thou art my hiding place and my shield;
I hope in thy word.

115 Depart from me, you evildoers,
that I may keep the commandments of my God.

116 Uphold me according to thy promise, that I may live, and let me not be put to shame in my hope!

117 Hold me up, that I may be safe and have regard for thy statutes continually!

118 Thou dost spurn all who go astray from thy statutes;
yea, their cunning is in vain.

119 All the wicked of the earth thou dost count as dross;
therefore I love thy testimonies.
120 My flesh trembles for fear of thee,
and I am afraid of thy judgements.

121 I have done what is just and right;
do not leave me to my oppressors.
122 Be surety for thy servant for good;
let not the godless oppress me.
123 My eyes fail with watching for thy salvation,
and for the fulfilment of thy righteous promise.
124 Deal with thy servant according to thy steadfast love,
and teach me thy statutes.
125 I am thy servant;
give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies!
126 It is time for the LORD to act,
for thy law has been broken.
127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold, above fine gold.
128 Therefore I direct my steps by all thy precepts;
I hate every false way.
129 Thy testimonies are wonderful;
therefore my soul keeps them.
130 The unfolding of thy words gives light;
it imparts understanding to the simple.
131 With open mouth I pant,
because I long for thy commandments.
132 Turn to me and be gracious to me,
as is thy wont toward those who love thy name.
133 Keep steady my steps according to thy promise,
and let no iniquity get dominion over me.
134 Redeem me from man's oppression,
that I may keep thy precepts.
135 Make thy face shine upon thy servant,
and teach me thy statutes.
136 My eyes shed streams of tears,
because men do not keep thy law.

137 Righteous art thou, O LORD, and right are thy judgements.
138 Thou hast appointed thy testimonies in righteousness and in all faithfulness.
139 My zeal consumes me,
because my foes forget thy words.
140 Thy promise is well tried, and thy servant loves it.
141 I am small and despised,
yet I do not forget thy precepts.
142 Thy righteousness is righteous for ever,
and thy law is true.
143 Trouble and anguish have come upon me,
but thy commandments are my delight.
144 Thy testimonies are righteous for ever;
give me understanding that I may live.

145 With my whole heart I cry; answer me, O LORD!
I will keep thy statutes.
146 I cry to thee; save me, that I may observe thy testimonies.
147 I rise before dawn and cry for help; I hope in thy words.
148 My eyes are awake before the watches of the night,
that I may meditate upon thy promise.
149 Hear my voice in thy steadfast love;

O LORD, in thy justice preserve my life.
150 They draw near who persecute me with evil purpose;
they are far from thy law.
151 But thou art near, O LORD,
and all thy commandments are true.
152 Long have I known from thy testimonies that thou hast founded them for ever.
153 Look on my affliction and deliver me,
for I do not forget thy law.
154 Plead my cause and redeem me;
give me life according to thy promise!
155 Salvation is far from the wicked,
for they do not seek thy statutes.
156 Great is thy mercy, O LORD;
give me life according to thy justice.
157 Many are my persecutors and my adversaries,
but I do not swerve from thy testimonies.
158 I look at the faithless with disgust,
because they do not keep thy commands.
159 Consider how I love thy precepts!
Preserve my life according to thy steadfast love.
160 The sum of thy word is truth;
and every one of thy righteous ordinances endures for ever.

161 Princes persecute me without cause,
but my heart stands in awe of thy words.
162 I rejoice at thy word like one who finds great spoil.
163 I hate and abhor falsehood, but I love thy law.
164 Seven times a day I praise thee for thy righteous ordinances.
165 Great peace have those who love thy law;
nothing can make them stumble.
166 I hope for thy salvation, O LORD,
and I do thy commandments.
167 My soul keeps thy testimonies; I love them exceedingly.
168 I keep thy precepts and testimonies,
for all my ways are before thee.

169 Let my cry come before thee, O LORD;
give me understanding according to thy word!
170 Let my supplication come before thee;
deliver me according to thy word.
171 My lips will pour forth praise
that thou dost teach me thy statutes.
172 My tongue will sing of thy word,
for all thy commandments are right.
173 Let thy hand be ready to help me,
for I have chosen thy precepts.
174 I long for thy salvation, O LORD,
and thy law is my delight.
175 Let me live, that I may praise thee,
and let thy ordinances help me.
176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep;
seek thy servant, for I do not forget thy commandments.

120:<sub>1</sub> A Song of Ascents.

In my distress I cry to the LORD, that he may answer me:
<sub>2</sub> "Deliver me, O LORD, from lying lips,
from a deceitful tongue."

<sup>3</sup> What shall be given to you?
And what more shall be done to you, you deceitful tongue?
<sup>4</sup> A warrior's sharp arrows,
with glowing coals of the broom tree!

<sup>5</sup> Woe is me, that I sojourn in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
<sup>6</sup> Too long have I had my dwelling among those who hate peace.
<sup>7</sup> I am for peace; but when I speak, they are for war!

I lift up my eyes to the hills.
From whence does my help come?
<sup>2</sup> My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

<sup>3</sup> He will not let your foot be moved,
he who keeps you will not slumber.
<sup>4</sup> Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD is your keeper;
the LORD is your shade on your right hand.
<sup>6</sup> The sun shall not smite you by day, nor the moon by night.
<sup>7</sup> The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and for evermore.

122:<sup>1</sup> A Song of Ascents. Of David.

I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the LORD!"
<sup>2</sup> Our feet have been standing within your gates, O Jerusalem!

as was decreed for Israel, to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
<sup>5</sup> There thrones for judgement were set,
the thrones of the house of David.

<sup>6</sup> Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!
"May they prosper who love you!
<sup>7</sup> Peace be within your walls,
and security within your towers!"
<sup>8</sup> For my brethren and companions' sake
I will say, "Peace be within you!"
<sup>9</sup> For the sake of the house of the LORD our God,
I will seek your good.

To thee I lift up my eyes,
O thou who art enthroned in the heavens!
<sup>2</sup> Behold, as the eyes of servants
look to the hand of their master,
as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
so our eyes look to the LORD our God, till he have mercy upon us.

<sup>3</sup> Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us, for we have had more than enough of contempt.
<sup>4</sup> Too long our soul has been sated with the scorn of those who are at ease,
the contempt of the proud.

124:<sup>1</sup> A Song of Ascents.
Of David.

If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
let Israel now say-- <sup>2</sup> if it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
when men rose up against us, <sup>3</sup> then they would have swallowed us up alive,
when their anger was kindled against us;
<sup>4</sup> then the flood would have swept us away,
the torrent would have gone over us;
<sup>5</sup> then over us would have gone the raging waters.

<sup>6</sup> Blessed be the LORD,
who has not given us as prey to their teeth!
<sup>7</sup> We have escaped as a bird from the snare of the fowlers;
the snare is broken, and we have escaped!

<sup>8</sup> Our help is in the name of the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion,
which cannot be moved, but abides for ever.
<sup>2</sup> As the mountains are round about Jerusalem,
so the LORD is round about his people,
from this time forth and for evermore.
<sup>3</sup> For the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the land allotted to the righteous, lest the righteous put forth their hands to do wrong.
<sup>4</sup> Do good, O LORD, to those who are good,
and to those who are upright in their hearts!
<sup>5</sup> But those who turn aside upon their crooked ways
the LORD will lead away with evildoers!
Peace be in Israel!

126:<sup>1</sup> A Song of Ascents.

When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion,
we were like those who dream.
<sup>2</sup> Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy;
then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."
<sup>3</sup> The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad.

like the watercourses in the Negeb<sup>307</sup>!
5 May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy!
6 He that goes forth weeping, bearing the seed for sowing,
shall come home with shouts of joy,
bringing his sheaves with him.

127:<sub>1</sub> A Song of Ascents.
Of Solomon.

Unless the LORD builds the house,
those who build it labour in vain.
Unless the LORD watches over the city,
the watchman stays awake in vain.
2 It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil;
for he gives to his beloved sleep.

3 Lo, sons are a heritage from the LORD,
the fruit of the womb a reward.
4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the sons of one's youth.
5 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them!
He shall not be put to shame
when he speaks with his enemies in the gate.

128:<sub>1</sub> A Song of Ascents.

Blessed is every one who fears the LORD,
who walks in his ways!
2 You shall eat the fruit of the labour of your hands;
you shall be happy, and it shall be well with you.

3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house;
your children will be like olive shoots around your table.
4 Lo, thus shall the man be blessed who fears the LORD.
5 The LORD bless you from Zion!
May you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life!
6 May you see your children's children!
Peace be upon Israel!

129:<sub>1</sub> A Song of Ascents.

"Sorely have they afflicted me from my youth,"
let Israel now say--
2 "Sorely have they afflicted me from my youth<sup>308</sup>, yet they have not prevailed against me.
3 The ploughers ploughed upon my back;
they made long their furrows."
4 The LORD is righteous;
he has cut the cords of the wicked.
5 May all who hate Zion be put to shame and turned backward!
6 Let them be like the grass on the housetops,
which withers before it grows up,

<sup>7</sup> with which the reaper does not fill his hand
or the binder of sheaves his bosom, <sup>8</sup> while those who pass by do not say,
"The blessing of the LORD be upon you!
We bless you in the name of the LORD!"

130:<sup>1</sup> A Song of Ascents.

Out of the depths I cry to thee, O LORD!
<sup>2</sup> Lord, hear my voice!
Let thy ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!
<sup>3</sup> If thou, O LORD, shouldst mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?
<sup>4</sup> But there is forgiveness with thee,
that thou mayest be feared.

<sup>5</sup> I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope;
<sup>6</sup> my soul waits for the LORD
more than watchmen for the morning,
more than watchmen for the morning.

<sup>7</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD!
For with the LORD there is steadfast love,
and with him is plenteous redemption.
<sup>8</sup> And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

131:<sup>1</sup> A Song of Ascents.

Of David.

O LORD, my heart is not lifted up,
my eyes are not raised too high;
I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvellous for me.

<sup>2</sup> But I have calmed and quieted my soul,
like a child quieted at its mother's breast;
like a child that is quieted is my soul.

<sup>3</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD
from this time forth and for evermore.

132:<sup>1</sup> A Song of Ascents.

Remember, O LORD, in David's favour,
all the hardships he endured;
<sup>2</sup> how he swore to the LORD and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob, <sup>3</sup> "I will not enter my house or get into my bed;
<sup>4</sup> I will not give sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids, <sup>5</sup> until I find a place for the LORD,
a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."

<sup>6</sup> Lo, we heard of it in Eph'rathah,
we found it in the fields of Ja'ar.
<sup>7</sup> "Let us go to his dwelling place;
let us worship at his footstool!"

<sup>8</sup> Arise, O LORD, and go to thy resting place, thou and the ark of thy might.

9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness,
and let thy saints shout for joy.
10 For thy servant David's sake
do not turn away the face of thy anointed one.

11 The LORD swore to David a sure oath
from which he will not turn back:
"One of the sons of your body I will set on your throne.
12 If your sons keep my covenant and my testimonies which I shall teach them, their sons also for ever shall sit upon your throne."

13 For the LORD has chosen Zion;
he has desired it for his habitation:
14 "This is my resting place for ever;
here I will dwell, for I have desired it.
15 I will abundantly bless her provisions;
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
16 Her priests I will clothe with salvation,
and her saints will shout for joy.
17 There I will make a horn to sprout for David;
I have prepared a lamp for my anointed.
18 His enemies I will clothe with shame,
but upon himself his crown will shed its lustre."

133:<sub>1</sub> A Song of Ascents.
Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity!
2 It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down upon the beard,
upon the beard of Aaron,
running down on the collar of his robes!
3 It is like the dew of Hermon,
which falls on the mountains of Zion!
For there the LORD has commanded the blessing,
life for evermore.

134:<sub>1</sub> A Song of Ascents.
Come, bless the LORD, all you servants of the LORD,
who stand by night in the house of the LORD!
2 Lift up your hands to the holy place, and bless the LORD!
3 May the LORD bless you from Zion,
he who made heaven and earth!

135:<sub>1</sub> Praise the LORD. Praise the name of the LORD, give praise, O servants of the LORD,
2 you that stand in the house of the LORD,
in the courts of the house of our God!
3 Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good;
sing to his name, for he is gracious!
4 For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself,
Israel as his own possession.

5 For I know that the LORD is great,
and that our Lord is above all gods.
6 Whatever the LORD pleases he does,
in heaven and on earth, in the seas and all deeps.
7 He it is who makes the clouds rise at the end of the earth,
who makes lightnings for the rain
and brings forth the wind from his storehouses.

8 He it was who smote the first-born of Egypt,
both of man and of beast;
9 who in thy midst, O Egypt,
sent signs and wonders against Pharaoh and all his servants;
10 who smote many nations and slew mighty kings, 11 Sihon, king of the Amorites,
and Og, king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan, 12 and gave their land as a heritage,
a heritage to his people Israel.

13 Thy name, O LORD, endures for ever,
thy renown, O LORD, throughout all ages.
14 For the LORD will vindicate his people,
and have compassion on his servants.

15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.
16 They have mouths, but they speak not,
they have eyes, but they see not, 17 they have ears, but they hear not,
nor is there any breath in their mouths.
18 Like them be those who make them<sup>309</sup>!-- yea, every one who trusts in them!

19 O house of Israel, bless the LORD!
O house of Aaron, bless the LORD!
20 O house of Levi, bless the LORD!
You that fear the LORD, bless the LORD!
21 Blessed be the LORD from Zion,
he who dwells in Jerusalem!
Praise the LORD!

136:<sub>1</sub> O give thanks to the LORD,
for he is good, for his steadfast love endures for ever.

2 O give thanks to the God of gods,
for his steadfast love endures for ever.
3 O give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;

4 to him who alone does great wonders,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
5 to him who by understanding made the heavens,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
6 to him who spread out the earth upon the waters,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
7 to him who made the great lights,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
8 the sun to rule over the day,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;

---

<sup>309</sup>This is a general principle, you become like your god

9 the moon and stars to rule over the night,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
10 to him who smote the first-born of Egypt,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
11 and brought Israel out from among them,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
12 with a strong hand and an outstretched arm,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
13 to him who divided the Red Sea in sunder,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
14 and made Israel pass through the midst of it,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
15 but overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
16 to him who led his people through the wilderness,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
17 to him who smote great kings,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
18 and slew famous kings,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
19 Sihon, king of the Amorites,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
20 and Og, king of Bashan,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
21 and gave their land as a heritage,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
22 a heritage to Israel his servant,
for his steadfast love endures for ever.

23 It is he who remembered us in our low estate,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
24 and rescued us from our foes,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
25 he who gives food to all flesh,
for his steadfast love endures for ever.

26 O give thanks to the God of heaven,
for his steadfast love endures for ever.

137:1 By the waters of Babylon,
there we sat down and wept, when we remembered Zion.
2 On the willows there we hung up our lyres.
3 For there our captors required of us songs,
and our tormentors, mirth, saying,
"Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

4 How shall we sing the LORD's song in a foreign land?
5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand wither!
6 Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth,
if I do not remember you,
if I do not set Jerusalem above my highest joy!

7 Remember, O LORD, against the E'domites the day of Jerusalem, how they said, "Raze it, raze it! Down to its foundations!"
8 O daughter of Babylon, you devastator!
Happy shall he be who requites you with what you have done to us!
9 Happy shall he be who takes your little ones and dashes them against the rock!

138:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of David.

I give thee thanks, O LORD, with my whole heart;
before the gods I sing thy praise;
<sub>2</sub> I bow down toward thy holy temple and give thanks to thy name for thy steadfast love and thy faithfulness;
for thou hast exalted above everything thy name and thy word.
<sub>3</sub> On the day I called, thou didst answer me, my strength of soul thou didst increase.

<sub>4</sub> All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, for they have heard the words of thy mouth;
<sub>5</sub> and they shall sing of the ways of the LORD,
for great is the glory of the LORD.
<sub>6</sub> For though the LORD is high, he regards the lowly;
but the haughty he knows from afar.

<sub>7</sub> Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
thou dost preserve my life;
thou dost stretch out thy hand against the wrath of my enemies,
and thy right hand delivers me.
<sub>8</sub> The LORD will fulfil his purpose for me;
thy steadfast love, O LORD, endures for ever.
Do not forsake the work of thy hands.

139:<sub>1</sub> To the choirmaster.

A Psalm of David.

O LORD, thou hast searched me and known me!
<sub>2</sub> Thou knowest when I sit down and when I rise up;
thou discernest my thoughts from afar.
<sub>3</sub> Thou searchest out my path and my lying down,
and art acquainted with all my ways.
<sub>4</sub> Even before a word is on my tongue,
lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.
<sub>5</sub> Thou dost beset me behind and before,
and layest thy hand upon me.
<sub>6</sub> Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
it is high, I cannot attain it.

<sub>7</sub> Whither shall I go from thy Spirit?
Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
<sub>8</sub> If I ascend to heaven, thou art there!
If I make my bed in Sheol, thou art there!
<sub>9</sub> If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, <sub>10</sub> even there thy hand shall lead me,
and thy right hand shall hold me.
<sub>11</sub> If I say, "Let only darkness cover me,
and the light about me be night," <sub>12</sub> even the darkness is not dark to thee,
the night is bright as the day;
for darkness is as light with thee.
<sub>13</sub> For thou didst form my inward parts,
thou didst knit me together in my mother's womb.
<sub>14</sub> I praise thee, for thou art fearful and wonderful.
Wonderful are thy works! Thou knowest me right well;

<sup>15</sup> my frame was not hidden from thee,
when I was being made in secret,
intricately wrought in the depths of the earth.
<sup>16</sup> Thy eyes beheld my unformed substance;
in thy book were written, every one of them,
the days that were formed for me,
when as yet there was none of them.
<sup>17</sup> How precious to me are thy thoughts, O God!
How vast is the sum of them!
<sup>18</sup> If I would count them, they are more than the sand.
When I awake, I am still with thee.

<sup>19</sup> O that thou wouldst slay the wicked, O God,
and that men of blood would depart from me, <sup>20</sup> men who maliciously defy thee,
who lift themselves up against thee for evil!
<sup>21</sup> Do I not hate them that hate thee, O LORD?
And do I not loathe them that rise up against thee?
<sup>22</sup> I hate them with perfect hatred;
I count them my enemies.
<sup>23</sup> Search me, O God, and know my heart!
Try me and know my thoughts!
<sup>24</sup> And see if there be any wicked way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting!

140:<sup>1</sup> To the choirmaster.
A Psalm of David.

Deliver me, O LORD, from evil men;
preserve me from violent men, <sup>2</sup> who plan evil things in their heart,
and stir up wars continually.
<sup>3</sup> They make their tongue sharp as a serpent's,
and under their lips is the poison of vipers.
Selah

<sup>4</sup> Guard me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;
preserve me from violent men,
who have planned to trip up my feet.
<sup>5</sup> Arrogant men have hidden a trap for me,
and with cords they have spread a net,
by the wayside they have set snares for me.
Selah

<sup>6</sup> I say to the LORD, Thou art my God;
give ear to the voice of my supplications, O LORD!
<sup>7</sup> O LORD, my Lord, my strong deliverer, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.
<sup>8</sup> Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;
do not further his evil plot!
Selah

<sup>9</sup> Those who surround me lift up their head, let the mischief of their lips overwhelm them!
<sup>10</sup> Let burning coals fall upon them!
Let them be cast into pits, no more to rise!
<sup>11</sup> Let not the slanderer be established in the land;
let evil hunt down the violent man speedily!

<sup>12</sup> I know that the LORD maintains the cause of the afflicted, and executes justice for the needy.
<sup>13</sup> Surely the righteous shall give thanks to thy name;
the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

141:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of David.

I call upon thee, O LORD;
make haste to me!
Give ear to my voice, when I call to thee!
<sup>2</sup> Let my prayer be counted as incense before thee, and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice!

<sup>3</sup> Set a guard over my mouth, O LORD, keep watch over the door of my lips!
<sup>4</sup> Incline not my heart to any evil,
to busy myself with wicked deeds
in company with men who work iniquity;
and let me not eat of their dainties!

<sup>5</sup> Let a good man strike or rebuke me in kindness, but let the oil of the wicked never anoint my head;
for my prayer is continually against their wicked deeds.
<sup>6</sup> When they are given over to those who shall condemn them, then they shall learn that the word of the LORD is true.
<sup>7</sup> As a rock which one cleaves and shatters on the land, so shall their bones be strewn at the mouth of Sheol.

<sup>8</sup> But my eyes are toward thee, O LORD God;
in thee I seek refuge; leave me not defenceless!
<sup>9</sup> Keep me from the trap which they have laid for me,
and from the snares of evildoers!
<sup>10</sup> Let the wicked together fall into their own nets, while I escape.

142:<sub>1</sub> A Maskil of David, when he was in the cave.
A Prayer.

I cry with my voice to the LORD,
with my voice I make supplication to the LORD, <sup>2</sup> I pour out my complaint before him,
I tell my trouble before him.
<sup>3</sup> When my spirit is faint, thou knowest my way!

In the path where I walk they have hidden a trap for me.
<sup>4</sup> I look to the right and watch,
but there is none who takes notice of me;
no refuge remains to me, no man cares for me.

<sup>5</sup> I cry to thee, O LORD;
I say, Thou art my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.
<sup>6</sup> Give heed to my cry; for I am brought very low!

Deliver me from my persecutors; for they are too strong for me!

<sup>7</sup> Bring me out of prison,
that I may give thanks to thy name!

The righteous will surround me;
for thou wilt deal bountifully with me.

143:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of David.

Hear my prayer, O LORD;
give ear to my supplications!
In thy faithfulness answer me, in thy righteousness!
<sub>2</sub> Enter not into judgement with thy servant;
for no man living is righteous before thee.

<sub>3</sub> For the enemy has pursued me;
he has crushed my life to the ground;
he has made me sit in darkness like those long dead.

<sub>4</sub> Therefore my spirit faints within me;
my heart within me is appalled.

<sub>5</sub> I remember the days of old,
I meditate on all that thou hast done;
I muse on what thy hands have wrought.

<sub>6</sub> I stretch out my hands to thee;
my soul thirsts for thee like a parched land.

Selah

<sub>7</sub> Make haste to answer me, O LORD!
My spirit fails!

Hide not thy face from me,
lest I be like those who go down to the Pit.

<sub>8</sub> Let me hear in the morning of thy steadfast love,
for in thee I put my trust.

Teach me the way I should go,
for to thee I lift up my soul.

<sub>9</sub> Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies!
I have fled to thee for refuge!

<sub>10</sub> Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God!
Let thy good spirit lead me on a level path!

<sub>11</sub> For thy name's sake, O LORD, preserve my life!
In thy righteousness bring me out of trouble!

<sub>12</sub> And in thy steadfast love cut off my enemies,
and destroy all my adversaries, for I am thy servant.

144:<sub>1</sub> A Psalm of David.

Blessed be the LORD, my rock,
who trains my hands for war,
and my fingers for battle;
<sub>2</sub> my rock and my fortress,
my stronghold and my deliverer,
my shield and he in whom I take refuge,
who subdues the peoples under him.

<sub>3</sub> O LORD, what is man that thou dost regard him, or the son of man that thou dost think of him?

<sub>4</sub> Man is like a breath, his days are like a passing shadow.

<sub>5</sub> Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down!

Touch the mountains that they smoke!
6 Flash forth the lightning and scatter them,
send out thy arrows and rout them!
7 Stretch forth thy hand from on high,
rescue me and deliver me from the many waters,
from the hand of aliens,
8 whose mouths speak lies,
and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
9 I will sing a new song to thee, O God;
upon a ten-stringed harp I will play to thee, 10 who givest victory to kings,
who rescuest David thy servant.
11 Rescue me from the cruel sword,
and deliver me from the hand of aliens,
whose mouths speak lies,
and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

12 May our sons in their youth be like plants full grown,
our daughters like corner pillars cut for the structure of a palace; 13 may our garners be full,
providing all manner of store;
may our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields; 14 may our cattle be heavy with young,
suffering no mischance or failure in bearing;
may there be no cry of distress in our streets!
15 Happy the people to whom such blessings fall!
Happy the people whose God is the LORD!

145:<sub>1</sub> A Song of Praise.
Of David.

I will extol thee, my God and King,
and bless thy name for ever and ever.
2 Every day I will bless thee,
and praise thy name for ever and ever.
3 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised,
and his greatness is unsearchable.

4 One generation shall laud thy works to another,
and shall declare thy mighty acts.
5 On the glorious splendour of thy majesty,
and on thy wondrous works, I will meditate.
6 Men shall proclaim the might of thy terrible acts,
and I will declare thy greatness.
7 They shall pour forth the fame of thy abundant goodness,
and shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

8 The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
9 The LORD is good to all,
and his compassion is over all that he has made.

10 All thy works shall give thanks to thee, O LORD,
and all thy saints shall bless thee!
11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,
and tell of thy power,
12 to make known to the sons of men thy mighty deeds,
and the glorious splendour of thy kingdom.

<sup>13</sup> Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
and thy dominion endures throughout all generations.

The LORD is faithful in all his words,
and gracious in all his deeds.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD upholds all who are falling,
and raises up all who are bowed down.

<sup>15</sup> The eyes of all look to thee,
and thou givest them their food in due season.

<sup>16</sup> Thou openest thy hand,
thou satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

<sup>17</sup> The LORD is just in all his ways,
and kind in all his doings.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth.

<sup>19</sup> He fulfils the desire of all who fear him,
he also hears their cry, and saves them.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD preserves all who love him;
but all the wicked he will destroy.

<sup>21</sup> My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

146:<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD!

Praise the LORD, O my soul!

<sup>2</sup> I will praise the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God while I have being.

<sup>3</sup> Put not your trust in princes,
in a son of man, in whom there is no help.

<sup>4</sup> When his breath departs he returns to his earth;
on that very day his plans perish.

<sup>5</sup> Happy is he whose help is the God of Jacob,
whose hope is in the LORD his God,

<sup>6</sup> who made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is in them; who keeps faith for ever; <sup>7</sup> who executes justice for the oppressed;
who gives food to the hungry.

The LORD sets the prisoners free;

<sup>8</sup> the LORD opens the eyes of the blind.

The LORD lifts up those who are bowed down;
the LORD loves the righteous.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD watches over the sojourners,
he upholds the widow and the fatherless;
but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD will reign for ever,
thy God, O Zion, to all generations.
Praise the LORD!

147:<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD!

For it is good to sing praises to our God;
for he is gracious, and a song of praise is seemly.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD builds up Jerusalem;
he gathers the outcasts of Israel.

4 He determines the number of the stars,
he gives to all of them their names.
5 Great is our LORD, and abundant in power;
his understanding is beyond measure.
6 The LORD lifts up the downtrodden,
he casts the wicked to the ground.

7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
make melody to our God upon the lyre!
8 He covers the heavens with clouds,
he prepares rain for the earth,
he makes grass grow upon the hills.
9 He gives to the beasts their food,
and to the young ravens which cry.
10 His delight is not in the strength of the horse,
nor his pleasure in the legs of a man;
11 but the LORD takes pleasure in those who fear him,
in those who hope in his steadfast love.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!
13 For he strengthens the bars of your gates;
he blesses your sons within you.
14 He makes peace in your borders;
he fills you with the finest of the wheat.
15 He sends forth his command to the earth;
his word runs swiftly.
16 He gives snow like wool;
he scatters hoarfrost like ashes.
17 He casts forth his ice like morsels;
who can stand before his cold?
18 He sends forth his word, and melts them;
he makes his wind blow, and the waters flow.
19 He declares his word to Jacob,
his statutes and ordinances to Israel.
20 He has not dealt thus with any other nation;
they do not know his ordinances.
Praise the LORD!

148: Praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD from the heavens, praise him in the heights!
2 Praise him, all his angels, praise him, all his host!
3 Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!
4 Praise him, you highest heavens,
and you waters above the heavens!

5 Let them praise the name of the LORD!
For he commanded and they were created.
6 And he established them for ever and ever;
he fixed their bounds which cannot be passed.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
you sea monsters and all deeps,
8 fire and hail, snow and frost,
stormy wind fulfilling his command!

9 Mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars!
10 Beasts and all cattle,

creeping things and flying birds!

<sup>11</sup> Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth!

<sup>13</sup> Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted;
his glory is above earth and heaven.

<sup>14</sup> He has raised up a horn for his people,
praise for all his saints,
for the people of Israel who are near to him.
Praise the LORD!

his praise in the assembly of the faithful!

<sup>2</sup> Let Israel be glad in his Maker,
let the sons of Zion rejoice in their King!

<sup>3</sup> Let them praise his name with dancing<sup>310</sup>, making melody to him with timbrel and lyre!

<sup>4</sup> For the LORD takes pleasure in his people;
he adorns the humble with victory.

<sup>5</sup> Let the faithful exult in glory;
let them sing for joy on their couches.

<sup>6</sup> Let the high praises of God be in their throats and two-edged swords in their hands,

The Proverbs<sup>1</sup>

1: The proverbs of Solomon, son of David, king of Israel:

2 That men may know wisdom and instruction,
understand words of insight,
3 receive instruction in wise dealing,
righteousness, justice, and equity;
4 that prudence may be given to the simple,
knowledge and discretion to the youth-- 5 the wise man also may hear and increase in learning,
and the man of understanding acquire skill, 6 to understand a proverb and a figure,
the words of the wise<sup>2</sup> and their riddles.

7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge<sup>3</sup>;
fools<sup>4</sup> despise wisdom and instruction.

8 Hear, my son, your father's instruction,
and reject not your mother's teaching; 9 for they are a fair garland for your head,
and pendants for your neck.
10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.
11 If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood,
let us wantonly ambush the innocent;
12 like Sheol let us swallow them alive and whole,
like those who go down to the Pit;
13 we shall find all precious goods,
we shall fill our houses with spoil;
14 throw in your lot among us,
we will all have one purse"-- 15 my son, do not walk in the way with them, hold back your foot from their paths;
16 for their feet run to evil,
and they make haste to shed blood.
17 For in vain is a net spread in the sight of any bird;
18 but these men lie in wait for their own blood,
they set an ambush for their own lives.
19 Such are the ways of all who get gain by violence;
it takes away the life of its possessors.

20 Wisdom<sup>5</sup> cries aloud in the street<sup>6</sup>;
in the markets<sup>7</sup> she raises her voice;
21 on the top of the walls<sup>8</sup> she cries out;
at the entrance of the city gates<sup>9</sup> she speaks:
22 "How long, O simple ones, will you love being simple?
How long will scoffers delight in their scoffing and fools hate knowledge<sup>10</sup>?"
23 Give heed to my reproof<sup>11</sup>;

behold, I will pour out my spirit<sup>12</sup> to you;

24 Because I have called and you refused to listen,
have stretched out my hand and no one has heeded, 25 and you have ignored all my counsel
and would have none of my reproof, 26 I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when panic strikes you,
27 when panic strikes you like a storm,
and your calamity comes like a whirlwind,
when distress and anguish come upon you.
28 Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer;

2:1 My son, if you receive my words
and treasure up my commandments with you, 2 making your ear attentive to wisdom
and inclining your heart to understanding; 3 yes, if you cry out for insight and raise your voice for understanding, 4 if you seek it like silver and search for it as for hidden treasures;
5 then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.
6 For the LORD gives wisdom;
from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;
7 he stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
he is a shield to those who walk in integrity, 8 guarding the paths of justice and preserving the way of his saints.
9 Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path; 10 for wisdom will come into your heart,
and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul; 11 discretion will watch over you;
understanding will guard you; 12 delivering you from the way of evil, from men of perverted speech, 13 who forsake the paths of uprightness
to walk in the ways of darkness, 14 who rejoice in doing evil
and delight in the perverseness of evil; 15 men whose paths are crooked,
and who are devious in their ways.

<sup>14</sup> Prov 1:7

<sup>16</sup> You will be saved from the loose woman,
from the adventuress with her smooth words, <sup>17</sup> who forsakes the companion of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God; <sup>18</sup> for her house sinks down to death,
and her paths to the shades;
<sup>19</sup> none who go to her come back
nor do they regain the paths of life.

<sup>20</sup> So you will walk in the way of good men and keep to the paths of the righteous.
<sup>21</sup> For the upright will inhabit the land,
and men of integrity will remain in it;
<sup>22</sup> but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the treacherous will be rooted out of it.

3:<sup>1</sup> My son, do not forget my teaching,
but let your heart keep my commandments;
<sup>2</sup> for length of days and years of life
and abundant welfare will they give you.

<sup>3</sup> Let not loyalty and faithfulness forsake you;
bind them about your neck,
write them on the tablet of your heart.
<sup>4</sup> So you will find favour and good repute in the sight of God and man.

<sup>5</sup> Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight.

<sup>6</sup> In all your ways acknowledge him,
and he will make straight your paths.

<sup>7</sup> Be not wise in your own eyes;
fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

<sup>8</sup> It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones.

<sup>9</sup> Honour the LORD with your substance
and with the first fruits of all your produce;

<sup>10</sup> then your barns will be filled with plenty,
and your vats will be bursting with wine.

<sup>11</sup> My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline or be weary of his reproof,

<sup>12</sup> for the LORD reproves him whom he loves,
as a father the son in whom he delights.

<sup>13</sup> Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
and the man who gets understanding, <sup>14</sup> for the gain from it is better than gain from silver and its profit better than gold.

<sup>15</sup> She is more precious than jewels,
and nothing you desire can compare with her.

<sup>16</sup> Long life is in her right hand;
in her left hand are riches and honour.

<sup>17</sup> Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
and all her paths are peace.

<sup>18</sup> She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her;
those who hold her fast are called happy.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD by wisdom founded the earth;

by understanding he established the heavens;
20 by his knowledge the deeps broke forth,
and the clouds drop down the dew.

21 My son, keep sound wisdom and discretion;
let them not escape from your sight,
22 and they will be life for your soul
and adornment for your neck.

23 Then you will walk on your way securely and your foot will not stumble.

24 If you sit down, you will not be afraid;
when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

25 1) Do not be afraid of sudden panic,
or of the ruin of the wicked, when it comes;

26 for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being caught.

27 2) Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when it is in your power to do it.

28 3) Do not say to your neighbour,
"Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it"--
when you have it with you.

29 4) Do not plan evil against your neighbour who dwells trustingly beside you.

30 5) Do not contend with a man for no reason,
when he has done you no harm.

31 6) Do not envy a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways;

32 for the perverse man is an abomination to the LORD,
but the upright are in his confidence.

33 The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked,
but he blesses the abode of the righteous.

34 Toward the scorers he is scornful,
but to the humble he shows favour.

35 The wise will inherit honour,
but fools get disgrace.

4:<sub>1</sub> Hear, O sons, a father's instruction,
and be attentive, that you may gain insight;
2 for I give you good precepts:
do not forsake my teaching.

3 When I was a son with my father,
tender, the only one in the sight of my mother,

4 he taught me, and said to me,
"Let your heart hold fast my words;

keep my commandments, and live;
5 do not forget,

and do not turn away from the words of my mouth.
Get wisdom; get insight.

6 Do not forsake her, and she will keep you;
love her, and she will guard you.

7 The beginning of wisdom is this:
Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight.

8 Prize her highly, and she will exalt you;
she will honour you if you embrace her.

9 She will place on your head a fair garland;
she will bestow on you a beautiful crown."

10 Hear, my son, and accept my words, that the years of your life may be many.

11 I have taught you the way of wisdom;

I have led you in the paths of uprightness.
12 When you walk, your step will not be hampered;
and if you run, you will not stumble.
13 Keep hold of instruction, do not let go;
guard her, for she is your life.
14 Do not enter the path of the wicked,
and do not walk in the way of evil men.
15 Avoid it; do not go on it;
turn away from it and pass on.
16 For they cannot sleep unless they have done wrong;
they are robbed of sleep unless they have made some one stumble.
17 For they eat the bread of wickedness
and drink the wine of violence.
18 But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn,
which shines brighter and brighter until full day.
19 The way of the wicked is like deep darkness;
they do not know over what they stumble.
20 My son, be attentive to my words;
incline your ear to my sayings.
21 Let them not escape from your sight;
keep them within your heart.
22 For they are life to him who finds them,
and healing to all his flesh.
23 Keep your heart with all vigilance;
for from it flow the springs of life.
24 Put away from you crooked speech,
and put devious talk far from you.
25 Let your eyes look directly forward,
and your gaze be straight before you.
26 Take heed to the path of your feet,
then all your ways will be sure.
27 Do not swerve to the right or to the left;
turn your foot away from evil.

5:<sub>1</sub> My son, be attentive to my wisdom, incline your ear to my understanding; <sub>2</sub> that you may keep discretion,
and your lips may guard knowledge.
<sub>3</sub> For the lips of a loose woman drip honey,
and her speech is smoother than oil;
<sub>4</sub> but in the end she is bitter as wormwood,
sharp as a two-edged sword.
<sub>5</sub> Her feet go down to death;
her steps follow the path to Sheol;
<sub>6</sub> she does not take heed to the path of life;
her ways wander, and she does not know<sup>15</sup> it.

<sub>7</sub> And now, O sons, listen to me,
and do not depart from the words of my mouth.
<sub>8</sub> Keep your way far from her,
and do not go near the door of her house;
<sub>9</sub> lest you give your honour to others
and your years to the merciless; <sub>10</sub> lest strangers take their fill of your strength,
and your labours go to the house of an alien;
<sub>11</sub> and at the end of your life you groan,
when your flesh and body are consumed,
<sub>12</sub> and you say, "How I hated discipline,

Let her affection fill you at all times with delight,
be infatuated always with her love.

<sup>20</sup> Why should you be infatuated, my son,
with a loose woman and embrace the bosom of an adventuress?

<sup>21</sup> For a man's ways are before the eyes of the LORD,
and he watches all his paths.

<sup>22</sup> The iniquities of the wicked ensnare him,
and he is caught in the toils of his sin.

<sup>23</sup> He dies for lack of discipline,

14 with perverted heart devises evil,
continually sowing discord;
15 therefore calamity will come upon him suddenly;
in a moment he will be broken beyond healing.

16 There are six things which the LORD hates,
seven which are an abomination to him:
17 haughty eyes, a lying tongue,
and hands that shed innocent blood, 18 a heart that devises wicked plans,
feet that make haste to run to evil, 19 a false witness who breathes out lies,
and a man who sows discord among brothers.

20 My son, keep your father's commandment,
and forsake not your mother's teaching.
21 Bind them upon your heart always;
tie them about your neck.
22 When you walk, they will lead you;
when you lie down, they will watch over you;
and when you awake, they will talk with you.
23 For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching a light,
and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life, 24 to preserve you from the evil woman,
from the smooth tongue of the adventuress.
25 Do not desire her beauty in your heart, and do not let her capture<sup>21</sup> you with her eyelashes; 26 for a harlot may be hired for a loaf of bread,
but an adulteress stalks a man's very life.
27 Can a man carry fire in his bosom
and his clothes not be burned?
28 Or can one walk upon hot coals
and his feet not be scorched?
29 So is he who goes in to his neighbour's wife;
none who touches her will go unpunished.

30 Do not men despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his appetite when he is hungry?
31 And if he is caught, he will pay sevenfold;
he will give all the goods of his house.
32 He who commits adultery has no sense;
he who does it destroys himself.

---

33 Wounds and dishonour will he get,
and his disgrace will not be wiped away.
34 For jealousy makes a man furious,
and he will not spare when he takes revenge.
35 He will accept no compensation,
nor be appeased though you multiply gifts.

7:1 My son, keep my words and treasure up my commandments with you<sup>22</sup>;
2 keep my commandments and live,
keep my teachings as the apple of your eye;
3 bind them on your fingers,
write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
and call insight your intimate friend;

<sup>21</sup>the woman controls the situation

<sup>22</sup>These are a defence (Ps 119:9-11), but need putting in place BEFORE temptation comes from the adventuress with her smooth words.

<sup>6</sup> For at the window of my house
I have looked out through my lattice,
<sup>7</sup> and I have seen among the simple<sup>23</sup>,
I have perceived among the youths, a young man without sense<sup>24</sup>, <sup>8</sup> passing along the street near her corner, taking the road to her house <sup>9</sup> in the twilight, in the evening, at the time of night and darkness.

wily of heart<sup>26</sup>.
<sup>11</sup> She is loud and wayward,
her feet do not stay at home;
<sup>12</sup> now in the street, now in the market,
and at every corner she lies in wait.
<sup>13</sup> She seizes him and kisses him,
and with impudent face she says to him:
<sup>14</sup> "I had to offer sacrifices<sup>27</sup>,
and today I have paid my vows;
<sup>15</sup> so now I have come out to meet you,
to seek you eagerly, and I have found you.
<sup>16</sup> I have decked my couch with coverings, coloured spreads of Egyptian linen;
<sup>17</sup> I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
<sup>18</sup> Come, let us take our fill of love till morning;
let us delight ourselves with love.
<sup>19</sup> For my husband<sup>28</sup> is not at home;
he has gone on a long journey;
<sup>20</sup> he took a bag of money with him;
at full moon he will come home."

<sup>21</sup> With much seductive speech she persuades him;
with her smooth talk she compels him.
<sup>22</sup> All at once he follows her,
as an ox goes to the slaughter, or as a stag is caught fast <sup>23</sup> till an arrow pierces its entrails;
as a bird rushes into a snare;
he does not know that it will cost him his life<sup>29</sup>.

<sup>24</sup> And now, O sons, listen to me,
and be attentive to the words of my mouth.
<sup>25</sup> Let not your heart turn aside to her ways,
do not stray into her paths;
<sup>26</sup> for many a victim has she laid low;
yea, all her slain are a mighty host.
<sup>27</sup> Her house is the way to Sheol,
going down to the chambers of death<sup>30</sup>.

<sup>33</sup> The creation of wisdom as a person. But this is a difficult idea and appears to conflict with "brought forth" used in Prov 8:24 and Prov 8:25

I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, 28 when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep, 29 when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth, 30 then I was beside him, like a master workman;
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, 31 rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the sons of men.

32 And now, my sons, listen to me:
happy are those who keep my ways.
33 Hear instruction and be wise,
and do not neglect it.
34 Happy is the man who listens to me,
watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors.
35 For he who finds me finds life
and obtains favour from the LORD; 36 but he who misses me injures himself;
all who hate me love death."

9:<sub>1</sub> Wisdom has built her house,
she has set up her seven pillars.

To him who is without sense she says,

and drink of the wine I have mixed.
6 Leave simpleness, and live,
and walk in the way of insight."

7 He who corrects a scoffer gets himself abuse,
and he who reproves a wicked man incurs injury.
8 Do not reprove a scoffer, or he will hate you;
reprove a wise man, and he will love you.
9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser;
teach a righteous man and he will increase in learning.

10: The proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son makes a glad father,
but a foolish son is a sorrow to his mother.
2 Treasures gained by wickedness do not profit,
but righteousness delivers from death.
3 The LORD does not let the righteous go hungry,
but he thwarts the craving of the wicked.
4 A slack hand causes poverty,
but the hand of the diligent makes rich.
5 A son who gathers in summer is prudent,
but a son who sleeps in harvest brings shame.
6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
7 The memory of the righteous is a blessing,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
8 The wise of heart will heed commandments,
but a prating fool will come to ruin.
9 He who walks in integrity walks securely,
but he who perverts his ways will be found out.
10 He who winks the eye causes trouble,
but he who boldly reproves makes peace.
11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life,
but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
12 Hatred stirs up strife,
but love covers all offences.
13 On the lips of him who has understanding wisdom is found, but a rod is for the back of him who lacks sense.
14 Wise men lay up knowledge,
but the babbling of a fool brings ruin near.
15 A rich man's wealth is his strong city;
the poverty of the poor is their ruin.
16 The wage of the righteous leads to life,
the gain of the wicked to sin.
17 He who heeds instruction is on the path to life,
but he who rejects reproof goes astray.
18 He who conceals hatred has lying lips,
and he who utters slander is a fool.
19 When words are many, transgression is not lacking,
but he who restrains his lips is prudent.
20 The tongue of the righteous is choice silver;
the mind of the wicked is of little worth.
21 The lips of the righteous feed many,
but fools die for lack of sense.
22 The blessing of the LORD makes rich,
and he adds no sorrow with it.
23 It is like sport to a fool to do wrong,
but wise conduct is pleasure to a man of understanding.
24 What the wicked dreads will come upon him,
but the desire of the righteous will be granted.
25 When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more,
but the righteous is established for ever<sup>36</sup>.
26 Like vinegar to the teeth, and smoke to the eyes,
so is the sluggard to those who send him.
27 The fear of the LORD prolongs life,

but the years of the wicked will be short.
28 The hope of the righteous ends in gladness,
but the expectation of the wicked comes to nought.
29 The LORD is a stronghold to him whose way is upright,
but destruction to evildoers.
30 The righteous will never be removed,
but the wicked will not dwell in the land.
31 The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,
but the perverse tongue will be cut off.
32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable,
but the mouth of the wicked, what is perverse.
11: A false balance is an abomination to the LORD,
but a just weight is his delight.
2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace;
but with the humble is wisdom.
3 The integrity of the upright guides them,
but the crookedness of the treacherous destroys them.
4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath,
but righteousness delivers from death.
5 The righteousness of the blameless keeps his way straight,
but the wicked falls by his own wickedness.
6 The righteousness of the upright delivers them,
but the treacherous are taken captive by their lust.
7 When the wicked dies, his hope perishes,
and the expectation of the godless comes to nought.
8 The righteous is delivered from trouble,
and the wicked gets into it instead.
9 With his mouth the godless man would destroy his neighbour,
but by knowledge the righteous are delivered.
10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices;
and when the wicked perish there are shouts of gladness.
11 By the blessing of the upright a city is exalted,
but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
12 He who belittles his neighbour lacks sense,
but a man of understanding remains silent.
13 He who goes about as a talebearer reveals secrets,
but he who is trustworthy in spirit keeps a thing hidden.
14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls;
but in an abundance of counsellors there is safety.
15 He who gives surety for a stranger will smart for it,
but he who hates suretyship is secure.
16 A gracious woman gets honour,
and violent men get riches.
17 A man who is kind benefits himself,
but a cruel man hurts himself.
18 A wicked man earns deceptive wages,
but one who sows righteousness gets a sure reward.
19 He who is steadfast in righteousness will live,
but he who pursues evil will die.
20 Men of perverse mind are an abomination to the LORD,
but those of blameless ways are his delight.
21 Be assured, an evil man will not go unpunished,
but those who are righteous will be delivered.
22 Like a gold ring in a swine's snout
is a beautiful woman without discretion.
23 The desire of the righteous ends only in good;
the expectation of the wicked in wrath.
24 One man gives freely, yet grows all the richer;
another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want.
25 A liberal man will be enriched,

and one who waters will himself be watered.

26 The people curse him who holds back grain,
but a blessing is on the head of him who sells it.

27 He who diligently seeks good seeks favour,
but evil comes to him who searches for it.

28 He who trusts in his riches will wither,
but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf.

29 He who troubles his household will inherit wind,
and the fool will be servant to the wise.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
but lawlessness takes away lives.

31 If the righteous is requited on earth,
how much more the wicked and the sinner!

12: Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge,
but he who hates reproof is stupid.

2 A good man obtains favour from the LORD,
but a man of evil devices he condemns.

3 A man is not established by wickedness,
but the root of the righteous will never be moved.

4 A good wife is the crown of her husband,
but she who brings shame is like rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are just;
the counsels of the wicked are treacherous.

6 The words of the wicked lie in wait for blood,
but the mouth of the upright delivers men.

7 The wicked are overthrown and are no more,
but the house of the righteous will stand.

8 A man is commended according to his good sense,
but one of perverse mind is despised.

9 Better is a man of humble standing who works for himself than one who plays the great man but lacks bread.

10 A righteous man has regard for the life of his beast,
but the mercy of the wicked is cruel.

11 He who tills his land will have plenty of bread,
but he who follows worthless pursuits has no sense.

12 The strong tower of the wicked comes to ruin,
but the root of the righteous stands firm.

13 An evil man is ensnared by the transgression of his lips,
but the righteous escapes from trouble.

14 From the fruit of his words a man is satisfied with good,
and the work of a man's hand comes back to him.

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
but a wise man listens to advice.

16 The vexation of a fool is known at once,
but the prudent man ignores an insult.

17 He who speaks the truth gives honest evidence,
but a false witness utters deceit.

18 There is one whose rash words are like sword thrusts,
but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

19 Truthful lips endure for ever,
but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil,
but those who plan good have joy.

21 No ill befalls the righteous,
but the wicked are filled with trouble.

22 Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD,
but those who act faithfully are his delight.

23 A prudent man conceals his knowledge,
but fools proclaim their folly.

24 The hand of the diligent will rule<sup>37</sup>
while the slothful will be put to forced labour.

25 Anxiety in a man's heart weighs him down,
but a good word makes him glad.

26 A righteous man turns away from evil,
but the way of the wicked leads them astray.

27 A slothful man will not catch his prey,
but the diligent man will get precious wealth.

28 In the path of righteousness is life,
but the way of error leads to death.

13: A wise son hears his father's instruction,
but a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

2 From the fruit of his mouth a good man eats good,
but the desire of the treacherous is for violence.

3 He who guards his mouth preserves his life;
he who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.

4 The soul of the sluggard craves, and gets nothing<sup>38</sup>, while the soul of the diligent is richly supplied<sup>39</sup>.

5 A righteous man hates falsehood,
but a wicked man acts shamefully and disgracefully.

6 Righteousness guards him whose way is upright,
but sin overthrows the wicked.

7 One man pretends to be rich, yet has nothing;
another pretends to be poor, yet has great wealth<sup>40</sup>.

8 The ransom of a man's life is his wealth,
but a poor man has no means of redemption.

9 The light of the righteous rejoices,
but the lamp<sup>41</sup> of the wicked will be put out.

10 By insolence the heedless make strife,
but with those who take advice is wisdom.

11 Wealth hastily gotten will dwindle,
but he who gathers little by little will increase it.

12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
but a desire fulfilled is a tree of life.

13 He who despises the word brings destruction on himself,
but he who respects the commandment will be rewarded.

14 The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life,
that one may avoid the snares of death.

15 Good sense wins favour,
but the way of the faithless is their ruin.

16 In everything a prudent man acts with knowledge,
but a fool flaunts his folly.

17 A bad messenger plunges men into trouble,
but a faithful envoy brings healing.

18 Poverty and disgrace come to him who ignores instruction,
but he who heeds reproof is honoured.

19 A desire fulfilled is sweet to the soul;
but to turn away from evil is an abomination to fools.

20 He who walks with wise men becomes wise,
but the companion of fools will suffer harm.

21 Misfortune pursues sinners,
but prosperity rewards the righteous.

 7 Leave the presence of a fool,
 for there you do not meet words of knowledge.
 8 The wisdom of a prudent man is to discern his way,
 but the folly of fools is deceiving.
 9 God scorns the wicked,

 than a hundred blows into a fool.
 11 An evil man seeks only rebellion,
 and a cruel messenger will be sent against him.
 12 Let a man meet a she-bear robbed of her cubs,
 rather than a fool in his folly.
 13 If a man returns evil for good,
 evil will not depart from his house.
 14 The beginning of strife is like letting out water;
 so quit before the quarrel breaks out.
 15 He who justifies the wicked and he who condemns the righteous
 are both alike an abomination to the LORD.
 16 Why should a fool have a price in his hand to buy wisdom,
 when he has no mind?
 17 A friend loves at all times,
 and a brother is born for adversity.
 18 A man without sense gives a pledge,
 and becomes surety in the presence of his neighbour.
 19 He who loves transgression loves strife;
 he who makes his door high seeks destruction.
 20 A man of crooked mind does not prosper,
 and one with a perverse tongue falls into calamity.
 21 A stupid son is a grief to a father;
 and the father of a fool has no joy.
 22 A cheerful heart is a good medicine,
 but a downcast spirit dries up the bones.
 23 A wicked man accepts a bribe from the bosom
 to pervert the ways of justice.
 24 A man of understanding sets his face toward wisdom,
 but the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.
 25 A foolish son is a grief to his father and bitterness to her who bore him.
 26 To impose a fine on a righteous man is not good;
 to flog noble men is wrong.
 27 He who restrains his words has knowledge,
 and he who has a cool spirit is a man of understanding.
 28 Even a fool who keeps silent is considered wise;
 when he closes his lips, he is deemed intelligent.
18: He who is estranged
 seeks pretexts to break out against all sound judgement.
 2 A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.

3 When wickedness comes, contempt comes also;
 and with dishonour comes disgrace.
 4 The words of a man's mouth are deep waters;
 the fountain of wisdom is a gushing stream.
 5 It is not good to be partial to a wicked man, or to deprive a righteous man of justice.
 6 A fool's lips bring strife,
 and his mouth invites a flogging.
 7 A fool's mouth is his ruin,
 and his lips are a snare to himself.
 8 The words of a whisperer are like delicious morsels;
 they go down into the inner parts of the body.
 9 He who is slack in his work is a brother to him who destroys<sup>49</sup>.

<sup>49</sup>Prov 10:26. Prov 24:30-32, but in the present case, slackness does MORE damage

10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower;
the righteous man runs into it and is safe.
11 A rich man's wealth is his strong city,
and like a high wall protecting him.
12 Before destruction a man's heart is haughty,
but humility goes before honour.
13 If one gives answer before he hears,
it is his folly and shame.

---

14 A man's spirit will endure sickness;
but a broken spirit who can bear?
15 An intelligent mind acquires knowledge,
and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
16 A man's gift makes room for him
and brings him before great men.
17 He who states his case first seems right,
until the other comes and examines him.
18 The lot puts an end to disputes and decides between powerful contenders.
19 A brother helped is like a strong city,
but quarrelling is like the bars of a castle.
20 From the fruit of his mouth a man is satisfied;
he is satisfied by the yield of his lips.
21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue,
and those who love it will eat its fruits.
22 He who finds a wife finds a good thing<sup>50</sup>
and obtains favour<sup>51</sup> from the LORD.

---

23 The poor use entreaties,
but the rich answer roughly.
24 There are friends who pretend to be friends,
but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.
19: Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity
than a man who is perverse in speech, and is a fool.
2 It is not good for a man to be without knowledge,
and he who makes haste with his feet misses his way.
3 When a man's folly brings his way to ruin,
his heart rages against the LORD.
4 Wealth brings many new friends,
but a poor man is deserted by his friend.
5 A false witness will not go unpunished,
and he who utters lies will not escape.
6 Many seek the favour of a generous man,
and every one is a friend to a man who gives gifts.
7 All a poor man's brothers hate him;
how much more do his friends go far from him!
He pursues them with words, but does not have them.
8 He who gets wisdom loves himself;
he who keeps understanding will prosper.
9 A false witness will not go unpunished,
and he who utters lies will perish.
10 It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury,
much less for a slave to rule over princes.
11 Good sense makes a man slow to anger,
and it is his glory to overlook an offence.
12 A king's wrath is like the growling of a lion,
but his favour is like dew upon the grass.
13 A foolish son is ruin to his father,
and a wife's quarrelling is a continual dripping of rain.

<sup>50</sup>Ps 84:11; Gen 2:18

<sup>51</sup>so to get one, do what will cause Him to favour you (Ps 45:7)

14 House and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a prudent wife is from the LORD.

15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep,
and an idle person will suffer hunger.

16 He who keeps the commandment keeps his life;
he who despises the word will die.

17 He who is kind to the poor lends to the LORD,
and he will repay him for his deed.

18 Discipline your son while there is hope;
do not set your heart on his destruction.

19 A man of great wrath will pay the penalty;
for if you deliver him, you will only have to do it again.

20 Listen to advice and accept instruction,
that you may gain wisdom for the future.

21 Many are the plans in the mind of a man,
but it is the purpose of the LORD that will be established.

22 What is desired in a man is loyalty,
and a poor man is better than a liar.

23 The fear of the LORD leads to life;
and he who has it rests satisfied;
he will not be visited by harm.

24 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish,
and will not even bring it back to his mouth.

25 Strike a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence;
reprove a man of understanding, and he will gain knowledge.

26 He who does violence to his father and chases away his mother is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear instruction
only to stray from the words of knowledge.

28 A worthless witness mocks at justice,
and the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity.

29 Condemnation is ready for scoffers,
and flogging for the backs of fools.

20: Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler;
and whoever is led astray by it is not wise.

2 The dread wrath of a king is like the growling of a lion;
he who provokes him to anger forfeits his life.

3 It is an honour for a man to keep aloof from strife;
but every fool will be quarrelling.

4 The sluggard does not plough in the autumn;
he will seek at harvest and have nothing.

5 The purpose in a man's mind is like deep water,
but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Many a man proclaims his own loyalty,
but a faithful man who can find?

7 A righteous man who walks in his integrity-- blessed are his sons after him!

8 A king who sits on the throne of judgement
winnows all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, "I have made my heart clean;
I am pure from my sin"?

10 Diverse weights and diverse measures
are both alike an abomination to the LORD.

11 Even a child makes himself known by his acts,
whether what he does is pure and right.

12 The hearing ear and the seeing eye,
the LORD has made them both.

13 Love not sleep, lest you come to poverty;
open your eyes, and you will have plenty of bread.

<sup>14</sup> "It is bad, it is bad," says the buyer;
 but when he goes away, then he boasts.
<sup>15</sup> There is gold, and abundance of costly stones;
 but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
<sup>16</sup> Take a man's garment when he has given surety for a stranger<sup>52</sup>,
 and hold him in pledge when he gives surety for foreigners.
<sup>17</sup> Bread gained by deceit is sweet to a man,
 but afterward his mouth will be full of gravel<sup>53</sup>.
<sup>18</sup> Plans are established by counsel;
 by wise guidance wage war.
<sup>19</sup> He who goes about gossiping reveals secrets;
 therefore do not associate with one who speaks foolishly.
<sup>20</sup> If one curses his father or his mother,
 his lamp will be put out in utter darkness.
<sup>21</sup> An inheritance gotten hastily in the beginning<sup>54</sup> will in the end not be blessed.
<sup>22</sup> Do not say, "I will repay evil";
 wait for the LORD, and he will help you<sup>55</sup>.
<sup>23</sup> Diverse weights are an abomination to the LORD,
 and false scales are not good.
<sup>24</sup> A man's steps are ordered by the LORD;
 how then can man understand his way?
<sup>25</sup> It is a snare for a man to say rashly,
 "It is holy," and to reflect only after making his vows.
<sup>26</sup> A wise king winnows the wicked,
 and drives the wheel over them.
<sup>27</sup> The spirit of man is the lamp<sup>56</sup> of the LORD, searching all his innermost parts.
<sup>28</sup> Loyalty and faithfulness preserve the king, and his throne is upheld by righteousness<sup>57</sup>.
<sup>29</sup> The glory of young men is their strength,
 but the beauty of old men is their grey hair.
<sup>30</sup> Blows that wound cleanse away evil;
 strokes make clean the innermost parts.
21:<sub>1</sub> The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of the LORD;
 he turns it wherever he will.
<sup>2</sup> Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,
 but the LORD weighs the heart.
<sup>3</sup> To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice<sup>58</sup>.
<sup>4</sup> Haughty eyes and a proud heart,
 the lamp<sup>59</sup> of the wicked, are sin.
<sup>5</sup> The plans of the diligent lead surely to abundance, but every one who is hasty<sup>60</sup> comes only to want.
<sup>6</sup> The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapour and a snare of death<sup>61</sup>.
<sup>7</sup> The violence of the wicked will sweep them away, because they refuse to do what is just.

8 The way of the guilty is crooked,

 9 It is better to live in a corner of the housetop
 than in a house shared with a contentious woman.
 10 The soul of the wicked desires evil;
 his neighbour finds no mercy in his eyes.
 11 When a scoffer is punished, the simple becomes wise;
 when a wise man is instructed, he gains knowledge.
 12 The righteous observes the house of the wicked;
 the wicked are cast down to ruin.
 13 He who closes his ear to the cry of the poor will himself cry out and not be heard.
 14 A gift in secret averts anger;
 and a bribe in the bosom, strong wrath.
 15 When justice is done, it is a joy to the righteous,
 but dismay to evildoers.
 16 A man who wanders from the way of understanding will rest in the assembly of the dead.
 17 He who loves pleasure will be a poor man;
 he who loves wine and oil will not be rich.
 18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous,

 19 It is better to live in a desert land

 20 Precious treasure remains in a wise man's dwelling,

 but the righteous gives and does not hold back.
 27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination;
 how much more when he brings it with evil intent.
 28 A false witness will perish,
 but the word of a man who hears will endure.
 29 A wicked man puts on a bold face,
 but an upright man considers his ways.
 30 No wisdom, no understanding, no counsel,
 can avail against the LORD.
 31 The horse is made ready for the day of battle,
 but the victory belongs to the LORD.
22: A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches,
 and favour is better than silver or gold.
 2 The rich and the poor meet together;
 the LORD is the maker of them all.
 3 A prudent man sees danger and hides himself;
 but the simple go on, and suffer for it.

Who has strife? Who has complaining?
Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?
30 Those who tarry long over wine,
those who go to try mixed wine.
31 Do not look at wine when it is red,

<sub>5</sub> A wise man is mightier than a strong man,

<sub>12</sub> If you say, "Behold, we did not know this,"
does not he who weighs the heart perceive it?
Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it,
and will he not requite man according to his work?

<sub>13</sub> My son, eat honey, for it is good,
and the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.
<sub>14</sub> Know that wisdom is such to your soul;
if you find it, there will be a future,
and your hope will not be cut off.

<sub>15</sub> Lie not in wait as a wicked man against the dwelling of the righteous;
do not violence to his home;
<sub>16</sub> for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises again;
but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.

<sup>17</sup> Do not rejoice when your enemy falls,
and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles;

Partiality in judging is not good.

get everything ready for you in the field;
and after that build your house.

<sup>28</sup> Be not a witness against your neighbour without cause,
and do not deceive with your lips.

<sup>29</sup> Do not say, "I will do to him as he has done to me;
I will pay the man back for what he has done."

<sup>30</sup> <sup>73</sup> I passed by the field of a sluggard<sup>74</sup>,
by the vineyard of a man without sense;

is a faithful messenger to those who send him,
he refreshes the spirit of his masters.
14 Like clouds and wind without rain is a man who boasts of a gift he does not give.

15 With patience<sup>79</sup> a ruler may be persuaded,
and a soft tongue will break a bone.
16 If you have found honey, eat only enough for you,
lest you be sated with it and vomit it.
17 Let your foot be seldom in your neighbour's house,
lest he become weary of you and hate you.
18 A man who bears false witness against his neighbour is like a war club, or a sword, or a sharp arrow.
19 Trust in a faithless man in time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips.
20 He who sings songs to a heavy heart is like one who takes off a garment on a cold day,
and like vinegar on a wound.
21 If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat;
and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink<sup>80</sup>; 22 for you will heap coals of fire on his head,
and the LORD will reward you.
23 The north wind brings forth rain;
and a backbiting tongue, angry looks.
24 It is better to live in a corner of the housetop
than in a house shared with a contentious woman.
25 Like cold water to a thirsty soul,
so is good news from a far country.
26 Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain
is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.
27 It is not good to eat much honey,
so be sparing of complimentary words.
28 A man without self-control

<sub>5</sub> Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes<sup>83</sup>.
<sub>6</sub> He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.
<sub>7</sub> Like a lame man's legs, which hang useless,

<sub>9</sub> Like a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
<sub>10</sub> Like an archer who wounds everybody is he who hires a passing fool or drunkard.
<sub>11</sub> Like a dog that returns to his vomit and do not go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity.

Better is a neighbour who is near than a brother who is far away.
<sup>11</sup> Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad,
that I may answer him who reproaches me.
<sup>12</sup> A prudent man sees danger and hides himself;
but the simple go on, and suffer for it.
<sup>13</sup> Take a man's garment when he has given surety for a stranger,
and hold him in pledge when he gives surety for foreigners.
<sup>14</sup> He who blesses his neighbour with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, will be counted as cursing.
<sup>15</sup> A continual dripping on a rainy day
and a contentious woman are alike;
<sup>16</sup> to restrain her is to restrain the wind or to grasp oil in his right hand.
<sup>17</sup> Iron sharpens iron,
and one man sharpens another.
<sup>18</sup> He who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit,
and he who guards his master will be honoured.
<sup>19</sup> As in water face answers to face,
so the mind of man reflects the man.
<sup>20</sup> Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied,
and never satisfied are the eyes of man.
<sup>21</sup> The crucible is for silver,
and the furnace is for gold,
and a man is judged by his praise.
<sup>22</sup> Crush a fool in a mortar with a pestle

and give attention to your herds;

and does a crown endure to all generations?
25 When the grass is gone, and the new growth appears,
and the herbage of the mountains is gathered,

and the goats the price of a field;
27 there will be enough goats' milk for your food, for the food of your household and maintenance for your maidens.

28:<sub>1</sub> The wicked flee when no one pursues,
but the righteous are bold as a lion.
2 When a land transgresses it has many rulers;
but with men of understanding and knowledge
its stability will long continue.
3 A poor man who oppresses the poor
is a beating rain that leaves no food.
4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked,
but those who keep the law strive against them.
5 Evil men do not understand justice,
but those who seek the LORD understand it completely.
6 Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity
than a rich man who is perverse in his ways.
7 He who keeps the law is a wise son,
but a companion of gluttons shames his father.
8 He who augments his wealth by interest and increase gathers it for him who is kind to the poor.

9 If one turns away his ear from hearing the law,
even his prayer is an abomination.

10 He who misleads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit;
but the blameless will have a goodly inheritance.
11 A rich man is wise in his own eyes,
but a poor man who has understanding will find him out.
12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory;
but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.
13 He who conceals his transgressions will not prosper,
but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy.
14 Blessed is the man who fears the LORD always;
but he who hardens his heart will fall into calamity.
15 Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people.
16 A ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor;
but he who hates unjust gain will prolong his days.
17 If a man is burdened with the blood of another,
let him be a fugitive until death;
let no one help him.

18 He who walks in integrity will be delivered,
but he who is perverse in his ways will fall into a pit.
19 He who tills his land will have plenty of bread,
but he who follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.

20 A faithful man will abound with blessings, but he who hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.

---

21 To show partiality is not good;
but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.
22 A miserly man hastens after wealth,
and does not know that want will come upon him.
23 He who rebukes a man will afterward find more favour than he who flatters with his tongue.
24 He who robs his father or his mother and says, "That is no transgression,"

is the companion of a man who destroys.

25 A greedy man stirs up strife,
but he who trusts in the LORD will be enriched.

26 He who trusts in his own mind is a fool;
but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered.

27 He who gives to the poor will not want,
but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves,
but when they perish, the righteous increase.

29: He who is often reproved,
yet stiffens his neck will suddenly be broken beyond healing.

2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice;
but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

3 He who loves wisdom makes his father glad,
but one who keeps company with harlots squanders his substance.

4 By justice a king gives stability to the land,
but one who exacts gifts ruins it.

5 A man who flatters his neighbour spreads a net for his feet.

6 An evil man is ensnared in his transgression,
but a righteous man sings and rejoices.

7 A righteous man knows the rights of the poor;
a wicked man does not understand such knowledge.

8 Scoffers set a city aflame,
but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man has an argument with a fool,
the fool only rages and laughs, and there is no quiet.

10 Bloodthirsty men hate one who is blameless,
and the wicked seek his life.

11 A fool gives full vent to his anger,
but a wise man quietly holds it back.

12 If a ruler listens to falsehood,
all his officials will be wicked.

13 The poor man and the oppressor meet together;
the LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

14 If a king judges the poor with equity
his throne will be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom,
but a child left to himself brings shame to his mother.

16 When the wicked are in authority, transgression increases;
but the righteous will look upon their downfall.

17 Discipline your son, and he will give you rest;
he will give delight to your heart.

18 Where there is no prophecy the people cast off restraint,
but blessed is he who keeps the law.

19 By mere words a servant is not disciplined,
for though he understands, he will not give heed.

20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

21 He who pampers his servant from childhood,
will in the end find him his heir.

22 A man of wrath stirs up strife,
and a man given to anger causes much transgression.

23 A man's pride will bring him low,
but he who is lowly in spirit will obtain honour.

24 The partner of a thief hates his own life;
he hears the curse, but discloses nothing.

25 The fear of man lays a snare,
but he who trusts in the LORD is safe.

26 Many seek the favour of a ruler,
but from the LORD a man gets justice.

<sup>27</sup> An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous,
but he whose way is straight is an abomination to the wicked.

30:<sup>1</sup> The words of Agur son of Jakeh of Massa.

The man says to lth'i-el, to lth'i-el and Ucal:
<sup>2</sup> Surely I am too stupid to be a man.
I have not the understanding of a man.
<sup>3</sup> I have not learned wisdom,
nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.
<sup>4</sup> Who has ascended to heaven and come down?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?
Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name, and what is his son's name?
Surely you know!

<sup>5</sup> Every word of God proves true;
he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.
<sup>6</sup> Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you,
and you be found a liar.

<sup>7</sup> Two things I ask of thee;
deny them not to me before I die:
<sup>8</sup> Remove far from me falsehood and lying;
give me neither poverty nor riches;
feed me with the food that is needful for me, <sup>9</sup> lest I be full, and deny thee,
and say, "Who is the LORD?"
or lest I be poor, and steal, and profane the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup> Do not slander a servant to his master,
lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.
<sup>11</sup> There are those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers.
<sup>12</sup> There are those who are pure in their own eyes but are not cleansed of their filth.
<sup>13</sup> There are those-- how lofty are their eyes,
how high their eyelids lift!
<sup>14</sup> There are those whose teeth are swords,
whose teeth are knives,
to devour the poor from off the earth,
the needy from among men.

<sup>15</sup> The leech has two daughters;
"Give, give," they cry.
Three things are never satisfied;
four never say, "Enough":
<sup>16</sup> Sheol, the barren womb,
the earth ever thirsty for water,
and the fire which never says, "Enough."

<sup>17</sup> The eye that mocks a father and scorns to obey a mother will be picked out by the ravens of the valley and eaten by the vultures.
<sup>18</sup> Three things are too wonderful for me;
four I do not understand:
<sup>19</sup> the way of an eagle in the sky,
the way of a serpent on a rock,

the way of a ship on the high seas,
and the way of a man with a maiden.

<sup>20</sup> This is the way of an adulteress:
she eats, and wipes her mouth,
and says, "I have done no wrong"<sup>91</sup>."

<sup>21</sup> Under three things the earth trembles;
under four it cannot bear up:
<sup>22</sup> a slave when he becomes king,
and a fool when he is filled with food;
<sup>23</sup> an unloved woman when she gets a husband<sup>92</sup>,
and a maid when she succeeds her mistress.

<sup>24</sup> Four things on earth are small,
but they are exceedingly wise:
<sup>25</sup> the ants are a people not strong,
yet they provide their food in the summer; <sup>26</sup> the badgers are a people not mighty,
yet they make their homes in the rocks;
<sup>27</sup> the locusts have no king,
yet all of them march in rank; <sup>28</sup> the lizard you can take in your hands,
yet it is in kings' palaces.

<sup>29</sup> Three things are stately in their tread;
four are stately in their stride:
<sup>30</sup> the lion, which is mightiest among beasts and does not turn back before any;
<sup>31</sup> the strutting cock,
the he-goat,
and a king striding before his people.

<sup>32</sup> If you have been foolish, exalting yourself, or if you have been devising evil, put your hand on your mouth.
<sup>33</sup> For pressing milk produces curds, pressing the nose produces blood,
and pressing anger produces strife.

31: The words of Lemuel, king of Massa, which his mother taught him:

<sup>2</sup> What, my son? What, son of my womb?
What, son of my vows?
<sup>3</sup> Give not your strength to women,
your ways to those who destroy kings.
<sup>4</sup> It is not for kings, O Lemuel,
it is not for kings to drink wine<sup>93</sup> <sup>1</sup>
or for rulers to desire strong drink; <sup>5</sup> lest they drink and forget<sup>94</sup> what has been decreed<sup>95</sup> <sup>1</sup>
and pervert the rights of all the afflicted.
<sup>6</sup> Give strong drink to him who is perishing<sup>96</sup>,
and wine to those in bitter distress;

<sup>92</sup> a serious problem with older girls

<sup>96</sup> 1Thess 5:7; Jer 51:7; Is 5:22; Nahum 1:10(AV); Micah 2:11; Hab 2:5,15-16

and remember their misery no more.
8 Open your mouth for the dumb,
for the rights of all who are left desolate.
9 Open your mouth, judge righteously,
maintain the rights of the poor and needy.

10 A good<sup>97</sup> wife who can find?
She is far more precious than jewels.
11 The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will have no lack of gain.
12 She does him good, and not harm,
all the days of her life<sup>98</sup>.

---

13 She seeks wool and flax,
and works with willing hands.
14 She is like the ships of the merchant,
she brings her food from afar.
15 She rises while it is yet night
and provides food for her household and tasks for her maidens.
16 She considers a field and buys it;
with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
17 She girds her loins with strength and makes her arms strong.
18 She perceives that her merchandise is profitable.
Her lamp does not go out at night.
19 She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her hands hold the spindle.
20 She opens her hand to the poor,
and reaches out her hands to the needy.
21 She is not afraid of snow for her household,
for all her household are clothed in scarlet.
22 She makes herself coverings;
her clothing is fine linen and purple.
23 Her husband is known in the gates,
when he sits among the elders of the land.
24 She makes linen garments and sells them;
she delivers girdles to the merchant.
25 Strength and dignity are her clothing,
and she laughs at the time to come.
26 She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.
27 She looks well to the ways of her household,
and does not eat the bread of idleness.
28 Her children rise up and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:
29 "Many women have done excellently,
but you surpass them all."
30 Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

and let her works praise her in the gates.

<sup>98</sup>Esther

Ecclesiastes or The Preacher

1: The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity<sup>1</sup>.

3 What does man gain by all the toil
at which he toils under the sun?

4 A generation goes, and a generation comes,
but the earth remains for ever.

5 The sun rises and the sun goes down,
and hastens to the place where it rises.

6 The wind blows to the south, and goes round to the north;
round and round goes the wind, and on its circuits the wind returns.

7 All streams run to the sea, but the sea is not full;
to the place where the streams flow, there they flow again.

8 All things are full of weariness; a man cannot utter it;
the eye is not satisfied with seeing,
nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 What has been is what will be,
and what has been done is what will be done;
and there is nothing new under the sun.

10 Is there a thing of which it is said,
"See, this is new"?

It has been already, in the ages before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things, nor will there be any remembrance of later things yet to happen among those who come after.

12 I the Preacher have been king over Israel in Jerusalem. 13 And I applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to the sons of men to be busy with. 14 I have seen everything that is done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a striving after wind.

15 What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be numbered.

16 I said to myself, "I have acquired great wisdom, surpassing all who were over Jerusalem before me; and my mind has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge." 17
And I applied my mind to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is but a striving after wind.

18 For in much wisdom is much vexation,
and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

2: I said to myself, "Come now, I will make a test of pleasure; enjoy yourself." But behold, this also was vanity. 2 I said of laughter, "It is mad," and of pleasure, "What use is it?"
3 I searched with my mind how to cheer my body with wine-- my mind still guiding me with wisdom-- and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was good for the sons of men to do under heaven during the few days of their life. 4 I made great works; I built houses and planted vineyards for myself; 5 I made myself gardens and parks, and planted in them all kinds of fruit trees. 6 I made myself pools from which to water the forest of growing trees. 7 I bought male and female slaves, and had slaves who were born in my house; I had also great possessions of herds and flocks, more than any who had been before me in Jerusalem. 8 I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and provinces; I got singers, both men and women, and many concubines, man's delight.

9 So I became great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom remained with me. 10 And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them; I kept my heart from no pleasure, for my heart found pleasure in all my toil<sup>2</sup>, and this was my reward for all my toil. 11 Then I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had spent in doing it, and behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing to be gained under the sun.

<sup>18</sup> I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who will come after me; <sup>19</sup> and who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. <sup>20</sup> So I turned about and gave my heart up to despair over all the toil of my labours under the sun, <sup>21</sup> because sometimes a man who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by a man who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. <sup>22</sup> What has a man from all the toil and strain with which he toils beneath the sun? <sup>23</sup> For all his days are full of pain, and his work is a vexation; even in the night his mind does not rest. This also is vanity.

3:<sup>1</sup> For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven<sup>4</sup>:

- <sup>2</sup> a time to be born, and a time to die;
- a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
- <sup>3</sup> a time to kill, and a time to heal;
- a time to break down, and a time to build up;
- <sup>4</sup> a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
- a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
- <sup>5</sup> a time to cast away stones,
- and a time to gather stones together;
- a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
- <sup>6</sup> a time to seek, and a time to lose;
- a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
- <sup>7</sup> a time to rend, and a time to sew;
- a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
- <sup>8</sup> a time to love, and a time to hate;
- a time for war, and a time for peace.
- <sup>9</sup> What gain has the worker from his toil?

<sup>10</sup> I have seen the business that God has given to the sons of men to be busy with. <sup>11</sup> He has made everything beautiful<sup>5</sup> in its time; also he has put eternity into man's mind, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end<sup>6</sup>. <sup>12</sup> I know that there is nothing better for them than to be happy and enjoy themselves as long as they live; <sup>13</sup> also that it is God's gift to man that every one should eat and drink and take pleasure in all his toil<sup>7</sup>. <sup>14</sup> I know that whatever God does endures for ever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; God has made it so, in order that men should fear before him. <sup>15</sup> That which is, already has been; that which is to be, already has been; and God seeks what has been driven away.

<sup>16</sup> Moreover I saw under the sun that in the place of justice, even there was wickedness, and in the place of righteousness, even there was wickedness. <sup>17</sup> I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for he has appointed a time for every matter, and for every work. <sup>18</sup> I said in my heart with regard to the sons of men that God is testing them to show them that they are but beasts. <sup>19</sup> For the fate of the sons of men and the fate of beasts is the same; as one dies, so dies the other. They all have the same breath, and man has no advantage over the beasts; for all is vanity. <sup>20</sup> All go to one place; all are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. <sup>21</sup> Who knows whether the spirit of man goes upward and the spirit of the beast goes down to the earth? <sup>22</sup> So I saw that there is nothing better than that a man should enjoy his work, for that is his lot; who can bring him to see what will be after him?

4:<sup>1</sup> Again I saw all the oppressions that are practiced under the sun. And behold, the tears of the oppressed, and they had no one to comfort them! On the side of their oppressors there was power, and there was no one to comfort them. <sup>2</sup> And I thought the dead who are already dead more fortunate than the living who are still alive; <sup>3</sup> but better than both is he who has not yet been, and has not seen the evil deeds that are done under the sun.

<sup>7</sup> Again, I saw vanity under the sun: <sup>8</sup> a person who has no one, either son or brother, yet there is no end to all his toil, and his eyes are never satisfied with riches, so that he never asks, "For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?" This also is vanity and an unhappy business.

<sup>9</sup> Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. <sup>10</sup> For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up. <sup>11</sup> Again, if two lie together, they are warm; but how can one be warm alone? <sup>12</sup> And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him. A threefold cord is not quickly broken.

<sup>13</sup> Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who will no longer take advice, <sup>14</sup> even though he had gone from prison to the throne or in his own kingdom had been born poor. <sup>15</sup> I saw all the living who move about under the sun, as well as that youth, who was to stand in his place; <sup>16</sup> there was no end of all the people; he was over all of them. Yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

<sup>4</sup> When you vow a vow to God, do not delay paying it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay what you vow. <sup>5</sup> It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay<sup>11</sup>. <sup>6</sup> Let not your mouth lead you into sin<sup>12</sup>, and do not say before the messenger that it was a mistake; why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands<sup>13</sup>?

<sup>8</sup> If you see in a province the poor oppressed and justice and right violently taken away, do not be amazed at the matter; for the high official is watched by a higher, and there are yet higher ones over them. <sup>9</sup> But in all, a king is an advantage to a land with cultivated fields<sup>15</sup>.

<sup>13</sup>Thus fear of God leads to caution. Sometimes we vow the impossible. Christ can rescind it, as in Num 30:6-8. No father either would allow a child's foolish promise to be binding. <sup>14</sup>fantasy instead of action

<sup>15</sup>Or, better, (RSV mg)= "The profit of the land is among all of them; a cultivated field has a king"

<sup>10</sup> He who loves money will not be satisfied with money; nor he who loves wealth, with gain: this also is vanity.

<sup>11</sup> When goods increase, they increase who eat them; and what gain has their owner but to see them with his eyes?

<sup>12</sup> Sweet is the sleep of a labourer, whether he eats little or much; but the surfeit of the rich will not let him sleep.

<sup>13</sup> There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: riches were kept by their owner to his hurt, <sup>14</sup> and those riches were lost in a bad venture; and he is father of a son, but he has nothing in his hand. <sup>15</sup> As he came from his mother's womb he shall go again, naked as he came, and shall take nothing for his toil, which he may carry away in his hand. <sup>16</sup> This also is a grievous evil: just as he came, so shall he go; and what gain has he that he toiled for the wind, <sup>17</sup> and spent all his days in darkness and grief, in much vexation and sickness and resentment?

6:<sup>1</sup> There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it lies heavy upon men: <sup>2</sup> a man to whom God gives wealth, possessions, and honour, so that he lacks nothing of all that he desires, yet God does not give him power to enjoy them, but a stranger enjoys them; this is vanity; it is a sore affliction. <sup>3</sup> If a man begets a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but he does not enjoy life's good things, and also has no burial, I say that an untimely birth is better off than he. <sup>4</sup> For it comes into vanity and goes into darkness, and in darkness its name is covered; <sup>5</sup> moreover it has not seen the sun or known anything; yet it finds rest rather than he. <sup>6</sup> Even though he should live a thousand years twice told, yet enjoy no good-- do not all go to the one<sup>18</sup> place?

<sup>10</sup> Whatever has come to be has already been named, and it is known what man is, and that he is not able to dispute with one stronger than he. <sup>11</sup> The more words, the more vanity, and what is man the better? <sup>12</sup> For who knows what is good for man while he lives the few days of his vain life, which he passes like a shadow? For who can tell man what will be after him under the sun?

and the day of death, than the day of birth.

<sup>2</sup> It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting;
for this is the end of all men,
and the living will lay it to heart.

<sup>3</sup> Sorrow is better than laughter,
for by sadness of countenance the heart is made glad.

<sup>4</sup> The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning;
but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

<sup>5</sup> It is better for a man to hear the rebuke of the wise than to hear the song of fools.

<sup>6</sup> For as the crackling of thorns under a pot,
so is the laughter of the fools; this also is vanity.

<sup>7</sup> Surely oppression makes the wise man foolish,
and a bribe corrupts the mind.

<sup>8</sup> Better is the end of a thing than its beginning;
and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

<sup>18</sup>shows that a miscarriage is a person

 for anger lodges in the bosom of fools.
<sup>10</sup> Say not, "Why were the former days better than these?"
 For it is not from wisdom that you ask this.
<sup>11</sup> Wisdom is good with an inheritance,
 an advantage to those who see the sun.
<sup>12</sup> For the protection of wisdom is like the protection of money;
 and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.
<sup>13</sup> Consider the work of God;
 who can make straight what he has made crooked?
<sup>14</sup> In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; God has made the one as well as the other, so that man may not find out anything that will be after him.
<sup>15</sup> In my vain life I have seen everything; there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his evil-doing. <sup>16</sup> Be not righteous overmuch, and do not make yourself overwise; why should you destroy yourself? <sup>17</sup>
 Be not wicked overmuch, neither be a fool; why should you die before your time? <sup>18</sup> It is good that you should take hold of this, and from that withhold not your hand; for he who fears God shall come forth from them all.
<sup>19</sup> Wisdom gives strength to the wise man more than ten rulers that are in a city.
<sup>20</sup> Surely there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and never sins.
<sup>21</sup> Do not give heed to all the things that men say, lest you hear your servant cursing you; <sup>22</sup> your heart knows that many times you have yourself cursed others.
<sup>23</sup> All this I have tested by wisdom; I said, "I will be wise"; but it was far from me. <sup>24</sup>
 That which is, is far off, and deep, very deep; who can find it out? <sup>25</sup> I turned my mind to know and to search out and to seek wisdom and the sum of things, and to know the wickedness of folly and the foolishness which is madness. <sup>26</sup> And I found more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and whose hands are fetters; he who pleases God escapes her, but the sinner is taken by her<sup>20</sup>. <sup>27</sup> Behold, this is what I found, says the Preacher, adding one thing to another to find the sum, <sup>28</sup> which my mind has sought repeatedly, but I have not found. One man among a thousand I found, but a woman among all these I have not found.
<sup>29</sup> Behold, this alone I found, that God made man upright, but they have sought out many devices.

8:1 Who is like the wise man?
 And who knows the interpretation of a thing?
 A man's wisdom makes his face shine,
 and the hardness of his countenance is changed.

<sup>2</sup> Keep the king's command, and because of your sacred oath be not dismayed; <sup>3</sup> go from his presence, do not delay when the matter is unpleasant, for he does whatever he pleases. <sup>4</sup> For the word of the king is supreme, and who may say to him, "What are you doing?" <sup>5</sup> He who obeys a command will meet no harm, and the mind of a wise man will know the time and way. <sup>6</sup> For every matter has its time and way, although man's trouble lies heavy upon him. <sup>7</sup> For he does not know what is to be, for who can tell him how it will be? <sup>8</sup> No man has power to retain the spirit, or authority over the day of death; there is no discharge from war, nor will wickedness deliver those who are given to it. <sup>9</sup> All this I observed while applying my mind to all that is done under the sun, while man lords it over man to his hurt<sup>21</sup>.
<sup>10</sup> Then I saw the wicked buried; they used to go in and out of the holy place, and were praised in the city where they had done such things. This also is vanity. <sup>11</sup> Because sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, the heart of the sons of men is fully set<sup>22</sup> to do evil. <sup>12</sup> Though a sinner does evil a hundred times and prolongs his life, yet I know that it will be well with those who fear God, because they fear before him; <sup>13</sup> but it will not be well with the wicked, neither will he prolong his days like a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

<sup>14</sup> There is a vanity which takes place on earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked, and there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. <sup>15</sup> And I commend enjoyment, for man has no good thing under the sun but to eat and drink, and enjoy himself, for this will go with him in his toil through the days of life which God gives him under the sun.

<sup>16</sup> When I applied my mind to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on earth, how neither day nor night one's eyes see sleep; <sup>17</sup> then I saw all the work of God, that man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun. However much man may toil in seeking, he will not find it out; even though a wise man claims to know, he cannot find it out.

9:<sup>1</sup> But all this I laid to heart, examining it all, how the righteous and the wise and their deeds are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hate man does not know. Everything before them is vanity, <sup>2</sup> since one fate comes to all, to the righteous and the wicked, to the good and the evil, to the clean and the unclean, to him who sacrifices and him who does not sacrifice. As is the good man, so is the sinner; and he who swears is as he who shuns an oath. <sup>3</sup> This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that one fate comes to all; also the hearts of men are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead. <sup>4</sup> But he who is joined with all the living has hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion. <sup>5</sup> For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing, and they have no more reward; but the memory of them is lost. <sup>6</sup> Their love and their hate and their envy have already perished, and they have no more for ever any share in all that is done under the sun.

<sup>7</sup> Go, eat your bread with enjoyment, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already approved what you do.

<sup>9</sup> Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of your vain life which he has given you under the sun, because that is your portion in life and in your toil at which you toil under the sun. <sup>10</sup> Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work or thought or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, to which you are going.

<sup>13</sup> I have also seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it seemed great to me. <sup>14</sup> There was a little city with few men in it; and a great king came against it and besieged it, building great siegeworks against it. <sup>15</sup> But there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that poor man. <sup>16</sup> But I say that wisdom is better than might, though the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heeded.

10:<sup>1</sup> Dead flies make the perfumer's ointment give off an evil odour;

so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honour.

<sup>3</sup> Even when the fool walks on the road, he lacks sense, and he says to every one that he is a fool.

<sup>4</sup> If the anger of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your place, for deference will make amends for great offences.

<sup>5</sup> There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as it were an error proceeding from the ruler: <sup>6</sup> folly is set in many high places, and the rich sit in a low place. <sup>7</sup> I have seen slaves on horses, and princes walking on foot like slaves.

<sup>8</sup> He who digs a pit will fall into it; and a serpent will bite him who breaks through a wall.

<sup>9</sup> He who quarries stones is hurt by them; and he who splits logs is endangered by them.

<sup>10</sup> If the iron is blunt, and one does not whet the edge, he must put forth more strength; but wisdom helps one to succeed.

<sup>11</sup> If the serpent bites before it is charmed, there is no advantage in a charmer.

<sup>12</sup> The words of a wise man's mouth win him favour,
but the lips of a fool consume him.

and the end of his talk is wicked madness.

<sup>14</sup> A fool multiplies words, though no man knows what is to be,
and who can tell him what will be after him?

<sup>15</sup> The toil of a fool wearies him, so that he does not know the way to the city.

<sup>16</sup> Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes feast in the morning!

<sup>17</sup> Happy are you, O land, when your king is the son of free men,
and your princes feast at the proper time,
for strength, and not for drunkenness!

<sup>18</sup> Through sloth the roof sinks in,
and through indolence the house leaks.

<sup>19</sup> Bread is made for laughter,
and wine gladdens life,
and money answers everything.

<sup>20</sup> Even in your thought, do not curse the king, nor in your bedchamber curse the rich;
for a bird of the air will carry your voice,
or some winged creature tell the matter.

11:<sub>1</sub> Cast your bread upon the waters,
for you will find it after many days.

<sub>2</sub> Give a portion to seven, or even to eight,
for you know not what evil may happen on earth.

<sub>3</sub> If the clouds are full of rain,
they empty themselves on the earth;
and if a tree falls to the south or to the north,
in the place where the tree falls, there it will lie.

<sub>4</sub> He who observes the wind will not sow;
and he who regards the clouds will not reap.

<sub>5</sub> As you do not know how the spirit comes to the bones in the womb of a woman with child, so you do not know the work of God who makes everything.

<sub>6</sub> In the morning sow your seed, and at evening withhold not your hand; for you do not know which will prosper, this or that, or whether both alike will be good.

<sub>7</sub> Light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to behold the sun.

<sub>8</sub> For if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember that the days of darkness will be many. All that comes is vanity.

<sub>9</sub> Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth; walk in the ways of your heart and the sight of your eyes. But know that for all these things God will bring you into judgement.

<sub>10</sub> Remove vexation from your mind, and put away pain from your body; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

12:<sub>1</sub> Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw nigh, when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them"; <sub>2</sub> before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars are darkened and the clouds return after the rain; <sub>3</sub> in the day when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men are bent, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look through the windows are dimmed, <sub>4</sub> and the doors on the street are shut; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one rises up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of song are brought low; <sub>5</sub> they are afraid also of what is high, and terrors are in the way; the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags itself along and desire fails; because man goes to his eternal home, and the mourners go about the streets; <sub>6</sub> before the silver cord is snapped, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern, <sub>7</sub> and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to God who gave it. <sup>8</sup> Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher; all is vanity.

<sup>9</sup> Besides being wise, the Preacher also taught the people knowledge, weighing and studying and arranging proverbs with great care. <sup>10</sup> The Preacher sought to find pleasing words, and uprightly he wrote words of truth.

<sup>11</sup> The sayings of the wise are like goads, and like nails firmly fixed are the collected sayings which are given by one Shepherd. <sup>12</sup> My son, beware of anything beyond these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

<sup>13</sup> The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. <sup>14</sup> For God will bring every deed into judgement, with every secret thing, whether good or evil.

Groom

follow in the tracks of the flock<sup>33</sup>, and pasture<sup>34</sup> your kids<sup>35</sup> beside<sup>36</sup> the shepherds<sup>37</sup> tabernacles<sup>38</sup>.

your neck with strings (of jewels)<sup>42</sup>.

Chorus

<sup>11</sup> We will make you ornaments of gold<sup>43</sup>, studded with silver<sup>44</sup>.

my nard<sup>47</sup> gave forth its fragrance.
<sup>13</sup> My beloved is to me a bag of myrrh<sup>48</sup>,
that lies between my breasts.
<sup>14</sup> My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms<sup>49</sup>
in the vineyards of Enge'di.

behold, you are beautiful; your eyes are doves<sup>52</sup>.

Bride

His lips are lilies, distilling liquid myrrh.
<sup>14</sup> His arms are rounded gold, set with jewels.
His body is ivory work, encrusted with sapphires.
<sup>15</sup> His legs are alabaster columns, set upon bases of gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.
This is my beloved and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem<sup>177</sup>.

Chorus

6:1 Whither has your beloved gone, O fairest among women?
Whither has your beloved turned, that we may seek<sup>178</sup> him with you?

Bride

<sup>2</sup> My beloved has gone down to his garden<sup>179</sup>,
to the beds of spices,
to pasture his flock in the gardens,
and to gather lilies<sup>180</sup>.
<sup>3</sup> I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine<sup>181</sup>;

Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon, overlooking Damascus.
5 Your head crowns you like Carmel<sup>196</sup>, and your flowing locks<sup>197</sup> are like purple;
a king is held captive in the tresses.

6 How fair and pleasant you are, O loved one, delectable maiden!
7 You are stately as a palm tree,
and your breasts are like its clusters.
8 I say I will climb the palm tree<sup>198</sup>
and lay hold of its branches.
Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
and the scent of your breath like apples, 9 and your kisses like the best wine that goes down smoothly,
gliding over lips and teeth.

Bride

10 I am my beloved's, and his desire is for me<sup>199</sup>.
11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the fields,
and lodge in the villages;

There I will give you my love-making<sup>201</sup>.
13 The mandrakes give forth fragrance,
and over our doors are all choice fruits,

Chorus

<sup>5</sup> Who is that coming up from the wilderness, leaning<sup>213</sup> upon her beloved?

Groom

Under the apple tree I awakened<sup>A214</sup> you.
There your mother was in travail with you,
there she who bore you was in travail.

<sup>6</sup> Set me as a seal upon your heart,
as a seal upon your arm;

jealousy is cruel as the grave<sup>216</sup>.
Its flashes are flashes of fire, a most vehement flame.
<sup>7</sup> Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it<sup>217</sup>.
If a man offered for love all the wealth of his house,
it would be utterly scorned.

Chorus

<sup>8</sup> We have a little sister, and she has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister, on the day when she is spoken for?

<sup>9</sup> If she is a wall<sup>218</sup>,

The book of Isaiah

1: The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem<sup>1</sup> in the days of Uzzi'ah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezeki'ah, kings of Judah.

<sup>2</sup> Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth;
for the LORD has spoken:

"Sons have I reared and brought up,
but they have rebelled against me.

<sup>3</sup> The ox knows its owner, and the ass its master's crib;
but Israel does not know, my people does not understand."

<sup>4</sup> Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, offspring of evildoers, sons who deal corruptly!
They have <sup>1</sup>) forsaken the LORD, they have <sup>2</sup>) despised the Holy One of Israel, they <sup>3</sup>) have turned away from Him<sup>2</sup>.

<sup>5</sup> Why will you still be smitten, that you continue to rebel?
The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

<sup>6</sup> From the sole of the foot even to the head<sup>3</sup>,
there is no soundness in it,
but bruises and sores and bleeding wounds;
they are not pressed out, or bound up, or softened with oil.

<sup>7</sup> Your country lies desolate, your cities are burned with fire;
in your very presence aliens devour your land;
it is desolate, as overthrown by aliens.

<sup>8</sup> And the daughter of Zion is left like a booth in a vineyard,
like a lodge in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.

<sup>9</sup> If the LORD of hosts had not left us a few survivors, we should have been like Sodom, and become like Gomor'rah.

<sup>10</sup> Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom<sup>4</sup>!
Give ear to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomor'rah!

<sup>11</sup> "What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices?
says the LORD;

I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams
and the fat of fed beasts;
I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
or of lambs, or of he-goats.

<sup>12</sup> "When you come to appear before me, who requires of you this trampling of my courts<sup>5</sup>?

<sup>13</sup> Bring no more vain offerings<sup>6</sup>;
incense is an abomination to me.

New moon and sabbath and the calling of assemblies--
I cannot endure iniquity and solemn assembly.

<sup>14</sup> Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hates;
they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them.

<sup>15</sup> When you spread forth your hands,
I will hide my eyes from you;
even though you make many prayers, I will not listen;
your hands are full of blood.

cease to do evil,
<sup>17</sup> learn to do good;
seek justice, correct oppression;
defend the fatherless, plead for the widow.

<sup>18</sup> "Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD:
though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.
<sup>19</sup> If you are willing and obedient,
you shall eat the good of the land;
<sup>20</sup> But if you refuse and rebel,
you shall be devoured by the sword<sup>7</sup>;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

she that was full of justice!
Righteousness lodged in her, but now murderers<sup>9</sup>.
<sup>22</sup> Your silver has become dross,
your wine mixed with water.
<sup>23</sup> Your princes are rebels and companions of thieves.
Every one loves a bribe and runs after gifts.
They do not defend the fatherless,
and the widow's cause does not come to them.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore the Lord says,
the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel:
"Ah, 1) I will vent my wrath on my enemies<sup>10</sup>,
and avenge myself on my foes.
<sup>25</sup> 2) I will turn my hand against you and will smelt away your dross as with lye and remove all your alloy<sup>11</sup>.
<sup>26</sup> And 3) I will restore your judges as at the first,
and your counsellors as at the beginning.
Afterward you shall be called the city of righteousness,
the faithful city."

<sup>27</sup> Zion shall be redeemed by justice,
and those in her who repent, by righteousness.
<sup>28</sup> But rebels and sinners shall be destroyed together<sup>12</sup>, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.
<sup>29</sup> For you shall be ashamed of the oaks in which you delighted;
and you shall blush for the gardens which you have chosen.
<sup>30</sup> For you shall be like an oak whose leaf withers,
and like a garden without water.
<sup>31</sup> And the strong shall become tow, and his work a spark, and both of them shall burn together, with none to quench them.

shall be established as the highest of the mountains,
and shall be raised above the hills;
and all the nations shall flow to it,
3 and many peoples shall come, and say:
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob;
that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths."
For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
4 He shall judge between the nations,
and shall decide for many peoples;
and they shall beat their swords into ploughshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the LORD.

6 For thou hast rejected thy people, the house of Jacob, because they are full of diviners from the east
and of soothsayers like the Philistines,
and they strike hands with foreigners.

7 Their land is filled with silver and gold,
and there is no end to their treasures;
their land is filled with horses,
and there is no end to their chariots.

8 Their land is filled with idols;
they bow down to the work of their hands,
to what their own fingers have made.

9 So man is humbled, and men are brought low-- forgive them not!

10 Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust
from before the terror of the LORD,
and from the glory of his majesty.

11 The haughty looks of man shall be brought low,
and the pride of men shall be humbled;
and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

12 For the LORD of hosts has a day<sup>13</sup> against all that is proud and lofty,
against all that is lifted up and high;
13 against all the cedars of Lebanon, lofty and lifted up;
and against all the oaks of Bashan;

14 against all the high mountains,
and against all the lofty hills;

15 against every high tower,
and against every fortified wall;

16 against all the ships of Tarshish,
and against all the beautiful craft.

17 And the haughtiness of man shall be humbled,
and the pride of men shall be brought low;
and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

18 And the idols shall utterly pass away.

19 And men shall enter the caves of the rocks
and the holes of the ground,
from before the terror of the LORD,
and from the glory of his majesty,
when he rises to terrify the earth.

<sup>13</sup>Joel 2:11; Zeph 3:8-11

20 In that day men will cast forth their idols of silver and their idols of gold,
which they made for themselves to worship,
to the moles and to the bats, 21 to enter the caverns of the rocks
and the clefts of the cliffs,
from before the terror of the LORD,
and from the glory of his majesty,
when he rises to terrify the earth.
22 Turn away from man in whose nostrils is breath,
for of what account is he?

3:1 For, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, is taking away from Jerusalem and from Judah stay and staff,
the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water<sup>14</sup>;
2 the mighty man and the soldier,
the judge and the prophet, the diviner and the elder,
3 the captain of fifty and the man of rank,
the counsellor and the skilful magician
and the expert in charms.
4 And I will make boys their princes<sup>15</sup> ,
and babes shall rule over them.
5 And the people will oppress one another,
every man his fellow and every man his neighbour;
the youth will be insolent to the elder,
and the base fellow to the honourable.

6 When a man takes hold of his brother
in the house of his father, saying:
"You have a mantle<sup>16</sup>; you shall be our leader,
and this heap of ruins shall be under your rule";
7 in that day he will speak out, saying:
"I will not be a healer;
in my house there is neither bread nor mantle;
you shall not make me leader of the people."
8 For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen;
because their speech<sup>17</sup> and their deeds are against the LORD, defying<sup>18</sup> his glorious presence.
9 Their expression on their faces<sup>19</sup> witnesses against them;
they proclaim their sin like Sodom, they do not hide<sup>20</sup> it.
Woe to them! For they have brought evil upon themselves.
10 Tell the righteous that it shall be well with them,
for they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.
11 Woe to the wicked!
It shall be ill with him,
for what his hands have done shall be done to him.
12 My people-- children<sup>21</sup> are their oppressors,
and women rule over them.

<sup>4</sup> What more was there to do for my vineyard,
that I have not done in it?
When I looked for it to yield grapes,
why did it yield wild grapes?

<sup>5</sup> And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard.
I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured;
I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.
<sup>6</sup> I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed,

<sup>43</sup>dead - life gone - but not buried

and the light is darkened by its clouds.

6:1 In the year that King Uzzi'ah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple. 2 Above him stood the seraphim; each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. 3 And one called to another and said:

"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory."

4 And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. 5 And I said: "Woe<sup>44</sup> is me! For I am lost; for I<sup>45</sup> am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

6 Then flew one of the seraphim to me, having in his hand a burning coal which he had taken with tongs from the altar. 7 And he touched my mouth, and said: "Behold, this has touched your lips<sup>46</sup>; your guilt is taken away, and your sin forgiven." 8 And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me." 9 And he said, "Go, and say to this people:

'Hear and hear, but do not understand;
see and see, but do not perceive.'

10 Make the heart of this people fat,
and their ears heavy, and shut their eyes;
lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears,
and understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed."

11 Then I said, "How long, O Lord?" And he said:

"Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without men,
and the land is utterly desolate,

12 and the LORD removes men far away,
and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.

13 And though a tenth remain in it,
it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak,
whose stump remains standing when it is felled."

The holy seed is its stump.

7:1 In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, son of Uzzi'ah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remali'ah the king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to wage war against it, but they could not conquer it. 2 When the house of David was told, "Syria is in league with E'phraim," his heart and the heart of his people shook as the trees of the forest shake before the wind.

3 And the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go forth to meet Ahaz, you and She'ar-jash'ub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool on the highway to the Fuller's Field, 4 and say to him, 'Take heed, be quiet, do not fear, and do not let your heart be faint because of these two smouldering stumps of firebrands, at the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria and the son of Remali'ah. 5 Because Syria, with E'phraim and the son of Remali'ah, has devised evil against you, saying, 6 "Let us go up against Judah and terrify it, and let us conquer it for ourselves, and set up the son of Ta'be-el as king in the midst of it," 7 thus says the Lord GOD:

It shall not stand, and it shall not come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin.

(Within sixty-five years E'phraim will be broken to pieces so that it will no longer be a people.)

9 And the head of E'phraim is Sama'ria, and the head of Sama'ria is the son of Remali'ah.
If you will not believe,
surely you shall not be established."

10 Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, 11 "Ask a sign of the LORD your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven." 12 But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, and I will not put the LORD to the test." <sup>13</sup> And he said, "Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary men, that you weary my God also? <sup>14</sup> Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, a young woman shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Imman'u-el. <sup>15</sup> He shall eat curds and honey when he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good. <sup>16</sup> For before the child knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land before whose two kings you are in dread will be deserted. <sup>17</sup> The LORD will bring upon you and upon your people and upon your father's house such days as have not come since the day that E'phraim departed from Judah-- the king of Assyria."

<sup>18</sup> In that day the LORD will whistle for the fly which is at the sources of the streams of Egypt, and for the bee which is in the land of Assyria. <sup>19</sup> And they will all come and settle in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all the thornbushes, and on all the pastures.

<sup>20</sup> In that day the Lord will shave with a razor which is hired beyond the River-- with the king of Assyria-- the head and the hair of the feet, and it will sweep away the beard also.

<sup>23</sup> In that day every place where there used to be a thousand vines, worth a thousand shekels of silver, will become briars and thorns. <sup>24</sup> With bow and arrows men will come there, for all the land will be briars and thorns; <sup>25</sup> and as for all the hills which used to be hoed with a hoe, you will not come there for fear of briars and thorns; but they will become a place where cattle are let loose and where sheep tread.

8:<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Take a large tablet and write upon it in common characters, 'Belonging to Ma'her-shal'al-hash-baz.'" <sup>2</sup> And I got reliable witnesses, Uri'ah the priest and Zechari'ah the son of Jeberechi'ah, to attest for me. <sup>3</sup> And I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, "Call his name Ma'her-shal'al-hash-baz; <sup>4</sup> for before the child knows how to cry 'My father' or 'My mother,' the wealth of Damascus and the spoil of Sama'ria will be carried away before the king of Assyria."

give ear, all you far countries;
gird yourselves and be dismayed;
gird yourselves and be dismayed.

<sup>10</sup> Take counsel together, but it will come to nought;
speak a word, but it will not stand, for God is with us.

<sup>16</sup> Bind up the testimony, seal the teaching among my disciples. <sup>17</sup> I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding his face from the house of Jacob, and I will hope in him. <sup>18</sup> Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are signs and portents in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion. <sup>19</sup> And when they say to you, "Consult the mediums and the wizards who chirp and mutter," should not a people consult their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? <sup>20</sup> To the teaching and to the testimony! Surely for this word which they speak there is no dawn. <sup>21</sup> They will pass through the land, greatly distressed and hungry; and when they are hungry, they will be enraged and will curse their king and their God, and turn their faces upward; <sup>22</sup> and they will look to the earth, but behold, distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and they will be thrust into thick darkness.

9:<sup>1</sup> But there will be no gloom for her that was in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zeb'ulun and the land of Naph'tali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shined.

<sup>3</sup> Thou hast multiplied the nation, thou hast increased its joy;
they rejoice before thee as with joy at the harvest,
as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

<sup>4</sup> For the yoke of his burden, and the staff for his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, thou hast broken as on the day of Mid'ian.

<sup>5</sup> For every boot of the tramping warrior in battle tumult and every garment rolled in blood will be burned as fuel for the fire.

<sup>6</sup> For to us a child is born, to us a son is given;
and the government will be upon his shoulder,
and his name will be called

"Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."

<sup>7</sup> Of the increase of his government and of peace
there will be no end,

upon the throne of David, and over his kingdom,
to establish it,

and to uphold<sup>48</sup> it with justice and with righteousness
from this time forth and for evermore.

The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

<sup>8</sup> The Lord has sent a word against Jacob,
and it will light upon Israel;

<sup>9</sup> and all the people will know,
E'phraim and the inhabitants of Sama'ria,
who say in pride and in arrogance of heart:

<sup>10</sup> "The bricks have fallen,
but we will build with dressed stones;
the sycamores have been cut down,
but we will put cedars in their place."

<sup>11</sup> So the LORD raises adversaries against them, and stirs up their enemies.

<sup>12</sup> The Syrians on the east and the Philistines on the west devour Israel with open mouth.

For all this his anger is not turned away
and his hand is stretched out still.

<sup>13</sup> The people did not turn to him who smote them, nor seek the LORD of hosts.

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed in one day--

<sup>15</sup> the elder and honoured man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail;

<sup>16</sup> for those who lead this people lead them astray,
and those who are led by them are swallowed up.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore the Lord does not rejoice over their young men,
and has no compassion on their fatherless and widows;

for every one is godless and an evildoer,
and every mouth speaks folly.

For all this his anger is not turned away
and his hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness burns like a fire,
it consumes briars and thorns;
it kindles the thickets of the forest,
and they roll upward in a column of smoke.
19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts the land is burned, and the people are like fuel for the fire;
no man spares his brother.
20 They snatch on the right, but are still hungry,
and they devour on the left, but are not satisfied;
each devours his neighbour's flesh,
21 Manas'seh E'phraim, and E'phraim Manas'seh, and together they are against Judah.
For all this his anger is not turned away
and his hand is stretched out still.

10:1 Woe to those who decree iniquitous decrees,
and the writers who keep writing oppression,
2 to turn aside the needy from justice and to rob the poor of my people of their right,
that widows may be their spoil,
and that they may make the fatherless their prey!
3 What will you do on the day of punishment,
in the storm which will come from afar?
To whom will you flee for help,
and where will you leave your wealth?
4 Nothing remains but to crouch among the prisoners or fall among the slain.
For all this his anger is not turned away
and his hand is stretched out still.
5 Ah, Assyria, the rod of my anger, the staff of my fury!
6 Against a godless nation I send him,
and against the people of my wrath I command him,
to take spoil and seize plunder,
and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.
7 But he does not so intend, and his mind does not so think;
but it is in his mind to destroy, and to cut off nations not a few;
8 for he says: "Are not my commanders all kings?
9 Is not Calno like Car'chemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad?
Is not Sama'ria like Damascus?"
10 As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols whose graven images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Sama'ria, 11 shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols
as I have done to Sama'ria and her images?"

12 When the Lord has finished all his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem he will punish the arrogant boasting of the king of Assyria and his haughty pride. 13 For he says:
"By the strength of my hand I have done it,
and by my wisdom, for I have understanding;
I have removed the boundaries of peoples,
and have plundered their treasures;
like a bull I have brought down those who sat on thrones.
14 My hand has found like a nest the wealth of the peoples;
and as men gather eggs that have been forsaken
so I have gathered all the earth;
and there was none that moved a wing,
or opened the mouth, or chirped."

15 Shall the axe vaunt itself over him who hews with it,

or the saw magnify itself against him who wields it?
As if a rod<sup>49</sup> should wield him who lifts it, or as if a staff should lift him who is not wood!

<sup>16</sup> Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will send wasting sickness among his stout warriors,
and under his glory a burning will be kindled,
like the burning of fire.

<sup>17</sup> The light of Israel will become a fire,
and his Holy One a flame;
and it will burn and devour his thorns and briars in one day.

<sup>18</sup> The glory of his forest and of his fruitful land
the LORD will destroy, both soul and body,
and it will be as when a sick man wastes away.

<sup>19</sup> The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so few that a child can write them down.

<sup>20</sup> In that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no more lean upon him that smote them, but will lean upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. <sup>21</sup> A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. <sup>22</sup> For though your people Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction is decreed, overflowing with righteousness. <sup>23</sup> For the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will make a full end, as decreed, in the midst of all the earth.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord, the LORD of hosts: "O my people, who dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrians when they smite with the rod and lift up their staff against you as the Egyptians did. <sup>25</sup> For in a very little while my indignation will come to an end, and my anger will be directed to their destruction. <sup>26</sup> And the LORD of hosts will wield against them a scourge, as when he smote Mid'ian at the rock of Oreb; and his rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it as he did in Egypt. <sup>27</sup> And in that day his burden will depart from your shoulder, and his yoke will be destroyed from your neck."

He has gone up from Rimmon,

<sup>28</sup> he has come to Ai'ath;
he has passed through Migron,
at Michmash he stores his baggage;

<sup>29</sup> they have crossed over the pass,
at Geba they lodge for the night;
Ramah trembles, Gib'e-ah of Saul has fled.

<sup>30</sup> Cry aloud, O daughter of Gallim!
Hearken, O La'ishah! Answer her, O An'athoth!

<sup>31</sup> Madme'nah is in flight,
the inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety.

<sup>32</sup> This very day he will halt at Nob, he will shake his fist at the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup> Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts will lop the boughs with terrifying power;
the great in height will be hewn down,
and the lofty will be brought low.

<sup>34</sup> He will cut down the thickets of the forest with an axe, and Lebanon with its majestic trees will fall.

11:<sub>1</sub> There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse<sup>50</sup>, and a branch shall grow out of his roots.

<sub>2</sub> And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him,
the spirit of wisdom and understanding,
the spirit of counsel and might,
the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

3 And his delight shall be in the fear of the LORD.

He shall not judge by what his eyes see,
or decide by what his ears hear;
4 but with righteousness he shall judge the poor<sup>51</sup>,
and decide with equity for the meek of the earth;
and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth,
and with the breath of his lips he shall slay the wicked.
5 Righteousness shall be the girdle of his waist,
and faithfulness the girdle of his loins.

6 The wolf shall dwell with the lamb,
and the leopard shall lie down with the kid,
and the calf and the lion and the fatling together,
and a little child shall lead them.

7 The cow and the bear shall feed;
their young shall lie down together;
and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 The sucking child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den.

9 They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain;
for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD
as the waters cover the sea.

10 In that day the root of Jesse shall stand as an ensign to the peoples; him shall the nations seek, and his dwellings shall be glorious.

11 In that day the Lord will extend his hand yet a second time to recover the remnant which is left of his people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Ethiopia, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.

12 He will raise an ensign for the nations,
and will assemble the outcasts of Israel,
and gather the dispersed of Judah
from the four corners of the earth.

13 The jealousy of E'phraim shall depart,
and those who harass Judah shall be cut off;
E'phraim shall not be jealous of Judah,
and Judah shall not harass E'phraim.

14 But they shall swoop down upon the shoulder of the Philistines in the west,
and together they shall plunder the people of the east.
They shall put forth their hand against Edom and Moab,
and the Ammonites shall obey them.

15 And the LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the sea of Egypt;
and will wave his hand over the River with his scorching wind,
and smite it into seven channels that men may cross dryshod.

16 And there will be a highway from Assyria for the remnant which is left of his people, as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

12:1 You will say in that day:
"I will give thanks to thee, O LORD,
for though thou wast angry with me,
thy anger turned away,
and thou didst comfort me.

2 "Behold, God is my salvation;
I will trust, and will not be afraid;
for the LORD GOD is my strength and my song,
and he has become my salvation."

<sup>51</sup>Or "give justice" - CHECK

<sup>4</sup> And you will say in that day:

"Give thanks to the LORD, call upon his name;
make known his deeds among the nations,
proclaim that his name is exalted.

<sup>5</sup> "Sing praises to the LORD, for he has done gloriously;
let this be known in all the earth.

for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel."

wave the hand for them to enter the gates of the nobles.

<sup>3</sup> I myself have commanded my consecrated ones, have summoned my mighty men to execute my anger,
my proudly exulting ones.

<sup>4</sup> Hark, a tumult on the mountains as of a great multitude!
Hark, an uproar of kingdoms, of nations gathering together!
The LORD of hosts is mustering a host for battle.

<sup>5</sup> They come from a distant land, from the end of the heavens,
the LORD and the weapons of his indignation,
to destroy the whole earth.

<sup>6</sup> Wail, for the day of the LORD is near;
as destruction from the Almighty it will come!

<sup>7</sup> Therefore all hands will be feeble,
and every man's heart will melt,

<sup>8</sup> and they will be dismayed.

Pangs and agony will seize them;
they will be in anguish like a woman in travail.

They will look aghast at one another;
their faces will be aflame.

<sup>9</sup> Behold, the day of the LORD comes,
cruel, with wrath and fierce anger,
to make the earth a desolation
and to destroy its sinners from it.

<sup>10</sup> For the stars of the heavens and their constellations will not give their light;
the sun will be dark at its rising
and the moon will not shed its light.

<sup>11</sup> I will punish the world for its evil,
and the wicked for their iniquity;

I will put an end to the pride of the arrogant,
and lay low the haughtiness of the ruthless.

<sup>12</sup> I will make men more rare than fine gold,
and mankind than the gold of Ophir.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore I will make the heavens tremble,
and the earth will be shaken out of its place,
at the wrath of the LORD of hosts in the day of his fierce anger.

<sup>14</sup> And like a hunted gazelle,
or like sheep with none to gather them,
every man will turn to his own people,
and every man will flee to his own land.

<sup>15</sup> Whoever is found will be thrust through,
and whoever is caught will fall by the sword.

<sup>16</sup> Their infants will be dashed in pieces before their eyes;

their houses will be plundered and their wives ravished.

<sup>17</sup> Behold, I am stirring up the Medes against them,
who have no regard for silver and do not delight in gold.
<sup>18</sup> Their bows will slaughter the young men;
they will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb;
their eyes will not pity children.
<sup>19</sup> And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms,
the splendour and pride of the Chalde'ans,
will be like Sodom and Gomor'rah when God overthrew them.
<sup>20</sup> It will never be inhabited or dwelt in for all generations;
no Arab will pitch his tent there,
no shepherds will make their flocks lie down there.
<sup>21</sup> But wild beasts will lie down there,
and its houses will be full of howling creatures;
there ostriches will dwell, and there satyrs will dance.
<sup>22</sup> Hyenas will cry in its towers,
and jackals in the pleasant palaces;
its time is close at hand and its days will not be prolonged.

14: <sup>1</sup> The LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will again choose Israel, and will set them in their own land, and aliens will join them and will cleave to the house of Jacob. <sup>2</sup> And the peoples will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them in the LORD's land as male and female slaves; they will take captive those who were their captors, and rule over those who oppressed them.

<sup>3</sup> When the LORD has given you rest from your pain and turmoil and the hard service with which you were made to serve, <sup>4</sup> you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon:

"How the oppressor has ceased, the insolent fury ceased!
<sup>5</sup> The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked,
the sceptre of rulers, <sup>6</sup> that smote the peoples in wrath with unceasing blows,
that ruled the nations in anger with unrelenting persecution.
<sup>7</sup> The whole earth is at rest and quiet;
they break forth into singing.
<sup>8</sup> The cypresses rejoice at you, the cedars of Lebanon, saying,
'Since you were laid low, no hewer comes up against us.'
<sup>9</sup> Sheol beneath is stirred up to meet you when you come,
it rouses the shades to greet you,
all who were leaders of the earth;
it raises from their thrones all who were kings of the nations.
<sup>10</sup> All of them will speak and say to you:
'You too have become as weak as we! You have become like us!'
<sup>11</sup> Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, the sound of your harps;
maggots are the bed beneath you, and worms are your covering.

<sup>12</sup> "How you are fallen from heaven, O Day Star, son of Dawn!
How you are cut down to the ground,
you who laid the nations low!
<sup>13</sup> You said in your heart<sup>52</sup>, 'I will ascend to heaven<sup>53</sup>;
above the stars of God I will set my throne on high;
I will sit on the mount of assembly in the far north;
<sup>14</sup> I will ascend above the heights of the clouds,
I will make myself like the Most High.'
<sup>15</sup> But you are brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the Pit.
<sup>16</sup> Those who see you will stare at you, and ponder over you:
'Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms, <sup>17</sup> who made the world like a desert and overthrew its cities,

who did not let his prisoners go home?'
18 All the kings of the nations lie in glory,
each in his own tomb;
19 but you are cast out, away from your sepulchre,
like a loathed untimely birth,
clothed with the slain, those pierced by the sword,
who go down to the stones of the Pit,
like a dead body trodden under foot.
20 You will not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land, you have slain your people.
"May the descendants of evildoers nevermore be named!"
21 Prepare slaughter for his sons
because of the guilt of their fathers, lest they rise and possess the earth,
and fill the face of the world with cities."

22 "I will rise up against them," says the LORD of hosts, "and will cut off from Babylon name and remnant, offspring and posterity, says the LORD. 23 And I will make it a possession of the hedgehog, and pools of water, and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction, says the LORD of hosts."

24 The LORD of hosts has sworn:
"As I have planned, so shall it be,
and as I have purposed, so shall it stand, 25 that I will break the Assyrian in my land,
and upon my mountains trample him under foot;
and his yoke shall depart from them,
and his burden from their shoulder."
26 This is the purpose that is purposed concerning the whole earth;
and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.
27 For the LORD of hosts has purposed,
and who will annul it?
His hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back?

28 In the year that King Ahaz died came this oracle:
29 "Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of you,
that the rod which smote you is broken,
for from the serpent's root will come forth an adder,
and its fruit will be a flying serpent.
30 And the first-born of the poor will feed,
and the needy lie down in safety;
but I will kill your root with famine,
and your remnant I will slay.
31 Wail, O gate; cry, O city;
melt in fear, O Philistia, all of you!
For smoke comes out of the north,
and there is no straggler in his ranks."

32 What will one answer the messengers of the nation?
"The LORD has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people find refuge."

15:1 An oracle concerning Moab.

Because Ar is laid waste in a night Moab is undone;
because Kir is laid waste in a night Moab is undone.
2 The daughter of Dibon has gone up to the high places to weep;
over Nebo and over Med'eba Moab wails.
On every head is baldness, every beard is shorn;
3 in the streets they gird on sackcloth;

on the housetops and in the squares
 every one wails and melts in tears.
 4 Heshbon and Ele-a'leh cry out,
 their voice is heard as far as Jahaz;
 therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud;
 his soul trembles.
 5 My heart cries out for Moab;
 his fugitives flee to Zo'ar, to Eg'lath-shelish'iyah.
 For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping;
 on the road to Horona'im they raise a cry of destruction;
 6 the waters of Nimrim are a desolation;
 the grass is withered, the new growth fails,
 the verdure is no more.
 7 Therefore the abundance they have gained and what they have laid up they carry away
 over the Brook of the Willows.
 8 For a cry has gone round the land of Moab;
 the wailing reaches to Eglai'm,
 the wailing reaches to Beer-e'lim.
 9 For the waters of Dibon are full of blood;
 yet I will bring upon Dibon even more,
 a lion for those of Moab who escape, for the remnant of the land.

16:1 They have sent lambs to the ruler of the land,
 from Sela, by way of the desert,
 to the mount of the daughter of Zion.
 2 Like fluttering birds, like scattered nestlings,
 so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.
 3 "Give counsel, grant justice;
 make your shade like night at the height of noon;
 hide the outcasts, betray not the fugitive;
 4 let the outcasts of Moab sojourn among you;
 be a refuge to them from the destroyer.
 When the oppressor is no more, and destruction has ceased,
 and he who tramples under foot has vanished from the land, 5 then a throne will be established in steadfast love and on it will sit in faithfulness in the tent of David<sup>54</sup> one<sup>55</sup> who judges and seeks justice and is swift to do righteousness."

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, how proud he was;
 of his arrogance, his pride, and his insolence--
 his boasts are false.
 7 Therefore let Moab wail, let every one wail for Moab.
 Mourn, utterly stricken, for the raisin-cakes of Kir-har'eseth.

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish,
 and the vine of Sibmah;
 the lords of the nations have struck down its branches,
 which reached to Jazer and strayed to the desert;
 its shoots spread abroad and passed over the sea.
 9 Therefore I weep with the weeping of Jazer
 for the vine of Sibmah;
 I drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Ele-a'leh;
 for upon your fruit and your harvest the battle shout has fallen.
 10 And joy and gladness are taken away from the fruitful field;
 and in the vineyards no songs are sung, no shouts are raised;
 no treader treads out wine in the presses;

the vintage shout is hushed.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore my soul moans like a lyre for Moab, and my heart for Kir-he'res.

<sup>12</sup> And when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself upon the high place, when he comes to his sanctuary to pray, he will not prevail.

the LORD says, "In three years, like the years of a hireling, the glory of Moab will be brought into contempt, in spite of all his great multitude, and those who survive will be very few and feeble."

Behold, Damascus will cease to be a city,
and will become a heap of ruins.

<sup>2</sup> Her cities will be deserted for ever;
they will be for flocks, which will lie down, and none will make them afraid.

<sup>3</sup> The fortress will disappear from E'phraim,
and the kingdom from Damascus;

and the remnant of Syria will be like the glory of the children of Israel, says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>4</sup> And in that day
the glory of Jacob will be brought low,
and the fat of his flesh will grow lean.

<sup>5</sup> And it shall be as when the reaper gathers standing grain and his arm harvests the ears, and as when one gleanes the ears of grain in the Valley of Reph'aim.

<sup>6</sup> Gleanings will be left in it, as when an olive tree is beaten-- two or three berries in the top of the highest bough, four or five on the branches of a fruit tree,
says the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> In that day men will regard their Maker, and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel; <sup>8</sup> they will not have regard for the altars, the work of their hands, and they will not look to what their own fingers have made, either the Ashe'rim or the altars of incense.

<sup>9</sup> In that day their strong cities will be like the deserted places of the Hivites and the Amorites, which they deserted because of the children of Israel, and there will be desolation.

<sup>10</sup> For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the Rock of your refuge;
therefore, though you plant pleasant plants
and set out slips of an alien god,

<sup>11</sup> though you make them grow on the day that you plant them,
and make them blossom in the morning that you sow;
yet the harvest will flee away in a day of grief and incurable pain.

<sup>12</sup> Ah, the thunder of many peoples,
they thunder like the thundering of the sea!
Ah, the roar of nations,
they roar like the roaring of mighty waters!

<sup>13</sup> The nations roar like the roaring of many waters,
but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far away,
chased like chaff on the mountains before the wind and whirling dust before the storm.

<sup>14</sup> At evening time, behold, terror!
Before morning, they are no more!
This is the portion of those who despoil us,
and the lot of those who plunder us.

18:<sup>1</sup> Ah, land of whirring wings
which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia;

<sup>2</sup> which sends ambassadors by the Nile,
in vessels of papyrus upon the waters!
Go, you swift messengers, to a nation, tall and smooth,
to a people feared near and far,
a nation mighty and conquering,
whose land the rivers divide.

<sup>3</sup> All you inhabitants of the world,
you who dwell on the earth,
when a signal is raised on the mountains, look!
When a trumpet is blown, hear!

<sup>4</sup> For thus the LORD said to me:
"I will quietly look from my dwelling like clear heat in sunshine,
like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."

<sup>5</sup> For before the harvest, when the blossom is over,
and the flower becomes a ripening grape,
he will cut off the shoots with pruning hooks,
and the spreading branches he will hew away.

<sup>6</sup> They shall all of them be left to the birds of prey of the mountains and to the beasts of the earth.
And the birds of prey will summer upon them,
and all the beasts of the earth will winter upon them.

<sup>7</sup> At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared near and far,
a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide, to Mount Zion, the place of the name of the LORD of hosts.

19:<sup>1</sup> An oracle concerning Egypt.

Behold, the LORD is riding on a swift cloud and comes to Egypt;
and the idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence,
and the heart of the Egyptians will melt within them.

<sup>2</sup> And I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians, and they will fight, every man against his brother and every man against his neighbour,
city against city, kingdom against kingdom;

<sup>3</sup> and the spirit of the Egyptians within them will be emptied out,
and I will confound their plans;
and they will consult the idols and the sorcerers,
and the mediums and the wizards;

<sup>4</sup> and I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a hard master;
and a fierce king will rule over them,
says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

<sup>5</sup> And the waters of the Nile will be dried up,
and the river will be parched and dry;

<sup>6</sup> and its canals will become foul,
and the branches of Egypt's Nile will diminish and dry up,
reeds and rushes will rot away.

<sup>7</sup> There will be bare places by the Nile,
on the brink of the Nile,
and all that is sown by the Nile will dry up,
be driven away, and be no more.

<sup>8</sup> The fishermen will mourn and lament,
all who cast hook in the Nile;
and they will languish who spread nets upon the water.

<sup>9</sup> The workers in combed flax will be in despair, and the weavers of white cotton.

<sup>10</sup> Those who are the pillars of the land will be crushed, and all who work for hire will be grieved.

the wise counsellors of Pharaoh give stupid counsel.
How can you say to Pharaoh,

"I am a son of the wise, a son of ancient kings"?

<sup>12</sup> Where then are your wise men?

Let them tell you and make known what the LORD of hosts has purposed against Egypt.

<sup>13</sup> The princes of Zo'an have become fools,
and the princes of Memphis are deluded;
those who are the cornerstones of her tribes have led Egypt astray.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD has mingled within her a spirit of confusion;
and they have made Egypt stagger in all her doings
as a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

<sup>15</sup> And there will be nothing for Egypt which head or tail, palm branch or reed, may do.

<sup>16</sup> In that day the Egyptians will be like women, and tremble with fear before the hand which the LORD of hosts shakes over them. <sup>17</sup> And the land of Judah will become a terror to the Egyptians; every one to whom it is mentioned will fear because of the purpose which the LORD of hosts has purposed against them.

<sup>18</sup> In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt which speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of hosts. One of these will be called the City of the Sun.

<sup>19</sup> In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border. <sup>20</sup> It will be a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; when they cry to the LORD because of oppressors he will send them a saviour, and will defend and deliver them. <sup>21</sup> And the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians;
and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day and worship with sacrifice and burnt offering, and they will make vows to the LORD and perform them. <sup>22</sup> And the LORD will smite Egypt, smiting and healing, and they will return to the LORD, and he will heed their supplications and heal them.

<sup>23</sup> In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

<sup>24</sup> In that day Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth, <sup>25</sup> whom the LORD of hosts has blessed, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my heritage."

20: <sup>1</sup> In the year that the commander in chief, who was sent by Sargon the king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and fought against it and took it,-- <sup>2</sup> at that time the LORD had spoken by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loose the sackcloth from your loins and take off your shoes from your feet," and he had done so, walking naked and barefoot-- <sup>3</sup> the LORD said, "As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a portent against Egypt and Ethiopia, <sup>4</sup> so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians captives and the Ethiopians exiles, both the young and the old, naked and barefoot, with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. <sup>5</sup> Then they shall be dismayed and confounded because of Ethiopia their hope and of Egypt their boast. <sup>6</sup> And the inhabitants of this coastland will say in that day, 'Behold, this is what has happened to those in whom we hoped and to whom we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria! And we, how shall we escape?'"

21: <sup>1</sup> The oracle concerning the wilderness of the sea.

As whirlwinds in the Negeb sweep on,
it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.

<sup>2</sup> A stern vision is told to me;
the plunderer plunders, and the destroyer destroys.

Go up, O Elam, lay siege, O Media;
all the sighing she has caused I bring to an end.
<sup>3</sup> Therefore my loins are filled with anguish;
pangs have seized me, like the pangs of a woman in travail;
I am bowed down so that I cannot hear,
I am dismayed so that I cannot see.
<sup>4</sup> My mind reels, horror has appalled me;
the twilight I longed for has been turned for me into trembling.
<sup>5</sup> They prepare the table, they spread the rugs, they eat, they drink<sup>56</sup>.
Arise, O princes, oil the shield!
<sup>6</sup> For thus the Lord said to me:
"Go, set a watchman, let him announce what he sees.
<sup>7</sup> When he sees riders, horsemen in pairs,
riders on asses, riders on camels,
let him listen diligently, very diligently."
<sup>8</sup> Then he who saw cried:
"Upon a watchtower I stand, O Lord, continually by day, and at my post I am stationed whole nights.
<sup>9</sup> And, behold, here come riders, horsemen in pairs!"
And he answered, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon;
and all the images of her gods he has shattered to the ground."
<sup>10</sup> O my threshed and winnowed one,
what I have heard from the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel, I announce to you.

<sup>11</sup> The oracle concerning Dumah.
One is calling to me from Se'ir,
"Watchman, what of the night?
Watchman, what of the night?"
<sup>12</sup> The watchman says: "Morning comes, and also the night.
If you will inquire, inquire; come back again."

In the thickets in Arabia you will lodge, O caravans of De'danites.
<sup>14</sup> To the thirsty bring water, meet the fugitive with bread, O inhabitants of the land of Tema.
<sup>15</sup> For they have fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the press of battle.

<sup>16</sup> For thus the Lord said to me, "Within a year, according to the years of a hireling, all the glory of Kedar will come to an end; <sup>17</sup> and the remainder of the archers of the mighty men of the sons of Kedar will be few; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken."

What do you mean that you have gone up,
all of you, to the housetops, <sup>2</sup> you who are full of shoutings, tumultuous city, exultant town? Your slain are not slain with the sword or dead in battle.
<sup>3</sup> All your rulers have fled together,
without the bow they were captured.
All of you who were found were captured,
though they had fled far away.
<sup>4</sup> Therefore I said:
"Look away from me, let me weep bitter tears;
do not labour to comfort me
for the destruction of the daughter of my people."

<sup>56</sup>These people are unprepared for battle

<sup>5</sup> For the Lord GOD of hosts has a day of tumult and trampling
and confusion in the valley of vision,
a battering down of walls and a shouting to the mountains.
<sup>6</sup> And Elam bore the quiver with chariots and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.
<sup>7</sup> Your choicest valleys were full of chariots,
and the horsemen took their stand at the gates.
<sup>8</sup> He has taken away the covering of Judah.

In that day you looked to the weapons of the House of the Forest, <sup>9</sup> and you saw that the breaches of the city of David were many, and you collected the waters of the lower pool, <sup>10</sup> and you counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. <sup>11</sup> You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you did not look to him who did it, or have regard for him who planned it long ago.

<sup>12</sup> In that day the Lord GOD of hosts called to weeping and mourning,
to baldness and girding with sackcloth;
<sup>13</sup> and behold, joy and gladness,
slaying oxen and killing sheep,
eating flesh and drinking wine.
"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."
<sup>14</sup> The LORD of hosts has revealed himself in my ears:
"Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you till you die,"
says the Lord GOD of hosts.

<sup>15</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts, "Come, go to this steward, to Shebna, who is over the household, and say to him: <sup>16</sup> What have you to do here and whom have you here, that you have hewn here a tomb for yourself, you who hew a tomb on the height, and carve a habitation for yourself in the rock? <sup>17</sup> Behold, the LORD will hurl you away violently, O you strong man. He will seize firm hold on you, <sup>18</sup> and whirl you round and round, and throw you like a ball into a wide land; there you shall die, and there shall be your splendid chariots, you shame of your master's house. <sup>19</sup> I will thrust you from your office, and you will be cast down from your station. <sup>20</sup> In that day I will call my servant Eli'akim the son of Hilki'ah, <sup>21</sup> and I will clothe him with your robe, and will bind your girdle on him, and will commit your authority to his hand; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. <sup>22</sup> And I will place on his shoulder the key of the house of David; he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. <sup>23</sup> And I will fasten him like a peg in a sure place, and he will become a throne of honour to his father's house. <sup>24</sup> And they will hang on him the whole weight of his father's house, the offspring and issue, every small vessel, from the cups to all the flagons. <sup>25</sup> In that day, says the LORD of hosts, the peg that was fastened in a sure place will give way; and it will be cut down and fall, and the burden that was upon it will be cut off, for the LORD has spoken."

23:<sub>1</sub> The oracle concerning Tyre.

Wail, O ships of Tarshish,
for Tyre is laid waste, without house or haven!
From the land of Cyprus it is revealed to them.
<sup>2</sup> Be still, O inhabitants of the coast, O merchants of Sidon;
your messengers passed over the sea <sup>3</sup> and were on many waters;
your revenue was the grain of Shihor,
the harvest of the Nile;
you were the merchant of the nations.
<sup>4</sup> Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea has spoken,
the stronghold of the sea, saying:
"I have neither travailed nor given birth,
I have neither reared young men nor brought up virgins."
<sup>5</sup> When the report comes to Egypt,

they will be in anguish over the report about Tyre.
<sup>7</sup> Is this your exultant city whose origin is from days of old, whose feet carried her to settle afar?
<sup>8</sup> Who has purposed this against Tyre,
 the bestower of crowns,
 whose merchants were princes,
 whose traders were the honoured of the earth?
<sup>9</sup> The LORD of hosts has purposed it,
 to defile the pride of all glory,
 to dishonour all the honoured of the earth.
<sup>10</sup> Overflow your land like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish;
 there is no restraint any more.
<sup>11</sup> He has stretched out his hand over the sea,
 he has shaken the kingdoms;
 the LORD has given command concerning Canaan
 to destroy its strongholds.
<sup>12</sup> And he said:
 "You will no more exult, O oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon;
 arise, pass over to Cyprus, even there you will have no rest."

<sup>13</sup> Behold the land of the Chalde'ans! This is the people; it was not Assyria. They destined Tyre for wild beasts. They erected their siegetowers, they razed her palaces, they made her a ruin.

<sup>14</sup> Wail, O ships of Tarshish,
 for your stronghold is laid waste.

<sup>15</sup> In that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days of one king. At the end of seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot:

 Make sweet melody, sing many songs, that you may be remembered."

<sup>17</sup> At the end of seventy years, the LORD will visit Tyre, and she will return to her hire, and will play the harlot with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. <sup>18</sup> Her merchandise and her hire will be dedicated to the LORD; it will not be stored or hoarded, but her merchandise will supply abundant food and fine clothing for those who dwell before the LORD<sup>57</sup>.

24: Behold, the LORD will lay waste the earth and make it desolate,
 and he will twist its surface and scatter its inhabitants.

<sup>2</sup> And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest;
 as with the slave, so with his master;
 as with the maid, so with her mistress;
 as with the buyer, so with the seller;
 as with the lender, so with the borrower;
 as with the creditor, so with the debtor.

<sup>3</sup> The earth shall be utterly laid waste and utterly despoiled;
 for the LORD has spoken this word.

<sup>4</sup> The earth mourns and withers,
 the world languishes and withers;
 the heavens languish together with the earth.

<sup>5</sup> The earth lies polluted under its inhabitants;
 for they have transgressed the laws,
 violated the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore a curse devours the earth,
 and its inhabitants suffer for their guilt;

---

<sup>57</sup>We are to take no part in the world order, but God uses it to provide our need (Ex 12:36, Is 60:5).
 But we do not therefore support it - we depend on God (Mt 6:33), not on world trade.

therefore the inhabitants of the earth are scorched,
and few men are left.

7 The wine mourns, the vine languishes,
all the merry-hearted sigh.

8 The mirth of the timbrels is stilled,
the noise of the jubilant has ceased,
the mirth of the lyre is stilled.

9 No more do they drink wine with singing;
strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.

10 The city of chaos<sup>58</sup> is broken down,
every house is shut up so that none can enter.

11 There is an outcry in the streets for lack of wine;
all joy has reached its eventide;
the gladness of the earth is banished.

12 Desolation is left in the city,
the gates are battered into ruins.

13 For thus it shall be in the midst of the earth
among the nations,
as when an olive tree is beaten,
as at the gleaning when the vintage is done.

14 They lift up their voices, they sing for joy;
over the majesty of the LORD they shout from the west.

15 Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD;
in the coastlands of the sea, to the name of the LORD,
the God of Israel.

16 From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise,
of glory to the Righteous One.

But I say, "I pine away, I pine away. Woe is me!
For the treacherous deal treacherously,
the treacherous deal very treacherously."

17 Terror, and the pit, and the snare are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth!

18 He who flees at the sound of the terror
shall fall into the pit;

and he who climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the snare.
For the windows of heaven are opened,
and the foundations of the earth tremble.

19 The earth is utterly broken,
the earth is rent asunder,
the earth is violently shaken.

20 The earth staggers like a drunken man,
it sways like a hut;
its transgression lies heavy upon it,
and it falls, and will not rise again.

21 On that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven, in heaven, and the kings of the earth, on the earth.

22 They will be gathered together as prisoners in a pit;
they will be shut up in a prison,
and after many days they will be punished.

23 Then the moon will be confounded, and the sun ashamed;
for the LORD of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem and before his elders he will manifest his glory.

25:1 O LORD, thou art my God;
I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name;

<sup>58</sup>Babel

for thou hast done wonderful things,
plans formed of old, faithful and sure.
2 For thou hast made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the palace of aliens is a city no more, it will never be rebuilt.

3 Therefore strong peoples will glorify thee;
cities of ruthless nations will fear thee.
4 For thou hast been a stronghold to the poor,
a stronghold to the needy in his distress,
a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat;
for the blast of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall,
5 like heat in a dry place.
Thou dost subdue the noise of the aliens;
as heat by the shade of a cloud,
so the song of the ruthless is stilled.

6 On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of wine on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wine on the lees well refined. 7 And he will destroy on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations. 8 He will swallow up death for ever, and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth; for the LORD has spoken.

9 It will be said on that day, "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

10 For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain, and Moab shall be trodden down in his place, as straw is trodden down in a dung-pit. 11 And he will spread out his hands in the midst of it as a swimmer spreads his hands out to swim; but the LORD will lay low his pride together with the skill of his hands. 12 And the high fortifications of his walls he will bring down, lay low, and cast to the ground, even to the dust.

26:1 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

"We have a strong city;
he sets up salvation as walls and bulwarks.
2 Open the gates,
that the righteous nation which keeps faith may enter in.
3 Thou dost keep him in perfect peace,
whose mind is stayed on thee, because he trusts in thee.
4 Trust in the LORD for ever,
for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock.
5 For he has brought low the inhabitants of the height,
the lofty city.

my spirit within me earnestly seeks thee.
For when thy judgements are in the earth<sup>59</sup>,

<sup>59</sup> Contrast effect of delay: Eccles 8:11

11 O LORD, thy hand is lifted up, but they see it not.
Let them see thy zeal for thy people, and be ashamed.
Let the fire for thy adversaries consume them.

12 O LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us,
thou hast wrought for us all our works.

13 O LORD our God,
other lords besides thee have ruled over us,
but thy name alone we acknowledge.

14 They are dead, they will not live;
they are shades, they will not arise;
to that end thou hast visited them with destruction
and wiped out all remembrance of them.

15 But thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation;
thou art glorified;
thou hast enlarged all the borders of the land.

16 O LORD, in distress they sought thee,
they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like a woman with child,
who writhes and cries out in her pangs,
when she is near her time,
so were we because of thee, O LORD;

18 we were with child, we writhed,
we have as it were brought forth wind.
We have wrought no deliverance in the earth,
and the inhabitants of the world have not fallen.

19 Thy dead shall live, their bodies shall rise.
O dwellers in the dust, awake and sing for joy!
For thy dew is a dew of light,
and on the land of the shades thou wilt let it fall.

20 Come, my people, enter your chambers,
and shut your doors behind you;
hide yourselves for a little while until the wrath is past.

21 For behold, the LORD is coming forth out of his place
to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity,
and the earth will disclose the blood shed upon her,
and will no more cover her slain.

27:<sub>1</sub> In that day the LORD with his hard and great and strong sword will punish

Would that I had thorns and briers to battle!

I would set out against them, I would burn them up together.

<sub>5</sub> Or let them lay hold of my protection,

 he removed them with his fierce blast in the day of the east wind.
<sup>9</sup> Therefore by this the guilt of Jacob will be expiated, and this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin:
 when he makes all the stones of the altars and with an alien tongue the LORD will speak to this people, 12 to whom he has said,

"This is rest<sup>63</sup>; give rest to the weary;
and this is repose"; yet they would not hear.
13 Therefore the word of the LORD will be to them precept upon precept, precept upon precept<sup>64</sup>, line upon line, line upon line,
here a little, there a little;
that they may go, and fall backward,
and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD,
you scoffers, who rule this people in Jerusalem!
15 Because you have said,
"We have made a covenant with death,
and with Sheol we have an agreement;
when the overwhelming scourge passes through
it will not come to us;
for we have made lies our refuge,
and in falsehood we have taken shelter";
16 therefore thus says the Lord GOD,
"Behold, I am laying in Zion for a foundation a stone,
a tested stone, a precious cornerstone, of a sure foundation:
'He who believes will not be in haste'<sup>65</sup>."
17 And I will make justice the line, and righteousness the plummet<sup>66</sup>;
and hail will sweep away the refuge of lies<sup>67</sup>,
and waters will overwhelm the shelter."
18 Then your covenant with death will be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand;
when the overwhelming scourge passes through
you will be beaten down by it.
19 As often as it passes through it will take you;
for morning by morning it will pass through,
by day and by night;
and it will be sheer terror to understand the message.
20 For the bed is too short to stretch oneself on it,
and the covering too narrow to wrap oneself in it.
21 For the LORD will rise up as on Mount Pera'zim,
he will be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon;
to do his deed-- strange is his deed!
and to work his work-- alien is his work!
22 Now therefore do not scoff, lest your bonds be made strong;
for I have heard a decree of destruction
from the Lord GOD of hosts upon the whole land.

23 Give ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.
24 Does he who ploughs for sowing plough continually?
does he continually open and harrow his ground?
25 When he has levelled its surface,
does he not scatter dill, sow cummin,
and put in wheat in rows and barley in its proper place,
and spelt as the border?
26 For he is instructed aright; his God teaches him.

"now I will lift myself up; now I will be exalted.
11 You conceive chaff, you bring forth stubble;
your breath is a fire that will consume you.
12 And the peoples will be as if burned to lime,
like thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire."

13 Hear, you who are far off, what I have done;

and you who are near, acknowledge my might.

<sup>14</sup> The sinners in Zion<sup>93</sup> are afraid;
trembling has seized the godless:
"Who among us can dwell with the devouring fire?
Who among us can dwell with everlasting burnings?"

<sup>15</sup> He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly, who despises the gain of oppressions,
who shakes his hands, lest they hold a bribe,
who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed
and shuts his eyes from looking upon evil, <sup>16</sup> he will dwell on the heights;
his place of defence will be the fortresses of rocks;
his bread will be given him, his water will be sure.

<sup>17</sup> Your eyes will see the king in his beauty;
they will behold a land that stretches afar.

<sup>18</sup> Your mind will muse on the terror:
"Where is he who counted, where is he who weighed the tribute?
Where is he who counted the towers?"

<sup>19</sup> You will see no more the insolent people,
the people of an obscure speech which you cannot comprehend, stammering in a tongue which you cannot understand.

Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, an immovable tent,
whose stakes will never be plucked up,
nor will any of its cords be broken.

<sup>21</sup> But there the LORD in majesty will be for us a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley with oars can go, nor stately ship can pass.

<sup>22</sup> For the LORD is our judge,
the LORD is our ruler,
the LORD is our king;
he will save us.

<sup>23</sup> Your tackle hangs loose;
it cannot hold the mast firm in its place,
or keep the sail spread out.

Then prey and spoil in abundance will be divided;
even the lame will take the prey.

<sup>24</sup> And no inhabitant will say, "I am sick";
the people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity.

34:<sup>1</sup> Draw near, O nations, to hear,
and hearken, O peoples!

Let the earth listen, and all that fills it;
the world, and all that comes from it.

<sup>2</sup> For the LORD is enraged against all the nations, and furious against all their host,
he has doomed them, has given them over for slaughter.

<sup>3</sup> Their slain shall be cast out,
and the stench of their corpses shall rise;
the mountains shall flow with their blood.

<sup>4</sup> All the host of heaven shall rot away,
and the skies roll up like a scroll.
All their host shall fall, as leaves fall from the vine,
like leaves falling from the fig tree.

<sup>93</sup>rely on deceptive words: Jer 7:4

<sup>5</sup> For my sword has drunk its fill in the heavens;
behold, it descends for judgement upon Edom,
upon the people I have doomed.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD has a sword;
it is sated with blood, it is gorged with fat,
with the blood of lambs and goats,
with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
<sup>7</sup> Wild oxen shall fall with them,
and young steers with the mighty bulls.
Their land shall be soaked with blood,
and their soil made rich with fat.

<sup>8</sup> For the LORD has a day of vengeance,
a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
<sup>9</sup> And the streams of Edom shall be turned into pitch,
and her soil into brimstone;
her land shall become burning pitch.
<sup>10</sup> Night and day it shall not be quenched;
its smoke shall go up for ever.
From generation to generation it shall lie waste;
none shall pass through it for ever and ever.
<sup>11</sup> But the hawk and the porcupine shall possess it,
the owl and the raven shall dwell in it.
He shall stretch the line of confusion over it,
and the plummet of chaos over its nobles.
<sup>12</sup> They shall name it No Kingdom There,
and all its princes shall be nothing.

<sup>13</sup> Thorns shall grow over its strongholds, nettles and thistles in its fortresses.
It shall be the haunt of jackals, an abode for ostriches.

<sup>14</sup> And wild beasts shall meet with hyenas,
the satyr shall cry to his fellow;
yea, there shall the night hag alight,
and find for herself a resting place.

<sup>15</sup> There shall the owl nest and lay and hatch and gather her young in her shadow;
yea, there shall the kites be gathered,
each one with her mate.

<sup>16</sup> Seek and read from the book of the LORD:
Not one of these shall be missing;
none shall be without her mate.
For the mouth of the LORD has commanded,
and his Spirit has gathered them.

<sup>17</sup> He has cast the lot for them,
his hand has portioned it out to them with the line;
they shall possess it for ever,
from generation to generation they shall dwell in it.

35:<sup>1</sup> The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad,
the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus <sup>2</sup> it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it,
the majesty of Carmel and Sharon.
They shall see the glory of the LORD,
the majesty of our God.

<sup>3</sup> Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.

"Be strong, fear not!"

Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God. He will come and save you."

<sup>5</sup> Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped;
<sup>6</sup> then shall the lame man leap like a hart,
and the tongue of the dumb sing for joy.
For waters shall break forth in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;
<sup>7</sup> the burning sand shall become a pool,
and the thirsty ground springs of water;
the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp,
the grass shall become reeds and rushes.

<sup>8</sup> And a highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way<sup>94</sup>;
the unclean shall not pass over it<sup>95</sup>,
and fools shall not err therein<sup>96</sup>.

<sup>9</sup> No lion shall be there,
nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it;
they shall not be found there,
but the redeemed shall walk there.

<sup>10</sup> And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing;
everlasting joy shall be upon their heads;
they shall obtain joy and gladness,
and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

<sup>4</sup> And the Rab'shakeh said to them, "Say to Hezeki'ah, `Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you rest this confidence of yours? <sup>5</sup> Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>6</sup> Behold, you are relying on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of any man who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him. <sup>7</sup> But if you say to me, "We rely on the LORD our God," is it not he whose high places and altars Hezeki'ah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You shall worship before this altar"? <sup>8</sup> Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders upon them. <sup>9</sup> How then can you repulse a single captain among the least of my master's servants, when you rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>10</sup> Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it."

<sup>11</sup> Then Eli'akim, Shebna, and Jo'ah said to the Rab'shakeh, "Pray, speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the language of Judah within the hearing of the people who are on the wall." <sup>12</sup> But the Rab'shakeh said, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"

<sup>13</sup> Then the Rab'sshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah: "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>14</sup> Thus says the king: `Do not let Hezeki'ah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you. <sup>15</sup> Do not let Hezeki'ah make you rely on the LORD by saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." <sup>16</sup> Do not listen to Hezeki'ah; for thus says the king of Assyria: Make your peace with me and come out to me; then every one of you will eat of his own vine, and every one of his own fig tree, and every one of you will drink the water of his own cistern; <sup>17</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. <sup>18</sup> Beware lest Hezeki'ah mislead you by saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharva'im? Have they delivered Sama'ria out of my hand? <sup>20</sup> Who among all the gods of these countries have delivered their countries out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"

<sup>21</sup> But they were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him." <sup>22</sup> Then Eli'akim the son of Hilki'ah, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and Jo'ah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezeki'ah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of the Rab'sshakeh.

<sup>8</sup> The Rab'sshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah; for he had heard that the king had left Lachish. <sup>9</sup> Now the king heard concerning Tirha'kah king of Ethiopia, "He has set out to fight against you." And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezeki'ah, saying, <sup>10</sup> "Thus shall you speak to Hezeki'ah king of Judah: `Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. And shall you be delivered? <sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations which my fathers destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeeph, and the people of Eden who were in Tel-assar? <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharva'im, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?"

<sup>14</sup> Hezeki'ah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezeki'ah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. <sup>15</sup> And Hezeki'ah prayed to the LORD: <sup>16</sup> "O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who art enthroned above the cherubim, thou art the God, thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth. <sup>17</sup> Incline thy ear, O LORD, and hear; open thy eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennach'erib, which he has sent to mock the living God. <sup>18</sup> Of a truth, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands, <sup>19</sup> and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they were destroyed. <sup>20</sup> So now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou alone art the LORD."

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezeki'ah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennach'erib king of Assyria, <sup>22</sup> this is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him:

`She despises you, she scorns you-- the virgin daughter of Zion;
she wags her head behind you-- the daughter of Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup> `Whom have you mocked and reviled?
Against whom have you raised your voice
and haughtily lifted your eyes?

Against the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>24</sup> By your servants you have mocked the Lord, and you have said,
With my many chariots I have gone up the heights of the mountains,
to the far recesses of Lebanon;
I felled its tallest cedars, its choicest cypresses;
I came to its remotest height, its densest forest.

<sup>25</sup> I dug wells and drank waters, and I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt.

<sup>26</sup> `Have you not heard that I determined it long ago?
I planned from days of old what now I bring to pass,
that you should make fortified cities crash into heaps of ruins, <sup>27</sup> while their inhabitants, shorn of strength,
are dismayed and confounded,
and have become like plants of the field and like tender grass,
like grass on the housetops, blighted before it is grown.

<sup>28</sup> `I know your sitting down and your going out and coming in,
and your raging against me.

<sup>29</sup> Because you have raged against me
and your arrogance has come to my ears,
I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will turn you back on the way by which you came.'

<sup>30</sup> "And this shall be the sign for you: this year eat what grows of itself, and in the second year what springs of the same; then in the third year sow and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. <sup>31</sup> And the surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward; <sup>32</sup> for out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.

<sup>36</sup> And the angel of the LORD went forth, and slew a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; and when men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. <sup>37</sup> Then Sennach'erib king of Assyria departed, and went home and dwelt at Nin'veh. <sup>38</sup> And as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adram'melech and Share'zer, his sons, slew him with the sword, and escaped into the land of Ar'arat. And E'sar-had'don his son reigned in his stead.

38:<sup>1</sup> In those days Hezeki'ah became sick and was at the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order; for you shall die, you shall not recover." <sup>2</sup> Then Hezeki'ah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD, <sup>3</sup> and said, "Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in faithfulness and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in thy sight." And Hezeki'ah wept bitterly. <sup>4</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah: <sup>5</sup> "Go and say to Hezeki'ah, Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. <sup>6</sup> I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and defend this city.

<sup>7</sup> "This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he has promised: <sup>8</sup> Behold, I will make the shadow cast by the declining sun on the dial of Ahaz turn back ten steps." So the sun turned back on the dial the ten steps by which it had declined.

<sup>9</sup> A writing of Hezeki'ah king of Judah, after he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

<sup>10</sup> I said, In the noontide of my days I must depart;
I am consigned to the gates of Sheol for the rest of my years.
<sup>11</sup> I said, I shall not see the LORD in the land of the living;

I shall look upon man no more among the inhabitants of the world.
12 My dwelling is plucked up and removed from me
like a shepherd's tent;
like a weaver I have rolled up my life;
he cuts me off from the loom;
from day to night thou dost bring me to an end;
13 I cry for help until morning;
like a lion he breaks all my bones;
from day to night thou dost bring me to an end.

14 Like a swallow or a crane I clamour, I moan like a dove.
My eyes are weary with looking upward.
O Lord, I am oppressed; be thou my security!
15 But what can I say?
For he has spoken to me, and he himself has done it.
All my sleep has fled because of the bitterness of my soul.

16 O Lord, by these things men live,
and in all these is the life of my spirit.
Oh, restore me to health and make me live!
17 Lo, it was for my welfare that I had great bitterness;
but thou hast held back my life from the pit of destruction,
for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.
18 For Sheol cannot thank thee, death cannot praise thee;
those who go down to the pit cannot hope for thy faithfulness.
19 The living, the living, he thanks thee, as I do this day;
the father makes known to the children thy faithfulness.

20 The LORD will save me, and we will sing to stringed instruments all the days of our life,
at the house of the LORD.

21 Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs, and apply it to the boil, that he may recover." 22 Hezeki'ah also had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

39:1 At that time Mer'odach-bal'adan the son of Bal'adan, king of Babylon, sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezeki'ah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered. 2 And Hezeki'ah welcomed them; and he showed them his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his whole armoury, all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezeki'ah did not show them. 3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezeki'ah, and said to him, "What did these men say? And whence did they come to you?" Hezeki'ah said, "They have come to me from a far country, from Babylon." 4 He said, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezeki'ah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them."

5 Then Isaiah said to Hezeki'ah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: 6 Behold, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up till this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, says the LORD. 7 And some of your own sons, who are born to you, shall be taken away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon." 8 Then said Hezeki'ah to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good." For he thought, "There will be peace and security in my days."

40:1 Comfort, comfort my people, says your God.
2 Speak tenderly to Jerusalem,
and cry to her that her warfare is ended,
that her iniquity is pardoned,
that she has received from the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

<sup>3</sup> A voice<sup>97</sup> cries:
"In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert<sup>98</sup> a highway for our God.
<sup>4</sup> Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low<sup>99</sup>;
the uneven ground shall become level,
and the rough places a plain.
<sup>5</sup> And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
and all flesh shall see it together,
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

And I said, "What shall I cry?"
All flesh is grass,
and all its beauty is like the flower of the field.
<sup>7</sup> The grass withers, the flower fades,
when the breath of the LORD blows upon it;
surely the people is grass.
<sup>8</sup> The grass withers, the flower fades;
but the word of our God will stand for ever.

<sup>9</sup> Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion,
herald of good tidings;
lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem,
herald of good tidings,
lift it up, fear not;
say to the cities of Judah, "Behold your God!" <sup>10</sup> Behold, the Lord GOD comes with might,
and his arm rules for him;
behold, his reward is with him,
and his recompense before him.
<sup>11</sup> He will feed his flock like a shepherd,
he will gather the lambs in his arms,
he will carry them in his bosom,
and gently lead those that are with young.

<sup>12</sup> Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?
<sup>13</sup> Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD,
or as his counsellor has instructed him?
<sup>14</sup> Whom did he consult for his enlightenment,
and who taught him the path of justice,
and taught him knowledge,
and showed him the way of understanding?
<sup>15</sup> Behold, the nations are like a drop from a bucket,
and are accounted as the dust on the scales;
behold, he takes up the isles like fine dust.
<sup>16</sup> Lebanon would not suffice for fuel,
nor are its beasts enough for a burnt offering.
<sup>17</sup> All the nations are as nothing before him, they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness.

<sup>18</sup> To whom then will you liken God,
or what likeness compare with him?

Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?
<sup>22</sup> It is he who sits above the circle of the earth,

who stretches out the heavens like a curtain<sup>100</sup>,
and spreads them like a tent to dwell in;
<sup>23</sup> who brings princes to nought,

<sup>28</sup> Have you not known? Have you not heard?
The LORD is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He does not faint or grow weary,
his understanding is unsearchable.
<sup>29</sup> He gives power to the faint,
and to him who has no might he increases strength.
<sup>30</sup> Even youths shall faint and be weary,
and young men shall fall exhausted;
<sup>31</sup> but they who wait<sup>105</sup> for the LORD shall renew<sup>106</sup> their strength<sup>107</sup>,
they shall mount up with wings like eagles,
they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

They have no knowledge who carry about their wooden idols,
and keep on praying to a god that cannot save.

21 Declare and present your case;
let them take counsel together!
Who told this long ago? Who declared it of old?
Was it not I, the LORD?
And there is no other god besides me,
a righteous God and a Saviour;
there is none besides me.

22 "Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth!
For I am God, and there is no other.

23 By myself I have sworn,
from my mouth has gone forth in righteousness a word
that shall not return:
`To me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.'

24 "Only in the LORD, it shall be said of me,

O daughter of the Chalde'ans!
For you shall no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones and grind meal,
put off your veil,
strip off your robe,
uncover your legs, pass through the rivers.

3 Your nakedness shall be uncovered,
and your shame shall be seen.

I will take vengeance, and I will spare no man.

4 Our Redeemer-- the LORD of hosts is his name-- is the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit in silence, and go into darkness,
O daughter of the Chalde'ans;
for you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms.

6 I was angry with my people, I profaned my heritage;
I gave them into your hand, you showed them no mercy;
on the aged you made your yoke exceedingly heavy.

7 You said, "I shall be mistress for ever,"
so that you did not lay these things to heart or remember their end.

<sup>8</sup> Now therefore hear this, you lover of pleasures, who sit securely,
who say in your heart,
"I am, and there is no one besides me;
I shall not sit as a widow
or know the loss of children":
<sup>9</sup> These two things shall come to you in a moment, in one day;
the loss of children and widowhood shall come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries
and the great power of your enchantments.

<sup>10</sup> You felt secure in your wickedness,
you said, "No one sees me";
your wisdom and your knowledge led you astray,
and you said in your heart,
"I am, and there is no one besides me."

<sup>11</sup> But evil shall come upon you,
for which you cannot atone;
disaster shall fall upon you,
which you will not be able to expiate;
and ruin shall come on you suddenly,
of which you know nothing.

<sup>12</sup> Stand fast in your enchantments and your many sorceries, with which you have laboured from your youth;
perhaps you may be able to succeed,
perhaps you may inspire terror.

<sup>13</sup> You are wearied with your many counsels;
let them stand forth and save you,
those who divide the heavens,
who gaze at the stars,
who at the new moons predict what shall befall you.

<sup>14</sup> Behold, they are like stubble, the fire consumes them;
they cannot deliver themselves from the power of the flame.
No coal for warming oneself is this, no fire to sit before!

<sup>15</sup> Such to you are those with whom you have laboured, who have trafficked with you from your youth;
they wander about each in his own direction;
there is no one to save you.

48:<sup>1</sup> Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel,
and who came forth from the loins of Judah;
who swear by the name of the LORD,
and confess the God of Israel,
but not in truth or right.

<sup>2</sup> For they call themselves after the holy city,
and stay themselves on the God of Israel;
the LORD of hosts is his name.

<sup>3</sup> "The former things I declared of old,
they went forth from my mouth and I made them known;
then suddenly I did them and they came to pass.

<sup>4</sup> Because I know that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew and your forehead brass,

<sup>5</sup> I declared them to you from of old,
before they came to pass I announced them to you,

lest you should say,
`My idol did them, my graven image
and my molten image commanded them.'

<sup>6</sup> "You have heard; now see all this;
and will you not declare it?
From this time forth I make you hear new things,
hidden things which you have not known.

<sup>7</sup> They are created now, not long ago;
before today you have never heard of them,
lest you should say, `Behold, I knew them.'

<sup>8</sup> You have never heard, you have never known,
from of old your ear has not been opened.
For I knew that you would deal very treacherously,
and that from birth you were called a rebel.

<sup>9</sup> "For my name's sake I defer my anger, for the sake of my praise I restrain it for you,
that I may not cut you off.

<sup>10</sup> Behold, I have refined you, but not like silver;
I have tried you in the furnace of affliction.

<sup>11</sup> For my own sake, for my own sake, I do it,
for how should my name be profaned?
My glory I will not give to another.

<sup>12</sup> "Hearken to me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I called!
I am He, I am the first, and I am the last.

<sup>13</sup> My hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens;
when I call to them, they stand forth together.

<sup>14</sup> "Assemble, all of you, and hear!
Who among them has declared these things?
The LORD loves him;

he shall perform his purpose on Babylon,
and his arm shall be against the Chalde'ans.

<sup>15</sup> I, even I, have spoken and called him,
I have brought him, and he will prosper in his way.

<sup>16</sup> Draw near to me, hear this:
from the beginning I have not spoken in secret,
from the time it came to be I have been there."
And now the Lord GOD has sent me and his Spirit.

<sup>17</sup> Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
the Holy One of Israel:

"I am the LORD your God,
who teaches you to profit,
who leads you in the way you should go.

<sup>18</sup> O that you had hearkened to my commandments!
Then your peace would have been like a river,
and your righteousness like the waves of the sea;

<sup>19</sup> your offspring would have been like the sand, and your descendants like its grains;
their name would never be cut off or destroyed from before me."

declare this with a shout of joy,
proclaim it, send it forth to the end of the earth; say,
"The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob!"

<sup>21</sup> They thirsted not when he led them through the deserts;

he made water flow for them from the rock;
he cleft the rock and the water gushed out.
22 "There is no peace," says the LORD, "for the wicked."

49:1<sup>153</sup> Listen to me, O coastlands, and hearken, you peoples from afar.
The LORD called me<sup>154</sup> from the womb,
from the body of my mother he named my name<sup>155</sup>.
2 He made my mouth like a sharp sword<sup>156</sup>.
in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
he made me a polished arrow<sup>157</sup>.
in his quiver he hid me away.
3 And he said to me,
"You are my servant, Israel,
in whom I will be glorified."
4 But I said,
"I have laboured in vain<sup>158</sup>.
I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;
yet surely my right is with the LORD,
and my recompense with my God."

5 And now the LORD says, who formed me from the womb to be his servant<sup>159</sup>.
to bring Jacob back to him,
and that Israel might be gathered to him,
for I am honoured in the eyes of the LORD,
and my God has become my strength-- 6 he says<sup>160</sup>:
"It is too light a thing that you should be my servant
to raise up the tribes of Jacob<sup>161</sup>
and to restore the preserved of Israel<sup>162</sup>.
I will give you<sup>163</sup> as a light to the nations<sup>164</sup>.
that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

7 Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One,
to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations,
the servant of rulers<sup>165</sup>:
"Kings shall see and arise;
princes, and they shall prostrate themselves;
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

8 Thus says the LORD:
"In a time of favour I have answered you, in a day of salvation I have helped you<sup>166</sup>."

<sup>265</sup>by all men! as a result of holiness

I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my wrath;
their lifeblood is sprinkled upon my garments,
and I have stained all my raiment.
4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart,
and my year of redemption has come.
5 I looked, but there was no one to help;
I was appalled, but there was no one to uphold;
so my own arm brought me victory, and my wrath upheld me.
6 I trod down the peoples in my anger,
I made them drunk in my wrath,
and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth."

7 I will recount the steadfast love of the LORD,
the praises of the LORD,
according to all that the LORD has granted us,
and the great goodness to the house of Israel
which he has granted them according to his mercy,
according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

8 For he said,
Surely they are my people, sons who will not deal falsely;
and he became their Saviour.
9 In all their affliction he was afflicted,
and the angel of his presence saved them;
in his love and in his pity he redeemed them;
he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled and grieved his holy Spirit;
therefore he turned to be their enemy,
and himself fought against them.
11 Then he remembered the days of old, of Moses his servant.
Where is he who brought up out of the sea the shepherds of his flock?
Where is he who put in the midst of them his holy Spirit, 12 who caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses,
who divided the waters before them
to make for himself an everlasting name, 13 who led them through the depths?
Like a horse in the desert, they did not stumble.
14 Like cattle that go down into the valley,
the Spirit of the LORD gave them rest.
So thou didst lead thy people,
to make for thyself a glorious name.

15 Look down from heaven and see,
from thy holy and glorious habitation.
Where are thy zeal and thy might?
The yearning of thy heart
and thy compassion are withheld from me.

16 For thou art our Father, though Abraham does not know us
and Israel does not acknowledge us;
thou, O LORD, art our Father,
our Redeemer from of old is thy name.

17 O LORD, why dost thou make us err from thy ways and harden our heart, so that we fear thee not<sup>266</sup>?
Return for the sake of thy servants, the tribes of thy heritage.

18 Thy holy people possessed thy sanctuary a little while;
our adversaries have trodden it down.
19 We have become like those over whom thou hast never ruled,

like those who are not called by thy name.

64:<sub>1</sub> O that thou wouldst rend the heavens and come down, that the mountains might quake at thy presence--

<sub>2</sub> as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil-- to make thy name known to thy adversaries,

and that the nations might tremble at thy presence!

<sub>3</sub> When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for,
thou camest down, the mountains quaked at thy presence.

<sub>4</sub> From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides thee,
who works for those who wait for him.

<sub>5</sub> Thou meetest him that joyfully works righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways.

Behold, thou wast angry, and we sinned;
in our sins we have been a long time,
and shall we be saved?

<sub>6</sub> We have all become like one who is unclean<sup>267</sup>,
and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment.
We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities,
like the wind, take us away.

<sub>7</sub> There is no one that calls upon thy name, that bestirs himself to take hold of thee;
for thou hast hid thy face from us,
and hast delivered us into the hand of our iniquities.

<sub>8</sub> Yet, O LORD, thou art our Father;
we are the clay, and thou art our potter;
we are all the work of thy hand.

<sub>9</sub> Be not exceedingly angry, O LORD,
and remember not iniquity for ever.
Behold, consider, we are all thy people.

<sub>10</sub> Thy holy cities have become a wilderness,
Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.

<sub>11</sub> Our holy and beautiful house,
where our fathers praised thee,
has been burned by fire,
and all our pleasant places have become ruins.

<sub>12</sub> Wilt thou restrain thyself at these things, O LORD?
Wilt thou keep silent, and afflict us sorely?

65:<sub>1</sub> I was ready to be sought by those who did not ask for me;
I was ready to be found by those who did not seek me.
I said, "Here am I, here am I,"
to a nation that did not call on my name.

<sub>2</sub> I spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good,
following their own devices;

<sub>3</sub> a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and burning incense upon bricks;

<sub>4</sub> who sit in tombs,
and spend the night in secret places;
who eat swine's flesh,

and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;
<sub>5</sub> who say, "Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am set apart from you."

<sup>267</sup>(through menstruation)

These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all the day.
 6 Behold, it is written before me:
 "I will not keep silent, but I will repay,
 yea, I will repay into their bosom 7 their iniquities and their fathers' iniquities together,
 says the LORD;
 because they burned incense upon the mountains
 and reviled me upon the hills,
 I will measure into their bosom payment for their former doings."
 8 Thus says the LORD:
 "As the wine is found in the cluster, and they say,
 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,'
 so I will do for my servants' sake, and not destroy them all.
 9 I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
 and from Judah inheritors of my mountains;
 my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.
 10 Sharon shall become a pasture for flocks,
 and the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down,
 for my people who have sought me.
 11 But you who forsake the LORD,
 who forget my holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune
 and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny;
 12 I will destine you to the sword,
 and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter;
 because, when I called, you did not answer,
 when I spoke, you did not listen,
 but you did what was evil in my eyes,
 and chose what I did not delight in."

13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:
 "Behold, my servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry;
 behold, my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty;
 behold, my servants shall rejoice<sup>A</sup>,
 but you shall be put to shame<sup>A268</sup>; 14 behold, my servants shall sing for gladness of heart,
 but you shall cry out for pain of heart,
 and shall wail for anguish of spirit.
 15 You shall leave your name to my chosen for a curse,
 and the Lord GOD will slay you;
 but his servants he will call by a different name.
 16 So that he who blesses himself in the land shall bless himself by the God of truth, and he who takes an oath in the land shall swear by the God of truth;
 because the former troubles are forgotten
 and are hid from my eyes.

17 "For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth;
 and the former things shall not be remembered or come into mind.
 18 But be glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create;
 for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing,
 and her people a joy.
 19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and be glad in my people;
 no more shall be heard in it the sound of weeping
 and the cry of distress.

The book of Jeremiah

1:1 The words of Jeremiah, the son of Hilki'ah, of the priests who were in An'athoth in the land of Benjamin, 2 to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josi'ah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. 3 It came also in the days of Jehoi'akim the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah, and until the end of the eleventh year of Zedeki'ah, the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah, until the captivity of Jerusalem in the fifth month.

The call

4 Now the word of the LORD came<sup>1</sup> to me saying,
5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
and before you were born I consecrated you;
I appointed you a prophet<sup>2</sup> to the nations."<sup>3</sup>

Fears

6 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a youth<sup>4</sup>." 7 But the LORD said to me,

Divine sufficiency

"Do not<sup>5</sup> say, 'I am only a youth';
for to all to whom I send<sup>6</sup> you you shall go,
and whatever I command<sup>7</sup> you you shall speak<sup>8</sup>.
8 Be not afraid<sup>9</sup> of them,
for I am with you to deliver you<sup>10</sup>,
says the LORD."

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand and touched my mouth; and the LORD said to me,

Commission of Authority<sup>11</sup>

"Behold, I have put my words in your mouth.
10 See, I have set you<sup>12</sup> this day over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down,
to destroy and to overthrow<sup>13</sup>, to build and to plant<sup>14</sup>."

11 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" And I said, "I see a rod of almond<sup>15</sup>." 12 Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well, for I am watching over my word<sup>16</sup> to perform it."

The essence of Jeremiah's message

13 The word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see a boiling pot, facing away from the north."<sup>17</sup> 14 Then the LORD said to me, "Out of the north evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. 15 For, lo, I am calling<sup>18</sup> all the tribes of the kingdoms of the north, says the LORD; and they shall come and

 Yea<sup>40</sup>, upon every high hill and under every green tree you bow<sup>41</sup> down as a harlot.
 21 Yet I planted you a choice vine, wholly of pure seed.
 How then have you turned degenerate and become a wild vine?
 22 Though you wash yourself with lye and use much soap,
 the stain of your guilt is still before me,
     says the Lord GOD.
 23 How can<sup>42</sup> you say, 'I am not defiled,
 I have not gone after the Ba'als<sup>43</sup>?'

there played the harlot? 7 And I thought, 'After she has done all this she will return to me'; but that faithless one, Israel, I had sent her away with a decree of divorce; yet her false sister Judah did not fear, but she too went and played the harlot. 9 Because harlotry was so light to her, she polluted the land, committing adultery with stone and tree. 10 Yet for all this her false sister Judah did not return to me with her whole heart, but in pretence, says the LORD."

11 And the LORD said to me, "Faithless Israel has shown herself less guilty than for I bring evil from the north, and great destruction.

<sup>11</sup> At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A hot wind from the bare heights in the desert toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow or cleanse, <sup>12</sup> a wind too full for this comes for me. Now it is I who speak in judgement upon them."

the whole land is laid waste.
Suddenly my tents are destroyed, my curtains in a moment.
<sup>21</sup> How long must I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?
<sup>22</sup> "For my people are foolish, they know me not;
they are stupid children, they have no understanding.
They are skilled in doing evil, but how to do good they know not."

<sup>23</sup> I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void;

and to the heavens, and they had no light.

<sup>24</sup> I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro.

<sup>25</sup> I looked, and lo, there was no man,
and all the birds of the air had fled.

<sup>26</sup> I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the LORD,
before his fierce anger.

<sup>27</sup> For thus says the LORD, "The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end.

<sup>28</sup> For this the earth shall mourn,
and the heavens above be black;
for I have spoken, I have purposed;
I have not relented nor will I turn back."

<sup>29</sup> At the noise of horseman and archer
every city takes to flight;
they enter thickets; they climb among rocks;
all the cities are forsaken, and no man dwells in them.

<sup>30</sup> And you, O desolate one,
what do you mean that you dress in scarlet,
that you deck yourself with ornaments of gold,
that you enlarge your eyes with paint?
In vain you beautify yourself.

Your lovers despise you; they seek your life.

<sup>31</sup> For I heard a cry as of a woman in travail, anguish as of one bringing forth her first child,
the cry of the daughter of Zion gasping for breath,
stretching out her hands,
"Woe is me! I am fainting before murderers."

5:1 Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, look and take note!

Search her squares to see if you can find a man,
one who does justice and seeks truth; that I may pardon her.

<sup>2</sup> Though they say, "As the LORD lives," yet they swear falsely.

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, do not thy eyes look for truth?
Thou hast smitten them, but they felt no anguish;
thou hast consumed them, but they refused to take correction.
They have made their faces harder than rock;
they have refused to repent.

<sup>4</sup> Then I said, "These are only the poor, they have no sense;
for they do not know the way of the LORD, the law of their God.

<sup>5</sup> I will go to the great, and will speak to them;
for they know the way of the LORD, the law of their God."
But they all alike had broken the yoke, they had burst the bonds.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore a lion from the forest shall slay them,
a wolf from the desert shall destroy them.
A leopard is watching against their cities,
every one who goes out of them shall be torn in pieces;
because their transgressions are many,
their apostasies are great.

<sup>7</sup> "How can I pardon you?
Your children have forsaken me,
and have sworn by those who are no gods.
When I fed them to the full,
they committed adultery and trooped to the houses of harlots.

8 They were well-fed lusty stallions, each neighing for his neighbour's wife.

9 Shall I not punish them for these things?
says the LORD;
and shall I not avenge myself on a nation such as this?

10 "Go up through her vine-rows and destroy,
but make not a full end;
strip away her branches, for they are not the LORD's.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly faithless to me,
says the LORD.

12 They have spoken falsely of the LORD,
and have said, 'He will do nothing;
no evil will come upon us, nor shall we see sword or famine.

13 The prophets will become wind;
the word is not in them.
Thus shall it be done to them!"

14 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts:
"Because they have spoken this word,
behold, I am making my words in your mouth a fire,
and this people wood, and the fire shall devour them.

15 Behold, I am bringing upon you a nation from afar,
O house of Israel, says the LORD.

It is an enduring nation, it is an ancient nation,
a nation whose language you do not know,
nor can you understand what they say.

16 Their quiver is like an open tomb,
they are all mighty men.

17 They shall eat up your harvest and your food;
they shall eat up your sons and your daughters;
they shall eat up your flocks and your herds;
they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees;
your fortified cities in which you trust
they shall destroy with the sword."

18 "But even in those days, says the LORD, I will not make a full end of you. 19 And when your people say, 'Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?' you shall say to them, 'As you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'"

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, proclaim it in Judah:

21 "Hear this, O foolish and senseless people, who have eyes, but see not, who have ears, but hear not.

22 Do you not fear me? says the LORD;
Do you not tremble before me?

I placed the sand as the bound for the sea,
a perpetual barrier which it cannot pass;
though the waves toss, they cannot prevail,
though they roar, they cannot pass over it.

23 But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart;
they have turned aside and gone away.

24 They do not say in their hearts,
'Let us fear the LORD our God,
who gives the rain in its season,
the autumn rain and the spring rain,
and keeps for us the weeks appointed for the harvest.'

25 Your iniquities have turned these away,

and your sins have kept good from you.
26 For wicked men are found among my people;
they lurk like fowlers lying in wait.
They set a trap; they catch men.
27 Like a basket full of birds,
their houses are full of treachery;
therefore they have become great and rich, 28 they have grown fat and sleek.
They know no bounds in deeds of wickedness;
they judge not with justice the cause of the fatherless,
to make it prosper,
and they do not defend the rights of the needy.
29 Shall I not punish them for these things?
says the LORD,
and shall I not avenge myself on a nation such as this?"

30 An appalling and horrible thing has happened in the land:
31 the prophets prophesy falsely,
and the priests rule at their direction;
my people love to have it so,
but what will you do when the end comes?

6:1 Flee for safety, O people of Benjamin,
from the midst of Jerusalem!
Blow the trumpet in Teko'a,
and raise a signal on Beth-hacche'rem;
for evil looms out of the north,
and great destruction.
2 The comely and delicately bred I will destroy,
the daughter of Zion.
3 Shepherds with their flocks shall come against her;
they shall pitch their tents around her,
they shall pasture, each in his place.
4 "Prepare war against her;
up, and let us attack at noon!"
"Woe to us, for the day declines,
for the shadows of evening lengthen!"
5 "Up, and let us attack by night, and destroy her palaces!"

6 For thus says the LORD of hosts:
"Hew down her trees; cast up a siege mound against Jerusalem.
This is the city which must be punished;
there is nothing but oppression within her.

7 As a well keeps its water fresh,
so she keeps fresh her wickedness;
violence and destruction are heard within her;
sickness and wounds are ever before me.

8 Be warned, O Jerusalem, lest I be alienated from you;
lest I make you a desolation, an uninhabited land."

9 Thus says the LORD of hosts:
"Glean thoroughly as a vine the remnant of Israel;
like a grape-gatherer pass your hand again over its branches."
10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear?
Behold, their ears are closed, they cannot listen;
behold, the word of the LORD is to them an object of scorn,
they take no pleasure in it.
11 Therefore I am full of the wrath of the LORD;
I am weary of holding it in.
"Pour it out upon the children in the street,

and upon the gatherings of young men,
also; both husband and wife shall be taken,
the old folk and the very aged.
12 Their houses shall be turned over to others,
their fields and wives together;
for I will stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land,"
says the LORD.

13 "For from the least to the greatest of them,
every one is greedy for unjust gain;
and from prophet to priest, every one deals falsely.
14 They have healed the wound of my people lightly, saying, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.
15 Were they ashamed when they committed abomination?
No, they were not at all ashamed;
they did not know how to blush.
Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
at the time that I punish them, they shall be overthrown,"
says the LORD.

16 Thus says the LORD:
"Stand by the roads, and look, and ask for the ancient paths,
where the good way is; and walk in it,
and find rest for your souls.
But they said, 'We will not walk in it.'
17 I set watchmen over you, saying,
'Give heed to the sound of the trumpet!'
But they said, 'We will not give heed.'
18 Therefore hear, O nations, and know, O congregation,
what will happen to them.
19 Hear, O earth;
behold, I am bringing evil upon this people,
the fruit of their devices,
because they have not given heed to my words;
and as for my law, they have rejected it.
20 To what purpose does frankincense come to me from Sheba,
or sweet cane from a distant land?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable,
nor your sacrifices pleasing to me.
21 Therefore thus says the LORD:
'Behold, I will lay before this people stumbling blocks<sup>75</sup> against which they shall stumble;
fathers and sons together, neighbour and friend shall perish.'"

22 Thus says the LORD:
"Behold, a people is coming from the north country,
a great nation is stirring from the farthest parts of the earth.
23 They lay hold on bow and spear,
they are cruel and have no mercy,
the sound of them is like the roaring sea;
they ride upon horses,
set in array as a man for battle,
against you, O daughter of Zion!" 24 We have heard the report of it,
our hands fall helpless;
anguish has taken hold of us,
pain as of a woman in travail.
25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk on the road;

they are bronze and iron, all of them act corruptly.

29 The bellows blow fiercely,

7:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 2 "Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all you men of Judah who enter these gates to worship the LORD. 3 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will let you dwell in this place. 4 Do not trust in these deceptive words<sup>76</sup>: 'This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD.'

5 "For if you truly amend your ways and your doings, if you truly execute justice one with another, 6 if you do not oppress the alien, the fatherless or the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not go after other gods to your own hurt, 7 then I will let you dwell in this place, in the land that I gave of old to your fathers for ever.

8 "Behold, you trust in deceptive words to no avail. 9 Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Ba'al, and go after other gods that you have not known, 10 and then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, 'We are delivered!-- only to go on doing all these abominations? 11 Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I myself have seen it, says the LORD. 12 Go now to my place that was in Shiloh, where I made my name dwell at first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. 13 And now, because you have done all these things, says the LORD, and when I spoke to you persistently you did not listen, and when I called you, you did not answer, 14 therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, and in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. 15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I cast out all your kinsmen, all the offspring of E'phraim.

16 "As for you, do not pray for this people, or lift up cry or prayer for them, and do not intercede with me, for I do not hear you. 17 Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18 The children gather wood, the fathers kindle fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they pour out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger. 19 Is it I whom they provoke? says the LORD. Is it not themselves, to their own confusion? 20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, my anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, upon man and beast, upon the trees of the field and the fruit of the ground; it will burn and not be quenched."

21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat the flesh. 22 For in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak to your fathers or command them concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices. 23 But this command I gave them, 'Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.' 24 But they did not obey or incline their ear, but walked in their own counsels and the stubbornness of their evil hearts, and went backward and not forward. 25 From the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have persistently sent all my servants the prophets to them, day after day; 26 yet they did not listen to me, or incline their ear, but stiffened their neck. They did worse than their fathers.

<sup>27</sup> "So you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. You shall call to them, but they will not answer you. <sup>28</sup> And you shall say to them, 'This is the nation that did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, and did not accept discipline; truth has perished; it is cut off from their lips.

<sup>29</sup> Cut off your hair and cast it away;
raise a lamentation on the bare heights,
for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.'

<sup>30</sup> "For the sons of Judah have done evil in my sight, says the LORD; they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. <sup>31</sup> And they have built the high place of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I did not command, nor did it come into my mind. <sup>32</sup> Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when it will no more be called Topheth, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of Slaughter: for they will bury in Topheth, because there is no room elsewhere. <sup>33</sup> And the dead bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the air, and for the beasts of the earth; and none will frighten them away. <sup>34</sup> And I will make to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste.

8:<sup>1</sup> "At that time, says the LORD, the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of its princes, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be brought out of their tombs; <sup>2</sup> and they shall be spread before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and served, which they have gone after, and which they have sought and worshipped; and they shall not be gathered or buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground. <sup>3</sup> Death shall be preferred to life by all the remnant that remains of this evil family in all the places where I have driven them, says the LORD of hosts.

When men fall, do they not rise again?
If one turns away, does he not return?
<sup>5</sup> Why then has this people turned away in perpetual backsliding?
They hold fast to deceit, they refuse to return.
<sup>6</sup> I have given heed and listened,
but they have not spoken aright;
no man repents of his wickedness, saying,
'What have I done?'
Every one turns to his own course,
like a horse plunging headlong into battle.
<sup>7</sup> Even the stork in the heavens knows her times;
and the turtledove, swallow, and crane
keep the time of their coming;
but my people know not the ordinance of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> "How can you say,
'We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us?'
But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has made it into a lie<sup>77</sup>.
<sup>9</sup> The wise men shall be put to shame,
they shall be dismayed and taken;
lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD,
and what wisdom is in them?
<sup>10</sup> Therefore I will give their wives to others and their fields to conquerors, because from the least to the greatest
every one is greedy for unjust gain;
from prophet to priest every one deals falsely.
<sup>11</sup> They have healed the wound of my people lightly, saying,
'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.

<sup>77</sup> Usually with many piled up arguments to try to beat down the truth. Characteristic: many confirming texts! 2Tim 4:3; 1Tim 1:7; 2Pet 3:16

<sup>12</sup> Were they ashamed when they committed abomination?
No, they were not at all ashamed;
they did not know how to blush.
Therefore they shall fall among the fallen;
when I punish them, they shall be overthrown,
says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> When I would gather them, says the LORD,
there are no grapes on the vine,
nor figs on the fig tree;
even the leaves are withered,
and what I gave them has passed away from them."

<sup>14</sup> Why do we sit still?
Gather together, let us go into the fortified cities
and perish there;
for the LORD our God has doomed us to perish,
and has given us poisoned water to drink,
because we have sinned against the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> We looked for peace, but no good came,
for a time of healing, but behold, terror.

<sup>16</sup> "The snorting of their horses is heard from Dan;
at the sound of the neighing of their stallions
the whole land quakes.

They come and devour the land and all that fills it,
the city and those who dwell in it.

<sup>17</sup> For behold, I am sending among you serpents, adders which cannot be charmed,
and they shall bite you,"

says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> My grief is beyond healing,
my heart is sick within me.

<sup>19</sup> Hark, the cry of the daughter of my people from the length and breadth of the land:
"Is the LORD not in Zion? Is her King not in her?"
"Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with their foreign idols?"

and we are not saved."

<sup>21</sup> For the wound of the daughter of my people
is my heart wounded,
I mourn, and dismay has taken hold on me.

<sup>22</sup> Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why then has the health of the daughter of my people not been restored?

9:<sub>1</sub> O that my head were waters,
and my eyes a fountain of tears,
that I might weep day and night
for the slain of the daughter of my people!

<sub>2</sub> O that I had in the desert a wayfarers' lodging place, that I might leave my people and go away from them!
For they are all adulterers, a company of treacherous men.

<sub>3</sub> They bend their tongue like a bow;
falsehood and not truth has grown strong in the land;
for they proceed from evil to evil,
and they do not know me,

says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> Let every one beware of his neighbour,
and put no trust in any brother;
for every brother is a supplanter,
and every neighbour goes about as a slanderer.
<sup>5</sup> Every one deceives his neighbour,
and no one speaks the truth;
they have taught their tongue to speak lies;
they commit iniquity and are too weary to repent.
<sup>6</sup> Heaping oppression upon oppression,
and deceit upon deceit, they refuse to know me,
says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts:
"Behold, I will refine them and test them,
for what else can I do,
because of my people?
<sup>8</sup> Their tongue is a deadly arrow;
it speaks deceitfully;
with his mouth each speaks peaceably to his neighbour,
but in his heart he plans an ambush for him.
<sup>9</sup> Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD;
and shall I not avenge myself on a nation such as this?

<sup>10</sup> "Take up weeping and wailing for the mountains, and a lamentation for the pastures of the wilderness,
because they are laid waste so that no one passes through,
and the lowing of cattle is not heard;
both the birds of the air and the beasts have fled and are gone.
<sup>11</sup> I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a lair of jackals;
and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation,
without inhabitant."

<sup>12</sup> Who is the man so wise that he can understand this? To whom has the mouth of the LORD spoken<sup>78</sup>, that he may declare it? Why is the land ruined and laid waste like a wilderness, so that no one passes through? <sup>13</sup> And the LORD says: "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, or walked in accord with it, <sup>14</sup> but have stubbornly followed their own hearts and have gone after the Ba'als, as their fathers taught them. <sup>15</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will feed this people with wormwood, and give them poisonous water to drink. <sup>16</sup> I will scatter them among the nations whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them."

<sup>17</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts:
"Consider, and call for the mourning women to come;
send for the skilful women to come;
<sup>18</sup> let them make haste and raise a wailing over us,
that our eyes may run down with tears,
and our eyelids gush with water.
<sup>19</sup> For a sound of wailing is heard from Zion:
How we are ruined!
We are utterly shamed, because we have left the land,
because they have cast down our dwellings."

<sup>20</sup> Hear, O women, the word of the LORD, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth;
teach to your daughters a lament,
and each to her neighbour a dirge.

<sup>78</sup> Amos 3:7

<sup>21</sup> For death has come up into our windows,
it has entered our palaces,
cutting off the children from the streets
and the young men from the squares.
<sup>22</sup> Speak, "Thus says the LORD:
"The dead bodies of men shall fall like dung upon the open field,
like sheaves after the reaper,
and none shall gather them."

<sup>25</sup> "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will punish all those who are circumcised but yet uncircumcised-- <sup>26</sup> Egypt, Judah, Edom, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and all who dwell in the desert that cut the corners of their hair; for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart."

10:<sub>1</sub> Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel. <sub>2</sub> Thus says the LORD:

"Learn not the way of the nations,
nor be dismayed at the signs of the heavens
because the nations are dismayed at them, <sub>3</sub> for the customs of the peoples are false.
A tree from the forest is cut down,
and worked with an axe by the hands of a craftsman.
<sub>4</sub> Men deck it with silver and gold;
they fasten it with hammer and nails so that it cannot move.
<sub>5</sub> Their idols are like scarecrows in a cucumber field,
and they cannot speak;
they have to be carried, for they cannot walk.
Be not afraid of them, for they cannot do evil,
neither is it in them to do good."

<sub>6</sub> There is none like thee, O LORD;
thou art great, and thy name is great in might.
<sub>7</sub> Who would not fear thee, O King of the nations?
For this is thy due;
for among all the wise ones of the nations
and in all their kingdoms there is none like thee.
<sub>8</sub> They are both stupid and foolish;
the instruction of idols is but wood!
<sub>9</sub> Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz.
They are the work of the craftsman
and of the hands of the goldsmith;
their clothing is violet and purple;
they are all the work of skilled men.
<sub>10</sub> But the LORD is the true God;
he is the living God and the everlasting King.
At his wrath the earth quakes,
and the nations cannot endure his indignation.

<sup>12</sup> It is he who made the earth by his power,
who established the world by his wisdom,
and by his understanding stretched out the heavens.

<sup>13</sup> When he utters his voice
there is a tumult of waters in the heavens,
and he makes the mist rise from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightnings for the rain,
and he brings forth the wind from his storehouses.

<sup>14</sup> Every man is stupid and without knowledge;
every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols;
for his images are false, and there is no breath in them.

<sup>15</sup> They are worthless, a work of delusion;
at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

<sup>16</sup> Not like these is he who is the portion of Jacob,
for he is the one who formed all things,
and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance;
the LORD of hosts is his name.

<sup>17</sup> Gather up your bundle from the ground,
O you who dwell under siege!

<sup>18</sup> For thus says the LORD:
"Behold, I am slinging out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and I will bring distress on them, that they may feel it."

<sup>19</sup> Woe is me because of my hurt!
My wound is grievous.
But I said, "Truly this is an affliction, and I must bear it."

<sup>20</sup> My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken;
my children have gone from me, and they are not;
there is no one to spread my tent again,
and to set up my curtains.

<sup>21</sup> For the shepherds are stupid,
and do not inquire of the LORD;
therefore they have not prospered,
and all their flock is scattered.

<sup>22</sup> Hark, a rumour! Behold, it comes!-- a great commotion out of the north country to make the cities of Judah a desolation,
a lair of jackals.

<sup>23</sup> I know, O LORD, that the way of man is not in himself, that it is not in man who walks to direct his steps.

<sup>24</sup> Correct me, O LORD, but in just measure;
not in thy anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

<sup>25</sup> Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that know thee not,
and upon the peoples that call not on thy name;
for they have devoured Jacob;
they have devoured him and consumed him,
and have laid waste his habitation.

11:<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> "Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> You shall say to them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Cursed be the man who does not heed the words of this covenant <sup>4</sup> which I commanded your fathers when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Listen to my voice, and do all that I command you. So shall you be my people, and I will be your God, <sup>5</sup> that I may perform the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day." Then I answered, "So be it, LORD."

<sup>6</sup> And the LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: Hear the words of this covenant and do them. <sup>7</sup> For I solemnly warned your fathers when I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, warning them persistently, even to this day, saying, Obey my voice. <sup>8</sup> Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but every one walked in the stubbornness of his evil heart. Therefore I brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did not."

<sup>9</sup> Again the LORD said to me, "There is revolt among the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, thus says the LORD, Behold, I am bringing evil upon them which they cannot escape; though they cry to me, I will not listen to them. <sup>12</sup> Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry to the gods to whom they burn incense, but they cannot save them in the time of their trouble. <sup>13</sup> For your gods have become as many as your cities, O Judah; and as many as the streets of Jerusalem are the altars you have set up to shame, altars to burn incense to Ba'al.

<sup>14</sup> "Therefore do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer on their behalf, for I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their trouble. <sup>15</sup> What right has my beloved in my house, when she has done vile deeds? Can vows and sacrificial flesh avert your doom? Can you then exult? <sup>16</sup> The LORD once called you, 'A green olive tree, fair with goodly fruit'; but with the roar of a great tempest he will set fire to it, and its branches will be consumed. <sup>17</sup> The LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil which the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done, provoking me to anger by burning incense to Ba'al."

then thou didst show me their evil deeds.

<sup>19</sup> But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter.
I did not know it was against me they devised schemes, saying,
"Let us destroy the tree with its fruit,
let us cut him off from the land of the living,
that his name be remembered no more."

<sup>20</sup> But, O LORD of hosts, who judgest righteously, who triest the heart and the mind,
let me see thy vengeance upon them,
for to thee have I committed my cause.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of An'athoth, who seek your life, and say, "Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, or you will die by our hand"-- <sup>22</sup> therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: "Behold, I will punish them; the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; <sup>23</sup> and none of them shall be left. For I will bring evil upon the men of An'athoth, the year of their punishment."

12:<sub>1</sub> Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I complain to thee;
yet I would plead my case before thee.

Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why do all who are treacherous thrive?

<sub>2</sub> Thou plantest them, and they take root;
they grow and bring forth fruit;
thou art near in their mouth and far from their heart.

<sub>3</sub> But thou, O LORD, knowest me;
thou seest me, and triest my mind toward thee.
Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter,
and set them apart for the day of slaughter.

<sub>4</sub> How long will the land mourn,
and the grass of every field wither?
For the wickedness of those who dwell in it the beasts and the birds are swept away,

because men said, "He will not see our latter end."

<sup>5</sup> "If you have raced with men on foot,
and they have wearied you,
how will you compete with horses?
And if in a safe land you fall down,
how will you do in the jungle of the Jordan?
<sup>6</sup> For even your brothers and the house of your father,
even they have dealt treacherously with you;
they are in full cry after you;
believe them not, though they speak fair words to you."

<sup>7</sup> "I have forsaken my house, I have abandoned my heritage;
I have given the beloved of my soul
into the hands of her enemies.

<sup>8</sup> My heritage has become to me like a lion in the forest,
she has lifted up her voice against me;
therefore I hate her.

<sup>9</sup> Is my heritage to me like a speckled bird of prey?
Are the birds of prey against her round about?
Go, assemble all the wild beasts; bring them to devour.

<sup>10</sup> Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trampled down my portion,
they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

<sup>11</sup> They have made it a desolation;
desolate, it mourns to me.

The whole land is made desolate,
but no man lays it to heart.

<sup>12</sup> Upon all the bare heights in the desert destroyers have come;
for the sword of the LORD devours from one end of the land to the other;
no flesh has peace.

<sup>13</sup> They have sown wheat and have reaped thorns<sup>84</sup>,
they have tired themselves out but profit nothing.
They shall be ashamed of their harvests
because of the fierce anger of the LORD."

<sup>14</sup> Thus says the LORD concerning all my evil neighbours who touch the heritage which I have given my people Israel to inherit: "Behold, I will pluck them up from their land, and I will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. <sup>15</sup> And after I have plucked them up, I will again have compassion on them, and I will bring them again each to his heritage and each to his land. <sup>16</sup> And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, 'As the LORD lives,' even as they taught my people to swear by Ba'al, then they shall be built up in the midst of my people. <sup>17</sup> But if any nation will not listen, then I will utterly pluck it up and destroy it, says the LORD."

13:<sup>1</sup> Thus said the LORD to me, "Go and buy a linen waistcloth, and put it on your loins, and do not dip it in water." <sup>2</sup> So I bought a waistcloth according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins. <sup>3</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me a second time, <sup>4</sup> "Take the waistcloth which you have bought, which is upon your loins, and arise, go to the Euphra'tes, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock." <sup>5</sup> So I went, and hid it by the Euphra'tes, as the LORD commanded me. <sup>6</sup> And after many days the LORD said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphra'tes, and take from there the waistcloth which I commanded you to hide there." <sup>7</sup> Then I went to the Euphra'tes, and dug, and I took the waistcloth from the place where I had hidden it. And behold, the waistcloth was spoiled; it was good for nothing.

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> "Thus says the LORD: Even so will I spoil the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> This evil people, who refuse to hear

my words, who stubbornly follow their own heart and have gone after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be like this waistcloth, which is good for nothing. <sup>11</sup> For as the waistcloth clings to the loins of a man, so I made the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to me, says the LORD, that they might be for me a people, a name, a praise, and a glory, but they would not listen.

<sup>12</sup> "You shall speak to them this word: `Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "Every jar shall be filled with wine." And they will say to you, `Do we not indeed know that every jar will be filled with wine?' <sup>13</sup> Then you shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD: Behold, I will fill with drunkenness all the inhabitants of this land: the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> And I will dash them one against another, fathers and sons together, says the LORD. I will not pity or spare or have compassion, that I should not destroy them."

<sup>16</sup> Give glory to the LORD your God
before he brings darkness,
before your feet stumble on the twilight mountains,
and while you look for light
he turns it into gloom and makes it deep darkness.

<sup>17</sup> But if you will not listen,
my soul will weep in secret for your pride;
my eyes will weep bitterly and run down with tears,
because the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

<sup>18</sup> Say to the king and the queen mother:
"Take a lowly seat,
for your beautiful crown has come down from your head."

<sup>19</sup> The cities of the Negeb are shut up,
with none to open them;
all Judah is taken into exile, wholly taken into exile.

<sup>20</sup> "Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north.
Where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock?"

<sup>21</sup> What will you say when they set as head over you those whom you yourself have taught to be friends to you?
Will not pangs take hold of you, like those of a woman in travail?

<sup>22</sup> And if you say in your heart,
`Why have these things come upon me?
' it is for the greatness of your iniquity that your skirts are lifted up, and you suffer violence.

<sup>23</sup> Can the Ethiopian change his skin
or the leopard his spots?
Then also you can do good who are accustomed to do evil.

<sup>24</sup> I will scatter you like chaff driven by the wind from the desert.

<sup>25</sup> This is your lot,
the portion I have measured out to you, says the LORD,
because you have forgotten me and trusted in lies.

<sup>26</sup> I myself will lift up your skirts over your face, and your shame will be seen.

<sup>27</sup> I have seen your abominations,
your adulteries and neighings, your lewd harlotries,
on the hills in the field.

Woe to you, O Jerusalem!
How long will it be before you are made clean?"

14:<sub>1</sub> The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

<sub>2</sub> "Judah mourns and her gates languish;
her people lament on the ground,

and the cry of Jerusalem goes up.
3 Her nobles send their servants for water;
they come to the cisterns, they find no water,
they return with their vessels empty;
they are ashamed and confounded and cover their heads.

4 Because of the ground which is dismayed,
since there is no rain on the land,
the farmers are ashamed,
they cover their heads.

5 Even the hind in the field forsakes her newborn calf because there is no grass.

6 The wild asses stand on the bare heights,
they pant for air like jackals;
their eyes fail because there is no herbage.

7 "Though our iniquities testify against us, act, O LORD, for thy name's sake;
for our backslidings are many, we have sinned against thee.

8 O thou hope of Israel, its saviour in time of trouble,
why shouldst thou be like a stranger in the land,
like a wayfarer who turns aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldst thou be like a man confused,
like a mighty man who cannot save?
Yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us,
and we are called by thy name; leave us not."

10 Thus says the LORD concerning this people:
"They have loved to wander thus,
they have not restrained their feet;
therefore the LORD does not accept them,
now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins."

11 The LORD said to me: "Do not pray for the welfare of this people. 12 Though they fast, I will not hear their cry, and though they offer burnt offering and cereal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence."

13 Then I said: "Ah, Lord GOD, behold, the prophets say to them, 'You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you assured peace in this place.'" 14 And the LORD said to me: "The prophets are prophesying lies in my name; I did not send them, nor did I command them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a lying vision, worthless divination, and the deceit of their own minds. 15 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name although I did not send them, and who say, 'Sword and famine shall not come on this land': By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed. 16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and sword, with none to bury them-- them, their wives, their sons, and their daughters. For I will pour out their wickedness upon them.

17 "You shall say to them this word:
'Let my eyes run down with tears night and day,
and let them not cease,
for the virgin daughter of my people is smitten with a great wound,
with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go out into the field, behold, those slain by the sword!
And if I enter the city,
behold, the diseases of famine!
For both prophet and priest ply their trade through the land,
and have no knowledge."

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah?
Does thy soul loathe Zion?

Why hast thou smitten us so that there is no healing for us?
We looked for peace, but no good came;
for a time of healing, but behold, terror.

<sup>20</sup> We acknowledge our wickedness, O LORD,
and the iniquity of our fathers,
for we have sinned against thee.

<sup>21</sup> Do not spurn us, for thy name's sake;
do not dishonour thy glorious throne;
remember and do not break thy covenant with us.

<sup>22</sup> Are there any among the false gods
of the nations that can bring rain?
Or can the heavens give showers?
Art thou not he, O LORD our God?
We set our hope on thee,
for thou doest all these things.

15:<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my heart would not turn toward this people. Send them out of my sight, and let them go! <sup>2</sup> And when they ask you, 'Where shall we go?' you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD:

"Those who are for pestilence, to pestilence,
and those who are for the sword, to the sword;
those who are for famine, to famine,
and those who are for captivity, to captivity."

<sup>3</sup> "I will appoint over them four kinds of destroyers, says the LORD: the sword to slay, the dogs to tear, and the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. <sup>4</sup> And I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manas'seh the son of Hezeki'ah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> "Who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem, or who will bemoan you?
Who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?

<sup>6</sup> You have rejected me, says the LORD,
you keep going backward;
so I have stretched out my hand against you and destroyed you;--
I am weary of relenting.

<sup>7</sup> I have winnowed them with a winnowing fork
in the gates of the land;
I have bereaved them, I have destroyed my people;
they did not turn from their ways.

<sup>8</sup> I have made their widows more in number than the sand of the seas;
I have brought against the mothers of young men
a destroyer at noonday;
I have made anguish and terror fall upon them suddenly.

<sup>9</sup> She who bore seven has languished;
she has swooned away;
her sun went down while it was yet day;
she has been shamed and disgraced.
And the rest of them I will give to the sword before their enemies,
says the LORD."

<sup>10</sup> Woe is me, my mother, that you bore me, a man of strife and contention to the whole land! I have not lent, nor have I borrowed, yet all of them curse me. <sup>11</sup> So let it be, O LORD, if I have not entreated thee for their good, if I have not pleaded with thee on behalf of the enemy in the time of trouble and in the time of distress! <sup>12</sup> Can one break iron, iron from the north, and bronze?

<sup>13</sup> "Your wealth and your treasures I will give as spoil, without price, for all your sins, throughout all your territory. <sup>14</sup> I will make you serve your enemies in a land which you do not know, for in my anger a fire is kindled which shall burn for ever."

Jeremiah's moaning<sup>85</sup>

<sup>15</sup> O LORD, thou knowest; remember me and visit me,
and take vengeance for me on my persecutors.
In thy forbearance take me not away;
know that for thy sake I bear reproach.
<sup>16</sup> Thy words were found, and I ate them,
and thy words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart;
for I am called by thy name, O LORD, God of hosts.
<sup>17</sup> I did not sit in the company of merry-makers, nor did I rejoice;
I sat alone, because thy hand was upon me,
for thou hadst filled me with indignation.
<sup>18</sup> Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed?
Wilt thou be to me like a deceitful brook,
like waters that fail<sup>86</sup>?

<sup>19</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD:
"If you return<sup>87</sup>, I will cause you to return<sup>8889</sup>,
and you shall stand before me.
If you utter what is precious<sup>90</sup>, and not what is worthless, you shall be as my mouth<sup>91</sup>.
They shall turn to you,
but you shall not turn to them<sup>92</sup>.
<sup>20</sup> And I will make you to this people
a fortified wall of bronze;
they will fight against you,
but they shall not prevail over you,
for I am with you to save you and deliver you,
says the LORD.
<sup>21</sup> I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless."

16:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "You shall not take a wife, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place. <sup>3</sup> For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning the mothers who bore them and the fathers who begot them in this land: <sup>4</sup> They shall die of deadly diseases. They shall not be lamented, nor shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground. They shall perish by the sword and by famine, and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the air and for the beasts of the earth.

<sup>5</sup> "For thus says the LORD: Do not enter the house of mourning, or go to lament, or bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says the LORD, my steadfast love and mercy. <sup>6</sup> Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, and no one shall lament for them or cut himself or make himself bald for them. <sup>7</sup> No one shall break bread for the mourner, to comfort him for the dead; nor shall any one give him the cup of consolation to drink for his father or his mother. <sup>8</sup> You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and drink. <sup>9</sup> For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will make to cease from this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

<sup>5</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>6</sup> "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter has done? says the LORD. Behold, like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> If at any time I declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, <sup>8</sup> and if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will repent of the evil that I intended to do to it<sup>106</sup>. <sup>9</sup> And if at any time I declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it, <sup>10</sup> and if it does evil in my sight, not listening<sup>107</sup> to my voice, then I will repent of the good which I had intended to do to it. <sup>11</sup> Now, therefore, say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: `Thus says the LORD, Behold, I am shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. and it shall devour all that is round about her."

22:<sup>1</sup> Thus says the LORD: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, <sup>2</sup> and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O King of Judah, who sit on the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people who enter these gates. <sup>3</sup> Thus says the LORD: Do justice and righteousness, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor him who has been robbed. And do no wrong or violence to the alien, the fatherless, and the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place. <sup>4</sup> For if you will indeed obey this word, then there shall enter the gates of this house kings who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their servants, and their people. <sup>5</sup> But if you will not heed these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation. <sup>6</sup> For thus says the LORD concerning the house of the king of Judah:

"You are as Gilead to me, as the summit of Lebanon, yet surely I will make you a desert, an uninhabited city.

<sup>7</sup> I will prepare destroyers against you, each with his weapons;
and they shall cut down your choicest cedars,
and cast them into the fire.

<sup>8</sup> "And many nations will pass by this city, and every man will say to his neighbour, "Why has the LORD dealt thus with this great city?" <sup>9</sup> And they will answer, "Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods and served them.""

<sup>10</sup> Weep not for him who is dead, nor bemoan him;
but weep bitterly for him who goes away,
for he shall return no more to see his native land.

<sup>11</sup> For thus says the LORD concerning Shallum the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josi'ah his father, and who went away from this place: "He shall return here no more, <sup>12</sup> but in the place where they have carried him captive, there shall he die, and he shall never see this land again."

and his upper rooms by injustice;
who makes his neighbour serve him for nothing,
and does not give him his wages;

<sup>14</sup> who says,
'I will build myself a great house with spacious upper rooms,' and cuts out windows for it, panelling it with cedar,
and painting it with vermilion.

<sup>15</sup> Do you think you are a king because you compete in cedar?
Did not your father eat and drink and do justice and righteousness?
Then it was well with him.

<sup>16</sup> He judged the cause of the poor and needy;

then it was well.

Is not this to know me? says the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> But you have eyes and heart only for your dishonest gain, for shedding innocent blood,
and for practising oppression and violence."

<sup>18</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoi'akim the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah:

"They shall not lament for him, saying,

`Ah my brother!' or `Ah sister!

They shall not lament for him, saying,

`Ah lord!' or `Ah his majesty!

<sup>19</sup> With the burial of an ass he shall be buried, dragged and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem."

and lift up your voice in Bashan;
cry from Ab'arim, for all your lovers are destroyed.

<sup>21</sup> I spoke to you in your prosperity,
but you said, `I will not listen.'

This has been your way from your youth,
that you have not obeyed my voice.

<sup>22</sup> The wind shall shepherd all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity;
then you will be ashamed and confounded because of all your wickedness.

<sup>23</sup> O inhabitant of Lebanon, nested among the cedars, how you will groan when pangs come upon you,
pain as of a woman in travail!"

<sup>24</sup> "As I live, says the LORD, though Coni'ah the son of Jehoi'akim, king of Judah, were the signet ring on my right hand, yet I would tear you off <sup>25</sup> and give you into the hand of those who seek your life, into the hand of those of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon and into the hand of the Chalde'ans. <sup>26</sup> I will hurl you and the mother who bore you into another country, where you were not born, and there you shall die. <sup>27</sup> But to the land to which they will long to return, there they shall not return."

a vessel no one cares for?

Why are he and his children hurled and cast into a land which they do not know?

<sup>29</sup> O land, land, land, hear the word of the LORD!

<sup>30</sup> Thus says the LORD:

"Write this man down as childless,
a man who shall not succeed in his days;
for none of his offspring shall succeed in sitting on the throne of David, and ruling again in Judah."

23:<sup>1</sup> "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!" says the LORD. <sup>2</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who care for my people: "You have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. Behold, I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the LORD. <sup>3</sup>
Then I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. <sup>4</sup> I will set shepherds over them who will care for them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be missing, says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. <sup>6</sup> In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely.
And this is the name by which he will be called: `The LORD is our righteousness.'

<sup>7</sup> "Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when men shall no longer say, 'As the LORD lives who brought up the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt,' <sup>8</sup> but 'As the LORD lives who brought up and led the descendants of the house of Israel out of the north country and out of all the countries where he had driven them.' Then they shall dwell in their own land."

My heart is broken within me, all my bones shake;
I am like a drunken man, like a man overcome by wine,
because of the LORD and because of his holy words.

<sup>10</sup> For the land is full of adulterers;
because of the curse the land mourns,
and the pastures of the wilderness are dried up.
Their course is evil, and their might is not right.

<sup>11</sup> "Both prophet and priest are ungodly;
even in my house I have found their wickedness,
says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore their way shall be to them
like slippery paths in the darkness,
into which they shall be driven and fall;
for I will bring evil upon them in the year of their punishment,
says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> In the prophets of Sama'ria I saw an unsavoury thing:
they prophesied by Ba'al and led my people Israel astray.

<sup>14</sup> But in the prophets of Jerusalem
I have seen a horrible thing:
they commit adultery and walk in lies<sup>110</sup>;
they strengthen the hands of evildoers,
so that no one turns from his wickedness;
all of them have become like Sodom to me,
and its inhabitants like Gomor'rah."

<sup>15</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets:
"Behold, I will feed them with wormwood,
and give them poisoned water to drink;
for from the prophets of Jerusalem
ungodliness has gone forth into all the land."

<sup>16</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you, filling you with vain hopes; they speak visions of their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> They say continually to those who despise the word of the LORD, 'It shall be well with you'; and to every one who stubbornly follows his own heart, they say, 'No evil shall come upon you.'"

<sup>18</sup> For who among them has stood in the council of the LORD to perceive and to hear his word, or who has given heed to his word and listened<sup>111</sup>?

<sup>19</sup> Behold, the storm of the LORD!
Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest;
it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

<sup>20</sup> The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his mind.
In the latter days you will understand it clearly.

<sup>21</sup> "I did not send the prophets, yet they ran;
I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.

<sup>111</sup> Josh 1:8. The word must be understood to be given to us, correctly understood, meditated, and carried out in own life before being given to others, otherwise the word is empty of reality and the Spirit.

<sup>22</sup> But if they had stood in my council<sup>112</sup>,
then they would have proclaimed my words to my people,
and they would have turned them from their evil way,
and from the evil of their doings.

<sup>23</sup> "Am I a God at hand, says the LORD, and not a God afar off? <sup>24</sup> Can a man hide himself in secret places so that I cannot see him? says the LORD. Do I not fill heaven and earth? says the LORD. <sup>25</sup> I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in my name, saying, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed!' <sup>26</sup> How long shall there be lies in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, and who prophesy the deceit of their own heart, <sup>27</sup> who think to make my people forget my name by their dreams which they tell one another, even as their fathers forgot my name for Ba'al? <sup>28</sup> Let the prophet who has a dream tell the dream, but let him who has my word speak my word faithfully. What has straw in common with wheat? says the LORD. <sup>29</sup> Is not my word like fire, says the LORD, and like a hammer which breaks the rock in pieces? <sup>30</sup> Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who steal my words from one another. <sup>31</sup> Behold, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who use their tongues and say, 'Says the LORD.' <sup>32</sup> Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams, says the LORD, and who tell them and lead my people astray by their lies and their recklessness, when I did not send them or charge them; so they do not profit this people at all, says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> "When one of this people, or a prophet, or a priest asks you, 'What is the burden of the LORD?' you shall say to them, 'You are the burden, and I will cast you off, says the LORD.' <sup>34</sup> And as for the prophet, priest, or one of the people who says, 'The burden of the LORD,' I will punish that man and his household. <sup>35</sup> Thus shall you say, every one to his neighbour and every one to his brother, 'What has the LORD answered?' or 'What has the LORD spoken?' <sup>36</sup> But 'the burden of the LORD'<sup>114</sup>, you shall mention no more, for the burden is every man's own word, and you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God. <sup>37</sup> Thus you shall say to the prophet, 'What has the LORD answered you?' or 'What has the LORD spoken?' <sup>38</sup> But if you say, 'The burden of the LORD,' thus says the LORD, 'Because you have said these words, "The burden of the LORD," when I sent to you, saying, "You shall not say, 'The burden of the LORD,'" <sup>39</sup> therefore, behold, I will surely lift you up and cast you away from my presence, you and the city which I gave to you and your fathers. <sup>40</sup> And I will bring upon you everlasting reproach and perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten."

<sup>4</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>5</sup> "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chalde'ans. <sup>6</sup> I will set my eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down; I will plant them, and not uproot them. <sup>7</sup> I will give them a heart to know that I am the LORD; and they shall be my people and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

<sup>8</sup> "But thus says the LORD: Like the bad figs which are so bad they cannot be eaten, so will I treat Zedeki'ah the king of Judah, his princes, the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a reproach, a byword, a taunt, and a curse in all the places where I shall drive them. <sup>10</sup> And I will send sword, famine, and pestilence upon them, until they shall be utterly destroyed from the land which I gave to them and their fathers."

25:<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoi'akim the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah (that was the first year of Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon), <sup>2</sup> which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem: <sup>3</sup> "For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josi'ah the son of Amon, king of Judah, to this day, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken persistently to you, but you have not listened. <sup>4</sup> You have neither listened nor inclined your ears to hear, although the LORD persistently sent to you all his servants the prophets, <sup>5</sup> saying, `Turn now, every one of you, from his evil way and wrong doings, and dwell upon the land which the LORD has given to you and your fathers from of old and for ever; <sup>6</sup> do not go after other gods<sup>115</sup> to serve and worship them, or provoke me to anger with the work of your hands. Then I will do you no harm.' <sup>7</sup> Yet you have not listened to me, says the LORD, that you might provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm.

<sup>8</sup> "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Because you have not obeyed my words, <sup>9</sup> behold, I will send for all the tribes of the north, says the LORD, and for Nebuchadrez'zar the king of Babylon, my servant, and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all these nations round about; I will utterly destroy them, and make them a horror, a hissing, and an everlasting reproach. <sup>10</sup> Moreover, I will banish from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the grinding of the millstones and the light of the lamp. <sup>11</sup> This whole land shall become a ruin and a waste, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. <sup>12</sup> Then after seventy years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chalde'ans, for their iniquity, says the LORD, making the land an everlasting waste. <sup>13</sup> I will bring upon that land all the words which I have uttered against it, everything written in this book, which Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations. <sup>14</sup> For many nations and great kings shall make slaves even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds and the work of their hands."

<sup>15</sup> Thus the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: "Take from my hand this cup of the wine of wrath, and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it. <sup>16</sup> They shall drink and stagger and be crazed because of the sword which I am sending among them."

<sup>17</sup> So I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to whom the Lord sent me drink it: <sup>18</sup> Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, its kings and princes, to make them a desolation and a waste, a hissing and a curse, as at this day; <sup>19</sup> Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his princes, all his people, <sup>20</sup> and all the foreign folk among them; all the kings of the land of Uz and all the kings of the land of the Philistines (Ash'kelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod); <sup>21</sup> Edom, Moab, and the sons of Ammon; <sup>22</sup> all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastland across the sea; <sup>23</sup> Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who cut the corners of their hair; <sup>24</sup> all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the mixed tribes that dwell in the desert; <sup>25</sup> all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media; <sup>26</sup> all the kings of the north, far and near, one after another, and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth. And after them the king of Babylon shall drink.

<sup>27</sup> "Then you shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink, be drunk and vomit, fall and rise no more, because of the sword which I am sending among you.'

<sup>28</sup> "And if they refuse to accept the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD of hosts: You must drink! <sup>29</sup> For behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name, and shall you go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD of hosts.'

`The LORD will roar from on high,
and from his holy habitation utter his voice;
he will roar mightily against his fold,
and shout, like those who tread grapes,
against all the inhabitants of the earth.

<sup>31</sup> The clamour will resound to the ends of the earth,
for the LORD has an indictment against the nations;
he is entering into judgement with all flesh,
and the wicked he will put to the sword,

says the LORD.'

<sup>32</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

Behold, evil is going forth from nation to nation,
and a great tempest is stirring
from the farthest parts of the earth!

<sup>33</sup> "And those slain by the LORD on that day shall extend from one end of the earth to the other. They shall not be lamented, or gathered, or buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground.

<sup>34</sup> "Wail, you shepherds, and cry, and roll in ashes,
you lords of the flock,
for the days of your slaughter and dispersion have come,
and you shall fall like choice rams.

<sup>35</sup> No refuge will remain for the shepherds,
nor escape for the lords of the flock.

<sup>36</sup> Hark, the cry of the shepherds,
and the wail of the lords of the flock!
For the LORD is despoiling their pasture, <sup>37</sup> and the peaceful folds are devastated,
because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

<sup>38</sup> Like a lion he has left his covert,
for their land has become a waste
because of the sword of the oppressor,
and because of his fierce anger."

26:<sup>1</sup> In the beginning of the reign of Jehoi'akim the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, <sup>2</sup> "Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah which come to worship in the house of the LORD all the words that I command you to speak to them; do not hold back a word. <sup>3</sup> It may be they will listen, and every one turn from his evil way, that I may repent of the evil which I intend to do to them because of their evil doings. <sup>4</sup> You shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law which I have set before you, <sup>5</sup> and to heed the words of my servants the prophets whom I send to you urgently, though you have not heeded, <sup>6</sup> then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city a curse for all the nations of the earth.'"

<sup>7</sup> The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. <sup>8</sup> And when Jeremiah had finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying, "You shall die! <sup>9</sup> Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, `This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant'?" And all the people gathered about Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and took their seat in the entry of the New Gate of the house of the LORD. <sup>11</sup> Then the priests and the prophets said to the princes and to all the people, "This man deserves the sentence of death, because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears."

<sup>12</sup> Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and all the people, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words you have heard. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God, and the LORD will repent of the evil which he has pronounced against you. <sup>14</sup> But as for me, behold, I am in your hands. Do with me as seems good and right to you. <sup>15</sup> Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and its inhabitants, for in truth the LORD sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

<sup>16</sup> Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man does not deserve the sentence of death, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God." <sup>17</sup> And certain of the elders of the land arose and spoke to all the assembled people, saying, <sup>18</sup> "Micah of Mo'resheth prophesied in the days of Hezeki'ah king of Judah, and said to all the people of Judah: `Thus says the LORD of hosts,

Zion shall be ploughed as a field;
Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins,

and the mountain of the house a wooded height.'

<sup>19</sup> Did Hezeki'ah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and entreat the favour of the LORD, and did not the LORD repent of the evil which he had pronounced against them? But we are about to bring great evil upon ourselves."

<sup>20</sup> There was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uri'ah the son of Shemai'ah from Kir'iath-je'arim. He prophesied against this city and against this land in words like those of Jeremiah. <sup>21</sup> And when King Jehoi'akim, with all his warriors and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uri'ah heard of it, he was afraid and fled and escaped to Egypt. <sup>22</sup> Then King Jehoi'akim sent to Egypt certain men, Elna'than the son of Achbor and others with him, <sup>23</sup> and they fetched Uri'ah from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoi'akim, who slew him with the sword and cast his dead body into the burial place of the common people.

<sup>24</sup> But the hand of Ahi'kam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah so that he was not given over to the people to be put to death.

27:<sup>1</sup> In the beginning of the reign of Zedeki'ah the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD. <sup>2</sup> Thus the LORD said to me: "Make yourself thongs and yoke-bars, and put them on your neck. <sup>3</sup> Send word to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the sons of Ammon, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon by the hand of the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to Zedeki'ah king of Judah. <sup>4</sup> Give them this charge for their masters: `Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: This is what you shall say to your masters: <sup>5</sup> "It is I who by my great power and my outstretched arm have made the earth, with the men and animals that are on the earth, and I give it to whomever it seems right to me. <sup>6</sup> Now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, my servant, and I have given him also the beasts of the field to serve him. <sup>7</sup> All the nations shall serve him and his son and his grandson, until the time of his own land comes; then many nations and great kings shall make him their slave.

<sup>16</sup> Then I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who are prophesying to you, saying, `Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house will now shortly be brought back from Babylon,' for it is a lie which they are prophesying to you. <sup>17</sup> Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city become a desolation? <sup>18</sup> If they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, then let them intercede with the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem may not go to Babylon. <sup>19</sup> For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, the sea, the stands, and the rest of the vessels which are left in this city, <sup>20</sup> which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take away, when he took into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon Jeconiah the son of Jehoi'akim, king of Judah, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem-- <sup>21</sup> thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem: <sup>22</sup> They shall be carried to Babylon and remain there until the day when I give attention to them, says the LORD. Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place."

<sub>5</sub> Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Hanani'ah the prophet in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD; <sub>6</sub> and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD make the words which you have prophesied come true, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles. <sub>7</sub> Yet hear now this word which I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. <sub>8</sub> The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. <sub>9</sub> As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes to pass, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet."

<sub>10</sub> Then the prophet Hanani'ah took the yoke-bars from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, and broke them. <sub>11</sub> And Hanani'ah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all the nations within two years." But Jeremiah the prophet went his way.

<sub>12</sub> Sometime after the prophet Hanani'ah had broken the yoke-bars from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sub>13</sub> "Go, tell Hanani'ah, 'Thus says the LORD: You have broken wooden bars, but I will make in their place bars of iron. <sub>14</sub> For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put upon the neck of all these nations an iron yoke of servitude to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they shall serve him, for I have given to him even the beasts of the field.'" <sub>15</sub> And Jeremiah the prophet said to the prophet Hanani'ah, "Listen, Hanani'ah, the LORD has not sent you, and you have made this people trust in a lie. <sub>16</sub> Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will remove you from the face of the earth. This very year you shall die, because you have uttered rebellion against the LORD<sup>116</sup>.'" "

29:<sub>1</sub> These are the words of the letter which Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the elders of the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sub>2</sub> This was after King Jeconiah, and the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem. <sub>3</sub> The letter was sent by the hand of Ela'sah the son of Shaphan and Gemari'ah the son of Hilki'ah, whom Zedeki'ah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. It said: <sub>4</sub> "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sub>5</sub> Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat their produce. <sub>6</sub> Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. <sub>7</sub> But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf<sup>117</sup>, for in its welfare you will find your welfare<sup>118</sup>. <sub>8</sub> For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your diviners who are among you deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams which they dream, <sub>9</sub> for it is a lie which they are prophesying to you in my name; I did not send them, says the LORD.

<sub>10</sub> "For thus says the LORD: When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will visit you, and I will fulfil to you my promise and bring you back to this place. <sub>11</sub> For I know the plans I have for you, says the LORD, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. <sub>12</sub> Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you. <sub>13</sub>

<sup>118</sup>Only for a time. Eventually Babylon was destroyed (Rev 18:2; (Eccles 3:1)). God's people had to leave it (Rev 18:4). See also Jer 50:8; Jer 51:6; Jer 30:11. This is how to cope with a judgement that repentance will not relieve. NB it is with a view to OWN welfare. Our situation now is 2Cor 6:17.

You will seek me and find me; when you seek me with all your heart<sup>119</sup>, <sup>14</sup> I will be found by you, says the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.

<sup>15</sup> "Because you have said, 'The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,'-- <sup>16</sup> Thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your kinsmen who did not go out with you into exile: <sup>17</sup> 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, Behold, I am sending on them sword, famine, and pestilence, and I will make them like vile figs which are so bad they cannot be eaten. <sup>18</sup> I will pursue them with sword, famine, and pestilence, and will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, a terror, a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them, <sup>19</sup> because they did not heed my words, says the LORD, which I persistently sent to you by my servants the prophets, but you would not listen, says the LORD.'-- <sup>20</sup> Hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles whom I sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sup>21</sup> 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kola'iah and Zedeki'ah the son of Ma-asei'ah, who are prophesying a lie to you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes. <sup>22</sup> Because of them this curse shall be used by all the exiles from Judah in Babylon: "The LORD make you like Zedeki'ah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire," <sup>23</sup> because they have committed folly in Israel, they have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and they have spoken in my name lying words which I did not command them. I am the one who knows, and I am witness, says the LORD."

<sup>24</sup> To Shemai'ah of Nehel'am you shall say: <sup>25</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You have sent letters in your name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to Zephani'ah the son of Ma-asei'ah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, <sup>26</sup> 'The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoi'ada the priest, to have charge in the house of the LORD over every madman who prophesies, to put him in the stocks and collar. <sup>27</sup> Now why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of An'athoth who is prophesying to you? <sup>28</sup> For he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, "Your exile will be long; build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat their produce.'"

<sup>29</sup> Zephani'ah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>30</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>31</sup> "Send to all the exiles, saying, 'Thus says the LORD concerning Shemai'ah of Nehel'am: Because Shemai'ah has prophesied to you when I did not send him, and has made you trust in a lie, <sup>32</sup> therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, I will punish Shemai'ah of Nehel'am and his descendants; he shall not have any one living among this people to see the good that I will do to my people, says the LORD, for he has talked rebellion against the LORD."

30:<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Write in a book all the words that I have spoken to you. <sup>3</sup> For behold, days are coming, says the LORD, when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah, says the LORD, and I will bring them back to the land which I gave to their fathers, and they shall take possession of it."

<sup>5</sup> "Thus says the LORD:

We have heard a cry of panic, of terror, and no peace.

Why then do I see every man with his hands on his loins like a woman in labour? Why has every face turned pale?

<sup>7</sup> Alas! that day is so great there is none like it;

it is a time of distress for Jacob;

yet he shall be saved out of it.

<sup>8</sup> "And it shall come to pass in that day, says the LORD of hosts, that I will break the yoke from off their neck, and I will burst their bonds, and strangers shall no more make servants of them. <sup>9</sup> But they shall serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

<sup>10</sup> "Then fear not, O Jacob my servant, says the LORD,

<sup>119</sup>This was the reason for the Babylon experience, to bring this about nor be dismayed, O Israel;

for lo, I will save you from afar,
and your offspring from the land of their captivity.
Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease,
and none shall make him afraid.

<sup>11</sup> For I am with you to save you,
says the LORD;
I will make a full end of all the nations<sup>120</sup>
among whom I scattered you,
but of you I will not make a full end.
I will chasten you in just measure,
and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

<sup>12</sup> "For thus says the LORD:

Your hurt is incurable, and your wound is grievous.

<sup>13</sup> There is none to uphold your cause,
no medicine for your wound,
no healing for you.

<sup>14</sup> All your lovers have forgotten you;
they care nothing for you;
for I have dealt you the blow of an enemy,
the punishment of a merciless foe,
because your guilt is great, because your sins are flagrant.

<sup>15</sup> Why do you cry out over your hurt?
Your pain is incurable.

Because your guilt is great,
because your sins are flagrant,
I have done these things to you.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore all who devour you shall be devoured, and all your foes, every one of them, shall go into captivity;
those who despoil you shall become a spoil,
and all who prey on you I will make a prey.

<sup>17</sup> For I will restore health to you,
and your wounds I will heal,

says the LORD,
because they have called you an outcast:
'It is Zion, for whom no one cares!'

<sup>18</sup> "Thus says the LORD:

Behold, I will restore the fortunes of the tents of Jacob,
and have compassion on his dwellings;
the city shall be rebuilt upon its mound,
and the palace shall stand where it used to be.

<sup>19</sup> Out of them shall come songs of thanksgiving,
and the voices of those who make merry.
I will multiply them, and they shall not be few;
I will make them honoured, and they shall not be small.

<sup>20</sup> Their children shall be as they were of old,
and their congregation shall be established before me;
and I will punish all who oppress them.

<sup>21</sup> Their prince shall be one of themselves,
their ruler shall come forth from their midst;
I will make him draw near, and he shall approach me,
for who would dare of himself to approach me?

says the LORD.
<sup>22</sup> And you shall be my people, and I will be your God."

Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest;
it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

<sup>24</sup> The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his mind.
In the latter days you will understand this.

31:<sup>1</sup> "At that time, says the LORD, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people."

"The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness;
when Israel sought for rest,

<sup>3</sup> the LORD appeared to him from afar.
I have loved you with an everlasting love;
therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you.

<sup>4</sup> Again I will build you, and you shall be built,
O virgin Israel!

Again you shall adorn yourself with timbrels,
and shall go forth in the dance of the merrymakers.

<sup>5</sup> Again you shall plant vineyards upon the mountains of Sama'ria;
the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit.

<sup>6</sup> For there shall be a day when watchmen will call in the hill country of E'phraim:

`Arise, and let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God."

<sup>7</sup> For thus says the LORD:

"Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say,
`The LORD has saved his people, the remnant of Israel.'

<sup>8</sup> Behold, I will bring them from the north country,
and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth,
among them the blind and the lame,
the woman with child and her who is in travail, together;
a great company, they shall return here.

<sup>9</sup> With weeping they shall come,
and with consolations I will lead them back,
I will make them walk by brooks of water,
in a straight path in which they shall not stumble;
for I am a father to Israel,
and E'phraim is my first-born.

<sup>10</sup> "Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands afar off;
say, `He who scattered Israel will gather him,
and will keep him as a shepherd keeps his flock.'

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD has ransomed Jacob,
and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

<sup>12</sup> They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion,
and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD,
over the grain, the wine, and the oil,
and over the young of the flock and the herd;
their life shall be like a watered garden,
and they shall languish no more.

<sup>13</sup> Then shall the maidens rejoice in the dance,
and the young men and the old shall be merry.
I will turn their mourning into joy,
I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.

<sup>14</sup> I will feast the soul of the priests with abundance, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness,
says the LORD."

15 Thus says the LORD:

"A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping.
Rachel is weeping for her children;
she refuses to be comforted for her children,
because they are not."

16 Thus says the LORD:

"Keep your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears;
for your work shall be rewarded,

says the LORD,

and they shall come back from the land of the enemy.

17 There is hope for your future,

says the LORD,

and your children shall come back to their own country.

18 I have heard E'phraim bemoaning,

`Thou hast chastened me, and I was chastened,
like an untrained calf;

bring me back that I may be restored,

for thou art the LORD my God.

19 For after I had turned away I repented;

and after I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh;

I was ashamed, and I was confounded,

because I bore the disgrace of my youth.'

20 Is E'phraim my dear son? Is he my darling child?

For as often as I speak against him,

I do remember him still.

Therefore my heart yearns for him;

I will surely have mercy on him,

says the LORD.

21 "Set up waymarks for yourself, make yourself guideposts;
consider well the highway, the road by which you went.

Return, O virgin Israel, return to these your cities.

22 How long will you waver, O faithless daughter?

For the LORD has created a new thing on the earth:

a woman protects a man."

23 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Once more they shall use these words in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I restore their fortunes:

`The LORD bless you, O habitation of righteousness, O holy hill!"

24 And Judah and all its cities shall dwell there together, and the farmers and those who wander with their flocks. 25 For I will satisfy the weary soul, and every languishing soul I will replenish."

26 Thereupon I awoke and looked, and my sleep was pleasant to me.

27 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast. 28 And it shall come to pass that as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the LORD. 29 In those days they shall no longer say:

`The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on edge.'

30 But every one shall die for his own sin; each man who eats sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, 32 not like the covenant which I made with their fathers when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant which they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. 33 But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it upon their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 34 And no longer shall each man teach his neighbour and each his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more."

who gives the sun for light by day
and the fixed order of the moon and the stars for light by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar--
the LORD of hosts is his name:
<sup>36</sup> "If this fixed order departs from before me, says the LORD, then shall the descendants of Israel cease from being a nation before me for ever."

<sup>37</sup> Thus says the LORD:
"If the heavens above can be measured,
and the foundations of the earth below can be explored,
then I will cast off all the descendants of Israel
for all that they have done,
says the LORD."

32:<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedeki'ah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrez'zar. <sup>2</sup> At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard which was in the palace of the king of Judah. <sup>3</sup> For Zedeki'ah king of Judah had imprisoned him, saying, "Why do you prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; <sup>4</sup> Zedeki'ah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chalde'ans, but shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye; <sup>5</sup> and he shall take Zedeki'ah to Babylon, and there he shall remain until I visit him, says the LORD; though you fight against the Chalde'ans, you shall not succeed?'"

<sup>6</sup> Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>7</sup> Behold, Han'amel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you and say, 'Buy my field which is at An'athoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours.' <sup>8</sup> Then Han'amel my cousin came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the LORD, and said to me, 'Buy my field which is at An'athoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> "And I bought the field at An'athoth from Han'amel my cousin, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver. <sup>10</sup> I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales. <sup>11</sup> Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy; <sup>12</sup> and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neri'ah son of Mahsei'ah, in the presence of Han'amel my cousin, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Jews who were sitting in the court of the guard. <sup>13</sup> I charged Baruch in their presence, saying, <sup>14</sup> 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware vessel, that they may last for a long time. <sup>15</sup> For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.'

land of Egypt, and to this day in Israel and among all mankind, and hast made thee a name, as at this day. <sup>21</sup> Thou didst bring thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and outstretched arm, and with great terror; <sup>22</sup> and thou gavest them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; <sup>23</sup> and they entered and took possession of it. But they did not obey thy voice or walk in thy law; they did nothing of all thou didst command them to do. Therefore thou hast made all this evil come upon them. <sup>24</sup> Behold, the siege mounds have come up to the city to take it, and because of sword and famine and pestilence the city is given into the hands of the Chalde'ans who are fighting against it. What thou didst speak has come to pass, and behold, thou seest it. <sup>25</sup> Yet thou, O Lord GOD, hast said to me, "Buy the field for money and get witnesses"-- though the city is given into the hands of the Chalde'ans."

<sup>26</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>27</sup> "Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh; is anything too hard for me? <sup>28</sup> Therefore, thus says the LORD: Behold, I am giving this city into the hands of the Chalde'ans and into the hand of Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon, and he shall take it. <sup>29</sup> The Chalde'ans who are fighting against this city shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses on whose roofs incense has been offered to Ba'al and drink offerings have been poured out to other gods, to provoke me to anger. <sup>30</sup> For the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have done nothing but evil in my sight from their youth; the sons of Israel have done nothing but provoke me to anger by the work of their hands, says the LORD. <sup>31</sup> This city has aroused my anger and wrath, from the day it was built to this day, so that I will remove it from my sight <sup>32</sup> because of all the evil of the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah which they did to provoke me to anger-- their kings and their princes, their priests and their prophets, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup> They have turned to me their back and not their face; and though I have taught them persistently they have not listened to receive instruction. <sup>34</sup> They set up their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. <sup>35</sup> They built the high places of Ba'al in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to offer up their sons and daughters to Molech, though I did not command them, nor did it enter into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

<sup>36</sup> "Now therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, by famine, and by pestilence': <sup>37</sup> Behold, I will gather them from all the countries to which I drove them in my anger and my wrath and in great indignation; I will bring them back to this place, and I will make them dwell in safety. <sup>38</sup> And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>39</sup> I will give them one heart and one way<sup>121</sup>, that they may fear me for ever, for their own good and the good of their children after them. <sup>40</sup> I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them; and I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. <sup>41</sup> I will rejoice in doing them good, and I will plant them in this land in faithfulness, with all my heart and all my soul.

<sup>42</sup> "For thus says the LORD: Just as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good that I promise them. <sup>43</sup> Fields shall be bought in this land of which you are saying, It is a desolation, without man or beast; it is given into the hands of the Chalde'ans. <sup>44</sup> Fields shall be bought for money, and deeds shall be signed and sealed and witnessed, in the land of Benjamin, in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the Shephe'lah, and in the cities of the Negeb; for I will restore their fortunes, says the LORD."

33:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still shut up in the court of the guard: <sup>2</sup> "Thus says the LORD who made the earth, the LORD who formed it to establish it-- the LORD is his name: <sup>3</sup> Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things which you have not known. <sup>4</sup> For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah which were torn down to make a defence against the siege mounds and before the sword: <sup>5</sup> The Chalde'ans are coming in to fight and to fill them with the dead bodies of men whom I shall smite in my anger and my wrath, for I have hidden my face from this city because of all their wickedness. <sup>6</sup> Behold, I will bring to it health and healing, and I will heal them and reveal to them abundance of prosperity and security. <sup>7</sup> I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and rebuild them as they were at first. <sup>8</sup> I will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sin against me, and I will forgive all the guilt of their sin and rebellion against me. <sup>9</sup>

And this city shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them; they shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

<sup>10</sup> "Thus says the LORD: In this place of which you say, 'It is a waste without man or beast,' in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man or inhabitant or beast, there shall be heard again <sup>11</sup> the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD:

'Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good,
for his steadfast love endures for ever!'

For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at first, says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts: In this place which is waste, without man or beast, and in all of its cities, there shall again be habitations of shepherds resting their flocks. <sup>13</sup> In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the Shephe'lah, and in the cities of the Negeb, in the land of Benjamin, the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, flocks shall again pass under the hands of the one who counts them, says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfil the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. <sup>15</sup> In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring forth for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. <sup>16</sup> In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will dwell securely. And this is the name by which it will be called: 'The LORD is our righteousness.'

<sup>19</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>20</sup> "Thus says the LORD: If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night will not come at their appointed time, <sup>21</sup> then also my covenant with David my servant may be broken, so that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne, and my covenant with the Levitical priests my ministers. <sup>22</sup> As the host of heaven cannot be numbered and the sands of the sea cannot be measured, so I will multiply the descendants of David my servant, and the Levitical priests who minister to me."

<sup>23</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>24</sup> "Have you not observed what these people are saying, 'The LORD has rejected the two families which he chose'? Thus they have despised my people so that they are no longer a nation in their sight. <sup>25</sup> Thus says the LORD: If I have not established my covenant with day and night and the ordinances of heaven and earth, <sup>26</sup> then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David my servant and will not choose one of his descendants to rule over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes, and will have mercy upon them."

34: <sup>1</sup> The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion and all the peoples were fighting against Jerusalem and all of its cities: <sup>2</sup> "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Go and speak to Zedeki'ah king of Judah and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. <sup>3</sup> You shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be captured and delivered into his hand; you shall see the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak with him face to face; and you shall go to Babylon.' <sup>4</sup> Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedeki'ah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: 'You shall not die by the sword. <sup>5</sup> You shall die in peace. And as spices were burned for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so men shall burn spices for you and lament for you, saying, "Alas, lord!" For I have spoken the word, says the LORD."

not be enslaved again; they obeyed and set them free. <sup>11</sup> But afterward they turned around and took back the male and female slaves they had set free, and brought them into subjection as slaves. <sup>12</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>13</sup> "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, <sup>14</sup> 'At the end of six years each of you must set free the fellow Hebrew who has been sold to you and has served you six years; you must set him free from your service.' But your fathers did not listen to me or incline their ears to me. <sup>15</sup> You recently repented and did what was right in my eyes by proclaiming liberty, each to his neighbour, and you made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name; <sup>16</sup> but then you turned around and profaned my name when each of you took back his male and female slaves, whom you had set free according to their desire, and you brought them into subjection to be your slaves. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, thus says the LORD: You have not obeyed me by proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother and to his neighbour; behold, I proclaim to you liberty to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine, says the LORD. I will make you a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>18</sup> And the men who transgressed my covenant and did not keep the terms of the covenant which they made before me, I will make like the calf which they cut in two and passed between its parts-- <sup>19</sup> the princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf; <sup>20</sup> and I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their lives. Their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth. <sup>21</sup> And Zedeki'ah king of Judah, and his princes I will give into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their lives, into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon which has withdrawn from you. <sup>22</sup> Behold, I will command, says the LORD, and will bring them back to this city; and they will fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire. I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant."

35: <sup>1</sup> The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoi'akim the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah: <sup>2</sup> "Go to the house of the Re'chabites, and speak with them, and bring them to the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers; then offer them wine to drink." <sup>3</sup> So I took Ja-azani'ah the son of Jeremiah, son of Habazzini'ah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Re'chabites. <sup>4</sup> I brought them to the house of the LORD into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdali'ah, the man of God, which was near the chamber of the princes, above the chamber of Ma-asei'ah the son of Shallum, keeper of the threshold. <sup>5</sup> Then I set before the Re'chabites pitchers full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Drink wine." <sup>6</sup> But they answered, "We will drink no wine, for Jon'adab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, 'You shall not drink wine, neither you nor your sons for ever; <sup>7</sup> you shall not build a house; you shall not sow seed; you shall not plant or have a vineyard; but you shall live in tents all your days, that you may live many days in the land where you sojourn.' <sup>8</sup> We have obeyed the voice of Jon'adab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, ourselves, our wives, our sons, or our daughters, <sup>9</sup> and not to build houses to dwell in. We have no vineyard or field or seed; <sup>10</sup> but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed and done all that Jon'adab our father commanded us. <sup>11</sup> But when Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon came up against the land, we said, 'Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chalde'ans and the army of the Syrians.' So we are living in Jerusalem."

<sup>12</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction and listen to my words? says the LORD. <sup>14</sup> The command which Jon'adab the son of Rechab gave to his sons, to drink no wine, has been kept; and they drink none to this day, for they have obeyed their father's command<sup>122</sup>. I have spoken to you persistently, but you have not listened to me. <sup>15</sup> I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, sending them persistently, saying, 'Turn now every one of you from his evil way, and amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and then you shall dwell in the land which I gave to you and your fathers.' But you did not incline your ear or listen to me. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Jon'adab the son of Rechab have kept the command which their father gave them, but this people has not obeyed me. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing on Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them and they have not listened, I have called to them and they have not answered."

<sup>18</sup> But to the house of the Rechabites Jeremiah said, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed the command of Jon'adab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done all that he commanded you, <sup>19</sup> therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jon'adab the son of Rechab shall never lack a man to stand before me."

36:<sup>1</sup> In the fourth year of Jehoi'akim the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> "Take a scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and Judah and all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josi'ah until today. <sup>3</sup> It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I intend to do to them, so that every one may turn from his evil way, and that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

<sup>4</sup> Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neri'ah, and Baruch wrote upon a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD which he had spoken to him. <sup>5</sup> And Jeremiah ordered Baruch, saying, "I am debarred from going to the house of the LORD; <sup>6</sup> so you are to go, and on a fast day in the hearing of all the people in the LORD's house you shall read the words of the LORD from the scroll which you have written at my dictation. You shall read them also in the hearing of all the men of Judah who come out of their cities. <sup>7</sup> It may be that their supplication will come before the LORD, and that every one will turn from his evil way, for great is the anger and wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people." <sup>8</sup> And Baruch the son of Neri'ah did all that Jeremiah the prophet ordered him about reading from the scroll the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

<sup>9</sup> In the fifth year of Jehoi'akim the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD. <sup>10</sup> Then, in the hearing of all the people, Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the scroll, in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemari'ah the son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

<sup>11</sup> When Micai'ah the son of Gemari'ah, son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, <sup>12</sup> he went down to the king's house, into the secretary's chamber; and all the princes were sitting there: Eli'shama the secretary, Delai'ah the son of Shemai'ah, Elna'than the son of Achbor, Gemari'ah the son of Shaphan, Zedeki'ah the son of Hanani'ah, and all the princes. <sup>13</sup> And Micai'ah told them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the scroll in the hearing of the people. <sup>14</sup> Then all the princes sent Jehu'di the son of Nethani'ah, son of Shelemi'ah, son of Cush, to say to Baruch, "Take in your hand the scroll that you read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neri'ah took the scroll in his hand and came to them. <sup>15</sup> And they said to him, "Sit down and read it." So Baruch read it to them. <sup>16</sup> When they heard all the words, they turned one to another in fear; and they said to Baruch, "We must report all these words to the king." <sup>17</sup> Then they asked Baruch, "Tell us, how did you write all these words? Was it at his dictation?" <sup>18</sup> Baruch answered them, "He dictated all these words to me, while I wrote them with ink on the scroll." <sup>19</sup> Then the princes said to Baruch, "Go and hide, you and Jeremiah, and let no one know where you are."

<sup>20</sup> So they went into the court to the king, having put the scroll in the chamber of Eli'shama the secretary; and they reported all the words to the king. <sup>21</sup> Then the king sent Jehu'di to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Eli'shama the secretary; and Jehu'di read it to the king and all the princes who stood beside the king. <sup>22</sup> It was the ninth month, and the king was sitting in the winter house and there was a fire burning in the brazier before him. <sup>23</sup> As Jehu'di read three or four columns, the king would cut them off with a penknife and throw them into the fire in the brazier, until the entire scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier. <sup>24</sup> Yet neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words, was afraid, nor did they rend their garments. <sup>25</sup> Even when Elna'than and Delai'ah and Gemari'ah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them. <sup>26</sup> And the king commanded Jerah'meel the king's son and Serai'ah the son of Az'ri-el and Shelemi'ah the son of Abdeel to seize Baruch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoi'akim the king of Judah has burned. <sup>29</sup> And concerning Jehoi'akim king of Judah you shall say, `Thus says the LORD, You have burned this scroll, saying, "Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cut off from it man and beast?" <sup>30</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoi'akim king of Judah, He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out to the heat by day and the frost by night. <sup>31</sup> And I will punish him and his offspring and his servants for their iniquity; I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they would not hear."

<sup>32</sup> Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neri'ah, who wrote on it at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll which Jehoi'akim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

37:<sup>1</sup> Zedeki'ah the son of Josi'ah, whom Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah, reigned instead of Coni'ah the son of Jehoi'akim. <sup>2</sup> But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land listened to the words of the LORD which he spoke through Jeremiah the prophet.

<sup>3</sup> King Zedeki'ah sent Jehu'cal the son of Shelemi'ah, and Zephani'ah the priest, the son of Ma-asei'ah, to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "Pray for us to the LORD our God." <sup>4</sup> Now Jeremiah was still going in and out among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison. <sup>5</sup> The army of Pharaoh had come out of Egypt; and when the Chalde'ans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet: <sup>7</sup> "Thus says the LORD, God of Israel: Thus shall you say to the king of Judah who sent you to me to inquire of me, `Behold, Pharaoh's army which came to help you is about to return to Egypt, to its own land. <sup>8</sup> And the Chalde'ans shall come back and fight against this city; they shall take it and burn it with fire. <sup>9</sup> Thus says the LORD, Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chalde'ans will surely stay away from us," for they will not stay away. <sup>10</sup> For even if you should defeat the whole army of Chalde'ans who are fighting against you, and there remained of them only wounded men, every man in his tent, they would rise up and burn this city with fire."

<sup>16</sup> When Jeremiah had come to the dungeon cells, and remained there many days, <sup>17</sup> King Zedeki'ah sent for him, and received him. The king questioned him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from the LORD?" Jeremiah said, "There is." Then he said, "You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon." <sup>18</sup> Jeremiah also said to King Zedeki'ah, "What wrong have I done to you or your servants or this people, that you have put me in prison? <sup>19</sup> Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, `The king of Babylon will not come against you and against this land'? <sup>20</sup> Now hear, I pray you, O my lord the king: let my humble plea come before you, and do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, lest I die there." <sup>21</sup> So King Zedeki'ah gave orders, and they committed Jeremiah to the court of the guard; and a loaf of bread was given him daily from the bakers' street, until all the bread of the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38:<sup>1</sup> Now Shephati'ah the son of Mattan, Gedali'ah the son of Pashhur, Jucal the son of Shelemi'ah, and Pashhur the son of Malchi'ah heard the words that Jeremiah was saying to all the people, <sup>2</sup> "Thus says the LORD, He who stays in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes out to the Chalde'ans shall live; he shall have his life as a prize of war, and live. <sup>3</sup> Thus says the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon and be taken." <sup>4</sup> Then the princes said to the king, "Let this man be put to death, for he is weakening the hands of the soldiers who are left in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man is not seeking the welfare of this people, but their harm." <sup>5</sup> King Zedeki'ah said, "Behold, he is in your hands; for the king can do nothing against you." <sup>6</sup> So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the cistern of Malchi'ah, the king's son, which was in the court of the guard, letting Jeremiah down by ropes. And there was no water in the cistern, but only mire, and Jeremiah sank in the mire.

<sup>14</sup> King Zedeki'ah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and received him at the third entrance of the temple of the LORD. The king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you a question; hide nothing from me." <sup>15</sup> Jeremiah said to Zedeki'ah, "If I tell you, will you not be sure to put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me." <sup>16</sup> Then King Zedeki'ah swore secretly to Jeremiah, "As the LORD lives, who made our souls, I will not put you to death or deliver you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

<sup>17</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedeki'ah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, If you will surrender to the princes of the king of Babylon, then your life shall be spared, and this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live. <sup>18</sup> But if you do not surrender to the princes of the king of Babylon, then this city shall be given into the hand of the Chalde'ans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape from their hand." <sup>19</sup> King Zedeki'ah said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have deserted to the Chalde'ans, lest I be handed over to them and they abuse me." <sup>20</sup> Jeremiah said, "You shall not be given to them. Obey now the voice of the LORD in what I say to you, and it shall be well with you, and your life shall be spared. <sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to surrender, this is the vision which the LORD has shown to me: <sup>22</sup> Behold, all the women left in the house of the king of Judah were being led out to the princes of the king of Babylon and were saying,

`Your trusted friends have deceived you and prevailed against you;
now that your feet are sunk in the mire, they turn away from you.'

<sup>23</sup> All your wives and your sons shall be led out to the Chalde'ans, and you yourself shall not escape from their hand, but shall be seized by the king of Babylon; and this city shall be burned with fire."

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedeki'ah said to Jeremiah, "Let no one know of these words and you shall not die. <sup>25</sup> If the princes hear that I have spoken with you and come to you and say to you, `Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you; hide nothing from us and we will not put you to death,' <sup>26</sup> then you shall say to them, `I made a humble plea to the king that he would not send me back to the house of Jonathan to die there.'" <sup>27</sup> Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him, and he answered them as the king had instructed him. So they left off speaking with him, for the conversation had not been overheard. <sup>28</sup> And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

39:<sup>1</sup> In the ninth year of Zedeki'ah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and besieged it; <sup>2</sup> in the eleventh year of Zedeki'ah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city. <sup>3</sup> When Jerusalem was taken, all the princes of the king of Babylon came and sat in the middle gate: Ner'gal-share'zer, Sam'gar-ne'bo, Sar'sechim the Rab'saris, Ner'gal-share'zer the Rabmag, with all the rest of the officers of the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup> When Zedeki'ah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled, going out of the city at night by way of the king's garden through the gate between the two walls; and they went toward the Arabah. <sup>5</sup> But the army of the Chalde'ans pursued them, and overtook Zedeki'ah in the plains of Jericho; and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon, at Riblah, in the land of Hamath; and he passed sentence upon him. <sup>6</sup> The king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedeki'ah at Riblah before his eyes; and the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. <sup>7</sup> He put out the eyes of Zedeki'ah, and bound him in fetters to take him to Babylon. <sup>8</sup> The Chalde'ans burned the king's house and the house of the people, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> Then Nebu'zarad'an, the captain of the guard, carried into exile to Babylon the rest of the people who were left in the city, those who had deserted to him, and the people who remained. <sup>10</sup> Nebu'zarad'an, the captain of the guard, left in the land of Judah some of the poor people who owned nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

<sup>15</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the guard: <sup>16</sup> "Go, and say to E'bed-mel'ech the Ethiopian, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will fulfil my words against this city for evil and not for good, and they shall be accomplished before you on that day. <sup>17</sup> But I will deliver you on that day, says the LORD, and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. <sup>18</sup> For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but you shall have your life as a prize of war, because you have put your trust in me, says the LORD."

40: <sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebu'zarad'an the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he took him bound in chains along with all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon. <sup>2</sup> The captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, "The LORD your God pronounced this evil against this place; <sup>3</sup> the LORD has brought it about, and has done as he said. Because you sinned against the LORD, and did not obey his voice, this thing has come upon you. <sup>4</sup> Now, behold, I release you today from the chains on your hands. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you well; but if it seems wrong to you to come with me to Babylon, do not come. See, the whole land is before you; go wherever you think it good and right to go. <sup>5</sup> If you remain, then return to Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam, son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed governor of the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever you think it right to go." So the captain of the guard gave him an allowance of food and a present, and let him go. <sup>6</sup> Then Jeremiah went to Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam, at Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

<sup>7</sup> When all the captains of the forces in the open country and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, and children, those of the poorest of the land who had not been taken into exile to Babylon, <sup>8</sup> they went to Gedali'ah at Mizpah-- Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah, Joha'nan the son of Kare'ah, Serai'ah the son of Tanhu'meth, the sons of Ephai the Netoph'athite, Jezani'ah the son of the Ma-ac'athite, they and their men. <sup>9</sup> Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam, son of Shaphan, swore to them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chalde'ans. Dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. <sup>10</sup> As for me, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand for you before the Chalde'ans who will come to us; but as for you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and store them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken." <sup>11</sup> Likewise, when all the Jews who were in Moab and among the Ammonites and in Edom and in other lands heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam, son of Shaphan, as governor over them, <sup>12</sup> then all the Jews returned from all the places to which they had been driven and came to the land of Judah, to Gedali'ah at Mizpah; and they gathered wine and summer fruits in great abundance.

<sup>13</sup> Now Joha'nan the son of Kare'ah and all the leaders of the forces in the open country came to Gedali'ah at Mizpah <sup>14</sup> and said to him, "Do you know that Ba'alis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah to take your life?" But Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam would not believe them. <sup>15</sup> Then Joha'nan the son of Kare'ah spoke secretly to Gedali'ah at Mizpah, "Let me go and slay Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah, and no one will know it. Why should he take your life, so that all the Jews who are gathered about you would be scattered, and the remnant of Judah would perish?" <sup>16</sup> But Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam said to Joha'nan the son of Kare'ah, "You shall not do this thing, for you are speaking falsely of Ish'mael."

<sup>9</sup> Now the cistern into which Ish'mael cast all the bodies of the men whom he had slain was the large cistern which King Asa had made for defence against Ba'asha king of Israel; Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah filled it with the slain. <sup>10</sup> Then Ish'mael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the people who were left at Mizpah, whom Nebu'zarad'an, the captain of the guard, had committed to Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam. Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup> But when Joha'nán the son of Kare'ah and all the leaders of the forces with him heard of all the evil which Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah had done, <sup>12</sup> they took all their men and went to fight against Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah. They came upon him at the great pool which is in Gibeon. <sup>13</sup> And when all the people who were with Ish'mael saw Joha'nán the son of Kare'ah and all the leaders of the forces with him, they rejoiced. <sup>14</sup> So all the people whom Ish'mael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Joha'nán the son of Kare'ah. <sup>15</sup> But Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah escaped from Joha'nán with eight men, and went to the Ammonites. <sup>16</sup> Then Joha'nán the son of Kare'ah and all the leaders of the forces with him took all the rest of the people whom Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah had carried away captive from Mizpah after he had slain Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam--soldiers, women, children, and eunuchs, whom Joha'nán brought back from Gibeon. <sup>17</sup> And they went and stayed at Geruth Chimham near Bethlehem, intending to go to Egypt <sup>18</sup> because of the Chalde'ans; for they were afraid of them, because Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah had slain Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

42:<sup>1</sup> Then all the commanders of the forces, and Joha'nán the son of Kare'ah and Azari'ah the son of Hoshai'ah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, came near <sup>2</sup> and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Let our supplication come before you, and pray to the LORD your God for us, for all this remnant (for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes see us), <sup>3</sup> that the LORD your God may show us the way we should go, and the thing that we should do." <sup>4</sup> Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you; behold, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your request, and whatever the LORD answers you I will tell you; I will keep nothing back from you." <sup>5</sup> Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act according to all the word with which the LORD your God sends you to us. <sup>6</sup> Whether it is good or evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

<sup>7</sup> At the end of ten days the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup> Then he summoned Joha'nán the son of Kare'ah and all the commanders of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest, <sup>9</sup> and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him: <sup>10</sup> If you will remain in this land, then I will build you up and not pull you down; I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I repent of the evil which I did to you. <sup>11</sup> Do not fear the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not fear him, says the LORD, for I am with you, to save you and to deliver you from his hand. <sup>12</sup> I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you and let you remain in your own land. <sup>13</sup> But if you say, 'We will not remain in this land,' disobeying the voice of the LORD your God <sup>14</sup> and saying, 'No, we will go to the land of Egypt, where we shall not see war, or hear the sound of the trumpet, or be hungry for bread, and we will dwell there,' <sup>15</sup> then hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: If you set your faces to enter Egypt and go to live there, <sup>16</sup> then the sword which you fear shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine of which you are afraid shall follow<sup>124</sup> hard after you to Egypt; and there you shall die. <sup>17</sup> All the men who set their faces to go to Egypt to live there shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; they shall have no remnant or survivor from the evil which I will bring upon them.

<sup>18</sup> "For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: As my anger and my wrath were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my wrath will be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You shall become an execration, a horror, a curse, and a taunt. You shall see this place no more. <sup>19</sup> The LORD has said to you, O remnant of Judah, 'Do not go to Egypt.' Know for a certainty that I have warned you this day <sup>20</sup> that you have gone astray at the cost of your lives. For you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD our God, and whatever the LORD our God says declare to us and we will do it.' <sup>21</sup> And I have this day declared it to you, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in anything that he sent me to tell you. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore know for a certainty that you shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence in the place where you desire to go to live."

43:<sup>1</sup> When Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all these words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them, <sup>2</sup> Azari'ah the son of Hoshai'ah and Joha'nan the son of Kare'ah and all the insolent men said to Jeremiah, "You are telling a lie. The LORD our God did not send you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to live there'; <sup>3</sup> but Baruch the son of Neri'ah has set you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chalde'ans, that they may kill us or take us into exile in Babylon." <sup>4</sup> So Joha'nan the son of Kare'ah and all the commanders of the forces and all the people did not obey the voice of the LORD, to remain in the land of Judah. <sup>5</sup> But Joha'nan the son of Kare'ah and all the commanders of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to live in the land of Judah from all the nations to which they had been driven-- <sup>6</sup> the men, the women, the children, the princesses, and every person whom Nebu'zarad'an the captain of the guard had left with Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam, son of Shaphan; also Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neri'ah. <sup>7</sup> And they came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they arrived at Tah'panhes.

44:<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews that dwelt in the land of Egypt, at Migdol, at Tah'panhes, at Memphis, and in the land of Pathros, <sup>2</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You have seen all the evil that I brought upon Jerusalem and upon all the cities of Judah. Behold, this day they are a desolation, and no one dwells in them, <sup>3</sup> because of the wickedness which they committed, provoking me to anger, in that they went to burn incense and serve other gods that they knew not, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. <sup>4</sup> Yet I persistently sent to you all my servants the prophets, saying, 'Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!' <sup>5</sup> But they did not listen or incline their ear, to turn from their wickedness and burn no incense to other gods. <sup>6</sup> Therefore my wrath and my anger were poured forth and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they became a waste and a desolation, as at this day. <sup>7</sup> And now thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why do you commit this great evil against yourselves, to cut off from you man and woman, infant and child, from the midst of Judah, leaving you no remnant? <sup>8</sup> Why do you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have come to live, that you may be cut off and become a curse and a taunt among all the nations of the earth? <sup>9</sup> Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup> They have not humbled themselves even to this day, nor have they feared, nor walked in my law and my statutes which I set before you and before your fathers.

<sup>11</sup> "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, to cut off all Judah. <sup>12</sup> I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to come to the land of Egypt to live, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt they shall fall; by the sword and by famine they shall be consumed; from the least to the greatest, they shall die by the sword and by famine; and they shall become an execration, a horror, a curse, and a taunt. <sup>13</sup> I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence, <sup>14</sup> so that none of the remnant of Judah who have come to live in the land of Egypt shall escape or survive or return to the land of Judah, to which they desire to return to dwell there; for they shall not return, except some fugitives."

<sup>15</sup> Then all the men who knew that their wives had offered incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, all the people who dwelt in Pathros in the land of Egypt, answered Jeremiah: <sup>16</sup> "As for the word which you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you. <sup>17</sup> But we will do everything that we have vowed, burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out libations to her, as we did, both we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then we had plenty of food, and prospered, and saw no evil. <sup>18</sup> But since we left off burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out libations to her, we have lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine." <sup>19</sup> And the women said, "When we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out libations to her, was it without our husbands' approval that we made cakes for her bearing her image and poured out libations to her?"

<sup>20</sup> Then Jeremiah said to all the people, men and women, all the people who had given him this answer: <sup>21</sup> "As for the incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember it? Did it not come into his mind? <sup>22</sup> The LORD could no longer bear your evil doings and the abominations which you committed; therefore your land has become a desolation and a waste and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. <sup>23</sup> It is because you burned incense, and because you sinned against the LORD and did not obey the voice of the LORD or walk in his law and in his statutes and in his testimonies, that this evil has befallen you, as at this day."

<sup>24</sup> Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who are in the land of Egypt, <sup>25</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You and your wives have declared with your mouths, and have fulfilled it with your hands, saying, 'We will surely perform our vows that we have made, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out libations to her.' Then confirm your vows and perform your vows! <sup>26</sup> Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says the LORD, that my name shall no more be invoked by the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, 'As the Lord GOD lives.' <sup>27</sup> Behold, I am watching over them for evil and not for good; all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end of them. <sup>28</sup> And those who escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who came to the land of Egypt to live, shall know whose word will stand, mine or theirs. <sup>29</sup> This shall be the sign to you, says the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, in order that you may know that my words will surely stand against you for evil: <sup>30</sup> Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Zedeki'ah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon, who was his enemy and sought his life."

45:<sub>1</sub> The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neri'ah, when he wrote these words in a book at the dictation of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoi'akim the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah: <sub>2</sub> "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: <sub>3</sub>

You said, 'Woe is me! for the LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.' <sup>4</sup> Thus shall you say to him, Thus says the LORD: Behold, what I have built I am breaking down, and what I have planted I am plucking up-- that is, the whole land. <sup>5</sup> And do you seek great things for yourself? Seek them not<sup>125</sup>; for, behold, I am bringing evil upon all flesh, says the LORD; but I will give you your life as a prize of war in all places to which you may go."

<sup>2</sup> About Egypt. Concerning the army of Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphra'tes at Car'chemish and which Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoi'akim the son of Josi'ah, king of Judah:

Take your stations with your helmets, polish your spears,
put on your coats of mail!

<sup>5</sup> Why have I seen it?

They are dismayed and have turned backward.

Their warriors are beaten down, and have fled in haste;
they look not back-- terror on every side!

says the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> The swift cannot flee away, nor the warrior escape;
in the north by the river Euphra'tes they have stumbled and fallen.

<sup>7</sup> "Who is this, rising like the Nile,
like rivers whose waters surge?

He said, I will rise, I will cover the earth,

I will destroy cities and their inhabitants.

Let the warriors go forth:

men of Ethiopia and Put who handle the shield,

men of Lud, skilled in handling the bow.

<sup>10</sup> That day is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, to avenge himself on his foes.

The sword shall devour and be sated,

and drink its fill of their blood.

For the Lord GOD of hosts holds a sacrifice

in the north country by the river Euphra'tes.

<sup>11</sup> Go up to Gilead, and take balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt!

In vain you have used many medicines; there is no healing for you.

<sup>12</sup> The nations have heard of your shame,

and the earth is full of your cry;

for warrior has stumbled against warrior;

they have both fallen together."

<sup>13</sup> The word which the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon to smite the land of Egypt:

<sup>14</sup> "Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in Migdol;

proclaim in Memphis and Tah'panhes;

Say, 'Stand ready and be prepared,

for the sword shall devour round about you.'

<sup>15</sup> Why has Apis fled?

Why did not your bull stand?

Because the LORD thrust him down.

<sup>16</sup> Your multitude stumbled and fell,

and they said one to another,

'Arise, and let us go back to our own people and to the land of our birth,

because of the sword of the oppressor.'

<sup>17</sup> Call the name of Pharaoh, king of Egypt,
'Noisy one who lets the hour go by.'

<sup>18</sup> "As I live, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts,
like Tabor among the mountains,
and like Carmel by the sea, shall one come.

<sup>19</sup> Prepare yourselves baggage for exile,
O inhabitants of Egypt!
For Memphis shall become a waste,
a ruin, without inhabitant.

<sup>20</sup> "A beautiful heifer is Egypt,
but a gadfly from the north has come upon her.
<sup>21</sup> Even her hired soldiers in her midst are like fatted calves;
yea, they have turned and fled together, they did not stand;
for the day of their calamity has come upon them,
the time of their punishment.

<sup>22</sup> "She makes a sound like a serpent gliding away;
for her enemies march in force,
and come against her with axes,
like those who fell trees.

<sup>23</sup> They shall cut down her forest,
says the LORD,

though it is impenetrable,
because they are more numerous than locusts;
they are without number.

<sup>24</sup> The daughter of Egypt shall be put to shame, she shall be delivered into the hand of a people from the north."

<sup>25</sup> The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, said: "Behold, I am bringing punishment upon Amon of Thebes, and Pharaoh, and Egypt and her gods and her kings, upon Pharaoh and those who trust in him. <sup>26</sup> I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their life, into the hand of Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon and his officers. Afterward Egypt shall be inhabited as in the days of old, says the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> "But fear not, O Jacob my servant, nor be dismayed, O Israel;
for I, I will save you from afar,
and your offspring from the land of their captivity.
Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease,
and none shall make him afraid.

<sup>28</sup> Fear not, O Jacob my servant,
says the LORD,

for I am with you.
I will make a full end of all the nations
to which I have driven you,
but of you I will not make a full end.
I will chasten you in just measure,
and I will by no means leave you unpunished."

47:<sub>1</sub> The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh smote Gaza.

<sub>2</sub> "Thus says the LORD:

Behold, waters are rising out of the north,
and shall become an overflowing torrent;
they shall overflow the land and all that fills it,
the city and those who dwell in it.

Men shall cry out, and every inhabitant of the land shall wail.
<sub>3</sub> At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his stallions, at the rushing of his chariots,
at the rumbling of their wheels,
the fathers look not back to their children,
so feeble are their hands, <sub>4</sub> because of the day that is coming to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every ally<sup>126</sup> that remains.
For the LORD is destroying the Philistines,
the remnant of the coastland of Caphtor.
<sub>5</sub> Baldness has come upon Gaza, Ash'kelon has perished.
O remnant of the Anakim, how long will you gash yourselves?
<sub>6</sub> Ah, sword of the LORD!
How long till you are quiet?
Put yourself into your scabbard, rest and be still!
<sub>7</sub> How can it be quiet, when the LORD has given it a charge?
Against Ash'kelon and against the seashore he has appointed it."

48: Concerning Moab. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"Woe to Nebo, for it is laid waste!
Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is taken;
the fortress is put to shame and broken down;
<sub>2</sub> the renown of Moab is no more.
In Heshbon they planned evil against her:
`Come, let us cut her off from being a nation!
You also, O Madmen, shall be brought to silence;
the sword shall pursue you.

<sub>3</sub> "Hark! a cry from Horonaim, `Desolation and great destruction!
<sub>4</sub> Moab is destroyed; a cry is heard as far as Zo'ar.
<sub>5</sub> For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping;
for at the descent of Horonaim
they have heard the cry of destruction.
<sub>6</sub> Flee! Save yourselves!
Be like a wild ass in the desert!
<sub>7</sub> For, because you trusted in your strongholds and your treasures,
you also shall be taken;
and Chemosh shall go forth into exile,
with his priests and his princes.
<sub>8</sub> The destroyer shall come upon every city,
and no city shall escape;
the valley shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed,
as the LORD has spoken.

<sub>9</sub> "Give wings to Moab, for she would fly away;
her cities shall become a desolation, with no inhabitant in them.

<sub>10</sub> "Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD with slackness; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from bloodshed.

<sub>11</sub> "Moab has been at ease from his youth and has settled on his lees;
he has not been emptied from vessel to vessel,
nor has he gone into exile;
so his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed.

<sup>12</sup> "Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I shall send to him tilers who will tilt him, and empty his vessels, and break his jars in pieces. <sup>13</sup> Then Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel<sup>127</sup>, their confidence.

<sup>15</sup> The destroyer of Moab and his cities has come up, and the choicest of his young men have gone down to slaughter,
says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
<sup>16</sup> The calamity of Moab is near at hand and his affliction hastens apace.
<sup>17</sup> Bemoan him, all you who are round about him,
and all who know his name;
say, 'How the mighty sceptre is broken, the glorious staff.'
<sup>18</sup> "Come down from your glory,
and sit on the parched ground,
O inhabitant of Dibon!
For the destroyer of Moab has come up against you;
he has destroyed your strongholds.
<sup>19</sup> Stand by the way and watch, O inhabitant of Aro'er!
Ask him who flees and her who escapes;
say, 'What has happened?'
<sup>20</sup> Moab is put to shame, for it is broken;
wail and cry!
Tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste.

<sup>21</sup> "Judgement has come upon the tableland, upon Holon, and Jahzah, and Meph'ath, <sup>22</sup> and Dibon, and Nebo, and Beth-diblatha'im, <sup>23</sup> and Kiriatha'im, and Beth-ga'mul, and Beth-me'on, <sup>24</sup> and Ker'i-oth, and Bozrah, and all the cities of the land of Moab, far and near.

<sup>26</sup> "Make him drunk, because he magnified himself against the LORD; so that Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he too shall be held in derision. <sup>27</sup> Was not Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves, that whenever you spoke of him you wagged your head?

<sup>28</sup> "Leave the cities, and dwell in the rock,
O inhabitants of Moab!
Be like the dove that nests in the sides of the mouth of a gorge.
<sup>29</sup> We have heard of the pride of Moab-- he is very proud--
of his loftiness, his pride, and his arrogance,
and the haughtiness of his heart.
<sup>30</sup> I know his insolence, says the LORD;
his boasts are false, his deeds are false.
<sup>31</sup> Therefore I wail for Moab;
I cry out for all Moab;
for the men of Kir-he'res I mourn.
<sup>32</sup> More than for Jazer I weep for you, O vine of Sibmah!
Your branches passed over the sea, reached as far as Jazer;
upon your summer fruits and your vintage the destroyer has fallen.
<sup>33</sup> Gladness and joy have been taken away from the fruitful land of Moab;
I have made the wine cease from the wine presses;
no one treads them with shouts of joy;
the shouting is not the shout of joy.

<sup>34</sup> "Heshbon and Ele-a'leh cry out; as far as Jahaz they utter their voice, from Zo'ar to Horona'im and Eg'lath-shelish'iyah. For the waters of Nimrim also have become desolate. <sup>35</sup> And I will bring to an end in Moab, says the LORD, him who offers sacrifice in the high place and burns incense to his god. <sup>36</sup> Therefore my heart moans for Moab like a flute, and my heart moans like a flute for the men of Kir-he'res; therefore the riches they gained have perished.

<sup>37</sup> "For every head is shaved and every beard cut off; upon all the hands are gashes, and on the loins is sackcloth. <sup>38</sup> On all the housetops of Moab and in the squares there is nothing but lamentation; for I have broken Moab like a vessel for which no one cares, says the LORD. <sup>39</sup> How it is broken! How they wail! How Moab has turned his back in shame! So Moab has become a derision and a horror to all that are round about him."

<sup>40</sup> For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, one shall fly swiftly like an eagle,
and spread his wings against Moab;
<sup>41</sup> the cities shall be taken and the strongholds seized.
The heart of the warriors of Moab shall be in that day
like the heart of a woman in her pangs;
<sup>42</sup> Moab shall be destroyed and be no longer a people, because he magnified himself against the LORD.
<sup>43</sup> Terror, pit, and snare are before you,
O inhabitant of Moab!

says the LORD.

<sup>44</sup> He who flees from the terror shall fall into the pit,
and he who climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the snare.
For I will bring these things upon Moab
in the year of their punishment,

says the LORD.

<sup>45</sup> "In the shadow of Heshbon fugitives stop without strength;
for a fire has gone forth from Heshbon,
a flame from the house of Sihon;
it has destroyed the forehead of Moab,
the crown of the sons of tumult.

<sup>46</sup> Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh is undone;
for your sons have been taken captive,
and your daughters into captivity.

<sup>47</sup> Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in the latter days,
says the LORD."

Thus far is the judgement on Moab.

"Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir?
Why then has Milcom dispossessed Gad,
and his people settled in its cities?

says the LORD,
when I will cause the battle cry to be heard

Thus says the LORD of hosts:
"Is wisdom no more in Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom vanished?"

<sup>8</sup> Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan!
For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him,
the time when I punish him.

<sup>9</sup> If grape-gatherers came to you,
would they not leave gleanings?
If thieves came by night,
would they not destroy only enough for themselves?"

<sup>10</sup> But I have stripped Esau bare,
I have uncovered his hiding places,
and he is not able to conceal himself.
His children are destroyed, and his brothers,
and his neighbours;
and he is no more.

<sup>11</sup> Leave your fatherless children, I will keep them alive;
and let your widows trust in me."

<sup>12</sup> For thus says the LORD: "If those who did not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, will you go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you must drink. <sup>13</sup> For I have sworn by myself, says the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a horror, a taunt, a waste, and a curse; and all her cities shall be perpetual wastes."

<sup>14</sup> I have heard tidings from the LORD,
and a messenger has been sent among the nations:
"Gather yourselves together and come against her,
and rise up for battle!"

<sup>15</sup> For behold, I will make you small among the nations, despised among men.

<sup>16</sup> The horror you inspire has deceived you,
and the pride of your heart,
you who live in the clefts of the rock,
who hold the height of the hill.

Though you make your nest as high as the eagle's,
I will bring you down from there,

says the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> "Edom shall become a horror; every one who passes by it will be horrified and will hiss because of all its disasters. <sup>18</sup> As when Sodom and Gomor'rah and their neighbour cities were overthrown, says the LORD, no man shall dwell there, no man shall sojourn in her. <sup>19</sup> Behold, like a lion coming up from the jungle of the Jordan against a strong sheepfold, I will suddenly make them run away from her; and I will appoint over her whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who will summon me? What shepherd can stand before me? <sup>20</sup> Therefore hear the plan which the LORD has made against Edom and the purposes which he has formed against the inhabitants of Teman: Even the little ones of the flock shall be dragged away; surely their fold shall be appalled at their fate. <sup>21</sup> At the sound of their fall the earth shall tremble; the sound of their cry shall be heard at the Red Sea. <sup>22</sup> Behold, one shall mount up and fly swiftly like an eagle, and spread his wings against Bozrah, and the heart of the warriors of Edom shall be in that day like the heart of a woman in her pangs."

"Hamath and Arpad are confounded,
for they have heard evil tidings;
they melt in fear,
they are troubled like the sea which cannot be quiet.

<sup>24</sup> Damascus has become feeble,
she turned to flee, and panic seized her;
anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her,
as of a woman in travail.

and all her soldiers shall be destroyed in that day,
says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>27</sup> And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the strongholds of Ben-ha'dad."

Thus says the LORD:

"Rise up, advance against Kedar!
Destroy the people of the east!

<sup>29</sup> Their tents and their flocks shall be taken,
their curtains and all their goods;
their camels shall be borne away from them,
and men shall cry to them:

<sup>30</sup> Flee, wander far away,
dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Hazor!
says the LORD.

For Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon has made a plan against you,
and formed a purpose against you.

<sup>31</sup> "Rise up, advance against a nation at ease,
that dwells securely,
says the LORD,
that has no gates or bars, that dwells alone.

<sup>32</sup> Their camels shall become booty,
their herds of cattle a spoil.
I will scatter to every wind
those who cut the corners of their hair, and I will bring their calamity from every side of them,
says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> Hazor shall become a haunt of jackals, an everlasting waste;
no man shall dwell there, no man shall sojourn in her."

<sup>35</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might; <sup>36</sup> and I will bring upon Elam the four winds from the four quarters of heaven; and I will scatter them to all those winds, and there shall be no nation to which those driven out of Elam shall not come. <sup>37</sup> I will terrify Elam before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; I will bring evil upon them, my fierce anger, says the LORD. I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them; <sup>38</sup> and I will set my throne in Elam, and destroy their king and princes, says the LORD.

50:<sub>1</sub> The word which the LORD spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chalde'ans, by Jeremiah the prophet:

<sub>2</sub> "Declare among the nations and proclaim,

set up a banner<sup>128</sup> and proclaim,
conceal it not, and say:
`Babylon is taken, Bel is put to shame,
Mer'odach is dismayed.
Her images are put to shame,
her idols are dismayed.'

<sup>3</sup> "For out of the north a nation has come up against her, which shall make her land a desolation, and none shall dwell in it; both man and beast shall flee away.

<sup>4</sup> "In those days and in that time, says the LORD, the people of Israel and the people of Judah shall come together, weeping as they come; and they shall seek the LORD their God. <sup>5</sup> They shall ask the way to Zion, with faces turned toward it, saying, `Come, let us join ourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant which will never be forgotten.'

<sup>6</sup> "My people have been lost sheep; their shepherds have led them astray, turning them away on the mountains; from mountain to hill they have gone, they have forgotten their fold. <sup>7</sup> All who found them have devoured them, and their enemies have said, `We are not guilty, for they have sinned against the LORD, their true habitation, the LORD, the hope of their fathers.'

<sup>8</sup> "Flee from the midst of Babylon, and go out of the land of the Chalde'ans, and be as he-goats before the flock. <sup>9</sup> For behold, I am stirring up and bringing against Babylon a company of great nations, from the north country; and they shall array themselves against her; from there she shall be taken. Their arrows are like a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed. <sup>10</sup> Chaldea shall be plundered; all who plunder her shall be sated, says the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> "Though you rejoice, though you exult,
O plunderers of my heritage,
though you are wanton as a heifer at grass,
and neigh like stallions,

<sup>12</sup> your mother shall be utterly shamed,
and she who bore you shall be disgraced.
Lo, she shall be the last of the nations,
a wilderness dry and desert.

<sup>13</sup> Because of the wrath of the LORD
she shall not be inhabited,
but shall be an utter desolation;
every one who passes by Babylon shall be appalled,
and hiss because of all her wounds.

<sup>14</sup> Set yourselves in array against Babylon round about,
all you that bend the bow;
shoot at her, spare no arrows,
for she has sinned against the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Raise a shout against her round about, she has surrendered;
her bulwarks have fallen, her walls are thrown down.
For this is the vengeance of the LORD:
take vengeance on her, do to her as she has done.

<sup>16</sup> Cut off from Babylon the sower,
and the one who handles the sickle in time of harvest;
because of the sword of the oppressor,
every one shall turn to his own people,
and every one shall flee to his own land.

<sup>17</sup> "Israel is a hunted sheep driven away by lions. First the king of Assyria devoured him, and now at last Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon has gnawed his bones. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing punishment on the king of Babylon and his land, as I punished the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup> I will restore Israel to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and in Bashan, and his desire shall be satisfied on the hills of E'phraim and in Gilead. <sup>20</sup> In those days and in that time, says the LORD, iniquity shall be sought in Israel, and there shall be none; and sin in Judah, and none shall be found; for I will pardon those whom I leave as a remnant<sup>129</sup>.

and against the inhabitants of Pekod.
Slay, and utterly destroy after them,
says the LORD,

and do all that I have commanded you.

<sup>22</sup> The noise of battle is in the land,
and great destruction!

<sup>23</sup> How the hammer<sup>130</sup> of the whole earth is cut down and broken!
How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!

<sup>24</sup> I set a snare for you and you were taken, O Babylon, and you did not know it; you were found and caught,
because you strove against the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD has opened his armoury, and brought out the weapons of his wrath,
for the Lord GOD of hosts has a work to do in the land of the Chalde'ans.

<sup>26</sup> Come against her from every quarter;
open her granaries;
pile her up like heaps of grain, and destroy her utterly;
let nothing be left of her.

Woe to them, for their day has come,
the time of their punishment.

<sup>28</sup> "Hark! they flee and escape from the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, vengeance for his temple.

<sup>29</sup> "Summon archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow. Encamp round about her; let no one escape. Requite her according to her deeds, do to her according to all that she has done; for she has proudly defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel. <sup>30</sup> Therefore her young men shall fall in her squares, and all her soldiers shall be destroyed on that day, says the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> "Behold, I am against you, O proud one,
says the Lord GOD of hosts;
for your day has come, the time when I will punish you.

<sup>32</sup> The proud one shall stumble and fall,
with none to raise him up,
and I will kindle a fire in his cities,
and it will devour all that is round about him.

<sup>33</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts: The people of Israel are oppressed, and the people of Judah with them; all who took them captive have held them fast, they refuse to let them go.

<sup>34</sup> Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name. He will surely plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, but unrest to the inhabitants of Babylon.

<sup>35</sup> "A sword upon the Chalde'ans,
says the LORD,
and upon the inhabitants of Babylon,
and upon her princes and her wise men!
<sup>36</sup> A sword upon the diviners, that they may become fools!
A sword upon her warriors, that they may be destroyed!
<sup>37</sup> A sword upon her horses and upon her chariots, and upon all the foreign troops in her midst,

---

that they may become women!
A sword upon all her treasures, that they may be plundered!

<sup>38</sup> A drought upon her waters,
that they may be dried up!

For it is a land of images, and they are mad over idols.

<sup>39</sup> "Therefore wild beasts shall dwell with hyenas in Babylon, and ostriches shall dwell in her; she shall be peopled no more for ever, nor inhabited for all generations. <sup>40</sup> As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomor'rah and their neighbour cities, says the LORD, so no man shall dwell there, and no son of man shall sojourn in her.

a mighty nation and many kings are stirring
from the farthest parts of the earth.

<sup>42</sup> They lay hold of bow and spear;
they are cruel, and have no mercy.

The sound of them is like the roaring of the sea;
they ride upon horses,

arrayed as a man for battle against you, O daughter of Babylon!

<sup>43</sup> "The king of Babylon heard the report of them,
and his hands fell helpless;
anguish seized him, pain as of a woman in travail.

<sup>44</sup> "Behold, like a lion coming up from the jungle of the Jordan against a strong sheepfold, I will suddenly make them run away from her; and I will appoint over her whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who will summon me? What shepherd can stand before me?

51: Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will stir up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon, against the inhabitants of Chalde'a;

<sup>2</sup> and I will send to Babylon winnowers,
and they shall winnow her,

and they shall empty her land,

when they come against her from every side on the day of trouble.

<sup>3</sup> Let not the archer bend his bow,

and let him not stand up in his coat of mail.

Spare not her young men; utterly destroy all her host.

<sup>4</sup> They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chalde'ans, and wounded in her streets.

<sup>5</sup> For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God,
the LORD of hosts;

but the land of the Chalde'ans is full of guilt
against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> "Flee from the midst of Babylon,
let every man save his life!

Be not cut off in her punishment,
for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance,
the requital he is rendering her.

making all the earth drunken<sup>135</sup>;

the nations drank of her wine,
therefore the nations went mad.
<sup>8</sup> Suddenly Babylon has fallen and been broken;
wail for her!
Take balm for her pain; perhaps she may be healed.
<sup>9</sup> We would have healed Babylon, but she was not healed<sup>136</sup>.
Forsake her, and let us go each to his own country;
for her judgement has reached up to heaven
and has been lifted up even to the skies.
<sup>10</sup> The LORD has brought forth our vindication;
come, let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God<sup>137</sup>.

Take up the shields!

The LORD has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because his purpose concerning Babylon is to destroy it, for that is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance for his temple.

make the watch strong<sup>139</sup>;
set up watchmen; prepare the ambushes;
for the LORD has both planned and done what he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.
<sup>13</sup> O you who dwell by many waters, rich in treasures, your end has come, the thread of your life is cut.
<sup>14</sup> The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself:
Surely I will fill you with men, as many as locusts,
and they shall raise the shout of victory over you.

<sup>15</sup> "It is he who made the earth by his power,
who established the world by his wisdom,
and by his understanding stretched out the heavens.
<sup>16</sup> When he utters his voice
there is a tumult of waters in the heavens,
and he makes the mist rise from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightnings for the rain,
and he brings forth the wind from his storehouses.
<sup>17</sup> Every man is stupid and without knowledge;
every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols;
for his images are false,
and there is no breath in them.
<sup>18</sup> They are worthless, a work of delusion;
at the time of their punishment they shall perish.
<sup>19</sup> Not like these is he who is the portion of Jacob,
for he is the one who formed all things,
and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance;
the LORD of hosts is his name.

with you<sup>141</sup> I break nations in pieces;
with you I destroy kingdoms;
<sup>21</sup> with you I break in pieces the horse and his rider;
with you I break in pieces the chariot and the charioteer;

with you I break in pieces the old man and the youth;
with you I break in pieces the young man and the maiden;
23 with you I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock;
with you I break in pieces the farmer and his team;
with you I break in pieces governors and commanders.

24 "I will requite Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea before your very eyes for all the evil that they have done in Zion, says the LORD.

25 "Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain,
says the LORD,
which destroys the whole earth;
I will stretch out my hand against you,
and roll you down from the crags,
and make you a burnt mountain.
26 No stone shall be taken from you for a corner and no stone for a foundation,
but you shall be a perpetual waste,
says the LORD.

27 "Set up a standard on the earth,
blow the trumpet among the nations;
prepare the nations for war against her,
summon against her the kingdoms,
Ar'arat, Minni, and Ash'kenaz;
appoint a marshal against her,
bring up horses like bristling locusts.
28 Prepare the nations for war against her,
the kings of the Medes,
with their governors and deputies,
and every land under their dominion.
29 The land trembles and writhes in pain,
for the LORD's purposes against Babylon stand,
to make the land of Babylon a desolation,
without inhabitant.
30 The warriors of Babylon have ceased fighting,
they remain in their strongholds;
their strength has failed, they have become women;
her dwellings are on fire, her bars are broken.
31 One runner runs to meet another,
and one messenger to meet another,
to tell the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every side; 32 the fords have been seized,
the bulwarks are burned with fire,
and the soldiers are in panic.
33 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:
The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor
at the time when it is trodden;
yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come."

34 "Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me,
he has crushed me;
he has made me an empty vessel,
he has swallowed me like a monster;
he has filled his belly with my delicacies,
he has rinsed me out.
35 The violence done to me and to my kinsmen be upon Babylon," let the inhabitant of Zion say.
"My blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea," let Jerusalem say.

<sup>36</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD:
"Behold, I will plead your cause and take vengeance for you.
I will dry up her sea and make her fountain dry;
<sup>37</sup> and Babylon shall become a heap of ruins,
the haunt of jackals,
a horror and a hissing, without inhabitant.

<sup>38</sup> "They shall roar together like lions;
they shall growl like lions' whelps.
<sup>39</sup> While they are inflamed I will prepare them a feast and make them drunk, till they swoon away and sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake,
says the LORD.
<sup>40</sup> I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and he-goats.
<sup>41</sup> "How Babylon is taken, the praise of the whole earth seized!
How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!
<sup>42</sup> The sea has come up on Babylon;
she is covered with its tumultuous waves.
<sup>43</sup> Her cities have become a horror,
a land of drought and a desert,
a land in which no one dwells,
and through which no son of man passes.
<sup>44</sup> And I will punish Bel in Babylon,
and take out of his mouth what he has swallowed.
The nations shall no longer flow to him;
the wall of Babylon has fallen.

<sup>45</sup> "Go out of the midst of her, my people!
Let every man save his life from the fierce anger of the LORD!
<sup>46</sup> Let not your heart faint, and be not fearful at the report heard in the land,
when a report comes in one year
and afterward a report in another year,
and violence is in the land, and ruler is against ruler.

<sup>47</sup> "Therefore, behold, the days are coming when I will punish the images of Babylon;
her whole land shall be put to shame,
and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.
<sup>48</sup> Then the heavens and the earth,
and all that is in them,
shall sing for joy over Babylon;
for the destroyers shall come against them out of the north,
says the LORD.
<sup>49</sup> Babylon must fall for the slain of Israel,
as for Babylon have fallen the slain of all the earth.

<sup>50</sup> "You that have escaped from the sword, go, stand not still!
Remember the LORD from afar,
and let Jerusalem come into your mind:
<sup>51</sup> `We are put to shame, for we have heard reproach;
dishonour has covered our face,
for aliens have come into the holy places of the LORD's house.'

<sup>52</sup> "Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD,
when I will execute judgement upon her images,
and through all her land the wounded shall groan.
<sup>53</sup> Though Babylon should mount up to heaven,

and though she should fortify her strong height,
yet destroyers would come from me upon her,
says the LORD.

<sup>54</sup> "Hark! a cry from Babylon!
The noise of great destruction from the land of the Chalde'ans!
<sup>55</sup> For the LORD is laying Babylon waste, and stilling her mighty voice.
Their waves roar like many waters,
the noise of their voice is raised;
<sup>56</sup> for a destroyer has come upon her, upon Babylon;
her warriors are taken, their bows are broken in pieces;
for the LORD is a God of recompense, he will surely requite.
<sup>57</sup> I will make drunk her princes and her wise men,
her governors, her commanders, and her warriors;
they shall sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake,
says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

<sup>58</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
The broad wall of Babylon shall be levelled to the ground and her high gates shall be burned with fire.
The peoples labour for nought,
and the nations weary themselves only for fire."

<sup>59</sup> The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Serai'ah the son of Neri'ah, son of Mahsei'ah, when he went with Zedeki'ah king of Judah to Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign. Serai'ah was the quartermaster. <sup>60</sup> Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, all these words that are written concerning Babylon. <sup>61</sup> And Jeremiah said to Serai'ah: "When you come to Babylon, see that you read all these words, <sup>62</sup> and say, 'O LORD, thou hast said concerning this place that thou wilt cut it off, so that nothing shall dwell in it, neither man nor beast, and it shall be desolate for ever.' <sup>63</sup> When you finish reading this book, bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates, <sup>64</sup> and say, 'Thus shall Babylon sink, to rise no more, because of the evil that I am bringing upon her.'" Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52:<sup>1</sup> Zedeki'ah was twenty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamu'tal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>2</sup> And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoi'akim had done. <sup>3</sup> Surely because of the anger of the LORD things came to such a pass in Jerusalem and Judah that he cast them out from his presence.

And Zedeki'ah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup> And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem, and they laid siege to it and built siegeworks against it round about. <sup>5</sup> So the city was besieged till the eleventh year of King Zedeki'ah. <sup>6</sup> On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city, that there was no food for the people of the land. <sup>7</sup> Then a breach was made in the city; and all the men of war fled and went out from the city by night by the way of a gate between the two walls, by the king's garden, while the Chalde'ans were round about the city. And they went in the direction of the Arabah. <sup>8</sup> But the army of the Chalde'ans pursued the king, and overtook Zedeki'ah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. <sup>9</sup> Then they captured the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence upon him. <sup>10</sup> The king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedeki'ah before his eyes, and also slew all the princes of Judah at Riblah. <sup>11</sup> He put out the eyes of Zedeki'ah, and bound him in fetters, and the king of Babylon took him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

And all the army of the Chalde'ans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls round about Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> And Nebu'zarad'an the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poorest of the people and the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, together with the rest of the artisans. <sup>16</sup> But Nebu'zarad'an the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and ploughmen.

<sup>17</sup> And the pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chalde'ans broke in pieces, and carried all the bronze to Babylon. <sup>18</sup> And they took away the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the dishes for incense, and all the vessels of bronze used in the temple service; <sup>19</sup> also the small bowls, and the firepans, and the basins, and the pots, and the lampstands, and the dishes for incense, and the bowls for libation. What was of gold the captain of the guard took away as gold, and what was of silver, as silver. <sup>20</sup> As for the two pillars, the one sea, the twelve bronze bulls which were under the sea, and the stands, which Solomon the king had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these things was beyond weight. <sup>21</sup> As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, its circumference was twelve cubits, and its thickness was four fingers, and it was hollow. <sup>22</sup> Upon it was a capital of bronze; the height of the one capital was five cubits; a network and pomegranates, all of bronze, were upon the capital round about. And the second pillar had the like, with pomegranates. <sup>23</sup> There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were a hundred upon the network round about.

<sup>24</sup> And the captain of the guard took Serai'ah the chief priest, and Zephani'ah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold; <sup>25</sup> and from the city he took an officer who had been in command of the men of war, and seven men of the king's council, who were found in the city; and the secretary of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. <sup>26</sup> And Nebu'zarad'an the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>27</sup> And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried captive out of its land.

<sup>31</sup> And in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoi'achin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, E'vil-mer'odach king of Babylon, in the year that he became king, lifted up the head of Jehoi'achin king of Judah and brought him out of prison; <sup>32</sup> and he spoke kindly to him, and gave him a seat above the seats of the kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>33</sup> So Jehoi'achin put off his prison garments. And every day of his life he dined regularly at the king's table; <sup>34</sup> as for his allowance, a regular allowance was given him by the king according to his daily need, until the day of his death as long as he lived.

The Lamentations of Jeremiah

1: How lonely sits the city that was full of people!
How like a widow has she become,
she that was great among the nations!
She that was a princess among the cities has become a vassal.

2 She weeps bitterly in the night, tears on her cheeks;
among all her lovers she has none to comfort her;
all her friends have dealt treacherously with her,
they have become her enemies.

3 Judah has gone into exile
because of affliction and hard servitude;
she dwells now among the nations, but finds no resting place;
her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

4 The roads to Zion mourn,
for none come to the appointed feasts;
all her gates are desolate, her priests groan;
her maidens have been dragged away,
and she herself suffers bitterly.

5 Her foes have become the head,
her enemies prosper,
because the LORD has made her suffer
for the multitude of her transgressions;
her children have gone away, captives before the foe.

6 From the daughter of Zion has departed all her majesty.
Her princes have become like harts that find no pasture;
they fled without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and bitterness all the precious things that were hers
from days of old.
When her people fell into the hand of the foe,
and there was none to help her,
the foe gloated over her, mocking at her downfall.

8 Jerusalem sinned grievously, therefore she became filthy;
all who honoured her despise her,
for they have seen her nakedness;
yea, she herself groans, and turns her face away.

9 Her uncleanness was in her skirts;
she took no thought of her doom;
therefore her fall is terrible, she has no comforter.
"O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!"

10 The enemy has stretched out his hands over all her precious things;
yea, she has seen the nations invade her sanctuary,
those whom thou didst forbid to enter thy congregation.

11 All her people groan as they search for bread;
they trade their treasures for food to revive their strength.
"Look, O LORD, and behold, for I am despised."

12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow

which was brought upon me, which the LORD inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.

<sup>13</sup> "From on high he sent fire;
into my bones he made it descend;
he spread a net for my feet;
he turned me back;
he has left me stunned, faint all the day long.

<sup>14</sup> "My transgressions were bound into a yoke;
by his hand they were fastened together;
they were set upon my neck;
he caused my strength to fail;
the Lord gave me into the hands of those whom I cannot withstand.

<sup>15</sup> "The LORD flouted all my mighty men in the midst of me;
he summoned an assembly against me to crush my young men;
the Lord has trodden as in a wine press
the virgin daughter of Judah.

<sup>16</sup> "For these things I weep;
my eyes flow with tears;
for a comforter is far from me, one to revive my courage;
my children are desolate, for the enemy has prevailed."

<sup>17</sup> Zion stretches out her hands,
but there is none to comfort her;
the LORD has commanded against Jacob that his neighbours should be his foes;
Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.

<sup>18</sup> "The LORD is in the right,
for I have rebelled against his word;
but hear, all you peoples, and behold my suffering;
my maidens and my young men have gone into captivity.

<sup>19</sup> "I called to my lovers but they deceived me;
my priests and elders perished in the city,
while they sought food to revive their strength.

<sup>20</sup> "Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress,
my soul is in tumult,
my heart is wrung within me,
because I have been very rebellious.
In the street the sword bereaves; in the house it is like death.

<sup>21</sup> "Hear how I groan;
there is none to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble;
they are glad that thou hast done it.
Bring thou the day thou hast announced,
and let them be as I am.

<sup>22</sup> "Let all their evil doing come before thee;
and deal with them as thou hast dealt with me
because of all my transgressions;
for my groans are many and my heart is faint."

2:1 How the Lord in his anger has set the daughter of Zion under a cloud!

He has cast down from heaven to earth
the splendour of Israel;
he has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

<sup>2</sup> The Lord has destroyed without mercy
all the habitations of Jacob;
in his wrath he has broken down the strongholds
of the daughter of Judah;
he has brought down to the ground in dishonour
the kingdom and its rulers.

<sup>3</sup> He has cut down in fierce anger all the might of Israel;
he has withdrawn from them his right hand
in the face of the enemy;
he has burned like a flaming fire in Jacob, consuming all around.

<sup>4</sup> He has bent his bow like an enemy,
with his right hand set like a foe;
and he has slain all the pride of our eyes
in the tent of the daughter of Zion;
he has poured out his fury like fire.

<sup>5</sup> The Lord has become like an enemy,
he has destroyed Israel;
he has destroyed all its palaces, laid in ruins its strongholds;
and he has multiplied in the daughter of Judah
mourning and lamentation.

<sup>6</sup> He has broken down his booth like that of a garden,
laid in ruins the place of his appointed feasts;
the LORD has brought to an end in Zion appointed feast and sabbath,
and in his fierce indignation has spurned king and priest.

<sup>7</sup> The Lord has scorned his altar, disowned his sanctuary;
he has delivered into the hand of the enemy
the walls of her palaces;
a clamour was raised in the house of the LORD
as on the day of an appointed feast.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD determined to lay in ruins the wall of the daughter of Zion;
he marked it off by the line;
he restrained not his hand from destroying;
he caused rampart and wall to lament, they languish together.

<sup>9</sup> Her gates have sunk into the ground;
he has ruined and broken her bars;
her king and princes are among the nations;
the law is no more,
and her prophets obtain no vision from the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence;
they have cast dust on their heads and put on sackcloth;
the maidens of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

<sup>11</sup> My eyes are spent with weeping;
my soul is in tumult;

my heart is poured out in grief
because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because infants and babes faint in the streets of the city.

<sup>12</sup> They cry to their mothers,
"Where is bread and wine?"
as they faint like wounded men in the streets of the city,
as their life is poured out on their mothers' bosom.

<sup>13</sup> What can I say for you,
to what compare you, O daughter of Jerusalem?
What can I liken to you, that I may comfort you,
O virgin daughter of Zion?
For vast as the sea is your ruin; who can restore you?

<sup>14</sup> Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive visions<sup>1</sup>;
they have not exposed your iniquity to restore your fortunes,
but have seen for you oracles false and misleading.

<sup>15</sup> All who pass along the way clap their hands at you;
they hiss and wag their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem;
"Is this the city which was called the perfection of beauty,
the joy of all the earth?"

<sup>16</sup> All your enemies rail against you;
they hiss, they gnash their teeth,
they cry: "We have destroyed her!
Ah, this is the day we longed for;
now we have it; we see it!"

<sup>17</sup> The LORD has done what he purposed, has carried out his threat;
as he ordained long ago, he has demolished without pity;
he has made the enemy rejoice over you,
and exalted the might of your foes.

Let tears stream down like a torrent day and night!
Give yourself no rest, your eyes no respite!

<sup>19</sup> Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches!
Pour out your heart like water before the presence of the Lord!
Lift your hands to him for the lives of your children,
who faint for hunger at the head of every street.

<sup>20</sup> Look, O LORD, and see!
With whom hast thou dealt thus?
Should women eat their offspring,
the children of their tender care?
Should priest and prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

<sup>21</sup> In the dust of the streets lie the young and the old;
my maidens and my young men have fallen by the sword;
in the day of thy anger thou hast slain them,
slaughtering without mercy.

<sup>22</sup> Thou didst invite us to the day of an appointed feast my terrors on every side;

---

<sup>1</sup>leads to captivity and on the day of the anger of the LORD

none escaped or survived;
those whom I dandled and reared my enemy destroyed.

3:1 I am the man who has seen affliction
under the rod of his wrath;
2 he has driven and brought me into darkness without any light;
3 surely against me he turns his hand
again and again the whole day long.

4 He has made my flesh and my skin waste away,
and broken my bones;
5 he has besieged and enveloped me
with bitterness and tribulation;
6 he has made me dwell in darkness
like the dead of long ago.

7 He has walled me about so that I cannot escape;
he has put heavy chains on me;
8 though I call and cry for help,
he shuts out my prayer;
9 he has blocked my ways with hewn stones,
he has made my paths crooked.

10 He is to me like a bear lying in wait,
like a lion in hiding;
11 he led me off my way and tore me to pieces;
he has made me desolate;
12 he bent his bow and set me as a mark for his arrow.

13 He drove into my heart the arrows of his quiver;
14 I have become the laughingstock of all peoples,
the burden of their songs all day long.
15 He has filled me with bitterness,
he has sated me with wormwood.

16 He has made my teeth grind on gravel,
and made me cower in ashes;
17 my soul is bereft of peace,
I have forgotten what happiness is;

18 so I say, "Gone is my glory,
and my expectation from the LORD."

19 Remember my affliction and my bitterness,
the wormwood and the gall!
20 My soul continually thinks of it and is bowed down within me.
21 But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:

22 The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
23 they are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness<sup>2</sup>.
24 "The LORD is my portion," says my soul,
"therefore I will hope in him."

25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul that seeks him.
26 It is good that one should wait quietly

for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 Let him sit alone in silence when he has laid it on him;
29 let him put his mouth in the dust-- there may yet be hope;
30 let him give his cheek to the smiter,
and be filled with insults.

31 For the Lord will not cast off for ever, 32 but, though he cause grief, he will have compassion
according to the abundance of his steadfast love;
33 for he does not willingly<sup>3</sup> afflict or grieve the sons of men.

34 To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth, 35 to turn aside the right of a man in the presence of the Most High, 36 to subvert a man in his cause, the Lord does not approve.

37 Who has commanded and it came to pass,
unless the Lord has ordained it?

38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that good and evil come?

39 Why should a living man complain,
a man, about the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us test and examine our ways,
and return to the LORD!

41 Let us lift up our hearts and hands to God in heaven:

42 "We have transgressed and rebelled,
and thou hast not forgiven.

43 "Thou hast wrapped thyself with anger and pursued us, slaying without pity;

44 thou hast wrapped thyself with a cloud
so that no prayer can pass through.

45 Thou hast made us offscouring and refuse among the peoples.

46 "All our enemies rail against us;

47 panic and pitfall have come upon us,
devastation and destruction;

48 my eyes flow with rivers of tears
because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 "My eyes will flow without ceasing, without respite,

50 until the LORD from heaven looks down and sees;

51 my eyes cause me grief
at the fate of all the maidens of my city.

52 "I have been hunted like a bird

by those who were my enemies without cause;

53 they flung me alive into the pit
and cast stones on me;

54 water closed over my head; I said, `I am lost.'

55 "I called on thy name, O LORD, from the depths of the pit;

56 thou didst hear my plea,

`Do not close thine ear to my cry for help!'

---

<sup>3</sup>thus has a high prurpose

57 Thou didst come near when I called on thee;
thou didst say, `Do not fear!

58 "Thou hast taken up my cause, O Lord,
thou hast redeemed my life.

59 Thou hast seen the wrong done to me, O LORD;
judge thou my cause.

60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance,
all their devices against me.

61 "Thou hast heard their taunts, O LORD,
all their devices against me.

62 The lips and thoughts of my assailants are against me all the day long.

63 Behold their sitting and their rising;
I am the burden of their songs.

64 "Thou wilt requite them, O LORD,
according to the work of their hands.

65 Thou wilt give them dullness of heart;
thy curse will be on them.

66 Thou wilt pursue them in anger and destroy them from under thy heavens, O LORD."

4:1 How the gold has grown dim,
how the pure gold is changed!
The holy stones lie scattered at the head of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, worth their weight in fine gold,
how they are reckoned as earthen pots,
the work of a potter's hands!

3 Even the jackals give the breast and suckle their young,
but the daughter of my people has become cruel,
like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the nursling cleaves to the roof of its mouth for thirst;
the children beg for food, but no one gives to them.

5 Those who feasted on dainties perish in the streets;
those who were brought up in purple lie on ash heaps.

6 For the chastisement of the daughter of my people has been greater than the punishment of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, no hand being laid on it.

7 Her princes were purer than snow, whiter than milk;
their bodies were more ruddy than coral,
the beauty of their form was like sapphire.

8 Now their visage is blacker than soot,
they are not recognised in the streets;
their skin has shrivelled upon their bones,
it has become as dry as wood.

9 Happier were the victims of the sword
than the victims of hunger, who pined away, stricken by want of the fruits of the field.

<sup>10</sup> The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children;
they became their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD gave full vent to his wrath,
he poured out his hot anger;
and he kindled a fire in Zion,
which consumed its foundations.

<sup>12</sup> The kings of the earth did not believe,
or any of the inhabitants of the world,
that foe or enemy could enter the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> This was for the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed in the midst of her the blood of the righteous.

<sup>14</sup> They wandered, blind, through the streets,
so defiled with blood that none could touch their garments.

<sup>15</sup> "Away! Unclean!" men cried at them;
"Away! Away! Touch not!"
So they became fugitives and wanderers;
men said among the nations, "They shall stay with us no longer."

<sup>16</sup> The LORD himself has scattered them, he will regard them no more; no honour was shown to the priests, no favour to the elders.

<sup>17</sup> Our eyes failed, ever watching vainly for help;
in our watching we watched for a nation which could not save.

<sup>18</sup> Men dogged our steps so that we could not walk in our streets;
our end drew near;
our days were numbered; for our end had come.

<sup>19</sup> Our pursuers were swifter than the vultures in the heavens;
they chased us on the mountains,
they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

<sup>20</sup> The breath of our nostrils,
the LORD's anointed, was taken in their pits,
he of whom we said,
"Under his shadow we shall live among the nations."

dweller in the land of Uz;
but to you also the cup shall pass;
you shall become drunk and strip yourself bare.

<sup>22</sup> The punishment of your iniquity, O daughter of Zion,
is accomplished,
he will keep you in exile no longer;
but your iniquity, O daughter of Edom,
he will punish, he will uncover your sins.

5:<sup>1</sup> Remember, O LORD, what has befallen us;
behold, and see our disgrace!

<sup>2</sup> Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,

our homes to aliens.
3 We have become orphans, fatherless;
our mothers are like widows.
4 We must pay for the water we drink,
the wood we get must be bought.
5 With a yoke on our necks we are hard driven;
we are weary, we are given no rest.
6 We have given the hand to Egypt,
and to Assyria, to get bread enough.
7 Our fathers sinned, and are no more;
and we bear their iniquities.
8 Slaves rule over us;
there is none to deliver us from their hand.
9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives,
because of the sword in the wilderness.
10 Our skin is hot as an oven
with the burning heat of famine.
11 Women are ravished in Zion, virgins in the towns of Judah.
12 Princes are hung up by their hands;
no respect is shown to the elders.
13 Young men are compelled to grind at the mill;
and boys stagger under loads of wood.
14 The old men have quit the city gate,
the young men their music.
15 The joy of our hearts has ceased;
our dancing has been turned to mourning<sup>4</sup>.
16 The crown has fallen from our head;
woe to us, for we have sinned!
17 For this our heart has become sick,
for these things our eyes have grown dim, 18 for Mount Zion which lies desolate;
jackals prowl over it.

19 But thou, O LORD, dost reign for ever;
thy throne endures to all generations.
20 Why dost thou forget us for ever,
why dost thou so long forsake us?
21 Restore us to thyself, O LORD,
that we may be restored!
Renew our days as of old!
22 Or hast thou utterly rejected us?
Art thou exceedingly angry with us?

The book of Ezekiel

1: In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as 1) I was among the exiles<sup>1</sup> by the river Chebar<sup>2</sup>, 2) the heavens were opened<sup>3</sup>, and 3) I saw visions<sup>4</sup> of God. 2 On the fifth day of the month (it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoi'achin<sup>5</sup>), 3 4) the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel<sup>6</sup> the priest, the son of Buzi<sup>7</sup>, in the land of the Chalde'ans by the river Chebar; and 5) the hand of the LORD was upon him there.

4 As I looked, behold, a stormy wind<sup>8</sup> came out of the north<sup>9</sup>, and a great cloud<sup>10</sup>, with brightness round about it, and fire<sup>11</sup> flashing forth continually, and in the midst of the fire, as it were gleaming bronze. 5 And from the midst<sup>12</sup> of it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had the form of men, 6 but each had four faces, and each of them had four wings. 7 Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished bronze. 8 Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. And the four had their faces and their wings thus: 9 their wings touched one another; they went every one straight forward, without turning as they went. 10 As for the likeness of their faces, each had the face of a man<sup>13</sup>; the four had the face of a lion on the right side, the four had the face of an ox on the left side, and the four had the face of an eagle<sup>14</sup>. 11 Such were their faces. And their wings were spread out above; each creature had two wings, each of which touched the wing of another, while two covered their bodies. 12 And each went straight forward; wherever the spirit would go, they went, without turning<sup>15</sup> as they went. 13 In the midst of the living creatures there was something that looked like burning coals of fire, like torches moving to and fro among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. 14 And the living creatures darted to and fro, like a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel upon the earth beside the living creatures, one for each of the four of them. 16 As for the appearance of the wheels and their construction: their appearance was like the gleaming of a crysolite; and the four had the same likeness, their construction being as it were a wheel within a wheel. 17 When they went, they went in any of their four directions without turning as they went. 18 The four wheels had rims and they had spokes; and their rims were full of eyes round about. 19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose. 20 Wherever the spirit would go, they went, and the wheels rose along with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. 21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those rose from the earth, the wheels rose along with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

22 Over the heads of the living creatures there was the likeness of a firmament<sup>16</sup>, shining like awesome<sup>17</sup> crystal, spread out above their heads. 23 And under the firmament their wings were stretched out straight, one toward another; and each creature had two wings covering its body. 24 And when they went, I heard the sound of their wings like the sound of many waters, like the thunder of the Almighty, a sound of tumult like the sound of a host;

when they stood still, they let down their wings. <sup>25</sup> And there came a voice from above the firmament over their heads; when they stood still, they let down their wings.

Such was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard the voice of one speaking.

2:<sup>1</sup> And he said to me, "Son of man, stand upon your feet, and I will speak with you." <sup>2</sup> And when he spoke to me, the Spirit entered into me and set me upon my feet; and I heard him speaking to me. <sup>3</sup> And he said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels, who have rebelled against me; they and their fathers have transgressed against me to this very day. <sup>4</sup> The people also are impudent and stubborn<sup>18</sup>: I send you to them; and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' <sup>5</sup> And whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house) they will know that there has been a prophet among them. <sup>6</sup> And you, son of man, be not afraid of them, nor be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you and you sit upon scorpions; be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house. <sup>7</sup> And you shall go on speaking<sup>19</sup> my words to them, whether they hear or refuse to hear; for they are a rebellious<sup>20</sup> house.

<sup>8</sup> "But you, son of man, hear what I say to you; be not rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth, and eat what I give you." <sup>9</sup> And when I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me, and, lo, a written scroll<sup>21</sup> was in it; <sup>10</sup> and he spread it before me; and it had writing on the front and on the back, and there were written on it words of lamentation and mourning and woe. 3:<sup>1</sup> And he said to me, "Son of man, eat what is offered to you; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel." <sup>2</sup> So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat. <sup>3</sup> And he said to me, "Son of man, eat this scroll that I give you and fill your stomach with it." Then I ate it; and it was in my mouth as sweet as honey<sup>22</sup>.

<sup>4</sup> And he said to me, "Son of man, go, get you to the house of Israel, and speak with my words to them. <sup>5</sup> For you are not sent to a people of foreign speech and a hard language, but to the house of Israel-- <sup>6</sup> not to many peoples of foreign speech and a hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to such, they would listen<sup>24</sup> to you. <sup>7</sup> But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they are not willing to listen to me; because all the house of Israel are of a hard forehead and of a stubborn heart. <sup>8</sup> Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. <sup>9</sup> Like adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead; fear them not, nor be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house." <sup>10</sup> Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, all my words<sup>25</sup> that I shall speak to you 1) receive in your heart, and 2) hear with your ears. <sup>11</sup> 3) And go, get you to the exiles, to your people, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD'; whether they hear or refuse to hear."

<sup>12</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up, and as the glory of the LORD arose from its place, I heard behind me the sound of a great earthquake; <sup>13</sup> it was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them, that sounded like a great earthquake. <sup>14</sup> The Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness in the heat of my spirit, the hand of the LORD being strong upon me; <sup>15</sup> and I came to the exiles at Tel-abib, who dwelt by the river Chebar. And I sat there overwhelmed among them<sup>26</sup> seven days<sup>27</sup>.

<sup>22</sup> And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said to me, "Arise, go forth into the plain, and there I will speak with you." <sup>23</sup> So I arose and went forth into the plain; and, lo, the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. <sup>24</sup> But the Spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet; and he spoke with me and said to me, "Go, shut yourself within your house<sup>34</sup>. <sup>25</sup> And you, O son of man, behold, cords will be placed upon you, and you shall be bound with them, so that you cannot go out among the people; <sup>26</sup> and I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be dumb and unable to reprove them<sup>35</sup>; for they are a rebellious<sup>36</sup> house. <sup>27</sup> But when I<sup>37</sup> speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD'; he that will hear, let him hear; and he that will refuse to hear, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house<sup>38</sup>."

<sup>4</sup> "Then lie upon your left side, and I will lay the punishment of the house of Israel upon you; for the number of the days that you lie upon it, you shall bear their punishment. <sup>5</sup> For I assign to you a number of days, three hundred and ninety days, equal to the number of the years of their punishment; so long shall you bear the punishment of the house of Israel. <sup>6</sup> And when you have completed these, you shall lie down a second time, but on your right side, and bear the punishment of the house of Judah; forty days I assign you, a day for each year. <sup>7</sup> And you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm bared; and you shall prophesy against the city. <sup>8</sup> And, behold, I will put cords upon you, so that you cannot turn from one side to the other, till you have completed the days of your siege.

<sup>9</sup> "And you, take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt, and put them into a single vessel, and make bread of them. During the number of days that you lie upon your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat it. <sup>10</sup> And the food which you eat shall

5:<sup>1</sup> "And you, O son of man, take a sharp sword; use it as a barber's razor and pass it over your head and your beard; then take balances for weighing, and divide the hair. <sup>2</sup> A third part you shall burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are completed; and a third part you shall take and strike with the sword round about the city; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will unsheathe the sword after them. <sup>3</sup> And you shall take from these a small number, and bind them in the skirts of your robe. <sup>4</sup> And of these again you shall take some, and cast them into the fire, and burn them in the fire; from there a fire will come forth into all the house of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the centre of the nations, with countries round about her. <sup>6</sup> And she has wickedly rebelled against my ordinances more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries round about her, by rejecting my ordinances and not walking in my statutes. <sup>7</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you are more turbulent than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes or kept my ordinances, but have acted according to the ordinances of the nations that are round about you; <sup>8</sup> therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgements in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. <sup>9</sup> And because of all your abominations I will do with you what I have never yet done, and the like of which I will never do again. <sup>10</sup> Therefore fathers shall eat their sons in the midst of you, and sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgements on you, and any of you who survive I will scatter to all the winds. <sup>11</sup> Wherefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will cut you down; my eye will not spare, and I will have no pity. <sup>12</sup> A third part of you shall die of pestilence and be consumed with famine in the midst of you; a third part shall fall by the sword round about you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds and will unsheathe the sword after them.

<sup>13</sup> "Thus shall my anger spend itself, and I will vent my fury upon them and satisfy myself; and they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken in my jealousy, when I spend my fury upon them. <sup>14</sup> Moreover I will make you a desolation and an object of reproach among the nations round about you and in the sight of all that pass by. <sup>15</sup> You shall be a reproach and a taunt, a warning and a horror, to the nations round about you, when I execute judgements on you in anger and fury, and with furious chastisements-- I, the LORD, have spoken-- <sup>16</sup> when I loose against you my deadly arrows of famine, arrows for destruction, which I will loose to destroy you, and when I bring more and more famine upon you, and break your staff of bread. <sup>17</sup> I will send famine and wild beasts against you, and they will rob you of your children; pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword upon you. I, the LORD, have spoken."

6:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, <sup>3</sup> and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. <sup>4</sup> Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense altars shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain before your idols. <sup>5</sup> And I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. <sup>6</sup> Wherever you dwell your cities shall be waste and your high places ruined, so that your altars will be waste and ruined, your idols broken and destroyed, your incense altars cut down, and your works wiped out. <sup>7</sup> And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> "Yet I will leave some of you alive. When you have among the nations some who escape the sword, and when you are scattered through the countries, <sup>9</sup> then those of you who escape will remember me among the nations where they are carried captive, when I have broken their wanton heart which has departed from me, and blinded their eyes which turn wantonly after their idols; and they will be loathsome in their own sight for the evils which they have committed, for all their abominations. <sup>10</sup> And they shall know that I am the LORD; I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them."

<sup>11</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: "Clap your hands, and stamp your foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. <sup>12</sup> He that is far off shall die of pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that is left and is preserved shall die of famine. Thus I will spend my fury upon them. <sup>13</sup> And you shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain lie among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, on all the mountain tops, under every green tree, and under every leafy oak, wherever they offered pleasing odour to all their idols. <sup>14</sup> And I will stretch out my hand against them, and make the land desolate and waste, throughout all their habitations, from the wilderness to Riblah. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

<sup>7:1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "And you, O son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel: An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land. <sup>3</sup> Now the end is upon you, and I will let loose my anger upon you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will punish you for all your abominations. <sup>4</sup> And my eye will not spare you, nor will I have pity; but I will punish you for your ways, while your abominations are in your midst. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: Disaster after disaster! Behold, it comes. <sup>6</sup> An end has come, the end has come; it has awakened against you. Behold, it comes. <sup>7</sup> Your doom has come to you, O inhabitant of the land; the time has come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting upon the mountains. <sup>8</sup> Now I will soon pour out my wrath upon you, and spend my anger against you, and judge you according to your ways; and I will punish you for all your abominations. <sup>9</sup> And my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity; I will punish you according to your ways, while your abominations are in your midst. Then you will know that I am the LORD, who smite.

<sup>14</sup> "They have blown the trumpet and made all ready; but none goes to battle, for my wrath is upon all their multitude. <sup>15</sup> The sword is without, pestilence and famine are within; he that is in the field dies by the sword; and him that is in the city famine and pestilence devour. <sup>16</sup> And if any survivors escape, they will be on the mountains, like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one over his iniquity. <sup>17</sup> All hands are feeble, and all knees weak as water. <sup>18</sup> They gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror covers them; shame is upon all faces, and baldness on all their heads. <sup>19</sup> They cast their silver into the streets, and their gold is like an unclean thing; their silver and gold are not able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD; they cannot satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it. For it was the stumbling block of their iniquity. <sup>20</sup> Their beautiful ornament they used for vainglory, and they made their abominable images and their detestable things of it; therefore I will make it an unclean thing to them. <sup>21</sup> And I will give it into the hands of foreigners for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it. <sup>22</sup> I will turn my face from them, that they may profane my precious place; robbers shall enter and profane it, <sup>23</sup> and make a desolation.

"Because the land is full of bloody crimes and the city is full of violence, <sup>24</sup> I will bring the worst of the nations to take possession of their houses; I will put an end to their proud might, and their holy places shall be profaned. <sup>25</sup> When anguish comes, they will seek peace, but there shall be none. <sup>26</sup> Disaster comes upon disaster, rumour follows rumour; they seek a vision from the prophet, but the law perishes from the priest, and counsel from the elders. <sup>27</sup> The king mourns, the prince is wrapped in despair, and the hands of the people of the land are palsied by terror. According to their way I will do to them, and according to their own judgements I will judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD."

8:<sub>1</sub> In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, with the elders of Judah sitting before me, the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me. <sub>2</sub> Then I beheld, and, lo, a form that had the appearance of a man; below what appeared to be his loins it was fire, and above his loins it was like the appearance of brightness, like gleaming bronze. <sub>3</sub> He put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the gateway of the inner court that faces north, where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. <sub>4</sub> And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I saw in the plain.

<sub>5</sub> Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now in the direction of the north." So I lifted up my eyes toward the north, and behold, north of the altar gate, in the entrance, was this image of jealousy. <sub>6</sub> And he said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel are committing here, to drive me far from my sanctuary? But you will see still greater abominations."

<sub>7</sub> And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, there was a hole in the wall. <sub>8</sub> Then said he to me, "Son of man, dig in the wall"; and when I dug in the wall, lo, there was a door. <sub>9</sub> And he said to me, "Go in, and see the vile abominations that they are committing here." <sub>10</sub> So I went in and saw; and there, portrayed upon the wall round about, were all kinds of creeping things, and loathsome beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel. <sub>11</sub> And before them stood seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, with Jazani'ah the son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had his censer in his hand, and the smoke of the cloud of incense went up.

<sub>12</sub> Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, every man in his room of pictures? For they say, 'The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land.'" <sub>13</sub> He said also to me, "You will see still greater abominations which they commit."

<sub>14</sub> Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of the LORD; and behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. <sub>15</sub> Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? You will see still greater abominations than these."

<sub>16</sub> And he brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD; and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs to the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east, worshipping the sun toward the east. <sub>17</sub> Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it too slight a thing for the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they commit here, that they should fill the land with violence, and provoke me further to anger? Lo, they put the branch to their nose. <sub>18</sub> Therefore I will deal in wrath; my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

9:<sub>1</sub> Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, "Draw near, you executioners of the city, each with his destroying weapon in his hand." <sub>2</sub> And lo, six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, every man with his weapon for slaughter in his hand, and with them was a man clothed in linen, with a writing case at his side. And they went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

<sub>3</sub> Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherubim on which it rested to the threshold of the house; and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writing case at his side. <sub>4</sub> And the LORD said to him, "Go through the city, through Jerusalem, and put a mark upon the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan over all the abominations that are committed in it." <sub>5</sub> And to the others he said in my hearing, "Pass through the city after him, and smite; your eye shall not spare, and you shall show no pity; <sub>6</sub> slay old men outright, young men and maidens, little children and women, but touch no one upon whom is the mark. And begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were before the house. <sub>7</sub> Then he said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth." So they went forth, and smote in the city. <sub>8</sub> And while they were smiting, and I was left alone, I fell upon my face, and cried, "Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all that remains of Israel in the outpouring of thy wrath upon Jerusalem?"

<sub>9</sub> Then he said to me, "The guilt of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great; the land is full of blood, and the city full of injustice; for they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD does not see.' <sub>10</sub> As for me, my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity, but I will requite their deeds upon their heads."

And he went in before my eyes.<sup>3</sup> Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the house, when the man went in; and a cloud filled the inner court.<sup>4</sup> And the glory of the LORD went up from the cherubim to the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the glory of the LORD.<sup>5</sup> And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

<sup>6</sup> And when he commanded the man clothed in linen, "Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim," he went in and stood beside a wheel.<sup>7</sup> And a cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took some of it, and put it into the hands of the man clothed in linen, who took it and went out.<sup>8</sup> The cherubim appeared to have the form of a human hand under their wings.

<sup>9</sup> And I looked, and behold, there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one beside each cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like sparkling chrysolite.<sup>10</sup> And as for their appearance, the four had the same likeness, as if a wheel were within a wheel.<sup>11</sup> When they went, they went in any of their four directions without turning as they went, but in whatever direction the front wheel faced the others followed without turning as they went.<sup>12</sup> And their rims, and their spokes, and the wheels were full of eyes round about-- the wheels that the four of them had.<sup>13</sup> As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing the whirling wheels.<sup>14</sup> And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

<sup>15</sup> And the cherubim mounted up. These were the living creatures that I saw by the river Chebar.<sup>16</sup> And when the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels did not turn from beside them.<sup>17</sup> When they stood still, these stood still, and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

<sup>20</sup> These were the living creatures that I saw underneath the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim.<sup>21</sup> Each had four faces, and each four wings, and underneath their wings the semblance of human hands.<sup>22</sup> And as for the likeness of their faces, they were the very faces whose appearance I had seen by the river Chebar. They went every one straight forward.

11:<sup>1</sup> The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of the house of the LORD, which faces east. And behold, at the door of the gateway there were twenty-five men; and I saw among them Ja-azani'ah the son of Azzur, and Pelati'ah the son of Benai'ah, princes of the people.<sup>2</sup> And he said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity and who give wicked counsel in this city;<sup>3</sup> who say, 'The time is not near to build houses; this city is the cauldron, and we are the flesh.'<sup>4</sup> Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man."

<sup>5</sup> And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and he said to me, "Say, Thus says the LORD: So you think, O house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind.<sup>6</sup> You have multiplied your slain in this city, and have filled its streets with the slain.<sup>7</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Your slain whom you have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the cauldron; but you shall be brought forth out of the midst of it.<sup>8</sup> You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword upon you, says the Lord GOD.<sup>9</sup> And I will bring you forth out of the midst of it, and give you into the hands of foreigners, and execute judgements upon you.<sup>10</sup> You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you at the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am the LORD.<sup>11</sup> This city shall not be your cauldron, nor shall you be the flesh in the midst of it; I will judge you at the border of Israel;<sup>12</sup> and you shall know that I am the LORD; for you have not walked in my statutes, nor executed my ordinances, but have acted according to the ordinances of the nations that are round about you."

<sup>13</sup> And it came to pass, while I was prophesying, that Pelati'ah the son of Benai'ah died. Then I fell down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

<sup>14</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>15</sup> "Son of man, your brethren, even your brethren, your fellow exiles, the whole house of Israel, all of them, are those of whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'They have gone far from the LORD; to us this land is given for a possession.' <sup>16</sup> Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: Though I removed them far off among the nations, and though I scattered them among the countries, yet I have been a sanctuary to them for a while in the countries where they have gone.' <sup>17</sup> Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.' <sup>18</sup> And when they come there, they will remove from it all its detestable things and all its abominations. <sup>19</sup> And I will give them one heart, and put a new spirit within them; I will take the stony heart out of their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, <sup>20</sup> that they may walk in my statutes and keep my ordinances and obey them; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>21</sup> But as for those whose heart goes after their detestable things and their abominations, I will requite their deeds upon their own heads, says the Lord GOD."

12:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, who have eyes to see, but see not, who have ears to hear, but hear not; <sup>3</sup> for they are a rebellious house. Therefore, son of man, prepare for yourself an exile's baggage, and go into exile by day in their sight; you shall go like an exile from your place to another place in their sight. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>4</sup> You shall bring out your baggage by day in their sight, as baggage for exile; and you shall go forth yourself at evening in their sight, as men do who must go into exile. <sup>5</sup> Dig through the wall in their sight, and go out through it. <sup>6</sup> In their sight you shall lift the baggage upon your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark; you shall cover your face, that you may not see the land; for I have made you a sign for the house of Israel."

<sup>7</sup> And I did as I was commanded. I brought out my baggage by day, as baggage for exile, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my own hands; I went forth in the dark, carrying my outfit upon my shoulder in their sight.

<sup>8</sup> In the morning the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> "Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?' <sup>10</sup> Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: This oracle concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are in it.' <sup>11</sup> Say, 'I am a sign for you: as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity.' <sup>12</sup> And the prince who is among them shall lift his baggage upon his shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth; he shall dig through the wall and go out through it; he shall cover his face, that he may not see the land with his eyes. <sup>13</sup> And I will spread my net over him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon in the land of the Chalde'ans, yet he shall not see it; and he shall die there. <sup>14</sup> And I will scatter toward every wind all who are round about him, his helpers and all his troops; and I will unsheathe the sword after them. <sup>15</sup> And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries. <sup>16</sup> But I will let a few of them escape from the sword, from famine and pestilence, that they may confess all their abominations among the nations where they go, and may know that I am the LORD."

<sup>21</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>22</sup> "Son of man, what is this proverb that you have about the land of Israel, saying, 'The days grow long, and every vision comes to nought'? <sup>23</sup> Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: I will put an end to this proverb<sup>39</sup>, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel.' But say to them, The days are at hand, and the fulfilment of every vision. <sup>24</sup> For there shall be no more any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel. <sup>25</sup> But I the LORD will speak the word which I will speak, and it will be performed. It will no longer be delayed, but in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word and perform it, says the Lord GOD."

<sup>26</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>27</sup> "Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, 'The vision that he sees is for many days hence, and he prophesies of times far off.' <sup>28</sup> Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: None of my words will be delayed any longer, but the word which I speak will be performed, says the Lord GOD."

<sup>8</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord God: "Because you have uttered delusions and seen lies, therefore behold, I am against you, says the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup> My hand will be against the prophets who see delusive visions and who give lying divinations; they shall not be in the council of my people, nor be enrolled in the register of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. <sup>10</sup> Because, yea, because they have misled my people, saying, 'Peace<sup>41</sup>,' when there is no peace; and because, when the people build a wall, these prophets daub it with whitewash; <sup>11</sup> say to those who daub it with whitewash that it shall fall! There will be a deluge of rain, great hailstones will fall, and a stormy wind break out; <sup>12</sup> and when the wall falls, will it not be said to you, 'Where is the daubing with which you daubed it?' <sup>13</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will make a stormy wind<sup>42</sup> break out in my wrath; and there shall be a deluge of rain in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to destroy it. <sup>14</sup> And I will break down the wall that you have daubed with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be laid bare; when it falls, you shall perish in the midst of it; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>15</sup> Thus will I spend my wrath upon the wall, and upon those who have daubed it with whitewash; and I will say to you, The wall is no more, nor those who daubed it, <sup>16</sup> the prophets of Israel who prophesied concerning Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for her, when there was no peace, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>20</sup> "Wherefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against your magic bands with which you hunt the souls, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls that you hunt go free like birds. <sup>21</sup> Your veils also I will tear off, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand as prey; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>22</sup> Because you have disheartened the righteous falsely, although I have not disheartened him, and you have encouraged the wicked, that he should not turn from his wicked way to save his life; <sup>23</sup> therefore you shall no more see delusive visions nor practice divination; I will deliver my people out of your hand. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

hearts, and set the stumbling block of their iniquity before their faces<sup>44</sup>; should I let myself be inquired of at all by them? <sup>4</sup> Therefore speak to them, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Any man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart and sets the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and yet comes to the prophet<sup>45</sup>, I the LORD will answer him myself because of the multitude of his idols, <sup>5</sup> that I may lay hold of the hearts of the house of Israel, who are all estranged from me through their idols.

<sup>6</sup> "Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Repent and turn away from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations<sup>46</sup>. <sup>7</sup> For any one of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, who separates himself from me, taking his idols into his heart and putting the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and yet comes to a prophet to inquire for himself of me, I the LORD will answer him myself; <sup>8</sup> and I will set my face against that man, I will make him a sign and a byword and cut him off from the midst of my people; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>9</sup> And if the prophet be deceived<sup>47</sup> and speak a word<sup>48</sup>, I, the LORD, have deceived that prophet<sup>49</sup>, and I will stretch out my hand against him, and will destroy him<sup>50</sup> from the midst of my people Israel. <sup>10</sup> And they shall bear their punishment-- the punishment of the prophet and the punishment of the enquirer shall be alike-- <sup>11</sup> that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, nor defile themselves any more with all their transgressions, but that they may be my people and I may be their God, says the Lord GOD."

15:<sup>1</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, how does the wood of the vine surpass any wood, the vine branch which is among the trees of the forest? <sup>3</sup> Is wood taken from it to make anything? Do men take a peg from it to hang any vessel on? <sup>4</sup> Lo, it is given to the fire for fuel<sup>51</sup>; when the fire has consumed both ends of it, and the middle of it is charred, is it useful for anything? <sup>5</sup> Behold, when it was whole, it was used for nothing; how much less, when the fire has consumed it and it is charred, can it ever be used for anything! <sup>6</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup> And I will set my face against them; though they escape from the fire, the fire shall yet consume them; and you will know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them. <sup>8</sup> And I will make the land desolate, because they have acted faithlessly, says the Lord GOD."

<sup>6</sup> "And when I passed by you, and saw you weltering in your blood, I said to you in your blood, 'Live, <sup>7</sup> and grow up like a plant of the field.' And you grew up and became tall and arrived at full maidenhood; your breasts were formed, and your hair had grown; yet you were naked and bare.

<sup>8</sup> "When I passed by you again and looked upon you, behold, you were at the age for love; and I spread my skirt<sup>52</sup> over you, and covered your nakedness<sup>53</sup>: yea, I plighted my troth to you and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord GOD, and you became mine. <sup>9</sup> Then I bathed you with water and washed off your blood from you, and anointed you with oil. <sup>10</sup> I clothed you also with embroidered cloth and shod you with leather, I swathed you in fine linen and covered you with silk. <sup>11</sup> And I decked you with ornaments, and put bracelets on your arms, and a chain on your neck. <sup>12</sup> And I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head. <sup>13</sup> Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered cloth; you ate fine flour and honey and oil. You grew exceedingly beautiful, and came to regal estate. <sup>14</sup> And your renown went forth among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through the splendour which I had bestowed upon you, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> "But you trusted in your beauty, and played the harlot because of your renown, and lavished your harlotries on any passer-by. <sup>16</sup> You took some of your garments, and made for yourself gaily decked shrines, and on them played the harlot; the like has never been, nor ever shall be. <sup>17</sup> You also took your fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and with them played the harlot; <sup>18</sup> and you took your embroidered garments to cover them, and set my oil and my incense before them. <sup>19</sup> Also my bread which I gave you-- I fed you with fine flour and oil and honey-- you set before them for a pleasing odour, says the Lord GOD. <sup>20</sup> And you took your sons and your daughters, whom you had borne to me, and these you sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your harlotries so small a matter <sup>21</sup> that you slaughtered my children and delivered them up as an offering by fire to them? <sup>22</sup> And in all your abominations and your harlotries you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, weltering in your blood.

<sup>23</sup> "And after all your wickedness (woe, woe to you! says the Lord GOD), <sup>24</sup> you built yourself a vaulted chamber, and made yourself a lofty place in every square; <sup>25</sup> at the head of every street you built your lofty place and prostituted your beauty, offering yourself to any passer-by, and multiplying your harlotry. <sup>26</sup> You also played the harlot with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbours, multiplying your harlotry, to provoke me to anger. <sup>27</sup> Behold, therefore, I stretched out my hand against you, and diminished your allotted portion, and delivered you to the greed of your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd behaviour. <sup>28</sup> You played the harlot also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yea, you played the harlot with them, and still you were not satisfied. <sup>29</sup> You multiplied your harlotry also with the trading land of Chaldea; and even with this you were not satisfied.

"Have you not committed lewdness in addition to all your abominations? <sup>44</sup> Behold, every one who uses proverbs will use this proverb about you, 'Like mother, like daughter.' <sup>45</sup> You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite. <sup>46</sup> And your elder sister is Sama'ria, who lived with her daughters to the north of you; and your younger sister, who lived to the south of you, is Sodom with her daughters. <sup>47</sup> Yet you were not content to walk in their ways, or do according to their abominations; within a very little time you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. <sup>48</sup> As I live, says the Lord GOD, your sister Sodom and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done. <sup>49</sup> Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had 1) pride, 2) surfeit<sup>54</sup> of food<sup>55</sup>, and 3) prosperous<sup>56</sup> ease, but 4) did not aid the poor and needy<sup>57</sup>. <sup>50</sup> They were haughty, and did abominable things before me; therefore I removed them, when I saw it. <sup>51</sup> Sama'ria has not committed half your sins; you have committed more abominations than they, and have made your sisters appear righteous by all the abominations which you have committed. <sup>52</sup> Bear your disgrace, you also, for you have made judgement favourable to your sisters; because of your sins in which you acted more abominably than they, they are more in the right than you. So be ashamed, you also, and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous.

<sup>53</sup> "I will restore their fortunes, both the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and the fortunes of Sama'ria and her daughters, and I will restore your own fortunes in the midst of them, <sup>54</sup> that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all that you have done, becoming a consolation to them. <sup>55</sup> As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters shall return to their former estate, and Sama'ria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate. <sup>56</sup> Was not your sister Sodom a byword in your mouth in the day of your pride, <sup>57</sup> before your wickedness was uncovered? Now you have become like her an object of reproach for the daughters of Edom and all her neighbours, and for the daughters of the Philistines, those round about who despise you. <sup>58</sup> You bear the penalty of your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD.

<sup>59</sup> "Yea, thus says the Lord GOD: I will deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant, <sup>60</sup> yet I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish with you an everlasting covenant. <sup>61</sup> Then you will remember your ways, and be ashamed when I take your sisters, both your elder and your younger, and give them to you as daughters, but not on account of the covenant with you. <sup>62</sup> I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the LORD, <sup>63</sup> that you may remember and be confounded, and never open your mouth again because of your shame, when I forgive you all that you have done, says the Lord GOD."

wings and long pinions, rich in plumage of many colours, came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar; <sup>4</sup> he broke off the topmost of its young twigs and carried it to a land of trade, and set it in a city of merchants. <sup>5</sup> Then he took of the seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil; he placed it beside abundant waters. He set it like a willow twig, <sup>6</sup> and it sprouted and became a low spreading vine, and its branches turned toward him, and its roots remained where it stood. So it became a vine, and brought forth branches and put forth foliage.

<sup>7</sup> "But there was another great eagle with great wings and much plumage; and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him that he might water it. From the bed where it was planted <sup>8</sup> he transplanted it to good soil by abundant waters, that it might bring forth branches, and bear fruit, and become a noble vine. <sup>9</sup> Say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Will it thrive? Will he not pull up its roots and cut off its branches, so that all its fresh sprouting leaves wither? It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it from its roots. <sup>10</sup> Behold, when it is transplanted, will it thrive? Will it not utterly wither when the east wind strikes it-- wither away on the bed where it grew?"

<sup>11</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>12</sup> "Say now to the rebellious house, Do you not know what these things mean? Tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took her king and her princes and brought them to him to Babylon. <sup>13</sup> And he took one of the seed royal and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. (The chief men of the land he had taken away, <sup>14</sup> that the kingdom might be humble and not lift itself up, and that by keeping his covenant it might stand.) <sup>15</sup> But he rebelled against him by sending ambassadors to Egypt, that they might give him horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Can a man escape who does such things? Can he break the covenant and yet escape? <sup>16</sup> As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant with him he broke, in Babylon he shall die. <sup>17</sup> Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not help him in war, when mounds are cast up and siege walls built to cut off many lives. <sup>18</sup> Because he despised the oath and broke the covenant, because he gave his hand and yet did all these things, he shall not escape. <sup>19</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely my oath which he despised, and my covenant which he broke, I will requite upon his head. <sup>20</sup> I will spread my net over him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon and enter into judgement with him there for the treason he has committed against me. <sup>21</sup> And all the pick of his troops shall fall by the sword, and the survivors shall be scattered to every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken."

abomination, <sup>13</sup> lends at interest, and takes increase; shall he then live? He shall not live. He has done all these abominable things; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon himself.

<sup>19</sup> "Yet you say, 'Why should not the son suffer for the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done what is lawful and right, and has been careful to observe all my statutes, he shall surely live. <sup>20</sup> The soul that sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself.

<sup>22</sup> None of the transgressions which he has committed shall be remembered against him; for the righteousness which he has done he shall live. <sup>23</sup> Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, says the Lord GOD, and not rather that he should turn from his way and live? <sup>24</sup> But when a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and does the same abominable things that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of the righteous deeds which he has done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which he is guilty and the sin he has committed, he shall die.

<sup>25</sup> "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way not just? Is it not your ways that are not just? <sup>26</sup> When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall die for it; for the iniquity which he has committed he shall die. <sup>27</sup> Again, when a wicked man turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is lawful and right, he shall save his life. <sup>28</sup> Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions which he had committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>29</sup> Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' O house of Israel, are my ways not just? Is it not your ways that are not just?

<sup>30</sup> "Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin.

<sup>31</sup> Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed against me, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? <sup>32</sup> For I have no pleasure in the death of any one, says the Lord GOD; so turn, and live."

19:<sup>1</sup> And you, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, <sup>2</sup> and say:

What a lioness was your mother among lions!

She couched in the midst of young lions, rearing her whelps.

<sup>3</sup> And she brought up one of her whelps;
he became a young lion, and he learned to catch prey;
he devoured men.

<sup>4</sup> The nations sounded an alarm against him;
he was taken in their pit;
and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> When she saw that she was baffled,
that her hope was lost,
she took another of her whelps and made him a young lion.

<sup>6</sup> He prowled among the lions;
he became a young lion, and he learned to catch prey;
he devoured men.

<sup>7</sup> And he ravaged their strongholds,
and laid waste their cities;
and the land was appalled
and all who were in it at the sound of his roaring.

<sup>8</sup> Then the nations set against him snares on every side;
they spread their net over him;
he was taken in their pit.

<sup>9</sup> With hooks they put him in a cage,

and brought him to the king of Babylon;
they brought him into custody,
that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

<sup>10</sup> Your mother was like a vine in a vineyard transplanted by the water, fruitful and full of branches by reason of abundant water.

<sup>11</sup> Its strongest stem became a ruler's sceptre;
it towered aloft among the thick boughs;
it was seen in its height with the mass of its branches.

<sup>12</sup> But the vine was plucked up in fury, cast down to the ground;
the east wind dried it up;
its fruit was stripped off, its strong stem was withered;
the fire consumed it.

<sup>13</sup> Now it is transplanted in the wilderness,
in a dry and thirsty land.

<sup>14</sup> And fire has gone out from its stem,
has consumed its branches and fruit,
so that there remains in it no strong stem,
no sceptre for a ruler.

This is a lamentation, and has become a lamentation.

20:<sup>1</sup> In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me. <sup>2</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>3</sup> "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD, Is it to inquire of me that you come? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you. <sup>4</sup> Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Then let them know the abominations of their fathers, <sup>5</sup> and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day when I chose Israel, I swore to the seed of the house of Jacob, making myself known to them in the land of Egypt, I swore to them, saying, I am the LORD your God. <sup>6</sup> On that day I swore to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands. <sup>7</sup> And I said to them, Cast away the detestable things your eyes feast on, every one of you, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup> But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me; they did not every man cast away the detestable things their eyes feasted on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt.

"Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them and spend my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> But I acted for the sake of my name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations among whom they dwelt, in whose sight I made myself known to them in bringing them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup> So I led them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup> I gave them my statutes and showed them my ordinances, by whose observance man shall live. <sup>12</sup> Moreover I gave them my sabbaths, as a sign between me and them, that they might know that I the LORD sanctify them. <sup>13</sup> But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness; they did not walk in my statutes but rejected my ordinances, by whose observance man shall live; and my sabbaths they greatly profaned.

"Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness, to make a full end of them. <sup>14</sup> But I acted for the sake of my name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out. <sup>15</sup> Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands, <sup>16</sup> because they rejected my ordinances and did not walk in my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols. <sup>17</sup> Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I did not destroy them or make a full end of them in the wilderness.

were not careful to observe my ordinances, by whose observance man shall live; they profaned my sabbaths.

"Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them and spend my anger against them in the wilderness. <sup>22</sup> But I withheld my hand, and acted for the sake of my name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out. <sup>23</sup> Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the countries, <sup>24</sup> because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes and profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were set on their fathers' idols. <sup>25</sup> Moreover I gave them statutes that were not good<sup>59</sup> and ordinances by which they could not have life; <sup>26</sup> and I defiled them through their very gifts in making them offer by fire all their first-born<sup>60</sup>, that I might horrify them; I did it that they might know that I am the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: In this again your fathers blasphemed me, by dealing treacherously with me. <sup>28</sup> For when I had brought them into the land which I swore to give them, then wherever they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices and presented the provocation of their offering; there they sent up their soothing odours, and there they poured out their drink offerings. <sup>29</sup> (I said to them, What is the high place to which you go? So its name is called Bamah to this day.) <sup>30</sup> Wherefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Will you defile yourselves after the manner of your fathers and go astray after their detestable things? <sup>31</sup> When you offer your gifts and sacrifice your sons by fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you.

<sup>33</sup> "As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you. <sup>34</sup> I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out; <sup>35</sup> and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgement with you face to face. <sup>36</sup> As I entered into judgement with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgement with you, says the Lord GOD. <sup>37</sup> I will make you pass under the rod, and I will let you go in by number. <sup>38</sup> I will purge out the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against me; I will bring them out of the land where they sojourn, but they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> "As for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: Go serve every one of you his idols, now and hereafter, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts and your idols.

<sup>40</sup> "For on my holy mountain, the mountain height of Israel, says the Lord GOD, there all the house of Israel, all of them, shall serve me in the land; there I will accept them, and there I will require your contributions and the choicest of your gifts, with all your sacred offerings. <sup>41</sup> As a pleasing odour I will accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered; and I will manifest my holiness among you in the sight of the nations. <sup>42</sup> And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the country which I swore to give to your fathers. <sup>43</sup> And there you shall remember your ways and all the doings with which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves for all the evils that you have committed. <sup>44</sup> And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel, says the Lord GOD."

21: The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel <sup>3</sup> and say to the land of Israel, Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am against you, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you both righteous and wicked. <sup>4</sup> Because I will cut off from you both righteous and wicked, therefore my sword shall go out of its sheath against all flesh from south to north; <sup>5</sup> and all flesh shall know that I the LORD have drawn my sword out of its sheath; it shall not be sheathed again. <sup>6</sup> Sigh therefore, son of man; sigh with breaking heart and bitter grief before their eyes. <sup>7</sup> And when they say to you, 'Why do you sigh?' you shall say, 'Because of the tidings. When it comes, every heart will melt and all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it comes and it will be fulfilled,'" says the Lord GOD.

<sup>8</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> "Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord, Say:

A sword, a sword is sharpened and also polished,

Or do we make mirth? You have despised the rod, my son, with everything of wood. <sup>11</sup> So the sword is given to be polished, that it may be handled; it is sharpened and polished to be given into the hand of the slayer. <sup>12</sup> Cry and wail, son of man, for it is against my people; it is against all the princes of Israel; they are delivered over to the sword with my people. Smite therefore upon your thigh. <sup>13</sup> For it will not be a testing-- what could it do if you despise the rod?" says the Lord GOD.

<sup>24</sup> "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have made your guilt to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear-- because you have come to remembrance, you shall be taken in them. <sup>25</sup> And you, O unhallowed wicked one, prince of Israel, whose day has come, the time of your final punishment, <sup>26</sup> thus says the Lord GOD: Remove the turban, and take off the crown; things shall not remain as they are; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high. <sup>27</sup> A ruin, ruin, ruin I will make it; there shall not be even a trace of it until he comes whose right it is; and to him I will give it.

<sup>28</sup> "And you, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; say, A sword, a sword is drawn for the slaughter, it is polished to glitter and to flash like lightning-- <sup>29</sup> while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies for you-- to be laid on the necks of the unhallowed wicked, whose day has come, the time of their final punishment. <sup>30</sup> Return it to its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you. <sup>31</sup> And I will pour out my indignation upon you; I will blow upon you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hands of brutal men, skilful to destroy. <sup>32</sup> You shall be fuel for the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be no more remembered; for I the LORD have spoken."

22: Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "And you, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then declare to her all her abominable deeds. <sup>3</sup> You shall say, Thus says the Lord GOD: A city that sheds blood in the midst of her, that her time may come, and that makes idols to defile herself! <sup>4</sup> You have become guilty by the blood which you have shed, and defiled by the idols which you have made; and you have brought your day near, the appointed time of your years has come. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. <sup>5</sup> Those who are near and those who are far from you will mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult.

<sup>6</sup> "Behold, the princes of Israel in you, every one according to his power, have been bent on shedding blood. <sup>7</sup> Father and mother are treated with contempt in you; the sojourner suffers extortion in your midst; the fatherless and the widow are wronged in you. <sup>8</sup> You have despised my holy things, and profaned my sabbaths. <sup>9</sup> There are men in you who slander to shed blood, and men in you who eat upon the mountains; men commit lewdness in your midst. <sup>10</sup> In you men uncover their fathers' nakedness; in you they humble women who are unclean in their impurity. <sup>11</sup> One commits abomination with his neighbour's wife; another lewdly defiles his daughter-in-law; another in you defiles his sister, his father's daughter. <sup>12</sup> In you men take bribes to shed blood; you take interest and increase and make gain of your neighbours by extortion; and you have forgotten me, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>13</sup> "Behold, therefore, I strike my hands together at the dishonest gain which you have made, and at the blood which has been in the midst of you. <sup>14</sup> Can your courage endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it. <sup>15</sup> I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the countries, and I will consume your filthiness out of you. <sup>16</sup> And I shall be profaned through you in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am the LORD."

<sup>17</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> "Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me; all of them, silver and bronze and tin and iron and lead in the furnace, have become dross. <sup>19</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup> As men gather silver and bronze and iron and lead and tin into a furnace, to blow the fire upon it in order to melt it; so I will gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will put you in and melt you. <sup>21</sup> I will gather you and blow upon you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in the midst of it. <sup>22</sup> As silver is melted in a furnace, so you shall be melted in the midst of it; and you shall know that I the LORD have poured out my wrath upon you."

the Assyrians, upon whom she doted. <sup>10</sup> These uncovered her nakedness; they seized her sons and her daughters; and her they slew with the sword; and she became a byword among women, when judgement had been executed upon her.

<sup>11</sup> "Her sister Ohol'ibah saw this, yet she was more corrupt than she in her doting and in her harlotry, which was worse than that of her sister. <sup>12</sup> She doted upon the Assyrians, governors and commanders, warriors clothed in full armour, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. <sup>13</sup> And I saw that she was defiled; they both took the same way. <sup>14</sup> But she carried her harlotry further; she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chalde'ans portrayed in vermilion, <sup>15</sup> girded with belts on their loins, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like officers, a picture of Babylonians whose native land was Chalde'a. <sup>16</sup> When she saw them she doted upon them, and sent messengers to them in Chalde'a. <sup>17</sup> And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their lust; and after she was polluted by them, she turned from them in disgust. <sup>18</sup> When she carried on her harlotry so openly and flaunted her nakedness, I turned in disgust from her, as I had turned from her sister. <sup>19</sup> Yet she increased her harlotry, remembering the days of her youth, when she played the harlot in the land of Egypt <sup>20</sup> and doted upon her paramours there, whose members were like those of asses, and whose issue was like that of horses. <sup>21</sup> Thus you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when the Egyptians handled your bosom and pressed your young breasts."

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, O Ohol'ibah, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will rouse against you your lovers from whom you turned in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side: <sup>23</sup> the Babylonians and all the Chalde'ans, Pekod and Sho'a and Ko'a, and all the Assyrians with them, desirable young men, governors and commanders all of them, officers and warriors, all of them riding on horses. <sup>24</sup> And they shall come against you from the north with chariots and wagons and a host of peoples; they shall set themselves against you on every side with buckler, shield, and helmet, and I will commit the judgement to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgements. <sup>25</sup> And I will direct my indignation against you, that they may deal with you in fury. They shall cut off your nose and your ears, and your survivors shall fall by the sword. They shall seize your sons and your daughters, and your survivors shall be devoured by fire. <sup>26</sup> They shall also strip you of your clothes and take away your fine jewels. <sup>27</sup> Thus I will put an end to your lewdness and your harlotry brought from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to the Egyptians or remember them any more. <sup>28</sup> For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will deliver you into the hands of those whom you hate, into the hands of those from whom you turned in disgust; <sup>29</sup> and they shall deal with you in hatred, and take away all the fruit of your labour, and leave you naked and bare, and the nakedness of your harlotry shall be uncovered. Your lewdness and your harlotry <sup>30</sup> have brought this upon you, because you played the harlot with the nations, and polluted yourself with their idols. <sup>31</sup> You have gone the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand. <sup>32</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD:

"You shall drink your sister's cup which is deep and large;
you shall be laughed at and held in derision, for it contains much;
<sup>33</sup> you will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow.
A cup of horror and desolation, is the cup of your sister Sama'ria;
<sup>34</sup> you shall drink it and drain it out, and pluck out your hair,
and tear your breasts;

for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD. <sup>35</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have forgotten me and cast me behind your back, therefore bear the consequences of your lewdness and harlotry."

<sup>36</sup> The LORD said to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oho'lah and Ohol'ibah? Then declare to them their abominable deeds. <sup>37</sup> For they have committed adultery, and blood is upon their hands; with their idols they have committed adultery; and they have even offered up to them for food the sons whom they had borne to me. <sup>38</sup> Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary on the same day and profaned my sabbaths. <sup>39</sup> For when they had slaughtered their children in sacrifice to their idols, on the same day they came into my sanctuary to profane it. And lo, this is what they did in my house. <sup>40</sup> They even sent for men to come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and lo, they came. For them you bathed yourself, painted your eyes, and decked yourself with ornaments; <sup>41</sup> you sat upon a stately couch, with a table spread before it on which you had placed my incense and my oil. <sup>42</sup> The sound of a carefree multitude was with her; and with men of the common sort drunkards were brought from the wilderness; and they put bracelets upon the hands of the women, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

<sup>43</sup> "Then I said, Do not men now commit adultery when they practice harlotry with her? <sup>44</sup> For they have gone in to her, as men go in to a harlot. Thus they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah to commit lewdness. <sup>45</sup> But righteous men shall pass judgement on them with the sentence of adulteresses, and with the sentence of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is upon their hands."

Start of siege of Jerusalem

24:<sup>1</sup> In the ninth year, in the tenth month, 24, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, write down the name of this day, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day. <sup>3</sup> And utter an allegory to the rebellious house and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD:

Set on the pot, set it on, pour in water also;

<sup>4</sup> put in it the pieces of flesh,

all the good pieces, the thigh and the shoulder;

fill it with choice bones.

boil its pieces, seethe also its bones in it.

Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. <sup>10</sup> Heap on the logs, kindle the fire, boil well the flesh, and empty out the broth, and let the bones be burned up. <sup>11</sup> Then set it empty upon the coals, that it may become hot, and its copper may burn, that its filthiness may be melted in it, its rust consumed. <sup>12</sup> In vain I have wearied myself; its thick rust does not go out of it by fire. <sup>13</sup> Its rust is your filthy lewdness.

Because I would have cleansed you and you were not cleansed from your filthiness, you shall not be cleansed any more till I have satisfied my fury upon you. <sup>14</sup> I the LORD have spoken; it shall come to pass, I will do it; I will not go back, I will not spare, I will not repent; according to your ways and your doings I will judge you, says the Lord GOD."

<sup>15</sup> Also the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>16</sup> "Son of man, behold, I am about to take the delight of your eyes away from you at a stroke; yet you shall not mourn or weep nor shall your tears run down. <sup>17</sup> Sigh, but not aloud; make no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban, and put your shoes on your feet; do not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of mourners." <sup>18</sup> So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died. And on the next morning I did as I was commanded.

<sup>19</sup> And the people said to me, "Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are acting thus?" <sup>20</sup> Then I said to them, "The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>21</sup> 'Say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the desire of your soul; and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword. <sup>22</sup> And you shall do as I have done; you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of mourners. <sup>23</sup> Your turbans shall be on your heads and your shoes on your feet; you shall not mourn or weep, but you shall pine away in your iniquities and groan to one another. <sup>24</sup> Thus shall Ezekiel be to you a sign; according to all that he has done you shall do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.'

<sup>25</sup> "And you, son of man, on the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes and their heart's desire, and also their sons and daughters, <sup>26</sup> on that day a fugitive will come to you to report to you the news. <sup>27</sup> On that day your mouth will be opened to the fugitive, and you shall speak and be no longer dumb. So you will be a sign to them; and they will know that I am the LORD."

Prophecies against other nations (Ezek 25-32)

25:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, set your face toward the Ammonites, and prophesy against them. <sup>3</sup> Say to the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD, Because you said, 'Aha!' over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and over the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and over the house of Judah when it went into exile; <sup>4</sup> therefore I am handing you over to the people of the East for a possession, and they shall set their encampments among you and make their dwellings in your midst; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. <sup>5</sup> I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and the cities of the Ammonites a fold for flocks. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>6</sup> For thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet and rejoiced with all the malice within you against the land of Israel, <sup>7</sup> therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand against you, and will hand you over as spoil to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples and will make you perish out of the countries; I will destroy you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Moab said, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the other nations, <sup>9</sup> therefore I will lay open the flank of Moab from the cities on its frontier, the glory of the country, Beth-jesh'emoth, Ba'al-me'on, and Kiriatha'im. <sup>10</sup> I will give it along with the Ammonites to the people of the East as a possession, that it may be remembered no more among the nations, <sup>11</sup> and I will execute judgements upon Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Edom acted revengefully against the house of Judah and has grievously offended in taking vengeance upon them, <sup>13</sup> therefore thus says the Lord GOD, I will stretch out my hand against Edom, and cut off from it man and beast; and I will make it desolate; from Teman even to Dedan they shall fall by the sword. <sup>14</sup> And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the Philistines acted revengefully and took vengeance with malice of heart to destroy in never-ending enmity; <sup>16</sup> therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I will stretch out my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cher'ethites, and destroy the rest of the seacoast<sup>64</sup>. <sup>17</sup> I will execute great vengeance upon them with wrathful chastisements. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I lay my vengeance upon them."

26:<sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, because Tyre said concerning Jerusalem, 'Aha, the gate of the peoples is broken, it has swung open to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste,' <sup>3</sup> therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will bring up many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves. <sup>4</sup> They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers; and I will scrape her soil from her, and make her a bare rock. <sup>5</sup> She shall be in the midst of the sea a place for the spreading of nets; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD; and she shall become a spoil to the nations; <sup>6</sup> and her daughters on the mainland shall be slain by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> "For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will bring upon Tyre from the north Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses and chariots, and with horsemen and a host of many soldiers. <sup>8</sup> He will slay with the sword your daughters on the mainland; he will set up a siege wall against you, and throw up a mound against you, and raise a roof of shields against you. <sup>9</sup> He will direct the shock of his battering rams against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers. <sup>10</sup> His horses will be so many that their dust will cover you; your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen and wagons and chariots, when he enters your gates as one enters a city which has been breached. <sup>11</sup> With the hoofs of his horses he will trample all your streets; he will slay your people with the sword; and your mighty pillars will fall to the ground. <sup>12</sup> They will make a spoil of your riches and a prey of your merchandise; they will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses; your stones and timber and soil they will cast into the midst of the waters. <sup>13</sup> And I will stop the music of your songs, and the sound of your lyres shall be heard no more. <sup>14</sup> I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall never be rebuilt; for I the LORD have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: Will not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when slaughter is made in the midst of you? <sup>16</sup> Then all the princes of the sea will step down from their thrones, and remove their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments; they will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit upon the ground and tremble every moment, and be appalled at you. <sup>17</sup> And they will raise a lamentation over you, and say to you,

How you have vanished from the seas, O city renowned,
that was mighty on the sea, you and your inhabitants,
who imposed your terror on all the mainland!

<sup>18</sup> Now the isles tremble on the day of your fall;
yea, the isles that are in the sea are dismayed at your passing.'

<sup>19</sup> "For thus says the Lord GOD: When I make you a city laid waste, like the cities that are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you, and the great waters cover you, <sup>20</sup> then I will thrust you down with those who descend into the Pit, to the people of old, and I will make you to dwell in the nether world, among primeval ruins, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you will not be inhabited or have a place in the land of the living. <sup>21</sup> I will bring you to a dreadful end, and you shall be no more; though you be sought for, you will never be found again, says the Lord GOD."

27:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Now you, son of man, raise a lamentation over Tyre, <sup>3</sup> and say to Tyre, who dwells at the entrance to the sea, merchant of the peoples on many coastlands, thus says the Lord GOD:

"O Tyre, you have said, 'I am perfect in beauty.'

<sup>4</sup> Your borders are in the heart of the seas;
your builders made perfect your beauty.

<sup>5</sup> They made all your planks of fir trees from Senir;
they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

<sup>6</sup> Of oaks of Bashan they made your oars;
they made your deck of pines from the coasts of Cyprus, inlaid with ivory.

<sup>7</sup> Of fine embroidered linen from Egypt was your sail, serving as your ensign;
blue and purple from the coasts of Eli'shah was your awning.

<sup>8</sup> The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers;
skilled men of Zemer were in you, they were your pilots.

<sup>9</sup> The elders of Gebal and her skilled men were in you, caulking your seams;
all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you,
to barter for your wares.

<sup>10</sup> "Persia and Lud and Put were in your army as your men of war; they hung the shield and helmet in you; they gave you splendour. <sup>11</sup> The men of Arvad and Helech were upon your walls round about, and men of Gamad were in your towers; they hung their shields upon your walls round about; they made perfect your beauty.

<sup>12</sup> "Tarshish trafficked with you because of your great wealth of every kind; silver, iron, tin, and lead they exchanged for your wares. <sup>13</sup> Javan, Tubal, and Meshech traded with you; they exchanged the persons of men and vessels of bronze for your merchandise. <sup>14</sup> Beth-togar'mah exchanged for your wares horses, war horses, and mules. <sup>15</sup> The men of Rhodes traded with you; many coastlands were your own special markets, they brought you in payment ivory tusks and ebony. <sup>16</sup> Edom trafficked with you because of your abundant goods; they exchanged for your wares emeralds, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and agate. <sup>17</sup> Judah and the land of Israel traded with you; they exchanged for your merchandise wheat, olives and early figs, honey, oil, and balm. <sup>18</sup> Damascus trafficked with you for your abundant goods, because of your great wealth of every kind; wine of Helbon, and white wool, <sup>19</sup> and wine from Uzal they exchanged for your wares; wrought iron, cassia, and calamus were bartered for your merchandise. <sup>20</sup> Dedan traded with you in saddlecloths for riding. <sup>21</sup> Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your favoured dealers in lambs, rams, and goats; in these they trafficked with you. <sup>22</sup> The traders of Sheba and Ra'amah traded with you; they exchanged for your wares the best of all kinds of spices, and all precious stones, and gold. <sup>23</sup> Haran, Canneh, Eden, Asshur, and Chilmad traded with you. <sup>24</sup> These traded with you in choice garments, in clothes of blue and embroidered work, and in carpets of coloured stuff, bound with cords and made secure; in these they traded with you. <sup>25</sup> The ships of Tarshish travelled for you with your merchandise.

"So you were filled and heavily laden in the heart of the seas.

<sup>26</sup> Your rowers have brought you out into the high seas.
The east wind has wrecked you in the heart of the seas.

<sup>27</sup> Your riches, your wares, your merchandise, your mariners and your pilots,
your caulkers, your dealers in merchandise,
and all your men of war who are in you,
with all your company that is in your midst,
sink into the heart of the seas on the day of your ruin.

<sup>28</sup> At the sound of the cry of your pilots
the countryside shakes,

<sup>29</sup> and down from their ships come all that handle the oar.
The mariners and all the pilots of the sea stand on the shore <sup>30</sup> and wail aloud over you, and cry bitterly.

They cast dust on their heads and wallow in ashes;

<sup>31</sup> they make themselves bald for you,
and gird themselves with sackcloth,
and they weep over you in bitterness of soul, with bitter mourning.

<sup>32</sup> In their wailing they raise a lamentation for you,
and lament over you:

`Who was ever destroyed like Tyre in the midst of the sea?

<sup>33</sup> When your wares came from the seas,
you satisfied many peoples;
with your abundant wealth and merchandise
you enriched the kings of the earth.

<sup>34</sup> Now you are wrecked by the seas,
in the depths of the waters;
your merchandise and all your crew have sunk with you.

<sup>35</sup> All the inhabitants of the coastlands are appalled at you;
and their kings are horribly afraid, their faces are convulsed.

<sup>36</sup> The merchants among the peoples hiss at you;
you have come to a dreadful end and shall be no more for ever."

28:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because your heart is proud,
and you have said,

`I am a god, I sit in the seat of the gods,
in the heart of the seas,'

yet you are but a man, and no god, though you consider yourself as wise as a god<sup>65</sup>--

<sup>3</sup> you are indeed wiser than Daniel;
no secret is hidden from you;

<sup>4</sup> by your wisdom and your understanding
you have gotten wealth for yourself,
and have gathered gold and silver into your treasuries;

<sup>5</sup> by your great wisdom in trade you have increased your wealth, and your heart has become proud in your wealth--

<sup>6</sup> therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because you consider yourself as wise as a god,

<sup>7</sup> therefore, behold, I will bring strangers upon you,
the most terrible of the nations;

and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and defile your splendour.

<sup>8</sup> They shall thrust you down into the Pit, and you shall die the death of the slain in the heart of the seas<sup>66</sup>.

---

<sup>9</sup> Will you still say, 'I am a god,' in the presence of those who slay you,
though you are but a man, and no god,
in the hands of those who wound you?
<sup>10</sup> You shall die the death of the uncircumcised
by the hand of foreigners;
for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD."

<sup>11</sup> Moreover the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>12</sup> "Son of man, raise a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus says the Lord GOD:

"You were the signet of perfection,
full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
<sup>13</sup> You were in Eden, the garden of God;
every precious stone was your covering,
carnelian, topaz, and jasper, chrysolite, beryl,
and onyx, sapphire, carbuncle, and emerald;
and wrought in gold were your settings and your engravings.
On the day that you were created they were prepared.

<sup>14</sup> With an anointed guardian cherub I placed you;
you were on the holy mountain of God;
in the midst of the stones of fire you walked.

<sup>15</sup> You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created, till iniquity was found in you.

<sup>16</sup> In the abundance of your trade
you were filled with violence, and you sinned;
so I cast you as a profane thing from the mountain of God,
and the guardian cherub drove you out from the midst of the stones of fire.

<sup>17</sup> Your heart was proud because of your beauty;
you corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendour.
I cast you to the ground;
I exposed you before kings, to feast their eyes on you.

<sup>18</sup> By the multitude of your iniquities,
in the unrighteousness of your trade you profaned your sanctuaries;
so I brought forth fire from the midst of you;
it consumed you,
and I turned you to ashes upon the earth
in the sight of all who saw you.

<sup>19</sup> All who know you among the peoples are appalled at you;
you have come to a dreadful end and shall be no more for ever."

<sup>20</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>21</sup> "Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against her <sup>22</sup> and say, Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, I am against you, O Sidon, and I will manifest my glory in the midst of you.
And they shall know that I am the LORD
when I execute judgements in her, and manifest my holiness in her; <sup>23</sup> for I will send pestilence into her,
and blood into her streets;
and the slain shall fall in the midst of her,
by the sword that is against her on every side.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> "And for the house of Israel there shall be no more a brier to prick or a thorn to hurt them among all their neighbours who have treated them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.

<sup>25</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and manifest my holiness in them in the sight of the nations, then they shall dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup> And they shall dwell securely in it, and they shall build houses and plant vineyards. They shall dwell securely, when I execute judgements upon all their neighbours who have treated them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God."

29:<sup>1</sup> In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt; <sup>3</sup> speak, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt,
the great dragon that lies in the midst of his streams,
that says, 'My Nile is my own; I made it.'

<sup>4</sup> I will put hooks in your jaws, and make the fish of your streams stick to your scales;
and I will draw you up out of the midst of your streams,
with all the fish of your streams which stick to your scales.

<sup>5</sup> And I will cast you forth into the wilderness,
you and all the fish of your streams;
you shall fall upon the open field,
and not be gathered and buried.

To the beasts of the earth and to the birds of the air
I have given you as food.

<sup>6</sup> "Then all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD. Because you have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel; <sup>7</sup> when they grasped you with the hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned upon you, you broke, and made all their loins to shake; <sup>8</sup> therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will bring a sword upon you, and will cut off from you man and beast; <sup>9</sup> and the land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

"Because you said, 'The Nile is mine, and I made it,' <sup>10</sup> therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia. <sup>11</sup> No foot of man shall pass through it, and no foot of beast shall pass through it; it shall be uninhabited forty years. <sup>12</sup> And I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of desolated countries; and her cities shall be a desolation forty years among cities that are laid waste. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries.

<sup>13</sup> "For thus says the Lord GOD: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered; <sup>14</sup> and I will restore the fortunes of Egypt, and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin; and there they shall be a lowly kingdom. <sup>15</sup> It shall be the most lowly of the kingdoms, and never again exalt itself above the nations; and I will make them so small that they will never again rule over the nations. <sup>16</sup> And it shall never again be the reliance of the house of Israel, recalling their iniquity, when they turn to them for aid. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD."

<sup>17</sup> In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> "Son of man, Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon made his army labour hard against Tyre; every head was made bald and every shoulder was rubbed bare; yet neither he nor his army got anything from Tyre to pay for the labour that he had performed against it. <sup>19</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off its wealth and despoil it and plunder it; and it shall be the wages for his army. <sup>20</sup> I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he laboured, because they worked for me, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup> "On that day I will cause a horn to spring forth to the house of Israel, and I will open your lips among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

30:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Wail, 'Alas for the day!'

<sup>3</sup> For the day is near, the day of the LORD is near;
it will be a day of clouds, a time of doom for the nations.

<sup>4</sup> A sword shall come upon Egypt,
and anguish shall be in Ethiopia,
when the slain fall in Egypt,
and her wealth is carried away,
and her foundations are torn down.

<sup>5</sup> Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all Arabia, and Libya, and the people of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

<sup>6</sup> "Thus says the LORD:

Those who support Egypt shall fall,
and her proud might shall come down;
from Migdol to Syene they shall fall within her by the sword,
says the Lord GOD.

<sup>7</sup> And she shall be desolated in the midst of desolated countries and her cities shall be in the midst of cities that are laid waste.

<sup>8</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have set fire to Egypt, and all her helpers are broken.

<sup>9</sup> "On that day swift messengers shall go forth from me to terrify the unsuspecting Ethiopians; and anguish shall come upon them on the day of Egypt's doom; for, lo, it comes!

<sup>10</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD:
I will put an end to the wealth of Egypt,
by the hand of Nebuchadrez'zar king of Babylon.

<sup>11</sup> He and his people with him, the most terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land;
and they shall draw their swords against Egypt,
and fill the land with the slain.

<sup>12</sup> And I will dry up the Nile,
and will sell the land into the hand of evil men;
I will bring desolation upon the land and everything in it,
by the hand of foreigners;
I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>13</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD:
I will destroy the idols,
and put an end to the images, in Memphis;
there shall no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt;
so I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup> I will make Pathros a desolation,
and will set fire to Zo'an,
and will execute acts of judgement upon Thebes.

<sup>15</sup> And I will pour my wrath upon Pelusium,
the stronghold of Egypt,
and cut off the multitude of Thebes.

<sup>16</sup> And I will set fire to Egypt;
Pelusium shall be in great agony;
Thebes shall be breached,
and its walls broken down.

<sup>17</sup> The young men of On and of Pibe'seth shall fall by the sword;
and the women shall go into captivity.

<sup>18</sup> At Tehaph'nehes the day shall be dark,
when I break there the dominion of Egypt,
and her proud might shall come to an end;
she shall be covered by a cloud,
and her daughters shall go into captivity.

Then they will know that I am the LORD."

<sup>20</sup> In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>21</sup> "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and lo, it has not been bound up, to heal it by binding it with a bandage, so that it may become strong to wield the sword. <sup>22</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, both the strong arm and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall from his hand. <sup>23</sup> I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the lands. <sup>24</sup> And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand; but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him like a man mortally wounded. <sup>25</sup> I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall; and they shall know that I am the LORD. When I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, he shall stretch it out against the land of Egypt; <sup>26</sup> and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

31:<sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

"Whom are you like in your greatness?

<sup>5</sup> So it towered high above all the trees of the forest; its boughs grew large and its branches long, from abundant water in its shoots.

<sup>7</sup> It was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its roots went down to abundant waters.

<sup>8</sup> The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it, nor the fir trees equal its boughs; the plane trees were as nothing compared with its branches; no tree in the garden of God was like it in beauty.

<sup>9</sup> I made it beautiful in the mass of its branches, and all the trees of Eden envied it, that were in the garden of God.

<sup>10</sup> "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because it towered high and set its top among the clouds, and its heart was proud of its height, <sup>11</sup> I will give it into the hand of a mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with it as its wickedness deserves. I have cast it out. <sup>12</sup> Foreigners, the most terrible of the nations, will cut it down and leave it. On the mountains and in all the valleys its branches will fall, and its boughs will lie broken in all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth will go from its shadow and leave it. <sup>13</sup> Upon its ruin will dwell all the birds of the air, and upon its branches will be all the beasts of the field. <sup>14</sup> All this is in order that no trees by the waters may grow to lofty height or set their tops among the clouds, and that no trees that drink water may reach up to them in height; for they are all given over to death, to the nether world among mortal men, with those who go down to the Pit.

<sup>15</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: When it goes down to Sheol I will make the deep mourn for it, and restrain its rivers, and many waters shall be stopped; I will clothe Lebanon in gloom for it, and all the trees of the field shall faint because of it. <sup>16</sup> I will make the nations quake at the sound of its fall, when I cast it down to Sheol with those who go down to the Pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, will be comforted in the nether world. <sup>17</sup> They also shall go down to Sheol with it, to those who are slain by the sword; yea, those who dwelt under its shadow among the nations shall perish. <sup>18</sup> Whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? You shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the nether world; you shall lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword.

"This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD."

32:<sup>1</sup> In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, raise a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him:

"You consider yourself a lion among the nations, but you are like a dragon in the seas; you burst forth in your rivers, trouble the waters with your feet, and foul their rivers.

<sup>3</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: I will throw my net over you with a host of many peoples; and I will haul you up in my dragnet.

<sup>4</sup> And I will cast you on the ground, on the open field I will fling you,
and will cause all the birds of the air to settle on you,
and I will gorge the beasts of the whole earth with you.
<sup>5</sup> I will strew your flesh upon the mountains,
and fill the valleys with your carcass.
<sup>6</sup> I will drench the land even to the mountains
with your flowing blood;
and the watercourses will be full of you.
<sup>7</sup> When I blot you out, I will cover the heavens,
and make their stars dark;
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon shall not give its light.
<sup>8</sup> All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over you,
and put darkness upon your land,

says the Lord GOD.

<sup>9</sup> "I will trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I carry you captive among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. <sup>10</sup> I will make many peoples appalled at you, and their kings shall shudder because of you, when I brandish my sword before them; they shall tremble every moment, every one for his own life, on the day of your downfall. <sup>11</sup> For thus says the Lord GOD: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you. <sup>12</sup> I will cause your multitude to fall by the swords of mighty ones, all of them most terrible among the nations.

"They shall bring to nought the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall perish.

<sup>13</sup> I will destroy all its beasts from beside many waters;
and no foot of man shall trouble them any more,
nor shall the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

<sup>14</sup> Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> When I make the land of Egypt desolate and when the land is stripped of all that fills it,
when I smite all who dwell in it,
then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> This is a lamentation which shall be chanted; the daughters of the nations shall chant it; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they chant it, says the Lord GOD."

<sup>17</sup> In the twelfth year, in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> "Son of man, wail over the multitude of Egypt, and send them down, her and the daughters of majestic nations, to the nether world, to those who have gone down to the Pit:

Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised.'

<sup>24</sup> "Elam is there, and all her multitude about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who went down uncircumcised into the nether world, who spread terror in the land of the living, and they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit. <sup>25</sup> They have made her a bed among the slain with all her multitude, their graves round about her, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for terror of them was spread in the land of the living, and they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit; they are placed among the slain.

their bones; for the terror of the mighty men was in the land of the living. <sup>28</sup> So you shall be broken and lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword.

<sup>29</sup> "Edom is there, her kings and all her princes, who for all their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword; they lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the Pit.

<sup>30</sup> "The princes of the north are there, all of them, and all the Sido'nians, who have gone down in shame with the slain, for all the terror which they caused by their might; they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

<sup>31</sup> "When Pharaoh sees them, he will comfort himself for all his multitude, Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, says the Lord GOD. <sup>32</sup> For he spread terror in the land of the living; therefore he shall be laid among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD."

33:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, speak to your people and say to them, If I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and make him their watchman; <sup>3</sup> and if he sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the trumpet and warns the people; <sup>4</sup> then if any one who hears the sound of the trumpet does not take warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. <sup>5</sup> He heard the sound of the trumpet, and did not take warning; his blood shall be upon himself. But if he had taken warning, he would have saved his life. <sup>6</sup> But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, so that the people are not warned, and the sword comes, and takes any one of them; that man is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.

<sup>7</sup> "So you, son of man, I have made a watchman for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me. <sup>8</sup> If I say to the wicked, O wicked man, you shall surely die, and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. <sup>9</sup> But if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you will have saved your life. <sup>10</sup> "And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, Thus have you said: 'Our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we waste away because of them; how then can we live?' <sup>11</sup> Say to them, As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel? <sup>12</sup> And you, son of man, say to your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him when he transgresses; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall by it when he turns from his wickedness; and the righteous shall not be able to live by his righteousness when he sins. <sup>13</sup> Though I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, yet if he trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in the iniquity that he has committed he shall die. <sup>14</sup> Again, though I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' yet if he turns from his sin and does what is lawful and right, <sup>15</sup> if the wicked restores the pledge, gives back what he has taken by robbery, and walks in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>16</sup> None of the sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him; he has done what is lawful and right, he shall surely live.

<sup>17</sup> "Yet your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not just'; when it is their own way that is not just. <sup>18</sup> When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall die for it. <sup>19</sup> And when the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does what is lawful and right, he shall live by it. <sup>20</sup> Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' O house of Israel, I will judge each of you according to his ways."

Fall of Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup> In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has fallen." <sup>22</sup> Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me the evening before the fugitive came; and he had opened my mouth by the time the man came to me in the morning; so my mouth was opened, and I was no longer dumb.

commit abominations and each of you defiles his neighbour's wife; shall you then possess the land? <sup>27</sup> Say this to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured; and those who are in strongholds and in caves shall die by pestilence. <sup>28</sup> And I will make the land a desolation and a waste; and her proud might shall come to an end; and the mountains of Israel shall be so desolate that none will pass through. <sup>29</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and a waste because of all their abominations which they have committed.

<sup>30</sup> "As for you, son of man, your people who talk together about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, say to one another, each to his brother, 'Come, and hear what the word is that comes forth from the LORD.' <sup>31</sup> And they come to you as people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear what you say but they will not do it; for with their lips they show much love, but their heart is set on their gain. <sup>32</sup> And, lo, you are to them like one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays well on an instrument, for they hear what you say, but they will not do it. <sup>33</sup> When this comes-- and come it will!-- then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

34:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to them, even to the shepherds, Thus says the Lord GOD: Ho, shepherds of Israel who have been feeding yourselves! Should not shepherds feed the sheep? <sup>3</sup> You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep<sup>A67</sup>. <sup>4</sup> The weak you have not strengthened, the sick you have not healed, the crippled you have not bound up, the strayed you have not brought back, the lost you have not sought, and with force and harshness<sup>68</sup> you have ruled<sup>69</sup> them. <sup>5</sup> So they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food for all the wild beasts. <sup>6</sup> My sheep were scattered, they wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill; my sheep were scattered over all the face of the earth, with none to search or seek for them.

<sup>7</sup> "Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>8</sup> As I live, says the Lord GOD, because my sheep have become a prey, and my sheep have become food for all the wild beasts, since there was no shepherd<sup>70</sup>; and because my shepherds have not searched<sup>A71</sup> for my sheep, but the shepherds have fed themselves, and have not fed<sup>A</sup> my sheep; <sup>9</sup> therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>10</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and put a stop to their feeding the sheep; no longer shall the shepherds feed themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, that they may not be food for them.

<sup>11</sup> "For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, I myself<sup>72</sup> will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. <sup>12</sup> As a shepherd seeks out his flock when some of his sheep have been scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. <sup>13</sup> And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the fountains, and in all the inhabited places of the country. <sup>14</sup> I will feed them with good pasture, and upon the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on fat pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup> I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep<sup>73</sup>, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD. <sup>16</sup> I will seek the lost<sup>74</sup>, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the crippled, and I will strengthen the weak, and the fat and the strong I will watch over; I will feed them in justice.

<sup>17</sup> "As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, rams and he-goats. <sup>18</sup> Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture; and to drink of clear water, that you must foul<sup>75</sup> the rest with your feet? <sup>19</sup> And must my sheep eat what you have trodden with your feet, and drink what you have fouled with your feet?

<sup>20</sup> "Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: Behold, I, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. <sup>21</sup> Because you push with side and shoulder, and thrust at all the weak with your horns, till you have scattered them abroad, <sup>22</sup> I will save my flock, they shall no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. <sup>23</sup> And I will set up over them one shepherd<sup>B76</sup>, my servant David<sup>77</sup>, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd<sup>78</sup>. <sup>24</sup> And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince<sup>B79</sup> among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>25</sup> "I will make with them a covenant of peace and banish wild beasts from the land, so that they may dwell securely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. <sup>26</sup> And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will send down the showers<sup>80</sup> in their season; they shall be showers of blessing. <sup>27</sup> And the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I break the bars of their yoke, and deliver them from the hand of those who enslaved them. <sup>28</sup> They shall no more be a prey to the nations, nor shall the beasts of the land devour them; they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. <sup>29</sup> And I will provide for them prosperous plantations so that they shall no more be consumed with hunger in the land, and no longer suffer the reproach of the nations. <sup>30</sup> And they shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord GOD. <sup>31</sup> And you are my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, and I am your God, says the Lord GOD."

35:<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, set your face against Mount Se'ir, and prophesy against it, <sup>3</sup> and say to it, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, Mount Se'ir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and a waste. <sup>4</sup> I will lay your cities waste, and you shall become a desolation; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>5</sup> Because you cherished perpetual enmity, and gave over the people of Israel to the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, at the time of their final punishment; <sup>6</sup> therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you; because you are guilty of blood, therefore blood shall pursue you. <sup>7</sup> I will make Mount Se'ir a waste and a desolation; and I will cut off from it all who come and go. <sup>8</sup> And I will fill your mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines those slain with the sword shall fall. <sup>9</sup> I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> "Because you said, 'These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will take possession of them,'-- although the LORD was there-- <sup>11</sup> therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will deal with you according to the anger and envy which you showed because of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among you, when I judge you. <sup>12</sup> And you shall know that I, the LORD, have heard all the revilings which you uttered against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are laid desolate, they are given us to devour.' <sup>13</sup> And you magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and multiplied your words against me; I heard it. <sup>14</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: For the rejoicing of the whole earth I will make you desolate. <sup>15</sup> As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will deal with you; you shall be desolate, Mount Se'ir, and all Edom, all of it. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

36:<sup>1</sup> "And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the enemy said of you, 'Aha!' and, 'The ancient heights have become our possession,' <sup>3</sup> therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Because, yea, because they made you desolate, and crushed you from all sides, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, and you became the talk and evil gossip of the people; <sup>4</sup> therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, the ravines and the valleys, the desolate wastes and the deserted cities, which have become a prey and derision to the rest of the nations round about; <sup>5</sup> therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I speak in my hot jealousy against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who gave my land to themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and utter contempt, that they might possess it and plunder it. <sup>6</sup> Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I speak in my jealous wrath, because you have suffered the reproach of the nations; <sup>7</sup> therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I swear that the nations that are round about you shall themselves suffer reproach.

<sup>8</sup> "But you, O mountains of Israel, shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they will soon come home. <sup>9</sup> For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown; <sup>10</sup> and I will multiply men upon you, the whole house of Israel, all of it; the cities shall be inhabited and the waste places rebuilt; <sup>11</sup> and I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited as in your former times, and will do more good to you than ever before. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>12</sup> Yea, I will let men walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no longer bereave them of children. <sup>13</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: Because men say to you, 'You devour men, and you bereave your nation of children,' <sup>14</sup> therefore you shall no longer devour men and no longer bereave your nation of children, says the Lord GOD; <sup>15</sup> and I will not let you hear any more the reproach of the nations, and you shall no longer bear the disgrace of the peoples and no longer cause your nation to stumble, says the Lord GOD."

<sup>22</sup> "Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations to which you came. <sup>23</sup> And I will vindicate the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them; and the nations will know that I am the LORD, says the Lord GOD, when through you I vindicate my holiness before their eyes. <sup>24</sup> For I will take you from the nations, and gather you from all the countries, and bring you into your own land. <sup>25</sup> I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. <sup>26</sup> A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will take out of your flesh the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. <sup>27</sup> And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances. <sup>28</sup> You shall dwell in the land which I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup> And I will deliver you from all your uncleannesses; and I will summon the grain and make it abundant and lay no famine upon you. <sup>30</sup> I will make the fruit of the tree and the increase of the field abundant, that you may never again suffer the disgrace of famine among the nations. <sup>31</sup> Then you will remember your evil ways, and your deeds that were not good; and you will loathe yourselves for your iniquities and your abominable deeds. <sup>32</sup> It is not for your sake that I will act, says the Lord GOD; let that be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel.

<sup>33</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be rebuilt. <sup>34</sup> And the land that was desolate shall be tilled, instead of being the desolation that it was in the sight of all who passed by. <sup>35</sup> And they will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are now inhabited and fortified.' <sup>36</sup> Then the nations that are left round about you shall know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places, and replanted that which was desolate; I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.

<sup>37</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: This also I will let the house of Israel ask me to do for them: to increase their men like a flock. <sup>38</sup> Like the flock for sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

37:<sup>1</sup> The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; it was full of bones. <sup>2</sup> And he led me round among them; and behold, there were very many upon the valley; and lo, they were very dry. <sup>3</sup> And he said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" And I answered, "O Lord GOD, thou knowest." <sup>4</sup> Again he said to me, "Prophecy to these bones, and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>5</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. <sup>6</sup> And I will lay sinews upon you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD."

<sup>7</sup> So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. <sup>8</sup> And as I looked, there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them. <sup>9</sup> Then he said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." <sup>10</sup> So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great host.

<sup>11</sup> Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off.' <sup>12</sup> Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you home into the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup> And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O my people. <sup>14</sup> And I will put my Spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken, and I have done it, says the LORD."

<sup>15</sup> The word of the LORD came to me: <sup>16</sup> "Son of man, take a stick and write on it, 'For Judah, and the children of Israel associated with him'; then take another stick and write upon it, 'For Joseph (the stick of E'phraim) and all the house of Israel associated with him'; <sup>17</sup> and join them together into one stick, that they may become one in your hand. <sup>18</sup> And when your people say to you, 'Will you not show us what you mean by these?' <sup>19</sup> say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am about to take the stick of Joseph (which is in the hand of E'phraim) and the tribes of Israel associated with him; and I will join with it the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, that they may be one in my hand. <sup>20</sup> When the sticks on which you write are in your hand before their eyes, <sup>21</sup> then say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will take the people of Israel from the nations among which they have gone, and will gather them from all sides, and bring them to their own land; <sup>22</sup> and I will make them one nation in the land, upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king over them all; and they shall be no longer two nations, and no longer divided into two kingdoms. <sup>23</sup> They shall not defile themselves any more with their idols and their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions; but I will save them from all the backslidings in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>24</sup> "My servant David shall be king over them; and they shall all have one shepherd. They shall follow my ordinances and be careful to observe my statutes. <sup>25</sup> They shall dwell in the land where your fathers dwelt that I gave to my servant Jacob; they and their children and their children's children shall dwell there for ever; and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. <sup>26</sup> I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will bless them and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. <sup>27</sup> My dwelling place shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. <sup>28</sup> Then the nations will know that I the LORD sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary is in the midst of them for evermore."

<sup>7</sup> "Be ready and keep ready, you and all the hosts that are assembled about you, and be a guard for them. <sup>8</sup> After many days you will be mustered; in the latter years you will go against the land that is restored from war, the land where people were gathered from many nations upon the mountains of Israel, which had been a continual waste; its people were brought out from the nations and now dwell securely, all of them. <sup>9</sup> You will advance, coming on like a storm, you will be like a cloud covering the land you and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.

<sup>10</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil scheme <sup>11</sup> and say, 'I will go up against the land of unwalled villages; I will fall upon the quiet people who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having no bars or gates'; <sup>12</sup> to seize spoil and carry off plunder; to assail the waste places which are now inhabited, and the people who were gathered from the nations, who have gotten cattle and goods, who dwell at the centre of the earth. <sup>13</sup> Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all its villages will say to you, 'Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your hosts to carry off plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to seize great spoil?'

<sup>14</sup> "Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and say to Gog, Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day when my people Israel are dwelling securely, you will bestir yourself <sup>15</sup> and come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great host, a mighty army; <sup>16</sup> you will come up against my people Israel, like a cloud covering the land. In the latter days I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when through you, O Gog, I vindicate my holiness before their eyes.

<sup>17</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: Are you he of whom I spoke in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel, who in those days prophesied for years that I would bring you against them? <sup>18</sup> But on that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, says the Lord GOD, my wrath will be roused. <sup>19</sup> For in my jealousy and in my blazing wrath I declare, On that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; <sup>20</sup> the fish of the sea, and the birds of the air, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep on the ground, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall quake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the cliffs shall fall, and every wall shall tumble to the ground. <sup>21</sup> I will summon every kind of terror against Gog, says the Lord GOD; every man's sword will be against his brother. <sup>22</sup> With pestilence and bloodshed I will enter into judgement with him; and I will rain upon him and his hordes and the many peoples that are with him, torrential rains and hailstones, fire and brimstone. <sup>23</sup> So I will show my greatness and my holiness and make myself known in the eyes of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

39:<sup>1</sup> "And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal; <sup>2</sup> and I will turn you about and drive you forward, and bring you up from the uttermost parts of the north, and lead you against the mountains of Israel; <sup>3</sup> then I will strike your bow from your left hand, and will make your arrows drop out of your right hand. <sup>4</sup> You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your hordes and the peoples that are with you; I will give you to birds of prey of every sort and to the wild beasts to be devoured. <sup>5</sup> You shall fall in the open field; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD. <sup>6</sup> I will send fire on Magog and on those who dwell securely in the coastlands; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> "And my holy name I will make known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let my holy name be profaned any more; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup> Behold, it is coming and it will be brought about, says the Lord GOD. That is the day of which I have spoken.

<sup>9</sup> "Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go forth and make fires of the weapons and burn them, shields and bucklers, bows and arrows, handpikes and spears, and they will make fires of them for seven years; <sup>10</sup> so that they will not need to take wood out of the field or cut down any out of the forests, for they will make their fires of the weapons; they will despoil those who despoiled them, and plunder those who plundered them, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>11</sup> "On that day I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the Valley of the Travellers east of the sea; it will block the travellers, for there Gog and all his multitude will be buried; it will be called the Valley of Hamon-gog. <sup>12</sup> For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them, in order to cleanse the land. <sup>13</sup> All the people of the land will bury them; and it will redound to their honour on the day that I show my glory, says the Lord GOD. <sup>14</sup> They will set apart men to pass through the land continually and bury those remaining upon the face of the land, so as to cleanse it; at the end of seven months they will make their search. <sup>15</sup> And when these pass through the land and any one sees a man's bone, then he shall set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-gog. <sup>16</sup> (A city Hamo'nah is there also.) Thus shall they cleanse the land.

<sup>17</sup> "As for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: Speak to the birds of every sort and to all beasts of the field, 'Assemble and come, gather from all sides to the sacrificial feast which I am preparing for you, a great sacrificial feast upon the mountains of Israel, and you shall eat flesh and drink blood. <sup>18</sup> You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth-- of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. <sup>19</sup> And you shall eat fat till you are filled, and drink blood till you are drunk, at the sacrificial feast which I am preparing for you. <sup>20</sup> And you shall be filled at my table with horses and riders, with mighty men and all kinds of warriors,' says the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup> "And I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgement which I have executed, and my hand which I have laid on them. <sup>22</sup> The house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day forward. <sup>23</sup> And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they dealt so treacherously with me that I hid my face from them and gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they all fell by the sword. <sup>24</sup> I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their transgressions, and hid my face from them.

<sup>25</sup> "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. <sup>26</sup> They shall forget their shame, and all the treachery they have practiced against me, when they dwell securely in their land with none to make them afraid, <sup>27</sup> when I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them from their enemies' lands, and through them have vindicated my holiness in the sight of many nations. <sup>28</sup> Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God because I sent them into exile among the nations, and then gathered them into their own land. I will leave none of them remaining among the nations any more; <sup>29</sup> and I will not hide my face any more from them, when I pour out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, says the Lord GOD."

40: <sup>1</sup> In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was conquered, on that very day, the hand of the LORD was upon me, <sup>2</sup> and brought me in the visions of God into the land of Israel, and set me down upon a very high mountain, on which was a structure like a city<sup>81</sup> opposite me. <sup>3</sup> When he brought me there, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like bronze, with a line of flax and a measuring reed in his hand; and he was standing in the gateway. <sup>4</sup> And the man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your mind upon all that I shall show you, for you were brought here in order that I might show it to you; declare all that you see to the house of Israel."

<sup>5</sup> And behold, there was a wall all around the outside of the temple area, and the length of the measuring reed in the man's hand was six long cubits, each being a cubit and a handbreadth in length; so he measured the thickness of the wall, one reed; and the height, one reed. <sup>6</sup> Then he went into the gateway facing east, going up its steps, and measured the threshold of the gate, one reed deep; <sup>7</sup> and the side rooms, one reed long, and one reed broad; and the space between the side rooms, five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the vestibule of the gate at the inner end, one reed. <sup>8</sup> Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, eight cubits; <sup>9</sup> and its jambs, two cubits; and the vestibule of the gate was at the inner end. <sup>10</sup> And there were three side rooms on either side of the east gate; the three were of the same size; and the jambs on either side were of the same size. <sup>11</sup> Then he measured the breadth of the opening of the gateway, ten cubits; and the breadth of the gateway, thirteen cubits. <sup>12</sup> There was a barrier before the side rooms, one cubit on either side; and the side rooms were six cubits on either side. <sup>13</sup> Then he measured the gate from the back of the one side room to the back of the other, a breadth of five and twenty cubits, from door to door. <sup>14</sup> He measured also the vestibule, twenty cubits; and round about the vestibule of the gateway was the court. <sup>15</sup> From the front of the gate at the entrance to the end of the inner vestibule of the gate was fifty cubits. <sup>16</sup> And the gateway had windows round about, narrowing inwards into their jambs in the side rooms, and likewise the vestibule had windows round about inside, and on the jambs were palm trees.

<sup>17</sup> Then he brought me into the outer court; and behold, there were chambers and a pavement, round about the court; thirty chambers fronted on the pavement. <sup>18</sup> And the pavement ran along the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup> Then he measured the distance from the inner front of the lower gate to the outer front of the inner court, a hundred cubits.

Then he went before me to the north, <sup>20</sup> and behold, there was a gate which faced toward the north, belonging to the outer court. He measured its length and its breadth. <sup>21</sup> Its side rooms, three on either side, and its jambs and its vestibule were of the same size as those of the first gate; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>22</sup> And its windows, its vestibule, and its palm trees were of the same size as those of the gate which faced toward the east; and seven steps led up to it; and its vestibule was on the inside. <sup>23</sup> And opposite the gate on the north, as on the east, was a gate to the inner court; and he measured from gate to gate, a hundred cubits.

<sup>24</sup> And he led me toward the south, and behold, there was a gate on the south; and he measured its jambs and its vestibule; they had the same size as the others. <sup>25</sup> And there were windows round about in it and in its vestibule, like the windows of the others; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>26</sup> And there were seven steps leading up to it, and its vestibule was on the inside; and it had palm trees on its jambs, one on either side. <sup>27</sup> And there was a gate on the south of the inner court; and he measured from gate to gate toward the south, a hundred cubits.

<sup>28</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it was of the same size as the others; <sup>29</sup> Its side rooms, its jambs, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and there were windows round about in it and in its vestibule; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>30</sup> And there were vestibules round about, twenty-five cubits long and five cubits broad. <sup>31</sup> Its vestibule faced the outer court, and palm trees were on its jambs, and its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>32</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gate; it was of the same size as the others. <sup>33</sup> Its side rooms, its jambs, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and there were windows round about in it and in its vestibule; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>34</sup> Its vestibule faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its jambs, one on either side; and its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>35</sup> Then he brought me to the north gate, and he measured it; it had the same size as the others. <sup>36</sup> Its side rooms, its jambs, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and it had windows round about; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>37</sup> Its vestibule faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its jambs, one on either side; and its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>38</sup> There was a chamber with its door in the vestibule of the gate, where the burnt offering was to be washed. <sup>39</sup> And in the vestibule of the gate were two tables on either side, on which the burnt offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering were to be slaughtered. <sup>40</sup> And on the outside of the vestibule at the entrance of the north gate were two tables; and on the other side of the vestibule of the gate were two tables. <sup>41</sup> Four tables were on the inside, and four tables on the outside of the side of the gate, eight tables, on which the sacrifices were to be slaughtered. <sup>42</sup> And there were also four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high, on which the instruments were to be laid with which the burnt offerings and the sacrifices were slaughtered. <sup>43</sup> And hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened round about within. And on the tables the flesh of the offering was to be laid.

<sup>44</sup> Then he brought me from without into the inner court, and behold, there were two chambers in the inner court, one at the side of the north gate facing south, the other at the side of the south gate facing north. <sup>45</sup> And he said to me, This chamber which faces south is for the priests who have charge of the temple, <sup>46</sup> and the chamber which faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar; these are the sons of Zadok, who alone among the sons of Levi may come near to the LORD to minister to him. <sup>47</sup> And he measured the court, a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was in front of the temple.

twenty cubits, and the breadth twelve cubits; and ten steps led up to it; and there were pillars beside the jambs on either side.

41:<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me to the nave, and measured the jambs; on each side six cubits was the breadth of the jambs. <sup>2</sup> And the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sidewalls of the entrance were five cubits on either side; and he measured the length of the nave forty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits. <sup>3</sup> Then he went into the inner room and measured the jambs of the entrance, two cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, six cubits; and the sidewalls of the entrance, seven cubits. <sup>4</sup> And he measured the length of the room, twenty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits, beyond the nave. And he said to me, This is the most holy place.

<sup>5</sup> Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits thick; and the breadth of the side chambers, four cubits, round about the temple. <sup>6</sup> And the side chambers were in three stories, one over another, thirty in each story. There were offsets all around the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side chambers, so that they should not be supported by the wall of the temple. <sup>7</sup> And the side chambers became broader as they rose from story to story, corresponding to the enlargement of the offset from story to story round about the temple; on the side of the temple a stairway led upward, and thus one went up from the lowest story to the top story through the middle story. <sup>8</sup> I saw also that the temple had a raised platform round about; the foundations of the side chambers measured a full reed of six long cubits. <sup>9</sup> The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits; and the part of the platform which was left free was five cubits. Between the platform of the temple and the <sup>10</sup> chambers of the court was a breadth of twenty cubits round about the temple on every side. <sup>11</sup> And the doors of the side chambers opened on the part of the platform that was left free, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south; and the breadth of the part that was left free was five cubits round about.

The nave of the temple and the inner room and the outer vestibule <sup>16</sup> were panelled and round about all three had windows with recessed frames. Over against the threshold the temple was panelled with wood round about, from the floor up to the windows (now the windows were covered), <sup>17</sup> to the space above the door, even to the inner room, and on the outside. And on all the walls round about in the inner room and the nave were carved likenesses <sup>18</sup> of cherubim and palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Every cherub had two faces: <sup>19</sup> the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved on the whole temple round about; <sup>20</sup> from the floor to above the door cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall.

<sup>21</sup> The doorposts of the nave were squared; and in front of the holy place was something resembling <sup>22</sup> an altar of wood, three cubits high, two cubits long, and two cubits broad; its corners, its base, and its walls were of wood. He said to me, "This is the table which is before the LORD." <sup>23</sup> The nave and the holy place had each a double door. <sup>24</sup> The doors had two leaves apiece, two swinging leaves for each door. <sup>25</sup> And on the doors of the nave were carved cherubim and palm trees, such as were carved on the walls; and there was a canopy of wood in front of the vestibule outside. <sup>26</sup> And there were recessed windows and palm trees on either side, on the sidewalls of the vestibule.

42:<sup>1</sup> Then he led me out into the inner court, toward the north, and he brought me to the chambers which were opposite the temple yard and opposite the building on the north. <sup>2</sup> The length of the building which was on the north side was a hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty cubits. <sup>3</sup> Adjoining the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and facing the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. <sup>4</sup> And before the chambers was a passage inward, ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits long, and their doors were on the north. <sup>5</sup> Now the upper chambers were narrower, for the galleries took more away from them than from the lower and middle chambers in the building. <sup>6</sup> For they were in three stories, and they had no pillars like the pillars of the outer court; hence the upper chambers were set back from the ground more than the lower and the middle ones. <sup>7</sup> And there was a wall outside parallel to the chambers, toward the outer court, opposite the chambers, fifty cubits long. <sup>8</sup> For the chambers on the outer court were fifty cubits long, while those opposite the temple were a hundred cubits long. <sup>9</sup> Below these chambers was an entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer court, <sup>10</sup> where the outside wall begins.

On the south also, opposite the yard and opposite the building, there were chambers <sup>11</sup> with a passage in front of them; they were similar to the chambers on the north, of the same length and breadth, with the same exits and arrangements and doors. <sup>12</sup> And below the south chambers was an entrance on the east side, where one enters the passage, and opposite them was a dividing wall.

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers opposite the yard are the holy chambers, where the priests who approach the LORD shall eat the most holy offerings; there they shall put the most holy offerings-- the cereal offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering, for the place is holy. <sup>14</sup> When the priests enter the holy place, they shall not go out of it into the outer court without laying there the garments in which they minister, for these are holy; they shall put on other garments before they go near to that which is for the people."

<sup>6</sup> While the man was standing beside me, I heard one speaking to me out of the temple; <sup>7</sup> and he said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the people of Israel for ever. And the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their harlotry, and by the dead bodies of their kings, <sup>8</sup> by setting their threshold by my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them. They have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed, so I have consumed them in my anger. <sup>9</sup> Now let them put away their idolatry and the dead bodies of their kings far from me, and I will dwell in their midst for ever.

<sup>10</sup> "And you, son of man, describe to the house of Israel the temple and its appearance and plan, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. <sup>11</sup> And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, portray the temple, its arrangement, its exits and its entrances, and its whole form; and make known to them all its ordinances and all its laws; and write it down in their sight, so that they may observe and perform all its laws and all its ordinances. <sup>12</sup> This is the law of the temple: the whole territory round about upon the top of the mountain shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the temple.

<sup>18</sup> And he said to me, "Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: These are the ordinances for the altar: On the day when it is erected for offering burnt offerings upon it and for throwing blood against it, <sup>19</sup> you shall give to the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who draw near to me to minister to me, says the Lord GOD, a bull for a sin offering. <sup>20</sup> And you shall take some of its blood, and put it on the four horns of the altar, and on the four corners of the ledge, and upon the rim round about; thus you shall cleanse the altar and make atonement for it. <sup>21</sup> You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place belonging to the temple, outside the sacred area. <sup>22</sup> And on the second day you shall offer a he-goat without blemish for a sin offering; and the altar shall be cleansed, as it was cleansed with the bull. <sup>23</sup> When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a bull without blemish and a ram from the flock without blemish. <sup>24</sup> You shall present them before the LORD, and the priests shall sprinkle salt upon them and offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>25</sup> For seven days you shall provide daily a goat for a sin offering; also a bull and a ram from the flock, without blemish, shall be provided. <sup>26</sup> Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it, and so consecrate it. <sup>27</sup> And when they have completed these days, then from the eighth day onward the priests shall offer upon the altar your burnt offerings and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the Lord GOD."

44:<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces east; and it was shut. <sup>2</sup> And he said to me, "This gate shall remain shut; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered by it; therefore it shall remain shut. <sup>3</sup> Only the prince may sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gate, and shall go out by the same way."

<sup>4</sup> Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the temple of the LORD; and I fell upon my face. <sup>5</sup> And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, mark well, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I shall tell you concerning all the ordinances of the temple of the LORD and all its laws; and mark well those who may be admitted to the temple and all those who are to be excluded from the sanctuary. <sup>6</sup> And say to the rebellious house, to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: O house of Israel, let there be an end to all your abominations, <sup>7</sup> in admitting foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, to be in my sanctuary, profaning it, when you offer to me my food, the fat and the blood. You have broken my covenant, in addition to all your abominations. <sup>8</sup> And you have not kept charge of my holy things; but you have set foreigners to keep my charge in my sanctuary.

<sup>15</sup> "But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the people of Israel went astray from me, shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall attend on me to offer me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD; <sup>16</sup> they shall enter my sanctuary, and they shall approach my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge. <sup>17</sup> When they enter the gates of the inner court, they shall wear linen garments; they shall have nothing of wool on them, while they minister at the gates of the inner court, and within. <sup>18</sup> They shall have linen turbans upon their heads, and linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with anything that causes sweat. <sup>19</sup> And when they go out into the outer court to the people, they shall put off the garments in which they have been ministering, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they shall put on other garments, lest they communicate holiness to the people with their garments. <sup>20</sup> They shall not shave their heads or let their locks grow long; they shall only trim the hair of their heads. <sup>21</sup> No priest shall drink wine, when he enters the inner court. <sup>22</sup> They shall not marry a widow, or a divorced woman, but only a virgin of the stock of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. <sup>23</sup> They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean. <sup>24</sup> In a controversy they shall act as judges, and they shall judge it according to my judgements.

They shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts, and they shall keep my sabbaths holy. <sup>25</sup> They shall not defile themselves by going near to a dead person; however, for father or mother, for son or daughter, for brother or unmarried sister they may defile themselves. <sup>26</sup> After he is defiled, he shall count for himself seven days, and then he shall be clean. <sup>27</sup> And on the day that he goes into the holy place, into the inner court, to minister in the holy place, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord GOD.

45:<sup>1</sup> "When you allot the land as a possession, you shall set apart for the LORD a portion of the land as a holy district, twenty-five thousand cubits long and twenty thousand cubits broad; it shall be holy throughout its whole extent. <sup>2</sup> Of this a square plot of five hundred by five hundred cubits shall be for the sanctuary, with fifty cubits for an open space around it. <sup>3</sup> And in the holy district you shall measure off a section twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand broad, in which shall be the sanctuary, the most holy place. <sup>4</sup> It shall be the holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and approach the LORD to minister to him; and it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. <sup>5</sup> Another section, twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits broad, shall be for the Levites who minister at the temple, as their possession for cities to live in.

<sup>7</sup> "And to the prince shall belong the land on both sides of the holy district and the property of the city, alongside the holy district and the property of the city, on the west and on the east, corresponding in length to one of the tribal portions, and extending from the western to the eastern boundary of the land. <sup>8</sup> It is to be his property in Israel. And my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall let the house of Israel have the land according to their tribes.

<sup>9</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: Enough, O princes of Israel! Put away violence and oppression, and execute justice and righteousness; cease your evictions of my people, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>13</sup> "This is the offering which you shall make: one sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat, and one sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley, <sup>14</sup> and as the fixed portion of oil, one tenth of a bath from each cor (the cor, like the homer, contains ten baths); <sup>15</sup> and one sheep from every flock of two hundred, from the families of Israel. This is the offering for cereal offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord GOD. <sup>16</sup> All the people of the land shall give this offering to the prince in Israel. <sup>17</sup> It shall be the prince's duty to furnish the burnt offerings, cereal offerings, and drink offerings, at the feasts, the new moons, and the sabbaths, all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall provide the sin offerings, cereal offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

And on the seven days of the festival he shall provide as a burnt offering to the LORD seven young bulls and seven rams without blemish, on each of the seven days; and a he-goat daily for a sin offering. <sup>24</sup> And he shall provide as a cereal offering an ephah for each bull, an ephah for each ram, and a hin of oil to each ephah. <sup>25</sup> In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month and for the seven days of the feast, he shall make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, and cereal offerings, and for the oil.

<sup>46:1</sup> "Thus says the Lord GOD: The gate of the inner court that faces east shall be shut on the six working days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. <sup>2</sup> The prince shall enter by the vestibule of the gate from without, and shall take his stand by the post of the gate. The priests shall offer his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be shut until evening. <sup>3</sup> The people of the land shall worship at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the sabbaths and on the new moons. <sup>4</sup> The burnt offering that the prince offers to the LORD on the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; <sup>5</sup> and the cereal offering with the ram shall be an ephah, and the cereal offering with the lambs shall be as much as he is able, together with a hin of oil to each ephah. <sup>6</sup> On the day of the new moon he shall offer a young bull without blemish, and six lambs and a ram, which shall be without blemish; <sup>7</sup> as a cereal offering he shall provide an ephah with the bull and an ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he is able, together with a hin of oil to each ephah. <sup>8</sup> When the prince enters, he shall go in by the vestibule of the gate, and he shall go out by the same way<sup>82</sup>.

<sup>13</sup> "He shall provide a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to the LORD daily; morning by morning he shall provide it. <sup>14</sup> And he shall provide a cereal offering with it morning by morning, one sixth of an ephah, and one third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour, as a cereal offering to the LORD; this is the ordinance for the continual burnt offering. <sup>15</sup> Thus the lamb and the meal offering and the oil shall be provided, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.

<sup>21</sup> Then he brought me forth to the outer court, and led me to the four corners of the court; and in each corner of the court there was a court-- <sup>22</sup> in the four corners of the court were small courts, forty cubits long and thirty broad; the four were of the same size. <sup>23</sup> On the inside, around each of the four courts was a row of masonry, with hearths made at the bottom of the rows round about. <sup>24</sup> Then he said to me, "These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple shall boil the sacrifices of the people."

Then he led me back along the bank of the river. <sup>7</sup> As I went back, I saw upon the bank of the river very many trees on the one side and on the other. <sup>8</sup> And he said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah; and when it enters the stagnant waters of the sea, the water will become fresh. <sup>9</sup> And wherever the river goes every living creature which swarms will live, and there will be very many fish; for this water goes there, that the waters of the sea may become fresh; so everything will live where the river goes. <sup>10</sup> Fishermen will stand beside the sea; from En-ge'di to En-eg'laim it will be a place for the spreading of nets; its fish will be of very many kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea. <sup>11</sup> But its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they are to be left for salt. <sup>12</sup> And on the banks, on both sides of the river, there will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither nor their fruit fail, but they will bear fresh fruit every month, because the water for them flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for healing."

<sup>13</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: "These are the boundaries by which you shall divide the land for inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions. <sup>14</sup> And you shall divide it equally; I swore to give it to your fathers, and this land shall fall to you as your inheritance.

<sup>18</sup> "On the east side, the boundary shall run from Hazar-e'non between Hauran and Damascus; along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel; to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar. This shall be the east side.

<sup>19</sup> "On the south side, it shall run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribath-ka'desh, thence along the Brook of Egypt to the Great Sea. This shall be the south side.

<sup>21</sup> "So you shall divide this land among you according to the tribes of Israel. <sup>22</sup> You shall allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the aliens who reside among you and have begotten children among you. They shall be to you as native-born sons of Israel; with you they shall be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup> In whatever tribe the alien resides, there you shall assign him his inheritance, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>8</sup> "Adjoining the territory of Judah, from the east side to the west, shall be the portion which you shall set apart, twenty-five thousand cubits in breadth, and in length equal to one of the tribal portions, from the east side to the west, with the sanctuary in the midst of it. <sup>9</sup> The portion which you shall set apart for the LORD shall be twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and twenty thousand in breadth. <sup>10</sup> These shall be the allotments of the holy portion: the priests shall have an allotment measuring twenty-five thousand cubits on the northern side, ten thousand cubits in breadth on the western side, ten thousand in breadth on the eastern side, and twenty-five thousand in length on the southern side, with the sanctuary of the LORD in the midst of it. <sup>11</sup> This shall be for the consecrated priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept my charge, who did not go astray when the people of Israel went astray, as the Levites did. <sup>12</sup> And it shall belong to them as a special portion from the holy portion of the land, a most holy place, adjoining the territory of the Levites. <sup>13</sup> And alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites shall have an allotment twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in breadth. The whole length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits and the breadth twenty thousand. <sup>14</sup> They shall not sell or exchange any of it; they shall not alienate this choice portion of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> "The remainder, five thousand cubits in breadth and twenty-five thousand in length, shall be for ordinary use for the city, for dwellings and for open country. In the midst of it shall be the city; <sup>16</sup> and these shall be its dimensions: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits, the south side four thousand five hundred, the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. <sup>17</sup> And the city shall have open land: on the north two hundred and fifty cubits, on the south two hundred and fifty, on the east two hundred and fifty, and on the west two hundred and fifty. <sup>18</sup> The remainder of the length alongside the holy portion shall be ten thousand cubits to the east, and ten thousand to the west, and it shall be alongside the holy portion. Its produce shall be food for the workers of the city. <sup>19</sup> And the workers of the city, from all the tribes of Israel, shall till it. <sup>20</sup> The whole portion which you shall set apart shall be twenty-five thousand cubits square, that is, the holy portion together with the property of the city.

<sup>30</sup> "These shall be the exits of the city: On the north side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits by measure, <sup>31</sup> three gates, the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah, and the gate of Levi, the gates of the city being named after the tribes of Israel. <sup>32</sup> On the east side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates, the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin, and the gate of Dan. <sup>33</sup> On the south side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits by measure, three gates, the gate of Simeon, the gate of Is'sachar, and the gate of Zeb'ulun. <sup>34</sup> On the west side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates, the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher, and the gate of Naph'tali. <sup>35</sup> The circumference of the city shall be eighteen thousand cubits. And the name of the city henceforth shall be, The LORD is there."

The book of Daniel

1:<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of Jehoi'akim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. <sup>2</sup> And the Lord gave Jehoi'akim king of Judah into his hand, with some of the vessels of the house of God; and he brought them to the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and placed the vessels in the treasury of his god. <sup>3</sup> Then the king commanded Ashpenaz, his chief eunuch, to bring some of the people of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility, <sup>4</sup> youths without blemish, handsome and skilful in all wisdom, endowed with knowledge, understanding learning, and competent to serve in the king's palace, and to teach them the letters and language of the Chaldeans. <sup>5</sup> The king assigned them a daily portion of the rich food which the king ate, and of the wine which he drank. They were to be educated for three years, and at the end of that time they were to stand before the king. <sup>6</sup> Among these were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah of the tribe of Judah. <sup>7</sup> And the chief of the eunuchs gave them names: Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

<sup>8</sup> But Daniel resolved that he would not defile himself with the king's<sup>1</sup> rich food, or with the wine which he drank; therefore he asked the chief of the eunuchs to allow him not to defile himself. <sup>9</sup> And God gave Daniel favour and compassion in the sight of the chief of the eunuchs; <sup>10</sup> and the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear lest my lord the king, who appointed your food and your drink, should see that you were in poorer condition than the youths who are of your own age. So you would endanger my head with the king." <sup>11</sup> Then Daniel said to the steward whom the chief of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; <sup>12</sup> "Test your servants for ten days; let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink. <sup>13</sup> Then let our appearance and the appearance of the youths who eat the king's rich food be observed by you, and according to what you see deal with your servants." <sup>14</sup> So he hearkened to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days. <sup>15</sup> At the end of ten days it was seen that they were better in appearance and fatter in flesh than all the youths who ate the king's rich food. <sup>16</sup> So the steward took away their rich food and the wine<sup>2</sup> they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

2:<sup>1</sup> In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep left him. <sup>2</sup> Then the king commanded that the magicians, the enchanters, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans be summoned, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. <sup>3</sup> And the king said to them, "I had a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream." <sup>4</sup> Then the Chaldeans said to the king, "O king, live for ever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." <sup>5</sup> The king answered the Chaldeans, "The word from me is sure: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be torn limb from limb, and your houses shall be laid in ruins. <sup>6</sup> But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honour. Therefore show me the dream and its interpretation." <sup>7</sup> They answered a second time, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show its interpretation." <sup>8</sup> The king answered, "I know with certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see that the word from me is sure <sup>9</sup> that if you do not make the dream known to me, there is but one sentence for you. You have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me till the times change. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation." <sup>10</sup> The Chaldeans answered the king, "There is not a man on earth who can meet the king's demand; for no great and powerful king has asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or Chaldean. <sup>11</sup> The thing that the king asks is difficult, and none can show it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

<sup>12</sup> Because of this the king was angry and very furious, and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be destroyed. <sup>13</sup> So the decree went forth that the wise men were to be slain, and they sought Daniel and his companions, to slay them. <sup>14</sup> Then Daniel replied with prudence and discretion to Ar'i-och, the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to slay the wise men of Babylon; <sup>15</sup> he said to Ar'i-och, the king's captain, "Why is the decree of the king so severe?" Then Ar'i-och made the matter known to Daniel. <sup>16</sup> And Daniel went in and besought the king to appoint him a time, that he might show to the king the interpretation.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel went to his house and made the matter known to Hanani'ah, Mish'a-el, and Azari'ah, his companions, <sup>18</sup> and told them to seek mercy of the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his companions might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. <sup>19</sup> Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. <sup>20</sup> Daniel said:

"Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever.
to whom belong wisdom and might.

<sup>21</sup> He changes times and seasons;
he removes kings and sets up kings;
he gives wisdom<sup>3</sup> to the wise
and knowledge to those who have understanding; <sup>22</sup> he reveals deep and mysterious things;
he knows what is in the darkness,
and the light dwells with him.

<sup>23</sup> To thee, O God of my fathers,
I give thanks and praise,
for thou hast given me wisdom and strength,
and hast now made known to me what we asked of thee,
for thou hast made known to us the king's matter."

<sup>24</sup> Therefore Daniel went in to Ar'i-och, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus to him, "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show the king the interpretation."

<sup>25</sup> Then Ar'i-och brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus to him: "I have found among the exiles from Judah a man who can make known to the king the interpretation." <sup>26</sup> The king said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshaz'zar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream that I have seen and its interpretation?" <sup>27</sup> Daniel answered the king, "No wise men, enchanters, magicians, or astrologers can show to the king the mystery which the king has asked, <sup>28</sup> but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and he has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream and the visions of your head as you lay in bed are these: <sup>29</sup> To you, O king, as you lay in bed came thoughts of what would be hereafter, and he who reveals mysteries made known to you what is to be. <sup>30</sup> But as for me, not because of any wisdom that I have more than all the living has this mystery been revealed to me, but in order that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your mind.

<sup>36</sup> "This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation. <sup>37</sup> You, O king, the king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the might, and the glory, <sup>38</sup> and into whose hand he has given, wherever they dwell, the sons of men, the beasts of the field, and the birds of the air, making you rule over them all-- you are the head of gold. <sup>39</sup> After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you, and yet a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over all the earth. <sup>40</sup> And there shall be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron, because iron breaks to pieces and shatters all things; and like iron which crushes, it shall break and crush all these. <sup>41</sup> And as you saw the feet and toes partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but some of the firmness of iron shall be in it, just as you saw iron mixed with the miry clay. <sup>42</sup> And as the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly brittle. <sup>43</sup> As you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, so they will mix with one another in marriage, but they will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with clay. <sup>44</sup> And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people. It shall break in pieces all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand for ever; <sup>45</sup> just as you saw that a stone was cut from a mountain by no human hand, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold. A great God has made known to the king what shall be hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

<sup>46</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and did homage to Daniel, and commanded that an offering and incense be offered up to him. <sup>47</sup> The king said to Daniel, "Truly, your God is God of gods and Lord of kings, and a revealer of mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery." <sup>48</sup> Then the king gave Daniel high honours and many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>49</sup> Daniel made request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel remained at the king's court.

3: <sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its breadth six cubits. He set it up on the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. <sup>2</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent to assemble the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>3</sup> Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, were assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>4</sup> And the herald proclaimed aloud, "You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, <sup>5</sup> that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up; <sup>6</sup> and whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace." <sup>7</sup> Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshipped the golden image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and maliciously accused the Jews. <sup>9</sup> They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live for ever! <sup>10</sup> You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; <sup>11</sup> and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into a burning fiery furnace. <sup>12</sup> There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, pay no heed to you; they do not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up."

<sup>13</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar in furious rage commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. Then they brought these men before the king. <sup>14</sup> Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image which I have set up? <sup>15</sup> Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, to fall down and worship the image which I have made, well and good; but if you do not worship, you shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace; and who is the god that will deliver you out of my hands?"

<sup>16</sup> Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. <sup>17</sup> If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. <sup>18</sup> But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up."

<sup>24</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and rose up in haste. He said to his counsellors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the fire?" They answered the king, "True, O king." <sup>25</sup> He answered, "But I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are not hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods."

<sup>26</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the burning fiery furnace and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed'nego, servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed'nego came out from the fire. <sup>27</sup> And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king's counsellors gathered together and saw that the fire had not had any power over the bodies of those men; the hair of their heads was not singed, their mantles were not harmed, and no smell of fire had come upon them. <sup>28</sup> Nebuchadnezzar said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed'nego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants, who trusted in him, and set at naught the king's command, and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God. <sup>29</sup> Therefore I make a decree: Any people, nation, or language that speaks anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed'nego shall be torn limb from limb, and their houses laid in ruins; for there is no other god who is able to deliver in this way." <sup>30</sup> Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed'nego in the province of Babylon.

4:<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar to all peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you! <sup>2</sup> It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has wrought toward me.

His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
and his dominion is from generation to generation.

<sup>4</sup> I, Nebuchadnezzar<sup>4</sup>, was at ease in my house and prospering in my palace. <sup>5</sup> I had a dream which made me afraid; as I lay in bed the fancies and the visions of my head alarmed me. <sup>6</sup> Therefore I made a decree that all the wise men of Babylon should be brought before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. <sup>7</sup> Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chalde'ans, and the astrologers came in; and I told them the dream, but they could not make known to me its interpretation. <sup>8</sup> At last Daniel came in before me-- he who was named Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods-- and I told him the dream, saying, <sup>9</sup> "O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery is difficult for you, here is the dream which I saw; tell me its interpretation. <sup>10</sup> The visions of my head as I lay in bed were these: I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth; and its height was great. <sup>11</sup> The tree grew and became strong, and its top reached to heaven, and it was visible to the end of the whole earth. <sup>12</sup> Its leaves were fair and its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all. The beasts of the field found shade under it, and the birds of the air dwelt in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

<sup>13</sup> "I saw in the visions of my head as I lay in bed, and behold, a watcher, a holy one, came down from heaven. <sup>14</sup> He cried aloud and said thus, 'Hew down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit; let the beasts flee from under it and the birds from its branches. <sup>15</sup> But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, amid the tender grass of the field. Let him be wet with the dew of heaven; let his lot be with the beasts in the grass of the earth; <sup>16</sup> let his mind be changed from a man's, and let a beast's mind be given to him; and let seven times pass over him. <sup>17</sup> The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, the decision by the word of the holy ones, to the end that the living may know that the Most High rules the kingdom of men, and gives it to whom he will, and sets over it the lowliest<sup>5</sup> of men.' <sup>18</sup> This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. And you, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation, but you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

<sup>19</sup> Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshaz'zar, was dismayed for a moment, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, "Belteshaz'zar, let not the dream or the interpretation alarm you." Belteshaz'zar answered, "My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you and its interpretation for your enemies! <sup>20</sup> The tree you saw, which grew and became strong, so that its top reached to heaven, and it was visible to the end of the whole earth; <sup>21</sup> whose leaves were fair and its fruit abundant, and in which was food for all; under which beasts of the field found shade, and in whose branches the birds of the air dwelt-- <sup>22</sup> it is you, O king, who have grown and become strong. Your greatness has grown and reaches to heaven, and your dominion to the ends of the earth. <sup>23</sup> And whereas the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, 'Hew down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; and let him be wet with the dew of heaven; and let his lot be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him'; <sup>24</sup> this is the interpretation, O king: It is a decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king, <sup>25</sup> that you shall be driven from among men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; you shall be made to eat grass like an ox, and you shall be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, till you know that the Most High rules the kingdom of men, and gives it to whom he will<sup>6</sup>. <sup>26</sup> And as it was commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree, your kingdom shall be sure for you from the time that you know that Heaven rules. <sup>27</sup> Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you; break off your sins<sup>A</sup> by practising righteousness<sup>A7</sup>, and your iniquities<sup>B</sup> by showing mercy<sup>B8</sup> to the oppressed<sup>9</sup>, that there may perhaps be a lengthening of your tranquillity."

<sup>28</sup> All this came upon King Nebuchadnezz'zar. <sup>29</sup> At the end of twelve months he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, <sup>30</sup> and the king said, "Is not this great Babylon, which I have built by my mighty power as a royal residence and for the glory of my majesty?" <sup>31</sup> While the words were still in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, "O King Nebuchadnezz'zar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom has departed from you, <sup>32</sup> and you shall be driven from among men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; and you shall be made to eat grass like an ox; and seven<sup>10</sup> times shall pass over you, until you have learned that the Most High rules the kingdom of men and gives it to whom he will." <sup>33</sup> Immediately the word was fulfilled<sup>11</sup> upon Nebuchadnezz'zar. He was driven from among men, and ate grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair grew as long as eagles' feathers, and his nails were like birds' claws<sup>12</sup>.

<sup>34</sup> At the end of the days<sup>13</sup> I, Nebuchadnezz'zar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honoured him who lives for ever;

for his dominion is an everlasting dominion,
and his kingdom endures from generation to generation;
<sup>35</sup> all the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing;
and he does according to his will in the host of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth;
and none can stay his hand or say to him, "What doest thou?"

<sup>36</sup> At the same time my reason returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendour returned to me. My counsellors and my lords sought me, and I was established in my kingdom, and still more greatness was added to me. <sup>37</sup> Now I, Nebuchadnezz'zar, praise and extol and honour the King of heaven; for all his works are right and his ways are just; and those who walk in pride<sup>14</sup> he is able to abase.

5: King Belshaz'zar made a great feast for a thousand of his lords, and drank wine in front of the thousand.

<sup>10</sup> The queen, because of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banqueting hall; and the queen said, "O king, live for ever! Let not your thoughts alarm you or your colour change. <sup>11</sup> There is in your kingdom a man in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him, and King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and astrologers, <sup>12</sup> because an excellent spirit, knowledge, and understanding to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation."

<sup>13</sup> Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king said to Daniel, "You are that Daniel, one of the exiles of Judah, whom the king my father brought from Judah. <sup>14</sup> I have heard of you that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. <sup>15</sup> Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me to read this writing and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the matter. <sup>16</sup> But I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel answered before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the king and make known to him the interpretation. <sup>18</sup> O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father kingship and greatness and glory and majesty; <sup>19</sup> and because of the greatness that he gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him; whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. <sup>20</sup> But when his heart was lifted up and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and his glory was taken from him; <sup>21</sup> he was driven from among men, and his mind was made like that of a beast, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; he was fed grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until he knew that the Most High God rules the kingdom of men, and sets over it whom he will. <sup>22</sup> And you his son, Belshaz'zar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew<sup>15</sup> all this, <sup>23</sup> but you have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and the vessels of his house have been brought in before you, and you and your lords, your wives, and your concubines have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or know, but the God in whose hand is your breath, and whose are all your ways, you have not honoured.

<sup>24</sup> "Then from his presence the hand was sent, and this writing was inscribed. <sup>25</sup> And this is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, and PARSIN. <sup>26</sup> This is the interpretation of the matter: MENE, God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end; <sup>27</sup> TEKEL, you have been weighed in the balances and found wanting; <sup>28</sup> PERES, your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

<sup>29</sup> Then Belshaz'zar commanded, and Daniel was clothed with purple, a chain of gold was put about his neck, and proclamation was made concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>6</sup> It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps, to be throughout the whole kingdom; <sup>2</sup> and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one, to whom these satraps should give account, so that the king might suffer no loss. <sup>3</sup> Then this Daniel became distinguished above all the other presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom. <sup>4</sup> Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find a ground for complaint against Daniel with regard to the kingdom; but they could find no ground for complaint or any fault, because he was faithful, and no error or fault was found in him. <sup>5</sup> Then these men said, "We shall not find any ground for complaint against this Daniel unless we find it in connection with the law of his God."

<sup>6</sup> Then these presidents and satraps came by agreement to the king and said to him, "O King Darius, live for ever! <sup>7</sup> All the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the counsellors and the governors are agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce an interdict, that whoever makes petition to any god or man for thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions. <sup>8</sup> Now, O king, establish the interdict and sign the document, so that it cannot be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which cannot be revoked." <sup>9</sup> Therefore King Darius signed the document and interdict. <sup>10</sup> When Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he went to his house where he had windows in his upper chamber open toward Jerusalem; and he got down upon his knees three times a day and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as he had done previously. <sup>11</sup> Then these men came by agreement and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. <sup>12</sup> Then they came near and said before the king, concerning the interdict, "O king! Did you not sign an interdict, that any man who makes petition to any god or man within thirty days except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered, "The thing stands fast, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be revoked." <sup>13</sup> Then they answered before the king, "That Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no heed to you, O king, or the interdict you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."

<sup>14</sup> Then the king, when he heard these words, was much distressed, and set his mind to deliver Daniel; and he laboured till the sun went down to rescue him. <sup>15</sup> Then these men came by agreement to the king, and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no interdict or ordinance which the king establishes can be changed."

<sup>16</sup> Then the king commanded, and Daniel was brought and cast into the den of lions. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!" <sup>17</sup> And a stone was brought and laid upon the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signet of his lords, that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. <sup>18</sup> Then the king went to his palace, and spent the night fasting; no diversions were brought to him, and sleep fled from him.

<sup>19</sup> Then, at break of day, the king arose and went in haste to the den of lions. <sup>20</sup> When he came near to the den where Daniel was, he cried out in a tone of anguish and said to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?" <sup>21</sup> Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live for ever! <sup>22</sup> My God sent his angel and shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me, because I was found blameless before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no wrong." <sup>23</sup> Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that Daniel be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of hurt was found upon him, because he had trusted in his God. <sup>24</sup> And the king commanded, and those men who had accused Daniel were brought and cast into the den of lions-- they, their children, and their wives; and before they reached the bottom of the den the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces.

<sup>25</sup> Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth: "Peace be multiplied to you. <sup>26</sup> I make a decree, that in all my royal dominion men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel,

for he is the living God, enduring for ever;
his kingdom shall never be destroyed,
and his dominion shall be to the end.

<sup>27</sup> He delivers and rescues,

he works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth,
he who has saved Daniel from the power of the lions."

<sup>7:1</sup> In the first year of Belshaz'zar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in his bed. Then he wrote down the dream, and told the sum of the matter. <sup>2</sup> Daniel said, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea. <sup>3</sup> And four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. <sup>4</sup> The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings. Then as I looked its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand upon two feet like a man; and the mind of a man was given to it. <sup>5</sup> And behold, another beast, a second one, like a bear. It was raised up on one side; it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and it was told, 'Arise, devour much flesh.' <sup>6</sup> After this I looked, and lo, another, like a leopard, with four wings of a bird on its back; and the beast had four heads; and dominion was given to it. <sup>7</sup> After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, terrible and dreadful and exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. <sup>8</sup> I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots; and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. <sup>9</sup> As I looked, thrones were placed

          and one that was ancient of days took his seat;
          his raiment was white as snow,
          and the hair of his head like pure wool;
          his throne was fiery flames,
          its wheels were burning fire.
<sup>10</sup> A stream of fire issued and came forth from before him;
          a thousand thousands served him,
          and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him;
          the court sat in judgement,
          and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup> I looked then because of the sound of the great words which the horn was speaking. And as I looked, the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given over to be burned with fire.

<sup>12</sup> As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. <sup>13</sup> I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven

          there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days
          and was presented before him.

<sup>14</sup> And to him was given dominion and glory and kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him;
          his dominion is an everlasting dominion,
          which shall not pass away,
          and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed.

<sup>15</sup> "As for me, Daniel, my spirit within me was anxious and the visions of my head alarmed me. <sup>16</sup> I approached one of those who stood there and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made known to me the interpretation of the things. <sup>17</sup> 'These four great beasts are four kings who shall arise out of the earth. <sup>18</sup> But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, for ever and ever.'

<sup>19</sup> "Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was different from all the rest, exceedingly terrible, with its teeth of iron and claws of bronze; and which devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; <sup>20</sup> and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up and before which three of them fell, the horn which had eyes and a mouth that spoke great things, and which seemed greater than its fellows. <sup>21</sup> As I looked, this horn made war with the saints, and prevailed over them, <sup>22</sup> until the Ancient of Days came, and judgement was given for the saints of the Most High, and the time came when the saints received the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup> "Thus he said: `As for the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces.

<sup>24</sup> As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise, and another shall arise after them; he shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings.

<sup>25</sup> He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, two times, and half a time.

<sup>26</sup> But the court shall sit in judgement, and his dominion shall be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end.

<sup>27</sup> And the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven shall be given<sup>16</sup> to the people of the saints of the Most High; their kingdom shall be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey them.'

8:<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of King Belshaz'zar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. <sup>2</sup> And I saw in the vision; and when I saw, I was in Susa the capital, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was at the river U'lai. <sup>3</sup> I raised my eyes and saw, and behold, a ram standing on the bank of the river. It had two horns; and both horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. <sup>4</sup> I saw the ram charging westward and northward and southward; no beast could stand before him, and there was no one who could rescue from his power; he did as he pleased and magnified himself.

<sup>5</sup> As I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the west across the face of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes. <sup>6</sup> He came to the ram with the two horns, which I had seen standing on the bank of the river, and he ran at him in his mighty wrath. <sup>7</sup> I saw him come close to the ram, and he was enraged against him and struck the ram and broke his two horns; and the ram had no power to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled upon him; and there was no one who could rescue the ram from his power. <sup>8</sup> Then the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly; but when he was strong, the great horn was broken, and instead of it there came up four conspicuous horns toward the four winds of heaven.

came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened and fell upon my face. But he said to me, "Understand, O son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end."

<sup>18</sup> As he was speaking to me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he touched me and set me on my feet. <sup>19</sup> He said, "Behold, I will make known to you what shall be at the latter end of the indignation; for it pertains to the appointed time of the end. <sup>20</sup> As for the ram which you saw with the two horns, these are the kings of Media and Persia. <sup>21</sup> And the he-goat is the king of Greece; and the great horn between his eyes is the first king. <sup>22</sup> As for the horn that was broken, in place of which four others arose, four kingdoms shall arise from his nation, but not with his power. <sup>23</sup> And at the latter end of their rule, when the transgressors have reached their full measure, a king of bold countenance, one who understands riddles, shall arise. <sup>24</sup> His power shall be great, and he shall cause fearful destruction, and shall succeed in what he does, and destroy mighty men and the people of the saints. <sup>25</sup> By his cunning he shall make deceit prosper under his hand, and in his own mind he shall magnify himself. Without warning he shall destroy many; and he shall even rise up against the Prince of princes; but, by no human hand, he shall be broken. <sup>26</sup> The vision of the evenings and the mornings which has been told is true; but seal up the vision, for it pertains to many days hence."

<sup>27</sup> And I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for some days; then I rose and went about the king's business; but I was appalled by the vision and did not understand it.

9:<sup>1</sup> In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasu-e'rus, by birth a Mede, who became king over the realm of the Chalde'ans-- <sup>2</sup> in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, perceived in the books the number of years which, according to the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet, must pass before the end of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years.

<sup>3</sup> Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and supplications with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. <sup>4</sup> I prayed to the LORD my God and made confession, saying, "O Lord, the great and terrible God, who keepest covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, <sup>5</sup> we have sinned and done wrong and acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from thy commandments and ordinances; <sup>6</sup> we have not listened to thy servants the prophets, who spoke in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. <sup>7</sup> To thee, O Lord, belongs righteousness, but to us confusion of face, as at this day, to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, those that are near and those that are far away, in all the lands to which thou hast driven them, because of the treachery which they have committed against thee. <sup>8</sup> To us, O Lord, belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. <sup>9</sup> To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness; because we have rebelled against him, <sup>10</sup> and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God by following his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. <sup>11</sup> All Israel has transgressed thy law and turned aside, refusing to obey thy voice. And the curse and oath which are written in the law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out upon us, because we have sinned against him. <sup>12</sup> He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us and against our rulers who ruled us, by bringing upon us a great calamity; for under the whole heaven there has not been done the like of what has been done against Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> As it is written in the law of Moses, all this calamity has come upon us, yet we have not entreated the favour of the LORD our God, turning from our iniquities and giving heed to thy truth. <sup>14</sup> Therefore the LORD has kept ready the calamity and has brought it upon us; for the LORD our God is righteous in all the works which he has done, and we have not obeyed his voice. <sup>15</sup> And now, O Lord our God, who didst bring thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast made thee a name, as at this day, we have sinned, we have done wickedly. <sup>16</sup> O Lord, according to all thy righteous acts, let thy anger and thy wrath turn away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy hill; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people have become a byword among all who are round about us. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore, O our God, hearken to the prayer of thy servant and to his supplications, and for thy own sake, O Lord, cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary, which is desolate. <sup>18</sup> O my God, incline thy ear and hear; open thy eyes and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name; for we do not present our supplications before thee on the ground of our righteousness, but on the ground of thy great mercy. <sup>19</sup> O LORD, hear; O LORD, forgive; O LORD, give heed and act; delay not, for thy own sake, O my God, because thy city and thy people are called by thy name."

<sup>20</sup> While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy hill of my God; <sup>21</sup> while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the first, came to me in swift flight at the time of the evening sacrifice. <sup>22</sup> He came and he said to me, "O Daniel, I have now come out to give you wisdom and understanding. <sup>23</sup> At the beginning of your supplications a word went forth, and I have come to tell it to you, for you are greatly beloved; therefore consider the word and understand the vision.

<sup>24</sup> "Seventy weeks of years are decreed concerning your people and your holy city, to finish the transgression, to put an end to sin, and to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal both vision and prophet, and to anoint a most holy place. <sup>25</sup> Know therefore and understand that from the going forth of the word to restore and build Jerusalem to the coming of an anointed one, a prince, there shall be seven weeks. Then for sixty-two weeks it shall be built again with squares and moat, but in a troubled time. <sup>26</sup> And after the sixty-two weeks, an anointed one shall be cut off, and shall have nothing; and the people of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end shall come with a flood, and to the end there shall be war; desolations are decreed. <sup>27</sup> And he shall make a strong covenant with many for one week; and for half of the week he shall cause sacrifice and offering to cease; and upon the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate, until the decreed end is poured out on the desolator."

10:<sup>1</sup> In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a word was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshaz'zar. And the word was true, and it was a great conflict. And he understood the word and had understanding of the vision.

<sup>2</sup> In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three weeks. <sup>3</sup> I ate no delicacies, no meat or wine entered my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, for the full three weeks. <sup>4</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, that is, the Tigris, <sup>5</sup> I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with gold of Uphaz. <sup>6</sup> His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the noise of a multitude. <sup>7</sup> And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision, but a great trembling fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves. <sup>8</sup> So I was left alone and saw this great vision, and no strength was left in me; my radiant appearance was fearfully changed, and I retained no strength. <sup>9</sup> Then I heard the sound of his words; and when I heard the sound of his words, I fell on my face in a deep sleep with my face to the ground.

<sup>10</sup> And behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. <sup>11</sup> And he said to me, "O Daniel, man greatly beloved, give heed to the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for now I have been sent to you." While he was speaking this word to me, I stood up trembling. <sup>12</sup> Then he said to me, "Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your mind to understand and humbled yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words. <sup>13</sup> The prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, so I left him there with the prince of the kingdom of Persia <sup>14</sup> and came to make you understand what is to befall your people in the latter days. For the vision is for days yet to come."

<sup>15</sup> When he had spoken to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground and was dumb. <sup>16</sup> And behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke. I said to him who stood before me, "O my lord, by reason of the vision pains have come upon me, and I retain no strength. <sup>17</sup> How can my lord's servant talk with my lord? For now no strength remains in me, and no breath is left in me." <sup>18</sup> Again one having the appearance of a man touched me and strengthened me. <sup>19</sup> And he said, "O man greatly beloved, fear not<sup>17</sup>, peace be with you; be strong and of good courage." And when he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me." <sup>20</sup> Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? But now I will return to fight against the prince of Persia; and when I am through with him, lo, the prince of Greece will come. <sup>21</sup> But I will tell you what is inscribed in the book of truth: there is none who contends by my side against these except Michael, your prince. 11:<sup>1</sup> And as for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.

<sup>2</sup> "And now I will show you the truth. Behold, three more kings shall arise in Persia; and a fourth shall be far richer than all of them; and when he has become strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Greece. <sup>3</sup> Then a mighty king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion and do according to his will. <sup>4</sup> And when he has arisen, his kingdom shall be broken and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to the dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up and go to others besides these.

<sup>14</sup> "In those times many shall rise against the king of the south; and the men of violence among your own people shall lift themselves up in order to fulfil the vision; but they shall fail. <sup>15</sup> Then the king of the north shall come and throw up siegeworks, and take a well-fortified city. And the forces of the south shall not stand, or even his picked troops, for there shall be no strength to stand. <sup>16</sup> But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the glorious land, and all of it shall be in his power. <sup>17</sup> He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and he shall bring terms of peace and perform them. He shall give him the daughter of women to destroy the kingdom; but it shall not stand or be to his advantage. <sup>18</sup> Afterward he shall turn his face to the coastlands, and shall take many of them; but a commander shall put an end to his insolence; indeed he shall turn his insolence back upon him. <sup>19</sup> Then he shall turn his face back toward the fortresses of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found.

<sup>20</sup> "Then shall arise in his place one who shall send an exactor of tribute through the glory of the kingdom; but within a few days he shall be broken, neither in anger nor in battle. <sup>21</sup> In his place shall arise a contemptible person to whom royal majesty has not been given; he shall come in without warning and obtain the kingdom by flatteries<sup>18</sup>. <sup>22</sup> Armies shall be utterly swept away before him and broken, and the prince of the covenant<sup>19</sup> also. <sup>23</sup> And from the time that an alliance is made with him he shall act deceitfully; and he shall become strong with a small people. <sup>24</sup> Without warning he shall come into the richest parts of the province; and he shall do what neither his fathers nor his fathers' fathers have done, scattering among them plunder, spoil, and goods. He shall devise plans against strongholds, but only for a time. <sup>25</sup> And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall wage war with an exceedingly great and mighty army; but he shall not stand, for plots shall be devised against him. <sup>26</sup> Even those who eat his rich food shall be his undoing; his army shall be swept away, and many shall fall down slain. <sup>27</sup> And as for the two kings, their minds shall be bent on mischief; they shall speak lies at the same table, but to no avail; for the end is yet to be at the time appointed. <sup>28</sup> And he shall return to his land with great substance, but his heart shall be set against the holy covenant. And he shall work his will, and return to his own land.

<sup>29</sup> "At the time appointed he shall return and come into the south; but it shall not be this time as it was before. <sup>30</sup> For ships of Kittim shall come against him, and he shall be afraid and withdraw, and shall turn back and be enraged and take action against the holy covenant<sup>20</sup>. He shall turn back and give heed to those who forsake the holy covenant<sup>21</sup>.<sup>31</sup> Forces from him shall appear and profane the temple and fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering. And they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate<sup>22</sup>.<sup>32</sup> He shall seduce with flattery<sup>23</sup> those who violate<sup>24</sup> the covenant<sup>25</sup>; but the people who know<sup>26</sup> their God shall stand firm and take action<sup>27</sup>.<sup>33</sup> And those among the people who are wise shall make many<sup>28</sup> understand, though they shall fall<sup>29</sup> by sword and flame, by captivity and plunder, for some days<sup>30</sup>.<sup>34</sup> When they fall, they shall receive a little help. And many shall join<sup>31</sup> themselves to them with flattery<sup>32</sup>; <sup>35</sup> and some of those who are wise shall fall, to refine<sup>33</sup> and to cleanse them and to make them white, until the time of the end, for it is yet for the time appointed.

<sup>36</sup> "And the king shall do according to his will; he shall exalt himself and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak astonishing things against the God of gods. He shall prosper till the indignation is accomplished; for what is determined shall be done. <sup>37</sup> He shall give no heed to the gods of his fathers, or to the one beloved by women; he shall not give heed to any other god, for he shall magnify himself above all. <sup>38</sup> He shall honour the god of fortresses instead of these; a god whom his fathers did not know he shall honour with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts. <sup>39</sup> He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god; those who acknowledge him he shall magnify with honour. He shall make them rulers over many and shall divide the land for a price.

<sup>40</sup> "At the time of the end the king of the south shall attack him; but the king of the north shall rush upon him like a whirlwind, with chariots and horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall come into countries and shall overflow and pass through. <sup>41</sup> He shall come into the glorious land. And tens of thousands shall fall, but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom and Moab and the main part of the Ammonites. <sup>42</sup> He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. <sup>43</sup> He shall become ruler of the treasures of gold and of silver, and all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall follow in his train. <sup>44</sup> But tidings from the east and the north shall alarm him, and he shall go forth with great fury to exterminate and utterly destroy many. <sup>45</sup> And he shall pitch his palatial tents between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, with none to help him.

12: "At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time; but at that time your people shall be delivered, every one whose name shall be found written in the book. <sup>2</sup> And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. <sup>3</sup> And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament; and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever. <sup>4</sup> But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, until the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge<sup>34</sup> shall increase."

The book of Hosea

1: The word of the LORD that came to Hose'a the son of Be-e'ri, in the days of Uzzi'ah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezeki'ah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jerobo'am the son of Jo'ash, king of Israel.

2 When the LORD first spoke through Hose'a, the LORD said to Hose'a, "Go, take to yourself a wife of harlotry<sup>1</sup> and have children of harlotry, for the land commits great harlotry by forsaking the LORD." 3 So he went and took<sup>2</sup> Gomer the daughter of Dibla'im, and she conceived and bore him a son.

4 And the LORD said to him, "Call his name Jezreel<sup>3</sup>; for yet a little while, and I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel. 5 And on that day, I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

6 She conceived again and bore a<sup>4</sup> daughter. And the LORD said to him, "Call her name Not pitied, for I will no more have pity on the house of Israel, to forgive them at all. 7 But I will have pity on the house of Judah, and I will deliver them by the LORD their God; I will not deliver them by bow, nor by sword, nor by war, nor by horses, nor by horsemen."

8 When she had weaned Not pitied, she conceived<sup>5</sup> and bore a son. 9 And the LORD said, "Call his name Not my people, for you are not my people and I am not your God."

10 Yet the number of the people of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which can be neither measured nor numbered; and in the place<sup>6</sup> where it was said to them, "You are not my people," it shall be said to them, "Sons of the living God." 11 And the people of Judah and the people of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint for themselves one head; and they shall go up from the land, for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

2: Say to your brother, "My people," and to your sister, "She has obtained pity."

2 "Plead with your mother, plead-- for she is not my wife<sup>7</sup>, and I am not her husband<sup>8</sup>--
that she put away her harlotry from her face,
and her adultery from between her breasts;
3 lest I strip her naked
and make her as in the day she was born,
and make her like a wilderness,
and set her like a parched land,
and slay her with thirst.

4 Upon her children also I will have no pity,
because they are children of harlotry.
5 For their mother has played the harlot;
she that conceived them has acted shamefully.
For she said, 'I will go after my lovers<sup>9</sup>,
who give me my bread and my water,
my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'

6 Therefore I will hedge up her way with thorns;
and I will build a wall against her,
so that she cannot find her paths.

7 She shall pursue her lovers, but not overtake them;
and she shall seek them, but shall not find them.
Then she shall say, 'I will go and return to my first husband<sup>10</sup>,
for it was better with me than now.'

<sup>11</sup>"trouble"

<sup>12</sup>Deut 24:1-4 does not apply to Israel because never divorced: in Hosea's case possibly because not a formal marriage

<sup>13</sup>This gives rather the wrong impression, though may be correct in emphasising that this was not a formal marriage (Hos 1:3). AV & Lit = "loved of a friend". NASB = "her husband" for the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land.

There is no faithfulness or kindness,
and no knowledge of God in the land;
2 there is swearing, lying, killing, stealing,
and committing adultery;
they break all bounds and murder follows murder.
3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who dwell in it languish, and also the beasts of the field, and the birds of the air;
and even the fish of the sea are taken away.

4 Yet let no one contend, and let none accuse,
for with you is my contention, O priest.
5 You shall stumble by day,
the prophet also shall stumble with you by night;
and I will destroy your mother.
6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge;
because you have rejected knowledge,
I reject you from being a priest to me.
And since you have forgotten the law of your God,
I also will forget your children.

7 The more they increased, the more they sinned against me;
I will change their glory into shame.
8 They feed on the sin of my people;
they are greedy for their iniquity.
9 And it shall be like people, like priest;
I will punish them for their ways,
and requite them for their deeds.
10 They shall eat, but not be satisfied;
they shall play the harlot, but not multiply;
because they have forsaken the LORD to cherish harlotry.

11 Wine and new wine<sup>15</sup> take away the understanding<sup>A16</sup>.
12 My people inquire of a thing of wood,
and their staff gives them oracles.
For a spirit of harlotry has led them astray,
and they have left their God to play the harlot.
13 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains,
and make offerings upon the hills,
under oak, poplar, and terebinth, because their shade is good.
Therefore your daughters play the harlot,
and your brides commit adultery.
14 I will not punish your daughters<sup>A</sup> when they play the harlot<sup>A</sup>, nor your brides<sup>B</sup> when they commit adultery<sup>B17</sup>;
for the men themselves go aside with harlots,
and sacrifice with cult prostitutes,
and a people without understanding<sup>A18</sup> shall come to ruin.

15 Though you play the harlot, O Israel,
let not Judah become guilty.
Enter not into Gilgal, nor go up to Beth-a'ven,
and swear not, "As the LORD lives."
16 Like a stubborn heifer, Israel is stubborn; can the LORD now feed them like a lamb in a broad pasture?

<sup>18</sup>Hos 6:11

17 E'phraim is joined to idols, let him alone.
18 A band of drunkards<sup>19</sup>, they give themselves to harlotry;
they love shame more than their glory.
19 A wind has wrapped them in its wings,
and they shall be ashamed because of their altars.

5:<sub>1</sub> Hear this, O priests!
Give heed, O house of Israel!
Hearken, O house of the king!
For the judgement pertains to you;
for you have been a snare at Mizpah,
and a net spread upon Tabor.
<sub>2</sub> And they have made deep the pit of Shittim;
but I will chastise all of them.

<sub>3</sub> I know E'phraim, and Israel is not hid from me;
for now, O E'phraim, you have played the harlot, Israel is defiled.
<sub>4</sub> Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God.
For the spirit of harlotry is within them,
and they know not the LORD.

<sub>5</sub> The pride of Israel testifies to his face;
E'phraim shall stumble in his guilt;
Judah also shall stumble with them.
<sub>6</sub> With their flocks and herds they shall go to seek the LORD,
but they will not find him; he has withdrawn from them.
<sub>7</sub> They have dealt faithlessly with the LORD;
for they have borne alien children.
Now the new moon shall devour them with their fields.
<sub>8</sub> Blow the horn in Gib'e-ah, the trumpet in Ramah.
Sound the alarm at Beth-a'ven; tremble, O Benjamin!
<sub>9</sub> E'phraim shall become a desolation in the day of punishment;
among the tribes of Israel I declare what is sure.
<sub>10</sub> The princes of Judah have become like those who remove the landmark;
upon them I will pour out my wrath like water.
<sub>11</sub> E'phraim is oppressed, crushed in judgement, because he was determined to go after vanity.
<sub>12</sub> Therefore I am like a moth to E'phraim, and like dry rot to the house of Judah.

<sub>13</sub> When E'phraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound, then E'phraim went to Assyria, and sent to the great king.
But he is not able to cure you or heal your wound.
<sub>14</sub> For I will be like a lion to E'phraim,
and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I, even I, will rend and go away,
I will carry off, and none shall rescue.

<sub>15</sub> I will return again to my place, until<sup>20</sup> they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face,
and in their distress they seek me, saying,

on the third day he will raise us up,
that we may live before him.
<sup>3</sup> Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD;
his going forth is sure as the dawn;
he will come to us as the showers,
as the spring rains<sup>21</sup> that water the earth."

<sup>4</sup> What shall I do with you, O E'phraim?
What shall I do with you, O Judah?
Your love is like a morning cloud,
like the dew that goes early away.
<sup>5</sup> Therefore I have hewn<sup>22</sup> them by the prophets,
I have slain them by the words of my mouth,
and my judgement goes forth as the light.
<sup>6</sup> For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice,
the knowledge of God, rather than burnt offerings.

<sup>7</sup> But at Adam they transgressed the covenant;
there they dealt faithlessly with me.
<sup>8</sup> Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood.
<sup>9</sup> As robbers lie in wait for a man,
so the priests are banded together;
they murder on the way to Shechem,
yea, they commit villainy.
<sup>10</sup> In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing;
E'phraim's harlotry is there, Israel is defiled.

<sup>11</sup> For you also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed.
When I would restore the fortunes of my people,
7:1 when I would heal Israel,
the corruption of E'phraim is revealed,
and the wicked deeds of Sama'ria;
for they deal falsely, the thief breaks in,
and the bandits raid without.
<sup>2</sup> But they do not consider that I remember all their evil works.
Now their deeds encompass them, they are before my face.
<sup>3</sup> By their wickedness they make the king glad,
and the princes by their treachery.
<sup>4</sup> They are all adulterers;
they are like a heated oven,
whose baker ceases to stir the fire,
from the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.
<sup>5</sup> On the day<sup>23</sup> of our king the princes became sick with the heat of wine;
he stretched out his hand with mockers.
<sup>6</sup> For like an oven their hearts burn with intrigue;
all night their anger smoulders;
in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.
<sup>7</sup> All of them are hot as an oven,
and they devour their rulers.
All their kings have fallen;
and none of them calls upon me.

<sup>8</sup> E'phraim mixes himself with the peoples;
E'phraim is a cake not turned.

<sup>11</sup> E'phraim is like a dove, silly and without sense, calling to Egypt, going to Assyria.
<sup>12</sup> As they go, I will spread over them my net;
I will bring them down like birds of the air;
I will chastise them for their wicked deeds.
<sup>13</sup> Woe to them, for they have strayed from me!
Destruction to them, for they have rebelled against me!
I would redeem them, but they speak lies against me.

<sup>14</sup> They do not cry to me from the heart,
but they wail upon their beds;
for grain and wine they gash themselves,
they rebel against me.
<sup>15</sup> Although I trained and strengthened their arms, yet they devise evil against me.
<sup>16</sup> They turn to Ba'al;
they are like a treacherous bow,
their princes shall fall by the sword
because of the insolence of their tongue.
This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

8: Set the trumpet to your lips,
for a vulture is over the house of the LORD,
because they have broken my covenant,
and transgressed my law.
<sup>2</sup> To me they cry,
My God, we Israel know thee.
<sup>3</sup> Israel has spurned the good;
the enemy shall pursue him.
<sup>4</sup> They made kings, but not through me.
They set up princes, but without my knowledge.
With their silver and gold they made idols
for their own destruction.
<sup>5</sup> I have spurned your calf, O Sama'ria.
My anger burns against them.
How long will it be till they are pure <sup>6</sup> in Israel?

A workman made it; it is not God.
The calf of Sama'ria shall be broken to pieces.

<sup>7</sup> For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind.
The standing grain has no heads, it shall yield no meal;
if it were to yield, aliens would devour it.
<sup>8</sup> Israel is swallowed up;
already they are among the nations as a useless vessel.
<sup>9</sup> For they have gone up to Assyria,
a wild ass wandering alone;
E'phraim has hired lovers.
<sup>10</sup> Though they hire allies among the nations,
I will soon gather them up.
And they shall cease for a little while from anointing king and princes.

<sup>11</sup> Because E'phraim has multiplied altars for sinning,

they have become to him altars for sinning.
12 Were I to write for him my laws by ten thousands,
they would be regarded as a strange thing.
13 They love sacrifice;
they sacrifice flesh and eat it;
but the LORD has no delight in them.
Now he will remember their iniquity,
and punish their sins;
they shall return to Egypt.
14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and built palaces;
and Judah has multiplied fortified cities;
but I will send a fire upon his cities,
and it shall devour his strongholds.

9:1 Rejoice not, O Israel!
Exult not like the peoples;
for you have played the harlot, forsaking your God.
You have loved a harlot's hire upon all threshing floors.
2 Threshing floor and winevat shall not feed them,
and the new wine shall fail them.
3 They shall not remain in the land of the LORD;
but E'phraim shall return to Egypt,
and they shall eat unclean food in Assyria.

4 They shall not pour libations of wine to the LORD;
and they shall not please him with their sacrifices.
Their bread shall be like mourners' bread;
all who eat of it shall be defiled;
for their bread shall be for their hunger only;
it shall not come to the house of the LORD.

5 What will you do on the day of appointed festival,
and on the day of the feast of the LORD?
6 For behold, they are going to Assyria;
Egypt shall gather them, Memphis shall bury them.
Nettles shall possess their precious things of silver;
thorns shall be in their tents.

7 The days of punishment have come,
the days of recompense have come;
Israel shall know it.
The prophet is a fool, the man of the spirit is mad,
because of your great iniquity and great hatred.
8 The prophet is the watchman of E'phraim,
the people of my God,
yet a fowler's snare is on all his ways,
and hatred in the house of his God.
9 They have deeply corrupted themselves
as in the days of Gib'e-ah:
he will remember their iniquity,
he will punish their sins.

10 Like grapes in the wilderness, I found Israel.
Like the first fruit on the fig tree, in its first season,
I saw your fathers.
But they came to Ba'al-pe'or, and consecrated themselves to Ba'al,
and became detestable like the thing they loved.
11 E'phraim's glory shall fly away like a bird-- no birth, no pregnancy, no conception!
12 Even if they bring up children,

I will bereave them till none is left.
Woe to them when I depart from them!
13 E'phraim's sons, as I have seen,
are destined for a prey;
E'phraim must lead forth his sons to slaughter.
14 Give them, O LORD--
what wilt thou give?
Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 Every evil of theirs is in Gilgal;
there I began to hate them.
Because of the wickedness of their deeds
I will drive them out of my house.
I will love them no more;
all their princes are rebels.

16 E'phraim is stricken, their root is dried up,
they shall bear no fruit.
Even though they bring forth,
I will slay their beloved children.
17 My God will cast them off,
because they have not hearkened to him;
they shall be wanderers among the nations.

10:<sub>1</sub> Israel is a luxuriant vine that yields its fruit.

3 For now they will say:
"We have no king, for we fear not the LORD,
and a king, what could he do for us?"
4 They utter mere words;
with empty oaths they make covenants;

Its people shall mourn for it,
and its idolatrous priests shall wail over it,

6 Yea, the thing itself shall be carried to Assyria,
as tribute to the great king.
E'phraim shall be put to shame,
and Israel shall be ashamed of his idol.

7 Sama'ria's king shall perish,

8 The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel,

<sup>15</sup> Thus it shall be done to you, O house of Israel, where are all your princes, to defend you-- those of whom you said, "Give me a king and princes"?

<sub>11</sub> I have given you kings in my anger,
and I have taken them away in my wrath.

<sub>12</sub> The iniquity of E'phraim is bound up, his sin is kept in store.

<sub>13</sub> The pangs of childbirth come for him,
but he is an unwise son;
for now he does not present himself at the mouth of the womb.

<sub>14</sub> Shall I ransom them from the power of Sheol?

Shall I redeem them from Death?

O Death, where are your plagues?

O Sheol, where is your destruction?

Compassion is hid from my eyes.

<sub>15</sub> Though he may flourish as the reed plant,
the east wind, the wind of the LORD, shall come,
rising from the wilderness;
and his fountain shall dry up, his spring shall be parched;
it shall strip his treasury of every precious thing.

<sub>16</sub> Sama'ria shall bear her guilt,
because she has rebelled against her God;
they shall fall by the sword,
their little ones shall be dashed in pieces,
and their pregnant women ripped open.

14:<sub>1</sub> Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for you have stumbled because of your iniquity.

<sup>2</sup> Take with you words and return to the LORD;
say to him, "Take away all iniquity;
accept that which is good
and we will render the fruit of our lips.

<sup>3</sup> Assyria shall not save us,
we will not ride upon horses;
and we will say no more, 'Our God,'
to the work of our hands.
In thee the orphan finds mercy."

<sup>4</sup> I will heal their faithlessness;
I will love them freely,
for my anger has turned from them.

<sup>5</sup> I will be as the dew to Israel;
he shall blossom as the lily,
he shall strike root as the poplar;

<sup>6</sup> his shoots shall spread out;
his beauty shall be like the olive,
and his fragrance like Lebanon.

<sup>7</sup> They shall return and dwell beneath my shadow,
they shall flourish as a garden;
they shall blossom as the vine,
their fragrance shall be like the wine of Lebanon.

<sup>8</sup> O E'phraim, what have I to do with idols?
It is I who answer and look after you.

I am like an evergreen cypress, from me comes your fruit.

<sup>9</sup> Whoever is wise, let him understand these things;
whoever is discerning, let him know them;
for the ways of the LORD are right,
and the upright walk in them,
but transgressors stumble in them.

The book of Joel

1: The word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethu'el:

2 Hear this, you aged men,
give ear, all inhabitants of the land!
Has such a thing happened in your days,
or in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell your children of it,
and let your children tell their children,
and their children another generation.

4 What the cutting locust left,
the swarming locust has eaten.
What the swarming locust left,
the hopping locust has eaten,
and what the hopping locust left,
the destroying locust has eaten.

5 Awake, you drunkards, and weep;
and wail, all you drinkers of wine,
because of the sweet wine, for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation has come up against my land, powerful and without number;
its teeth are lions' teeth,
and it has the fangs of a lioness.

7 It has laid waste my vines, and splintered my fig trees;
it has stripped off their bark and thrown it down;
their branches are made white.

8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth
for the bridegroom of her youth.

9 The cereal offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of the LORD.
The priests mourn, the ministers of the LORD.

10 The fields are laid waste, the ground mourns;
because the grain is destroyed, the wine fails, the oil languishes.

11 Be confounded, O tillers of the soil,
wail, O vinedressers, for the wheat and the barley;
because the harvest of the field has perished.

12 The vine withers, the fig tree languishes.
Pomegranate, palm, and apple,
all the trees of the field are withered;
and gladness fails from the sons of men.

13 Gird on sackcloth and lament, O priests,
wail, O ministers of the altar.
Go in, pass the night in sackcloth, O ministers of my God!
Because cereal offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.

14 Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly.
Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God;
and cry to the LORD.

15 Alas for the day!
For the day of the LORD is near,
and as destruction from the Almighty it comes.

<sup>16</sup> Is not the food cut off before our eyes,
joy and gladness from the house of our God?

<sup>17</sup> The seed shrivels under the clods,
the storehouses are desolate;
the granaries are ruined because the grain has failed.

<sup>18</sup> How the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle are perplexed
because there is no pasture for them;
even the flocks of sheep are dismayed.

<sup>19</sup> Unto thee, O LORD, I cry.
For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
and flame has burned all the trees of the field.

<sup>20</sup> Even the wild beasts cry to thee
because the water brooks are dried up,
and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2:<sup>1</sup> Blow the trumpet in Zion;
sound the alarm on my holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble,
for the day of the LORD is coming, it is near, <sup>2</sup> a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness!
Like blackness there is spread upon the mountains
a great and powerful people;
their like has never been from of old,
nor will be again after them through the years of all generations.

<sup>3</sup> Fire devours before them, and behind them a flame burns.
The land is like the garden of Eden before them,
but after them a desolate wilderness, and nothing escapes them.

<sup>4</sup> Their appearance is like the appearance of horses,
and like war horses they run.
<sup>5</sup> As with the rumbling of chariots,
they leap on the tops of the mountains,
like the crackling of a flame of fire devouring the stubble,
like a powerful army drawn up for battle.

<sup>6</sup> Before them peoples are in anguish,
all faces grow pale.
<sup>7</sup> Like warriors they charge,
like soldiers they scale the wall.
They march each on his way, they do not swerve from their paths.
<sup>8</sup> They do not jostle one another,
each marches in his path;
they burst through the weapons and are not halted.
<sup>9</sup> They leap upon the city,
they run upon the walls;
they climb up into the houses,
they enter through the windows like a thief.

<sup>10</sup> The earth quakes before them, the heavens tremble.
The sun and the moon are darkened,
and the stars withdraw their shining.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD utters his voice before his army, for his host is exceedingly great;
he that executes his word is powerful.
For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible;

who can endure it?

<sup>12</sup> "Yet even now," says the LORD,
"return to me with all your heart,
with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;
<sup>13</sup> and rend your hearts and not your garments."
Return to the LORD, your God,
for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger,
and abounding in steadfast love, and repents of evil.
<sup>14</sup> Who knows whether he will not turn and repent,
and leave a blessing behind him,
a cereal offering and a drink offering for the LORD, your God?

<sup>15</sup> Blow the trumpet in Zion; sanctify a fast;
call a solemn assembly;
<sup>16</sup> gather the people.
Sanctify the congregation;
assemble the elders;
gather the children, even nursing infants.
Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her chamber.

<sup>17</sup> Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep
and say, "Spare thy people, O LORD,
and make not thy heritage a reproach,
a byword among the nations.
Why should they say among the peoples, `Where is their God?'"

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD became jealous for his land, and had pity on his people.
<sup>19</sup> The LORD answered and said to his people,
"Behold, I am sending to you grain, wine, and oil,
and you will be satisfied;
and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations.

<sup>20</sup> "I will remove the northerner far from you,
and drive him into a parched and desolate land,
his front into the eastern sea,
and his rear into the western sea;
the stench and foul smell of him will rise,
for he has done great things.

<sup>21</sup> "Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things!
<sup>22</sup> Fear not, you beasts of the field,
for the pastures of the wilderness are green;
the tree bears its fruit,
the fig tree and vine give their full yield.

<sup>23</sup> "Be glad, O sons of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD, your God;
for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain,
the early and the latter rain<sup>1</sup>, as before.

the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.
<sup>25</sup> I will restore to you the years

which the swarming locust has eaten<sup>2</sup>,
the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter,
my great army, which I sent among you.

<sup>26</sup> "You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God,
who has dealt wondrously with you.
And my people shall never again be put to shame.

<sup>27</sup> You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is none else.
And my people shall never again be put to shame.

<sup>28</sup> "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out<sup>3</sup> my spirit on all flesh;
your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
your old men shall dream dreams,
and your young men shall see visions.

<sup>29</sup> Even upon the menservants and maidservants in those days,
I will pour out my spirit.

<sup>30</sup> "And I will give portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. <sup>31</sup> The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes. <sup>32</sup> And it shall come to pass that all who call upon the name of the LORD shall be delivered; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

3:<sup>1</sup> "For behold, in those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup> I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehosh'aphat, and I will enter into judgement with them there, on account of my people and my heritage Israel, because they have scattered them among the nations, and have divided up my land, <sup>3</sup> and have cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for a harlot, and have sold a girl for wine, and have drunk it.

<sup>4</sup> "What are you to me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you paying me back for something? If you are paying me back, I will requite your deed upon your own head swiftly and speedily. <sup>5</sup> For you have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried my rich treasures into your temples. <sup>6</sup> You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, removing them far from their own border. <sup>7</sup> But now I will stir them up from the place to which you have sold them, and I will requite your deed upon your own head. <sup>8</sup> I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabe'ans, to a nation far off; for the LORD has spoken."

<sup>9</sup> Proclaim this among the nations:
Prepare war, stir up the mighty men.
Let all the men of war draw near, let them come up.

<sup>10</sup> Beat your ploughshares into swords,
and your pruning hooks into spears;
let the weak say, "I am a warrior."

<sup>11</sup> Hasten and come, all you nations round about, gather yourselves there. Bring down thy warriors, O LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Let the nations bestir themselves,
and come up to the valley of Jehosh'aphat;
for there I will sit to judge all the nations round about.

<sup>13</sup> Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.
Go in, tread, for the wine press is full.
The vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.

<sup>21</sup> I will avenge their blood,

for the LORD dwells in Zion."

The book of Amos

1:1 The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds of Teko'a<sup>1</sup>, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzzi'ah king of Judah and in the days of Jerobo'am the son of Jo'ash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake<sup>2</sup>. 2 And he said:

"The LORD roars from Zion, and utters his voice<sup>3</sup> from Jerusalem;
the pastures of the shepherds<sup>4</sup> mourn,
and the top of Carmel withers."

Beyond the limits of acceptable practice in war: "crimes against humanity": the causes of final judgement: judgement of fire on the nations for war-crimes

Judgement on Syria

3 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four<sup>5</sup>, I will not revoke the punishment<sup>6</sup>;
because they have threshed Gilead with threshing sledges of iron.

4 So I will 1) send a fire upon the house of Haz'ael<sup>7</sup>, and 2) it shall devour the strongholds of Ben-ha'dad<sup>8</sup>.

5 I will 3) break the bar of Damascus, and 4) cut off the inhabitants from the Valley of Aven, and 5) him that holds the sceptre from Beth-eden;
and 6) the people of Syria shall go into exile to Kir<sup>9</sup>,"
says the LORD.

Judgement on Philistia

6 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Gaza,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment;
because they carried into exile a whole people
to deliver them up to Edom.

7 So I will send a fire<sup>10</sup> upon the wall<sup>11</sup> of Gaza,
and it shall devour her strongholds.

8 I will cut off the inhabitants from Ashdod,
and him that holds the sceptre from Ash'kelon;
I will turn my hand against Ekron;
and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish<sup>12</sup>,"
says the Lord GOD.

Judgement on Tyre

9 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Tyre,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment;
because they delivered up a whole people to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of brotherhood<sup>13</sup>."

Judgement on Edom

<sup>11</sup> Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Edom,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment;
because he pursued his brother with the sword,
and cast off all pity<sup>14</sup>,
and his anger tore perpetually,
and he kept his wrath for ever.

<sup>12</sup> So I will send a fire upon Teman, and it shall devour the strongholds of Bozrah."

Judgement on Ammon

<sup>13</sup> Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of the Ammonites,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment;
because they have ripped up women with child in Gilead,
that they might enlarge their border.

<sup>14</sup> So I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,
and it shall devour her strongholds,
with shouting in the day of battle,
with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind;

<sup>15</sup> and their king shall go into exile,
he and his princes together," says the LORD.

Judgement on Moab

2:<sup>1</sup> Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Moab,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment;
because he burned to lime the bones of the king of Edom.

<sup>2</sup> So I will send a fire upon Moab,
and it shall devour the strongholds of Ker'ioth,
and Moab shall die amid uproar,
amid shouting and the sound of the trumpet;

<sup>3</sup> I will cut off the ruler from its midst, and will slay all its princes with him," says the LORD.

Judgement on Judah: for sin against God

<sup>4</sup> Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Judah,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment;
because they have rejected the law of the LORD,
and have not kept his statutes,
but their lies<sup>15</sup> have led them astray,
after which their fathers walked.

<sup>5</sup> So I will send a fire upon Judah,
and it shall devour the strongholds of Jerusalem."

Judgement on Israel: for sins against justice

<sup>6</sup> Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment<sup>16</sup>;
because they sell the righteous for silver<sup>17</sup>,

they drink the wine of those who have been fined<sup>25</sup>.

God's justice & concern for his people

9 "Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars,
and who was as strong as the oaks;
I destroyed his fruit above, and his roots beneath.
10 Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,
and led you forty years in the wilderness,
to possess<sup>26</sup> the land of the Amorite.
11 And I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for Nazirites<sup>27</sup>.
Is it not indeed so, O people of Israel?"
says the LORD.

12 "But you made the Nazirites drink wine<sup>28</sup>,
and commanded the prophets, saying,
"You shall not prophesy."<sup>29</sup>

13 "Behold, I will press you down in your place, as a cart full of sheaves presses down<sup>30</sup>.
14 Flight shall perish from the swift,
and the strong shall not retain his strength,
nor shall the mighty save his life;
15 he who handles the bow shall not stand,
and he who is swift of foot shall not save himself,
nor shall he who rides the horse save his life;
16 and he who is stout of heart among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day,"
says the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:
"An adversary shall surround the land,
and bring down your defences from you,
and your strongholds shall be plundered."

<sup>12</sup> Thus says the LORD: "As the shepherd rescues from the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the people of Israel who dwell in Sama'ria be rescued<sup>42</sup>, with the corner of a couch and part of a bed."

The book of Obadiah

1:1 The vision of Obadi'ah.

Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom:
We have heard tidings from the LORD,
and a messenger has been sent among the nations:
"Rise up! let us rise against her for battle!"

<sup>2</sup> Behold, I will make you small among the nations, you shall be utterly despised.

<sup>3</sup> The pride of your heart has deceived you,
you who live in the clefts of the rock,
whose dwelling is high, who say in your heart,
"Who will bring me down to the ground?"

<sup>4</sup> Though you soar aloft like the eagle,
though your nest is set among the stars,
thence I will bring you down, says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> If thieves came to you, if plunderers by night-- how you have been destroyed!-- would they not steal only enough for themselves?
If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings?

<sup>7</sup> All your allies have deceived you,
they have driven you to the border;
your confederates have prevailed against you;
your trusted friends have set a trap under you--
there is no understanding of it.

<sup>8</sup> Will I not on that day, says the LORD, destroy the wise men out of Edom,
and understanding out of Mount Esau?

<sup>9</sup> And your mighty men shall be dismayed, O Teman, so that every man from Mount Esau will be cut off by slaughter.

<sup>10</sup> For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off for ever.

<sup>11</sup> On the day that you stood aloof,
on the day that strangers carried off his wealth,
and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem,
you were like one of them.

<sup>12</sup> But you should not have gloated over the day of your brother in the day of his misfortune;
you should not have rejoiced over the people of Judah
in the day of their ruin;
you should not have boasted in the day of distress.

<sup>13</sup> You should not have entered the gate of my people in the day of his calamity;
you should not have gloated over his disaster
in the day of his calamity;
you should not have looted his goods in the day of his calamity.

<sup>14</sup> You should not have stood at the parting of the ways to cut off his fugitives;
you should not have delivered up his survivors
in the day of distress.

<sup>15</sup> For the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations.
As you have done, it shall be done to you,
your deeds shall return on your own head.

<sup>16</sup> For as you have drunk upon my holy mountain,
all the nations round about shall drink;
they shall drink, and stagger,

and shall be as though they had not been.

<sup>17</sup> But in Mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy;
and the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions.

<sup>18</sup> The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame,
and the house of Esau stubble;
they shall burn them and consume them,
and there shall be no survivor to the house of Esau;
for the LORD has spoken.

<sup>19</sup> Those of the Negeb shall possess Mount Esau,
and those of the Shephe'lah the land of the Philistines;
they shall possess the land of E'phraim
and the land of Sama'ria and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

<sup>20</sup> The exiles in Halah who are of the people of Israel shall possess Phoenicia as far as Zar'ephath;
and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sephar'ad shall possess the cities of the Negeb.

<sup>21</sup> Saviours shall go up to Mount Zion to rule Mount Esau;
and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

The book of Jonah<sup>1</sup>

1: Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amit'tai, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Arise<sup>2</sup>, go to Nin'evah, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness has come up before me." <sup>3</sup> But Jonah rose to flee<sup>3</sup> to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up. <sup>5</sup> Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried to his god; and they threw the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship and had lain down, and was fast asleep<sup>4</sup>. <sup>6</sup> So the captain came and said to him, "What do you mean, you sleeper? Arise, call<sup>5</sup> upon your god! Perhaps the god will give a thought to us, that we do not perish."

<sup>7</sup> And they said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. <sup>8</sup> Then they said to him, "Tell us, on whose account this evil has come upon us? What is your occupation? And whence do you come? What is your country? And of what people are you?" <sup>9</sup> And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land." <sup>10</sup> Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done!" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

<sup>11</sup> Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?" For the sea grew more and more tempestuous. <sup>12</sup> He said to them, "Take me up and throw me into the sea<sup>6</sup>; then the sea will quiet down for you; for I know it is because of me that this great tempest has come upon you." <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring the ship back to land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. <sup>14</sup> Therefore they cried to the LORD, "We beseech thee, O LORD, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not on us innocent blood; for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee." <sup>15</sup> So they took up Jonah and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging. <sup>16</sup> Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

<sup>17</sup> And the LORD appointed a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2: <sup>1</sup> Then<sup>7</sup> Jonah prayed<sup>8</sup> to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish, <sup>2</sup> saying, "I called to the LORD, out of my distress, and he answered me; out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and thou didst hear my voice.

<sup>3</sup> For thou didst cast me into the deep<sup>9</sup>, into the heart of the seas, and the flood was round about me;

all thy waves and thy billows passed over me.

<sup>4</sup> Then I said, 'I am cast out from thy presence<sup>10</sup>; how shall I again look upon thy holy temple?'

<sup>5</sup> The waters closed in over me, the deep was round about me; weeds were wrapped about my head <sup>6</sup> at the roots of the mountains.

I went down to the land whose bars closed upon me for ever<sup>11</sup>;

<sup>10</sup> And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

3:<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Arise<sup>16</sup>, go to Nin'evah, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." <sup>3</sup> So Jonah arose<sup>17</sup> and went to Nin'evah, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nin'evah was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey in breadth. <sup>4</sup> Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's journey. And he cried, "Yet forty days, and Nin'evah shall be overthrown!" <sup>5</sup> And the people of Nin'evah believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them.

<sup>10</sup> When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil way, God repented of the evil which he had said he would do to them; and he did not do it.

4:<sup>1</sup> But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. <sup>2</sup> And he prayed to the LORD and said, "I pray thee, LORD, is not this what I said when I was yet in my country? That is why I made haste to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that thou art a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and repentest of evil. <sup>3</sup> Therefore now, O LORD, take my life from me, I beseech thee, for it is better for me to die than to live." <sup>4</sup> And the LORD said, "Do you do well to be angry<sup>18</sup>?" <sup>5</sup> Then Jonah went out of the city and sat to the east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, till he should see what would become of the city.

<sup>6</sup> And the LORD God appointed a plant, and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the plant. <sup>7</sup> But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm which attacked the plant, so that it withered. <sup>8</sup> When the sun rose, God appointed a sultry east wind, and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah so that he was faint; and he asked that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live." <sup>9</sup> But God said to Jonah, "Do you do well to be angry for the plant?" And he said, "I do well to be angry, angry enough to die." <sup>10</sup> And the LORD said, "You pity the plant, for which you did not labour, nor did you make it grow, which came into being in a night, and perished in a night. <sup>11</sup> And should not I pity Nin'evah, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also much cattle?"

The book of Micah

2 Hear, you peoples, all of you;
hearken, O earth, and all that is in it;
and let the Lord GOD be a witness against you,
the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For behold, the LORD is coming forth out of his place,
and will come down and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains will melt under him
and the valleys will be cleft,
like wax before the fire,
like waters poured down a steep place.

5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob and for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Sama'ria?
And what is the sin of the house of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Sama'ria a heap in the open country,
a place for planting vineyards;
and I will pour down her stones into the valley,
and uncover her foundations.

7 All her images shall be beaten to pieces, all her hires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols I will lay waste;
for from the hire of a harlot she gathered them,
and to the hire of a harlot they shall return.

8 For this I will lament and wail;
I will go stripped and naked;
I will make lamentation like the jackals,
and mourning like the ostriches.

9 For her wound is incurable;
and it has come to Judah,
it has reached to the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.

10 Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all;
in Beth-le-aph'rah roll yourselves in the dust.

11 Pass on your way, inhabitants of Shaphir,
in nakedness and shame;
the inhabitants of Za'anah do not come forth;
the wailing of Beth-e'zel shall take away from you its standing place.

12 For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good, because evil has come down from the LORD
to the gate of Jerusalem.

13 Harness the steeds to the chariots, inhabitants of Lachish;
you were the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion,
for in you were found the transgressions of Israel.

14 Therefore you shall give parting gifts to Mo'resheth-gath;
the houses of Achzib shall be a deceitful thing
to the kings of Israel.

15 I will again bring a conqueror upon you,
inhabitants of Mare'shah;

the glory of Israel shall come to Adullam.
<sup>16</sup> Make yourselves bald and cut off your hair,
for the children of your delight;
make yourselves as bald as the eagle,
for they shall go from you into exile.

2:<sup>1</sup> Woe to those who devise wickedness and work evil upon their beds!
When the morning dawns, they perform it,
because it is in the power of their hand.
<sup>2</sup> They covet fields, and seize them;
and houses, and take them away;
they oppress a man and his house,
a man and his inheritance.
<sup>3</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD:
Behold, against this family I am devising evil,
from which you cannot remove your necks;
and you shall not walk haughtily,
for it will be an evil time.
<sup>4</sup> In that day they shall take up a taunt song against you,
and wail with bitter lamentation,
and say, "We are utterly ruined;
he changes the portion of my people;
how he removes it from me!
Among our captors he divides our fields."
<sup>5</sup> Therefore you will have none to cast the line by lot in the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> "Do not preach"-- thus they preach--
one should not preach of such things;
disgrace will not overtake us."
<sup>7</sup> Should this be said, O house of Jacob?
Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?
Are these his doings?
Do not my words do good to him who walks uprightly?
<sup>8</sup> But you rise against my people as an enemy;
you strip the robe from the peaceful,
from those who pass by trustingly with no thought of war.
<sup>9</sup> The women of my people you drive out from their pleasant houses;
from their young children you take away my glory for ever.
<sup>10</sup> Arise and go,
for this is no place to rest;
because of uncleanness that destroys with a grievous destruction.
<sup>11</sup> If a man should go about and utter wind and lies, saying, "I will preach to you of wine and strong drink,"
he would be the preacher for this people!

<sup>12</sup><sup>6</sup> I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob,
I will gather the remnant of Israel;
I will set them together like sheep in a fold,
like a flock in its pasture, a noisy multitude of men.
<sup>13</sup> He who opens the breach will go up before them;
they will break through and pass the gate, going out by it.
Their king will pass on before them, the LORD at their head.

3:<sup>1</sup> And I said:
Hear, you heads of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel!

Is it not for you to know justice?-- 2 you who hate the good and love the evil, who tear the skin from off my people,
and their flesh from off their bones;
3 who eat the flesh of my people,
and flay their skin from off them,
and break their bones in pieces,
and chop them up like meat in a kettle,
like flesh in a cauldron.
4 Then they will cry to the LORD,
but he will not answer them;
he will hide his face from them at that time,
because they have made their deeds evil.

5 Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who lead my people astray,
who cry "Peace" when they have something to eat,
but declare war against him who puts nothing into their mouths.
6 Therefore it shall be night to you,
without vision, and darkness to you, without divination.
The sun shall go down upon the prophets,
and the day shall be black over them;
7 the seers shall be disgraced,
and the diviners put to shame;
they shall all cover their lips,
for there is no answer from God.
8 But as for me, I am filled with power, with the Spirit of the LORD,
and with justice and might,
to declare to Jacob his transgression
and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel,
who abhor justice and pervert all equity,
10 who build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with wrong.
11 Its heads give judgement for a bribe,
its priests teach for hire,
yet they lean upon the LORD and say,
"Is not the LORD in the midst of us?
No evil shall come upon us."
12 Therefore because of you Zion shall be ploughed as a field;
Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins,
and the mountain of the house a wooded height.

4:1 It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of the LORD
shall be established as the highest of the mountains,
and shall be raised up above the hills;
and peoples shall flow to it,
2 and many nations shall come, and say:
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob;
that he may teach us his ways
and we may walk in his paths."
For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
3 He shall judge between many peoples,
and shall decide for strong nations afar off;

and they shall beat their swords into ploughshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war any more;
4 but they shall sit every man under his vine
and under his fig tree,
and none shall make them afraid;
for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.

5 For all the peoples walk each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God
for ever and ever.

6 In that day, says the LORD,
I will assemble the lame
and gather those who have been driven away,
and those whom I have afflicted; 7 and the lame I will make the remnant;
and those who were cast off, a strong nation;
and the LORD will reign over them
in Mount Zion from this time forth and for evermore.

8 And you, O tower of the flock,
hill of the daughter of Zion,
to you shall it come,
the former dominion shall come,
the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why do you cry aloud?
Is there no king in you?
Has your counsellor perished,
that pangs have seized you like a woman in travail?
10 Writhe and groan, O daughter of Zion,
like a woman in travail;
for now you shall go forth from the city<sup>7</sup>
and dwell in the open country;
you shall go to Babylon.
There you shall be rescued,
there the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

11 Now many nations are assembled against you,
saying, "Let her be profaned,
and let our eyes gaze upon Zion."
12 But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD,
they do not understand his plan,
that he has gathered them as sheaves to the threshing floor.
13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron and your hoofs bronze;
you shall beat in pieces many peoples,
and shall devote their gain to the LORD,
their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

5:1 Now you are walled about with a wall;
siege is laid against us;
with a rod they strike upon the cheek the ruler of Israel.

2 But you, O Bethlehem Eph'rathah, who are little to be among the clans of Judah,

---

<sup>7</sup>Is 32:9-18

from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in travail has brought forth;
then the rest of his brethren shall return to the people of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> And he shall stand and feed his flock
in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.
And they shall dwell secure,
for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth.

<sup>5</sup> And this shall be peace,
when the Assyrian comes into our land
and treads upon our soil,
that we will raise against him seven shepherds
and eight princes of men;

<sup>6</sup> they shall rule the land of Assyria with the sword,
and the land of Nimrod with the drawn sword;
and they shall deliver us from the Assyrian
when he comes into our land and treads within our border.

<sup>7</sup> Then the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD,
like showers upon the grass,
which tarry not for men nor wait for the sons of men.

<sup>8</sup> And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations,
in the midst of many peoples,
like a lion among the beasts of the forest,
like a young lion among the flocks of sheep,
which, when it goes through,
treads down and tears in pieces,
and there is none to deliver.

<sup>9</sup> Your hand shall be lifted up over your adversaries,
and all your enemies shall be cut off.

<sup>10</sup> And in that day, says the LORD,
I will cut off your horses from among you
and will destroy your chariots;

<sup>11</sup> and I will cut off the cities of your land
and throw down all your strongholds;

<sup>12</sup> and I will cut off sorceries from your hand,
and you shall have no more soothsayers;

<sup>13</sup> and I will cut off your images and your pillars from among you,
and you shall bow down no more to the work of your hands;

<sup>14</sup> and I will root out your Ashe'rim from among you and destroy your cities.

<sup>15</sup> And in anger and wrath I will execute vengeance upon the nations that did not obey.

6:1 Hear what the LORD says:
Arise, plead your case before the mountains,
and let the hills hear your voice.

<sup>2</sup> Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the LORD,
and you enduring foundations of the earth;
for the LORD has a controversy with his people,
and he will contend with Israel.

<sup>3</sup> "O my people, what have I done to you?
In what have I wearied you? Answer me!

<sup>4</sup> For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of bondage;

and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.
5 O my people, remember what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Be'or answered him,
and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal,
that you may know the saving acts of the LORD."

6 "With what shall I come before the LORD,
and bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?
7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousands of rivers of oil?
Shall I give my first-born for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"
8 He has showed you, O man, what is good;
and what does the LORD require of you but to 1) do justice<sup>8</sup>, and to 2) love kindness<sup>9</sup>, and to 3) walk humbly with your God?

9 The voice of the LORD cries to the city-- and it is sound wisdom to fear thy name:
"Hear, O tribe and assembly of the city!
10 Can I forget the treasures of wickedness
in the house of the wicked,
and the scant measure that is accursed?
11 Shall I acquit the man with wicked scales
and with a bag of deceitful weights?
12 Your rich men are full of violence;
your inhabitants speak lies,
and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.
13 Therefore I have begun to smite you,
making you desolate because of your sins.
14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied,
and there shall be hunger in your inward parts;
you shall put away, but not save,
and what you save I will give to the sword.
15 You shall sow, but not reap;
you shall tread olives,
but not anoint yourselves with oil;
you shall tread grapes, but not drink wine.
16 For you have kept the statutes of Omri,
and all the works of the house of Ahab;
and you have walked in their counsels;
that I may make you a desolation,
and your inhabitants a hissing;
so you shall bear the scorn of the peoples."

7:1 Woe is me!

For I have become as when the summer fruit has been gathered,
as when the vintage has been gleaned:
there is no cluster to eat,
no first-ripe fig which my soul desires.
2 The godly man has perished from the earth,
and there is none upright among men;
they all lie in wait for blood,
and each hunts his brother with a net.

from Assyria to Egypt,
and from Egypt to the River,
from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.

<sup>13</sup> But the earth will be desolate because of its inhabitants, for the fruit of their doings.

<sup>14</sup> Shepherd thy people with thy staff,
the flock of thy inheritance,
who dwell alone in a forest in the midst of a garden land;
let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as in the days of old.

<sup>15</sup> As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt
I will show them marvellous things.

<sup>16</sup> The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might;
they shall lay their hands on their mouths;
their ears shall be deaf;

<sup>17</sup> they shall lick the dust like a serpent,
like the crawling things of the earth;
they shall come trembling out of their strongholds,
they shall turn in dread to the LORD our God,
and they shall fear because of thee.

<sup>18</sup> Who is a God like thee, pardoning iniquity and passing over transgression
for the remnant of his inheritance?
He does not retain his anger for ever because he delights in steadfast love.
<sup>19</sup> He will again have compassion<sup>10</sup> upon us,
he will tread our iniquities under foot.
Thou wilt cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.
<sup>20</sup> Thou wilt show faithfulness to Jacob and steadfast love to Abraham, as thou hast sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

The book of Nahum

1:1 An oracle concerning Nin'evah. The book of the vision of Nahum of Elkosh.

2 The LORD is a jealous God and avenging,
the LORD is avenging and wrathful;
the LORD takes vengeance on his adversaries
and keeps wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is slow to anger and of great might,
and the LORD will by no means clear the guilty.

His way is in whirlwind and storm,
and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry,
he dries up all the rivers;
Bashan and Carmel wither,
the bloom of Lebanon fades.

5 The mountains quake before him, the hills melt;
the earth is laid waste before him,
the world and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation?
Who can endure the heat of his anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire,
and the rocks are broken asunder by him.

7 The LORD is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble;
he knows those who take refuge in him.

8 But with an overflowing flood
he will make a full end of his adversaries,
and will pursue his enemies into darkness.

9 What do you plot against the LORD?
He will make a full end;
he will not take vengeance twice on his foes.

10 Like entangled thorns they are consumed,
like dry stubble.

11 Did one not come out from you,
who plotted evil against the LORD, and counselled villainy?

12 Thus says the LORD,
"Though they be strong and many,
they will be cut off and pass away.
Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.

13 And now I will break his yoke
from off you and will burst your bonds asunder."

14 The LORD has given commandment about you:
"No more shall your name be perpetuated;
from the house of your gods
I will cut off the graven image and the molten image.
I will make your grave, for you are vile."

15 Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good tidings, who proclaims peace!
Keep your feasts, O Judah, fulfil your vows,
for never again shall the wicked come against you,
he is utterly cut off.

2:1 The shatterer has come up against you.
Man the ramparts; watch the road;
gird your loins; collect all your strength.

<sup>2</sup> (For the LORD is restoring the majesty of Jacob
as the majesty of Israel,
for plunderers have stripped them and ruined their branches.)

<sup>3</sup> The shield of his mighty men is red,
his soldiers are clothed in scarlet.
The chariots flash like flame when mustered in array;
the chargers prance.

<sup>4</sup> The chariots rage in the streets,
they rush to and fro through the squares;
they gleam like torches, they dart like lightning.

<sup>5</sup> The officers are summoned,
they stumble as they go,
they hasten to the wall, the mantelet is set up.

<sup>6</sup> The river gates are opened,
the palace is in dismay;

<sup>7</sup> its mistress is stripped, she is carried off,
her maidens lamenting, moaning like doves,
and beating their breasts.

<sup>8</sup> Nin'evah is like a pool whose waters run away.
"Halt! Halt!" they cry; but none turns back.

<sup>9</sup> Plunder the silver, plunder the gold!
There is no end of treasure, or wealth of every precious thing.

<sup>10</sup> Desolate! Desolation and ruin!
Hearts faint and knees tremble,
anguish is on all loins,
all faces grow pale!

<sup>11</sup> Where is the lions' den,
the cave of the young lions,
where the lion brought his prey,
where his cubs were, with none to disturb?

<sup>12</sup> The lion tore enough for his whelps
and strangled prey for his lionesses;
he filled his caves with prey and his dens with torn flesh.

<sup>13</sup> Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will burn your chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall no more be heard.

3:<sup>1</sup> Woe to the bloody city, all full of lies and booty-- no end to the plunder!

<sup>2</sup> The crack of whip, and rumble of wheel,
galloping horse and bounding chariot!

<sup>3</sup> Horsemen charging,
flashing sword and glittering spear,
hosts of slain, heaps of corpses, dead bodies without end-- they stumble over the bodies!

<sup>4</sup> And all for the countless harlotries of the harlot, graceful and of deadly charms,
who betrays nations with her harlotries, and peoples with her charms.

<sup>5</sup> Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and will lift up your skirts over your face;
and I will let nations look on your nakedness
and kingdoms on your shame.

<sup>6</sup> I will throw filth at you and treat you with contempt,
and make you a gazingstock.

<sup>7</sup> And all who look on you will shrink from you and say, Wasted is Nin'evah; who will bemoan her?

whence shall I seek comforters for her?

<sup>8</sup> Are you better than Thebes that sat by the Nile, with water around her, her rampart a sea, and water her wall?
<sup>9</sup> Ethiopia was her strength,
Egypt too, and that without limit;
Put and the Libyans were her helpers.

<sup>10</sup> Yet she was carried away,
she went into captivity;
her little ones were dashed in pieces at the head of every street;
for her honoured men lots were cast,
and all her great men were bound in chains.

<sup>11</sup> You also will be drunken,
you will be dazed;
you will seek a refuge from the enemy.

<sup>12</sup> All your fortresses are like fig trees with first-ripe figs--
if shaken they fall into the mouth of the eater.

<sup>13</sup> Behold, your troops are women in your midst.
The gates of your land are wide open to your foes;
fire has devoured your bars.

<sup>14</sup> Draw water for the siege, strengthen your forts;
go into the clay, tread the mortar, take hold of the brick mould!

<sup>15</sup> There will the fire devour you,
the sword will cut you off.
It will devour you like the locust.

Multiply yourselves like the locust, multiply like the grasshopper!

<sup>16</sup> You increased your merchants
more than the stars of the heavens.
The locust spreads its wings and flies away.

<sup>17</sup> Your princes are like grasshoppers,
your scribes like clouds of locusts settling on the fences in a day of cold-- when the sun rises, they fly away; no one knows where they are.

<sup>18</sup> Your shepherds are asleep, O king of Assyria;
your nobles slumber.

Your people are scattered on the mountains with none to gather them.

<sup>19</sup> There is no assuaging your hurt, your wound is grievous.
All who hear the news of you clap their hands over you.
For upon whom has not come your unceasing evil?

The book of Habakkuk

1:1 The oracle of God which Habak'kuk the prophet saw.

The problem

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry for help,
and thou wilt not hear?
Or cry to thee "Violence!" and thou wilt not save?
3 Why dost thou make me see wrongs and look upon trouble?
Destruction and violence are before me;
strife and contention arise.
4 So the law is slacked and justice never goes forth.
For the wicked surround the righteous,
so justice goes forth perverted.

God's answer

5 Look among the nations, and see; wonder and be astounded.
For I am doing a work in your days
that you would not believe if told.
6 For lo, I am rousing the Chalde'ans, that bitter and hasty nation,
who march through the breadth of the earth,
to seize habitations not their own.
7 Dread and terrible are they;
their justice and dignity proceed from themselves.
8 Their horses are swifter than leopards,
more fierce than the evening wolves;
their horsemen press proudly on.
Yea, their horsemen come from afar;
they fly like an eagle swift to devour.
9 They all come for violence;
terror of them goes before them.
They gather captives like sand.
10 At kings they scoff, and of rulers they make sport.
They laugh at every fortress, for they heap up earth and take it.
11 Then they sweep by like the wind and go on, guilty men, whose own might is their god<sup>1</sup>!

Hence another problem

12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One?
We shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them as a judgement;
and thou, O Rock, hast established them for chastisement.
13 Thou who art of purer eyes than to behold evil
and canst not look on wrong,
why dost thou look on faithless men,
and art silent when the wicked swallows up
the man more righteous than he?
14 For thou makest men like the fish of the sea,
like crawling things that have no ruler.
15 He brings all of them up with a hook,
he drags them out with his net,
he gathers them in his seine;
so he rejoices and exults.
16 Therefore he sacrifices to his net
and burns incense to his seine;
for by them he lives in luxury, and his food is rich.
17 Is he then to keep on emptying his net,
and mercilessly slaying nations for ever?<sup>2</sup>

2:1 I will take my stand to watch, and station myself on the tower,
and look forth to see what he will say to me,
and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

2 And the LORD answered me:

"Write the vision; make it plain upon tablets,
so he may run who reads it<sup>3</sup>."

3 For still the vision awaits its time;
it hastens to the end-- it will not lie.

If it seem slow, wait<sup>4</sup> for it;

it will surely come, it will not delay.

4 Behold, he whose soul is not upright in him shall fail,
but the righteous shall live by his faith.

5 Moreover, wine is treacherous<sup>5</sup>;
the arrogant man shall not abide.

His greed is as wide as Sheol;
like death he has never enough.

He gathers for himself all nations,
and collects as his own all peoples."

6 Shall not all these take up their taunt against him, in scoffing derision of him, and say,

1) "Woe to him who heaps up what is not his own--
for how long?--

and loads himself with pledges!<sup>6</sup>"

7 Will not your debtors suddenly arise,
and those awake who will make you tremble?
Then you will be booty for them.

8 Because you have plundered many nations,
all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder you,
for the blood of men and violence to the earth,
to cities and all who dwell therein.

9 2) Woe to him who gets evil gain for his house,
to set his nest on high,
to be safe from the reach of harm<sup>7</sup>!

10 You have devised shame to your house
by cutting off many peoples;
you have forfeited your life<sup>8</sup>.

11 For the stone will cry out from the wall<sup>9</sup>,
and the beam from the woodwork respond.

12 3) Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and founds a city on iniquity!<sup>10</sup>

13 Behold, is it not from the LORD of hosts that peoples labour only for fire,
and nations weary themselves for nought?

14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,

<sup>3</sup>NASB, better = "That the one who reads it may run". Writing it clarifies it for oneself & makes it available to others. A basis for writing down what is received from God

<sup>4</sup>Hab 3:16

<sup>8</sup>Prov 1:19

<sup>9</sup>(as a witness against them) Josh 24:27

<sup>10</sup>Judgement according to sin: loss of city, home & works

as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>15</sup> 4) Woe to him who makes his neighbours drink of the cup of his wrath, and makes them drunk, to gaze on their shame!<sup>11</sup>

<sup>16</sup> You will be sated with contempt instead of glory. Drink, yourself, and stagger!

The cup in the LORD's right hand will come around to you, and shame will come upon your glory!

<sup>17</sup> The violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you; the destruction of the beasts will terrify you, for the blood of men and violence to the earth, to cities and all who dwell therein.

Idols vs the LORD

For the workman trusts<sup>13</sup> in his own creation when he makes dumb idols!

<sup>19</sup> Woe to him who says to a wooden thing, Awake; to a dumb stone, Arise!<sup>14</sup>

Can this give revelation?

Behold, it is overlaid<sup>15</sup> with gold and silver<sup>16</sup>, and there is no breath at all in it.

<sup>20</sup> But the LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him<sup>17</sup>.

3:1 A prayer of Habak'kuk the prophet, according to Shigion'oth.

<sup>2</sup> O LORD, I have heard the report of thee, and thy work, O LORD, do I fear.

In the midst of the years renew it; in the midst of the years make it known; in wrath remember mercy.

<sup>3</sup> God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran.

His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. Selah <sup>4</sup> His brightness was like the light, rays flashed from his hand; and there he veiled his power.

<sup>6</sup> He stood and measured the earth; he looked and shook the nations; then the eternal mountains were scattered, the everlasting hills sank low.

<sup>11</sup> Gen 9:22. Judgement according to sin: loss of glory or reputation

<sup>12</sup> Loss of understanding or wisdom

<sup>13</sup> Weapons are like this too (Hab 1:11), and reliance on the tools we use to make ourselves rich (Hab 1:15-16)

<sup>14</sup> Judgement according to sin: loss of revelation. This man thinks it can do something more for him. While we see this as false in terms of a physical idol, we expect computer models, for example, to provide revelation about what will happen and to guide what we should do. No model can do more than the man himself can achieve.

<sup>16</sup> Makes people think it has value more than the wisdom of its maker.

<sup>17</sup> (to hear God's revelation)

His ways were as of old.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction;
the curtains of the land of Mid'ian did tremble.
8 Was thy wrath against the rivers, O LORD?
Was thy anger against the rivers,
or thy indignation against the sea,
when thou didst ride upon thy horses,
upon thy chariot of victory?
9 Thou didst strip the sheath from thy bow,
and put the arrows to the string.

Selah

Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw thee, and writhed;
the raging waters swept on;
the deep gave forth its voice,
it lifted its hands on high.
11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation
at the light of thine arrows as they sped,
at the flash of thy glittering spear.
12 Thou didst bestride the earth in fury,
thou didst trample the nations in anger.
13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people<sup>18</sup>,
for the salvation of thy anointed.
Thou didst crush the head of the wicked,
laying him bare from thigh to neck.

Selah

14 Thou didst pierce with thy shafts the head of his warriors, who came like a whirlwind to scatter me,
rejoicing as if to devour the poor in secret.
15 Thou didst trample the sea with thy horses,
the surging of mighty waters.
16 I hear, and my body trembles,
my lips quiver at the sound;
rottenness enters into my bones,
my steps totter beneath me.
I will quietly wait<sup>19</sup> for the day of trouble to come upon people who invade us<sup>20</sup>.

17 Though the fig tree do not blossom,
nor fruit be on the vines,
the produce of the olive fail and the fields yield no food,
the flock be cut off from the fold
and there be no herd in the stalls, 18 yet I will rejoice in the LORD,
I will joy in the God of my salvation.
19 GOD, the Lord, is my strength;
he makes my feet like hinds' feet,
he makes me tread upon my high places.

the 3) oppressing<sup>82</sup> city!
2 She 1) listens to no voice, she 2) accepts no correction.
She 3) does not trust in the LORD,

The book of Haggai<sup>1</sup>

1:<sup>1</sup> In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet to Zerub'babel the son of She-al'ti-el, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehoz'adak, the high priest, <sup>2</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts: This people say the time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the LORD."<sup>3</sup> Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, <sup>4</sup> "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your panelled houses, while this house<sup>2</sup> lies in ruins?" <sup>5</sup> Now therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider how you have fared. <sup>6</sup> You have sown much, and harvested little; you eat, but you never have enough; you drink, but you never have your fill; you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes.

<sup>7</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider how you have fared. <sup>8</sup> Go up to the hills and bring wood<sup>3</sup> and build the house, that I may take pleasure in it and that I may appear in my glory, says the LORD. <sup>9</sup> You have looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why? says the LORD of hosts. Because of my house that lies in ruins, while you busy yourselves each with his own house. <sup>10</sup> Therefore the heavens above you have withheld the dew, and the earth has withheld its produce. <sup>11</sup> And I have called for a drought upon the land and the hills, upon the grain, the new wine, the oil, upon what the ground brings forth, upon men and cattle, and upon all their labours."

<sup>12</sup> Then Zerub'babel the son of She-al'ti-el, and Joshua the son of Jehoz'adak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people feared before the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, spoke to the people with the LORD's message, "I am with you, says the LORD." <sup>14</sup> And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerub'babel the son of She-al'ti-el, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehoz'adak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, <sup>15</sup> on the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month. In the second year of Darius the king,

2:<sup>1</sup> in the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month<sup>4</sup>, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, <sup>2</sup> "Speak now to Zerub'babel the son of She-al'ti-el, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehoz'adak, the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, and say, <sup>3</sup> `Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not in your sight as nothing<sup>5</sup>? <sup>4</sup> Yet now take courage, O Zerub'babel, says the LORD; take courage<sup>6</sup>, O Joshua, son of Jehoz'adak, the high priest; take courage, all you people of the land, says the LORD; work<sup>7</sup>, for I am with you, says the LORD of hosts, <sup>5</sup> according to the promise that I made you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit abides among you; fear not. <sup>6</sup> For thus says the LORD of hosts: Once again, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land; <sup>7</sup> and I will shake all nations, so that the treasures of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with splendour, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>8</sup> The silver is mine, and the gold is mine<sup>8</sup>, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>9</sup> The latter splendour of this house shall be greater than the former, says the LORD of hosts; and in this place I will give prosperity, says the LORD of hosts."

<sup>10</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, <sup>11</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Ask the priests to decide this question, <sup>12</sup> `If one carries holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and touches with his skirt bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any kind of food, does it become holy?'" The priests answered, "No." <sup>13</sup> Then said Haggai, "If one who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?" The priests answered, "It does become

The book of Zechari'ah

1: In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechari'ah the son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 2 "The LORD was very angry with your fathers. 3 Therefore say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts: Return to me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. 4 Be not like your fathers, to whom the former prophets cried out, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, Return from your evil ways and from your evil deeds.' But they did not hear or heed me, says the LORD. 5 Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live for ever? 6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? So they repented and said, As the LORD of hosts purposed to deal with us for our ways and deeds, so has he dealt with us."

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechari'ah the son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, the prophet; and Zechari'ah said, 8 "I saw in the night, and behold, a man riding upon a red horse! He was standing among the myrtle trees in the glen; and behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses. 9 Then I said, 'What are these, my lord?' The angel who talked with me said to me, 'I will show you what they are.' 10 So the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered, 'These are they whom the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.' 11 And they answered the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, 'We have patrolled the earth, and behold, all the earth remains at rest.' 12 Then the angel of the LORD said, 'O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou have no mercy on Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these seventy years?' 13 And the LORD answered gracious and comforting words to the angel who talked with me. 14 So the angel who talked with me said to me, 'Cry out, Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion. 15 And I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for while I was angry but a little they furthered the disaster. 16 Therefore, thus says the LORD, I have returned to Jerusalem with compassion; my house shall be built in it, says the LORD of hosts, and the measuring line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem. 17 Cry again, Thus says the LORD of hosts: My cities shall again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem."

18 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns! 19 And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" And he answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." 20 Then the LORD showed me four smiths. 21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?" He answered, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man raised his head; and these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it."

2: And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand! 2 Then I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length." 3 And behold, the angel who talked with me came forward, and another angel came forward to meet him, 4 and said to him, "Run, say to that young man, 'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and cattle in it. 5 For I will be to her a wall of fire round about, says the LORD, and I will be the glory within her.'"

6 Ho! ho! Flee from the land of the north<sup>1</sup>, says the LORD; for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heavens, says the LORD. 7 Ho! Escape to Zion, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon<sup>2</sup>. 8 For thus said the LORD of hosts, after his glory sent me to the nations who plundered you, for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye: 9 "Behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they shall become plunder for those who served them. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me. 10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for lo, I come and I will dwell in the midst of you, says the LORD. 11 And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. 12 And the LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem."

<sup>6</sup> And the angel of the LORD enjoined Joshua, <sup>7</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts: If you will walk in my ways and keep my charge, then you shall rule my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you the right of access among those who are standing here. <sup>8</sup> Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your friends who sit before you, for they are men of good omen: behold, I will bring my servant the Branch. <sup>9</sup> For behold, upon the stone which I have set before Joshua, upon a single stone with seven facets, I will engrave its inscription, says the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the guilt of this land in a single day. <sup>10</sup> In that day, says the LORD of hosts, every one of you will invite his neighbour under his vine and under his fig tree."

4:<sup>1</sup> And the angel who talked with me came again, and waked me, like a man that is wakened out of his sleep. <sup>2</sup> And he said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it, and seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps which are on the top of it. <sup>3</sup> And there are two olive trees by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left." <sup>4</sup> And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?" <sup>5</sup> Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." <sup>6</sup> Then he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerub'babel: Not by might<sup>4</sup>, nor by power<sup>5</sup>, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>7</sup> What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerub'babel you shall become a plain; and he shall bring forward the top stone amid shouts of 'Grace, grace to it!'" <sup>8</sup> Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup> "The hands of Zerub'babel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. <sup>10</sup> For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerub'babel.

"These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which range through the whole earth." <sup>11</sup> Then I said to him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?" <sup>12</sup> And a second time I said to him, "What are these two branches of the olive trees, which are beside the two golden pipes from which the oil is poured out?" <sup>13</sup> He said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." <sup>14</sup> Then he said, "These are the two anointed who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

5:<sup>1</sup> Again I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a flying scroll! <sup>2</sup> And he said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits." <sup>3</sup> Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land; for every one who steals shall be cut off henceforth according to it, and every one who swears falsely shall be cut off henceforth according to it. <sup>4</sup> I will send it forth, says the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter the house of the thief, and the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it shall abide in his house and consume it, both timber and stones."

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel who talked with me came forward and said to me, "Lift your eyes, and see what this is that goes forth." <sup>6</sup> And I said, "What is it?" He said, "This is the ephah that goes forth." And he said, "This is their iniquity in all the land." <sup>7</sup> And behold, the leaden cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting in the ephah! <sup>8</sup> And he said, "This is Wickedness." And he thrust her back into the ephah, and thrust down the leaden weight upon its mouth. <sup>9</sup> Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, two women coming forward! The wind was in their wings; they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah between earth and heaven. <sup>10</sup> Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are they taking the ephah?" <sup>11</sup> He said to me, "To the land of Shinar<sup>6</sup>, to build a house for it; and when this is prepared, they will set the ephah down there on its base."

6: <sup>1</sup> And again I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze. <sup>2</sup> The first chariot had red horses, the second black horses, <sup>3</sup> the third white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled grey horses. <sup>4</sup> Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?" <sup>5</sup> And the angel answered me, "These are going forth to the four winds of heaven, after presenting themselves before the LORD of all the earth. <sup>6</sup> The chariot with the black horses goes toward the north country, the white ones go toward the west country, and the dappled ones go toward the south country." <sup>7</sup> When the steeds came out, they were impatient to get off and patrol the earth. And he said, "Go, patrol the earth." So they patrolled the earth. <sup>8</sup> Then he cried to me, "Behold, those who go toward the north country have set my Spirit at rest in the north country."

<sup>9</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>10</sup> "Take from the exiles Heldai, Tobi'jah, and Jedai'ah, who have arrived from Babylon; and go the same day to the house of Josi'ah, the son of Zephani'ah. <sup>11</sup> Take from them silver and gold, and make a crown, and set it upon the head of Joshua, the son of Jehoz'adak, the high priest; <sup>12</sup> and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: for he shall grow up in his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD. <sup>13</sup> It is he who shall build the temple of the LORD, and shall bear royal honour, and shall sit and rule upon his throne. And there shall be a priest by his throne, and peaceful understanding shall be between them both.'" <sup>14</sup> And the crown shall be in the temple of the LORD as a reminder to Heldai, Tobi'jah, Jedai'ah, and Josi'ah the son of Zephani'ah.

<sup>15</sup> "And those who are far off shall come and help to build the temple of the LORD; and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

7: <sup>1</sup> In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechari'ah in the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chisleu. <sup>2</sup> Now the people of Bethel had sent Share'zer and Reg'em-mel'ech and their men, to entreat the favour of the LORD, <sup>3</sup> and to ask the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts and the prophets, "Should I mourn and fast in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?" <sup>4</sup> Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me; <sup>5</sup> "Say to all the people of the land and the priests, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth month and in the seventh, for these seventy years, was it for me that you fasted? <sup>6</sup> And when you eat and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves and drink for yourselves? <sup>7</sup> When Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, with her cities round about her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited, were not these the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets?"

<sup>8</sup> And the word of the LORD came to Zechari'ah, saying, <sup>9</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts, Render true judgements, show kindness and mercy each to his brother, <sup>10</sup> do not oppress the widow, the fatherless, the sojourner, or the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart." <sup>11</sup> But they refused to hearken, and turned a stubborn shoulder, and stopped their ears that they might not hear. <sup>12</sup> They made their hearts like adamant lest they should hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts. <sup>13</sup> "As I called, and they would not hear, so they called, and I would not hear," says the LORD of hosts, <sup>14</sup> "and I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they had not known. Thus the land they left was desolate, so that no one went to and fro, and the pleasant land was made desolate."

8: <sup>1</sup> And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath. <sup>3</sup> Thus says the LORD: I will return to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called the faithful city, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain. <sup>4</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts: Old men and old women shall again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with staff in hand for very age. <sup>5</sup> And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets. <sup>6</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts: If it is marvellous in the sight of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in my sight, says the LORD of hosts? <sup>7</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the east country and from the west country; <sup>8</sup> and I will bring them to dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness."

<sup>9</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Let your hands be strong, you who in these days have been hearing these words from the mouth of the prophets, since the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built. <sup>10</sup> For before those days there was no wage for man or any wage for beast, neither was there any safety from the foe for him who went out or came in; for I set every man against his fellow. <sup>11</sup> But now I will not deal with the remnant of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>12</sup> For there shall be a sowing of peace; the vine shall yield its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. <sup>13</sup> And as you have been a byword of cursing among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you and you shall be a blessing. Fear not, but let your hands be strong."

<sup>14</sup> For thus says the LORD of hosts: "As I purposed to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, and I did not relent, says the LORD of hosts, <sup>15</sup> so again have I purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah; fear not. <sup>16</sup> These are the things that you shall do: Speak the truth to one another, render in your gates judgements that are true and make for peace, <sup>17</sup> do not devise evil in your hearts against one another, and love no false oath, for all these things I hate, says the LORD."

<sup>18</sup> And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, <sup>19</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah seasons of joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love truth and peace.

<sup>20</sup> "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Peoples shall yet come, even the inhabitants of many cities; <sup>21</sup> the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, 'Let us go at once to entreat the favour of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I am going.' <sup>22</sup> Many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favour of the LORD. <sup>23</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts: In those days ten men from the nations of every tongue shall take hold of the robe of a Jew, saying, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

9:1 An Oracle

The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach
 and will rest upon Damascus.

For to the LORD belong the cities of Aram,
 even as all the tribes of Israel;

<sup>2</sup> Hamath also, which borders thereon,
 Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

<sup>3</sup> Tyre has built herself a rampart,
 and heaped up silver like dust,
 and gold like the dirt of the streets.

<sup>4</sup> But lo, the Lord will strip her of her possessions and hurl her wealth into the sea,
 and she shall be devoured by fire.

<sup>5</sup> Ash'kelon shall see it, and be afraid;
 Gaza too, and shall writhe in anguish;
 Ekron also, because its hopes are confounded.
 The king shall perish from Gaza;

Ash'kelon shall be uninhabited;
 <sup>6</sup> a mongrel people shall dwell in Ashdod;
 and I will make an end of the pride of Philistia<sup>7</sup>.

<sup>7</sup> I will take away its blood from its mouth,
 and its abominations from between its teeth;
 it too shall be a remnant for our God;
 it shall be like a clan in Judah,
 and Ekron shall be like the Jeb'usites.

<sup>8</sup> Then I will encamp at my house as a guard,
 so that none shall march to and fro;

---

no oppressor shall again overrun them,
for now I see with my own eyes.

<sup>9</sup> Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion!
Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem!
Lo, your king comes to you;
triumphant and victorious is he,
humble and riding on an ass, on a colt the foal of an ass.

<sup>10</sup> I will cut off the chariot from E'phraim and the war horse from Jerusalem;
and the battle bow shall be cut off,
and he shall command peace to the nations;
his dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

<sup>11</sup> As for you also,
because of the blood of my covenant with you,
I will set your captives free from the waterless pit.
<sup>12</sup> Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope;
today I declare that I will restore to you double.
<sup>13</sup> For I have bent Judah as my bow;
I have made E'phraim its arrow.
I will brandish your sons, O Zion, over your sons, O Greece, and wield you like a warrior's sword.

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD will appear over them,
and his arrow go forth like lightning;
the Lord GOD will sound the trumpet,
and march forth in the whirlwinds of the south.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD of hosts will protect them,
and they shall devour and tread down the slingers;
and they shall drink their blood like wine,
and be full like a bowl,
drenched like the corners of the altar.

<sup>16</sup> On that day the LORD their God will save them for they are the flock of his people;
for like the jewels of a crown they shall shine on his land.

<sup>17</sup> Yea, how good and how fair it shall be!
Grain shall make the young men flourish,
and new wine the maidens.

10: Ask<sup>8</sup> rain<sup>9</sup> from the LORD in the season of the spring rain, from the LORD who makes the storm clouds, who gives men 1) showers of rain,
to every one 2) the vegetation in the field.

<sup>2</sup> For the teraphim<sup>10</sup> utter nonsense,
and the diviners see lies;
the dreamers tell false dreams, and give empty<sup>11</sup> consolation.
Therefore the people wander like sheep<sup>12</sup>;
they are afflicted for want of a shepherd<sup>13</sup>.

<sup>3</sup> "My anger is hot against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders;

for the LORD of hosts cares for his flock<sup>14</sup>, the house of Judah,
and will make them like his proud steed in battle.

<sup>4</sup> Out of them shall come the cornerstone,
out of them the tent peg,
out of them the battle bow,
out of them every ruler<sup>15</sup>.

<sup>5</sup> Together they shall be like mighty men in battle<sup>16</sup>, trampling the foe in the mud of the streets;
they shall fight because the LORD is with them,
and they shall confound the riders on horses.

<sup>6</sup> "I will strengthen the house of Judah,
and I will save the house of Joseph.
I will bring them back because I have compassion on them,
and they shall be as though I had not rejected them;
for I am the LORD their God and I will answer them.

<sup>7</sup> Then E'phraim shall become like a mighty warrior,
and their hearts shall be glad as with wine.
Their children shall see it and rejoice,
their hearts shall exult in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> "I will signal for them and gather them in,
for I have redeemed them, and they shall be as many as of old.

<sup>9</sup> Though I scattered them among the nations,
yet in far countries they shall remember me,
and with their children they shall live and return.

<sup>10</sup> I will bring them home from the land of Egypt, and gather them from Assyria;
and I will bring them to the land of Gilead and to Lebanon,
till there is no room for them.

<sup>11</sup> They shall pass through the sea of Egypt, and the waves of the sea shall be smitten,
and all the depths of the Nile dried up.
The pride of Assyria shall be laid low,
and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart.

<sup>12</sup> I will make them strong in the LORD and they shall glory in his name," says the LORD.

11:<sup>1</sup> Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars!

<sup>2</sup> Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen,
for the glorious trees are ruined!

Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the thick forest has been felled!

<sup>3</sup> Hark, the wail of the shepherds,
for their glory is despoiled!

Hark, the roar of the lions,
for the jungle of the Jordan<sup>17</sup> is laid waste!

<sup>4</sup> Thus said the LORD my God: "Become shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter.

<sup>5</sup> Those who buy them slay them and go unpunished; and those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, I have become rich'; and their own shepherds have no pity on them. <sup>6</sup> For I will no longer have pity on the inhabitants of this land, says the LORD. Lo, I will cause men to fall each into the hand of his shepherd, and each into the hand of his king; and they shall crush the earth, and I will deliver none from their hand."

<sup>7</sup> So I became the shepherd of the flock doomed to be slain for those who trafficked in the sheep. And I took two staffs; one I named Grace, the other I named Union. And I tended the sheep. <sup>8</sup> In one month I destroyed the three shepherds. But I became impatient with them, and they also detested me. <sup>9</sup> So I said, "I will not be your shepherd. What is to die, let it die; what is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed; and let those that are left devour the flesh of one another." <sup>10</sup> And I took my staff Grace, and I broke it, annulling the covenant which I had made with all the peoples. <sup>11</sup> So it was annulled on that day, and the traffickers in the sheep, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD. <sup>12</sup> Then I said to them, "If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them." And they weighed out as my wages thirty shekels of silver. <sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Cast it into the treasury"-- the lordly price at which I was paid off by them. So I took the thirty shekels of silver and cast them into the treasury in the house of the LORD. <sup>14</sup> Then I broke my second staff Union, annulling the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Take once more the implements of a worthless shepherd. <sup>16</sup> For lo, I am raising up in the land a shepherd who does not care for the perishing, or seek the wandering, or heal the maimed, or nourish the sound, but devours the flesh of the fat ones, tearing off even their hoofs.

May the sword smite his arm and his right eye!
Let his arm be wholly withered, his right eye utterly blinded!"

12:1 An Oracle

The word of the LORD concerning Israel: Thus says the LORD, who stretched out the heavens and founded the earth and formed the spirit of man within him: <sup>2</sup> "Lo, I am about to make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the peoples round about; it will be against Judah also in the siege against Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it shall grievously hurt themselves. And all the nations of the earth will come together against it. <sup>4</sup> On that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with panic, and its rider with madness. But upon the house of Judah I will open my eyes, when I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. <sup>5</sup> Then the clans of Judah shall say to themselves, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem have strength through the LORD of hosts, their God.'

<sup>6</sup> "On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a blazing pot in the midst of wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour to the right and to the left all the peoples round about, while Jerusalem shall still be inhabited in its place, in Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> "And the LORD will give victory to the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be exalted over that of Judah. <sup>8</sup> On that day the LORD will put a shield about the inhabitants of Jerusalem so that the feeblest among them on that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of the LORD, at their head. <sup>9</sup> And on that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> "And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of compassion and supplication, so that, when they look on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a first-born. <sup>11</sup> On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning for Hadadrim'mon in the plain of Megid'do. <sup>12</sup> The land shall mourn, each family by itself; the family of the house of David<sup>18</sup> by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan<sup>19</sup> by itself, and their wives by themselves; <sup>13</sup> the family of the house of Levi<sup>20</sup> by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the Shim'e-ites<sup>21</sup> by itself, and their wives by themselves; <sup>14</sup> and all the families that are left, each by itself, and their wives by themselves.

13:1 "On that day there shall be a fountain opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to cleanse them from sin and uncleanness.

<sup>2</sup> "And on that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, so that they shall be remembered no more; and also I will remove from the land the prophets and the unclean spirit. <sup>3</sup> And if any one again appears as a prophet, his father and mother who bore him will say to him, 'You shall not live, for you speak lies in the name of the LORD'; and his father and mother who bore him shall pierce him through when he prophesies. <sup>4</sup> On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; he will not put on a hairy mantle in order to deceive, <sup>5</sup> but he will say, 'I am no prophet<sup>22</sup>, I am a tiller of the soil; for the land has been my possession since my youth.' <sup>6</sup> And if one asks him, 'What are these wounds on your back?' he will say, 'The wounds I received in the house of my friends.'"

against the man who stands next to me,"
says the LORD of hosts.
"Strike the shepherd, that the sheep may be scattered;
I will turn my hand against the little ones.
<sup>8</sup> In the whole land, says the LORD,
two thirds shall be cut off and perish,
and one third shall be left alive.
<sup>9</sup> And I will put this third into the fire,
and refine them as one refines silver,
and test them as gold is tested.
They will call on my name, and I will answer them.
I will say, 'They are my people';
and they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'"

14:<sup>1</sup> Behold, a day of the LORD is coming, when the spoil taken from you will be divided in the midst of you. <sup>2</sup> For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken and the houses plundered and the women ravished; half of the city shall go into exile, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city. <sup>3</sup> Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle. <sup>4</sup> On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives which lies before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley; so that one half of the Mount shall withdraw northward, and the other half southward. <sup>5</sup> And the valley of my mountains shall be stopped up, for the valley of the mountains shall touch the side of it; and you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzzi'ah king of Judah. Then the LORD your God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

<sup>6</sup> On that day there shall be neither cold nor frost. <sup>7</sup> And there shall be continuous day (it is known to the LORD), not day and not night, for at evening time there shall be light.

<sup>8</sup> On that day living waters shall flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea and half of them to the western sea; it shall continue in summer as in winter.

<sup>9</sup> And the LORD will become king over all the earth; on that day the LORD will be one and his name one.

<sup>10</sup> The whole land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem shall remain aloft upon its site from the Gate of Benjamin to the place of the former gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Han'anel to the king's wine presses. <sup>11</sup> And it shall be inhabited, for there shall be no more curse; Jerusalem shall dwell in security.

<sup>12</sup> And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will smite all the peoples that wage war against Jerusalem: their flesh shall rot while they are still on their feet, their eyes shall rot in their sockets, and their tongues shall rot in their mouths. <sup>13</sup> And on that day a great panic from the LORD shall fall on them, so that each will lay hold on the hand of his fellow, and the hand of the one will be raised against the hand of the other; <sup>14</sup> even Judah will fight against Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the nations round about shall be collected, gold, silver, and garments in great abundance. <sup>15</sup> And a plague like this plague shall fall on the horses, the mules, the camels, the asses, and whatever beasts may be in those camps.

<sup>16</sup> Then every one that survives of all the nations that have come against Jerusalem shall go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of booths. <sup>17</sup> And if any of the families of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain upon them. <sup>18</sup> And if the family of Egypt do not go up and present themselves, then upon them shall come the plague with which the LORD afflicts the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths. <sup>19</sup> This shall be the punishment to Egypt and the punishment to all the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths.

<sup>20</sup> And on that day there shall be inscribed on the bells of the horses, "Holy to the LORD." And the pots in the house of the LORD shall be as the bowls before the altar; <sup>21</sup> and every pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be sacred to the LORD of hosts, so that all who sacrifice may come and take of them and boil the flesh of the sacrifice in them. And there shall no longer be a trader in the house of the LORD of hosts on that day.

The book of Malachi

1: The oracle of the word of the LORD to Israel by Mal'achi.

2 "I have loved you," says the LORD. But you say, "How hast thou loved us?" "Is not Esau Jacob's brother?" says the LORD. "Yet I have loved Jacob 3 but I have hated Esau; I have laid waste his hill country and left his heritage to jackals of the desert." 4 If Edom says, "We are shattered but we will rebuild the ruins," the LORD of hosts says, "They may build, but I will tear down, till they are called the wicked country, the people with whom the LORD is angry for ever." 5 Your own eyes shall see this, and you shall say, "Great is the LORD, beyond the border of Israel!"

6 "A son honours his father, and a servant his master<sup>1</sup>. If then I am a father, where is my honour<sup>2</sup>? And if I am a master, where is my fear<sup>3</sup>? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. You say, 'How have we despised thy name?' 7 By offering polluted food upon my altar. And you say, 'How have we polluted it?' By thinking that the LORD's table may be despised. 8 When you offer blind animals in sacrifice, is that no evil? And when you offer those that are lame or sick, is that no evil? Present that to your governor; will he be pleased with you or show you favour? says the LORD of hosts. 9 And now entreat the favour of God, that he may be gracious to us. With such a gift from your hand, will he show favour to any of you? says the LORD of hosts. 10 Oh, that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire upon my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will not accept an offering from your hand. 11 For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense is offered to my name, and a pure offering; for my name is great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts. 12 But you profane it when you say that the LORD's table is polluted, and the food for it may be despised. 13 'What a weariness<sup>4</sup> this is,' you say, and you sniff at me, says the LORD of hosts. You bring what has been taken by violence or is lame or sick, and this you bring as your offering! Shall I accept that from your hand? says the LORD. 14 Cursed be the cheat who has a male in his flock, and vows it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished; for I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name is feared among the nations.

2: "And now, O priests, this command is for you. 2 If you will not listen, if you will not lay it to heart to give glory to my name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings; indeed I have already cursed them, because you do not lay it to heart. 3 Behold, I will rebuke your offspring, and spread dung upon your faces, the dung of your offerings, and I will put you out of my presence. 4 So shall you know that I have sent this command to you, that my covenant with Levi may hold, says the LORD of hosts. 5 My covenant with him was a covenant of life and peace, and I gave them to him, that he might fear; and he feared me, he stood in awe of my name. 6 True instruction was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity. 7 For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and men should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. 8 But you have turned aside from the way; you have caused many to stumble by your instruction<sup>5</sup>; you have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts, 9 and so I make you despised and abased<sup>6</sup> before all the people, inasmuch as you have not kept my ways but have shown partiality in your instruction."

10 Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us? Why then are we faithless to one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah has been faithless, and abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD, which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. 12 May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob, for the man who does this, any to witness or answer, or to bring an offering to the LORD of hosts!

13 And this again you do. You cover the LORD's altar with tears, with weeping and groaning because he no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favour at your hand. 14

The Gospel according to Matthew

1:1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 1) Abraham was the father of Isaac, and 2) Isaac the father of Jacob,
and 3) Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers, 3 and 4) Judah the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and 5) Perez the father of Hezron, and 6) Hezron the father of Ram, 4 and 7) Ram the father of Ammin'adab, and 8) Ammin'adab the father of Nahshon, and 9) Nahshon the father of Salmon, 5 and 10) Salmon the father of Bo'az by Rahab, and 11) Bo'az the father of Obed by Ruth,
and 12) Obed the father of Jesse,
6 and 13) Jesse the father of 14) David the king.

And 1) David was the father of Solomon by the wife of Uri'ah, 7 and 2) Solomon the father of Rehobo'am, and 3) Rehobo'am the father of Abi'jah, and 4) Abi'jah the father of Asa, 8 and 5) Asa the father of Jehosh'aphat, and 6) Jehosh'aphat the father of Joram, and 7) Joram the father of Uzzi'ah, 9 and 8) Uzzi'ah the father of Jotham, and 9) Jotham the father of Ahaz, and 10) Ahaz the father of Hezeki'ah, 10 and 11) Hezeki'ah the father of Manas'seh, and 12) Manas'seh the father of Amos,
and 13) Amos the father of Josi'ah,

11 and 14) Josi'ah the father of Jechoniah<sup>1</sup> and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon<sup>2</sup>.

12 And after the deportation to Babylon:

1) Jechoni'ah was the father of She-al'ti-el, and 2) She-al'ti-el the father of Zerub'babel, 13 and 3) Zerub'babel the father of Abi'ud, and 4) Abi'ud the father of Eli'akim, and 5) Eli'akim the father of Azor, 14 and 6) Azor the father of Zadok, and 7) Zadok the father of Achim, and 8) Achim the father of Eli'ud, 15 and 9) Eli'ud the father of Elea'zar, and 10) Elea'zar the father of Matthan, and 11) Matthan the father of Jacob, 16 and 12) Jacob the father of 13) Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom 14)

Jesus was born, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations, and from David to the deportation to Babylon fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon to the Christ fourteen generations.

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child of the Holy Spirit<sup>3</sup>; 19 and her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame,

<sup>1</sup>excluded from Messiah's line (Jer 22:28-30). This shows that this genealogy is that of Joseph (as stated in V16), and not of Christ

resolved to divorce her quietly<sup>4</sup>. <sup>20</sup> But as he considered this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit; <sup>21</sup> she will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from<sup>5</sup> their sins." <sup>22</sup> All this took place to fulfil what the Lord had spoken by the prophet:

<sup>23</sup> "Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel"

(which means, God with us). <sup>24</sup> When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him; he took his wife, <sup>25</sup> but knew her not until she had borne a son; and he called his name Jesus.

2:<sup>1</sup> Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we have seen his star<sup>6</sup> in the East, and have come to worship him."<sup>7</sup> <sup>3</sup> When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him; <sup>4</sup> and assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. <sup>5</sup> They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it is written by the prophet:

are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for from you shall come a ruler who will govern my people Israel."

<sup>7</sup> Then Herod summoned the wise men secretly and ascertained from them what time the star appeared; <sup>8</sup> and he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him bring me word, that I too may come and worship him." <sup>9</sup> When they had heard the king they went their way; and lo, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came to rest<sup>8</sup> over the place where the child was. <sup>10</sup> When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy; <sup>11</sup> and going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshipped him. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. <sup>12</sup> And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another way.

<sup>13</sup> Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there till I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him." <sup>14</sup> And he rose and took the child and his mother by night, and departed to Egypt, <sup>15</sup> and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfil what the Lord had spoken by the prophet, "Out of Egypt have I called my son."

<sup>16</sup> Then Herod<sup>9</sup>, when he saw that he had been tricked<sup>9</sup> by the wise men, was in a furious rage, and he sent and killed all the male children in Bethlehem and in all that region who were two years old or under, according to the time which he had ascertained from the wise men. <sup>17</sup> Then was fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Jeremiah:

<sup>18</sup> "A voice was heard in Ramah,
wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children;
she refused to be consoled,
because they were no more."

<sup>19</sup> But when Herod died, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, <sup>20</sup> "Rise, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child's life are dead." <sup>21</sup> And he rose and took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. <sup>22</sup> But when he heard that Archelaus reigned over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there, and being warned in a dream he withdrew to the district of Galilee. <sup>23</sup> And he went and dwelt in a city called Nazareth<sup>10</sup>, that what was spoken by the prophets might be fulfilled, "He shall be called a Nazarene<sup>11</sup>."

3:<sup>1</sup> In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness<sup>12</sup> of Judea, <sup>2</sup> "Repent<sup>13</sup>, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand<sup>14</sup>." <sup>3</sup> For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah when he said,

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight."

<sup>11</sup> "I baptise you<sup>A</sup> with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry; he will baptise you<sup>A20</sup> with the Holy Spirit and with fire. <sup>12</sup> His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the granary, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire<sup>21</sup>."

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptised by him. <sup>14</sup> John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptised by you, and do you come to me?" <sup>15</sup> But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now; for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness<sup>22</sup>." Then he consented. <sup>16</sup> And when Jesus was baptised, he went up immediately from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened and he saw the Spirit of God<sup>B23</sup> descending like a dove, and alighting on him; <sup>17</sup> and lo, a voice from heaven, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

The temptations of Jesus, the spiritual man

4:<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit<sup>B</sup> into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. <sup>2</sup> And he fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterward he was hungry<sup>24</sup>.

The flesh

<sup>3</sup> And the tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God<sup>25</sup>, command these stones to become loaves of bread<sup>26</sup>." <sup>4</sup> But he answered, "It is written,

'Man shall not live by bread<sup>27</sup> alone, but by every word<sup>28</sup> that proceeds from the mouth of God.'" "

8 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them; 9 and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me."<sup>31</sup> 10 Then Jesus said to him, "Begone<sup>C32</sup>, Satan! for it is written,

12 Now when he heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee; 13 and leaving Nazareth he went and dwelt in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naph'tali, 14 that what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

15 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naph'tali, toward the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles-- 16 the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned."

17 From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

18 As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 19 And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." 20 Immediately they left their nets and followed him. 21 And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zeb'edee and John his brother, in the boat with Zeb'edee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. 22 Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23 And he went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every infirmity among the people. 24 So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and pains, demoniacs, epileptics, and paralytics, and he healed them. 25 And great crowds followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from beyond the Jordan.

5:1, Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain<sup>34</sup>, and when he sat down his disciples came to him. 2 And he opened his mouth and taught them<sup>35</sup>, saying:

The Authority of Christ, taught by example (Mt 8,9)

Over incurable diseases: leprosy (Cleansing)

Over diseases: fever

<sup>14</sup> And when Jesus entered Peter's house, he saw his mother-in-law lying sick with a fever; <sup>15</sup> he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she rose and served him. <sup>16</sup> That evening they brought to him many who were possessed with demons; and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick. <sup>17</sup> This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah, "He took our infirmities and bore our diseases."

Over people

<sup>18</sup> Now when Jesus saw great crowds around him, he gave orders to go over to the other side. <sup>19</sup> And a scribe came up and said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go<sup>129</sup>." <sup>20</sup> And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head<sup>130</sup>." <sup>21</sup> Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father." <sup>22</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead<sup>131</sup>."

Over the natural world

<sup>23</sup> And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. <sup>24</sup> And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep. <sup>25</sup> And they went and woke him, saying, "Save, Lord; we are perishing." <sup>26</sup> And he said to them, "Why are you afraid, O men of little faith?" Then he rose and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. <sup>27</sup> And the men marvelled, saying, "What sort of man is this, that even winds and sea obey him?"

Over demons

<sup>28</sup> And when he came to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes, two demoniacs met him, coming out of the tombs, so fierce that no one could pass that way. <sup>29</sup> And behold, they cried out, "What have you to do with us, O Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" <sup>30</sup> Now a herd of many swine was feeding at some distance from them. <sup>31</sup> And the demons begged him, "If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine." <sup>32</sup> And he said to them, "Go." So they came out and went into the swine; and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea<sup>132</sup>, and perished in the waters. <sup>33</sup> The herdsmen fled<sup>133</sup>, and going into the city they told everything, and what had happened to the demoniacs. <sup>34</sup> And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their neighbourhood<sup>134</sup>.

Over sin and its consequences

9:1 And getting into a boat he crossed over and came to his own city. <sup>2</sup> And behold, they brought to him a paralytic, lying on his bed; and when Jesus saw their faith he said to the paralytic, "Take heart, my son; your sins are forgiven." <sup>3</sup> And behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming." <sup>4</sup> But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts? <sup>5</sup> For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? <sup>6</sup> But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins"-- he then said to the paralytic--" Rise, take up your bed and go home." <sup>7</sup> And he rose and went home. <sup>8</sup> When the crowds saw it, they were afraid<sup>135</sup>, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

<sup>9</sup> As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax office; and he said to him, "Follow me<sup>136</sup>." And he rose and followed him.

<sup>10</sup> And as he sat at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples. <sup>11</sup> And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" <sup>12</sup> But when he heard it, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick<sup>137</sup>. <sup>13</sup> Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.' For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."

<sup>14</sup> Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?" <sup>15</sup> And Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? The days will come, when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast. <sup>16</sup> And no one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch tears away from the garment, and a worse tear is made. <sup>17</sup> Neither is new wine put into old wineskins; if it is, the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins are destroyed; but new wine is put into fresh wineskins, and so both are preserved."

<sup>18</sup> While he was thus speaking to them, behold, a ruler came in and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." <sup>19</sup> And Jesus rose and followed him, with his disciples. <sup>20</sup> And behold, a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment; <sup>21</sup> for she said to herself, "If I only touch his garment, I shall be made well." <sup>22</sup> Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well." And instantly the woman was made well. <sup>23</sup> And when Jesus came to the ruler's house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd making a tumult, <sup>24</sup> he said, "Depart; for the girl is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. <sup>25</sup> But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose. <sup>26</sup> And the report of this went through all that district.

<sup>27</sup> And as Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed him, crying aloud, "Have mercy on us, Son of David." <sup>28</sup> When he entered the house, the blind men came to him; and Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord." <sup>29</sup> Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you." <sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly charged them, "See that no one knows it." <sup>31</sup> But they went away and spread his fame through all that district.

10:<sub>1</sub> And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every infirmity. <sub>2</sub> The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zeb'edee, and John his brother; <sub>3</sub> Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; <sub>4</sub> Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

<sup>16</sup> "Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. <sup>17</sup> Beware of men; for they will deliver you up to councils, and flog you in their synagogues, <sup>18</sup> and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear testimony before them and the Gentiles. <sup>19</sup> When they deliver you up, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour; <sup>20</sup> for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. <sup>21</sup> Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; <sup>22</sup> and you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved. <sup>23</sup> When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly, I say to you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel, before the Son of man comes.

<sup>26</sup> "So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. <sup>27</sup> What I tell you in the dark, utter in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim upon the housetops. <sup>28</sup> And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. <sup>29</sup> Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's will. <sup>30</sup> But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. <sup>31</sup> Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows. <sup>32</sup> So every one who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven; <sup>33</sup> but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven.

<sup>34</sup> "Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup> For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; <sup>36</sup> and a man's foes will be those of his own household. <sup>37</sup> He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; <sup>38</sup> and he who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. <sup>39</sup> He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake will find it.

<sup>40</sup> "He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. <sup>41</sup> He who receives a prophet because he is a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward, and he who receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. <sup>42</sup> And whoever gives to one of these little ones even a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he shall not lose his reward."

11:<sub>1</sub> And when Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and preach in their cities.

<sub>2</sub> Now when John heard in prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent word by his disciples <sub>3</sub> and said to him, "Are you he who is to come, or shall we look for another?" <sub>4</sub> And Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: <sub>5</sub> the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. <sup>6</sup> And blessed is he who takes no offence at me."

<sup>7</sup> As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to behold? A reed shaken by the wind? <sup>8</sup> Why then did you go out? To see a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, those who wear soft raiment are in kings' houses. <sup>9</sup> Why then did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup> This is he of whom it is written,

who shall prepare thy way before thee.'

<sup>11</sup> Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has risen no one greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven<sup>146</sup> is greater than he. <sup>12</sup> From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and men of violence take it by force<sup>147</sup>. <sup>13</sup> For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John; <sup>14</sup> and if you are willing to accept it, he is Eli'jah<sup>148</sup> who is to come. <sup>15</sup> He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>16</sup> "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market places and calling to their playmates,

<sup>17</sup> `We piped to you, and you did not dance;
we wailed, and you did not mourn.'

<sup>20</sup> Then he began to upbraid the cities where most of his mighty works had been done, because they did not repent. <sup>21</sup> "Woe to you, Chora'zin! woe to you, Beth-sa'ida! for if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup> But I tell you, it shall be more tolerable on the day of judgement for Tyre and Sidon than for you. <sup>23</sup> And you, Caper'na-um, will you be exalted to heaven? You shall be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. <sup>24</sup> But I tell you that it shall be more tolerable on the day of judgement for the land of Sodom than for you."

<sup>12</sup>:<sup>1</sup> At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath; his disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. <sup>2</sup> But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, "Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the sabbath." <sup>3</sup> He said to them, "Have you not read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him: <sup>4</sup> how he entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful<sup>167</sup> for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? <sup>5</sup> Or have you not read in the law how on the sabbath the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are guiltless? <sup>6</sup> I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. <sup>7</sup> And if you had known what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,<sup>168</sup> you would not have condemned the guiltless. <sup>8</sup> For the Son of man is lord of the sabbath."

<sup>9</sup> And he went on from there, and entered their synagogue. <sup>10</sup> And behold, there was a man with a withered hand. And they asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath?" so that they might accuse him. <sup>11</sup> He said to them, "What man of you, if he has one sheep and it falls into a pit on the sabbath, will not lay hold of it and lift it out? <sup>12</sup> Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the sabbath." <sup>13</sup> Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And the man stretched it out, and it was restored, whole like the other. <sup>14</sup> But the Pharisees went out and took counsel against him, how to destroy him.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus, aware of this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all, <sup>16</sup> and ordered them not to make him known. <sup>17</sup> This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

<sup>18</sup> "Behold, my servant whom I have chosen,
my beloved with whom my soul is well pleased.

I will put my Spirit upon him,
and he shall proclaim justice to the Gentiles.

<sup>19</sup> He will not wrangle<sup>169</sup> or cry aloud, nor will any one hear his voice in the streets<sup>170</sup>;

<sup>20</sup> he will not break<sup>171</sup> a bruised reed or quench a smouldering wick,
till he brings justice<sup>172</sup> to victory<sup>173</sup>;

<sup>22</sup> Then a blind and dumb demoniac was brought to him, and he healed him, so that the dumb man spoke and saw. <sup>23</sup> And all the people were amazed, and said, "Can this be the Son of David?" <sup>24</sup> But when the Pharisees heard it they said, "It is only by Be-el'zebul, the prince of demons, that this man casts out demons." <sup>25</sup> Knowing their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand; <sup>26</sup> and if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand? <sup>27</sup> And if I cast out demons by Be-el'zebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. <sup>28</sup> But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. <sup>29</sup> Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? <sup>38</sup> Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you." <sup>39</sup> But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign; but no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup> For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of man be three days<sup>177</sup> and three nights in the heart of the earth. <sup>41</sup> The men of Nin'evah will arise at the judgement with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here. <sup>42</sup> The queen of the South will arise at the judgement with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

And when he comes he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. <sup>45</sup> Then he goes and brings with him seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first. So shall it be also with this evil generation."

<sup>46</sup><sup>178</sup> While he was still speaking to the people, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. <sup>48</sup> But he replied to the man who told him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" <sup>49</sup> And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! <sup>50</sup> For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother<sup>179</sup>, and sister, and mother."

13: <sup>1</sup> That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. <sup>2</sup> And great crowds gathered about him, so that he got into a boat and sat there; and the whole crowd stood on the beach. <sup>3</sup> And he told them many things in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup> And as he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. <sup>5</sup> Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they had not much soil, and immediately they sprang up, since they had no depth of soil, <sup>6</sup> but when the sun rose they were scorched; and since they had no root they withered away. <sup>7</sup> Other seeds fell upon thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. <sup>8</sup> Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. <sup>9</sup> He who has ears, let him hear."

<sup>10</sup> Then the disciples came and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" <sup>11</sup> And he answered them, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given<sup>180</sup>. <sup>12</sup> For to him who has will more be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away. <sup>13</sup> This is why I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. <sup>14</sup> With them indeed is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah which says:

    `You shall indeed hear but never understand,

and understand with their heart,
and turn for me to heal them.'

<sup>16</sup> But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. <sup>17</sup> Truly, I say to you, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

<sup>18</sup> "Hear then the parable of the sower. <sup>19</sup> When any one hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in his heart; this is what was sown along the path. <sup>20</sup> As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; <sup>21</sup> yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while, and when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately he falls away. <sup>22</sup> As for what was sown among thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the delight in riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. <sup>23</sup> As for what was sown on good soil, this is he who hears the word and understands it; he indeed bears fruit, and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

<sup>24</sup> Another parable he put before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field; <sup>25</sup> but while men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away. <sup>26</sup> So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared also. <sup>27</sup> And the servants of the householder came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then has it weeds?'<sup>181</sup> <sup>28</sup> He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants said to him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them?' <sup>29</sup> But he said, 'No; lest in gathering the weeds you root up the wheat along with them. <sup>30</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn."

<sup>31</sup> Another parable he put before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed<sup>182</sup> which a man took and sowed in his field; <sup>32</sup> it is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches."

<sup>33</sup> He told them another parable. "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened."

<sup>34</sup> All this Jesus said to the crowds in parables; indeed he said nothing to them without a parable. <sup>35</sup> This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet:

"I will open my mouth in parables,
I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world."

<sup>36</sup> Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field." <sup>37</sup> He answered, "He who sows the good seed is the Son of man; <sup>38</sup> the field is the world, and the good seed means the sons of the kingdom; the weeds are the sons of the evil one, <sup>39</sup> and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. <sup>40</sup> Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. <sup>41</sup> The Son of man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, <sup>42</sup> and throw them into the furnace of fire; there men will weep and gnash their teeth. <sup>43</sup> Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.

<sup>44</sup> "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found<sup>183</sup> and covered up; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

The Question of Who Jesus is (Mt 13:54-56; Mt 14:2,26,33; Mt 16:13f)

<sup>53</sup> And when Jesus had finished these parables, he went away from there,<sup>54</sup> and coming to his own country he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these mighty works? <sup>55</sup> Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And are not his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? <sup>56</sup> And are not all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all this?" <sup>57</sup> And they took offence at him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honour except in his own country and in his own house." <sup>58</sup> And he did not do many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

14:<sup>1</sup> At that time Herod the tetrarch heard about the fame of Jesus;<sup>2</sup> and he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist, he has been raised from the dead<sup>186</sup>; that is why these powers are at work in him." <sup>3</sup> For Herod had seized John and bound him and put him in prison, for the sake of Hero'di-as, his brother Philip's wife; <sup>4</sup> because John said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." <sup>5</sup> And though he wanted to put him to death, he feared the people, because they held him to be a prophet. <sup>6</sup> But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Hero'di-as danced before the company, and pleased Herod, <sup>7</sup> so that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. <sup>8</sup> Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter." <sup>9</sup> And the king was sorry<sup>187</sup>; but because of his oaths and his guests he commanded it to be given; <sup>10</sup> he sent and had John beheaded in the prison, <sup>11</sup> and his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. <sup>12</sup> And his disciples came and took the body and buried it; and they went and told Jesus.

<sup>13</sup> Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a lonely place apart. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. <sup>14</sup> As he went ashore he saw a great throng; and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick. <sup>15</sup> When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a lonely place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves." <sup>16</sup> Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." <sup>17</sup> They said to him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish." <sup>18</sup> And he said, "Bring them here to me." <sup>19</sup> Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass; and taking the five loaves and the two fish<sup>188</sup> he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. <sup>20</sup> And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. <sup>21</sup> And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

<sup>22</sup> Then he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. <sup>23</sup> And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, <sup>24</sup> but the boat by this time was many furlongs distant from the land, beaten by the waves; for the wind was against them<sup>189</sup>. <sup>25</sup> And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. <sup>26</sup> But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear. <sup>27</sup> But immediately he spoke to them, saying, "Take heart, it is I; have no fear."

<sup>28</sup> And Peter answered him, "Lord, if<sup>190</sup> it is you, bid me come to you on the water." <sup>29</sup> He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus; <sup>30</sup> but when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me." <sup>31</sup> Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "O man of little faith, why did you doubt?" <sup>32</sup> And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. <sup>33</sup> And those in the boat worshipped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

<sup>34</sup> And when they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup> And when the men of that place recognised him, they sent round to all that region and brought to him all that were sick, <sup>36</sup> and besought him that they might only touch the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched it were made well.

15:<sup>1</sup> Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem and said, <sup>2</sup> "Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat." <sup>3</sup> He answered them, "And why do you transgress the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? <sup>4</sup> For God commanded, 'Honour your father and your mother,' and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him surely die.' <sup>5</sup> But you say, 'If any one tells his father or his mother, What you would have gained from me is given to God, he need not honour his father.' <sup>6</sup> So, for the sake of your tradition, you have made void the word of God. <sup>7</sup> You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, when he said:

<sup>8</sup> 'This people honours me with their lips,
but their heart is far from me;
<sup>9</sup> in vain do they worship me,
teaching as doctrines the precepts of men.'"

<sup>10</sup> And he called the people to him and said to them, "Hear and understand: <sup>11</sup> not what goes into the mouth defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man." <sup>12</sup> Then the disciples came and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?" <sup>13</sup> He answered, "Every plant which my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up. <sup>14</sup> Let them alone; they are blind guides. And if a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit." <sup>15</sup> But Peter said to him, "Explain the parable to us." <sup>16</sup> And he said, "Are you also still without understanding? <sup>17</sup> Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and so passes on? <sup>18</sup> But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this defiles a man. <sup>19</sup> For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander. <sup>20</sup> These are what defile a man; but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

<sup>21</sup> And Jesus went away from there and withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup> And behold, a Canaanite woman from that region came out and cried, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely possessed by a demon." <sup>23</sup> But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away, for she is crying after us." <sup>24</sup> He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." <sup>25</sup> But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me." <sup>26</sup> And he answered, "It is not fair to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." <sup>27</sup> She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table." <sup>28</sup> Then Jesus answered her, "O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed instantly.

<sup>29</sup> And Jesus went on from there and passed along the Sea of Galilee. And he went up on the mountain, and sat down there. <sup>30</sup> And great crowds came to him, bringing with them the lame, the maimed, the blind, the dumb, and many others, and they put them at his feet, and he healed them, <sup>31</sup> so that the throng wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me now three days, and have nothing to eat; and I am unwilling to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way." <sup>33</sup> And the disciples said to him, "Where are we to get bread enough in the desert to feed so great a crowd?" <sup>34</sup> And Jesus said to them, "How many loaves have you?" They said, "Seven, and a few small fish." <sup>35</sup> And commanding the crowd to sit down on the ground, <sup>36</sup> he took the seven loaves and the fish, and having given thanks he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. <sup>37</sup> And they all ate and were satisfied; and they took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces left over. <sup>38</sup> Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. <sup>39</sup> And sending away the crowds, he got into the boat and went to the region of Mag'adan.

16:<sup>1</sup> And the Pharisees and Sad'ducees came, and to test him they asked him to show them a sign from heaven. <sup>2</sup> He answered them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather; for the sky is red.' <sup>3</sup> And in the morning, 'It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times. <sup>4</sup> An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign shall be given to it except the sign of Jonah<sup>191</sup>. So he left them and departed.

<sup>5</sup> When the disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to bring any bread. <sup>6</sup> Jesus said to them, "Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." <sup>7</sup> And they discussed it among themselves, saying, "We brought no bread."<sup>192</sup> <sup>8</sup> But Jesus, aware of this, said, "O men of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves the fact that you have no bread? <sup>9</sup> Do you not yet perceive? Do you not remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? <sup>10</sup> Or the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? <sup>11</sup> How is it that you fail to perceive that I did not speak about bread? Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." <sup>12</sup> Then they understood that he did not tell them to beware of the leaven<sup>193</sup> of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

<sup>21</sup> From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. <sup>22</sup> And Peter took him and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid, Lord! This shall never happen to you." <sup>23</sup> But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me; for you are not on the side of God, but of men."

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. <sup>25</sup> For whoever would save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. <sup>26</sup> For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what shall a man give in return for his life? <sup>27</sup> For the Son of man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay every man for what he has done. <sup>28</sup> Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom."

17:<sup>1</sup> And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain apart. <sup>2</sup> And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as light. <sup>3</sup> And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Eli'jah, talking with him. <sup>4</sup> And Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is well that we are here; if you wish, I will make three booths here, one for you and one for Moses and one for Eli'jah." <sup>5</sup> He was still speaking, when lo, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." <sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces, and were filled with awe. <sup>7</sup> But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and have no fear." <sup>8</sup> And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

<sup>9</sup> And as they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Tell no one the vision, until the Son of man is raised from the dead." <sup>10</sup> And the disciples asked him, "Then why do the scribes say that first Eli'jah must come?" <sup>11</sup> He replied, "Eli'jah does come, and he is to restore all things; <sup>12</sup> but I tell you that Eli'jah has already come, and they did not

<sup>14</sup> And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and kneeling before him said, <sup>15</sup> "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly; for often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. <sup>16</sup> And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him." <sup>17</sup> And Jesus answered, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me." <sup>18</sup> And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was cured instantly. <sup>19</sup> Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" <sup>20</sup> He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible<sup>202</sup> to you."

<sup>22</sup> As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of man is to be delivered into the hands of men, <sup>23</sup> and they will kill him, and he will be raised on the third day." And they were greatly distressed.

<sup>24</sup> When they came to Caper'na-um, the collectors of the half-shekel tax went up to Peter and said, "Does not your teacher pay the tax?" <sup>25</sup> He said, "Yes." And when he came home, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tribute? From their sons or from others?" <sup>26</sup> And when he said, "From others," Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free. <sup>27</sup> However, not to give offence to them, go to the sea and cast a hook, and take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth you will find a shekel; take that and give it to them for me and for yourself."

23 "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. 24 When he began the reckoning, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents; 25 and as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. 26 So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you everything<sup>219</sup>.' 27 And out of pity for him the lord of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. 28 But that same servant, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat he said, 'Pay what you owe.' 29 So his fellow servant fell down and besought him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' 30 He refused and went and put him in prison till he should pay the debt. 31 When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. 32 Then his lord summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you besought me; 33 and should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' 34 And in anger his lord delivered him to the gaolers, till he should pay all his debt. 35 So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

19:1 Now when Jesus had finished these sayings, he went away from Galilee and entered the region of Judea beyond the Jordan; 2 and large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

3 And Pharisees came up to him and tested him by asking, "Is it lawful to divorce one's wife for any cause?" 4 He answered, "Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, 5 and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? 6 So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder." 7 They said to him, "Why then did Moses command<sup>A</sup> one to give a certificate of divorce, and to put her away?" 8 He said to them, "For your hardness of heart<sup>220</sup> Moses allowed<sup>A</sup> you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning<sup>221</sup> it was not so. 9 And I<sup>222</sup> say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for unchastity<sup>223</sup>, and marries another, commits adultery<sup>224</sup>."

10 The disciples said to him, "If such is the case of a man with his wife, it is not expedient to marry.<sup>225</sup>" 11 But he said to them, "Not all men can receive this saying, but only those to whom it is given. 12 For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made

<sup>13</sup> Then children were brought to him that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples rebuked the people; <sup>14</sup> but Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." <sup>15</sup> And he laid his hands on them and went away.

<sup>16</sup> And behold, one came up to him, saying, "Teacher, what good deed must I do, to have eternal life?" <sup>17</sup> And he said to him, "Why do you ask me about what is good? One there is who is good. If you would enter life, keep the commandments." <sup>18</sup> He said to him, "Which?" And Jesus said, "You shall not kill, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, <sup>19</sup> Honour your father and mother, and, You shall love your neighbour as yourself." <sup>20</sup> The young man said to him, "All these I have observed; what do I still lack?" <sup>21</sup> Jesus said to him, "If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." <sup>22</sup> When the young man heard this he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions.

<sup>23</sup> And Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly, I say to you, it will be hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. <sup>24</sup> Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." <sup>25</sup> When the disciples heard this they were greatly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"<sup>227</sup> <sup>26</sup> But Jesus looked at them and said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."<sup>228</sup> <sup>27</sup> Then Peter said in reply, "Lo, we have left everything<sup>229</sup> and followed you. What then shall we have?" <sup>28</sup> Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, in the new world, when the Son of man shall sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup> And every one who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life. <sup>30</sup> But many that are first will be last, and the last first.

<sup>17</sup> And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them, <sup>18</sup> "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death, <sup>19</sup> and deliver him to the Gentiles to be mocked and scourged and crucified, and he will be raised on the third day."

<sup>29</sup> And as they went out of Jericho, a great crowd followed him. <sup>30</sup> And behold, two blind men sitting by the roadside, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!" <sup>31</sup> The crowd rebuked them, telling them to be silent; but they cried out the more, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!" <sup>32</sup> And Jesus stopped and called them, saying, "What do you want me to do for you?" <sup>33</sup> They said to him, "Lord, let our eyes be opened." <sup>34</sup> And Jesus in pity touched their eyes, and immediately they received their sight and followed him.

21: <sup>1</sup> And when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Beth'phage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup> saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find an ass tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup> If any one says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and he will send them immediately." <sup>4</sup> This took place to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet, saying,

Behold, your king is coming to you,
humble, and mounted on an ass,
and on a colt, the foal of an ass."

<sup>12</sup> And Jesus entered the temple of God and drove out all who sold and bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons. <sup>13</sup> He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer'; but you make it a den of robbers."

<sup>14</sup> And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. <sup>15</sup> But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying out in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" they were indignant; <sup>16</sup> and they said to him, "Do you hear what these are saying?" And Jesus said to them, "Yes; have you never read,

'Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast brought perfect praise?'"

<sup>17</sup> And leaving them, he went out of the city to Bethany and lodged there.

<sup>18</sup> In the morning, as he was returning to the city, he was hungry. <sup>19</sup> And seeing a fig tree by the wayside he went to it, and found nothing on it but leaves only. And he said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you again!" And the fig tree withered at once. <sup>20</sup> When the disciples saw it they marvelled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither at once?" <sup>21</sup> And Jesus answered them, "Truly, I say to you, if you have faith and never doubt, you will not only do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it will be done. <sup>22</sup> And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith."

<sup>23</sup> And when he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority<sup>235</sup>?"<sup>24</sup> Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you a question; and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things.<sup>25</sup> The baptism of John, whence was it? From heaven or from men?" And they argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'"<sup>26</sup> But if we say, 'From men,' we are afraid of the multitude; for all hold that John was a prophet."<sup>27</sup> So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>28</sup> "What do you think? A man had two sons; and he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.'<sup>29</sup> And he answered, 'I will not'; but afterward he repented and went.<sup>30</sup> And he went to the second and said the same; and he answered, 'I go, sir,' but did not go.<sup>31</sup> Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.<sup>32</sup> For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the harlots believed him; and even when you saw it, you did not afterward repent and believe him.

<sup>33</sup> "Hear another parable. There was a householder who planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a wine press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country.<sup>34</sup> When the season of fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants, to get his fruit;<sup>35</sup> and the tenants took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another.<sup>36</sup> Again<sup>236</sup> he sent other servants, more than the first; and they did the same to them.<sup>37</sup> Afterward he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'<sup>38</sup> But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.'<sup>39</sup> And they took him and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him.<sup>40</sup> When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"<sup>41</sup> They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in their seasons."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures:

'The very stone which the builders rejected

has become the head of the corner;

this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?'

<sup>43</sup> Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation producing the fruits of it<sup>237</sup>."

<sup>45</sup> When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he was speaking about them.<sup>46</sup> But when they tried to arrest him, they feared the multitudes, because they held him to be a prophet.

22:<sup>1</sup> And again Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying, <sup>2</sup> "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a marriage feast for his son, <sup>3</sup> and sent his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast; but they would not come. <sup>4</sup> Again<sup>238</sup> he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, Behold, I have made ready my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves are killed, and everything is ready; come to the marriage feast.'<sup>5</sup> But they made light of it and went off, one to his farm, another to his business, <sup>6</sup> while the rest seized his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. <sup>7</sup> The king was angry, and he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. <sup>8</sup> Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. <sup>9</sup> Go therefore to the thoroughfares, and invite to the marriage feast as many as you find.'<sup>10</sup> And those servants went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

<sup>11</sup> "But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had no wedding garment; <sup>12</sup> and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?'<sup>239</sup> And he was speechless. <sup>13</sup> Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and cast him into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.'<sup>14</sup> For many are called, but few are chosen."

<sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how to entangle him in his talk. <sup>16</sup> And they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are true, and teach the way of God truthfully, and care for no man; for you do not regard the position of men. <sup>17</sup> Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?" <sup>18</sup> But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why put me to the test, you hypocrites? <sup>19</sup> Show me the money for the tax." And they brought him a coin. <sup>20</sup> And Jesus said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" <sup>21</sup> They said, "Caesar's." Then he said to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." <sup>22</sup> When they heard it, they marvelled; and they left him and went away.

<sup>23</sup> The same day Sad'ducees came to him, who say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him a question, <sup>24</sup> saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies, having no children, his brother must marry the widow, and raise up children for his brother.' <sup>25</sup> Now there were seven brothers among us; the first married, and died, and having no children left his wife to his brother. <sup>26</sup> So too the second and third, down to the seventh. <sup>27</sup> After them all, the woman died. <sup>28</sup> In the resurrection, therefore, to which of the seven will she be wife? For they all had her."

<sup>29</sup> But Jesus answered them, "You are wrong, because you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God. <sup>30</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. <sup>31</sup> And as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was said to you by God, <sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not God of the dead, but of the living." <sup>33</sup> And when the crowd heard it, they were astonished at his teaching.

<sup>34</sup> But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sad'ducees, they came together. <sup>35</sup> And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, to test him. <sup>36</sup> "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" <sup>37</sup> And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. <sup>38</sup> This is the great and first commandment. <sup>39</sup> And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbour as yourself. <sup>40</sup> On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets."

<sup>41</sup> Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, <sup>42</sup> saying, "What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." <sup>43</sup> He said to them, "How is it then that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls him Lord, saying,

<sup>44</sup> 'The Lord said to my Lord,
Sit at my right hand, till I put thy enemies under thy feet'?

<sup>45</sup> If David thus calls him Lord, how is he his son?" <sup>46</sup> And no one was able to answer him a word, nor from that day did any one dare to ask him any more questions.

Woe to scribes & Pharisees<sup>240</sup>

23:<sup>1</sup> Then said Jesus to the crowds and to his disciples, <sup>2</sup> "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat; <sup>3</sup> so practice and observe whatever they tell you, but not what they do; for they preach, but do not practice. <sup>4</sup> They bind heavy burdens<sup>241</sup>, hard to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with their finger<sup>242</sup>. <sup>5</sup> They do all their deeds to be seen by men; for they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long, <sup>6</sup> and they love the place of honour at feasts and the best seats in the synagogues, <sup>7</sup> and salutations in the market places, and being called rabbi by men. <sup>8</sup> But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brethren. <sup>9</sup> And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. <sup>10</sup> Neither be called masters, for you have one master, the Christ. <sup>11</sup> He who is greatest among you shall be your servant; <sup>12</sup> whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

<sup>13</sup> "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you shut the kingdom of heaven against men; for you neither enter yourselves, nor allow those who would enter to go in. <sup>15</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you traverse sea and land to make a single proselyte, and when he becomes a proselyte, you make him twice as much a child of hell as yourselves.

<sup>16</sup> "Woe to you, blind guides, who say, 'If any one swears by the temple, it is nothing; but if any one swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath.' <sup>17</sup> You blind fools!

<sup>241</sup> going beyond scripture: God's teaching liberates (Jn 8:32). What is believed must arise from conviction (1Thess 1:5); Rom 14:22-23

For which is greater, the gold or the temple that has made the gold sacred? <sup>18</sup> And you say, 'If any one swears by the altar, it is nothing; but if any one swears by the gift that is on the altar, he is bound by his oath.' <sup>19</sup> You blind men! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred? <sup>20</sup> So he who swears by the altar, swears by it and by everything on it; <sup>21</sup> and he who swears by the temple, swears by it and by him who dwells in it; <sup>22</sup> and he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by him who sits upon it.

<sup>23</sup> "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you tithe mint and dill and cummin, and have neglected the weightier matters<sup>243</sup> of the law, justice and mercy and faith; these you ought to have done, without neglecting the others. <sup>24</sup> You blind guides, straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel!

<sup>29</sup> "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous, <sup>30</sup> saying, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.' <sup>31</sup> Thus you witness against yourselves, that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup> Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. <sup>33</sup> You serpents, you brood of vipers, how are you to escape being sentenced to hell? <sup>34</sup> Therefore I send you prophets and wise men and scribes, some of whom you will kill and crucify, and some you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from town to town, <sup>35</sup> that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of innocent Abel to the blood of Zechari'ah the son of Barachi'ah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. <sup>36</sup> Truly, I say to you, all this will come upon this generation.

24:<sup>1</sup> Jesus left the temple and was going away, when his disciples came to point out to him the buildings of the temple. <sup>2</sup> But he answered them, "You see all these, do you not? Truly, I say to you, there will not be left here one stone upon another, that will not be thrown down."

<sup>3</sup> As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, 1) when will this be, and 2) what will be the sign of your coming and 3) of the close of the age?" <sup>4</sup> And Jesus answered them, "Take heed that no one leads you astray. <sup>5</sup> For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and they will lead many astray. <sup>6</sup> And you will hear of wars and rumours of wars; see that you are not alarmed; for this must take place, but the end is not yet. <sup>7</sup> For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places: <sup>8</sup> all this is but the beginning of the birth-pangs.

<sup>9</sup> "Then they will deliver you up to tribulation<sup>251</sup>, and put you to death; and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. <sup>10</sup> And then many will fall away<sup>252</sup>, and betray one another, and hate one another. <sup>11</sup> And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. <sup>12</sup> And because wickedness is multiplied, most men's love will grow cold. <sup>13</sup> But he who endures<sup>253</sup> to the end will be saved. <sup>14</sup> And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached throughout the whole world, as a testimony to all nations; and then the end will come.

<sup>29</sup> "Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken; <sup>30</sup> then will appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory; <sup>31</sup> and he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet<sup>258</sup> call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other<sup>259</sup>.

<sup>36</sup> "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only. <sup>37</sup> As were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of man. <sup>38</sup> For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking<sup>260</sup>, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, <sup>39</sup> and they did not know until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of man. <sup>40</sup> Then two men will be in the field; one is taken and one is left<sup>261</sup>. <sup>41</sup> Two women will be grinding at the mill; one is taken and one is left. <sup>42</sup> Watch therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. <sup>43</sup> But know this, that if the householder had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched and would not have let his house be broken into. <sup>44</sup> Therefore you also must be ready; for the Son of man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

<sup>45</sup> "Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master has set over his household, to give them their food at the proper time? <sup>46</sup> Blessed is that servant whom his master when he comes will find so doing. <sup>47</sup> Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. <sup>48</sup> But if that wicked servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed,' <sup>49</sup> and begins to beat his fellow servants, and eats and drinks with the drunken, <sup>50</sup> the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, <sup>51</sup> and will punish him, and put him with the hypocrites; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.

26:<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said to his disciples,<sup>2</sup> "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of man will be delivered up to be crucified."

<sup>3</sup> Then the chief priests and the elders of the people gathered in the palace of the high priest, who was called Ca'iaphas,<sup>4</sup> and took counsel together in order to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him.<sup>5</sup> But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be a tumult among the people."

<sup>6</sup> Now when Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper,<sup>7</sup> a woman came up to him with an alabaster flask of very expensive ointment, and she poured it on his head, as he sat at table.<sup>8</sup> But when the disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste?<sup>9</sup> For this ointment might have been sold for a large sum, and given to the poor."<sup>10</sup> But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a beautiful thing to me.<sup>11</sup> For you always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me.<sup>12</sup> In pouring this ointment on my body she has done it to prepare me for burial.<sup>13</sup> Truly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what she has done will be told in memory of her."

<sup>14</sup> Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests<sup>15</sup> and said, "What will you give me if I deliver him to you?" And they paid him thirty pieces of silver.<sup>16</sup> And from that moment he sought an opportunity to betray him.

<sup>17</sup> Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where will you have us prepare for you to eat the passover?"<sup>18</sup> He said, "Go into the city to a certain one, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at your house with my disciples.'"<sup>19</sup> And the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the passover.

<sup>20</sup> When it was evening, he sat at table with the twelve disciples;<sup>21</sup> and as they were eating, he said, "Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me."<sup>22</sup> And they were very sorrowful, and began to say to him one after another, "Is it I, Lord?"<sup>23</sup> He answered, "He who has dipped his hand in the dish with me, will betray me."<sup>24</sup> The Son of man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born." <sup>25</sup> Judas, who betrayed him, said, "Is it I, Master?" He said to him, "You have said so."

<sup>26</sup> Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread<sup>286</sup>, and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." <sup>27</sup> And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you; <sup>28</sup> for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>29</sup> I tell you I shall not drink again of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

<sup>30</sup> And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. <sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away because of me this night; for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' <sup>32</sup> But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee." <sup>33</sup> Peter declared to him, "Though they all fall away because of you, I will never fall away." <sup>34</sup> Jesus said to him, "Truly, I say to you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times." <sup>35</sup> Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you." And so said all the disciples.

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsem'ane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go yonder and pray." <sup>37</sup> And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zeb'edee, he began to be sorrowful and troubled. <sup>38</sup> Then he said to them, "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with me." <sup>39</sup> And going a little farther he fell on his face and prayed, "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt." <sup>40</sup> And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, "So, could you not watch with me one hour? <sup>41</sup> Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak<sup>287</sup>." <sup>42</sup> Again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, "My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, thy will be done." <sup>43</sup> And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. <sup>44</sup> So, leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words. <sup>45</sup> Then he came to the disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup> Rise, let us be going; see, my betrayer is at hand."

<sup>47</sup> While he was still speaking, Judas came, one of the twelve, and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the elders of the people. <sup>48</sup> Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "The one I shall kiss is the man; seize him." <sup>49</sup> And he came up to Jesus at once and said, "Hail, Master!" And he kissed him. <sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, "Friend, why are you here?" Then they came up and laid hands on Jesus and seized him. <sup>51</sup> And behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest, and cut off his ear<sup>288</sup>. <sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword<sup>289</sup> back into its place; for all who take the sword will perish by the sword<sup>290</sup>". <sup>53</sup> Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will at once send me more than twelve legions of angels?<sup>291</sup> <sup>54</sup> But how then should the scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be so?" <sup>55</sup> At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs to capture me? Day after day I sat in the temple teaching, and you did not seize me. <sup>56</sup> But all this has taken place, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples forsook him and fled<sup>292</sup>.

<sup>57</sup> Then those who had seized Jesus led him to Ca'iaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had gathered. <sup>58</sup> But Peter followed him at a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and going inside he sat with the guards to see the end. <sup>59</sup> Now the chief priests and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus that they might put him to death, <sup>60</sup> but they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward <sup>61</sup> and said, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.'" <sup>62</sup> And the high priest stood up and said, "Have you no answer to make? What is it that these men testify against you?" <sup>63</sup> But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to him, "I adjure you by the living God, tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God."

64 Jesus said to him, "You have said so. But I tell you, hereafter you will see the Son of man seated at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven." 65 Then the high priest tore his robes, and said, "He has uttered blasphemy. Why do we still need witnesses? You have now heard his blasphemy. 66 What is your judgement?" They answered, "He deserves death." 67 Then they spat in his face, and struck him; and some slapped him, 68 saying, "Prophesy to us, you Christ! Who is it that struck you?"

69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. 1) And a maid came up to him, and said<sup>293</sup>, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean." 70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you mean." 71 And when he went out to the porch, 2) another maid saw him, and she said to the bystanders, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth." 72 And again he denied it with an oath<sup>294</sup>, "I do not know the man." 73 3) After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Certainly you are also one of them, for your accent betrays you." 74 Then he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, "I do not know the man." And immediately the cock crowed. 75 And Peter remembered the saying of Jesus, "Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly.

27:<sup>1</sup> When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death; <sup>2</sup> and they bound him and led him away and delivered him to Pilate the governor.

<sup>3</sup> When Judas, his betrayer, saw that he was condemned, he repented and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, <sup>4</sup> saying, "I have sinned in betraying innocent blood." They said, "What is that to us? See to it yourself." <sup>5</sup> And throwing down the pieces of silver in the temple, he departed; and he went and hanged himself<sup>295</sup>. <sup>6</sup> But the chief priests, taking the pieces of silver, said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since they are blood money." <sup>7</sup> So they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. <sup>8</sup> Therefore that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day. <sup>9</sup> Then was fulfilled what had been spoken by the prophet Jeremiah<sup>296</sup>, saying, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him on whom a price had been set by some of the sons of Israel, <sup>10</sup> and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord directed me."

<sup>11</sup> Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus said, "You have said so." <sup>12</sup> But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he made no answer. <sup>13</sup> Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?" <sup>14</sup> But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge; so that the governor wondered greatly.

<sup>15</sup> Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release for the crowd any one prisoner whom they wanted. <sup>16</sup> And they had then a notorious prisoner, called Barab'bas. <sup>17</sup> So when they had gathered, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you, Barab'bas or Jesus who is called Christ?" <sup>18</sup> For he knew that it was out of envy that they had delivered him up. <sup>19</sup> Besides, while he was sitting on the judgement seat, his wife sent word to him, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered much over him today in a dream." <sup>20</sup> Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the people to ask for Barab'bas and destroy Jesus. <sup>21</sup> The governor again said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barab'bas." <sup>22</sup> Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said, "Let him be crucified." <sup>23</sup> And he said, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "Let him be crucified."

<sup>24</sup> So when Pilate saw that he was gaining nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this man's blood; see to it yourselves." <sup>25</sup> And all the people answered, "His blood be on us and on our children!" <sup>26</sup> Then he released for them Barab'bas, and having scourged Jesus, delivered him to be crucified.

<sup>27</sup> Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the praetorium, and they gathered the whole battalion before him. <sup>28</sup> And they stripped him and put a scarlet robe upon him, <sup>29</sup> and plaiting a crown of thorns they put it on his head, and put a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him they mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" <sup>30</sup> And they spat upon him, and took the reed and struck him on the head. <sup>31</sup> And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the robe, and put his own clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

<sup>32</sup> As they went out, they came upon a man of Cyre'ne, Simon by name; this man they compelled to carry his cross. <sup>33</sup> And when they came to a place called Gol'gotha (which means the place of a skull), <sup>34</sup> they offered him wine to drink, mingled with gall; but when he tasted it, he would not drink it. <sup>35</sup> And when they had crucified him, they divided his garments among them by casting lots; <sup>36</sup> then they sat down and kept watch over him there. <sup>37</sup> And over his head they put the charge against him, which read, "This is Jesus the King of the Jews." <sup>38</sup> Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left. <sup>39</sup> And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads <sup>40</sup> and saying, "You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross." <sup>41</sup> So also the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocked him, saying, <sup>42</sup> "He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him." <sup>43</sup> He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he desires him; for he said, "I am the Son of God." <sup>44</sup> And the robbers who were crucified with him also reviled him in the same way.

<sup>51</sup> And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom; and the earth shook, and the rocks were split; <sup>52</sup> the tombs also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised, <sup>53</sup> and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many. <sup>54</sup> When the centurion and those who were with him, keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were filled with awe, and said, "Truly this was the Son of God!"

<sup>55</sup> There were also many women there, looking on from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to him; <sup>56</sup> among whom were Mary Mag'dalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zeb'edee.

<sup>57</sup> When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathe'a, named Joseph, who also was a disciple of Jesus. <sup>58</sup> He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given to him. <sup>59</sup> And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen shroud, <sup>60</sup> and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. <sup>61</sup> Mary Mag'dalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the sepulchre.

<sup>62</sup> Next day, that is, after the day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate <sup>63</sup> and said, "Sir, we remember how that impostor said, while he was still alive, 'After three days I will rise again.' <sup>64</sup> Therefore order the sepulchre to be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples go and steal him away, and tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and the last fraud will be worse than the first." <sup>65</sup> Pilate said to them, "You have a guard of soldiers; go, make it as secure as you can." <sup>66</sup> So they went and made the sepulchre secure by sealing the stone and setting a guard.

28:<sup>1</sup> Now after the sabbath, toward the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Mag'dalene and the other Mary went to see the sepulchre. <sup>2</sup> And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. <sup>3</sup> His appearance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow. <sup>4</sup> And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men. <sup>5</sup> But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. <sup>6</sup> He is not here; for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. <sup>7</sup> Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. Lo, I have told you." <sup>8</sup> So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. <sup>9</sup> And behold, Jesus met them and said, "Hail!" And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshipped him. <sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."

<sup>11</sup> While they were going, behold, some of the guard went into the city and told the chief priests all that had taken place. <sup>12</sup> And when they had assembled with the elders and taken counsel, they gave a sum of money to the soldiers <sup>13</sup> and said, "Tell people, 'His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep.' <sup>14</sup> And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble." <sup>15</sup> So they took the money and did as they were directed; and this story has been spread among the Jews to this day.

<sup>16</sup> Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. <sup>17</sup> And when they saw him they worshipped him; but some doubted. <sup>18</sup> And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup> Go therefore<sup>298</sup> and make disciples<sup>299</sup> of all nations<sup>300</sup>, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup> teaching<sup>301</sup> them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always<sup>302</sup>, to the close of the age."

The Gospel according to Mark

Man's preparation for the Saviour

1:<sup>1</sup> The beginning<sup>1</sup> of the gospel of Jesus<sup>2</sup> Christ<sup>3</sup>, the Son of God<sup>4</sup>. <sup>2</sup> As it is written in Isaiah<sup>5</sup> the prophet,

"Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
who shall prepare thy way<sup>(A)6</sup>;

Prepare the way<sup>(A)9</sup> of the Lord, make his paths straight--"<sup>10</sup>

The beginning

Forgiveness of sins: healing of the paralytic

2:1 And when he returned to Caper'na-um after some days, it was reported that he was at home. <sup>2</sup> And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, not even about the door; and he was preaching the word to them. <sup>3</sup> And they came, bringing to him a paralytic<sup>79</sup> carried by four men. <sup>4</sup> And when they could not get near him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him; and when they had made an opening, they let down the pallet on which the paralytic lay. <sup>5</sup> And when Jesus saw their faith<sup>80</sup>, he said to the paralytic, "Child<sup>81</sup>, your sins<sup>82</sup> are forgiven<sup>83</sup>." <sup>6</sup> Now some of the Deficiency of old religion (Mk 2:15-3:6)

<sup>15</sup> And as he sat at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners<sup>96</sup> were sitting with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many who followed him. <sup>16</sup> And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?"<sup>97</sup> <sup>17</sup> And when Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are well<sup>98</sup> have no need of a physician, but those who are sick<sup>99</sup>; I came not to call the righteous, but sinners<sup>100</sup>."

<sup>18</sup> Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting<sup>101</sup>; and people came and said to him, "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?" <sup>19</sup> And Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them? worshipped<sup>213</sup> him; <sup>7</sup> and crying out with a loud voice, he<sup>F</sup> said, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment<sup>214</sup> me." <sup>8</sup> For he had said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!" <sup>9</sup> And Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"<sup>215</sup> He<sup>F</sup> replied, "My name is Legion; for we are many." <sup>10</sup> And he<sup>F216</sup> begged him eagerly not to send them out of the country. <sup>11</sup> Now a great herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside; <sup>12</sup> and they<sup>F217</sup> begged him, "Send us to the swine, let us enter them." <sup>13</sup> So he gave them leave. And the unclean spirits came out, and entered the swine; and the herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and were drowned in the sea<sup>218</sup>.

Witnessing to deliverance

3. Incurable disease

And a great crowd followed him and thronged about him. <sup>25</sup> And there was a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years, <sup>26</sup> and who had 1) suffered much under many physicians, and had 2) spent all that she had, and was no better but rather 3) grew worse. <sup>27</sup> She had heard the reports about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched<sup>232</sup> his garment. <sup>28</sup> For she said, "If I touch even his garments<sup>233</sup>, I shall be made well." <sup>29</sup> And immediately the haemorrhage ceased; and she knew<sup>234</sup> in her body that she was healed of her disease. <sup>30</sup> And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone forth from him<sup>235</sup>, immediately turned about in the crowd, and said, "Who touched my garments?" <sup>31</sup> And

4. Death

Rejection, Unbelief and start of teaching on the hardness of the heart

Unbelief: 1. Own Country

6:<sup>1</sup> He went away from there and * came to his own country; and his disciples * followed him. <sup>2</sup> And on the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue; and many who heard him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get all this? What is the wisdom given to him? What mighty works are wrought by his hands! <sup>3</sup> Is not this the carpenter<sup>250</sup>, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offence<sup>251</sup> at him. <sup>4</sup> And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honour, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house." <sup>5</sup> And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands upon a few sick people and healed them. <sup>6</sup> And he marvelled because of their unbelief<sup>252</sup>.

And he went about among the villages teaching.

<sup>7</sup> And he 1) called to him the twelve, and began to 2) send them out two by two, and 3) gave them authority over the unclean spirits. <sup>8</sup> He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff<sup>253</sup>; no bread, no bag<sup>254</sup>, no money in their belts; <sup>9</sup> but to wear sandals<sup>255</sup> and not put on two tunics<sup>256</sup>. <sup>10</sup> And he said to them, "Where you enter a house,

Unbelief: 3. Herod and Herodians: death of John the Baptist

<sup>14</sup> King Herod heard of it; for Jesus' name had become known. Some said, "John the baptiser has been raised from the dead; that is why these powers are at work in him." <sup>15</sup> But others said, "It is Eli'jah." And others said, "It is a prophet <sup>259</sup>, like one of the prophets of old." <sup>260</sup> <sup>16</sup> But when Herod heard of it he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised." <sup>261</sup> <sup>17</sup> For Herod had sent and seized John <sup>262</sup>, and bound him in prison for the sake of Hero'di-as, his brother Philip's wife; because he had married her. <sup>18</sup> For John said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." <sup>263</sup> <sup>19</sup> And Hero'di-as had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, <sup>20</sup> for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he was much perplexed <sup>A264</sup>, and yet he heard him gladly <sup>265</sup>. <sup>21</sup> But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and the leading men of Galilee. <sup>22</sup> For when Hero'di-as' daughter came in and danced, she pleased <sup>(A)266</sup> Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will grant it." <sup>23</sup> And he vowed <sup>(A)267</sup> to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." <sup>24</sup> And she went out, and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?" <sup>268</sup> And she said, "The head of John the baptiser." <sup>25</sup> And she came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." <sup>26</sup> And the king was exceedingly sorry; but because of his oaths and his guests he did not want to break his word <sup>(A)269</sup> to her. <sup>27</sup> And immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard and gave orders to bring his head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, <sup>28</sup> and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup> When his disciples heard of it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Teaching on the REAL bread

<sup>30</sup> The apostles returned <sup>270</sup> to Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. <sup>31</sup> And he said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a lonely <sup>271</sup> place, and rest a while <sup>272</sup>." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure <sup>273</sup> even to eat <sup>274</sup>. <sup>32</sup> And they went away in the boat to a lonely place by themselves. <sup>33</sup> Now many saw them going, and knew them <sup>275</sup>, and they ran there on foot from all the towns, and got there ahead of them. The disciples <sup>35</sup> And when it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, "This is a lonely place, and the hour is now late; <sup>36</sup> send them away<sup>278</sup>, to go into the country and villages round about and buy themselves something to eat." <sup>37</sup> But he answered them, "You<sup>279</sup> give them something to eat." And they said to him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii<sup>280</sup> worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?" <sup>38</sup> And he said to them, "How many loaves have you? Go and see." And when they had found out, they said, "Five, and two fish<sup>281</sup>." <sup>39</sup> Then he commanded them all to sit down by companies<sup>282</sup> upon the green grass. <sup>40</sup> So they sat down in groups, by hundreds and by fifties. <sup>41</sup> And taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed<sup>283</sup>, and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples<sup>284</sup> to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all. <sup>42</sup> And they all ate and were satisfied<sup>285</sup>. <sup>43</sup> And they took up twelve<sup>286</sup> baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. <sup>44</sup> And those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.

And about the fourth watch of the night<sup>293</sup> he came to them, walking on the sea, and willed<sup>294</sup> to pass by them. <sup>49</sup> But when they saw him walking on the sea they thought it was a ghost, and cried out; <sup>50</sup> for they all saw him, and were terrified<sup>295</sup>. #### The heart

7:1 Now when the Pharisees gathered together to him, with some of the scribes, who had come from Jerusalem, 2 they saw that some of his disciples ate with hands defiled, that is, unwashed. 3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they wash their hands, observing the tradition of the elders; 4 and when they come from the market place, they do not eat unless they purify themselves; and there are many other traditions which they observe, the washing of cups and pots and vessels of bronze.) 5 And the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with hands defiled?" 6 And he said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written<sup>304</sup>,

`This people honours me with their lips,
but their heart is far from me;
7 in vain do they worship<sup>305</sup> me,
teaching as doctrines the precepts of men.'

8 You leave the commandment of God, and hold fast the tradition of men.<sup>306</sup>

9 And he said to them, "You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God, in order to keep your tradition!"<sup>307</sup> 10 For Moses said, 'Honour your father and your mother'; and, 'He who speaks evil of<sup>308</sup> father or mother, let him surely die<sup>309</sup>'; 11 but you say, 'If a man tells his father or his mother, What you would have gained from me is Corban' (that is, given to God)-- 12 then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother, 13 thus making void the word of God through your tradition which you received<sup>310</sup>. And many such things you do."

14 And he called the people to him again, and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand: 15 there is nothing<sup>311</sup> outside a man which by going into him can defile him; but the things which come out of a man are what defile him." 17 And when he had entered the house, and left the people, his disciples asked him about the parable. 18 And he said to them, "Then are you also without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into a man from outside cannot defile him, 19 since it enters, not his heart but his stomach, and so passes on?" (Thus he declared all foods clean.) 20 And he said, "What comes out of a man is what defiles a man. 21 For from within, out of the heart<sup>312</sup> of man<sup>313</sup>, evil thoughts come<sup>314</sup>, fornication, theft, murder, adultery, 22 coveting<sup>315</sup>, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness<sup>316</sup>, envy, slander, pride<sup>317</sup>, foolishness<sup>318</sup>. 23 All these evil things come from within, and they defile a man."

Summary of teaching: the seeker's heart; also an example of Christ's service

<sup>46</sup> And they came to Jericho; and as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great multitude, Bartimae'us<sup>495</sup>, a blind beggar, the son of Timae'us<sup>496</sup>, was sitting<sup>497</sup> by the roadside. <sup>47</sup> And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out<sup>498</sup> and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>48</sup> And many<sup>499</sup> rebuked him, telling him to be silent<sup>500</sup>; but he cried out all the more<sup>501</sup>, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>49</sup> And Jesus stopped and said<sup>502</sup>, "Call him." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; rise, he is calling you."<sup>50</sup> And throwing off his mantle he sprang<sup>503</sup> up and came to Jesus. <sup>51</sup> And Jesus said to him<sup>504</sup>, "What do you want me to do for you?"<sup>505</sup> And the blind man said to him, "Master, let me receive my sight<sup>506</sup>." <sup>52</sup> And Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith<sup>507</sup> has made you well." And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way<sup>508</sup>.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"<sup>513</sup> <sup>10</sup> Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming! Hosanna in the highest!"

<sup>12</sup> On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. <sup>13</sup> And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing<sup>515</sup> but leaves<sup>516</sup>, for it was not the season for figs. <sup>14</sup> And he said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again."<sup>517</sup> And his disciples heard it.

Exercise of authority

<sup>15</sup> And they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out<sup>518</sup> those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons; <sup>16</sup> and he would not allow any one to carry anything through the temple. <sup>17</sup> And he taught, and said to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all<sup>519</sup> the nations'? But you have made it a den of robbers<sup>520</sup>." <sup>18</sup> And the chief priests and the scribes heard it and sought a way to destroy<sup>521</sup> him; for they feared him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching. <sup>19</sup> And when evening came they went out of the city.

Obtaining and using authority

God's measure of giving

Signs of the end: Many false conclusions and tribulation, followed by collapse of heavens and coming of Christ

<sup>9</sup> "But take heed to yourselves; for they will deliver you up to councils; and you will be beaten in synagogues; and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear testimony before them. <sup>10</sup> And the gospel must first be preached to all nations<sup>609</sup>. <sup>11</sup> And when they bring you to trial and deliver you up, do not be anxious beforehand<sup>610</sup> what you are to say; but say whatever is given you in that hour, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit<sup>611</sup>. <sup>12</sup> And brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; <sup>13</sup> and you will be hated by all for my name's sake. ### The Tribulation : 3) General tribulation: Judgement of Jerusalem

Contrast of love of woman & Jesus with hate of priests, scribes and Judas

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot<sup>642</sup>, who was one of the twelve, went to the chief priests in order to betray him to them. <sup>11</sup> And when they heard it they were glad<sup>643</sup>, and promised to give him money. And he sought an opportunity to betray him.

15:<sup>1</sup> And as soon as it was morning<sup>716</sup> the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council held a consultation<sup>717</sup>; and they bound Jesus and led him away and delivered him to Pilate. <sup>2</sup> And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?<sup>718n</sup> And he answered him, "You have said so<sup>719</sup>." <sup>3</sup> And the chief priests accused<sup>720</sup> him of many things. <sup>4</sup> And Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer to make? See how many charges they bring against you." <sup>5</sup> But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate wondered<sup>721</sup>.

<sup>6</sup> Now at the feast he used to release for them one prisoner for whom they asked. <sup>7</sup> And among the rebels in prison, who had committed murder in the insurrection, there was a man called Barab'bas. <sup>8</sup> And the crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to do as he was wont to do for them. <sup>9</sup> And he answered them, "Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?<sup>722n</sup> <sup>10</sup> For he perceived that it was out of envy<sup>723</sup> that the chief priests had delivered him up. <sup>11</sup> But the chief priests stirred up the crowd<sup>724</sup> to have him release for them Barab'bas instead. <sup>12</sup> And Pilate again said to them, "Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?<sup>725n</sup> <sup>13</sup> And they cried out again, "Crucify him." <sup>14</sup> And Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?<sup>726n</sup> But they shouted all the more, "Crucify

Gospel according to Luke

1: Inasmuch as many<sup>1</sup> have undertaken to compile a narrative of the things which have been accomplished among us, <sup>2</sup> just as they were delivered to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses<sup>2</sup> and ministers of the word, <sup>3</sup> it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent The-oph'ilus, <sup>4</sup> that you may know the truth<sup>3</sup> concerning the things of which you have been informed.

<sup>8</sup> Now while he was serving as priest before God when his division was on duty, <sup>9</sup> according to the custom of the priesthood, it fell to him by lot to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense. <sup>10</sup> And the whole multitude of the people were praying<sup>9</sup> outside at the hour of incense. <sup>11</sup> And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense<sup>10</sup>. <sup>12</sup> And Zechari'ah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. <sup>13</sup> But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechari'ah, for your prayer<sup>11</sup> is heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John<sup>12</sup>."

<sup>14</sup> And you will have joy and gladness,
and many will rejoice at his birth;

<sup>15</sup> for he will be great before the Lord,
and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink,
and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit,
even from his mother's womb.

<sup>16</sup> And he will turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God, <sup>17</sup> and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Eli'jah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,
and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just,
to make ready for the Lord a people prepared."

<sup>18</sup> And Zechari'ah said to the angel, "How shall I know this?"<sup>13</sup> For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in years." <sup>19</sup> And the angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. <sup>20</sup> And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak<sup>14</sup> until the day that these things come to pass, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time." <sup>21</sup> And the people were waiting for Zechari'ah, and they wondered at his delay in the temple. <sup>22</sup> And when he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he made signs to them and remained dumb. <sup>23</sup> And when his time of service was ended, he went to his home.

<sup>26</sup> In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, <sup>27</sup> to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. <sup>28</sup> And he came to her and said, "Hail, O favoured one, the Lord is with you!"<sup>15</sup> <sup>29</sup> But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered in her mind what sort of greeting this might be. <sup>30</sup> And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favour with God. <sup>31</sup> And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus.

<sup>36</sup> And behold, your kinswoman Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. <sup>37</sup> For with God nothing will be impossible." <sup>38</sup> And Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

<sup>39</sup> In those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah, <sup>40</sup> and she entered the house of Zechari'ah and greeted Elizabeth. <sup>41</sup> And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit <sup>42</sup> and she exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!"<sup>16</sup> <sup>43</sup> And why is this granted me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? <sup>44</sup> For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy. <sup>45</sup> And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfilment<sup>17</sup> of what was spoken to her from the Lord." <sup>46</sup> And Mary said,

"My soul magnifies the Lord,

<sup>47</sup> and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, <sup>48</sup> for he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden.
For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed;

And all these things were talked about through all the hill country of Judea; <sup>66</sup> and all who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child be?" 2:1 In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. <sup>2</sup> This was the first enrolment, when Quirin'i-us was governor of Syria. <sup>3</sup> And all went to be enrolled, each to his own city. <sup>4</sup> And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, <sup>5</sup> to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. <sup>6</sup> And while they were there, the time came for her to be delivered. <sup>7</sup> And she gave birth to her first-born son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

<sup>8</sup> And in that region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. <sup>9</sup> And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. <sup>10</sup> And the angel said to them, "Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; <sup>11</sup> for to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord. <sup>12</sup> And this will be a sign for you: you will find a babe wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." <sup>13</sup> And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying,

<sup>15</sup> When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." <sup>16</sup> And they went with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the

<sup>21</sup> And at the end of eight days, when he was circumcised, he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

<sup>22</sup> And when the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord <sup>23</sup> (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male that opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord") <sup>24</sup> and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons." <sup>25</sup> Now there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. <sup>26</sup> And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. <sup>27</sup> And inspired by the Spirit he came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the law, <sup>28</sup> he took him up in his arms and blessed God and said,

<sup>32</sup> a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to thy people Israel."

<sup>33</sup> And his father and his mother marvelled at what was said about him; <sup>34</sup> and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother,

<sup>36</sup> And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phan'u-el, of the tribe of Asher; she was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years from her virginity, <sup>37</sup> and as a widow till she was eighty-four. She did not depart from the temple, worshipping with fasting and prayer night and day. <sup>38</sup> And coming up at that very hour she gave thanks to God, and spoke of him to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup> And when they had performed everything according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. <sup>40</sup> And the child grew<sup>23</sup> and became strong, filled with wisdom<sup>24</sup>; and the favour of God was upon him.

<sup>41</sup> Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the Passover. <sup>42</sup> And when he was twelve years old, they went up according to custom; <sup>43</sup> and when the feast was ended, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know it, <sup>44</sup> but supposing him to be in the company they went a day's journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances; <sup>45</sup> and when they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking him. <sup>46</sup> After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions; <sup>47</sup> and all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. <sup>48</sup> And when they saw him they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us so? Behold, your father and I have been looking for you anxiously." <sup>49</sup> And he said to them, "How is it that you sought me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" <sup>50</sup> And they did not understand the saying which he spoke to them. <sup>51</sup> And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. <sup>52</sup> And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature, and in favour with God and man.

of Annas and Ca'iaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechari'ah in the wilderness<sup>26</sup>; <sup>3</sup> and he went into all the region about the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>4</sup> As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.
<sup>5</sup> Every valley shall be filled,
and every mountain and hill shall be brought low,
and the crooked shall be made straight,
and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

<sup>7</sup> He said therefore to the multitudes that came out to be baptised by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup> Bear fruits that befit repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. <sup>9</sup> Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire<sup>27</sup>."

<sup>10</sup> And the multitudes asked him, "What then shall we do?" <sup>11</sup> And he answered them, "He who has two coats, let him share with him who has none; and he who has food, let him do likewise." <sup>12</sup> Tax collectors also came to be baptised, and said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?" <sup>13</sup> And he said to them, "Collect no more than is appointed you." <sup>14</sup> Soldiers also asked him, "And we, what shall we do?" And he said to them, "Rob no one by violence or by false accusation, and be content with your wages."

<sup>15</sup> As the people were in expectation, and all men questioned in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he were the Christ, <sup>16</sup> John answered them all, "I baptise you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire<sup>28</sup>. <sup>17</sup> His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor, and to gather the wheat into his granary, but the chaff<sup>29</sup> he will burn with unquenchable fire<sup>30</sup>."

<sup>21</sup> Now when all the people were baptised, and when Jesus also had been baptised and was praying, the heaven was opened, <sup>22</sup> and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form, as a dove, and a voice came from heaven, "Thou art my beloved Son; with thee I am well pleased."

<sup>23</sup> Jesus, when he began his ministry, was about thirty years of age, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, <sup>24</sup> the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jan'na-i, the son of Joseph, <sup>25</sup> the son of Mattathi'as, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Nag'ga-i, <sup>26</sup> the son of Ma'ath, the son of Mattathi'as, the son of Sem'e-in, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, <sup>27</sup> the son of Jo-an'an, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerub'babel, the son of She-al'ti-el, the son of Neri, <sup>28</sup> the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elma'dam, the son of Er, <sup>29</sup> the son of Joshua, the son of Elie'zer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, <sup>30</sup> the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eli'akim, <sup>31</sup> the son of Me'le-a, the son of Menna, the son of Mat'tatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David, <sup>32</sup> the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Bo'az, the son of Sala, the son of Nahshon, <sup>33</sup> the son of Ammin'adab, the son of Admin, the son of Arni, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, <sup>34</sup> the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, <sup>35</sup> the son of Serug, the son of Re'u, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of

4: And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit<sup>32</sup>, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit <sup>2</sup> for forty days in the wilderness, tempted by the devil. And he ate nothing in those days; and when they were ended, he was hungry<sup>33</sup>. <sup>3</sup> The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." <sup>4</sup> And Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone.'" <sup>5</sup> And the devil took him up, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time, <sup>6</sup> and said to him, "To you I will give all this authority and their glory; for it has been delivered to me, and I give it to whom I will. <sup>7</sup> If you, then, will worship me, it shall all be yours." <sup>8</sup> And Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only<sup>34</sup> shall you serve.'"

<sup>9</sup> And he took him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here; <sup>10</sup> for it is written, 'He will give his angels charge of you, to guard you,'

'On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.'"

<sup>12</sup> And Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.'"<sup>35</sup> <sup>13</sup> And when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from him until an opportune time.

<sup>14</sup> And Jesus returned in the power<sup>36</sup> of the Spirit into Galilee, and a report concerning him went out through all the surrounding country. <sup>15</sup> And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

<sup>16</sup> And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up; and he went to the synagogue, as his custom was, on the sabbath day. And he stood up to read; <sup>17</sup> and there was given to him the book of the prophet Isaiah. He opened the book and found the place where it was written,

<sup>18</sup> <sup>37</sup> "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, <sup>19</sup> to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

<sup>20</sup> And he closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. <sup>21</sup> And he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." <sup>22</sup> And all spoke well of him, and wondered<sup>38</sup> at the gracious words<sup>39</sup> which proceeded out of his mouth; and they said, "Is not this Joseph's son?" <sup>23</sup> And he said to them, "Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, 'Physician, heal yourself; what we have heard you did at Caper'na-um, do here also in your own country.'" <sup>24</sup> And he said, "Truly, I say to you, no prophet is acceptable in his own country"<sup>40</sup>. <sup>25</sup> But in truth, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Eli'jah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine over all the land; <sup>26</sup> and Eli'jah was sent to none of them but only to Zar'ephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. <sup>27</sup> And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Eli'sha; and none of them was cleansed, but only Na'aman the Syrian." <sup>28</sup> When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with wrath<sup>41</sup>. <sup>29</sup> And they rose up and put him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw him down headlong. <sup>30</sup> But passing through the midst of them he went away.

<sup>31</sup> And he went down to Caper'na-um, a city of Galilee. And he was teaching them on the sabbath; <sup>32</sup> and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority<sup>42</sup>.

<sup>33</sup> And in the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice, <sup>34</sup> "Ah! What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." <sup>35</sup> But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm. <sup>36</sup> And they were all amazed and said to one another, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out." <sup>37</sup> And reports of him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

<sup>38</sup> And he arose and left the synagogue, and entered Simon's house. Now Simon's mother-in-law was ill with a high fever, and they besought him for her. <sup>39</sup> And he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her; and immediately she rose and served them.

<sup>40</sup> Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them.

<sup>41</sup> And demons also came out of many, crying, "You are the Son of God!" But he rebuked them, and would not allow them to speak<sup>43</sup>, because they knew that he was the Christ.

<sup>42</sup> And when it was day he departed and went into a lonely place. And the people sought him and came to him, and would have kept him from leaving them; <sup>43</sup> but he said to them, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; for I was sent for this purpose." <sup>44</sup> And he was preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

5:<sup>1</sup> While the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennes'aret. <sup>2</sup> And he saw two boats by the lake; but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup> Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. <sup>4</sup> And when he had ceased speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." <sup>5</sup> And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets." <sup>6</sup> And when they had done this, they enclosed a great shoal of fish; and as their nets were breaking, <sup>7</sup> they beckoned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup> But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord."<sup>44</sup> <sup>9</sup> For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the catch of fish which they had taken; <sup>10</sup> and so also were James and John, sons of Zeb'edee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; henceforth you will be catching men." <sup>11</sup> And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.

<sup>12</sup> While he was in one of the cities, there came a man full of leprosy; and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and besought him, "Lord, if you will, you can make me clean." <sup>13</sup> And he stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I will; be clean." And immediately the leprosy left him. <sup>14</sup> And he charged him to tell no one; but "go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, for a proof to the people." <sup>15</sup> But so much the more the report went abroad concerning him; and great multitudes gathered to hear and to be healed of their infirmities. <sup>16</sup> But he withdrew to the wilderness and prayed.

<sup>17</sup> On one of those days, as he was teaching, there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was with him to heal. <sup>18</sup> And behold, men were bringing on a bed a man who was paralysed, and they sought to bring him in and lay him before Jesus; <sup>19</sup> but finding no way to bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the midst before Jesus. <sup>20</sup> And when he saw their faith he said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." <sup>21</sup> And the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, saying, "Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God only?"<sup>22</sup> When Jesus perceived their questionings, he answered them, "Why do you question in your hearts?<sup>23</sup> Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'?"<sup>24</sup> But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins"-- he said to the man who was paralysed--" I say to you, rise, take up your bed and go home."<sup>25</sup> And immediately he rose before them, and took up that on which he lay, and went home, glorifying God.<sup>26</sup> And amazement seized them all, and they glorified God and were filled with awe, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

<sup>27</sup> After this he went out, and saw a tax collector, named Levi, sitting at the tax office; and he said to him, "Follow me."<sup>28</sup> And he left everything, and rose and followed him.

<sup>29</sup> And Levi made him a great feast in his house; and there was a large company of tax collectors and others sitting at table with them.<sup>30</sup> And the Pharisees and their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"<sup>31</sup> And Jesus answered them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick;<sup>32</sup> I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

<sup>33</sup> And they said to him, "The disciples of John fast often and offer prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink."<sup>34</sup> And Jesus said to them, "Can you make wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them?<sup>35</sup> The days will come, when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days."<sup>36</sup> He told them a parable also: "No one tears a piece from a new garment and puts it upon an old garment; if he does, he will tear the new, and the piece from the new will not match the old.<sup>37</sup> And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; if he does, the new wine will burst the skins and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed.<sup>38</sup> But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins.<sup>39</sup> And no one after drinking old wine desires new; for he says, 'The old is good.'"

6:1 On a sabbath, while he was going through the grainfields, his disciples plucked and ate some heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands.<sup>2</sup> But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful to do on the sabbath?"<sup>3</sup> And Jesus answered, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him:<sup>4</sup> how he entered the house of God, and took and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and also gave it to those with him?"<sup>5</sup> And he said to them, "The Son of man is lord of the sabbath."

<sup>6</sup> On another sabbath, when he entered the synagogue and taught, a man was there whose right hand was withered.<sup>7</sup> And the scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the sabbath, so that they might find an accusation against him.<sup>8</sup> But he knew their thoughts, and he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come and stand here." And he rose and stood there.<sup>9</sup> And Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful on the sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it?"<sup>10</sup> And he looked around on them all, and said to him, "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored.<sup>11</sup> But they were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> In these days he went out to the mountain to pray; and all night he continued in prayer to God.<sup>13</sup> And when it was day, he called his disciples, and chose from them twelve, whom he named apostles;<sup>14</sup> Simon, whom he named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew,<sup>15</sup> and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot,<sup>16</sup> and Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

<sup>17</sup> And he came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases;<sup>18</sup> and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured.<sup>19</sup> And all the crowd sought to touch him, for power came forth from him and healed them all.

<sup>20</sup> And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said:

"Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

<sup>21</sup> "Blessed are you that hunger now, for you shall be satisfied.

"Blessed are you that weep now, for you shall laugh.

<sup>22</sup> "Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you and revile you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of man!<sup>23</sup> Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets.

<sup>24</sup> "But woe to you that are rich, for you have received your consolation.

<sup>25</sup> "Woe to you that are full now, for you shall hunger.

"Woe to you that laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup> "Woe to you, when all men speak well of you, for so their fathers did to the false prophets<sup>45</sup>.

<sup>27</sup> "But I say to you that hear, Love your enemies<sup>46</sup>, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup> bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. <sup>29</sup> To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from him who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. <sup>30</sup> Give to every one who begs from you; and of him who takes away your goods do not ask them again. <sup>31</sup> And as you wish that men would do to you, do so to them.

<sup>32</sup> "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup> And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. <sup>34</sup> And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. <sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, and do good<sup>47</sup>, and lend, expecting nothing in return<sup>48</sup>; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for he is kind to ungrateful and evil men.<sup>49</sup> <sup>36</sup> Be merciful<sup>50</sup>, even as your Father is merciful.

<sup>37</sup> "Judge not<sup>51</sup>, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; <sup>38</sup> give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For the measure you give<sup>52</sup> will be the measure you get back<sup>53</sup>."

<sup>39</sup> He also told them a parable: "Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? <sup>40</sup> A disciple is not above his teacher, but every one when he is fully taught will be like his teacher. <sup>41</sup> Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's<sup>54</sup> eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? <sup>42</sup> Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye.

7:1 After he had ended all his sayings in the hearing of the people he entered Caper'na-um. <sup>2</sup> Now a centurion had a slave who was dear to him, who was sick and at the point of death. <sup>3</sup> When he heard of Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and heal his slave. <sup>4</sup> And when they came to Jesus, they besought him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy to have you do this for him, <sup>5</sup> for he loves our nation, and he built us our synagogue." <sup>6</sup> And Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; <sup>7</sup> therefore I did not presume to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed. <sup>8</sup> For I am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me: and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my slave, 'Do

<sup>11</sup> Soon afterward he went to a city called Na'in, and his disciples and a great crowd went with him. <sup>12</sup> As he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. <sup>13</sup> And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." <sup>14</sup> And he came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." <sup>15</sup> And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. <sup>16</sup> Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited his people!" <sup>17</sup> And this report concerning him spread through the whole of Judea and all the surrounding country.

<sup>18</sup> The disciples of John told him of all these things. <sup>19</sup> And John, calling to him two of his disciples, sent them to the Lord, saying, "Are you he who is to come, or shall we look for another?" <sup>20</sup> And when the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you he who is to come, or shall we look for another?'" <sup>21</sup> In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits, and on many that were blind he bestowed sight. <sup>22</sup> And he answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have good news preached to them. <sup>23</sup> And blessed is he who takes no offence at me."

<sup>24</sup> When the messengers of John had gone, he began to speak to the crowds concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to behold? A reed shaken by the wind? <sup>25</sup> What then did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously apparelled and live in luxury are in kings' courts. <sup>26</sup> What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

<sup>27</sup> This is he of whom it is written,
`Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
who shall prepare thy way before thee.'

<sup>28</sup> I tell you, among those born of women none is greater than John<sup>55</sup>; yet he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he." <sup>29</sup> (When they heard this all the people and the tax collectors justified God, having been baptised with the baptism of John; <sup>30</sup> but the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God for themselves, not having been baptised by him.)

<sup>31</sup> "To what then shall I compare the men of this generation, and what are they like? <sup>32</sup> They are like children sitting in the market place and calling to one another,

`We piped to you, and you did not dance;
we wailed, and you did not weep.'

<sup>33</sup> For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine; and you say, 'He has a demon.' <sup>34</sup> The Son of man has come eating and drinking; and you say, 'Behold, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' <sup>35</sup> Yet wisdom is justified by all her children."

<sup>36</sup> One of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house, and took his place at table. <sup>37</sup> And behold, a woman of the city, who was a sinner, when she learned that he was at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of ointment, <sup>38</sup> and standing behind him at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. <sup>39</sup> Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, for she is a sinner." <sup>40</sup> And Jesus answering said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he answered, "What is it, Teacher?" <sup>41</sup> "A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup> When they could not pay, he forgave them both. Now which of them will love him more?" <sup>43</sup> Simon answered, "The one, I suppose, to whom he forgave more." And he said to him, "You have judged rightly." <sup>44</sup> Then turning toward the woman he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house, you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup> You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not ceased to kiss my feet. <sup>46</sup> You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.

<sup>47</sup> Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much; but he who is forgiven little, loves little." <sup>48</sup> And he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." <sup>49</sup> Then those who were at table with him began to say among themselves, "Who is this, who even forgives sins?" <sup>50</sup> And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

8:1 Soon afterward he went on through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with him, <sup>2</sup> and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Mag'dalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, <sup>3</sup> and Joan'na, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who provided<sup>56</sup> for them out of their means.

<sup>4</sup> And when a great crowd came together and people from town after town came to him, he said in a parable: <sup>5</sup> "A sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell along the path, and was trodden under foot, and the birds of the air devoured it. <sup>6</sup> And some fell on the rock; and as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. <sup>7</sup> And some fell among thorns; and the thorns grew with it and choked it. <sup>8</sup> And some fell into good soil and grew, and yielded a hundredfold." As he said this, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>9</sup> And when his disciples asked him what this parable meant, <sup>10</sup> he said, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God; but for others they are in parables, so that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. <sup>11</sup> Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. <sup>12</sup> The ones along the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, that they may not believe and be saved. <sup>13</sup> And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy; but these have no root, they believe for a while and in time of temptation fall away. <sup>14</sup> And as for what fell among the thorns, they are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. <sup>15</sup> And as for that in the good<sup>A57</sup> soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast<sup>58</sup> in an honest<sup>A</sup> and good heart, and bring forth fruit with patience.

<sup>16</sup> "No one after lighting a lamp covers it with a vessel, or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a stand, that those who enter may see the light. <sup>17</sup> For nothing is hid that shall not be made manifest, nor anything secret that shall not be known and come to light. <sup>18</sup> Take heed then how you hear; for to him who has will more be given, and from him who has not, even what he thinks that he has will be taken away."

<sup>19</sup> Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him for the crowd. <sup>20</sup> And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you." <sup>21</sup> But he said to them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."

<sup>22</sup> One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake." So they set out, <sup>23</sup> and as they sailed he fell asleep. And a storm of wind came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in danger. <sup>24</sup> And they went and woke him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And he awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; and they ceased, and there was a calm. <sup>25</sup> He said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they were afraid, and they marvelled, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even wind and water, and they obey him?"

<sup>26</sup> Then they arrived at the country of the Ger'asenes, which is opposite Galilee. <sup>27</sup> And as he stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons; for a long time he had worn no clothes, and he lived not in a house but among the tombs. <sup>28</sup> When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beseech you, do not torment me." <sup>29</sup> For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him; he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters, but he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the desert.) <sup>30</sup> Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. <sup>31</sup> And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss. <sup>32</sup> Now a large herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside; and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them leave. <sup>33</sup> Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.

<sup>34</sup> When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. <sup>35</sup> Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. <sup>36</sup> And those who had seen it told them how he who had been possessed with demons was healed. <sup>37</sup> Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Ger'asenes asked him to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear; so he got into the boat and returned. <sup>38</sup> The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but he sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup> "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him.

<sup>40</sup> Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. <sup>41</sup> And there came a man named Ja'irus, who was a ruler of the synagogue; and falling at Jesus' feet he besought him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup> for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying.

As he went, the people pressed round him. <sup>43</sup> And a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years and could not be healed by any one, <sup>44</sup> came up behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; and immediately her flow of blood ceased. <sup>45</sup> And Jesus said, "Who was it that touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the multitudes surround you and press upon you!" <sup>46</sup> But Jesus said, "Some one touched me; for I perceive that power has gone forth from me." <sup>47</sup> And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. <sup>48</sup> And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace."

<sup>49</sup> While he was still speaking, a man from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more." <sup>50</sup> But Jesus on hearing this answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she shall be well." <sup>51</sup> And when he came to the house, he permitted no one to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father and mother of the child. <sup>52</sup> And all were weeping and bewailing her; but he said, "Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping." <sup>53</sup> And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. <sup>54</sup> But taking her by the hand he called, saying, "Child, arise." <sup>55</sup> And her spirit returned, and she got up at once; and he directed that something should be given her to eat. <sup>56</sup> And her parents were amazed; but he charged them to tell no one what had happened.

<sup>7</sup> Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead, <sup>8</sup> by some that Eli'jah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen. <sup>9</sup> Herod said, "John I beheaded; but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he sought to see him.

<sup>10</sup> On their return the apostles told him what they had done. And he took them and withdrew apart to a city called Beth-sa'ida. <sup>11</sup> When the crowds learned it, they followed him; and he welcomed them and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and cured those who had need of healing. <sup>12</sup> Now the day began to wear away; and the twelve came and said to him, "Send the crowd away, to go into the villages and country round about, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a lonely place." <sup>13</sup> But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish-- unless we are to go and buy food for all these people." <sup>14</sup> For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in companies, about fifty each." <sup>15</sup> And they did so, and made them all sit down. <sup>16</sup> And taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. <sup>17</sup> And all ate and were satisfied. And they took up what was left over, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

<sup>18</sup> Now it happened that as he was praying alone the disciples were with him; and he asked them, "Who do the people say that I am?" <sup>19</sup> And they answered, "John the Baptist; but others say, Eli'jah; and others, that one of the old prophets has risen." <sup>20</sup> And he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" And Peter answered, "The Christ of God." <sup>21</sup> But he charged and commanded them to tell this to no one, <sup>22</sup> saying, "The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised."

<sup>23</sup> And he said to all, "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. <sup>24</sup> For whoever would save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it. <sup>25</sup> For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself? <sup>26</sup> For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup> But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God."

<sup>28</sup> Now about eight days after these sayings he took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup> And as he was praying, the appearance of his countenance was altered, and his raiment became dazzling white. <sup>30</sup> And behold, two men talked with him, Moses and Eli'jah, <sup>31</sup> who appeared in glory and spoke of his departure, which he was to accomplish at Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup> Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, and when they wakened they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. <sup>33</sup> And as the men were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is well that we are here; let us make three booths, one for you and one for Moses and one for Eli'jah"-- not knowing what he said. <sup>34</sup> As he said this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. <sup>35</sup> And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" <sup>36</sup> And when the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silence and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen.

<sup>37</sup> On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. <sup>38</sup> And behold, a man from the crowd cried, "Teacher, I beg you to look upon my son, for he is my only child; <sup>39</sup> and behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out; it convulses him till he foams, and shatters him, and will hardly leave him. <sup>40</sup> And I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." <sup>41</sup> Jesus answered, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long am I to be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." <sup>42</sup> While he was coming, the demon tore him and convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup> And all were astonished at the majesty of God.

But while they were all marvelling at everything he did, he said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup> "Let these words sink into your ears; for the Son of man is to be delivered into the hands of men." <sup>45</sup> But they did not understand this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

<sup>49</sup> John answered, "Master, we saw a man casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he does not follow with us." <sup>50</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Do not forbid him; for he that is not against you is for you."

<sup>51</sup> When the days drew near for him to be received up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. <sup>52</sup> And he sent messengers ahead of him, who went and entered a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him; <sup>53</sup> but the people would not receive him<sup>60</sup>, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup> And when his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to bid fire come down from heaven and consume them?" <sup>55</sup> But he turned and rebuked them.<sup>61</sup> <sup>56</sup> And they went on to another village.

<sup>57</sup> As they were going along the road, a man said to him, "I will follow<sup>62</sup> you wherever you go." <sup>58</sup> And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the

<sup>21</sup> In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank thee, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to babes<sup>78</sup>; yea, Father, for such was thy gracious will. <sup>22</sup> All things have been delivered to me by my Father; and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and any one to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

<sup>5</sup> And he said to them, "Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves; <sup>6</sup> for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him'; <sup>7</sup> and he will answer from within, 'Do not bother me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything'? <sup>8</sup> I tell you, though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity<sup>101</sup> he will rise and give him whatever he needs. <sup>9</sup> And I tell you, Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup> For every one who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. <sup>11</sup> What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; <sup>12</sup> or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?<sup>102</sup> <sup>13</sup> If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

<sup>14</sup> Now he was casting out a demon that was dumb; when the demon had gone out, the dumb man spoke, and the people marvelled. <sup>15</sup> But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Be-el'zebul, the prince of demons"; <sup>16</sup> while others, to test him, sought from him a sign from heaven. <sup>17</sup> But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and a divided household falls. <sup>18</sup> And if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Be-el'zebul. <sup>19</sup> And if I cast out demons by Be-el'zebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. <sup>20</sup> But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. <sup>21</sup> When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace; <sup>22</sup> but when one stronger than he assails him and overcomes him, he takes away his armour in which he trusted, and divides his spoil. <sup>23</sup> He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.

<sup>24</sup> "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he passes through waterless places seeking rest; and finding none he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.'<sup>25</sup> And when he comes he finds it swept and put in order. <sup>26</sup> Then he goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first."

<sup>27</sup> As he said this, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts that you sucked!" <sup>28</sup> But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

<sup>29</sup> When the crowds were increasing, he began to say, "This generation is an evil generation; it seeks a sign, but no sign shall be given to it except the sign of Jonah. <sup>30</sup> For as Jonah<sup>103</sup> became a sign to the men of Nin'evah, so will the Son of man be to this generation. <sup>31</sup> The queen of the South will arise at the judgement with the men of this generation and condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here. <sup>32</sup> The men of Nin'evah will arise at the judgement with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.

<sup>37</sup> While he was speaking, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him; so he went in and sat at table. <sup>38</sup> The Pharisee was astonished to see that he did not first wash before dinner. <sup>39</sup> And the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of extortion and wickedness. <sup>40</sup> You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also? <sup>41</sup> But give for alms those things which are within; and behold, everything is clean for you.

<sup>43</sup> Woe to you Pharisees! for you love the best seat in the synagogues and salutations in the market places. <sup>44</sup> Woe to you! for you are like graves which are not seen, and men walk over them without knowing it."

<sup>46</sup> And he said, "Woe to you lawyers also! for you load men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. <sup>47</sup> Woe to you! for you build the tombs of the prophets whom your fathers killed. <sup>48</sup> So you are witnesses and consent to the deeds of your fathers; for they killed them, and you build their tombs. <sup>49</sup> Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,' <sup>50</sup> that the blood of all the prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation, <sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it shall be required of this generation. <sup>52</sup> Woe to you lawyers! for you have taken away the key of knowledge; you did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering."

<sup>4</sup> "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. <sup>5</sup> But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has power to cast into hell; yes, I tell you, fear him! <sup>6</sup> Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. <sup>7</sup> Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows.

<sup>8</sup> "And I tell you, every one who acknowledges me before men, the Son of man also will acknowledge before the angels of God; <sup>9</sup> but he who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. <sup>10</sup> And every one who speaks a word against the Son of man will be forgiven; but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>11</sup> And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious how or what you are to answer or what you are to say; <sup>12</sup> for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

Attitudes to Possessions in the Kingdom of God

<sup>13</sup> One of the multitude said to him, "Teacher, bid my brother divide the inheritance with me." <sup>14</sup> But he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or divider over you?"<sup>107</sup> <sup>15</sup> And he said to them, "Take heed, and beware of all covetousness; for a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions"<sup>108</sup>. <sup>16</sup> And he told them a parable, saying, "The land of a rich man brought forth plentifully; <sup>17</sup> and he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?' <sup>18</sup> And he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns, and build larger ones; and there I will store all my grain and my goods. <sup>19</sup> And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.' <sup>20</sup> But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you; and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' <sup>21</sup> So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

<sup>22</sup> And he said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you shall eat, nor about your body, what you shall put on. <sup>23</sup> For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. <sup>24</sup> Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! <sup>25</sup> And which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his span of life? <sup>26</sup> If then you are not able to do as small a thing as that, why are you anxious about the rest? <sup>27</sup> Consider the lilies, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. <sup>28</sup> But if God so clothes the grass which is alive in the field today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O men of little faith! <sup>29</sup> And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, nor be of anxious mind. <sup>30</sup> For all the nations of the world seek these things; and your Father knows that you need them. <sup>31</sup> Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things shall be yours as well. <sup>32</sup> "Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give<sup>109</sup> you the kingdom. <sup>33</sup> Sell your possessions<sup>110</sup>, and give alms<sup>111</sup>; provide yourselves<sup>112</sup> with purses that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief<sup>113</sup> approaches and no moth destroys. <sup>34</sup> For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also<sup>114</sup>.

<sup>41</sup> Peter said, "Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for all?"<sup>115</sup> <sup>42</sup> And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the proper time? <sup>43</sup> Blessed is that servant whom his master when he comes will find so doing. <sup>44</sup> Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. <sup>45</sup> But if that servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed in coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, <sup>46</sup> the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will punish him, and put him with the unfaithful. <sup>47</sup> And that servant who knew his master's will, but did not make ready or act according to his will, shall receive a severe beating. <sup>48</sup> But he who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, shall receive a light beating. Every one to whom much is given, of him will much be required; and of him to whom men commit much they will demand the more.

<sup>49</sup> "I came to cast fire upon the earth; and would that it were already kindled! <sup>50</sup> I have a baptism to be baptised with; and how I am constrained until it is accomplished!<sup>51</sup> Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division<sup>116</sup>; <sup>52</sup> for henceforth in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three; <sup>53</sup> they will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against her mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

<sup>54</sup> He also said to the multitudes, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, 'A shower is coming'; and so it happens. <sup>55</sup> And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, 'There will be scorching heat'; and it happens<sup>117</sup>. <sup>56</sup> You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky; but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

<sup>57</sup> "And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? <sup>58</sup> As you go with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle<sup>118</sup> with him on the way, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer put you in prison. <sup>59</sup> I tell you, you will never get out till you have paid the very last copper."

13:<sup>1</sup> There were some present at that very time who told him of the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup> And he answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered thus?

<sup>6</sup> And he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. <sup>7</sup> And he said to the vinedresser, 'Lo, these three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down; why should it use up the ground?' <sup>8</sup> And he answered him, 'Let it alone, sir, this year also, till I dig about it and put on manure. <sup>9</sup> And if it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down."

<sup>10</sup> Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. <sup>11</sup> And there was a woman who had had a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years; she was bent over and could not fully straighten herself. <sup>12</sup> And when Jesus saw her, he called her and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." <sup>13</sup> And he laid his hands upon her, and immediately she was made straight, and she praised God<sup>120</sup>. <sup>14</sup> But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, said to the people, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be healed, and not on the sabbath day." <sup>15</sup> Then the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie<sup>A</sup> his ox or his ass from the manger, and lead it away to water it? <sup>16</sup> And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound<sup>A</sup> for eighteen years, be loosed<sup>A</sup> from this bond on the sabbath day?" <sup>17</sup> As he said this, all his adversaries were put to shame; and all the people rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by him.

<sup>18</sup> He said therefore, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it? <sup>19</sup> It is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his garden; and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches."

<sup>20</sup> And again he said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup> It is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened."

<sup>22</sup> He went on his way through towns and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup> And some one said to him, "Lord, will those who are saved be few?" And he said to them, <sup>24</sup> "Strive to enter by the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. <sup>25</sup> When once the householder has risen up and shut the door, you will begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us.' He will answer you, 'I do not know where you come from.' <sup>26</sup> Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' <sup>27</sup> But he will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you come from; depart from me, all you workers of iniquity!' <sup>28</sup> There you will weep and gnash your teeth, when you see<sup>121</sup> Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and you yourselves thrust out. <sup>29</sup> And men will come from east and west, and from north and south, and sit at table in the kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup> And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

<sup>31</sup> At that very hour some Pharisees came, and said to him, "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you." <sup>32</sup> And he said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I finish my course. <sup>33</sup> Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish away from Jerusalem.' <sup>34</sup> O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, killing the prophets and stoning those who are sent to you! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not! <sup>35</sup> Behold, your house is forsaken. And I tell you, you will not see me until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

<sup>7</sup> Now he told a parable to those who were invited, when he marked how they chose the places of honour, saying to them, <sup>8</sup> "When you are invited by any one to a marriage feast, do not sit down in a place of honour, lest a more eminent man than you be invited by him; <sup>9</sup> and he who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Give place to this man,' and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest place. <sup>10</sup> But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher'; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at table with you. <sup>11</sup> For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>12</sup> He said also to the man who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your kinsmen or rich neighbours, lest they also invite you in return, and you be repaid. <sup>13</sup> But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind, <sup>14</sup> and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

<sup>15</sup> When one of those who sat at table with him heard this, he said to him, "Blessed is he who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God!" <sup>16</sup> But he said to him, "A man once gave a great banquet, and invited many; <sup>17</sup> and at the time for the banquet he sent his servant to say to those who had been invited, 'Come; for all is now ready.' <sup>18</sup> But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it; I pray you, have me excused.' <sup>19</sup> And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to examine them; I pray you, have me excused.' <sup>20</sup> And another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' <sup>21</sup> So the servant came and reported this to his master. Then the householder in anger said to his servant, 'Go out quickly to the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor and maimed and blind and lame.' <sup>22</sup> And the servant said, 'Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.' <sup>23</sup> And the master said to the servant, 'Go out to the highways and hedges, and compel people to come in, that my house may be filled. <sup>24</sup> For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my banquet.'"

<sup>25</sup> Now great multitudes accompanied him; and he turned and said to them, <sup>26</sup> "If any one comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. <sup>27</sup> Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me, cannot be my disciple. <sup>28</sup> For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? <sup>29</sup> Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, <sup>30</sup> saying, 'This man began to build, and was not able to finish.' <sup>31</sup> Or what king, going to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup> And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an embassy and asks terms of peace. <sup>33</sup> So therefore, whoever of you does not renounce<sup>125</sup> all<sup>126</sup> that he has cannot be my disciple.

<sup>34</sup> "Salt is good; but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? <sup>35</sup> It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill; men throw it away. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

15:<sup>1</sup> Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear him. <sup>2</sup> And the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, "This man receives sinners and eats with them."

<sup>3</sup> So he told them this parable: <sup>4</sup> "What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost, until he finds it? <sup>5</sup> And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. <sup>6</sup> And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbours, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.' <sup>7</sup> Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

<sup>8</sup> "Or what woman, having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she finds it? <sup>9</sup> And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin which I had lost.' <sup>10</sup> Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

<sup>11</sup> And he said, "There was a man who had two sons; <sup>12</sup> and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that falls to me.' And he divided his living between them. <sup>13</sup> Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took his journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in loose living. <sup>14</sup> And when he had spent everything, a great famine arose in that country, and he began to be in want<sup>127</sup>. <sup>15</sup> So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed swine. <sup>16</sup> And he would gladly have fed on the pods that the swine ate; and no one gave him anything. <sup>17</sup> But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger! <sup>18</sup> I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; <sup>19</sup> I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants<sup>128</sup>.'" <sup>20</sup> And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. <sup>21</sup> And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'<sup>22</sup> But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; <sup>23</sup> and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; <sup>24</sup> for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.'<sup>129</sup> And they began to make merry.

<sup>25</sup> "Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup> And he called one of the servants and asked what this meant. <sup>27</sup> And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.'<sup>28</sup> But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, <sup>29</sup> but he answered his father, 'Lo, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command; yet you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends. <sup>30</sup> But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you killed for him the fatted calf!<sup>130</sup> <sup>31</sup> And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. <sup>32</sup> It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found."

16: He also said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a steward<sup>131</sup>, and charges were brought to him that this man was wasting his goods. <sup>2</sup> And he called him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Turn in the account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'<sup>3</sup> And the steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, since my master is taking the stewardship away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup> I have decided what to do, so that people may receive me into their houses when I am put out of the stewardship.'<sup>5</sup> So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' <sup>6</sup> He said, 'A hundred measures of oil.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.'<sup>132</sup> <sup>7</sup> Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred measures of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'<sup>8</sup> The master commended the dishonest steward for his shrewdness<sup>133</sup>; for the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with<sup>134</sup> their own generation than the sons of light<sup>135</sup>. <sup>9</sup> And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal habitations<sup>136</sup>.

<sup>20</sup> Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them, "The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed; <sup>21</sup> nor will they say, 'Lo, here it is!' or 'There!' for behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you."

<sup>22</sup> And he said to the disciples, "The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and you will not see it. <sup>23</sup> And they will say to you, 'Lo, there!' or 'Lo, here!' Do not go, do not follow them. <sup>24</sup> For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of man be in his day. <sup>25</sup> But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. <sup>26</sup> As it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of man. <sup>27</sup> They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. <sup>28</sup> Likewise as it was in the days of Lot-- they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built, <sup>29</sup> but on the day when Lot went out from Sodom fire and sulphur rained from heaven and destroyed them all-- <sup>30</sup> so will it be on the day when the Son of man is revealed. <sup>31</sup> On that day, let him who is on the housetop, with his goods in the house<sup>A</sup>, not come down to take them away; and likewise let him who is in the field not turn back. <sup>32</sup> Remember Lot's wife<sup>A155</sup>. <sup>33</sup> Whoever seeks to gain his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will preserve it. <sup>34</sup> I tell you, in that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken and the other left. <sup>35</sup> There will be two women grinding together; one will be taken and the other left." <sup>37</sup> And they said to him, "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

18: <sup>1</sup> And he told them a parable, to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. <sup>2</sup> He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor regarded man; <sup>3</sup> and there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, 'Vindicate me against my adversary.' <sup>4</sup> For a while he refused; but afterward he said to himself, 'Though I neither fear God nor regard man, <sup>5</sup> yet because this widow bothers me, I will vindicate her, or she will wear me out by her continual coming.'" <sup>6</sup> And the Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge says. <sup>7</sup> And will not God vindicate his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them? <sup>8</sup> I tell you, he will vindicate them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

<sup>9</sup> He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and despised others: <sup>10</sup> "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank thee that I am not like other men<sup>156</sup>, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I get.' <sup>13</sup> But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' <sup>14</sup> I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>15</sup> Now they were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them; and when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. <sup>16</sup> But Jesus called them to him, saying, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of God. <sup>17</sup>

<sup>18</sup> And a ruler asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" <sup>19</sup> And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. <sup>20</sup> You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour your father and mother.'" <sup>21</sup> And he said, "All these I have observed from my youth." <sup>22</sup> And when Jesus heard it, he said to him, "One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." <sup>23</sup> But when he heard this he became sad, for he was very rich. <sup>24</sup> Jesus looking at him said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup> For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." <sup>26</sup> Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?" <sup>27</sup> But he said, "What is impossible with men is possible with God." <sup>28</sup> And Peter said, "Lo, we have left our homes and followed you." <sup>29</sup> And he said to them, "Truly, I say to you, there is no man who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, <sup>30</sup> who will not receive manifold more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life."

<sup>31</sup> And taking the twelve, he said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written of the Son of man by the prophets will be accomplished. <sup>32</sup> For he will be delivered to the Gentiles, and will be mocked and shamefully treated and spit upon; <sup>33</sup> they will scourge him and kill him, and on the third day he will rise." <sup>34</sup> But they understood none of these things; this saying was hid from them, and they did not grasp what was said.

<sup>35</sup> As he drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging; <sup>36</sup> and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. <sup>37</sup> They told him, "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by." <sup>38</sup> And he cried, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>39</sup> And those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be silent; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>40</sup> And Jesus stopped, and commanded him to be brought to him; and when he came near, he asked him, <sup>41</sup> "What do you want me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, let me receive my sight." <sup>42</sup> And Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has made you well." <sup>43</sup> And immediately he received his sight and followed him, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

19: He entered Jericho and was passing through. <sup>2</sup> And there was a man named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector, and rich. <sup>3</sup> And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not, on account of the crowd, because he was small of stature. <sup>4</sup> So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way. <sup>5</sup> And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus"<sup>157</sup>, make haste and come down; for I must stay at your house today." <sup>6</sup> So he made haste and came down, and received him joyfully. <sup>7</sup> And when they saw it they all murmured, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner." <sup>8</sup> And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have defrauded any one of anything, I restore it fourfold." <sup>9</sup> And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For the Son of man came to seek and to save the lost."

<sup>11</sup> As they heard these things, he proceeded to tell a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was to appear immediately. <sup>12</sup> He said therefore, "A nobleman went into a far country to receive a kingdom and then return. <sup>13</sup> Calling ten of his servants, he gave them ten pounds, and said to them, 'Trade'<sup>158</sup> with these till I come.' <sup>14</sup> But his citizens hated him and sent an embassy after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to reign over us.' <sup>15</sup> When he returned, having received the kingdom, he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading. <sup>16</sup> The first came before him, saying, 'Lord, your pound has made ten pounds more.' <sup>17</sup> And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant! Because you have been faithful in a very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.'<sup>159</sup> <sup>18</sup> And the second came, saying, 'Lord, your pound has made five pounds.' <sup>19</sup> And he said to him, 'And you are to be over five cities.'<sup>20</sup> Then another came, saying, 'Lord, here is your pound, which I kept laid away in a napkin'<sup>160</sup>; <sup>21</sup> for I was afraid<sup>161</sup> of you, because you

You knew that I was a severe man, taking up what I did not lay down and reaping what I did not sow?'<sup>165</sup><sup>23</sup> Why then did you not put my money into the bank, and at my coming I should have collected it with interest?'<sup>24</sup> And he said to those who stood by, 'Take the pound from him<sup>166</sup>, and give it to him who has the ten pounds.'<sup>25</sup> (And they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten pounds!')<sup>26</sup> 'I tell you, that to every one who has will more be given; but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away<sup>167</sup>.<sup>27</sup> But as for these enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slay them before me."

<sup>28</sup> And when he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup> When he drew near to Beth'phage and Bethany, at the mount that is called Olivet, he sent two of the disciples, <sup>30</sup> saying, "Go into the village opposite, where on entering you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever yet sat; untie it and bring it here. <sup>31</sup> If any one asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' you shall say this, 'The Lord has need of it.'" <sup>32</sup> So those who were sent went away and found it as he had told them. <sup>33</sup> And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" <sup>34</sup> And they said, "The Lord has need of it." <sup>35</sup> And they brought it to Jesus, and throwing their garments on the colt they set Jesus upon it. <sup>36</sup> And as he rode along, they spread their garments on the road. <sup>37</sup> As he was now drawing near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen, <sup>38</sup> saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!" <sup>39</sup> And some of the Pharisees in the multitude said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples." <sup>40</sup> He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out."

<sup>41</sup> And when he drew near and saw the city he wept over it, <sup>42</sup> saying, "Would that even today you knew the things that make for peace! But now they are hid from your eyes. <sup>43</sup> For the days shall come upon you, when your enemies will cast up a bank about you and surround you, and hem you in on every side, <sup>44</sup> and dash you to the ground, you and your children within you, and they will not leave one stone upon another in you; because you did not know the time of your visitation."

<sup>45</sup> And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold, <sup>46</sup> saying to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be a house of prayer'; but you have made it a den of robbers."<sup>168</sup>

<sup>47</sup> And he was teaching daily in the temple. The chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people sought to destroy him; <sup>48</sup> but they did not find anything they could do, for all the people hung upon his words.

20:<sup>1</sup> One day, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes with the elders came up <sup>2</sup> and said to him, "Tell us by what authority you do these things, or who it is that gave you this authority." <sup>3</sup> He answered them, "I also will ask you a question; now tell me, <sup>4</sup> Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?" <sup>5</sup> And they discussed it with one another, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why did you not believe him?' <sup>6</sup> But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us; for they are convinced that John was a prophet." <sup>7</sup> So they answered that they did not know whence it was. <sup>8</sup> And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

<sup>9</sup> And he began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country for a long while. <sup>10</sup> When the time came, he sent a servant to the tenants, that they should give him some of the fruit of the vineyard; but the tenants beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>11</sup> And he sent another servant; him also they beat and treated shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>12</sup> And he sent yet a third; this one they wounded and cast out. <sup>13</sup> Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What

What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup> He will come and destroy those tenants, and give the vineyard to others." When they heard this, they said, "May it not be!"<sup>169</sup> <sup>17</sup> But he looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written:

'The very stone which the builders rejected
has become the head of the corner'?

<sup>18</sup> Every one who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but when it falls on any one it will crush him."

<sup>19</sup> The scribes and the chief priests tried to lay hands on him at that very hour, but they feared the people; for they perceived that he had told this parable against them. <sup>20</sup> So they watched him, and sent spies, who pretended to be sincere, that they might take hold of what he said, so as to deliver him up to the authority and jurisdiction of the governor. <sup>21</sup> They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and show no partiality, but truly teach the way of God. <sup>22</sup> Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?" <sup>23</sup> But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, <sup>24</sup> "Show me a coin. Whose likeness and inscription has it?" They said, "Caesar's." <sup>25</sup> He said to them, "Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."<sup>170</sup> <sup>26</sup> And they were not able in the presence of the people to catch him by what he said; but marvelling at his answer they were silent.

<sup>27</sup> There came to him some Sadducees, those who say that there is no resurrection, <sup>28</sup> and they asked him a question, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife but no children, the man must take the wife and raise up children for his brother. <sup>29</sup> Now there were seven brothers; the first took a wife, and died without children; <sup>30</sup> and the second <sup>31</sup> and the third took her, and likewise all seven left no children and died. <sup>32</sup> Afterward the woman also died. <sup>33</sup> In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife."

<sup>34</sup> And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage; <sup>35</sup> but those who are accounted worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, <sup>36</sup> for they cannot die any more<sup>171</sup>, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup> But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in the passage about the bush, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. <sup>38</sup> Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living; for all live to him." <sup>39</sup> And some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you have spoken well." <sup>40</sup> For they no longer dared to ask him any question.

<sup>41</sup> But he said to them, "How can they say that the Christ is David's son? <sup>42</sup> For David himself says in the Book of Psalms,

'The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand,

<sup>45</sup> And in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples, <sup>46</sup> "Beware of the scribes, who like to go about in long robes, and love salutations in the market places and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at feasts, <sup>47</sup> who devour widows' houses and for a pretence make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

21: <sup>1</sup> He looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury; <sup>2</sup> and he saw a poor widow put in two copper coins. <sup>3</sup> And he said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them; <sup>4</sup> for they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all the living that she had."

<sup>20</sup> "But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. <sup>21</sup> Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city depart, and let not those who are out in the country enter it; <sup>22</sup> for these are days of vengeance, to fulfil all that is written. <sup>23</sup> Alas for those who are with child and for those who give suck in those days! For great distress shall be upon the earth and wrath upon this people; <sup>24</sup> they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led captive among all nations; and Jerusalem will be trodden down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

<sup>29</sup> And he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree, and all the trees; <sup>30</sup> as soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near. <sup>31</sup> So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup> Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away till all has taken place. <sup>33</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

<sup>34</sup> "But take heed to yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares<sup>174</sup> of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a snare; <sup>35</sup> for it will come<sup>175</sup> upon all who dwell upon the face of the whole earth. <sup>36</sup> But watch at all times, praying that you may have strength<sup>176</sup> to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of man." <sup>37</sup> And every day he was teaching in the temple, but at night he went out and lodged on the mount called Olivet. <sup>38</sup> And early in the morning all the people came to him in the temple to hear him.

<sup>3</sup> Then Satan entered into Judas called Iscariot, who was of the number of the twelve; <sup>4</sup> he went away and conferred with the chief priests and officers how he might betray him to them. <sup>5</sup> And they were glad, and engaged to give him money. <sup>6</sup> So he agreed, and sought an opportunity to betray him to them in the absence of the multitude.

<sup>7</sup> Then came the day of Unleavened Bread, on which the passover lamb had to be sacrificed. <sup>8</sup> So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the passover for us, that we may eat it." <sup>9</sup> They said to him, "Where will you have us prepare it?" <sup>10</sup> He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him into the house which he enters, <sup>11</sup> and tell the householder, 'The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room, where I am to eat the passover with my disciples?' <sup>12</sup> And he will show you a large upper room furnished; there make ready." <sup>13</sup> And they went, and found it as he had told them; and they prepared the passover.

<sup>14</sup> And when the hour came, he sat at table, and the apostles with him. <sup>15</sup> And he said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer; <sup>16</sup> for I tell you I shall not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." <sup>17</sup> And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he said, "Take this, and divide it among yourselves; <sup>18</sup> for I tell you that from now on I shall not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes." <sup>19</sup> And he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." <sup>20</sup> And likewise the cup after supper, saying, "This cup which is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. <sup>21</sup> But behold the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. <sup>22</sup> For the Son of man goes as it has been determined; but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!" <sup>23</sup> And they began to question one another, which of them it was that would do this.

<sup>24</sup> A dispute also arose among them, which of them was to be regarded as the greatest. <sup>25</sup> And he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors. <sup>26</sup> But not so with you; rather let the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves. <sup>27</sup> For which is the greater, one who sits at table, or one who serves? Is it not the one who sits at table? But I am among you as one who serves.

<sup>28</sup> "You are those who have continued with me in my trials; <sup>29</sup> and I assign to you, as my Father assigned to me, a kingdom, <sup>30</sup> that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>31</sup> "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, <sup>32</sup> but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail; and when you have turned again, strengthen your brethren." <sup>33</sup> And he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death." <sup>34</sup> He said, "I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow this day, until you three times deny that you know me."

<sup>35</sup> And he said to them, "When I sent<sup>177</sup> you out with no purse or bag or sandals, did you lack anything?" They said, "Nothing."<sup>178</sup> <sup>36</sup> He said to them, "But now, let him who has a purse take it, and likewise a bag. And let him who has no sword<sup>179</sup> sell his mantle and buy one. <sup>37</sup> For I tell you that this scripture must be fulfilled in me, 'And he was reckoned with transgressors'; for what is written about me has its fulfilment."<sup>180</sup> <sup>38</sup> And they said, "Look, Lord, here are two swords." And he said to them, "It is enough."<sup>180n</sup>

<sup>39</sup> And he came out, and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him. <sup>40</sup> And when he came to the place he said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation." <sup>41</sup> And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, <sup>42</sup> "Father, if thou art willing, remove this cup<sup>181</sup> from me; nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done." <sup>43</sup> And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening<sup>182</sup> him. <sup>44</sup> And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down upon the ground.<sup>183</sup> <sup>45</sup> And when he rose from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping for sorrow, <sup>46</sup> and he said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."

<sup>47</sup> While he was still speaking, there came a crowd, and the man called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He drew near to Jesus to kiss him; <sup>48</sup> but Jesus said to him, "Judas, would you betray the Son of man with a kiss?" <sup>49</sup> And when those who were about him saw what would follow, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"<sup>184</sup> <sup>50</sup> And one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear. <sup>51</sup> But Jesus said, "No more of this!" And he touched his ear and healed him. <sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to the chief priests and officers of the temple and elders, who had come out against him, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? <sup>53</sup> When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

<sup>54</sup> Then they seized him and led him away, bringing him into the high priest's house. Peter followed at a distance; <sup>55</sup> and when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them. <sup>56</sup> Then a maid, seeing him as he sat in the light and gazing at him, said, "This man also was with him." <sup>57</sup> But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know him." <sup>58</sup> And a little later some one else saw him and said, "You also are one of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not." <sup>59</sup> And after an interval of about an hour still another insisted, saying, "Certainly this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean." <sup>60</sup> But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying." And immediately, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed. <sup>61</sup> And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times." <sup>62</sup> And he went out and wept bitterly.

<sup>63</sup> Now the men who were holding Jesus mocked him and beat him; <sup>64</sup> they also blindfolded him and asked him, "Prophesy! Who is it that struck you?" <sup>65</sup> And they spoke many other words against him, reviling him.

<sup>66</sup> When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people gathered together, both chief priests and scribes; and they led him away to their council, and they said, <sup>67</sup> "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe; <sup>68</sup> and if I ask you, you will not answer. <sup>69</sup> But from now on the Son of man shall be seated at the right hand of the power of God." <sup>70</sup> And they all said, "Are you the Son of God, then?" And he said to them, "You say that I am." <sup>71</sup> And they said, "What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips."

23: <sup>1</sup> Then the whole company of them arose, and brought him before Pilate. <sup>2</sup> And they began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting our nation, and forbidding us to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ a king." <sup>3</sup> And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him, "You have said so." <sup>4</sup> And Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, "I find no crime in this man." <sup>5</sup> But they were urgent, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee even to this place."

<sup>6</sup> When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. <sup>7</sup> And when he learned that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him over to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time. <sup>8</sup> When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had long desired to see him, because he had heard about him, and he was hoping to see some sign done by him. <sup>9</sup> So he questioned him at some length; but he made no answer. <sup>10</sup> The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him. <sup>11</sup> And Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him; then, arraying him in gorgeous apparel, he sent him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup> And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before this they had been at enmity with each other.

<sup>13</sup> Pilate then called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, <sup>14</sup> and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and after examining him before you, behold, I did not find this man guilty of any of your charges against him; <sup>15</sup> neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us. Behold, nothing deserving death has been done by him; <sup>16</sup> I will therefore chastise him and release him."

<sup>19</sup> a man who had been thrown into prison for an insurrection started in the city, and for murder. <sup>20</sup> Pilate addressed them once more, desiring to release Jesus; <sup>21</sup> but they shouted out, "Crucify, crucify him!" <sup>22</sup> A third time he said to them, "Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no crime deserving death; I will therefore chastise him and release him." <sup>23</sup> But they were urgent, demanding with loud cries that he should be crucified. And their voices prevailed. <sup>24</sup> So Pilate gave sentence that their demand should be granted. <sup>25</sup> He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, whom they asked for; but Jesus he delivered up to their will.

<sup>26</sup> And as they led him away, they seized one Simon of Cyre'ne, who was coming in from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it behind Jesus. <sup>27</sup> And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him. <sup>28</sup> But Jesus turning to them said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup> For behold, the days are coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never gave suck!' <sup>30</sup> Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us'; and to the hills, 'Cover us.' <sup>31</sup> For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

<sup>32</sup> Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. <sup>33</sup> And when they came to the place which is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on the right and one on the left. <sup>34</sup> And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." And they cast lots to divide his garments. <sup>35</sup> And the people stood by, watching; but the rulers scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his Chosen One!" <sup>36</sup> The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him vinegar, <sup>37</sup> and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" <sup>38</sup> There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

<sup>44</sup> It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, <sup>45</sup> while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. <sup>46</sup> Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this he breathed his last. <sup>47</sup> Now when the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God, and said, "Certainly this man was innocent!" <sup>48</sup> And all the multitudes who assembled to see the sight, when they saw what had taken place, returned home beating their breasts. <sup>49</sup> And all his acquaintances and the women who had followed him from Galilee stood at a distance and saw these things.

<sup>50</sup> Now there was a man named Joseph from the Jewish town of Arimathe'a. He was a member of the council, a good and righteous man, <sup>51</sup> who had not consented to their purpose and deed, and he was looking for the kingdom of God. <sup>52</sup> This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>53</sup> Then he took it down and wrapped it in a linen shroud, and laid him in a rock-hewn tomb, where no one had ever yet been laid. <sup>54</sup> It was the day of Preparation, and the sabbath was beginning. <sup>55</sup> The women who had come with him from Galilee followed, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid; <sup>56</sup> then they returned, and prepared spices and ointments.

On the sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

24: <sup>1</sup> But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices which they had prepared. <sup>2</sup> And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, <sup>3</sup> but when they went in they did not find the body. <sup>4</sup> While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel; <sup>5</sup> and as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? <sup>6</sup> Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup> that the Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise." <sup>8</sup> And they remembered his words, <sup>9</sup> and returning from the tomb they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. <sup>10</sup> Now it was Mary Mag'dalene and Jo-an'na and Mary the mother of James and the other women with them who told this to the apostles; <sup>11</sup> but these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them<sup>185</sup>.

<sup>13</sup> That very day two of them were going to a village named Emma'us, about seven miles from Jerusalem, <sup>14</sup> and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. <sup>15</sup> While they were talking and discussing together, Jesus himself drew near and went with them. <sup>16</sup> But their eyes were kept from recognising him. <sup>17</sup> And he said to them, "What is this conversation which you are holding with each other as you walk?" And they stood still, looking sad. <sup>18</sup> Then one of them, named Cle'opas, answered him, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?" <sup>19</sup> And he said to them, "What things?" And they said to him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, <sup>20</sup> and how our chief priests and rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. <sup>21</sup> But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since this happened. <sup>22</sup> Moreover, some women of our company amazed us. They were at the tomb early in the morning <sup>23</sup> and did not find his body; and they came back saying that they had even seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. <sup>24</sup> Some of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it just as the women had said; but him they did not see." <sup>25</sup> And he said to them, "O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup> Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" <sup>27</sup> And beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

<sup>28</sup> So they drew near to the village to which they were going. He appeared to be going further, <sup>29</sup> but they constrained him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent." So he went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup> When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them. <sup>31</sup> And their eyes were opened and they recognised him; and he vanished out of their sight. <sup>32</sup> They said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the scriptures?" <sup>33</sup> And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven gathered together and those who were with them, <sup>34</sup> who said, "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" <sup>35</sup> Then they told what had happened on the road<sup>186</sup>, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread<sup>187</sup>.

<sup>36</sup> As they were saying this, Jesus himself stood among them. <sup>37</sup> But they were startled and frightened, and supposed that they saw a spirit. <sup>38</sup> And he said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do questionings rise in your hearts? <sup>39</sup> See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself; handle me, and see; for a spirit has not flesh and bones as you see that I have." <sup>41</sup> And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" <sup>42</sup> They gave him a piece of broiled fish, <sup>43</sup> and he took it and ate before them.

<sup>44</sup> Then he said to them, "These are my words which I spoke to you, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and the psalms must be fulfilled." <sup>45</sup> Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, <sup>46</sup> and said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, <sup>47</sup> and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> You are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup> And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city, until you are clothed<sup>188</sup> with power from on high."

<sup>50</sup> Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. <sup>51</sup> While he blessed them, he parted from them, and was carried up into heaven. <sup>52</sup> And they returned to Jerusalem with great joy, <sup>53</sup> and were continually in the temple blessing God.

The gospel according to John

1: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God; 3 all things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light.

9 The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not. 11 He came to his own home, and his own people received him not<sup>1</sup>. 12 But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave authority<sup>2</sup> to become children of God; 13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory<sup>3</sup>, glory as of the only Son from the Father. 15 (John bore witness to him, and cried, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, for he was before me.'") 16 And from his fullness have we all received, grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has made him known.

19 And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" 20 He confessed, he did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Christ." 21 And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" And he answered, "No." 22 They said to him then, "Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" 23 He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' as the prophet Isaiah said."

24 Now they had been sent from the Pharisees. 25 They asked him, "Then why are you baptising, if you are neither the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?" 26 John answered them, "I baptise with water; but among you stands one whom you do not know, 27 even he who comes after me, the thong of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie." 28 This took place in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptising.

29 The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! 30 This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks before me, for he was before me.' 31 I myself did not know him; but for this I came baptising with water, that he might be revealed to Israel." 32 And John bore witness, "I saw the Spirit descend as a dove<sup>4</sup> from heaven, and it remained on him. 33 I myself did not know him; but he who sent me to baptise with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptises with the Holy Spirit.' 34 And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God."

35 The next day again John was standing with two of his disciples; 36 and he looked at Jesus as he walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" 37 The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. 38 Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, "What do you seek?" And they said to him, "Rabbi" (which means Teacher), "where are you staying?" 39 He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying; and they stayed with him that day, for it was about the tenth hour. 40 One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He first found his brother Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which means Christ). 42 He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, "So you are Simon the son of John? You shall be called Cephas" (which means Peter).

43 The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. And he found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." 44 Now Philip was from Beth-sa'ida, the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip found Nathan'a-el, and said to him, "We have found him of whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." 46 Nathan'a-el said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?<sup>5</sup> Philip said to him, "Come and see."<sup>47</sup> Jesus saw Nathan'a-el coming to him, and said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!"<sup>6</sup> Nathan'a-el said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."<sup>49</sup> Nathan'a-el answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!"<sup>7</sup> Jesus answered him, "Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You shall see greater things than these."<sup>51</sup> And he said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man."<sup>8</sup>

2:<sup>1</sup> On the third day there was a marriage at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there;<sup>2</sup> Jesus also was invited to the marriage, with his disciples.<sup>3</sup> When the wine failed, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."<sup>4</sup> And Jesus said to her, "O woman, what have you to do with me? My hour has not yet come."<sup>5</sup> His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."<sup>6</sup> Now six stone jars were standing there, for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim.<sup>8</sup> He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the steward of the feast." So they took it.<sup>9</sup> When the steward of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward of the feast called the bridegroom<sup>10</sup> and said to him, "Every man serves the good wine first; and when men have drunk freely, then the poor wine; but you have kept the good wine until now."<sup>11</sup> This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

<sup>13</sup> The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.<sup>14</sup> In the temple he found those who were selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers at their business.<sup>15</sup> And making a whip of cords, he drove<sup>10</sup> them all, with the sheep and oxen, out of the temple; and he poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables.<sup>16</sup> And he told those who sold the pigeons, "Take these things away; you shall not make my Father's house a house of trade."<sup>17</sup> His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for thy house will consume me."<sup>18</sup> The Jews then said to him, "What sign have you to show us for doing this?"<sup>19</sup> Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."<sup>20</sup> The Jews then said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?"<sup>21</sup> But he spoke of the temple of his body.<sup>22</sup> When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word which Jesus had spoken.

3:<sup>1</sup> Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.<sup>2</sup> This man came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him."<sup>14</sup><sup>3</sup> Jesus answered<sup>15</sup> him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born anew<sup>16</sup>, he cannot see<sup>17</sup> the

<sup>8</sup>For this to happen we must have no guile (Jn 1:47). This is Jacob's ladder: Jacob (Gen 28:12) had no guile even though he was a schemer who needed refining. The Son of man is the Way (ladder)

Deductive logic is unstable and leads to a narrow legalism, and is not really consistent with man's nature kingdom of God." <sup>4</sup> Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?" <sup>5</sup> Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water<sup>A</sup> and the Spirit<sup>B18</sup>, he cannot enter<sup>19</sup> the kingdom of God. <sup>6</sup> That which is born of the flesh<sup>A</sup> is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit<sup>B</sup> is spirit. <sup>7</sup> Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born anew.' <sup>8</sup> The wind blows where it wills, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know whence it comes or whither it goes; so it is with every one who is born of the Spirit.<sup>20</sup> <sup>9</sup> Nicodemus said to him, "How can this be?" <sup>10</sup> Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand this?" <sup>11</sup> Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak of what we know<sup>22</sup>, and bear witness to what we have seen<sup>23</sup>; but you do not receive our testimony. <sup>12</sup> If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you heavenly things?"<sup>24</sup> <sup>13</sup> No one has ascended into heaven but he who descended from heaven, the Son of man. <sup>14</sup> And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup> that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup> For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. <sup>17</sup> For God sent the Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. <sup>18</sup> He who believes in him is not condemned; he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. <sup>19</sup> And this is the judgement, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. <sup>20</sup> For every one who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. <sup>21</sup> But he who does what is true comes to the light, that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been wrought in God<sup>25</sup>.

<sup>22</sup> After this Jesus and his disciples went into the land of Judea; there he remained with them and baptised. <sup>23</sup> John also was baptising at Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there; and people came and were baptised. <sup>24</sup> For John had not yet been put in prison. <sup>25</sup> Now a discussion arose between John's disciples and a Jew over purifying. <sup>26</sup> And they came to John, and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you bore witness, here he is, baptising, and all are going to him." <sup>27</sup> John answered, "No one can receive anything except what is given him from heaven"<sup>26</sup>. <sup>28</sup> You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but I have been sent before him. <sup>29</sup> He who has the bride is the bridegroom; the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice; therefore this joy of mine is now full. <sup>30</sup> He must increase, but I must decrease."

<sup>31</sup> He who comes from above is above all; he who is of the earth belongs to the earth, and of the earth he speaks; he who comes from heaven is above all. <sup>32</sup> He bears witness to what he has seen and heard, yet no one receives his testimony; <sup>33</sup> he who receives his testimony sets his seal to this, that God is true. <sup>34</sup> For he whom God has sent utters the words of God, for it is not by measure that he gives the Spirit; <sup>35</sup> the Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. <sup>36</sup> He who believes in the Son has eternal life; he who does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God rests upon him.

4:1 Now when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptising more disciples than John <sup>2</sup> (although Jesus himself did not baptise, but only his disciples), <sup>3</sup> he left Judea and departed again to Galilee. <sup>4</sup> He had to pass through Samar'ia. <sup>5</sup> So he came to a city of Samar'ia, called Sy'char, near the field that Jacob gave to his son

Joseph<sup>27</sup>. <sup>6</sup> Jacob's well was there, and so Jesus, wearied as he was with his journey, sat down beside<sup>28</sup> the well. It was about the sixth hour.

<sup>7</sup> There came a<sup>29</sup> woman of Samar'ia to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink<sup>30</sup>." <sup>8</sup> For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food. <sup>9</sup> The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samar'ia?"<sup>31</sup> For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans. <sup>10</sup> Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift<sup>A</sup> of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him<sup>32</sup>, and he would have given you living water<sup>A33</sup>." <sup>11</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing<sup>34</sup> to draw with, and the well is deep; where do you get that living water<sup>35</sup>?" <sup>12</sup> Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, and his sons, and his cattle?" <sup>13</sup> Jesus said to her, "Every one who drinks of this water will thirst again, <sup>14</sup> but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst<sup>36</sup>; the water that I shall give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." <sup>15</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water<sup>37</sup>, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw<sup>38</sup>."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here." <sup>17</sup> The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; <sup>18</sup> for you have had five husbands, and he whom you now have is not your husband; this you said truly."<sup>39</sup> <sup>19</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive<sup>40</sup> that you are a prophet. <sup>20</sup> Our fathers worshipped on this mountain<sup>A41</sup>; and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship."<sup>42</sup> <sup>21</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. <sup>22</sup> You worship what you do not know<sup>B43</sup>; we worship what we know<sup>B</sup>, for salvation is from the Jews. <sup>23</sup> But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit<sup>44</sup> and truth, for such the Father seeks to worship him. <sup>24</sup> God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit<sup>A</sup> and truth<sup>B</sup>." <sup>25</sup> The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming (he who is called Christ); when he comes, he will show us all things." <sup>26</sup> Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am he."

<sup>27</sup> Just then his disciples came. They marvelled that he was talking with a woman, but none said, "What do you wish?" or, "Why are you talking with her?" <sup>28</sup> So the woman left her water jar, and went away into the city, and said to the people<sup>45</sup>, <sup>29</sup> "Come, see a man who

<sup>39</sup> Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me all that I ever did."<sup>40</sup> So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days.<sup>41</sup> And many more believed because of his word.<sup>42</sup> They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of your words that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Saviour of the world."<sup>51</sup>

<sup>43</sup> After the two days he departed to Galilee.<sup>44</sup> For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honour in his own country.<sup>45</sup> So when he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, having seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the feast, for they too had gone to the feast.

<sup>46</sup> So he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine. And at Caper'na-um there was an official whose son was ill.<sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.<sup>48</sup> Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe."<sup>49</sup> The official said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."<sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, "Go; your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went his way.<sup>51</sup> As he was going down, his servants met him and told him that his son was living.<sup>52</sup> So he asked them the hour when he began to mend, and they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him."<sup>53</sup> The father knew that was the hour when Jesus had said to him, "Your son will live"; and he himself believed, and all his household.<sup>54</sup> This was now the second sign that Jesus did when he had come from Judea to Galilee.

5:1 After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Now that day was the sabbath.<sup>10</sup> So the Jews said to the man who was cured, "It is the sabbath, it is not lawful for you to carry your pallet."<sup>11</sup> But he answered them, "The man who healed me said to me, 'Take up your pallet, and walk.'"<sup>12</sup> They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up your pallet, and walk'?"<sup>55</sup><sup>13</sup> Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place.<sup>14</sup> Afterward, Jesus found him in the temple<sup>56</sup>, and said to him, "See, you are well! Sin no

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing<sup>59</sup>; for whatever he does, that the Son does likewise. <sup>20</sup> For the Father loves the Son, and shows him all that he himself is doing; and greater works than these will he show him, that you may marvel. <sup>21</sup> For as the Father raises the dead<sup>60</sup> and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. <sup>22</sup> The Father judges no one, but has given<sup>61</sup> all judgement to the Son, <sup>23</sup> that all may honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He who does not honour the Son does not honour the Father who sent him. <sup>24</sup> Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me, has eternal life; he does not come into judgement, but has passed from death to life.

<sup>25</sup> "Truly, truly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. <sup>26</sup> For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted<sup>62</sup> the Son also to have life in himself, <sup>27</sup> and has given him authority to execute judgement<sup>63</sup>, because he is <sup>64</sup> Son of man<sup>65</sup>. <sup>28</sup> Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice <sup>29</sup> and come forth, those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgement.

<sup>30</sup> "I can do nothing on my own authority<sup>66</sup>, as I hear, I judge; and my judgement is just, because I seek not my own will but the will of him who sent me. <sup>31</sup> If I bear witness to myself, my testimony is not true<sup>67</sup>; <sup>32</sup> there is another who bears witness to me, and I know that the testimony which he bears to me is true. <sup>33</sup> You sent to John, and he has borne witness to the truth. <sup>34</sup> Not that the testimony which I receive is from man; but I say this that you may be saved. <sup>35</sup> He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. <sup>36</sup> But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John<sup>68</sup>; for the works which the Father has granted me to accomplish, these very works<sup>69</sup> which I am doing, bear me witness that the Father has sent me. <sup>37</sup> And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness to me. 6:<sup>1</sup> After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiber'i-as. <sup>2</sup> And a multitude followed him, because they saw the signs which he did on those who were diseased. <sup>3</sup> Jesus went up on the mountain, and there sat down with his disciples. <sup>4</sup> Now the Passover<sup>77</sup>, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. <sup>5</sup> Lifting up his eyes, then, and seeing that a multitude was coming to him, Jesus said to Philip, "How are we to buy bread, so that these people may eat?" <sup>6</sup> This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do. <sup>7</sup> Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." <sup>8</sup> One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, <sup>9</sup> "There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what are they among so many?" <sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place; so the men sat down, in number about five thousand. <sup>11</sup> Jesus then took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. <sup>12</sup> And when they had eaten their fill, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, that nothing may be lost." <sup>13</sup> So they gathered them up and filled twelve baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten. <sup>14</sup> When the people saw the sign which he had done, they said, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world!"

<sup>15</sup> Perceiving then that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, Jesus withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

<sup>16</sup> When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, <sup>17</sup> got into a boat, and started across the sea to Caper'na-um. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. <sup>18</sup> The sea rose because a strong wind was blowing. <sup>19</sup> When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near to the boat. They were frightened, <sup>20</sup> but he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." <sup>21</sup> Then they were glad to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

<sup>22</sup> On the next day the people who remained on the other side of the sea saw that there had been only one boat there, and that Jesus had not entered the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone. <sup>23</sup> However, boats from Tiber'i-as came near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>24</sup> So when the people saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats and went to Caper'na-um, seeking Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" <sup>26</sup> Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. <sup>27</sup> Do not labour for the food which perishes<sup>78</sup>, but for the food which endures to eternal life<sup>79</sup>, which the Son of man will give to you; for on him has God the Father set his seal." <sup>28</sup> Then they said to him, "What must we do, to be doing the works of God?" <sup>29</sup> Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." <sup>30</sup> So they said to him, "Then what sign do you do, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you perform?" <sup>31</sup> Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" <sup>32</sup> Jesus then said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven<sup>80</sup>; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup> For the bread<sup>A</sup> of God<sup>81</sup> is that which comes down from heaven, and gives life<sup>A</sup> to the world." <sup>34</sup> They said to him, "Lord, give us this bread always."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said to them, "I am the bread<sup>82</sup> of life<sup>83</sup>; he who 1) comes<sup>84</sup> to me shall not hunger, and he who 2) believes<sup>85</sup> in me shall never thirst. <sup>36</sup> But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe. <sup>37</sup> All that the Father gives me will come to me; and him who comes to me I will not cast out. <sup>38</sup> For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me<sup>86</sup>; <sup>39</sup> and this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up at the last day. <sup>40</sup> For this is the will of my Father, that every one who sees the Son and believes<sup>87</sup> in him should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

<sup>41</sup> The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, "I am the bread<sup>88</sup> which came down from heaven." <sup>42</sup> They said, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" <sup>43</sup> Jesus answered them, "Do not murmur among yourselves. <sup>44</sup> No one<sup>89</sup> can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws<sup>90</sup> him<sup>91</sup>; and I will raise him up at the last day<sup>92</sup>. <sup>45</sup> It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught<sup>93</sup> by God.' Every one who has heard and learned from the Father comes<sup>894</sup> to me. <sup>46</sup> Not that any one has seen the Father except him who is from<sup>95</sup> God; he has seen the Father. <sup>47</sup> Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes<sup>896</sup> has eternal life. <sup>48</sup> I am the bread of life<sup>97</sup>. <sup>49</sup> Your fathers ate<sup>98</sup> the manna in the wilderness, and they died. <sup>50</sup> This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that a man may eat<sup>99</sup> of it and not die. <sup>51</sup> I am the living bread<sup>100</sup> which came down from heaven; if any one eats<sup>101</sup> of this bread, he will live for ever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh<sup>102</sup>."

<sup>60</sup> Many of his disciples, when they heard it, said, "This is a hard saying; who can listen to it?" <sup>61</sup> But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at it, said to them, "Do you take offence at this? <sup>62</sup> Then what if you were to see the Son of man ascending<sup>117</sup> where he was before? <sup>63</sup> It is the spirit that gives life, the flesh<sup>118</sup> is of no avail; the words<sup>119</sup> that I have spoken to you are spirit and life<sup>120</sup>". <sup>64</sup> But there are some of you that do not believe." For Jesus knew from the first who those were that did not believe<sup>121</sup>, and who it was that would betray him. <sup>65</sup> And he said, "This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father."

7: <sup>1</sup> After this Jesus went about in Galilee; he would not go about in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him. <sup>2</sup> Now the Jews' feast of Tabernacles was at hand. <sup>3</sup> So his brothers said to him, "Leave here and go to Judea, that your disciples may see the works you are doing. <sup>4</sup> For no man works in secret if he seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, show yourself to the world." <sup>5</sup> For even his brothers did not believe in him. <sup>6</sup> Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always here. <sup>7</sup> The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify of it that its works are evil. <sup>8</sup> Go to the feast yourselves; I am not going up to this feast, for my time has not yet fully come<sup>125</sup>." <sup>9</sup> So saying, he remained in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup> But after his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly but in private<sup>126</sup>. <sup>11</sup> The Jews were looking for him at the feast, and saying, "Where is he?" <sup>12</sup> And there was much muttering about him among the people<sup>127</sup>. While some said, "He is a good man," others said, "No, he is leading the people astray." <sup>13</sup> Yet for fear of the Jews<sup>A128</sup> no one spoke openly of him.

<sup>14</sup> About the middle of the feast Jesus went up into the temple and taught. <sup>15</sup> The Jews<sup>A</sup> marvelled at it, saying, "How is it that this man has learning, when he has never studied?"<sup>129</sup> <sup>16</sup> So Jesus answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me; <sup>17</sup> if any man's will is to do his will<sup>130</sup>, he shall know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking from myself<sup>131</sup>. <sup>18</sup> He who speaks from himself<sup>132</sup> seeks his own glory<sup>133</sup>"; but

<sup>25</sup> Some of the people of Jerusalem therefore said, "Is not this the man whom they seek to kill?"<sup>26</sup> And here he is, speaking openly, and they say nothing to him! Can it be that the authorities really know that this is the Christ?<sup>27</sup> Yet we know where this man comes from; and when the Christ appears, no one will know where he comes from."<sup>28</sup> So Jesus proclaimed, as he taught in the temple, "You know me, and you know where I come from? But I have not come of my own accord; he who sent me is true, and him you do not know."<sup>29</sup> I know him, for I come from him, and he sent me."<sup>30</sup> So they sought to arrest him; but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come.<sup>31</sup> Yet many of the people believed in him; they said, "When the Christ appears, will he do more signs than this man has done?"

<sup>32</sup> The Pharisees heard the crowd thus muttering about him, and the chief priests and Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.<sup>33</sup> Jesus then said, "I shall be with you a little longer, and then I go to him who sent me; <sup>34</sup> you will seek me and you will not find me; where I am you cannot come."<sup>35</sup> The Jews said to one another, "Where does this man intend to go that we shall not find him? Does he intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks?<sup>36</sup> What does he mean by saying, 'You will seek me and you will not find me,' and, 'Where I am you cannot come'?"

<sup>37</sup> On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and proclaimed, "If any one thirst<sup>145</sup>, let him come to me and drink."<sup>38</sup> He who believes in me, as the scripture has said, 'Out of his heart shall flow rivers of living water'<sup>146</sup>."<sup>39</sup> Now this he said about the Spirit, which those who believed in him were to receive; for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

<sup>40</sup> When they heard these words, some of the people said, "This is really the prophet."<sup>41</sup> Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Is the Christ to come from Galilee?<sup>42</sup> Has not the scripture said that the Christ is descended from David, and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David was?"<sup>43</sup> So there was a division among the people over him<sup>147</sup>.<sup>44</sup> Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him.

8:1 but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. <sup>2</sup> Early in the morning he came again to the temple; all the people came to him, and he sat down and taught them. <sup>3</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery, and placing her in the midst <sup>4</sup> they said to him, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of adultery. <sup>5</sup> Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such<sup>150</sup>. What do you say about her?" <sup>6</sup> This they said to test him, that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. <sup>7</sup> And as they continued to ask him, he stood up and said to them, "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her." <sup>8</sup> And once more he bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. <sup>9</sup> But when they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the eldest, and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. <sup>10</sup> Jesus looked up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" <sup>11</sup> She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you; go, and do not sin again."

<sup>12</sup> Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." <sup>13</sup> The Pharisees then said to him, "You are bearing witness to yourself; your testimony is not true." <sup>14</sup> Jesus answered, "Even if I do bear witness to myself, my testimony is true, for I know whence I have come and whither I am going, but you do not know whence I come or whither I am going<sup>151</sup>. <sup>15</sup> You judge according to the flesh, I judge no one. <sup>16</sup> Yet even if I do judge, my judgement is true, for it is not I alone that judge, but I and he who sent me. <sup>17</sup> In your law it is written that the testimony of two men is true; <sup>18</sup> I bear witness to myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness to me." <sup>19</sup> They said to him therefore, "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me nor my Father; if you knew me, you would know my Father also." <sup>20</sup> These words he spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple; but no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

<sup>21</sup> Again he said to them, "I go away, and you will seek me and die in your sin; where I am going, you cannot come." <sup>22</sup> Then said the Jews, "Will he kill himself, since he says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?" <sup>23</sup> He said to them, "You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world. <sup>24</sup> I told you that you would die in your sins, for you will die in your sins unless you believe that I am he<sup>152</sup>." <sup>25</sup> They said to him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "Even what I have told you from the beginning. <sup>26</sup> I have much to say about you and much to judge; but he who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from him." <sup>27</sup> They did not understand that he spoke to them of the Father. <sup>28</sup> So Jesus said, "When you have lifted up the Son of man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own authority but speak thus as the Father taught me. <sup>29</sup> And he who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what is pleasing to him." <sup>30</sup> As he spoke thus, many believed<sup>A</sup> in him.

<sup>150</sup>The Law was without mercy (Heb 10:28), but the standard of testimony and justice had to be high. This case was not even handed as the man had been released. In our day, avoiding the conviction of the innocent does not mean reducing penalties, but better rules of evidence.

<sup>154</sup>The Truth is that they are sinful (Jn 8:34), and will die (Jn 8:24) but Christ is not (Jn 8:46)

<sup>156</sup>The Religious deny their slavery, and therefore do not seek freedom: they don't love truth (2Thess 2:10), but believe a lie because they believe their father (Jn 8:44)

<sup>39</sup> They answered him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If<sup>161</sup> you were Abraham's children, you would do what Abraham did, <sup>40</sup> but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth which I heard from God; this is not what Abraham did. <sup>41</sup> You do what your father did." They said to him, "We were not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God." <sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I proceeded and came forth from God; I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. <sup>43</sup> Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. <sup>44</sup> You are of your father<sup>162</sup> the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies. <sup>45</sup> But, because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. <sup>46</sup> Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? <sup>47</sup> He who is of God hears the words<sup>163</sup> of God; the reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God."

<sup>48</sup> The Jews answered him, "Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?" <sup>49</sup> Jesus answered, "I have not a demon; but I honour my Father, and you dishonour me. <sup>50</sup> Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is One who seeks it and he will be the judge. <sup>51</sup> Truly, truly, I say to you, if any one keeps my word, he will never see death." <sup>52</sup> The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, as did the prophets; and you say, 'If any one keeps my word, he will never taste death.' <sup>53</sup> Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you claim to be?" <sup>54</sup> Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing; it is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is your God. <sup>55</sup> But you have not known him; I know him. If I said, I do not know him, I should be a liar like you; but I do know him and I keep his word. <sup>56</sup> Your father Abraham rejoiced that he was to see my day; he saw it and was glad." <sup>57</sup> The Jews then said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?" <sup>58</sup> Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am." <sup>59</sup> So they took up stones to throw at him; but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

9:<sup>1</sup> As he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth. <sup>2</sup> And his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man<sup>164</sup> or his parents, that he was born blind?" <sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, "It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be made manifest in him. <sup>4</sup> We must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day; night comes, when no one can work. <sup>5</sup> As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." <sup>6</sup> As he said this, he spat on the ground and made clay of the spittle and anointed the man's eyes with the clay, <sup>7</sup> saying to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Silo'am" (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing. <sup>8</sup> The neighbours and those who had seen him before as a beggar, said, "Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?" <sup>9</sup> Some said, "It is he"; others said, "No, but he is like him." He said, "I am the man." <sup>10</sup> They said to him, "Then how were your eyes opened?" <sup>11</sup> He answered, "The man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Silo'am and wash'; so I went and washed and received my sight." <sup>12</sup> They said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I do not know."

<sup>13</sup> They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. <sup>14</sup> Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. <sup>15</sup> The Pharisees again asked him how he had received his sight. And he said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see." <sup>16</sup> Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep<sup>A</sup> the sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do<sup>A</sup> such signs?"

There was a division<sup>165</sup> among them. <sup>17</sup> So they again said to the blind man, "What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

<sup>18</sup> The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight, <sup>19</sup> and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" <sup>20</sup> His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; <sup>21</sup> but how he now sees we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age, he will speak for himself." <sup>22</sup> His parents said this because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if any one should confess him to be Christ, he was to be put out of the synagogue. <sup>23</sup> Therefore his parents said, "He is of age, ask him."

<sup>24</sup> So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and said to him, "Give God the praise; we know that this man is a sinner." <sup>25</sup> He answered, "Whether he is a sinner, I do not know; one thing I know, that though I was blind, now I see." <sup>26</sup> They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" <sup>27</sup> He answered them, "I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you too want to become his disciples?" <sup>28</sup> And they reviled him, saying, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. <sup>29</sup> We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from." <sup>30</sup> The man answered, "Why, this is a marvel! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. <sup>31</sup> We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if any one is a worshipper of God and does his will, God listens to him. <sup>32</sup> Never since the world began has it been heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind. <sup>33</sup> If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." <sup>34</sup> They answered him, "You were born in utter sin, and would you teach us?" And they cast him out.

<sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, "Do you believe in the Son of man?" <sup>36</sup> He answered, "And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" <sup>37</sup> Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and it is he who speaks to you." <sup>38</sup> He said, "Lord, I believe"; and he worshipped him. <sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "For judgement I came into this world, that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may become blind." <sup>40</sup> Some of the Pharisees near him heard this, and they said to him, "Are we also blind?" <sup>41</sup> Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no guilt<sup>166</sup>; but now that you say, 'We see,' your guilt remains<sup>167</sup>."

10:<sup>1</sup> "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber; <sup>2</sup> but he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup> To him the gatekeeper opens; the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. <sup>4</sup> When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. <sup>5</sup> A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.<sup>168</sup>" <sup>6</sup> This figure Jesus used with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

<sup>7</sup> So Jesus again said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. <sup>8</sup> All who came before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not heed them. <sup>9</sup> I am the door; if any one enters by me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. <sup>10</sup> The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I came that they may have life<sup>169</sup>, and have it abundantly. <sup>11</sup> I am the good shepherd<sup>170</sup>. The good shepherd lays down his life<sup>171</sup> for the sheep. <sup>12</sup> He who is a hireling and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. <sup>13</sup> He flees because he is a hireling and cares nothing for the sheep. <sup>14</sup> I am the good shepherd<sup>172</sup>; I know my own and my own know me, <sup>15</sup> as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup> And I have other sheep, that are not of this fold<sup>173</sup>; I must bring them also, and they will heed my voice. So there shall be one flock, one shepherd. <sup>17</sup> For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again. <sup>18</sup> No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority<sup>174</sup> to lay it down, and I have authority<sup>175</sup> to take it again; this charge I have received from my Father."

<sup>19</sup> There was again a division<sup>176</sup> among the Jews because of these words. <sup>20</sup> Many of them said, "He has a demon, and he is mad; why listen to him?"<sup>177</sup> <sup>21</sup> Others said, "These are not the sayings of one who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?" <sup>22</sup> It was the feast of the Dedication at Jerusalem; <sup>23</sup> it was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. <sup>24</sup> So the Jews gathered round him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly." <sup>25</sup> Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness to me; <sup>26</sup> but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. <sup>27</sup> My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; <sup>28</sup> and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. <sup>29</sup> My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. <sup>30</sup> I and the Father are one."

<sup>31</sup> The Jews took up stones again to stone him. <sup>32</sup> Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from the Father; for which of these do you stone me?" <sup>33</sup> The Jews answered him, "It is not for a good work that we stone you but for blasphemy; because you, being a man, make yourself God." <sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, you are gods'?" <sup>35</sup> If he called them gods to whom the word of God came (and scripture cannot be broken), <sup>36</sup> do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?" <sup>37</sup> If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; <sup>38</sup> but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father." <sup>39</sup> Again they tried to arrest him, but he escaped from their hands.

<sup>40</sup> He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John at first baptised, and there he remained. <sup>41</sup> And many came to him; and they said, "John did no sign, but everything that John said about this man was true." <sup>42</sup> And many believed in him there.

<sup>5</sup> Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Laz'arus. <sup>6</sup> So when he heard that he was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was. <sup>7</sup> Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go into Judea again." <sup>8</sup> The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to stone you, and are you going there again?" <sup>9</sup> Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any one walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. <sup>10</sup> But if any one walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." <sup>11</sup> Thus he spoke, and then he said to them, "Our friend Laz'arus has fallen asleep, but I go to awake him out of sleep." <sup>12</sup> The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover." <sup>13</sup> Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he meant taking rest in sleep. <sup>14</sup> Then Jesus told them plainly, "Laz'arus is dead; <sup>15</sup> and for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." <sup>16</sup> Thomas, called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

<sup>17</sup> Now when Jesus came, he found that Laz'arus had already been in the tomb four days. <sup>18</sup> Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off, <sup>19</sup> and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother. <sup>20</sup> When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary sat in the house. <sup>21</sup> Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. <sup>22</sup> And even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you." <sup>23</sup> Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." <sup>24</sup> Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." <sup>25</sup> Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, <sup>26</sup> and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?"<sup>27</sup> She said to him, "Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, he who is coming into the world."

<sup>28</sup> When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary, saying quietly, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you."<sup>29</sup> And when she heard it, she rose quickly and went to him. <sup>30</sup> Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him. <sup>31</sup> When the Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary rise quickly and go out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there. <sup>32</sup> Then Mary, when she came where Jesus was and saw him, fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."<sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled; <sup>34</sup> and he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see."<sup>35</sup> Jesus wept. <sup>36</sup> So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" <sup>37</sup> But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

<sup>38</sup> Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb; it was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. <sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there will be an odour, for he has been dead four days."<sup>40</sup> Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?"<sup>41</sup> So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. <sup>42</sup> I knew that thou hearest me always, but I have said this on account of the people standing by, that they may believe that thou didst send me."<sup>43</sup> When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Laz'arus, come out."<sup>44</sup> The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with bandages, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

<sup>45</sup> Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him; <sup>46</sup> but some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup> So the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the council, and said, "What are we to do? For this man performs many signs. <sup>48</sup> If we let him go on thus, every one will believe in him, and the Romans will come and destroy both our holy place and our nation."<sup>49</sup> But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all; <sup>50</sup> you do not understand that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation should not perish."<sup>178</sup> <sup>51</sup> He did not say this of his own accord, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation, <sup>52</sup> and not for the nation only, but to gather into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. <sup>53</sup> So from that day on they took counsel how to put him to death.

<sup>54</sup> Jesus therefore no longer went about openly among the Jews, but went from there to the country near the wilderness, to a town called E'phraim; and there he stayed with the disciples.

<sup>55</sup> Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. <sup>56</sup> They were looking for Jesus and saying to one another as they stood in the temple, "What do you think? That he will not come to the feast?"<sup>57</sup> Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if any one knew where he was, he should let them know, so that they might arrest him.

<sup>9</sup> When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only on account of Jesus but also to see Laz'arus, whom he had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup> So the chief priests planned to put Laz'arus also to death, <sup>11</sup> because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> The next day a great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!"

<sup>14</sup> And Jesus found a young ass and sat upon it; as it is written,

behold, your king is coming, sitting on an ass's colt!"

<sup>16</sup> His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then<sup>181</sup> they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him. <sup>17</sup> The crowd that had been with him when he called Laz'arus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. <sup>18</sup> The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign. <sup>19</sup> The Pharisees then said to one another, "You see that you can do nothing; look, the world has gone after him."

<sup>20</sup> Now among those who went up to worship at the feast were some Greeks. <sup>21</sup> So these came to Philip, who was from Beth-sa'ida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." <sup>22</sup> Philip went and told Andrew; Andrew went with Philip and they told Jesus. <sup>23</sup> And Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified. <sup>24</sup> Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. <sup>25</sup> He who loves his life loses it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. <sup>26</sup> If any one serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there shall my servant be also; if any one serves me, the Father will honour him.

<sup>27</sup> "Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say? `Father, save me from this hour'? No, for this purpose I have come to this hour. <sup>28</sup> Father, glorify thy name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." <sup>29</sup> The crowd standing by heard it and said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." <sup>30</sup> Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. <sup>31</sup> Now is the judgement of this world, now shall the ruler of this world be cast out; <sup>32</sup> and I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to myself." <sup>33</sup> He said this to show by what death he was to die. <sup>34</sup> The crowd answered him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains for ever. How can you say that the Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?" <sup>35</sup> Jesus said to them, "The light is with you for a little longer. Walk while you have the light, lest the darkness overtake you; he who walks in the darkness does not know where he goes. <sup>36</sup> While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light."

When Jesus had said this, he departed and hid himself from them. <sup>37</sup> Though he had done so many signs before them, yet they did not believe in him; <sup>38</sup> it was that the word spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

"Lord, who has believed our report, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

<sup>39</sup> Therefore they could not believe. For Isaiah again said, <sup>40</sup> "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes and perceive with their heart,

and turn for me to heal them."

<sup>41</sup> Isaiah said this because he saw his glory and spoke of him. <sup>42</sup> Nevertheless many even of the authorities believed in him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: <sup>43</sup> for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

<sup>44</sup> And Jesus cried out and said, "He who believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. <sup>45</sup> And he who sees me sees him who sent me. <sup>46</sup> I have come as light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. <sup>47</sup> If any one hears my sayings and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. <sup>48</sup> He who rejects me and does not receive my sayings has a judge; the word that I have spoken will be his judge on the last day. <sup>49</sup> For I have not spoken on my own authority; the Father who sent me has himself given me commandment what to say and what to speak. <sup>50</sup> And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has bidden me."

RELATIONS WITH THE WORLD: THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT (Jn 13-17)

13:<sup>182</sup> Now before the feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. <sup>2</sup> And during supper, when the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, <sup>3</sup> Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, <sup>4</sup> rose from supper, laid aside his garments, and girded himself with a towel. <sup>5</sup> Then he poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which he was girded. <sup>6</sup> He came to Simon Peter; and Peter said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"<sup>183</sup> <sup>7</sup> Jesus answered him, "What I am doing you do not know now, but afterward you will understand." <sup>8</sup> Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part in me." <sup>9</sup> Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" <sup>10</sup> Jesus said to him, "He who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, but he is clean all over; and you are clean, but not every one of you." <sup>11</sup> For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, "You are not all clean."

<sup>12</sup> When he had washed their feet, and taken his garments, and resumed his place, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? <sup>13</sup> You call me Teacher and Lord; and you are right, for so I am. <sup>14</sup> If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. <sup>15</sup> For I have given you an example<sup>184</sup>, that you also should do as I have done to you. <sup>16</sup> Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater<sup>185</sup> than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him. <sup>17</sup> If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. <sup>18</sup> I am not speaking of you all; I know whom I have chosen<sup>186</sup>; it is that the scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who ate my bread has lifted his heel against me.' <sup>19</sup> I tell you this now, before it takes place, that when it does take place you may believe that I am he. <sup>20</sup> Truly, truly, I say to you, he who receives any one whom I send receives me; and he who receives me receives him who sent me."

<sup>31</sup> When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of man glorified, and in him God is glorified; <sup>32</sup> if God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and glorify him at once. <sup>33</sup> Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going you cannot come.'<sup>34</sup> A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; even as<sup>188</sup> I have loved you<sup>189</sup>, that you also love one another.<sup>35</sup> By this all men will know that you are my disciples<sup>190</sup>, if you have love for one another<sup>191</sup>."

<sup>36</sup> Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered, "Where I am going you cannot follow me now; but you shall follow afterward." <sup>37</sup> Peter said to him, "Lord, why cannot I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you." <sup>38</sup> Jesus answered, "Will my peace<sup>212</sup> I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. <sup>28</sup> You heard me say to you, 'I go away, and I will come to you.'<sup>213</sup> If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I go to the Father; for the Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup> And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place, you may believe. <sup>30</sup> I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. <sup>12</sup> "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you<sup>234</sup>. <sup>13</sup> Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends<sup>235</sup>. <sup>14</sup> You are my friends if you do what I command you. <sup>15</sup> No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you<sup>236</sup>. <sup>16</sup> You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide<sup>237</sup>; so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. <sup>17</sup> This I command you, to love one another.

18:<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples across the Kidron valley, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. <sup>2</sup> Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place; for Jesus often met there with his disciples. <sup>3</sup> So Judas, procuring a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, went there with lanterns and torches and weapons. <sup>4</sup> Then Jesus, knowing all that was to befall him, came forward and said to them, "Whom do you seek?" <sup>5</sup> They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am he." Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. <sup>6</sup> When he said to them, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground. <sup>7</sup> Again he asked them, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth." <sup>8</sup> Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he; so, if you seek me, let these men go." <sup>9</sup> This was to fulfil the word which he had spoken, "Of those whom thou gavest me I lost not one." <sup>10</sup> Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's slave and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus. <sup>11</sup> Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath; shall I not drink the cup which the Father has given me?"

<sup>12</sup> So the band of soldiers and their captain and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and bound him. <sup>13</sup> First they led him to Annas; for he was the father-in-law of Ca'iaphas, who was high priest that year. <sup>14</sup> It was Ca'iaphas who had given counsel to the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

<sup>15</sup> Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. As this disciple was known to the high priest, he entered the court of the high priest along with Jesus, <sup>16</sup> while Peter stood outside at the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the maid who kept the door, and brought Peter in. <sup>17</sup> The maid who kept the door said to Peter, "Are not you also one of this man's disciples?" He said, "I am not." <sup>18</sup> Now the servants and officers had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves; Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

<sup>19</sup> The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching. <sup>20</sup> Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together; I have said nothing secretly. <sup>21</sup> Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me, what I said to them; they know what I said." <sup>22</sup> When he had said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying, "Is that how you answer the high priest?" <sup>23</sup> Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken wrongly, bear witness to the wrong; but if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?" <sup>24</sup> Annas then sent him bound to Ca'iaphas the high priest.

<sup>25</sup> Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said to him, "Are not you also one of his disciples?" He denied it and said, "I am not." <sup>26</sup> One of the servants of the high priest, a kinsman of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?" <sup>27</sup> Peter again denied it; and at once the cock crowed.

<sup>28</sup> Then they led Jesus from the house of Ca'iaphas to the praetorium. It was early. They themselves did not enter the praetorium, so that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. <sup>29</sup> So Pilate went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"<sup>30</sup> They answered him, "If this man were not an evildoer, we would not have handed him over."<sup>31</sup> Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law." The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put any man to death."<sup>32</sup> This was to fulfil the word which Jesus had spoken to show by what death he was to die.

<sup>33</sup> Pilate entered the praetorium again and called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered, "Do you say this of your own accord, or did others say it to you about me?"<sup>35</sup> Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me; what have you done?"<sup>36</sup> Jesus answered, "My kingship is not of this world; if my kingship were of this world, my servants would fight<sup>268</sup>, that I might not be handed over to the Jews; but my kingship is not from the world."<sup>37</sup> Pilate said to him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Every one who is of the truth hears my voice."<sup>38</sup> Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again, and told them, "I find no crime in him."<sup>39</sup> But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the Passover; will you have me release for you the King of the Jews?"<sup>40</sup> They cried out again, "Not this man, but Barab'bas!" Now Barab'bas was a robber.

<sup>12</sup> Upon this Pilate sought to release him, but the Jews cried out, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend; every one who makes himself a king sets himself against Caesar."<sup>13</sup> When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgement seat at a place called The Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gab'batha. <sup>14</sup> Now it was the day of Preparation of the Passover; it was about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, "Behold your King!"<sup>15</sup> They cried out, "Away with him, away with him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."<sup>16</sup> Then he handed him over to them to be crucified.

<sup>23</sup> When the soldiers had crucified Jesus they took his garments and made four parts, one for each soldier; also his tunic. But the tunic was without seam, woven from top to bottom; <sup>24</sup> so they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be." This was to fulfil the scripture<sup>269</sup>,

"They parted my garments among them,
and for my clothing they cast lots."

<sup>25</sup> So the soldiers did this. But standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Mag'dalene. <sup>26</sup> When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple<sup>270</sup> whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" <sup>27</sup> Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.

<sup>28</sup> After this Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfil the scripture), "I thirst." <sup>29</sup> A bowl full of vinegar stood there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop and held it to his mouth. <sup>30</sup> When Jesus had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished"; and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

<sup>31</sup> Since it was the day of Preparation, in order to prevent the bodies from remaining on the cross on the sabbath (for that sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. <sup>32</sup> So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him; <sup>33</sup> but when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. <sup>34</sup> But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. <sup>35</sup> He who saw it has borne witness-- his testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth-- that you also may believe. <sup>36</sup> For these things took place that the scripture might be fulfilled, "Not a bone of him shall be broken." <sup>37</sup> And again another scripture says, "They shall look on him whom they have pierced."

<sup>38</sup> After this Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him leave. So he came and took away his body. <sup>39</sup> Nicodemus also, who had at first come to him by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds' weight. <sup>40</sup> They took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. <sup>41</sup> Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb where no one had ever been laid. <sup>42</sup> So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, as the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

20:<sup>1</sup> Now on the first day of the week Mary Mag'dalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. <sup>2</sup> So she ran, and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." <sup>3</sup> Peter then came out with the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. <sup>4</sup> They both ran, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first; <sup>5</sup> and stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. <sup>6</sup> Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb; he saw the linen cloths lying, <sup>7</sup> and the napkin, which had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup> Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed<sup>271</sup>; <sup>9</sup> for as yet<sup>272</sup> they did not know the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. <sup>10</sup> Then the disciples went back to their homes.

<sup>11</sup> But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb; <sup>12</sup> and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. <sup>13</sup> They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him."<sup>273</sup> <sup>14</sup> Saying this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom do you seek?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." <sup>16</sup> Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rab-bo'ni!" (which means Teacher). <sup>17</sup> Jesus said to her, "Do not hold<sup>274</sup> me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father<sup>275</sup>; but go to my brethren and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." <sup>18</sup> Mary Mag'dalene went and said to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

<sup>19</sup> On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace"<sup>276</sup> be with you." <sup>20</sup> When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side.

Therefore<sup>277</sup> the disciples were glad<sup>278</sup> when they saw the Lord. <sup>21</sup> Jesus (therefore) said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." <sup>22</sup> And when he had said this, he breathed on<sup>279</sup> them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup> If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained<sup>280</sup>."

<sup>24</sup> Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup> So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe."

<sup>26</sup> Eight days later, his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said, "Peace be with you." <sup>27</sup> Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing." <sup>28</sup> Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" <sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe."

<sup>30</sup> Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; <sup>31</sup> but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

21: After this Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tibe'ri-as<sup>281</sup>; and he revealed himself in this way. <sup>2</sup> Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathan'a-el of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zeb'edee, and two others of his disciples were together. <sup>3</sup> Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat; but that night they caught nothing.

<sup>4</sup> Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup> Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any fish?" They answered him, "No." <sup>6</sup> He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, for the quantity of fish. <sup>7</sup> That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his clothes, for he was stripped for work, and sprang into the sea. <sup>8</sup> But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, but about a hundred yards off.

<sup>9</sup> When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish lying on it, and bread. <sup>10</sup> Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." <sup>11</sup> So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and although there were so many, the net was not torn. <sup>12</sup> Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup> Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish. <sup>14</sup> This was now the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

<sup>15</sup> When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love<sup>A282</sup> me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love<sup>B283</sup> you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." <sup>16</sup> A second time he said to him, "Simon, son of John, do you love<sup>A</sup> me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love<sup>B</sup> you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." <sup>17</sup> He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love<sup>B</sup> me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love<sup>B</sup> me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love<sup>B</sup> you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. <sup>18</sup> Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you girded yourself and walked where you would; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish to go." <sup>19</sup> (This he said to show by what death he was to glorify God.) And after this he said to him, "Follow me."

The Acts of the Apostles

1: In the first book, O The-oph'ilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to 1) do and 2) teach<sup>1</sup>, <sup>2</sup> until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. <sup>3</sup> To them he presented himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days, and speaking of the kingdom<sup>E</sup> of God. <sup>4</sup> And while staying with them he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait<sup>2</sup> for the promise<sup>3</sup> of the Father, which, he said, "you heard from me, <sup>5</sup> for John baptised with water, but before many days<sup>A</sup> you shall be baptised<sup>4</sup> with the Holy Spirit."<sup>5</sup>

<sup>6</sup> So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time<sup>A</sup> restore the kingdom<sup>E</sup> to Israel?" <sup>7</sup> He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has fixed by his own authority. <sup>8</sup> But you shall receive power<sup>6</sup> when the Holy Spirit<sup>7</sup> has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Sama'ria and to the end of the earth<sup>8</sup>." <sup>9</sup> And when he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight<sup>9</sup>. <sup>10</sup> And while they were gazing into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, <sup>11</sup> and said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."

<sup>12</sup> Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away; <sup>13</sup> and when they had entered, they went up to the upper room, where they were staying, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judas the son of James. <sup>14</sup> All these with one accord devoted themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

<sup>15</sup> In those days Peter stood up among the brethren (the company of persons was in all about a hundred and twenty), and said, <sup>16</sup> "Brethren, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David, concerning Judas who was guide to those who arrested Jesus. <sup>17</sup> For he was numbered among us, and was allotted his share in this ministry. <sup>18</sup> (Now this man bought a field with the reward of his wickedness; and falling headlong he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out. <sup>19</sup> And it became known to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their language Akel'dama, that is, Field of Blood.) <sup>20</sup> For it is written in the book of Psalms,

`Let his habitation become desolate,
and let there be no one to live in it';

and

5 Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. 6 And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language<sup>16</sup>. 7 And they were amazed and wondered, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? 8 And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? 9 Par'thians and Medes and E'lamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans and Arabians, we hear them telling in our own tongues<sup>17</sup> the mighty works of God." 12 And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" 13 But others mocking said, "They are filled with new wine."

14 But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. 15 For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day; 16 but this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

21 And it shall be that whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

22 "Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs which God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves<sup>20</sup> know<sup>21</sup>-- 23 this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. 24 But God raised him up, having loosed the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. 25 For David says concerning him,

`I saw the Lord always before me,
for he is at my right hand that I may not be shaken; 26 therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
moreover my flesh will dwell in hope.

29 "Brethren, I may say to you confidently of the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, 31 he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. 32 This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses. 33 Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this which you see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend into the heavens; but he himself says,

'The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand,

against the Lord and against his Anointed'--

<sup>32</sup> Now the company of those who believed were of one<sup>41</sup> heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had everything in common. <sup>33</sup> And with great power<sup>42</sup> the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. <sup>34</sup> There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of what was sold <sup>35</sup> and laid it at the apostles' feet; and distribution was made to each as any had need. <sup>36</sup> Thus Joseph who was surnamed by the apostles Barnabas (which means, Son of encouragement), a Levite, a native of Cyprus, <sup>37</sup> sold a field which belonged to him, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

<sup>7</sup> After an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. <sup>8</sup> And Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." And she said, "Yes, for so much." <sup>9</sup> But Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Hark, the feet of those that have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out<sup>44</sup>." <sup>10</sup> Immediately she fell down at his feet and died. When the young men came in they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband. <sup>11</sup> And great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all who heard of these things.

<sup>12</sup> Now many signs and wonders were done among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico. <sup>13</sup> None of the rest dared join them, but the people held them in high honour. <sup>14</sup> And more than ever believers were added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women, <sup>15</sup> so that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and pallets, that as Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them. <sup>16</sup> The people also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed<sup>45</sup>.

<sup>17</sup> But the high priest rose up and all who were with him, that is, the party of the Sad'ducees, and filled with jealousy<sup>46</sup> <sup>18</sup> they arrested the apostles and put them in the common prison. <sup>19</sup> But at night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out and said, <sup>20</sup> "Go and stand in the temple and speak to the people all the words of this Life." <sup>21</sup> And when they heard this, they entered the temple at daybreak and taught.

Now the high priest came and those who were with him and called together the council and all the senate of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. <sup>22</sup> But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison, and they returned and reported, <sup>23</sup> "We found the prison securely locked and the sentries standing at the doors, but when we opened it we found no one inside." <sup>24</sup> Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed about them, wondering what this would come to. <sup>25</sup> And some one came and told them, "The men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." <sup>26</sup> Then the captain with the officers went and brought them, but without violence, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people.

<sup>27</sup> And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, <sup>28</sup> saying, "We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you intend to bring this man's blood upon us." <sup>29</sup> But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. <sup>30</sup> The God of our fathers raised Jesus whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. <sup>31</sup> God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Saviour, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. <sup>32</sup> And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

<sup>33</sup> When they heard this they were enraged and wanted to kill them. <sup>34</sup> But a Pharisee in the council named Gama'li-el, a teacher of the law, held in honour by all the people, stood up and ordered the men to be put outside for a while. <sup>35</sup> And he said to them, "Men of Israel, take care what you do with these men. <sup>36</sup> For before these days Theu'das arose, giving himself out to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him; but he was slain and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing. <sup>37</sup> After him Judas the Galilean arose in the days of the census and drew away some of the people after him; he also perished, and all who followed him were scattered. <sup>38</sup> So in the present case I tell you, keep away from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this undertaking is of men, it will fail<sup>47</sup>; <sup>39</sup> but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You might even be found opposing God!"

<sup>40</sup> So they took his advice, and when they had called in the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. <sup>41</sup> Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer<sup>48</sup> dishonour for the name. <sup>42</sup> And every day in the temple and at home they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

6:1 Now in these days when the disciples were increasing in number, the Hellenists murmured against the Hebrews because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution. <sup>2</sup> And the twelve summoned the body of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, brethren, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this duty. <sup>4</sup> But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." <sup>5</sup> And what they said pleased the whole multitude, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Proch'orus, and Nica'nor, and Ti'mon, and Par'menas, and Nicola'us, a proselyte of Antioch. <sup>6</sup> These they set before the apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands upon them.

<sup>7</sup> And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were obedient to the faith.

<sup>8</sup> And Stephen, full of grace and power, did great wonders and signs among the people. <sup>9</sup> Then some of those who belonged to the synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called), and of the Cyre'nians, and of the Alexandrians, and of those from Cili'cia and Asia, arose and disputed with Stephen. <sup>10</sup> But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke. <sup>11</sup> Then they secretly instigated men, who said, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." <sup>12</sup> And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and they came upon him and seized him and brought him before the council, <sup>13</sup> and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never ceases to speak words against this holy place and the law; <sup>14</sup> for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us." <sup>15</sup> And gazing at him, all who sat in the council saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

<sup>7</sup>:<sup>1</sup> And the high priest said, "Is this so?" <sup>2</sup> And Stephen said: "Brethren and fathers, hear me. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, <sup>3</sup> and said to him, 'Depart from your land and from your kindred and go into the land which I will show you.' <sup>4</sup> Then he departed from the land of the Chaldeans, and lived in Haran. And after his father died, God removed him from there into this land in which you are now living; <sup>5</sup> yet he gave him no inheritance<sup>49</sup> in it, not even a foot's length, but promised to give it to him in possession and to his posterity after him, though he had no child. <sup>6</sup> And God spoke to this effect, that his posterity would be aliens in a land belonging to others, who would enslave them and ill-treat them four hundred years. <sup>7</sup> 'But I will judge the nation which they serve,' said God, 'and after that they shall come out and worship me in this place.' <sup>8</sup> And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

<sup>9</sup> "And the patriarchs, jealous of Joseph, sold him into Egypt; but God was with him, <sup>10</sup> and rescued him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him governor over Egypt and over all his household. <sup>11</sup> Now there came a famine throughout all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, and our fathers could find no food. <sup>12</sup> But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time. <sup>13</sup> And at the second visit Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to Pharaoh. <sup>14</sup> And Joseph sent and called to him Jacob his father and all his kindred, seventy-five souls; <sup>15</sup> and Jacob went down into Egypt. And he died, himself and our fathers, <sup>16</sup> and they were carried back to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

<sup>17</sup> "But as the time of the promise drew near, which God had granted to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt <sup>18</sup> till there arose over Egypt another king who had not known Joseph. <sup>19</sup> He dealt craftily with our race and forced our fathers to expose their infants, that they might not be kept alive. <sup>20</sup> At this time Moses was born, and was beautiful before God. And he was brought up for three months in his father's house; <sup>21</sup> and when he was exposed, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and brought him up as her own son. <sup>22</sup> And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was mighty in his words and deeds.

<sup>23</sup> "When he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the sons of Israel. <sup>24</sup> And seeing one of them being wronged, he defended the oppressed man and avenged him by striking the Egyptian. <sup>25</sup> He supposed that his brethren understood that God was giving them deliverance by his hand, but they did not understand. <sup>26</sup> And on the following day he appeared to them as they were quarrelling and would have reconciled them, saying, 'Men, you are brethren, why do you wrong each other?' <sup>27</sup> But the man who was wronging his neighbour thrust him aside, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? <sup>28</sup> Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' <sup>29</sup> At this retort Moses fled, and became an exile in the land of Mid'ian, where he became the father of two sons.

<sup>30</sup> "Now when forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. <sup>31</sup> When Moses saw it he wondered at the sight; and as he drew near to look, the voice of the Lord came, <sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob.' And Moses trembled and did not dare to look. <sup>33</sup> And the Lord said to him, 'Take off the shoes from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. <sup>34</sup> I have surely seen the ill-treatment of my people that are in Egypt and heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you to Egypt.'

<sup>35</sup> "This Moses whom they refused, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?' God sent as both ruler and deliverer by the hand of the angel that appeared to him in the bush. <sup>36</sup> He led them out, having performed wonders and signs in Egypt and at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years. <sup>37</sup> This is the Moses who said to the Israelites, 'God will raise up for you a prophet from your brethren as he raised me up.' <sup>38</sup> This is he who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and with our fathers; and he received living oracles to give to us. <sup>39</sup> Our fathers refused to obey him, but thrust him aside, and in their hearts they turned to Egypt, <sup>40</sup> saying to Aaron, 'Make for us gods to go before us; as for this Moses who led us out from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' <sup>41</sup> And they made a calf in those days, and offered a sacrifice to the idol and rejoiced in the works of their hands. <sup>42</sup> But God turned and gave them over to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets:

Did you offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices,
forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

<sup>43</sup> And you took up the tent of Moloch,
and the star of the god Rephan,
the figures which you made to worship;
and I will remove you beyond Babylon.'

<sup>44</sup> "Our fathers had the tent of witness in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses directed him to make it, according to the pattern that he had seen. <sup>45</sup> Our fathers in turn brought it in with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations which God thrust out before our fathers. So it was until the days of David, <sup>46</sup> who found favour in the sight of God and asked leave to find a tent<sup>50</sup> for the God<sup>51</sup> of Jacob. <sup>47</sup> But<sup>52</sup> Solomon<sup>53</sup> built a house for him. <sup>48</sup> Yet the Most High does not dwell in houses made with hands<sup>54</sup>; as the prophet says, <sup>49</sup> Heaven is my throne, and earth my footstool.

What house will you build for me, says the Lord,
or what is the place of my rest?

<sup>51</sup> "You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you. <sup>52</sup> Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? And they killed those who announced beforehand the coming of the Righteous One, whom you have now betrayed and murdered, <sup>53</sup> you who received the law as delivered by angels and did not keep it."

<sup>54</sup> Now when they heard these things they were enraged, and they ground their teeth against him. <sup>55</sup> But he, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God; <sup>56</sup> and he said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God." <sup>57</sup> But they cried out with a loud voice and stopped their ears and rushed together upon him. <sup>58</sup> Then they cast him out of the city and stoned him; and the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. <sup>59</sup> And as they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." <sup>60</sup> And he knelt down and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." And when he had said this, he fell asleep. 8:1 And Saul was consenting to his death.

And on that day a great persecution<sup>56</sup> arose against the church in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered throughout the region of Judea and Sama'ria, except the apostles<sup>57</sup>. <sup>2</sup> Devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. <sup>3</sup> But Saul was ravaging the church, and entering house after house, he dragged off men and women and committed them to prison<sup>58</sup>.

<sup>4</sup> Now those who were scattered went about preaching the word. <sup>5</sup> Philip went down to a city of Sama'ria, and proclaimed to them the Christ. <sup>6</sup> And the multitudes with one accord gave heed to what was said by Philip, when they heard him and saw the signs<sup>59</sup> which he did. <sup>7</sup> For unclean spirits came out of many who were possessed, crying with a loud voice; and many who were paralysed or lame were healed. <sup>8</sup> So there was much joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup> But there was a man named Simon who had previously practiced magic in the city and amazed the nation of Sama'ria, saying that he himself was somebody great. <sup>10</sup> They all gave heed to him, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is that power of God which

And seeing signs and great miracles performed, he was amazed.

<sup>14</sup> Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Sama'ria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, <sup>15</sup> who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit; <sup>16</sup> for He<sup>60</sup> had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus<sup>61</sup>. <sup>17</sup> Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, <sup>19</sup> saying, "Give me also this power, that any one on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit." <sup>20</sup> But Peter said to him, "Your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! <sup>21</sup> You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. <sup>22</sup> Repent<sup>62</sup> therefore of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. <sup>23</sup> For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity." <sup>24</sup> And Simon answered, "Pray for me<sup>63</sup> to the Lord, that nothing of what you have said may come upon me."

<sup>25</sup> Now when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

<sup>26</sup> But an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Rise and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is a desert road. <sup>27</sup> And he rose and went. And behold, an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a minister of the Can'dace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of all her treasure, had come to Jerusalem to worship <sup>28</sup> and was returning; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. <sup>29</sup> And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go up and join this chariot." <sup>30</sup> So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" <sup>31</sup> And he said, "How can I, unless some one guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. <sup>32</sup> Now the passage of the scripture which he was reading was this:

"As a sheep led to the slaughter or a lamb before its shearer is dumb,
so he opens not his mouth.

<sup>33</sup> In his humiliation justice was denied him.
Who can describe his generation?
For his life is taken up from the earth."

<sup>34</sup> And the eunuch said to Philip, "About whom, pray, does the prophet say this, about himself or about some one else?" <sup>35</sup> Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this scripture he told him the good news of Jesus. <sup>36</sup> And as they went along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "See, here is water! What is to prevent my being baptised?"

<sup>38</sup> And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptised him. <sup>39</sup> And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught up Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup> But Philip was found at Azo'tus, and passing on he preached the gospel to all the towns till he came to Caesare'a.

9:<sup>1</sup> But Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest <sup>2</sup> and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> Now as he journeyed he approached Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven flashed about him. <sup>4</sup> And he fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" <sup>5</sup> And he said, "Who are you, Lord?"<sup>64</sup> And he said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting; <sup>6</sup> but rise and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." <sup>7</sup> The men who were travelling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one. <sup>8</sup> Saul arose from the ground; and when his eyes were opened, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup> And for three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

<sup>10</sup> Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Anani'as. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Anani'as." And he said, "Here I am, Lord." <sup>11</sup> And the Lord said to him, "Rise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for a man of Tarsus named Saul; for behold, he is praying, <sup>12</sup> and he has seen a man named Anani'as come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." <sup>13</sup> But Anani'as answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to thy saints at Jerusalem; <sup>14</sup> and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call upon thy name." <sup>15</sup> But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen instrument of mine to carry my name before the Gentiles<sup>65</sup> and kings and the sons of Israel; <sup>16</sup> for I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." <sup>17</sup> So Anani'as departed and entered the house. And laying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." <sup>18</sup> And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes and he regained his sight. Then he rose and was baptised, <sup>19</sup> and took food and was strengthened.

For several days he was with the disciples at Damascus. <sup>20</sup> And in the synagogues immediately he proclaimed Jesus, saying, "He is the Son of God." <sup>21</sup> And all who heard him were amazed, and said, "Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem of those who called on this name? And he has come here for this purpose, to bring them bound before the chief priests." <sup>22</sup> But Saul increased all the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Christ.

<sup>23</sup> When many days had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him, <sup>24</sup> but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night, to kill him; <sup>25</sup> but his disciples took him by night and let him down over the wall, lowering him in a basket.

<sup>26</sup> And when he had come to Jerusalem he attempted to join the disciples; and they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup> But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how on the road he had seen the Lord, who spoke to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup> So he went in and out among them at Jerusalem, <sup>29</sup> preaching boldly in the name of the Lord. And he spoke and disputed against the Hellenists; but they were seeking to kill him. <sup>30</sup> And when the brethren knew it, they brought him down to Caesare'a, and sent him off to Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup> So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Sama'ria had peace and was built up; and walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit it was multiplied.

<sup>32</sup> Now as Peter went here and there among them all, he came down also to the saints that lived at Lydda. <sup>33</sup> There he found a man named Aene'as, who had been bedridden for eight years and was paralysed. <sup>34</sup> And Peter said to him, "Aene'as, Jesus Christ heals you; rise and make your bed." And immediately he rose. <sup>35</sup> And all the residents of Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> Now there was at Joppa a disciple named Tabitha, which means Dorcas. She was full of good works and acts of charity. <sup>37</sup> In those days she fell sick and died; and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. <sup>38</sup> Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him entreating him, "Please come to us without delay." <sup>39</sup> So Peter rose and went with them. And when he had come, they took him to the upper room. All the widows stood beside him weeping, and showing tunics and other garments which Dorcas made while she was with them. <sup>40</sup> But Peter put them all outside<sup>66</sup> and knelt down and prayed; then turning to the body he said, "Tabitha, rise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. <sup>41</sup> And he gave her his hand and lifted her up. Then calling the saints and widows<sup>67</sup> he presented her alive. <sup>42</sup> And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. <sup>43</sup> And he stayed in Joppa for many days with one Simon, a tanner.

10: At Caesare'a there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was known as the Italian Cohort, <sup>2</sup> a devout man who feared God with all his household, gave alms liberally to the people, and prayed constantly to God. <sup>3</sup> About the ninth hour of the day he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius." <sup>4</sup> And he stared at him in terror, and said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God. <sup>5</sup> And now send men to Joppa, and bring one Simon who is called Peter; <sup>6</sup> he is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside." <sup>7</sup> When the angel who spoke to him had departed, he called two of his servants and a devout soldier from among those that waited on him, <sup>8</sup> and having related everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

<sup>9</sup> The next day, as they were on their journey and coming near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. <sup>10</sup> And he became hungry and desired something to eat; but while they were preparing it, he fell into a trance <sup>11</sup> and saw the heaven opened, and something descending, like a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth. <sup>12</sup> In it were all kinds of animals and reptiles and birds of the air. <sup>13</sup> And there came a voice to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat." <sup>14</sup> But Peter said, "No, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean." <sup>15</sup> And the voice came to him again a second time, "What God has cleansed, you must not call common." <sup>16</sup> This happened three times, and the thing was taken up at once to heaven.

<sup>17</sup> Now while Peter was inwardly perplexed as to what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate <sup>18</sup> and called out to ask whether Simon who was called Peter was lodging there. <sup>19</sup> And while Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are looking for you. <sup>20</sup> Rise and go down, and accompany them without hesitation; for I have sent them." <sup>21</sup> And Peter went down to the men and said, "I am the one you are looking for; what is the reason for your coming?" <sup>22</sup> And they said, "Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man, who is well spoken of by the whole Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house, and to hear what you have to say." <sup>23</sup> So he called them in to be his guests.

The next day he rose and went off with them, and some of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him. <sup>24</sup> And on the following day they entered Caesare'a. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his kinsmen and close friends. <sup>25</sup> When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshipped him. <sup>26</sup> But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Stand up; I too am a man." <sup>27</sup> And as he talked with him, he went in and found many persons gathered; <sup>28</sup> and he said to them, "You yourselves know how unlawful it is for a Jew to associate with or to visit any one of another nation; but God has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean." <sup>29</sup> So when I was sent for, I came without objection. I ask then why you sent for me."

<sup>30</sup> And Cornelius said, "Four days ago, about this hour, I was keeping the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, a man stood before me in bright apparel, <sup>31</sup> saying, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your alms have been remembered before God. <sup>32</sup> Send therefore to Joppa and ask for Simon who is called Peter; he is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the seaside.' <sup>33</sup> So I sent to you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord."

<sup>34</sup> And Peter opened his mouth and said: "Truly I perceive that God shows no partiality, <sup>35</sup> but in every nation any one who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. <sup>36</sup> You know the word which he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all), <sup>37</sup> the word which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism which John preached: <sup>38</sup> how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power<sup>68</sup>; how he went about doing good<sup>69</sup> and healing all that were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. <sup>39</sup> And we are witnesses to all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; <sup>40</sup> but God raised him on the third day and made him manifest; <sup>41</sup> not to all the people but to us who were chosen beforehand<sup>70</sup> by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. <sup>42</sup> And he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that he is the one ordained by God to be judge of the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup> To him all the prophets bear witness that every one who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

<sup>44</sup> While Peter was still saying this, the Holy Spirit fell on<sup>71</sup> all who heard the word. <sup>45</sup> And the believers from among the circumcised who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. <sup>46</sup> For they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter declared, <sup>47</sup> "Can any one forbid water for baptising these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" <sup>48</sup> And he commanded them to be baptised<sup>72</sup> in<sup>73</sup> the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days.

11:<sub>1</sub> Now the apostles and the brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. <sub>2</sub> So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcision party criticised him, <sub>3</sub> saying, "Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?" <sub>4</sub> But Peter began and explained to them in order: <sub>5</sub> "I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, something descending, like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came down to me. <sub>6</sub> Looking at it closely I observed animals and beasts of prey and reptiles and birds of the air. <sub>7</sub> And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter; kill and eat.' <sub>8</sub> But I said, 'No, Lord; for nothing common or unclean has ever entered my mouth.' <sub>9</sub> But the voice answered a second time from heaven, 'What God has cleansed you must not call common.' <sub>10</sub> This happened three times, and all was drawn up again into heaven. <sub>11</sub> At that very moment three men arrived at the house in which we were, sent to me from Caesare'a. <sub>12</sub> And the Spirit told me to go with them, making no distinction. These six brethren also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. <sub>13</sub> And he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa and bring Simon called Peter; <sub>14</sub> he will declare to you a message by which you will be saved, you and all your household.' <sub>15</sub> As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on<sup>74</sup> them just as on us<sup>75</sup> at the beginning. <sub>16</sub> And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John baptised with water, but you shall be baptised with the Holy Spirit.' <sub>17</sub> If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could withstand God?" <sub>18</sub> When they heard this they were silenced. And they glorified God, saying, "Then to the Gentiles also God has granted repentance unto life."

<sub>19</sub> Now those who were scattered because of the persecution that arose over Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to none except Jews. <sub>20</sub> But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who on coming to Antioch spoke to the Greeks also, preaching the Lord Jesus. <sub>21</sub> And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number that believed turned to the Lord. <sub>22</sub> News of this came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. <sub>23</sub> When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad; and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose; <sub>24</sub> for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a large company was added to the Lord. <sub>25</sub> So Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul; <sub>26</sub> and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the church, and taught a large company of people; and in Antioch the disciples were for the first time called Christians.

<sub>27</sub> Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. <sub>28</sub> And one of them named Agabus stood up and foretold by the Spirit that there would be a great famine over all the world; and this took place in the days of Claudius. <sub>29</sub> And the disciples determined, every one according to his ability, to send relief to the brethren who lived in Judea; <sub>30</sub> and they did so, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

12:<sub>1</sub> About that time Herod the king laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. <sub>2</sub> He killed James the brother of John with the sword; <sub>3</sub> and when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread. <sub>4</sub> And when he had seized him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending after the Passover to bring him out to the people. <sup>5</sup> So Peter was kept in prison; but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church.

<sup>6</sup> The very night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries before the door were guarding the prison; <sup>7</sup> and behold, an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell; and he struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, "Get up quickly." And the chains fell off his hands. <sup>8</sup> And the angel said to him, "Dress yourself and put on your sandals." And he did so. And he said to him, "Wrap your mantle around you and follow me." <sup>9</sup> And he went out and followed him; he did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. <sup>10</sup> When they had passed the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened to them of its own accord, and they went out and passed on through one street; and immediately the angel left him. <sup>11</sup> And Peter came to himself, and said, "Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting."

<sup>12</sup> When he realised this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose other name was Mark, where many<sup>76</sup> were gathered together and were praying. <sup>13</sup> And when he knocked at the door of the gateway, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. <sup>14</sup> Recognising Peter's voice, in her joy she did not open the gate but ran in and told that Peter was standing at the gate. <sup>15</sup> They said to her, "You are mad." But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel!" <sup>16</sup> But Peter continued knocking; and when they opened, they saw him and were amazed. <sup>17</sup> But motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Tell this to James and to the brethren."<sup>77</sup> Then he departed and went to another place.

<sup>18</sup> Now when day came, there was no small stir among the soldiers over what had become of Peter. <sup>19</sup> And when Herod had sought for him and could not find him, he examined the sentries and ordered that they should be put to death<sup>78</sup>. Then he went down from Judea to Caesare'a, and remained there.

<sup>20</sup> Now Herod was angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon; and they came to him in a body, and having persuaded Blastus, the king's chamberlain, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food. <sup>21</sup> On an appointed day Herod put on his royal robes, took his seat upon the throne, and made an oration to them. <sup>22</sup> And the people shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of man!" <sup>23</sup> Immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he did not give God the glory<sup>79</sup>; and he was eaten by worms and died.

13:<sup>1</sup> Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers<sup>81</sup>, Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyre'ne, Man'a-en a member of the court of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. <sup>2</sup> While they<sup>82</sup> were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." <sup>3</sup> Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off<sup>83</sup>.

<sup>4</sup> So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleu'cia; and from there they sailed to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup> When they arrived at Sal'amis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John<sup>84</sup> to assist them. <sup>6</sup> When they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they came upon a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet, named Bar-Jesus. <sup>7</sup> He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of intelligence, who summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God. <sup>8</sup> But El'ymas the magician (for that is the meaning of his name) withstood them, seeking to turn away the proconsul from the faith. <sup>9</sup> But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him <sup>10</sup> and said, "You son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, full of all deceit and villainy, will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord?<sup>85</sup> <sup>11</sup> And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind and unable to see the sun for a time." Immediately mist and darkness fell upon him and he went about seeking people to lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup> Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had occurred, for he was astonished at the teaching<sup>86</sup> of the Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphyl'ia. And John left<sup>87</sup> them and returned to Jerusalem; <sup>14</sup> but they passed on from Perga and came to Antioch of Pisid'ia. And on the sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. <sup>15</sup> After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brethren, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say it." <sup>16</sup> So Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said:

"Men of Israel, and you that fear God, listen. <sup>17</sup> The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, and with uplifted arm he led them out of it. <sup>18</sup> And for about forty years he bore with them in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup> And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty years. <sup>20</sup> And after that he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup> Then they asked for a king; and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. <sup>22</sup> And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king; of whom he testified and said, 'I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will.'<sup>23</sup> Of this man's posterity God has brought to Israel a Saviour, Jesus, as he promised. <sup>24</sup> Before his coming John had preached a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. <sup>25</sup> And as John was finishing his course, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. No, but after me one is coming, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.'

<sup>26</sup> "Brethren, sons of the family of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us has been sent the message of this salvation. <sup>27</sup> For those who live in Jerusalem and their rulers, because they did not recognise him nor understand the utterances of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled these by condemning him. <sup>28</sup> Though they could charge him with nothing deserving death, yet they asked Pilate to have him killed. <sup>29</sup> And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. <sup>30</sup> But God raised him from the dead; <sup>31</sup> and for many days he appeared to those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people. <sup>32</sup> And we bring you the good news that what God promised to the fathers, <sup>33</sup> this he has fulfilled to us their children by raising Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, 'Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee.'

<sup>34</sup> And as for the fact that he raised him from the dead, no more to return to corruption, he spoke in this way,

'I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.'

<sup>35</sup> Therefore he says also in another psalm,

'Thou wilt not let thy Holy One see corruption.'

<sup>36</sup> For David, after he had served the counsel of God in his own generation, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw corruption; <sup>37</sup> but he whom God raised up saw no corruption. <sup>38</sup> Let it be known to you therefore, brethren, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, <sup>39</sup> and by him every one that believes is freed from everything from which you could not be freed<sup>88</sup> by the law of Moses. <sup>40</sup> Beware, therefore, lest there come upon you what is said in the prophets:

<sup>41</sup> 'Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish;
for I do a deed in your days,

a deed you will never believe, if one declares it to you.'"

<sup>42</sup> As they went out, the people begged that these things might be told them the next sabbath. <sup>43</sup> And when the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup> The next sabbath almost the whole city gathered together to hear the word of God. <sup>45</sup> But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted what was spoken by Paul, and reviled him. <sup>46</sup> And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup> For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, that you may bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth."

`I have set you to be a light for the Gentiles,

<sup>48</sup> And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of God; and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. <sup>49</sup> And the word of the Lord spread throughout all the region. <sup>50</sup> But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, and stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district. <sup>51</sup> But they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and went to Ico'nium. <sup>52</sup> And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14:<sup>1</sup> Now at Ico'nium they entered together into the Jewish synagogue, and so spoke that a great company believed, both of Jews and of Greeks. <sup>2</sup> But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brethren. <sup>3</sup> So they remained for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who bore witness to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. <sup>4</sup> But the people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles. <sup>5</sup> When an attempt was made by both Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to molest them and to stone them, <sup>6</sup> they learned of it and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycao'nia, and to the surrounding country; <sup>7</sup> and there they preached the gospel.

<sup>8</sup> Now at Lystra there was a man sitting, who could not use his feet; he was a cripple from birth, who had never walked. <sup>9</sup> He listened to Paul speaking; and Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well, <sup>10</sup> said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he sprang up and walked. <sup>11</sup> And when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in Lycao'nian, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" <sup>12</sup> Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, because he was the chief speaker, they called Hermes. <sup>13</sup> And the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates and wanted to offer sacrifice with the people. <sup>14</sup> But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their garments and rushed out among the multitude, crying, <sup>15</sup> "Men, why are you doing this? We also are men, of like nature with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to a living God who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them. <sup>16</sup> In past generations he allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways; <sup>17</sup> yet he did not leave himself without witness, for he did good and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, satisfying your hearts with food and gladness." <sup>18</sup> With these words they scarcely restrained the people from offering sacrifice to them.

<sup>19</sup> But Jews came there from Antioch and Ico'nium; and having persuaded the people, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. <sup>20</sup> But when the disciples gathered about him, he rose up and entered the city; and on the next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>21</sup> When they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Ico'nium and to Antioch, <sup>22</sup> strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations<sup>89</sup> we must enter the kingdom of God. <sup>23</sup> And when they had appointed elders<sup>90</sup> for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they believed.

<sup>24</sup> Then they passed through Pisid'ia, and came to Pamphyl'ia. <sup>25</sup> And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attali'a; <sup>26</sup> and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. <sup>27</sup> And when they arrived, they gathered the church together and declared all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. <sup>28</sup> And they remained no little time with the disciples.

15:<sup>1</sup> But some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brethren, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." <sup>2</sup> And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and the elders about this question. <sup>3</sup> So, being sent on their way by the church, they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, reporting the conversion of the Gentiles, and they gave great joy to all the brethren. <sup>4</sup> When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they declared all that God had done with them. <sup>5</sup> But some believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees<sup>92</sup> rose up, and said, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and<sup>93</sup> to charge them to keep the law of Moses."

<sup>6</sup> The apostles and the elders<sup>94</sup> were gathered together to consider this matter. <sup>7</sup> And after there had been much debate, Peter rose and said to them, "Brethren, you know that in the early days God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. <sup>8</sup> And God who knows the heart bore witness to them, giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us; <sup>9</sup> and he made no distinction<sup>95</sup> between us and them, but cleansed<sup>96</sup> their hearts by faith. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore why do you make trial of God by putting a yoke<sup>97</sup> upon the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we<sup>98</sup> have been able to bear? <sup>11</sup> But we believe that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will."

<sup>12</sup> And all the assembly kept silence; and they listened to Barnabas and Paul as they related what signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles. <sup>13</sup> After they finished speaking, James replied, "Brethren, listen to me. <sup>14</sup> Simeon has related how God first visited the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. <sup>15</sup> And with this the words of the prophets agree, as it is written,

<sup>16</sup> After this I will return,
and I will rebuild the dwelling of David<sup>99</sup>, which has fallen;
I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up<sup>100</sup>,

and all the Gentiles who are called by my name,

<sup>19</sup> Therefore my judgement is that we should not trouble those of the Gentiles who turn to God, <sup>20</sup> but should write to them to abstain from the pollutions of idols and from unchastity and from what is strangled and from blood<sup>102</sup>. <sup>21</sup> For from early generations Moses has had in every city those who preach him, for he is read every sabbath in the synagogues."

<sup>22</sup> Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church<sup>103</sup>, to choose men from among them and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brethren, <sup>23</sup> with the following letter: "The brethren, both the apostles and the elders<sup>104</sup>, to the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting. <sup>24</sup> Since we have heard that some persons from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your minds, although we gave them no instructions, <sup>25</sup> it has seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup> men who have risked their lives for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup> We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who themselves will tell you the same things by word of mouth. <sup>28</sup> For it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup> that you abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from unchastity. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell."

<sup>30</sup> So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch; and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup> And when they read it, they rejoiced at the exhortation. <sup>32</sup> And Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, exhorted the brethren with many words and strengthened them. <sup>33</sup> And after they had spent some time, they were sent off in peace by the brethren to those who had sent them. <sup>35</sup> But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

<sup>36</sup> And after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Come, let us return and visit the brethren in every city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they are." <sup>37</sup> And Barnabas wanted to take with them John called Mark<sup>105</sup>. <sup>38</sup> But Paul thought best not to take with them one who had withdrawn from them in Pamphyl'ia, and had not gone with them to the work. <sup>39</sup> And there arose a sharp contention, so that they separated from each other; Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus, <sup>40</sup> but Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended by the brethren to the grace of the Lord. <sup>41</sup> And he went through Syria and Cili'cia, strengthening the churches.

16: <sup>1</sup> And he came also to Derbe and to Lystra. A disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer; but his father was a Greek. <sup>2</sup> He was well spoken of by the brethren at Lystra and Ico'nium. <sup>3</sup> Paul wanted Timothy to accompany him; and he took him and circumcised<sup>106</sup> him because of the Jews that were in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. <sup>4</sup> As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered to them for observance the decisions which had been reached by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and they increased in numbers daily.

<sup>6</sup> And they went through the region of Phry'gia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. <sup>7</sup> And when they had come opposite My'sia, they attempted to go into Bithyn'ia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them; <sup>8</sup> so, passing by My'sia, they went down to Tro'as<sup>107</sup>. <sup>9</sup> And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedo'nia was standing beseeching him and saying, "Come over to Macedo'nia and help us." <sup>10</sup> And when he had seen the vision, immediately we<sup>108</sup> sought to go on into Macedo'nia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

<sup>11</sup> Setting sail therefore from Tro'as, we made a direct voyage to Sam'othrace, and the following day to Ne-ap'olis, <sup>12</sup> and from there to Philip'pi, which is the leading city of the district of Macedo'nia, and a Roman colony. We remained in this city some days; <sup>13</sup> and on the sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. <sup>14</sup> One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyati'ra, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshipper of God. The Lord opened her heart to give heed to what was said by Paul. <sup>15</sup> And when she was baptised, with her household, she besought us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." And she prevailed upon us.

<sup>16</sup> As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by soothsaying. <sup>17</sup> She followed Paul and us, crying, "These men<sup>109</sup> are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." <sup>18</sup> And this she did for many days. But Paul was annoyed, and turned and said to the spirit, "I charge you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour.

<sup>19</sup> But when her owners saw that their hope of gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market place before the rulers; <sup>20</sup> and when they had brought them to the magistrates they said, "These men are Jews and they are disturbing our city. <sup>21</sup>

<sup>106</sup>Why in view of Gal 5:2-3; Gal 2:3; Rom 2:26? Probably because of 1 Cor 9:20. This principle would eventually get Paul arrested at Jerusalem (Acts 21:24-27)

<sup>107</sup>This shows that Paul generally used his initiative within his sphere of authority, but checked it out with the Lord

They advocate customs which it is not lawful for us Romans to accept or practice." <sup>22</sup> The crowd joined in attacking them; and the magistrates tore the garments off them and gave orders to beat them with rods. <sup>23</sup> And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, charging the gaoler to keep them safely. <sup>24</sup> Having received this charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

<sup>25</sup> But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them, <sup>26</sup> and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and every one's fetters were unfastened. <sup>27</sup> When the gaoler woke and saw that the prison doors were open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. <sup>28</sup> But Paul cried with a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here." <sup>29</sup> And he called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas, <sup>30</sup> and brought them out and said, "Men, what must I do to be saved?" <sup>31</sup> And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." <sup>32</sup> And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all that were in his house. <sup>33</sup> And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their wounds, and he was baptised at once<sup>110</sup>, with all his family<sup>111</sup>. <sup>34</sup> Then he brought them up into his house, and set food before them; and he rejoiced with all his household that he had believed in God.

<sup>35</sup> But when it was day, the magistrates sent the police, saying, "Let those men go." <sup>36</sup> And the gaoler reported the words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out and go in peace." <sup>37</sup> But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men who are Roman citizens, and have thrown us into prison; and do they now cast us out secretly? No! let them come themselves and take us out." <sup>38</sup> The police reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Roman citizens; <sup>39</sup> so they came and apologised to them. And they took them out and asked them to leave the city. <sup>40</sup> So they went out of the prison, and visited Lydia; and when they had seen the brethren, they exhorted them and departed.

17:<sup>1</sup> Now when they had passed through Amphip'olis and Apollo'nia, they came to Thessaloni'ca, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. <sup>2</sup> And Paul went in, as was his custom, and for three weeks he argued with them from the scriptures, <sup>3</sup> explaining and proving that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ." <sup>4</sup> And some of them were persuaded<sup>112</sup>, and joined Paul and Silas; as did a great many of the devout Greeks and not a few of the leading women. <sup>5</sup> But the Jews were jealous<sup>113</sup>, and taking some wicked fellows of the rabble, they gathered a crowd, set the city in an uproar, and attacked the house of Jason, seeking to bring them out to the people. <sup>6</sup> And when they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brethren before the city authorities, crying, "These men who have turned the world upside down have come here also, <sup>7</sup> and Jason has received them; and they are all acting against the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus."<sup>114</sup> <sup>8</sup> And the people and the city authorities were disturbed when they heard this. <sup>9</sup> And when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

<sup>16</sup> Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw that the city was full of idols.<sup>17</sup> So he argued in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the market place every day with those who chanced to be there.<sup>18</sup> Some also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers met him. And some said, "What would this babbler say?" Others said, "He seems to be a preacher of foreign divinities"-- because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.<sup>19</sup> And they took hold of him and brought him to the Are-op'agus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is which you present?"<sup>20</sup> For you bring some strange things to our ears; we wish to know therefore what these things mean."<sup>21</sup> Now all the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there spent their time in nothing except telling or hearing something new.

<sup>22</sup> So Paul, standing in the middle of the Are-op'agus, said: "Men of Athens, I perceive that in every way you are very religious.<sup>23</sup> For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, 'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you.<sup>24</sup> The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by man,<sup>25</sup> nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all men life and breath and everything.<sup>26</sup> And he made from one every nation of men to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their habitation,<sup>27</sup> that they should seek God<sup>125</sup>, in the hope that they might feel after him and find him<sup>126</sup>. <sup>29</sup> Being then God's offspring, we ought not to think that the Deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, a representation by the art and imagination of man<sup>128</sup>.<sup>30</sup> The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands<sup>129</sup> all men everywhere to repent,<sup>31</sup> because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness<sup>130</sup> by a man<sup>131</sup> whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all men by raising him from the dead."

<sup>32</sup> Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We will hear you again about this."<sup>33</sup> So Paul went out from among them.<sup>34</sup> But some

18:<sup>1</sup> After this he left Athens and went to Corinth. <sup>2</sup> And he found a Jew named Aq'uila, a native of Pontus, lately come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. And he went to see them; <sup>3</sup> and because he was of the same trade he stayed with them, and they worked, for by trade they were tentmakers. <sup>4</sup> And he argued in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks.

<sup>5</sup> When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedo'nia, Paul was occupied with preaching, testifying to the Jews that the Christ was Jesus. <sup>6</sup> And when they opposed and reviled him, he shook out his garments and said to them, "Your blood be upon your heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles." <sup>7</sup> And he left there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshipper of God; his house was next door to the synagogue. <sup>8</sup> Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord, together with all his household; and many of the Corinthians hearing Paul believed and were baptised. <sup>9</sup> And the Lord said to Paul one night in a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent; <sup>10</sup> for I am with you, and no man shall attack you to harm you; for I have many people in this city." <sup>11</sup> And he stayed a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

<sup>12</sup> But when Gallio was proconsul of Acha'ia, the Jews made a united attack upon Paul and brought him before the tribunal, <sup>13</sup> saying, "This man is persuading men to worship God contrary to the law." <sup>14</sup> But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or vicious crime, I should have reason to bear with you, O Jews; <sup>15</sup> but since it is a matter of questions about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves; I refuse to be a judge of these things." <sup>16</sup> And he drove them from the tribunal. <sup>17</sup> And they all seized Sos'thenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the tribunal. But Gallio paid no attention to this.

<sup>18</sup> After this Paul stayed many days longer, and then took leave of the brethren and sailed for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aq'uila. At Cen'chre-ae he cut his hair<sup>132</sup>, for he had a vow. <sup>19</sup> And they came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself went into the synagogue and argued with the Jews. <sup>20</sup> When they asked him to stay for a longer period, he declined; <sup>21</sup> but on taking leave of them he said, "I will return to you if God wills," and he set sail from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup> When he had landed at Caesare'a, he went up and greeted the church, and then went down to Antioch. <sup>23</sup> After spending some time there he departed and went from place to place through the region of Galatia and Phryg'ia, strengthening all the disciples.

<sup>24</sup> Now a Jew named Apol'los, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, well versed in the scriptures. <sup>25</sup> He had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup> He began to speak boldly in the synagogue; but when Priscilla<sup>133</sup> and Aq'uila heard him, they<sup>134</sup> took him and expounded to him the way of God more accurately. <sup>27</sup> And when he wished to cross to Acha'ia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who through grace had believed, <sup>28</sup> for he powerfully confuted the Jews in public, showing by the scriptures that the Christ was Jesus.

19:<sup>1</sup> While Apol'los was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. <sup>2</sup> And he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" And they said, "No, we have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." <sup>3</sup> And he said, "Into what then were you baptised?" They said, "Into John's baptism." <sup>4</sup> And Paul said, "John baptised with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus." <sup>5</sup> On hearing this, they were baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus<sup>135</sup>. <sup>6</sup> And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with tongues and prophesied. <sup>7</sup> There were about twelve of them in all.

<sup>8</sup> And he entered the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, arguing and pleading about the kingdom of God; <sup>9</sup> but when some<sup>136</sup> were stubborn and disbelieved, speaking evil of the Way before the congregation, he withdrew<sup>137</sup> from them, taking the disciples with him, and argued daily in the hall of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup> This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>11</sup> And God did extraordinary miracles by the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup> so that handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and diseases left them and the evil spirits came out of them. <sup>13</sup> Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists undertook to pronounce the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches." <sup>14</sup> Seven sons<sup>138</sup> of a Jewish high priest named Sceva were doing this. <sup>15</sup> But the evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know (of); but who are you?" <sup>16</sup> And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, mastered all of them, and overpowered them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup> And this became known to all residents of Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks; and fear fell upon them all; and the name of the Lord Jesus was extolled. <sup>18</sup> Many also of those who were now believers came, confessing and divulging their practices. <sup>19</sup> And a number of those who practiced magic arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all; and they counted the value of them and found it came to fifty thousand pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup> So the word of the Lord grew and prevailed mightily.

<sup>28</sup> When they heard this they were enraged, and cried out, "Great is Ar'temis of the Ephesians!" <sup>29</sup> So the city was filled with the confusion; and they rushed together into the theatre, dragging with them Ga'ius and Aristar'chus, Macedo'nians who were Paul's companions in travel. <sup>30</sup> Paul wished to go in among the crowd, but the disciples would not let him; <sup>31</sup> some of the A'si-archs also, who were friends of his, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theatre. <sup>32</sup> Now some cried one thing, some another; for the assembly was in confusion, and most of them did not know why they had come together. <sup>33</sup> Some of the crowd prompted Alexander, whom the Jews had put forward. And Alexander motioned with his hand, wishing to make a defence to the people. <sup>34</sup> But when they recognised that he was a Jew, for about two hours they all with one voice cried out, "Great is Ar'temis of the Ephesians!" <sup>35</sup> And when the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great Ar'temis, and of the sacred stone that fell from the sky? <sup>36</sup> Seeing then that these things cannot be contradicted, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rash. <sup>37</sup> For you have brought these men here who are neither sacrilegious nor blasphemers of our goddess<sup>142</sup>. <sup>38</sup> If therefore Deme'trius and the craftsmen with him have a complaint against any one, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls; let them bring charges against one another. <sup>39</sup> But if you seek anything further, it shall be settled in the regular assembly. <sup>40</sup> For we are in danger of

<sup>7</sup> On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and he prolonged his speech until midnight. <sup>8</sup> There were many lights in the upper chamber where we were gathered. <sup>9</sup> And a young man named Eu'tychus was sitting in the window. He sank into a deep sleep as Paul talked still longer; and being overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead. <sup>10</sup> But Paul went down and bent over him, and embracing him said, "Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him." <sup>11</sup> And when Paul had gone up and had broken bread and eaten, he conversed with them a long while, until daybreak, and so departed. <sup>12</sup> And they took the lad away alive, and were not a little comforted.

<sup>13</sup> But going ahead to the ship, we set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there; for so he had arranged, intending himself to go by land. <sup>14</sup> And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mityle'ne. <sup>15</sup> And sailing from there we came the following day opposite Chi'os; the next day we touched at Samos; and the day after that we came to Mile'tus. <sup>16</sup> For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

<sup>17</sup> And from Mile'tus he sent to Ephesus and called to him the elders of the church. <sup>18</sup> And when they came to him, he said to them:

"You yourselves know how I lived among you all the time from the first day that I set foot in Asia, <sup>19</sup> serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and with trials which befell me through the plots of the Jews; <sup>20</sup> how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you in public and from house to house, <sup>21</sup> testifying both to Jews and to Greeks of repentance to God<sup>143</sup> and of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> And now, behold, I am going to Jerusalem, bound in the Spirit<sup>144</sup>, not knowing what shall befall me there; <sup>23</sup> except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and afflictions await me. <sup>24</sup> But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may accomplish my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God. <sup>25</sup> And now, behold, I know that all you among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom will see my face no more. <sup>26</sup> Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all of you, <sup>27</sup> for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. <sup>28</sup> Take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God which he obtained with the blood of his own Son. <sup>29</sup> I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; <sup>30</sup> and from among your own selves will arise men speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. <sup>31</sup> Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to admonish every one with tears. <sup>32</sup> And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance<sup>145</sup> among all those who are sanctified. <sup>33</sup> I coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel. <sup>34</sup> You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to those who were with me. <sup>35</sup> In all things I have shown you that by so toiling one must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

<sup>36</sup> And when he had spoken thus, he knelt down and prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup> And they all wept and embraced Paul and kissed him, <sup>38</sup> sorrowing most of all because of the word he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they brought him to the ship.

21:<sup>1</sup> And when we had parted from them and set sail, we came by a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Pat'ara. <sup>2</sup> And having found a ship crossing to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. <sup>3</sup> When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload its cargo. <sup>4</sup> And having sought out the disciples, we stayed there for seven days. Through the Spirit<sup>146</sup> they told Paul not<sup>147</sup> to go on to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> And when our days there were ended, we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, brought us on our way till we were outside the city; and kneeling down on the beach we prayed and bade one another farewell. <sup>6</sup> Then we went on board the ship, and they returned home.

<sup>7</sup> When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we greeted the brethren and stayed with them for one day. <sup>8</sup> On the morrow we departed and came to Caesarea; and we entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. <sup>9</sup> And he had four unmarried daughters, who prophesied. <sup>10</sup> While we were staying for some days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. <sup>11</sup> And coming to us he took Paul's girdle and bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit<sup>148</sup>, 'So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this girdle and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'<sup>149</sup>" <sup>12</sup> When we heard this, we<sup>150</sup> and the people there begged him not<sup>151</sup> to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be imprisoned but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." <sup>14</sup> And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased and said, "The will of the Lord be done."<sup>152</sup>

<sup>17</sup> When we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. <sup>18</sup> On the following day Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup> After greeting them, he related one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. <sup>20</sup> And when they heard it, they glorified God. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed; they are all zealous for the law<sup>153</sup>, <sup>21</sup> and they have been told about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise<sup>154</sup> their children or observe the customs<sup>155</sup>. <sup>22</sup> What then is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come. <sup>23</sup> Do therefore what we<sup>156</sup> tell you. We have four men who are under a vow<sup>157</sup>; <sup>24</sup> take these men and purify yourself along with them and pay their expenses, so that they may shave their heads. Thus all will know that there is nothing in what they have been told about you but that you yourself live in observance of the law<sup>158</sup>. <sup>25</sup> But as for the Gentiles who have believed, we have sent a letter with our judgement that they should abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from unchastity." <sup>26</sup> Then Paul<sup>159</sup> took the men, and the next day he purified himself with them<sup>160</sup> and went into the temple, to give notice when the days of purification would be fulfilled and the offering<sup>161</sup> presented for every one of them.

<sup>27</sup> When the seven days were almost<sup>162</sup> completed, the Jews from Asia, who had seen him in the temple, stirred up all the crowd, and laid hands on him, <sup>28</sup> crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who is teaching men everywhere against the people and the law and this place<sup>163</sup>; moreover he also brought Greeks into the temple, and he has defiled this holy place." <sup>29</sup> For they had previously seen Troph'imus the Ephesian with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple. <sup>30</sup> Then all the city was aroused, and the people ran together; they seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and at once the gates were shut. <sup>31</sup> And as they were trying to kill him, word came to the tribune of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion. <sup>32</sup> He at once took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them; and when they saw the tribune and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. <sup>33</sup> Then the tribune came up and arrested him, and ordered him to be bound with two chains. He inquired who he was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup> Some in the crowd shouted one thing, some another; and as he could not learn the facts because of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into the barracks. <sup>35</sup> And when he came to the steps, he was actually carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd; <sup>36</sup> for the mob of the people followed, crying, "Away with him!"

<sup>37</sup> As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the tribune, "May I say something to you?" And he said, "Do you know Greek? <sup>38</sup> Are you not the Egyptian, then, who recently stirred up a revolt and led the four thousand men of the Assassins out into the wilderness?" <sup>39</sup> Paul replied, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cili'cia, a citizen of no mean city; I beg you, let me speak to the people." <sup>40</sup> And when he had given him leave, Paul, standing on the steps, motioned with his hand to the people; and when there was a great hush, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying:

<sup>2</sup> And when they heard that he addressed them in the Hebrew language, they were the more quiet. And he said:

<sup>3</sup> "I am a Jew, born at Tarsus in Cili'cia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gama'li-el, educated according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous<sup>164</sup> for God as you all are this day. <sup>4</sup> I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering to prison both men and women, <sup>5</sup> as the high priest and the whole council of elders bear me witness. From them I received letters to the brethren, and I journeyed to Damascus to take those also who were there and bring them in bonds to Jerusalem to be punished.

<sup>6</sup> "As I made my journey and drew near to Damascus, about noon a great light from heaven suddenly shone about me. <sup>7</sup> And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' <sup>8</sup> And I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth whom you are persecuting.' <sup>9</sup> Now those who were with me saw the light but did not hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me. <sup>10</sup> And I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Rise, and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all that is appointed for you to do.' <sup>11</sup> And when I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me, and came into Damascus.

<sup>12</sup> "And one Anani'as, a devout man according to the law, well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there, <sup>13</sup> came to me, and standing by me said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And in that very hour I received my sight and saw him. <sup>14</sup> And he said, 'The God of our fathers appointed you 1) to know his will, 2) to see the Just One and 3) to hear a voice from his mouth; <sup>15</sup> for you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and

<sup>17</sup> "When I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance<sup>167</sup> <sup>18</sup> and saw him saying to me, 'Make haste and get quickly out of Jerusalem, because they will not accept your testimony about me.' <sup>19</sup> And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believed in thee. <sup>20</sup> And when the blood of Stephen thy witness was shed, I also was standing by and approving, and keeping the garments of those who killed him.' <sup>21</sup> And he said to me, 'Depart; for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

<sup>22</sup> Up to this word they listened to him; then they lifted up their voices and said, "Away with such a fellow from the earth! For he ought not to live." <sup>23</sup> And as they cried out and waved their garments and threw dust into the air, <sup>24</sup> the tribune commanded him to be brought into the barracks, and ordered him to be examined by scourging, to find out why they shouted thus against him. <sup>25</sup> But when they had tied him up with the thongs, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman citizen, and uncondemned?" <sup>26</sup> When the centurion heard that, he went to the tribune and said to him, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman citizen." <sup>27</sup> So the tribune came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" And he said, "Yes." <sup>28</sup> The tribune answered, "I bought this citizenship for a large sum." Paul said, "But I was born a citizen." <sup>29</sup> So those who were about to examine him withdrew from him instantly; and the tribune also was afraid, for he realised that Paul was a Roman citizen and that he had bound him.

<sup>30</sup> But on the morrow, desiring to know the real reason why the Jews accused him, he unbound him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to meet, and he brought Paul down and set him before them.

23:<sup>1</sup> And Paul, looking intently at the council, said, "Brethren, I have lived before God in all good conscience up to this day." <sup>2</sup> And the high priest Anani'as commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. <sup>3</sup> Then Paul said to him, "God shall strike you, you whitewashed wall! Are you sitting to judge me according to the law, and yet contrary to the law you order me to be struck?" <sup>4</sup> Those who stood by said, "Would you revile God's high priest?" <sup>5</sup> And Paul said, "I did not know, brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"

<sup>6</sup> But when Paul perceived that one part were Sad'ducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Brethren, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; with respect to the hope and the resurrection of the dead I am on trial." <sup>7</sup> And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sad'ducees; and the assembly was divided. <sup>8</sup> For the Sad'ducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees acknowledge them all. <sup>9</sup> Then a great clamour arose; and some of the scribes of the Pharisees' party stood up and contended, "We find nothing wrong in this man. What if a spirit or an angel spoke to him?" <sup>10</sup> And when the dissension became violent, the tribune, afraid that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them and bring him into the barracks.

<sup>11</sup> The following night the Lord stood by him and said, "Take courage, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must bear witness also at Rome."

<sup>12</sup> When it was day, the Jews made a plot and bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. <sup>13</sup> There were more than forty who made this conspiracy. <sup>14</sup> And they went to the chief priests and elders, and said, "We have strictly bound ourselves by an oath to taste no food till we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup> You therefore, along with the council, give notice now to the tribune to bring him down to you, as though you were going to determine his case more exactly. And we are ready to kill him before he comes near."

<sup>16</sup> Now the son of Paul's sister heard of their ambush; so he went and entered the barracks and told Paul. <sup>17</sup> And Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the tribune; for he has something to tell him." <sup>18</sup> So he took him and brought him to the tribune and said, "Paul the prisoner called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, as he has something to say to you." <sup>19</sup> The tribune took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?" <sup>20</sup> And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire somewhat more closely about him. <sup>21</sup> But do not yield to them; for more than forty of their men lie in ambush for him, having bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you." <sup>22</sup> So the tribune dismissed the young man, charging him, "Tell no one that you have informed me of this."

<sup>23</sup> Then he called two of the centurions and said, "At the third hour of the night get ready two hundred soldiers with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen to go as far as Caesare'a. <sup>24</sup> Also provide mounts for Paul to ride, and bring him safely to Felix the governor." <sup>25</sup> And he wrote a letter to this effect:

<sup>26</sup> "Claudius Lys'ias to his Excellency the governor Felix, greeting. <sup>27</sup> This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I came upon them with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman citizen. <sup>28</sup> And desiring to know the charge on which they accused him, I brought him down to their council. <sup>29</sup> I found that he was accused about questions of their law, but charged with nothing deserving death or imprisonment. <sup>30</sup> And when it was disclosed to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, ordering his accusers also to state before you what they have against him."

<sup>31</sup> So the soldiers, according to their instructions, took Paul and brought him by night to Antip'atris. <sup>32</sup> And on the morrow they returned to the barracks, leaving the horsemen to go on with him. <sup>33</sup> When they came to Caesare'a and delivered the letter to the governor, they presented Paul also before him. <sup>34</sup> On reading the letter, he asked to what province he belonged. When he learned that he was from Cili'cia <sup>35</sup> he said, "I will hear you when your accusers arrive." And he commanded him to be guarded in Herod's praetorium.

24:<sup>1</sup> And after five days the high priest Anani'as came down with some elders and a spokesman, one Tertul'lus. They laid before the governor their case against Paul; <sup>2</sup> and when he was called, Tertul'lus began to accuse him, saying: "Since through you we enjoy much peace, and since by your provision, most excellent Felix, reforms are introduced on behalf of this nation, <sup>3</sup> in every way and everywhere we accept this with all gratitude. <sup>4</sup> But, to detain you no further, I beg you in your kindness to hear us briefly. <sup>5</sup> For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, an agitator among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. <sup>6</sup> He even tried to profane the temple, but we seized him. <sup>8</sup> By examining him yourself you will be able to learn from him about everything of which we accuse him."

<sup>9</sup> The Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that all this was so.

<sup>10</sup> And when the governor had motioned to him to speak, Paul replied:

"Realising that for many years you have been judge over this nation, I cheerfully make my defence. <sup>11</sup> As you may ascertain, it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem; <sup>12</sup> and they did not find me disputing with any one or stirring up a crowd, either in the temple or in the synagogues, or in the city. <sup>13</sup> Neither can they prove to you what they now bring up against me. <sup>14</sup> But this I admit to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the law or written in the prophets, <sup>15</sup> having a hope in God which these themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust. <sup>16</sup> So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward God and toward men. <sup>17</sup> Now after some years I came to bring to my nation alms and offerings. <sup>18</sup> As I was doing this, they found me purified in the temple, without any crowd or tumult. But some Jews from Asia-- <sup>19</sup> they ought to be here before you and to make an accusation, if they have anything against me. <sup>20</sup> Or else let these men themselves say what wrongdoing they found when I stood before the council, <sup>21</sup> except this one thing which I cried out while standing among them, 'With respect to the resurrection of the dead I am on trial before you this day.'"

<sup>22</sup> But Felix, having a rather accurate knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, "When Lys'ias the tribune comes down, I will decide your case." <sup>23</sup> Then he gave orders to the centurion that he should be kept in custody but should have some liberty, and that none of his friends should be prevented from attending to his needs.

<sup>24</sup> After some days Felix came with his wife Drusil'la, who was a Jewess; and he sent for Paul and heard him speak upon faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup> And as he argued about justice and self-control and future judgement, Felix was alarmed and said, "Go away for the present; when I have an opportunity I will summon you." <sup>26</sup> At the same time he hoped that money would be given him by Paul. So he sent for him often and conversed with him. <sup>27</sup> But when two years had elapsed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and desiring to do the Jews a favour, Felix left Paul in prison.

<sup>6</sup> When he had stayed among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesare'a; and the next day he took his seat on the tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought. <sup>7</sup> And when he had come, the Jews who had gone down from Jerusalem stood about him, bringing against him many serious charges which they could not prove. <sup>8</sup> Paul said in his defence, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I offended at all." <sup>9</sup> But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favour, said to Paul, "Do you wish to go up to Jerusalem, and there be tried on these charges before me?" <sup>10</sup> But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's tribunal, where I ought to be tried; to the Jews I have done no wrong, as you know very well. <sup>11</sup> If then I am a wrongdoer, and have committed anything for which I deserve to die, I do not seek to escape death; but if there is nothing in their charges against me, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar." <sup>12</sup> Then Festus, when he had conferred with his council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you shall go."

<sup>23</sup> So on the morrow Agrippa and Berni'ce came with great pomp, and they entered the audience hall with the military tribunes and the prominent men of the city. Then by command of Festus Paul was brought in. <sup>24</sup> And Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Jewish people petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup> But I found that he had done nothing deserving death; and as he himself appealed to the emperor, I decided to send him. <sup>26</sup> But I have nothing definite to write to my lord about him. Therefore I have brought him before you, and, especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after we have examined him, I may have something to write. <sup>27</sup> For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to indicate the charges against him."

<sup>2</sup> "I think myself fortunate that it is before you, King Agrippa, I am to make my defence today against all the accusations of the Jews, <sup>3</sup> because you are especially familiar with all customs and controversies of the Jews; therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.

<sup>4</sup> "My manner of life from my youth, spent from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem, is known by all the Jews. <sup>5</sup> They have known for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that according to the strictest party of our religion I have lived as a Pharisee. <sup>6</sup> And now I stand here on trial for hope in the promise made by God to our fathers, <sup>7</sup> to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day. And for this hope I am accused by Jews, O king! <sup>8</sup> Why is it thought incredible by any of you that God raises the dead?"

<sup>9</sup> "I myself was convinced that I ought to do many things in opposing the name of Jesus of Nazareth. <sup>10</sup> And I did so in Jerusalem; I not only shut up many of the saints in prison, by authority from the chief priests, but when they were put to death I cast my vote against them. <sup>11</sup> And I punished them often in all the synagogues and tried to make them blaspheme; and in raging fury against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

<sup>12</sup> "Thus I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. <sup>13</sup> At midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining round me and those who journeyed with me. <sup>14</sup> And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It hurts you to kick against the goads.' <sup>15</sup> And I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. <sup>16</sup> But rise and stand upon your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you to serve and bear witness to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you, <sup>17</sup> delivering you from the people and from the Gentiles-- to whom I send you <sup>18</sup> to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

<sup>19</sup> "Wherefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, <sup>20</sup> but declared first to those at Damascus, then at Jerusalem and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God and perform deeds worthy of their repentance. <sup>21</sup> For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me. <sup>22</sup> To this day I have had the help that comes from God, and so I stand here testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would come to pass: <sup>23</sup> that the Christ must suffer, and that, by being the first to rise from the dead, he would proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles."

<sup>24</sup> And as he thus made his defence, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are mad; your great learning is turning you mad." <sup>25</sup> But Paul said, "I am not mad, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking the sober truth. <sup>26</sup> For the king knows about these things, and to him I speak freely; for I am persuaded that none of these things has escaped his notice, for this was not done in a corner. <sup>27</sup> King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe." <sup>28</sup> And Agrippa said to Paul, "In a short time you think to make me a Christian!" <sup>29</sup> And Paul said, "Whether short or long, I would to God that not only you but also all who hear me this day might become such as I am-- except for these chains."

<sup>30</sup> Then the king rose, and the governor and Bernice and those who were sitting with them; <sup>31</sup> and when they had withdrawn, they said to one another, "This man is doing nothing to deserve death or imprisonment." <sup>32</sup> And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

27:<sup>1</sup> And when it was decided that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan Cohort, named Julius. <sup>2</sup> And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to the ports along the coast of Asia, we put to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica. <sup>3</sup> The next day we put in at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him leave to go to his friends and be cared for. <sup>4</sup> And putting to sea from there we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were against us. <sup>5</sup> And when we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra in Lycia. <sup>6</sup> There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and put us on board. <sup>7</sup> We sailed slowly for a number of days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, and as the wind did not allow us to go on, we sailed under the lee of Crete off Salmone. <sup>8</sup> Coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near which was the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup> As much time had been lost, and the voyage was already dangerous because the fast had already gone by, Paul advised them, <sup>10</sup> saying, "Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives." <sup>11</sup> But the centurion paid more attention to the captain and to the owner of the ship than to what Paul said. <sup>12</sup> And because the harbour was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to put to sea from there, on the chance that somehow they could reach Phoenix, a harbour of Crete, looking northeast and southeast, and winter there.

<sup>13</sup> And when the south wind blew gently, supposing that they had obtained their purpose<sup>168</sup>, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close inshore. <sup>14</sup> But soon a tempestuous wind, called the northeaster, struck down from the land; <sup>15</sup> and when the ship was caught and could not face the wind, we gave way to it and were driven<sup>169</sup>.<sup>16</sup> And running under the lee of a small island called Cauda, we managed with difficulty to secure the boat; <sup>17</sup> after hoisting it up, they took measures to undergird the ship; then, fearing that they should run on the Syr'tis, they lowered the gear, and so were driven. <sup>18</sup> As we were violently storm-tossed, they began next day to throw the cargo overboard; <sup>19</sup> and the third day they cast out with their own hands the tackle of the ship. <sup>20</sup> And when neither sun nor stars appeared for many a day, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope of our being saved was at last abandoned.

<sup>21</sup> As they had been long without food, Paul then<sup>170</sup> came forward among them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me, and should not have set sail from Crete and incurred this injury and loss. <sup>22</sup> I now bid you take heart; for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. <sup>23</sup> For this very night there stood by me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship, <sup>24</sup> and he said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar; and lo, God has granted you all those who sail with you.' <sup>25</sup> So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told. <sup>26</sup> But we shall have to run on some island."

<sup>27</sup> When the fourteenth night had come, as we were drifting across the sea of A'dria, about midnight the sailors suspected that they were nearing land. <sup>28</sup> So they sounded and found twenty fathoms; a little farther on they sounded again and found fifteen fathoms. <sup>29</sup> And fearing that we might run on the rocks, they let out four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come. <sup>30</sup> And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under pretence of laying out anchors from the bow, <sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." <sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it go.

<sup>33</sup> As day was about to dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have continued in suspense and without food, having taken nothing. <sup>34</sup> Therefore I urge you to take some food; it will give you strength, since not a hair is to perish from the head of any of you." <sup>35</sup> And when he had said this, he took bread, and giving thanks to God in the presence of all he broke it and began to eat. <sup>36</sup> Then they all were encouraged and ate some food themselves. <sup>37</sup> (We were in all two hundred and seventy-six persons in the ship.) <sup>38</sup> And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea.

<sup>39</sup> Now when it was day, they did not recognise the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach, on which they planned if possible to bring the ship ashore. <sup>40</sup> So they cast off the anchors and left them in the sea, at the same time loosening the ropes that tied the rudders; then hoisting the foresail to the wind they made for the beach. <sup>41</sup> But striking a shoal they ran the vessel aground; the bow stuck and remained immovable, and the stern was broken up by the surf<sup>171</sup>. <sup>42</sup> The soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any should swim away and escape; <sup>43</sup> but the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from carrying out their purpose. He ordered those who could swim to throw themselves overboard first and make for the land, <sup>44</sup> and the rest on planks or on pieces of the ship. And so it was that all escaped to land.

28:<sup>1</sup> After we had escaped, we then learned that the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup> And the natives showed us unusual kindness, for they kindled a fire and welcomed us all, because it had begun to rain and was cold. <sup>3</sup> Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and put them on the fire, when a viper came out because of the heat and fastened on his hand. <sup>4</sup> When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer. Though he has escaped from the sea, justice has not allowed him to live." <sup>5</sup> He, however, shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm. <sup>6</sup> They waited, expecting him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead; but when they had waited a long time and saw no misfortune come to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.

<sup>7</sup> Now in the neighbourhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us and entertained us hospitably for three days. <sup>8</sup> It happened that the father of Publius lay sick with fever and dysentery; and Paul visited him and prayed, and putting his hands on him healed him. <sup>9</sup> And when this had taken place, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases also came and were cured. <sup>10</sup> They presented many gifts to us; and when we sailed, they put on board whatever we needed.

<sup>169</sup>this leads to a whole series of human expedients being tried

<sup>11</sup> After three months we set sail in a ship which had wintered in the island, a ship of Alexandria, with the Twin Brothers as figurehead. <sup>12</sup> Putting in at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days. <sup>13</sup> And from there we made a circuit and arrived at Rhegium; and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli. <sup>14</sup> There we found brethren, and were invited to stay with them for seven days. And so we came to Rome. <sup>15</sup> And the brethren there, when they heard of us, came as far as the Forum of Ap'pius and Three Taverns to meet us. On seeing them Paul thanked God and took courage. <sup>16</sup> And when we came into Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself, with the soldier that guarded him.

<sup>17</sup> After three days he called together the local leaders of the Jews; and when they had gathered, he said to them, "Brethren, though I had done nothing against the people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. <sup>18</sup> When they had examined me, they wished to set me at liberty, because there was no reason for the death penalty in my case. <sup>19</sup> But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar-- though I had no charge to bring against my nation. <sup>20</sup> For this reason therefore I have asked to see you and speak with you, since it is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain." <sup>21</sup> And they said to him, "We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brethren coming here has reported or spoken any evil about you. <sup>22</sup> But we desire to hear from you what your views are; for with regard to this sect we know that everywhere it is spoken against."

<sup>23</sup> When they had appointed a day for him, they came to him at his lodging in great numbers. And he expounded the matter to them from morning till evening, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the law of Moses and from the prophets. <sup>24</sup> And some were convinced by what he said, while others disbelieved. <sup>25</sup> So, as they disagreed among themselves, they departed, after Paul had made one statement: "The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet:

<sup>26</sup> 'Go to this people, and say,
You shall indeed hear but never understand,
and you shall indeed see but never perceive.
<sup>27</sup> For this people's heart has grown dull,
and their ears are heavy of hearing,
and their eyes they have closed;
lest they should perceive with their eyes,
and hear with their ears,
and understand with their heart,
and turn for me to heal them.'

<sup>28</sup> Let it be known to you then that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen." <sup>30</sup> And he lived there two whole years at his own expense, and welcomed all who came to him, <sup>31</sup> preaching the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ quite openly and unhindered.

The letter of Paul to the Romans

1: Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel<sup>1</sup> of God<sup>2</sup> which he promised beforehand<sup>2</sup> through his prophets in the holy scriptures, <sup>3</sup> the gospel concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh <sup>4</sup> and designated<sup>3</sup> Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead<sup>4</sup>, Jesus Christ our Lord, <sup>5</sup> through whom we have received grace<sup>5</sup> and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations, <sup>6</sup> including yourselves who are called to belong to Jesus Christ;

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>8</sup> First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed in all the world. <sup>9</sup> For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit<sup>7</sup> in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you always in my prayers, <sup>10</sup> asking that somehow by God's will I may now at last succeed in coming to you. <sup>11</sup> For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you, <sup>12</sup> that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine. <sup>13</sup> I want you to know, brethren, that I have often intended to come to you (but thus far have been prevented), in order that I may reap some harvest among you as well as among the rest of the Gentiles. <sup>14</sup> I am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish: <sup>15</sup> so I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

<sup>9</sup>manifested in divine righteousness

<sup>14</sup>I.e. to live a life of faith. We get righteousness through faith, then we have to LIVE by faith - contrast Abraham with Lot. It involves a progressive maturing.

<sup>15</sup>Or, better, "The righteous shall live by faith"

<sup>16</sup>I.e. if we will not live by faith as per Rom 1:17, then <sup>17</sup>2Thess 2:10. Strategies for suppressing truth: 1) Denial (Gn 3:4); 2) Blame another (Gn 3:12); 3) Attack the messenger (Rev 1:9; Lk 20:14; Acts 7:58; Mk 6:17; Jer 38:6; Mk 14:1; Jn 8:48; Jn 8:59; Jn 7:20); 4) Distort truth to suit desire ("corban", David & temple); 5) Ignore message & evidence; 6) Redefine words and concepts.

became futile in their thinking and their senseless minds were darkened<sup>23</sup>. <sup>22</sup> Claiming to be wise<sup>24</sup>, they became fools, <sup>23</sup> and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man or birds or animals or reptiles.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore God gave them up<sup>25</sup> in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonouring of their bodies among themselves, <sup>25</sup> because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed for ever! Amen.

2:<sup>1</sup> Therefore you have no excuse, O man, whoever you are, when you judge another; for in passing judgement upon him you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, are doing the very same things. <sup>2</sup> We know that the judgement of God rightly falls upon those who do such things. <sup>3</sup> Do you suppose, O man, that when you judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself, you will escape the judgement of God? <sup>4</sup> Or do you presume upon the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience? Do you not know that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? <sup>5</sup> But by your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgement will be revealed. <sup>6</sup> For he will render to every man according to his works<sup>31</sup>: <sup>7</sup> to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, he will give eternal life; <sup>8</sup> but for those who are factious<sup>32</sup> and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness, there will be wrath and fury. <sup>9</sup> There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, <sup>10</sup> but glory and honour and peace for every one who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. <sup>11</sup> For God shows no partiality.

<sup>12</sup> All who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. <sup>13</sup> For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers<sup>33</sup> of the law who will be justified. <sup>14</sup> When Gentiles who have not the law do by nature what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. <sup>15</sup> They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness and their conflicting thoughts accuse<sup>34</sup> or perhaps excuse them <sup>16</sup> on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus.

<sup>17</sup> But if you call yourself a Jew and rely upon the law and boast of your relation to God <sup>18</sup> and know his will and approve what is excellent, because you are instructed in the law, <sup>19</sup> and if you are sure that you are a guide to the blind<sup>35</sup>, a light to those who are in darkness,

<sup>23</sup> i.e. brainwashed and sedated

<sup>25</sup> Compare Deut 28. First judgement - so sinning is already a judgement, rather than a sign of coming judgement

<sup>27</sup> 1Cor 6:9; 1Tim 1:10. This is very clearly futile (Rom 1:21) since it bears no fruit. But the attraction is exciting pleasure without consequent responsibility (which contravenes Gn 9:1). Contraception.

<sup>30</sup> All men depart at times from what they believe (i.e. all sin), but it is when we are happy with this that we are in danger. Fellowship is impossible with such people.

<sup>31</sup> 1Kings 8:39

<sup>25</sup> Circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law; but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision<sup>37</sup>. <sup>26</sup> So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? <sup>27</sup> Then those who are physically uncircumcised but keep the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. <sup>28</sup> For he is not a real Jew who is one outwardly, nor is true circumcision something external and physical. <sup>29</sup> He is a Jew who is one inwardly, and real circumcision is a matter of the heart<sup>38</sup>, spiritual and not literal. His praise is not from men but from God.

3:<sup>1</sup> Then what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision? <sup>2</sup> Much in every way. To begin with, the Jews are entrusted with the oracles of God. <sup>3</sup> What if some were unfaithful? Does their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God? <sup>4</sup> By no means! Let God be true though every man be false, as it is written,

"That thou mayest be justified in thy words,
and prevail when thou art judged."

<sup>5</sup> But if our wickedness serves to show the justice of God, what shall we say? That God is unjust to inflict wrath on us? (I speak in a human way.) <sup>6</sup> By no means! For then how could God judge the world? <sup>7</sup> But if through my falsehood God's truthfulness abounds to his glory, why am I still being condemned as a sinner? <sup>8</sup> And why not do evil that good may come?-- as some people slanderously charge us with saying. Their condemnation is just.

<sup>9</sup> What then? Are we Jews any better off? No, not at all; for I have already charged that all men, both Jews and Greeks, are under the power of sin, <sup>10</sup> as it is written:

"None is righteous, no, not one;
<sup>11</sup> no one understands, no one seeks for God.
<sup>12</sup> All have turned aside, together they have gone wrong;
no one does good, not even one."
<sup>13</sup> "Their throat is an open grave, they use their tongues to deceive."
"The venom of asps is under their lips."
<sup>14</sup> "Their mouth is full of curses and bitterness."
<sup>15</sup> "Their feet are swift to shed blood,
<sup>16</sup> in their paths are ruin and misery,

<sup>19</sup> Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God.

<sup>20</sup> For no human being will be justified in his sight by works of the law, since through the law comes full<sup>39</sup> knowledge of sin.

<sup>21</sup> But now<sup>40</sup> righteousness of God has been manifested apart from law, although the law and the prophets bear witness to it, <sup>22</sup> the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction; <sup>23</sup> since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, <sup>24</sup> they are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus, <sup>25</sup> whom God put forward as an expiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins; <sup>26</sup> it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies him who has faith in Jesus.

<sup>37</sup>There is a parallel with baptism BUT Acts 10:47 makes it clear that doing is it necessary even when what it represents has already occurred. Circumcision had become connected with keeping the Jewish law, BUT Acts 15:5,9, therefore the issues are different. Obedience is the response of LOVE

<sup>38</sup>Even in OT: Deut 10:16; Jer 4:4. Phil 3:3. This cuts off formal Judaism (Heb 8:9)

<sup>27</sup> Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. On what principle? On the principle of works? No, but on the principle of faith. <sup>28</sup> For we hold that a man is justified by faith apart from works of law. <sup>29</sup> Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, <sup>30</sup> since God is one; and he will justify the circumcised on the ground of their faith and the uncircumcised through their faith. <sup>31</sup> Do we then overthrow law<sup>41</sup> by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we establish<sup>42</sup> law.

4:1 What then shall we say about Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh? <sup>2</sup> For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. <sup>3</sup> For what does the scripture say? "Abraham believed God"<sup>43</sup>, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness." <sup>4</sup> Now to one who works, his wages are not reckoned as a gift but as his due. <sup>5</sup> And to one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned as righteousness. <sup>6</sup> So also David pronounces a blessing upon the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works:

and whose sins are covered; <sup>8</sup> blessed is the man against whom
the Lord will not reckon his sin."

<sup>9</sup> Is this blessing pronounced only upon the circumcised, or also upon the uncircumcised? We say that faith was reckoned to Abraham as righteousness. <sup>10</sup> How then was it reckoned to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. <sup>11</sup> He received circumcision as a sign<sup>44</sup> of the righteousness which he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised and who thus have righteousness reckoned to them, <sup>12</sup> and likewise the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but also follow the example of the faith which our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

<sup>13</sup> The promise to Abraham and his descendants, that they should inherit the world, did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup> If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. <sup>15</sup> For the law brings wrath<sup>45</sup>, but where there is no law there is no transgression<sup>46</sup>.

<sup>16</sup> That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants-- not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham, for he is the father of us all, <sup>17</sup> as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations" in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. <sup>18</sup> In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations; as he had been told, "So shall your descendants be." <sup>19</sup> He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead because he was about a hundred years old, or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. <sup>20</sup> No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, <sup>21</sup> fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. <sup>22</sup> That is why his faith was "reckoned to him as righteousness." <sup>23</sup> But the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone, <sup>24</sup> but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him that raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, <sup>25</sup> who was put to death for our trespasses and raised for our justification<sup>47</sup>.

rejoice in our sufferings<sup>51</sup>, knowing that suffering produces endurance<sup>52</sup>, and endurance produces character<sup>53</sup>, and character produces hope<sup>A, 5</sup>, and hope does not disappoint<sup>54</sup> us, because God's love has been poured into<sup>55</sup> our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.

<sup>6</sup> While we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>7</sup> Why, one will hardly die for a righteous man-- though perhaps for a good man one will dare even to die. <sup>8</sup> But God shows his love for us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup> Since, therefore, we are now justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. <sup>10</sup> For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life<sup>56</sup>. <sup>11</sup> Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received our reconciliation.

<sup>15</sup> But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man's<sup>57</sup> trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many. <sup>16</sup> And the free gift is not like the effect of that one man's sin. For the judgement following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. <sup>17</sup> If, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup> Then as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one man's act<sup>58</sup> of righteousness leads to acquittal and life for all men. <sup>19</sup> For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners<sup>59</sup>, so by one man's obedience many will be made righteous. <sup>20</sup> Law came in, to increase the trespass; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, <sup>21</sup> so that, as sin reigned unto<sup>60</sup> death, grace also might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6:1 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? <sup>2</sup> By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? <sup>3</sup> Do you not know that all of us who have been baptised into<sup>61</sup> Christ Jesus<sup>62</sup> were baptised into<sup>63</sup> his death<sup>64</sup>? <sup>4</sup> We were buried therefore with him by baptism into<sup>65</sup> death, so<sup>66</sup> that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.

him so<sup>71</sup> that the sinful body might be destroyed<sup>72</sup>, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.<sup>73</sup> For he who has died is freed<sup>74</sup> from<sup>74</sup> sin.<sup>74</sup> But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.<sup>75</sup> For we know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion<sup>75</sup> over him.<sup>75</sup> The death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God.<sup>76</sup> So you also must account<sup>76</sup> yourselves dead to sin<sup>77</sup> and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> Let not sin therefore<sup>78</sup> reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions.<sup>12</sup> Do not yield your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but yield yourselves to God<sup>79</sup> as men who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments of righteousness.<sup>13</sup> For sin will have no dominion<sup>80</sup> over you, since you are not under law but under grace.<sup>14</sup>

<sup>15</sup> What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!<sup>15</sup> Do you not know that if you yield yourselves to any one as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin<sup>81</sup>, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?<sup>16</sup> But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart<sup>82</sup> to the standard of teaching to which you were committed,<sup>17</sup> and, having been set free from sin<sup>A</sup>, have become slaves of righteousness.<sup>18</sup> I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once yielded your members to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now yield your members to righteousness for sanctification<sup>83</sup>.

<sup>20</sup> When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.<sup>20</sup> But then what return did you get from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death.<sup>21</sup> But now that you have been set free from sin<sup>A84</sup> and have become slaves of God, the return you get is sanctification and its end, eternal life.<sup>22</sup> For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord<sup>85</sup>.

<sup>4</sup> Likewise, my brethren, you have died to the law through the body of Christ<sup>90</sup>, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead in order that we may bear fruit for God. <sup>5</sup> While we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death. <sup>6</sup> But now we are discharged from the law, dead to that which held us captive<sup>91</sup>, so that we serve not under the old written code but in the new life of the Spirit<sup>92</sup>.

7 What then shall we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet, if it had not been for the law, I should not have known sin. I should not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, "You shall not covet<sup>93</sup>." 8 But sin, finding opportunity in the commandment, wrought in me all kinds of covetousness<sup>94</sup>. Apart from the law sin lies dead. 9 I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died<sup>95</sup>; 10 the very commandment which promised life proved to be death to me. 11 For sin, finding opportunity in the commandment, deceived me and by it killed me. 12 So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good.

13 Did that which is good, then, bring death to me? By no means! It was sin, working death in me through what is good, in order that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure. 14 We know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal<sup>96</sup>, sold under sin. 15 I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate<sup>98</sup>. 16 Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good. 17 So then it is no longer<sup>B</sup> that do it, but sin which dwells within me. 18 For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. 19 For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do. 20 Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer<sup>B99</sup> that do it, but sin which dwells within me.

21 So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. 22 For I delight in the law of God, in my inmost self, 23 but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind<sup>100</sup> and making me captive<sup>101</sup> to the law of sin which dwells in my members. 24 Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death<sup>102</sup>? 25 Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I of myself serve the law of God with my mind<sup>103</sup>, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin<sup>104</sup>.

8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me<sup>105</sup> free<sup>106</sup> from the law of sin and death. 3 For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: sending his own Son in the likeness<sup>107</sup> of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, 4 in order that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled<sup>108</sup> in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. 5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds<sup>109</sup> on the things of the Spirit<sup>110</sup>. 6 To set the mind<sup>111</sup> on the flesh is death, but to set the mind<sup>112</sup> on the Spirit is life and peace. <sup>7</sup> For the mind<sup>113</sup> that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law, indeed it cannot<sup>114</sup>; <sup>8</sup> and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

<sup>98</sup>The harder we try to obey law the worse it gets and more we sin since we concentrate on the evil, and try to save self (which is an attempt to justify self in God's sight), but Christ is only saviour. All must be by faith (Eph 2:8)

<sup>9</sup> But you are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, since<sup>115</sup> the Spirit of God dwells in you. Any one who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. <sup>10</sup> But if Christ is in you, although your bodies are dead<sup>A</sup> because of sin, your spirits are alive<sup>116</sup> because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup> If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies<sup>A117</sup> also through his Spirit which dwells in you.

<sup>12</sup> So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh--<sup>118</sup> <sup>13</sup> for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live<sup>119</sup>. <sup>14</sup> For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God<sup>120</sup>. <sup>15</sup> For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the spirit of sonship. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" <sup>16</sup> it is the Spirit himself bearing witness with our spirit<sup>121</sup> that we are children of God, <sup>17</sup> and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided<sup>122</sup> we suffer<sup>123</sup> with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

<sup>18</sup> I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. <sup>19</sup> For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God; <sup>20</sup> for the creation was subjected to futility<sup>124</sup>, not of its own will but by the will of him who subjected it in hope; <sup>21</sup> because the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay<sup>125</sup> and obtain the glorious liberty of the children of God. <sup>22</sup> We know that the whole creation has been groaning in travail together until now; <sup>23</sup> and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. <sup>24</sup> For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? <sup>25</sup> But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

<sup>26</sup> Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words. <sup>27</sup> And he who searches the hearts of men knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

It is God who justifies; <sup>34</sup> who is to condemn? Is it Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us? <sup>35</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>36</sup> As it is written,

"For thy sake we are being killed all the day long;
we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered."

<sup>37</sup> No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup> nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord<sup>131</sup>.

9: I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying; my conscience bears me witness in the Holy Spirit, <sup>2</sup> that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. <sup>3</sup> For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen by race<sup>132</sup>. <sup>4</sup> They are Israelites<sup>133</sup>, and to them belong the sonship, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; <sup>5</sup> to them belong the patriarchs, and of their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ. God who is over all be blessed for ever. Amen.

<sup>14</sup> What shall we say then? Is there injustice on God's part? By no means! <sup>15</sup> For he says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion." <sup>16</sup> So it depends not upon man's will or exertion<sup>139</sup>, but upon God's mercy<sup>140</sup>. <sup>17</sup> For the scripture says to Pharaoh, "I have raised you up for the very purpose of showing my power in you, so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth." <sup>18</sup> So then he has mercy upon whomever he wills, and he hardens the heart of whomever he wills.

<sup>19</sup> You will say to me then, "Why does he still find fault? For who can resist his will?" <sup>20</sup> But who are you, a man, to answer back to God? Will what is moulded say to its moulder, "Why have you made me thus?" <sup>21</sup> Has the potter no right over the clay, to make out of the same lump one vessel for beauty and another for menial use? <sup>22</sup> What if God, desiring to show his wrath and to make known his power, has endured with much patience the vessels of wrath made for destruction, <sup>23</sup> in order to make known the riches of his glory for the vessels of mercy, which he has prepared beforehand for glory, <sup>24</sup> even us whom he has called, not from the Jews only but also from the Gentiles? <sup>25</sup> As indeed he says in Hose'a,

<sup>26</sup> "And in the very place where it was said to them,
`You are not my people,' they will be called `sons of the living God.'"

<sup>27</sup> And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: "Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will be saved; <sup>28</sup> for the Lord will execute his sentence upon the earth with rigour and dispatch." <sup>29</sup> And as Isaiah predicted,

"If the Lord of hosts had not left us children, we would have fared like Sodom and been made like Gomor'rah."

<sup>30</sup> What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, righteousness through faith; <sup>31</sup> but that Israel who pursued the righteousness which is based on law did not succeed in fulfilling that law. <sup>32</sup> Why? Because they did not pursue it through faith, but as if it were based on works<sup>141</sup>. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, <sup>33</sup> as it is written,

"Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone that will make men stumble,
a rock that will make them fall;
and he who believes in him will not be put to shame."

10:<sup>1</sup> Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved<sup>142</sup>. <sup>2</sup> I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but it is not enlightened. <sup>3</sup> For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God<sup>143</sup>, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. <sup>4</sup> For Christ is the end of the law, that every one who has faith may be justified.

<sup>5</sup> Moses writes that the man who practices the righteousness which is based on the law shall live by it. <sup>6</sup> But the righteousness based on faith says, Do not say in your heart,
"Who will ascend into heaven?"<sup>144</sup> (that is, to bring Christ down) <sup>7</sup> or "Who will descend into the abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). <sup>8</sup> But what does it say? The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart<sup>145</sup> (that is, the word of faith which we preach); <sup>9</sup> because, if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe<sup>146</sup> in your heart<sup>147</sup> that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup> For man believes<sup>148</sup> with his heart and so is justified, and he confesses with his lips and so is saved. <sup>11</sup> The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." <sup>12</sup> For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and bestows his riches upon all who call upon him. <sup>13</sup> For,
"every one who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved."

<sup>14</sup> But how are men to call upon him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without a preacher? <sup>15</sup> And how can they<sup>149</sup> preach unless they are sent?<sup>150</sup> As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach good news!" <sup>16</sup> But they have not all obeyed the gospel; for Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?" <sup>17</sup> So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes by the preaching of Christ.

<sup>18</sup> But I ask, have they not heard? Indeed they have; for "Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world"<sup>151</sup>.

<sup>19</sup> Again I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses says,
"I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation;
with a foolish nation I will make you angry."

<sup>20</sup> Then Isaiah is so bold as to say,
"I have been found by those who did not seek me;

<sup>148</sup>the point decision of Rom 9:9 is followed by a process (compare Mk 11:24)

<sup>150</sup>No man can send himself. This shows it must be the real gospel, rather than vaguely about Jesus

<sup>151</sup>Rom 1:8

I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me."

<sup>21</sup> But of Israel he says, "All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."

11: I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup> God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew<sup>152</sup>. Do you not know what the scripture says of Eli'jah, how he pleads with God against Israel? <sup>3</sup> "Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have demolished thy altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life." <sup>4</sup> But what is God's reply to him? "I have kept for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Ba'al." <sup>5</sup> So too at the present time there is a remnant, chosen by grace. <sup>6</sup> But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

<sup>7</sup> What then? Israel failed to obtain what it sought. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened<sup>153</sup>, <sup>8</sup> as it is written,

"God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that should not see and ears that should not hear,
down to this very day."

<sup>9</sup> And David says,

"Let their table become a snare and a trap,
a pitfall and a retribution for them;
<sup>10</sup> let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see,
and bend their backs for ever."

<sup>11</sup> So I ask, have they stumbled so as to fall? By no means! But through their trespass salvation has come to the Gentiles, so as to make Israel jealous. <sup>12</sup> Now if their trespass means riches for the world, and if their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their full inclusion mean!

<sup>13</sup> Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry <sup>14</sup> in order to make my fellow Jews jealous, and thus save some of them. <sup>15</sup> For if their rejection means the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance mean but life from the dead? <sup>16</sup> If the dough offered as first fruits is holy, so is the whole lump; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

<sup>17</sup> But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in their place to share the richness of the olive tree, <sup>18</sup> do not boast over the branches. If you do boast, remember it is not you that support the root, but the root that supports you. <sup>19</sup> You will say, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in." <sup>20</sup> That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast only through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. <sup>21</sup> For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. <sup>22</sup> Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness<sup>154</sup>; otherwise you too will be cut off. <sup>23</sup> And even the others, if they do not persist in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. <sup>24</sup> For if you have been cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these natural branches be grafted back into their own olive tree.

<sup>25</sup> Lest you be wise in your own conceits, I want you to understand this mystery, brethren: a hardening has come upon part of Israel, until the full number of the Gentiles come in, <sup>26</sup> and so all Israel<sup>155</sup> will be saved; as it is written,

"The Deliverer will come from Zion,
he will banish ungodliness from Jacob"; <sup>27</sup> "and this will be my covenant with them
when I take away their sins."

<sup>28</sup> As regards the gospel they are enemies of God, for your sake; but as regards election they are beloved for the sake of their forefathers. <sup>29</sup> For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable<sup>156</sup>. <sup>30</sup> Just as you were once disobedient to God but now have received mercy because of their disobedience, <sup>31</sup> so they have now been disobedient in order that by the mercy shown to you they also may receive mercy. <sup>32</sup> For God has consigned all<sup>157</sup> men to disobedience, that he may have mercy upon all.

<sup>34</sup> "For who has known the mind<sup>159</sup> of the Lord, or who has been his counsellor?"

<sup>35</sup> "Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?"

<sup>36</sup> For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory for ever. Amen.

<sup>163</sup>Gk = "nous". To have mind of Christ (1Cor 2:16; Rom 11:34) Mind reformed, but in the World, like Christ (1Cor 9:19-23).

<sup>165</sup>It is through the mind that we assess what the will of God is, the mind having been aligned with scripture (1Cor 2:16; the plumbline: Amos 7:7-8), especially as regards practical living. The mind must be used: 1Pet 1:13; 2Pet 3:1; Rom 8:5-7. THE will of God is knowable: Eph 1:9,11; Col 1:9; Col 4:12. God's will: Salvation (1Tim 2:4); Holiness (1Thess 4:3; Heb 10:10); thankfulness (1Thess 5:18); justice & righteousness (Amos 5:24); love of God (Lk 11:42); mercy (Mt 9:13; Micah 6:8); prayer (1Tim 2:8). Blessing of doing it: Jn 4:34; Mk 3:35.

<sup>168</sup>As it is ALL grace, to do so is to try to assert a righteousness beyond what is given (Rom 9:32; Rom 10:3)

13:<sup>1</sup> Let every person be subject to the governing authorities<sup>175</sup>. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. <sup>2</sup> Therefore he who resists<sup>176</sup> the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgement. <sup>3</sup> For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of him who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, <sup>4</sup> for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain; he is the servant<sup>177</sup> of God to execute his wrath on the wrongdoer. <sup>5</sup> Therefore one must be subject, not only to avoid God's wrath<sup>178</sup> but also for the sake of conscience. <sup>6</sup> For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing. <sup>7</sup> Pay all of them their dues, taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honour to whom honour is due.

<sup>8</sup> Owe no one anything<sup>179</sup>, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbour has fulfilled the law. <sup>9</sup> The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery, You shall not kill, You shall not steal, You shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this sentence, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." <sup>10</sup> Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

<sup>10</sup> Why do you pass judgement on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgement seat of God; <sup>11</sup> for it is written,

"As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God."

<sup>13</sup> Then let us no more pass judgement on one another, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother. <sup>14</sup> I know and am persuaded<sup>A190</sup> in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but it is unclean for any one who thinks it unclean. <sup>15</sup> If your brother is being injured by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not let what you eat cause the ruin of one for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup> So do not let your good be spoken of as evil. <sup>17</sup> For the kingdom of God is not food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit<sup>191</sup>; <sup>18</sup> he who thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. <sup>19</sup> Let us then pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. <sup>20</sup> Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for any one to make others fall by what he eats; <sup>21</sup> it is right not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that makes your brother stumble. <sup>22</sup> The faith that you have, keep between yourself<sup>192</sup> and God; happy is he who has no reason to judge himself for what he approves. <sup>23</sup> But he who has doubts is condemned, if he eats, because he does not act from faith; for whatever does not proceed from faith<sup>193</sup> is sin<sup>194</sup>.

<sup>7</sup> Welcome<sup>196</sup> one another, therefore, as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. <sup>8</sup> For I tell you that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, <sup>9</sup> and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written,

"Therefore I will praise thee among the Gentiles, and sing to thy name";

<sup>10</sup> and again it is said,

"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people";

<sup>11</sup> and again,

"Praise the Lord, all Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise him";

<sup>12</sup> and further Isaiah says,

"The root of Jesse shall come, he who rises to rule the Gentiles;
in him shall the Gentiles hope."

<sup>13</sup> May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

<sup>14</sup> I myself am satisfied about you, my brethren, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another. <sup>15</sup> But on some points I have written to you very boldly by way of reminder, because of the grace given me by God <sup>16</sup> to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup> In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. <sup>18</sup> For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has wrought through me to win obedience from the Gentiles, by word and deed, <sup>19</sup> by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Holy Spirit, so that from Jerusalem and as far round as Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ, <sup>20</sup> thus making it my ambition to preach the gospel, not where Christ has already been named, lest I build on another man's foundation, <sup>21</sup> but as it is written,

"They shall see who have never been told of him,
and they shall understand who have never heard of him."

The First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

1:1 Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sos'thenes,

2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call<sup>1</sup> on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I give thanks to God always for you because of the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus, 5 that in every way you were enriched in him with all speech and all knowledge-- 6 even as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you-- 7 so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ; 8 who will sustain you to the end, guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 I appeal to you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no dissensions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgement<sup>2</sup>. 11 For it has been reported to me by Chlo'e's people that there is quarrelling among you, my brethren. 12 What I mean is that each one of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apol'los," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." 13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptised in the name of Paul? 14 I am thankful that I baptised none of you except Crispus and Ga'ius; 15 lest any one should say that you were baptised in my name. 16 (I did baptise also the household of Steph'anas. Beyond that, I do not know whether I baptised any one else.) 17 For Christ did not send me to baptise<sup>3</sup> but to preach the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom<sup>4</sup>, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

18 For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. 19 For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom<sup>5</sup> of the wise, and the cleverness of the clever I will thwart." 20 Where is the wise man?

Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?<sup>6</sup> 21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe. 22 For Jews<sup>A</sup> demand signs<sup>A7</sup> and Greeks<sup>B</sup> seek wisdom<sup>B8</sup>, 23 but we preach<sup>9</sup> Christ crucified<sup>10</sup>, a stumbling block<sup>A</sup> to Jews and folly<sup>B</sup> to Gentiles, 24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power<sup>A</sup> of God and the wisdom<sup>B</sup> of God. 25 For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men<sup>11</sup>.

26 For consider your call<sup>12</sup>, brethren; not many of you were wise according to worldly standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth; 27 but God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise<sup>B</sup>, God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong<sup>A</sup>, 28 God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, 29 so that no human being might boast in the presence of

<sup>8</sup>All people want one or other of these. What do the British seek? comfort? a good show?

<sup>9</sup>The power of the Word (Ps 29), prophetically declared: Heb 4:12; Ezek 3:11; Jer 1:9-10; Is 55:11; Tit 2:15; 1Pet 4:11. Avoid the desire to do signs or be clever

<sup>11</sup>The gospel is an inversion of all the world's standards

God<sup>13</sup>. <sup>30</sup> He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom, our righteousness and sanctification and redemption; <sup>31</sup> therefore, as it is written, "Let him who boasts, boast of the Lord."<sup>14</sup>

2: <sup>1</sup> When I came to you, brethren, I did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God in lofty words or wisdom. <sup>2</sup> For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified<sup>15</sup>. <sup>3</sup> And I was with you in weakness and in much fear and trembling; <sup>4</sup> and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom<sup>16</sup>, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power<sup>17</sup>, <sup>5</sup> that your faith might not rest in the wisdom<sup>18</sup> of men but in the power of God<sup>19</sup>.

<sup>6</sup> Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. <sup>7</sup> But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God<sup>20</sup>, which God decreed before the ages for our glorification. <sup>8</sup> None of the rulers<sup>21</sup> of this age<sup>22</sup> understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory<sup>23</sup>. <sup>9</sup> But, as it is written,

"What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,
nor the heart of man conceived,

what God has prepared for those who love him," <sup>10</sup> God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. <sup>11</sup> For what person knows a man's thoughts except the spirit of the man which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup> Now we have received not the spirit of the world<sup>24</sup>, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might understand the gifts bestowed on us by God. <sup>13</sup> And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who possess the Spirit.

3: <sup>1</sup> But I, brethren, could not address you as spiritual men, but as men of the flesh<sup>30</sup>, as babes in Christ. <sup>2</sup> I fed you with milk, not solid food; for you were not ready for it; and even yet you are not ready, <sup>3</sup> for you are still of the flesh. For while there is jealousy<sup>31</sup> and strife among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving like ordinary men? <sup>4</sup> For when one says, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apol'los," are you not merely men?

<sup>5</sup> What then is Apol'los? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. <sup>6</sup> I planted, Apol'los watered, but God gave the growth. <sup>7</sup> So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. <sup>8</sup> He who plants and he who waters are equal, and each shall receive his wages according to his labour. <sup>9</sup> For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building.

<sup>10</sup> According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another man is building upon it<sup>32</sup>. Let each man take care how he builds upon it. <sup>11</sup> For no other foundation can any one lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup> Now if any one builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw<sup>33</sup>-- <sup>13</sup> each man's work will become manifest; for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire<sup>34</sup> will test what sort of work each one has done<sup>35</sup>. <sup>14</sup> If the work which any man has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup> If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire<sup>36</sup>.

<sup>16</sup> Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? <sup>17</sup> If any one destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and that temple you are.

<sup>18</sup> Let no one deceive himself. If any one among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise. <sup>19</sup> For the wisdom of this world is folly with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness," <sup>20</sup> and again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile." <sup>21</sup> So let no one boast of men. For all things are yours, <sup>22</sup> whether Paul or Apol'los or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future, all are yours<sup>37</sup>; <sup>23</sup> and you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

4:1 This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. <sup>2</sup> Moreover it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. <sup>3</sup> But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. I do not even judge myself. <sup>4</sup> I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me. <sup>5</sup> Therefore do not pronounce judgement<sup>38</sup> before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes<sup>39</sup> of the heart. Then every man will receive his commendation from God.

<sup>6</sup> I have applied all this to myself and Apol'los for your benefit, brethren, that you may learn by us not to go beyond what is written<sup>40</sup>, that none of you may be puffed up in favour of one against another. <sup>7</sup> For who sees anything different in you? What have you that you did not receive?<sup>41</sup> If then you received it, why do you boast as if it were not a gift<sup>42</sup>?

<sup>8</sup> Already you are filled! Already you have become rich! Without us you have become kings!<sup>43</sup> And would that you did reign, so that we might share the rule with you! <sup>9</sup> For I think that God has exhibited us apostles as last of all, like men sentenced to death; because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels and to men. <sup>10</sup> We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honour, but we in disrepute<sup>44</sup>. <sup>11</sup> To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are ill-clad and buffeted and homeless, <sup>12</sup> and we labour, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; <sup>13</sup> when slandered, we try to conciliate; we have become, and are now, as the refuse of the world, the offscouring of all things.

<sup>14</sup> I do not write this to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children. <sup>15</sup> For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. <sup>16</sup> I urge you, then, be imitators of me. <sup>17</sup> Therefore I sent to you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church. <sup>18</sup> Some are arrogant, as though I were not coming to you. <sup>19</sup> But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will

5:<sup>1</sup> It is actually reported that there is immorality among you, and of a kind that is not found even among pagans; for a man is living with his father's wife<sup>47</sup>. <sup>2</sup> And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you.

<sup>3</sup> For though absent in body I am present in spirit, and as if present, I have already pronounced judgement<sup>48</sup> <sup>4</sup> in the name of the Lord Jesus on the man who has done such a thing. When you are assembled, and my spirit is present<sup>49</sup>, with the power of our Lord Jesus, <sup>5</sup> you are to deliver this man to Satan<sup>50</sup> for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>6</sup> Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? <sup>7</sup> Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our paschal<sup>51</sup> lamb, has been sacrificed. <sup>8</sup> Let us, therefore, celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

<sup>9</sup> I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with immoral men; <sup>10</sup> not at all meaning the immoral of this world, or the greedy and robbers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. <sup>11</sup> But rather I wrote to you not to associate with any one who bears the name of brother<sup>52</sup> if he is guilty of immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or robber-- not even to eat with such a one<sup>53</sup>. <sup>12</sup> For what have I to do with judging<sup>54</sup> outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge?<sup>55</sup> <sup>13</sup> God judges those outside. "Drive out the wicked<sup>56</sup> person from among you."<sup>57</sup>

6:<sup>1</sup> When one of you has a grievance against a brother, does he dare go to law before the unrighteous instead of the saints? <sup>2</sup> Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? How much more, matters pertaining to this life! <sup>4</sup> If then you have such cases, why do you lay them before those who are least esteemed by the church? <sup>5</sup> I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is no man among you wise enough to decide between members of the brotherhood, <sup>6</sup> but brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers?

<sup>7</sup> To have lawsuits at all with one another is defeat for you. Why not rather suffer wrong? Why not rather be defrauded? <sup>8</sup> But you yourselves wrong and defraud, and that even your own brethren.

God. <sup>11</sup> And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

<sup>12</sup> "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be enslaved by anything. <sup>13</sup> "Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food"-- and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. <sup>14</sup> And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. <sup>15</sup> Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute<sup>60</sup>? Never! <sup>16</sup> Do you not know that he who joins himself to a prostitute becomes one body<sup>61</sup> with her? For, as it is written, "The two shall become one flesh."<sup>62</sup> <sup>17</sup> But he who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. <sup>18</sup> Shun immorality. Every other sin which a man commits is outside the body; but the immoral man sins against his own body<sup>63</sup>. <sup>19</sup> Do you not know that your body is a temple<sup>64</sup> of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own; <sup>20</sup> you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

7: Now concerning the matters about which you wrote. It is well for a man not to touch a woman. <sup>2</sup> But because of the temptation to immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband. <sup>3</sup> The husband should give to his wife her conjugal rights, and likewise the wife to her husband. <sup>4</sup> For the wife does not rule over her own body, but the husband does; likewise the husband does not rule over his own body, but the wife does. <sup>5</sup> Do not refuse one another except perhaps by agreement for a season, that you may devote yourselves to prayer; but then come together again, lest Satan tempt you through lack of self-control<sup>65</sup>. <sup>6</sup> I say this by way of concession, not of command. <sup>7</sup> I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has his own special gift from God, one of one kind and one of another.

<sup>8</sup> To the unmarried and the widows I say that it is well for them to remain single as I do. <sup>9</sup> But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to be aflame with passion.

<sup>10</sup> To the married I give charge, not I but the Lord, that the wife should not separate<sup>66</sup> from her husband <sup>11</sup> (but if she does, let her remain single or else be reconciled to her husband)-- and that the husband should not divorce his wife.

<sup>12</sup> To the rest I say, not the Lord, that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her. <sup>13</sup> If any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him. <sup>14</sup> For the unbelieving husband is consecrated through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is consecrated through her husband. Otherwise, your children would be unclean, but as it is they are holy<sup>67</sup>. <sup>15</sup> But if the unbelieving partner desires to separate, let it be so<sup>68</sup>; in such a case the brother or sister is not bound<sup>69</sup>. For God has called us to peace<sup>70</sup>. <sup>16</sup> Wife, how do you know whether you will save your husband? Husband, how do you know whether you will save your wife?

<sup>17</sup> Only, let every one lead the life which the Lord has assigned to him, and in which God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches. <sup>18</sup> Was any one at the time of his call already circumcised? Let him not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was any one at the time of his call uncircumcised? Let him not seek circumcision. <sup>19</sup> For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. <sup>20</sup> Every one should remain in the state in which he was called. <sup>21</sup> Were you a slave when called? Never mind. But if you can gain your freedom, avail yourself of the opportunity. <sup>22</sup> For he who was called in the Lord as a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise he who was free when called is a slave of Christ. <sup>23</sup> You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. <sup>24</sup> So, brethren, in whatever state each was called, there let him remain with God.

<sup>71</sup> virgin daughters

<sup>74</sup> Gk "hast thou been released" i.e. Perfect tense, which can mean something established and present, as (correctly) suggested by AV "Art thou loosed". This is a different word from that used to indicate the deliberately separated state in 1Cor 7:11. Thus Paul appears not to be using this word in the context of marital separation or divorce, although etymologically the Gk apoluo = divorce is the similar because the "free" here is "luo apo" a woman. However apoluo is a stronger form. On its own the evidence is therefore inconclusive. The "free" in 1Cor 7:39 may be more helpful

<sup>75</sup> There are higher priorities: present self to God: Rom 12:1; you belong to Christ: Rom 7:4; treat women in all purity: 1Tim 5:2; Seek first kingdom of God: Mt 6:33; Press on for upward call (Phil 3:14), according to rules (2Tim 2:5)

<sup>78</sup> Don't use the world unrestrainedly, though it will supply our needs (Is 23:17-18). Normally these things take priority in people's lives, but not for us (Mt 10:34-39). The goal must come first: these things must not affect the way we live (1Cor 7:35)

<sup>79</sup> Jn 12:31. So seek first the kingdom of God (Mt 6:33)

<sup>83</sup> Contrast word in 1Cor 7:9: Why is it plural though, if it is give in marriage? they'll both be given in marriage - father must decide - because it is a virgin & not a widow (don't entirely understand this!)

<sup>4</sup> Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that "an idol has no real existence," and that "there is no God but one." <sup>5</sup> For although there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth-- as indeed there are many "gods" and many "lords"-- <sup>6</sup> yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

<sup>7</sup> However, not all possess this knowledge. But some, through being hitherto accustomed to idols, eat food as really offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. <sup>8</sup> Food will not commend us to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. <sup>9</sup> Only take care lest this liberty of yours somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. <sup>10</sup> For if any one sees you, a man of knowledge, at table in an idol's temple, might he not be encouraged, if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols? <sup>11</sup> And so by your knowledge this weak man is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died. <sup>12</sup> Thus, sinning against your brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. <sup>13</sup> Therefore, if food is a cause of my brother's falling, I will never eat meat, lest I cause my brother to fall.

9:<sup>1</sup> Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are not you my workmanship in the Lord? <sup>2</sup> If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

<sup>3</sup> This is my defence to those who would examine me. <sup>4</sup> Do we not have the right to our food and drink? <sup>5</sup> Do we not have the right to be accompanied by a wife, as the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? <sup>6</sup> Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working for a living? <sup>7</sup> Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard without eating any of its fruit? Who tends a flock without getting some of the milk?

<sup>8</sup> Do I say this on human authority? Does not the law say the same? <sup>9</sup> For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain." Is it for oxen that God is concerned? <sup>10</sup> Does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the ploughman should plough in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of a share in the crop. <sup>11</sup> If we have sown spiritual good among you, is it too much if we reap your material benefits? <sup>12</sup> If others share this rightful claim upon you, do not we still more?

Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ. <sup>13</sup> Do you not know that those who are employed in the temple service get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in the sacrificial offerings? <sup>14</sup> In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel<sup>91</sup>.

<sup>15</sup> But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing this to secure any such provision. For I would rather die than have any one deprive me of my ground for boasting. <sup>16</sup> For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! <sup>17</sup> For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission. <sup>18</sup> What then is my reward? Just this: that in my preaching I may make the gospel free of charge, not making full use of my right in the gospel.

I have become all things to all men<sup>102</sup>, that I might by all means save some. <sup>23</sup> I do it all for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

<sup>24</sup> Do you not know that in a race all the runners compete, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. <sup>25</sup> Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. <sup>26</sup> Well, I do not run aimlessly, I do not box as one beating the air; <sup>27</sup> but I pommel my body and subdue it, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified.

10: <sup>1</sup> I want you to know, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, <sup>2</sup> and all were baptised into Moses in the cloud and in the sea<sup>103</sup>, <sup>3</sup> and all ate the same supernatural food <sup>4</sup> and all drank the same supernatural drink. For they drank from the supernatural Rock which followed them, and the Rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup> Nevertheless with most of them God was not pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

<sup>6</sup> Now these things are warnings for us, not to desire evil<sup>104</sup> as they did. <sup>7</sup> Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to dance." <sup>8</sup> We must not indulge in immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. <sup>9</sup> We must not put the Lord to the test<sup>105</sup>, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents<sup>106</sup>; <sup>10</sup> nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer<sup>107</sup>. <sup>11</sup> Now these things happened to them as a warning, but they were written down for our instruction, upon whom the end of the ages has come. <sup>12</sup> Therefore let any one who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. <sup>13</sup> No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your strength, but with the temptation will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, my beloved, shun the worship of idols. <sup>15</sup> I speak as to sensible men; judge for yourselves what I say. <sup>16</sup> The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup> Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. <sup>18</sup> Consider the people of Israel; are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar? <sup>19</sup> What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? <sup>20</sup> No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be partners with demons. <sup>21</sup> You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. <sup>22</sup> Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

For why should my liberty be determined by another man's scruples? <sup>30</sup> If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for which I give thanks?

<sup>31</sup> So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>32</sup> Give no offence to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, <sup>33</sup> just as I try to please all men in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. 11:1; Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

<sup>110</sup> Esther 6:12: shows that in Jewish culture a man who was shamed covered his head (interestingly enough suspected criminals often still seek to cover their heads when going to court)

<sup>111</sup> 2Cor 3:16 shows that the veil worn by Jewish men (** but this does not cover their faces, and when this practice started is apparently not known) who are not Christians represents the veil which Moses wore to hide the fading splendour after he came down from the mountain. This veil over the mind represents the Mosaic law which hides the truth of the divine grace given freely in Christ under its laws and regulations. Moreover the reason that Moses took the veil was to hide the fading splendour on his face: because the possession of the Spirit is now the continuing possession of the christian, there is no need to fear its loss: thus both men and women christians have unveiled faces because they are both beholding the Lord.

<sup>112</sup> Gen 24:65: Rebekah veiled herself before her master Isaac, to whom she was not yet revealed, and in recognition of her submission to him - the church (whom the woman represents) is in the same position before Christ.

<sup>115</sup> Covering points upwards and parallels the covered glory of the Holy Spirit with respect to Christ. Also the woman's hair represents the glory of man, which is in shame at the present time until its glory is redeemed in Christ.

<sup>116</sup> In Christ we are not ashamed: Num 6:5; contrast 2Sam 15:30-31; contrast Jer 14:3-4; contrast 2Kings 19:1; contrast Is 37:1; contrast Esther 6:12

<sup>117</sup>*Cover note* In Christ we are not shamed, nor do we mourn. Numbers 6:5 (This was a voluntary shaming of self before the Lord, for which there is no need as we are in Christ: to shame oneself thus is to deny what the Lord has done for us in making us acceptable to the Father; 2 Samuel 15:30-31 David shames himself when his son Absalom rebels; Jeremiah 14:3-4 This is a sign of mourning as well as shame; 2 Kings 19:1 Hezekiah covers himself with sackcloth because it was a day of rebuke and disgrace (also Isaiah 37:1); Esther 6:12 Haman is shamed when he is disgraced.

<sup>118</sup>*Cover note* Greek: authority. This gives the authority to act: until Christ came it was not possible for women to pray publicly - see Song 5:7. (Indeed women play no part in Jewish worship). It is notable that when a woman was given in marriage the veil of authority was transferred from the woman's father to her husband. Thus in figure we see here the way that the authority of God has been bestowed upon the church, and that the church is under the authority of her true husband, Christ. The refusal to accept this authority is characteristic of the church in rebellion, rejecting the authority of the full headship of Jesus Christ.

the Lord woman is not independent of man nor man of woman; <sup>12</sup> for as woman was made out of<sup>121</sup> man, so man is through the<sup>122</sup> woman. And all things are from God.) <sup>13</sup> Judge for yourselves; is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? <sup>14</sup> Does not nature itself<sup>123</sup> teach you that for a man to wear long hair is degrading to him<sup>124</sup><sup>125</sup>, <sup>15</sup> but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory<sup>126</sup><sup>127</sup>? For her hair is given to her for a covering<sup>128</sup>. <sup>16</sup> If any one is disposed to be contentious<sup>129</sup><sup>130</sup>, we recognise no such<sup>131</sup> practice, nor do the churches of God<sup>132</sup><sup>133</sup>.

<sup>17</sup> But in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse. <sup>18</sup> For, in the first place, when you assemble as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it, <sup>19</sup> for there must be factions among you in order that those who are genuine among you may be recognised<sup>134</sup>. <sup>20</sup> When you meet together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. <sup>21</sup> For in eating, each one goes ahead with his own meal, and one is hungry and another is drunk. <sup>22</sup> What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I commend you in this? No, I will not.

<sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, <sup>24</sup> and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."<sup>135</sup> <sup>25</sup> In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this"<sup>136</sup>, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.<sup>137</sup> <sup>26</sup> For as often as you eat<sup>A</sup> this bread and drink<sup>A</sup> the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

and was then the one who caused Adam to fall. Woman is more inclined to being seduced in this way by (bad) angels. In wearing the symbol of authority, and so recognising the authority of man, and in particular of her father (if unmarried) or husband (if married) or the church elders (if widowed or orphaned), she is kept in constant reminder not to repeat the sin of Eve. Moreover the good angels rejoice to see the conformity to the divinely appointed order in the church of God. The impact of this on marriage stability in the church should also be noted.

<sup>34</sup> if any one is hungry, let him eat at home<sup>146</sup>-- lest you come together to be condemned. About the other things I will give directions when I come.

12:1 Power<sup>147</sup>

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be uninformed. <sup>2</sup> You know that when you were heathen, you were led astray to dumb idols, however you may have been moved. <sup>3</sup> Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup> Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; <sup>5</sup> and there are varieties of service<sup>148</sup>, but the same Lord; <sup>6</sup> and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in every one. <sup>7</sup> To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. <sup>8</sup> To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, <sup>9</sup> to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, <sup>10</sup> to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup> All these are inspired by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills.

<sup>12</sup> For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. <sup>13</sup> For by one Spirit we were all baptised into one body-- Jews or Greeks, slaves or free-- and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

<sup>14</sup> For the body does not consist of one member but of many. <sup>15</sup> If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. <sup>16</sup> And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. <sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? <sup>18</sup> But as it is, God arranged the organs in the body, each one of them, as he chose. <sup>19</sup> If all were a single organ, where would the body be? <sup>20</sup> As it is, there are many parts, yet one body. <sup>21</sup> The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." <sup>22</sup> On the contrary, the parts of the body which seem to be weaker are indispensable, <sup>23</sup> and those parts of the body which we think less honourable we invest with the greater honour, and our unrepresentable parts<sup>149</sup> are treated with greater modesty, <sup>24</sup> which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving the greater honour to the inferior part, <sup>25</sup> that there may be no discord in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. <sup>26</sup> If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honoured, all rejoice together.

<sup>27</sup> Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. <sup>28</sup> And God has appointed in the church first apostles<sup>150</sup>, second prophets, third teachers, then workers of miracles, then healers, helpers, administrators<sup>151</sup>, speakers in various kinds of tongues. <sup>29</sup> Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? <sup>30</sup> Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? <sup>31</sup> But earnestly desire the higher gifts.

And I will show you a still more excellent way.

Love

13: 1 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge<sup>152</sup>, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 If I give away all I have, and if I deliver my body to be burned, but have not love<sup>153</sup>, I gain nothing<sup>154</sup>.

4 Love<sup>155</sup> is<sup>156</sup> patient<sup>157</sup> and kind; love is not jealous or boastful; 5 it is not arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way<sup>158</sup>; it is not irritable or resentful; 6 it does not rejoice at wrong, but rejoices in the right. 7 Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things<sup>159</sup>.

8 Love never ends; as for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. 9 For our knowledge is imperfect<sup>160</sup> and our prophecy is imperfect; 10 but when the perfect comes, the imperfect will pass away. 11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I gave up childish ways<sup>161</sup>. 12 For now we see in a mirror dimly<sup>162</sup>, but then face to face. Now I know in part<sup>163</sup>; then I shall understand fully, even as I have been fully understood. 13 So faith, hope, love abide<sup>164</sup>, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Discipline

14: 1 Make love your aim, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy. 2 For one who speaks in a tongue speaks not to men but to God; for no one understands him, but he utters mysteries in the Spirit. 3 On the other hand, he who prophesies speaks to men for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation. 4 He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. 5 Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more to prophesy. He who prophesies is greater than he who speaks in tongues, unless some one interprets, so that the church may be edified.

6 Now, brethren, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how shall I benefit you unless I bring you some revelation<sup>A</sup> or knowledge<sup>B</sup> or prophecy<sup>A165</sup> or teaching<sup>B166?</sup> 7 If even lifeless instruments, such as the flute or the harp, do not give distinct notes, how will any one know what is played? 8 And if the bugle gives an indistinct sound, who will get ready for battle<sup>167?</sup> 9 So with yourselves; if you in a tongue utter speech that is not intelligible, how will any one know what is said? For you will be speaking into the air. 10 There are doubtless many different languages in the world, and none is without meaning; 11 but if I do not know the meaning of the language, I shall be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker a foreigner to me. 12 So with yourselves; since you are eager for manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in building up the church.

13 Therefore, he who speaks in a tongue should pray for the power to interpret. 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unfruitful. 15 What am I to do? I will pray with the spirit and I will pray with the mind also; I will sing with the spirit and I will sing with the mind also. <sup>16</sup> Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how can any one in the position of an outsider say the "Amen" to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are saying? <sup>17</sup> For you may give thanks well enough, but the other man is not edified. <sup>18</sup> I thank God that I speak in tongues more than you all<sup>168</sup>; <sup>19</sup> nevertheless, in church I would rather speak five words with my mind, in order to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue<sup>169</sup>.

<sup>26</sup> What then, brethren? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification. <sup>27</sup> If any speak in a tongue, let there be only two or at most three, and each in turn; and let one interpret. <sup>28</sup> But if there is no one to interpret, let each of them keep silence in church and speak to himself and to God<sup>170</sup>. <sup>29</sup> Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said<sup>171</sup>. <sup>30</sup> If a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first be silent. <sup>31</sup> For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all be encouraged; <sup>32</sup> and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. <sup>33</sup> For God is not a God of confusion but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, <sup>34</sup> the women should keep silence in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but should be subordinate, as even the law says. <sup>35</sup> If there is anything they desire to know, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for a woman to speak in church. <sup>36</sup> What! Did the word of God originate with you, or are you the only ones it has reached?

<sup>37</sup> If any one thinks that he is a prophet, or spiritual, he should acknowledge that what I am writing to you is a command of the Lord. <sup>38</sup> If any one does not recognise this, he is not recognised<sup>172</sup>. <sup>39</sup> So, my brethren, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues; <sup>40</sup> but all things should be done decently and in order.

15:1 Now I would remind you, brethren, in what terms I preached to you the gospel, which you received, in which you stand, <sup>2</sup> by which you are saved, if you hold it fast-- unless you believed in vain.

<sup>3</sup> For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins<sup>173</sup> in accordance with the scriptures, <sup>4</sup> that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, <sup>5</sup> and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. <sup>6</sup> Then he appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup> Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. <sup>8</sup> Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. <sup>9</sup> For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup> But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God which is with me<sup>174</sup>. <sup>11</sup> Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

<sup>12</sup> Now if Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup> But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised; <sup>14</sup> if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. <sup>15</sup> We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified of God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. <sup>16</sup> For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. <sup>17</sup> If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. <sup>18</sup> Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup> If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most to be pitied.

<sup>20</sup> But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. <sup>21</sup> For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. <sup>22</sup> For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. <sup>23</sup> But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. <sup>24</sup> Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying<sup>175</sup> every rule and every authority and power. <sup>25</sup> For he must reign until<sup>176</sup> he has put all his enemies under his feet. <sup>26</sup> The last enemy to be destroyed is death. <sup>27</sup> "For God has put all things in subjection under his feet." But when it says, "All things are put in subjection under him," it is plain that he is excepted who put all things under him. <sup>28</sup> When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things under him, that God may be everything to every one.

<sup>29</sup> Otherwise, what do people mean by being baptised on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptised on their behalf? <sup>30</sup> Why am I in peril every hour? <sup>31</sup> I protest, brethren, by my pride in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day! <sup>32</sup> What do I gain if, humanly speaking, I fought with beasts at Ephesus? If the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink"<sup>177</sup>, for tomorrow we die." <sup>33</sup> Do not be deceived<sup>178</sup>: "Bad company ruins good morals."<sup>179</sup> <sup>34</sup> Come to your right mind, and sin no more. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

<sup>35</sup> But some one will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?" <sup>36</sup> You foolish man! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. <sup>37</sup> And what you sow is not the body which is to be, but a bare kernel, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. <sup>38</sup> But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body. <sup>39</sup> For not all flesh is alike, but there is one kind for men, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish. <sup>40</sup> There are celestial bodies and there are terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. <sup>41</sup> There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory<sup>180</sup>.

<sup>42</sup> So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. <sup>43</sup> It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup> It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body. <sup>45</sup> Thus it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. <sup>46</sup> But it is not the spiritual which is first but the physical, and then the spiritual. <sup>47</sup> The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. <sup>48</sup> As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. <sup>49</sup> Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven<sup>181</sup>. <sup>50</sup> I tell you this, brethren: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God<sup>182</sup>, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

<sup>51</sup> Lo! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, <sup>52</sup> in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound<sup>183</sup>, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. <sup>53</sup> For this perishable nature must put on the imperishable, and this mortal nature must put on immortality. <sup>54</sup> When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written:

O death, where is thy sting?" <sup>56</sup> The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup> But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

16:<sup>1</sup> Now concerning the contribution for the saints: as I directed the churches of Galatia, so you also are to do. <sup>2</sup> On the first day of every week, each of you is to put something aside and store it up, as he may prosper, so that contributions need not be made when I come. <sup>3</sup> And when I arrive, I will send those whom you accredit by letter to carry your gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> If it seems advisable that I should go also, they will accompany me.

<sup>5</sup> I will visit you after passing through Macedo'nia, for I intend to pass through Macedo'nia, <sup>6</sup> and perhaps I will stay with you or even spend the winter, so that you may speed me on my journey, wherever I go. <sup>7</sup> For I do not want to see you now just in passing; I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits. <sup>8</sup> But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, <sup>9</sup> for a wide door for effective work has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

<sup>10</sup> When Timothy comes, see that you put him at ease among you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I am. <sup>11</sup> So let no one despise him. Speed him on his way in peace, that he may return to me; for I am expecting him with the brethren.

<sup>12</sup> As for our brother Apol'los, I strongly urged him to visit you with the other brethren, but it was not at all his will to come now. He will come when he has opportunity.

<sup>13</sup> Be watchful, stand firm in your faith, be courageous, be strong. <sup>14</sup> Let all that you do be done in love.

<sup>15</sup> Now, brethren, you know that the household of Steph'anas were the first converts in Acha'ia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints; <sup>16</sup> I urge you to be subject to such men and to every fellow worker and labourer. <sup>17</sup> I rejoice at the coming of Steph'anas and Fortuna'tus and Acha'icus, because they have made up for your absence; <sup>18</sup> for they refreshed my spirit as well as yours. Give recognition to such men.

<sup>21</sup> I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. <sup>22</sup> If any one has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! <sup>23</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you. <sup>24</sup> My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The second letter of Paul to the Corinthians<sup>1</sup>

1: Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother.

To the church of God which is at Corinth, with<sup>2</sup> all the saints<sup>3</sup> who are in the whole of Acha'ia:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Comfort from suffering

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies<sup>4</sup> and God of all comfort<sup>5</sup>, 4 who comforts us in all our affliction<sup>6</sup>, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5 For as we share abundantly in Christ's sufferings, so through Christ we share abundantly in comfort too. 6 If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation<sup>7</sup>; and if we are comforted, it is for your comfort<sup>8</sup>, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we suffer. 7 Our hope for you is unshaken; for we know that as you share in our sufferings, you will also share in our comfort.

8 For we do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, of the affliction we experienced in Asia<sup>9</sup>; for we were so utterly, unbearably crushed<sup>10</sup> that we despaired of life itself. 9 Why, we felt that we had received the sentence of death; but that was to make us rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead<sup>11</sup>; 10 he delivered us from so deadly a peril, and he will deliver us; on him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again. 11 You also must help<sup>12</sup> us by prayer, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted us in answer to many prayers.

12 For our boast is this, the testimony of our conscience that we have behaved in the world, and still more toward you, with holiness and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom<sup>13</sup> but by the grace of God. 13 For we write you nothing but what you can read and understand<sup>14</sup>; I hope you will understand fully, 14 as you have understood (us) in part, that you can be proud of us as we can be of you, on the day of our<sup>15</sup> Lord Jesus.

15 Because I was sure<sup>16</sup> of this, I wanted to come to you first, so that you might have a double pleasure; 16 I wanted to visit you on my way to Macedo'nia<sup>17</sup>, and to come back to you from Macedo'nia and have you send me on my way to Judea. 17 Was I vacillating when I wanted to do this? Do I make my plans according to the flesh<sup>18</sup>, ready to say Yes and No at once<sup>19</sup>? 18 As surely as God is faithful, our word to you has not been Yes and No. 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we preached among you, Silvanus and Timothy and I<sup>20</sup>, was not Yes and No; but in him it is always Yes. 20 For all the promises of God find their Yes<sup>21</sup> in him<sup>22</sup>. That is why we utter the Amen through him, to the glory of God. 21 But it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has commissioned us; <sup>22</sup> he has put his seal upon us and given us his Spirit in our hearts<sup>23</sup> as a guarantee.

<sup>23</sup> But I call God to witness against me-- it was to spare you<sup>24</sup> that I refrained from coming to Corinth. <sup>24</sup> Not that we lord it over your faith; we work with<sup>25</sup> you for your joy, for you stand firm<sup>26</sup> in your faith. 2:1 For I made up my mind not to make you another painful<sup>27</sup> visit. <sup>2</sup> For if I cause you pain, who is there to make me glad but the one whom I have pained? <sup>3</sup> And I wrote as I did, so that when I came I might not suffer pain from those who should have made me rejoice, for I felt sure<sup>28</sup> of all of you, that my joy would be the joy of you all. <sup>4</sup> For I wrote you out of much affliction and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to cause you pain but to let you know the abundant love that I have for you<sup>29</sup>.

<sup>5</sup> But if any one has caused pain<sup>30</sup>, he has caused it not to me, but in some measure-- not to put it too severely-- to you all. <sup>6</sup> For such a one this punishment<sup>31</sup> by the majority<sup>32</sup> is enough; <sup>7</sup> so you should rather turn to forgive and comfort him, or he may be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow<sup>33</sup>. <sup>8</sup> So I beg you to reaffirm your love for him<sup>34</sup>. <sup>9</sup> For this is why I wrote, that I might test<sup>35</sup> you and know whether you are obedient<sup>36</sup> in everything. <sup>10</sup> Any one whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ,<sup>11</sup> to keep Satan from gaining the advantage over us; for we are not ignorant of his designs<sup>37</sup>.

<sup>12</sup> When I came to Tro'as to preach the gospel of Christ, a door was opened for me in the Lord; <sup>13</sup> but my mind could not rest because I did not find my brother Titus<sup>38</sup> there<sup>39</sup>. So I took leave of them and went on to Macedo'nia.

<sup>14</sup> But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumph<sup>40</sup>, and through us<sup>41</sup> spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. <sup>15</sup> For we<sup>42</sup> are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, <sup>16</sup> to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life<sup>43</sup>. Who is sufficient for these things<sup>44</sup>? <sup>17</sup> For we are not, like so many pedlars<sup>45</sup> of God's word; but as men of sincerity<sup>46</sup>, as commissioned<sup>47</sup> by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

3:1 Are we beginning to commend<sup>48</sup> ourselves again? Or do we need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you, or from you? <sup>2</sup> You yourselves are our letter of recommendation, written on your hearts, to be known and read by all men; <sup>3</sup> and you show that you are a letter from Christ delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

<sup>4</sup> Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. <sup>5</sup> Not that we are competent<sup>49</sup> of ourselves<sup>50</sup> to claim anything as coming from us; our competence is from God, <sup>6</sup> who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not in a written code but in the Spirit; for the written code<sup>51</sup> kills, but the Spirit gives life<sup>52</sup>.

<sup>7</sup> Now if the dispensation of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such splendour that the Israelites could not look at Moses' face because of its brightness, fading as this was, <sup>8</sup> will not the dispensation of the Spirit be attended with greater splendour? <sup>9</sup> For if there was splendour in the dispensation of condemnation, the dispensation of righteousness must far exceed it in splendour. <sup>10</sup> Indeed, in this case, what once had splendour<sup>53</sup> has come to have no splendour at all, because of the splendour that surpasses it. <sup>11</sup> For if what faded away came with splendour, what is permanent must have much more splendour.

<sup>12</sup> Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, <sup>13</sup> not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not see the end of the fading splendour. <sup>14</sup> But their minds were hardened; for to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. <sup>15</sup> Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their minds; <sup>16</sup> but when a man turns to the Lord the veil is removed<sup>54</sup>. <sup>17</sup> Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. <sup>18</sup> And we all<sup>55</sup>, with unveiled face<sup>56</sup>, beholding the glory<sup>A</sup> of the Lord, are being changed into his likeness<sup>A57</sup> from one degree of glory<sup>A58</sup> to another; for this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.

4:1 Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart. <sup>2</sup> We have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways; we refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God's word, but by the open statement of the truth we would commend<sup>59</sup> ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup> And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing<sup>60</sup>. <sup>4</sup> In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory<sup>A</sup> of Christ<sup>61</sup>, who is the likeness<sup>A</sup> of God. <sup>5</sup> For what we preach is not ourselves<sup>62</sup>, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants<sup>63</sup> for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup> For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory<sup>A</sup> of God in the face<sup>64</sup> of Christ<sup>65</sup>.

<sup>7</sup> But we have this treasure in earthen vessels<sup>66</sup>, to show that the transcendent power belongs to God and not to us. <sup>8</sup> We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; <sup>9</sup> persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; <sup>10</sup> always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. <sup>11</sup> For while we live we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh<sup>67</sup>. <sup>12</sup> So death is at work in us, but life in you<sup>68</sup>.

<sup>13</sup> Since we have the same spirit of faith as he had who wrote, "I believed, and so I spoke," we too believe, and so we speak, <sup>14</sup> knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence. <sup>15</sup> For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory<sup>A</sup> of God.

<sup>16</sup> So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed every day. <sup>17</sup> For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight<sup>B69</sup> of glory<sup>A</sup> beyond all comparison, <sup>18</sup> because we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen; for the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal<sup>70</sup>.

5:<sup>1</sup> For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. <sup>2</sup> Here indeed we groan, and long to put on our heavenly dwelling, <sup>3</sup> so that by putting it on we may not be found naked. <sup>4</sup> For while we are still in this tent, we groan being burdened<sup>B[7172]</sup>; not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup> He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit<sup>73</sup> as a guarantee.

<sup>6</sup> So we are always of good courage; we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, <sup>7</sup> for we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup> We are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup> So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please<sup>74</sup> him. <sup>10</sup> For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ<sup>75</sup>, so that each one may be recompensed<sup>7677</sup>, according to what he has done in the body whether good or worthless.<sup>78</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, knowing the fear<sup>79</sup> of the Lord<sup>80</sup>, we persuade men; but what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. <sup>12</sup> We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to be proud of us, so that you may be able to answer those who pride themselves on a man's position and not on his heart. <sup>13</sup> For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. <sup>14</sup> For the love of Christ controls<sup>81</sup> us, because we are convinced that one has died for all<sup>82</sup>; therefore all have died. <sup>15</sup> And he died for all, that those who live might live no longer for themselves<sup>83</sup> but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

<sup>16</sup> From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once regarded Christ from a human point of view, we regard him thus no longer. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, if any one is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away<sup>84</sup>, behold, the new has come. <sup>18</sup> All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; <sup>19</sup> that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to

Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. <sup>3</sup> We put no obstacle in any one's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, <sup>4</sup> but as servants of God we commend ourselves<sup>86</sup> in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, <sup>5</sup> beatings, imprisonments, tumults, labours, watching, hunger; <sup>6</sup> by purity, knowledge, forbearance, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love, <sup>7</sup> truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; <sup>8</sup> in honour and dishonour, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; <sup>9</sup> as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold we live; as punished, and yet not killed; <sup>10</sup> as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

Or what fellowship has light with darkness? <sup>15</sup> What accord has Christ with Be'lial? Or what has a believer in common with an unbeliever?<sup>90</sup> <sup>16</sup> What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said,

"I will live in them and move among them,

and they shall be my people.

<sup>2</sup> Open<sup>99</sup> your hearts to us; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one. <sup>3</sup> I do not say this to condemn you, for I said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together. <sup>4</sup> I have great confidence in you; I have great pride in you; I am filled with comfort. <sup>5</sup> For even when we came into Macedo'nia, our bodies had no rest but we were afflicted at every turn-- fighting without and fear within. <sup>6</sup> But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the coming of Titus, <sup>7</sup> and not only by his coming but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, as he told us of your longing, your mourning, your zeal<sup>B100</sup> for me, so that I rejoiced still more. <sup>8</sup> For even if I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it (though I did regret it), for I see that that letter grieved you, though only for a while. <sup>9</sup> As it is, I rejoice, not because you were grieved, but because you were grieved into repenting; for you felt a godly grief, so that you suffered no loss through us. <sup>10</sup> For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation and brings no regret, but worldly grief produces death. <sup>11</sup> For see what earnestness this godly grief has produced in you, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what zeal<sup>B101</sup>, what punishment! At every point you have proved yourselves guiltless in the matter. <sup>12</sup> So although I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did the wrong, nor on account of the one who suffered the wrong, but in order that your zeal<sup>B102</sup> for us might be revealed<sup>103</sup> to you in the sight of God. <sup>13</sup> Therefore we are comforted.

And besides our own comfort we rejoiced still more at the joy of Titus, because his mind has been set at rest by you all. <sup>14</sup> For if I have expressed to him some pride in you, I was not put to shame; but just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting before Titus has proved true. <sup>15</sup> And his heart goes out all the more to you, as he remembers the obedience of you all, and the fear and trembling with which you received him. <sup>16</sup> I rejoice, because I have perfect confidence in you.

8:<sup>1</sup> We want you to know, brethren, about the grace of God which has been shown in the churches of Macedo'nia, <sup>2</sup> for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of liberality on their part. <sup>3</sup> For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own free will, <sup>4</sup> begging us earnestly for the favour of taking part in the relief of the saints-- <sup>5</sup> and this, not as we expected, but first they gave themselves to the Lord and to us by the will of God. <sup>6</sup> Accordingly we have urged Titus that as he had already made a beginning, he should also complete among you this gracious work. <sup>7</sup> Now as you excel in everything-- in faith, in utterance, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in your love for us-- see that you excel in this gracious work also.

<sup>8</sup> I say this not as a command, but to prove by the earnestness of others that your love also is genuine. <sup>9</sup> For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. <sup>10</sup> And in this matter I give my advice: it is best for you now to complete what a year ago you began not only to do but to desire<sup>104</sup>, <sup>11</sup> so that your readiness in desiring it may be matched by your completing it out of what you have. <sup>12</sup> For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a man has, not according to what he has not. <sup>13</sup> I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened, <sup>14</sup> but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality. <sup>15</sup> As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack."

<sup>16</sup> But thanks be to God who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. <sup>17</sup> For he not only accepted our appeal, but being himself very earnest he is going to you of his own accord. <sup>18</sup> With him we are sending the brother who is famous among all the churches for his preaching of the gospel; <sup>19</sup> and not only that, but he has been appointed by the churches to travel with us in this gracious work which we are carrying on, for the glory of the Lord and to show our good will. <sup>20</sup> We intend that no one should blame us about this liberal gift which we are administering, <sup>21</sup> for we aim at what is honourable not only in the Lord's sight but also in the sight of men. <sup>22</sup> And with them we are sending our brother whom we have often tested and found earnest in many matters, but who is now more earnest than ever because of his great confidence in you. <sup>23</sup> As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker in your service; and as for our brethren, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup> So give proof, before the churches, of your love and of our boasting about you to these men.

9:<sup>1</sup> Now it is superfluous for me to write to you about the offering for the saints, <sup>2</sup> for I know your readiness, of which I boast about you to the people of Macedo'nia, saying that Acha'ia has been ready since last year; and your zeal has stirred up most of them. <sup>3</sup> But I am sending the brethren so that our boasting about you may not prove vain in this case, so that you may be ready, as I said you would be; <sup>4</sup> lest if some Macedo'nians come with me and find that you are not ready, we be humiliated-- to say nothing of you-- for being so confident. <sup>5</sup> So I thought it necessary to urge the brethren to go on to you before me, and arrange in advance for this gift you have promised<sup>105</sup>, so that it may be ready not as an exaction but as a willing gift<sup>106</sup>.

<sup>10</sup> He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your resources and increase the harvest of your righteousness. <sup>11</sup> You will be enriched in every way for great generosity, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God; <sup>12</sup> for the rendering of this service not only supplies the wants of the saints but also overflows in many thanksgivings to God. <sup>13</sup> Under the test of this service, they<sup>109</sup> will glorify God by your obedience in acknowledging the gospel of Christ, and by the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others; <sup>14</sup> while they long for you and pray for you, because of the surpassing grace of God in you. <sup>15</sup> Thanks be to God for his inexpressible gift!

10:<sup>1</sup> Now<sup>110</sup> I, Paul, myself entreat you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ-- I who am humble when face to face with you, but bold toward you when I am absent!--<sup>111112</sup> <sup>2</sup> I beg of you that when I am present I may not have to show boldness with such confidence as I count on showing against some who regard us as if we walked according to the flesh.<sup>113</sup> <sup>3</sup> For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh,<sup>114115</sup> <sup>4</sup> for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh<sup>116</sup>, but divinely powerful<sup>117</sup> to destroy strongholds,<sup>118</sup> <sup>5</sup> destroying arguments<sup>119</sup> and every high thing rising up against<sup>120</sup> the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ<sup>121</sup>, <sup>6</sup> being ready to punish every disobedience, whenever<sup>122</sup> your obedience is complete.

authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for destroying you, I shall not be put to shame. <sup>9</sup> I would not seem to be frightening you with letters. <sup>10</sup> For they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech of no account." <sup>11</sup> Let such people understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. <sup>12</sup> Not that we venture to class or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another, and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding<sup>123</sup>.

<sup>13</sup> But we will not boast beyond limit, but will keep to the limits God has apportioned us, to reach even to you. <sup>14</sup> For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach you; we were the first to come all the way to you with the gospel of Christ. <sup>15</sup> We do not boast beyond limit, in other men's labours; but our hope is that as your faith increases, our field among you may be greatly enlarged, <sup>16</sup> so that we may preach the gospel in lands beyond you, without boasting of work already done in another's field. <sup>17</sup> "Let him who boasts, boast of the Lord." <sup>18</sup> For it is not the man who commends himself that is accepted, but the man whom the Lord commends.

11:<sup>1</sup> I wish you would bear with me in a little foolishness. Do bear with me! <sup>2</sup> I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to Christ to present you as a pure bride to her one husband. <sup>3</sup> But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived<sup>124</sup> Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. <sup>4</sup> For if some one comes and preaches another Jesus than the one we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or if you accept a different gospel from the one you accepted, you submit to it readily enough. <sup>5</sup> I think that I am not in the least inferior to these superlative apostles. <sup>6</sup> Even if I am unskilled in speaking<sup>125</sup>, I am not in knowledge; in every way we have made this plain to you in all things.

<sup>7</sup> Did I commit a sin in abasing myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached God's gospel without cost to you?<sup>126</sup> <sup>8</sup> I robbed other churches by accepting support from them in order to serve you. <sup>9</sup> And when I was with you and was in want, I did not burden any one, for my needs were supplied by the brethren who came from Macedo'nia. So I refrained and will refrain from burdening you in any way. <sup>10</sup> As the truth of Christ is in me, this boast of mine shall not be silenced in the regions of Acha'ia. <sup>11</sup> And why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

<sup>12</sup> And what I do I will continue to do, in order to undermine the claim of those who would like to claim that in their boasted mission they work on the same terms as we do. <sup>13</sup> For such men are false apostles, deceitful<sup>127</sup> workmen, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup> And no wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. <sup>15</sup> So it is not strange if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. Their end will correspond to their deeds.

<sup>16</sup> I repeat, let no one think me foolish; but even if you do, accept me as a fool, so that I too may boast a little. <sup>17</sup> (What I am saying I say not with the Lord's authority but as a fool, in this boastful confidence; <sup>18</sup> since many boast of worldly things, I too will boast.) <sup>19</sup> For you gladly bear with fools, being wise yourselves! <sup>20</sup> For you bear it if a man makes slaves of you<sup>128</sup>, or preys upon you, or takes advantage of you, or puts on airs, or strikes you in the face. <sup>21</sup> To my shame, I must say, we were too weak<sup>129</sup> for that!

But whatever any one dares to boast of-- I am speaking as a fool-- I also dare to boast of that. <sup>22</sup> Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I. <sup>23</sup> Are they servants of Christ? I am a better one-- I am talking like a madman<sup>130</sup>-- with far greater labours, far more imprisonments<sup>131</sup>, with countless beatings, and often near death. <sup>24</sup> Five times I have received at the hands of the Jews the forty lashes less one. <sup>25</sup> Three times I have been beaten with rods; once I was stoned. Three times I have been shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been adrift at sea; <sup>26</sup> on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from robbers, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brethren; <sup>27</sup> in toil and hardship, through many a sleepless night, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure. <sup>28</sup> And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure upon me of my anxiety for all the churches. <sup>29</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to fall, and I am not indignant<sup>132?</sup>

<sup>30</sup> If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness. <sup>31</sup> The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed for ever, knows that I do not lie. <sup>32</sup> At Damascus, the governor under King Ar'etas guarded the city of Damascus in order to seize me, <sup>33</sup> but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped his hands. 12:<sup>1</sup> I must boast; there is nothing to be gained by it, but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord. <sup>2</sup> I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven-- whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows. <sup>3</sup> And I know that this man was caught up into Paradise-- whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows-- <sup>4</sup> and he heard things that cannot be told, which man may not utter. <sup>5</sup> On behalf of this man I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup> Though if I wish to boast, I shall not be a fool, for I shall be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think more of me than he sees in me or hears from me. <sup>7</sup> And to keep me from being too elated by the abundance of revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan, to harass me, to keep me from being too elated. <sup>8</sup> Three times<sup>133</sup> I besought the Lord<sup>134</sup> about this, that it should leave me<sup>135</sup>; <sup>9</sup> but he said to me<sup>136</sup>, "My grace<sup>137</sup> is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." I will all the more gladly boast of my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. <sup>10</sup> For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

<sup>11</sup> I have been a fool! You forced me to it, for I ought to have been commended by you. For I was not at all inferior to these superlative apostles, even though I am nothing. <sup>12</sup> The signs of a true apostle were performed among you in all patience, with signs and wonders and mighty works. <sup>13</sup> For in what were you less favoured than the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong!

<sup>14</sup> Here for the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be a burden, for I seek not what is yours but you; for children ought not to lay up for their parents, but parents for their children. <sup>15</sup> I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you the more, am I to be loved the less? <sup>16</sup> But granting that I myself did not burden you, I was crafty, you say, and got the better of you by guile. <sup>17</sup> Did I take advantage of you through any of those whom I sent to you? <sup>18</sup> I urged Titus to go, and sent the brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not act in the same spirit? Did we not take the same steps?

<sup>19</sup> Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves before you? It is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ, and all for your upbuilding<sup>138</sup>, beloved. <sup>20</sup> For I fear that perhaps I may come and find you not what I wish, and that you may find me not what you wish; that perhaps there may be quarrelling, jealousy, anger, selfishness, slander, gossip, conceit, and disorder. <sup>21</sup> I fear that when I come again my God may humble me before you, and I may have to mourn over many of those who sinned

For we are weak in him, but in dealing with you we shall live with him by the power of God.

<sup>5</sup> Examine yourselves, to see whether you are holding to your faith. Test yourselves. Do you not realise that Jesus Christ is in you?-- unless indeed you fail to meet the test! <sup>6</sup> I hope you will find out that we have not failed. <sup>7</sup> But we pray God that you may not do wrong-- not that we may appear to have met the test<sup>140</sup>, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed. <sup>8</sup> For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. <sup>9</sup> For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. What we pray for is your improvement<sup>141</sup>. <sup>10</sup> I write this while I am away from you, in order that when I come I may not have to be severe in my use of the authority which the Lord has given me for building up and not for tearing down.

<sup>11</sup> Finally, brethren, farewell. Mend your ways, heed my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. <sup>12</sup> Greet one another with a holy kiss. <sup>13</sup> All the saints greet you.

<sup>14</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

The Letter of Paul to the Galatians

Foundation of Ministry

1:1 Paul an apostle-- not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father<sup>1</sup>, who raised him from the dead<sup>2</sup>-- <sup>2</sup> and all the brethren who are with me,
To the churches of Galatia:

Gospel summary<sup>3</sup>

False Gospels Cursed<sup>12</sup>

<sup>6</sup> I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him<sup>13</sup> who called you in the grace of Christ<sup>14</sup> and turning to a different gospel-- <sup>7</sup> not that there is another gospel<sup>15</sup>, but there are some who trouble you and want<sup>16</sup> to pervert the gospel<sup>17</sup> of Christ. <sup>8</sup> But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to<sup>18</sup> that which we preached to you, let him be accursed<sup>19</sup>. <sup>9</sup> As we have said before, so now I say again, If any one is preaching to you a gospel contrary to<sup>20</sup> that which you received, let him be accursed.

<sup>10</sup> Am I now seeking the favour<sup>21</sup> of men<sup>22</sup>, or of God? Or am I trying to please men? If I were still pleasing men<sup>23</sup>, I should not be a servant of Christ.<sup>24</sup>

Revelation is the only basis for authority: not men's teaching

<sup>2</sup>The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the foundation of all ministry: unless Jesus had been raised Paul would not have been sent as an apostle.

<sup>3</sup>Gal 1:3-4 summarise the gospel: Jesus Christ has made us free through his sacrifice.

<sup>4</sup>All the full riches of God given to Christians in Jesus Christ (Eph 1)

<sup>7</sup>Our sins were the core problem which separated us from God and partaking of the Divine nature Heb 9:26,28; Heb 10:12.

<sup>8</sup>His purpose was to remove us from the cause of our bondage: without this "salvation" is illusory.

<sup>9</sup>The present evil age is the world (that is the whole of the present order which is in the grip of Satan (1Jn 5:19). The problem in view here is not future damnation, but the present grip of bondage of Satan has on men who have not been delivered to do what he wants to do. Men who are not delivered are not free. It is men's sins which bind them to this way of living: they are trapped in it as surely as if they were in prison. Without Christ's sacrifice there would have been no deliverance, no escape.

<sup>10</sup>It was the will of God the Father to make men free from sin: Jesus only did according to his Father's will. This eliminates any concept that there is opposition within the Godhead of the kind commonly characterised as God being the "nasty guy" insisting on destroying men, and Jesus interposing himself because he is the "nice guy".

<sup>11</sup>God the Father is to get the glory because it is was his idea to rescue Man from the consequences of his disobedience in the Garden of Eden which brought about his bondage to sin.

<sup>12</sup>1Jn 2:26-27

<sup>21</sup>Jas 4:4; 2Cor 10:18; Matt 10:37

<sup>24</sup>This is a remarkable bold statement: when we serve men we must do so as unto the Lord (VERSE), and not as unto men. This implies that Christian service for men is always conditional: it must not conflict with serving Christ.

<sup>11</sup> For I would have you know, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not a gospel according to man<sup>25</sup>. <sup>12</sup> For I did not receive it from man<sup>26</sup>, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation<sup>27</sup> of Jesus Christ. <sup>13</sup> For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it; <sup>14</sup> and I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous<sup>28</sup> was I for the traditions<sup>29</sup> of my fathers. <sup>15</sup> But when he who had set me apart before I was born, and had called<sup>30</sup> me through his grace, <sup>16</sup> was pleased<sup>31</sup> to reveal his Son in<sup>32</sup> me<sup>33</sup>, in order that I might preach him<sup>34</sup> among the Gentiles<sup>35</sup>, I did not confer<sup>36</sup> with flesh and blood, <sup>17</sup> nor did I go up to Jerusalem<sup>37</sup> to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia<sup>38</sup>; and again I returned to Damascus.

<sup>18</sup> Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and remained with him fifteen days. <sup>19</sup> But I saw none of the other apostles except James the Lord's brother<sup>39</sup>. <sup>20</sup> (In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie!) <sup>21</sup> Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup> And I was still not known by sight to the churches of Christ in Judea; <sup>23</sup> they only heard it said, "He who once persecuted us is now preaching<sup>40</sup> the faith he once tried to destroy." <sup>24</sup> And they glorified God<sup>41</sup> because of me.

Council of Jerusalem Acts 15: Principles for controversy

Freedom v Bondage

<sup>4</sup> But because of false brethren secretly brought in, who slipped in to spy<sup>47</sup> out our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage<sup>48</sup> -- <sup>5</sup> to them we did not yield submission<sup>49</sup> even for a moment, that the truth of the gospel<sup>50</sup> might be

Peter's insincerity revealed

Faith vs Works

agent<sup>79</sup> of sin? Certainly not!<sup>18</sup> But if I build up again those things which I tore<sup>80</sup> down, then I prove myself a transgressor<sup>81</sup>.

Law not binding on Hebrew Christians

<sup>19</sup> For I through the law died to the law<sup>82</sup>, that I might live to God. <sup>20</sup> I have been co-crucified<sup>83</sup> with Christ; it is no longer<sup>84</sup> I who live<sup>85</sup>, but Christ who lives in me; and the life<sup>86</sup> I now live in the flesh I live by faith in<sup>87</sup> the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself on my behalf<sup>88</sup>. <sup>21</sup> I do not nullify the grace of God<sup>89</sup>, for if righteousness<sup>90</sup> were<sup>91</sup> through the law, then Christ died to no purpose.

Galatians experience: hearing vs works

Blessing and Cursing

<sup>94</sup> The Spirit of Sonship in contrast to slavery (Rom 8:15)

<sup>95</sup> Jesus' attitude to law is that it is a matter of love: Mt 22:37-40. Then we keep his commandments without burden (1Jn 5:3).

<sup>96</sup> Rom 10:17, Gal 1:12, contrast not hearing Heb 3:7-4:13.

<sup>98</sup> Romans 7:14-24, 9:32

<sup>100</sup> Or outward observances (Galatians 4:9-10)

<sup>104</sup> That is, he believed what God told him (Ps 18:30, Lk 5:5). This is hearing with faith, which is the end of thinking I know better than God, which is the end of rebellion, which is repentance

<sup>105</sup> This is in spite of his failure to continue in faith when he took Hagar (Gen 16:4): thank God, perfection is not needed as the gifts and call of God are without repentance (Rom 11:29)

<sup>106</sup> Those who hear the word and do it (Luke 8:21)

<sup>107</sup> Contrast those who think they are, yet are not (Jn 8:37,39)

<sup>10</sup> For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed be every one who does not abide by all things written in the book of the law, and do<sup>108</sup> them." <sup>11</sup> Now it is evident that no man is justified before God by the law; for "The just shall live by faith<sup>109n</sup>"; <sup>12</sup> but the law does not rest on faith<sup>110</sup>, for "He who does them shall live by them." <sup>13</sup> Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us<sup>111</sup>-- for it is written, "Cursed be every one who hangs on a tree"-- <sup>14</sup> that in Christ Jesus the  blessing of Abraham might come upon the Gentiles, that we might receive<sup>112</sup> the promise<sup>113</sup> of the Spirit<sup>114</sup> through faith.

Promise vs Law

<sup>15</sup> To give a human example, brethren: no one annuls even a man's covenant<sup>115</sup>, or adds to it, once it has been ratified. <sup>16</sup> Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring<sup>116</sup>. It does not say, "And to offsprings," referring to many; but, referring to one, "And to your offspring," which is Christ. <sup>17</sup> This is what I mean: the law, which came four hundred and thirty years afterward, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to make the promise void. <sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance is by the law, it is no longer by promise; but God gave it to Abraham by a promise.

<sup>148</sup>Thus he brings righteousness to the earth (Is 42:1-4), not by confrontation or condemnation, but by love and upholding. Peter had to learn that this also covered Gentiles (Acts 10,11). The body is not yet fully redeemed (Rom 8.23)

<sup>149</sup>As Gal 4:1 shows it is essential to come into the full benefits which sonship confers: it is not automatic. The common translation "adoption" gives the wrong flavour: we are sons of God through only as a result of a new spiritual birth, through being "born of the Spirit" (that which is of flesh is flesh (Jn 3:5-6), and flesh cannot inherit the Kingdom of God (1Cor 15:50). What is in view is solely our entry into the full experience of the benefits of that preexistent spiritual sonship.

Remember your first love

<sup>21</sup> Tell me, you who desire to be under law<sup>178</sup>, do you not hear the law<sup>179</sup>? <sup>22</sup> For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave and one by a free woman. <sup>23</sup> But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh<sup>180</sup>, the son of the free woman through promise<sup>181</sup>. <sup>24</sup> Now this is an allegory: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; that<sup>182</sup> is Hagar, <sup>25</sup> for Mount Sinai is in Arabia<sup>183</sup>; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem<sup>184</sup>, for she is in slavery<sup>185</sup> with her children. <sup>26</sup> But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. <sup>27</sup> For it is written,

"Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear;
break forth and shout, you who are not in travail<sup>186</sup>;
for the children of the desolate one are many more than the children of her that is married."<sup>187</sup>

<sup>28</sup> Now we, brethren, like Isaac, are children of promise<sup>188</sup>. <sup>29</sup> But as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so it is now.

Old Covenant regulations, were fore-indicators of what was to come (Heb 9:1,23, 10:1): now the reality is here they are redundant.

<sup>166</sup> Paul did not regard this ailment as providing an excuse for not doing it (Phil 2:25). [Dealing with sickness: 1Tim 5:23.

<sup>2</sup> Now I, Paul, say to you that if you receive circumcision<sup>197</sup>, Christ will be of no benefit<sup>198</sup> to you. <sup>3</sup> I testify again to every man who receives circumcision that he is bound to keep the whole law<sup>199</sup>. <sup>4</sup> You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law<sup>200</sup>; you have fallen away from grace<sup>201</sup>. <sup>5</sup> For through the Spirit, by<sup>202</sup> faith, we (eagerly)<sup>203</sup> wait for the hope of righteousness<sup>204</sup>. <sup>6</sup> For in Christ Jesus circumcision has no value, nor uncircumcision<sup>205</sup>, but only faith made effective<sup>206</sup> through love<sup>207</sup>. <sup>7</sup> You were running well; who hindered you from obeying the truth? <sup>8</sup> This persuasion is not from him who called<sup>208</sup> you. <sup>9</sup> A little<sup>209</sup> leaven leavens the whole lump. <sup>10</sup> I have confidence in the Lord<sup>210</sup> that you will take no other view (than mine); and he who is troubling you will bear his judgement<sup>211</sup>, whoever he is. <sup>11</sup> But if I, brethren, still preach circumcision<sup>212</sup>, why am I<sup>213</sup> still persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the cross has been removed<sup>214</sup>. <sup>12</sup> I wish those who unsettle you would be cut off themselves!<sup>215</sup>

<sup>2</sup> One sent forth with a specific mission: Luke 11.49; Gen 45.7; Ex 3.10-15; Is 6:8-9; Jer 1.7; Ezek 2.3; Amos 7:15; Jer 23.21.

<sup>3</sup> Eph 1.5,9,11

<sup>4</sup> Or "Paul, one Jesus Christ sent forth through the will of God". Man's desires are irrelevant: must know God's will, and that what we do is sent of Christ. Jesus always did God's will (John 6.38)

<sup>5</sup> normal description of God's people (never addressed as "sinners")

<sup>6</sup> part of will of God for us

<sup>7</sup> Or, if "in Ephesus" omitted (as some texts), then "who are in Christ Jesus and faithful (to him)".

(RSV, "who are also faithful in Christ Jesus"). This appears to be a General letter: there is no reference to anything or anyone specifically at Ephesus

<sup>8</sup> expanded in Eph 1.3-8

<sup>9</sup> refers to the reconciliation of all things (Eph 1.9-10)

<sup>10</sup> Eph 1:3-14 is one long sentence, summarising the Gospel of Christ in a hymn of praise to God the Father, and revealing the character and functions of each member of the Trinity. Supremely it glorifies the Lord Jesus Christ to whom reference is made in almost every verse. The convoluted nature of the sentence and the complexity of the concepts makes translation difficult. Breaking it into short English sentences seriously spoils the balance of the Greek

<sup>11</sup> = "Well spoken of". Essentially same Greek word as that used of Father blessing us. Paul obeys command to bless God (Psalm 134.1)

<sup>12</sup> Old Testament concept of Father blessing his son in view. Father's blessing is very powerful with respect to destiny (e.g. Isaac's blessing of Jacob (Gen 27) and Jacob's blessing his of sons (Gen 49)). The blessing not only affects the son but his seed within him (Gen 27:18 relates to Christ (Gal 3:16)): this is how we are blessed in Christ

<sup>15</sup> Note the wide extent of this blessing; Eph 1.14; We shall bear Christ's image (1 Cor 15.45-50)

<sup>16</sup> What is in view is a "choosing of a corporate people (us) in Christ for a purpose", not the selection of individuals to be in Christ. Realisation of this destroys presumption and elevates Christ, we have nothing unless we are in Him

<sup>17</sup> as we are chosen on the basis of a specification (that we are the body of Christ, and Christ has been chosen on the basis of His merit) this pre-choosing presents no conceptual difficulty

<sup>18</sup> = "set apart" Part of God's will for us

<sup>21</sup> (RSV="be his sons"). Part of God's predestined will for us is that we become exactly like Christ in all respects (Rom 8:29), achieved through the work of the Holy Spirit (Eph 1:13). Sonship is greater than childhood: we must receive our position as sons (there was a ritual in which a child became a "son" of his father, which could be applied equally to his own son, or to someone else he wished to make his son. This sonship allowed the son to fully inherit his father's estate etc. (see Gal 4:1 for the slave status of a child until this has been done). This is NOT adoption of children as now understood (AV text very misleading): we must be BORN (John 3:3-7) into God's family

<sup>26</sup> (RSV = "his glorious grace") God's purpose was to show the immense greatness of His graciousness towards us by accounting us part of His Beloved Son, so that onlookers (e.g. the angels 1Pet 1:12) might be caused to marvel and praise the LORD. The work of grace in salvation in Christ was done before we knew it. His grace gets praised by us when we come to know it, Eph 1.9,17,18. It is made to abound to us ("lavished upon us" Eph 1.8) when we really know it: until we know it cannot abound by effectually saving us from the power of sin, the world, devil etc..

<sup>27</sup> Or (following Received Text) "in which (grace) he has made us favoured in the Beloved"

<sup>30</sup> the favour experienced by a condemned man

<sup>33</sup> See note on "grace" in Eph 1.6

<sup>35</sup> (RSV = "For he has")

<sup>37</sup> It was previously hidden, but is no longer hidden to us (Eph 3.4-5; 1.17)

<sup>38</sup> Eph 1:1,5,11

<sup>40</sup> (RSV omits "had") This was done before the foundation of the world (Eph 1.4)

<sup>45</sup> Main focus is the principalities and powers etc. (Eph 1:20-23; Col 1.15-20); secondary focus is the reconciliation of Jew and Gentile (Eph 2.15)

<sup>49</sup> This is the ultimate purpose of God in history

<sup>50</sup> Translation of the Greek of Eph 1:11-14 is difficult, as it is not entirely clear whether it speaks of us being God's inheritance and God benefits, or, what is more probable (Eph 1:18), of our inheritance and benefit

<sup>54</sup> Eph 1:1,5,9

<sup>58</sup> (RSV omits "beforehand"). Those who were looking to the deliverance from the Messiah before He came, that is the Jews (Rom 8.29; Rom 11:2) should be to<sup>59</sup> the praise of his glory<sup>D60</sup>. <sup>13</sup> In him<sup>B</sup> you<sup>61</sup> also, having heard<sup>62</sup> the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and having<sup>63</sup> believed in him, were sealed<sup>64</sup> with the promised<sup>65</sup> Holy Spirit, <sup>14</sup> who<sup>66</sup> is the guarantee<sup>67</sup> of our inheritance<sup>68</sup> until the possession<sup>69</sup> is redeemed<sup>70</sup>, to the praise of his glory<sup>D71</sup>.

2) what are the riches<sup>81</sup> of the glory of his inheritance<sup>82</sup> in<sup>83</sup> the saints, <sup>19</sup> and
3) what is the immeasurable greatness of his power<sup>84</sup> towards<sup>85</sup> us<sup>86</sup> who believe<sup>87</sup>, according to the working of the might of his strength<sup>88</sup> <sup>20</sup> which he operated<sup>89</sup> in Christ when

---

<sup>59</sup> (RSV = "have been destined and appointed to live for")

<sup>60</sup> Ultimate destined purpose of God for us (Eph 1:6,14). In terms of the Jews what magnifies God's grace "to the praise of his glory" (Eph 1:6) is that God has kept His promises of the coming Messiah to Abraham and David in spite of all the human failures

<sup>64</sup> This is the security mark signifying God's new ownership of us. (This probably refers to the indwelling Holy Spirit rather than the empowering of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit: 2 Cor 1:21 refers to the anointing (= Baptism in the Holy Spirit) as being distinct from the sealing of the Spirit in our HEARTS (2 Cor 1:22); sealing relates to salvation (Eph 1:13) and redemption (Eph 4.30), again both inward works rather than to the Spirit's empowering; Rev 9.4 refers to the seal of God being on the forehead, again relating to our position in Christ, rather than power for service)

<sup>67</sup> Or "pledge" (Greek word is transliterated Hebrew used in Gen 38:17,18,20) or "down-payment". (A traders' word: money given in advance to a vendor as security for the rest). See also 2 Cor 1.21-22 & 2 Cor 5.5 which make clear that the down-payment of the Spirit is given to us in our hearts. Remarkably, the down-payment is paid TO US to provide our assurance.

<sup>68</sup> We get this in virtue of being among the sanctified (Acts 20.32). Inheritance is never random or arbitrary, but is the result of a definite choice by the testator, usually to a member of the same family. Note, the Greek could possibly read "who is the guarantee of (Christ's) possession of us"

<sup>70</sup> Lit. "with a view to the redemption of the possession", i.e. until the whole of the christian is redeemed by God. (RSV = "until we acquire possession of it") Again the unusual feature is that when God has paid the full price and possesses all of us it is WE who obtain the full benefit and possess all our inheritance (in Christ). That God allows even Gentiles to receive this magnifies God's grace "to the praise of his glory" (Eph 1:6). For the nature of the inheritance see Eph 1.3 (blessings in Christ), Rom 8.23 (the redemption of our bodies), 2 Cor 5.4-5 (to be fully clothed, so that what is mortal is swallowed up by life). "redemption" is same word as in Eph 1:7

<sup>72</sup> Faith & love are the twin prerequisite qualities needed to receive the full-knowledge (Eph 1.17)

<sup>73</sup> whether Jew or gentile believers. All are to be served in love and have feet washed (John 13.14-15)

<sup>74</sup> Eph 1.1-3.21 is the answer to this prayer!

a great mystery<sup>370</sup>, and I take it to mean<sup>371</sup> Christ and the church; <sup>33</sup> however, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

6:<sup>1</sup> Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. <sup>2</sup> "Honour your father and mother" (this is the first commandment with a promise), <sup>3</sup> "that it may be well with you and that you may live long on the earth." <sup>4</sup> Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord<sup>372</sup>.

The letter of Paul to the Philippians<sup>1</sup>

1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus,
To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philip'pi, with the bishops and deacons:
2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, 4 always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, 5 thankful for your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. 6 And I am sure that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. 7 It is right for me to feel thus about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel. 8 For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus. 9 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, 10 so that you may approve what is excellent, and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, 11 filled with the fruit<sup>2</sup> of righteousness which come through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

12 I want you to know, brethren, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel, 13 so that it has become known throughout the whole praetorian guard and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ; 14 and most of the brethren have been made confident in the Lord because of my imprisonment, and are much more bold to speak the word of God without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from good will. 16 The latter do it out of love, knowing that I am put here for the defence of the gospel; 17 the former proclaim Christ out of partisanship, not sincerely but thinking to afflict me in my imprisonment. 18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and in that I rejoice.

19 Yes, and I shall rejoice. For I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, 20 as it is my eager expectation and hope that I shall not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honoured in my body, whether by life or by death. 21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 If it is to be life in the flesh, that means fruitful labour for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell. 23 I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better. 24 But to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account. 25 Convinced of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 so that in me you may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again.

27 Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you stand firm in one spirit<sup>B3</sup>, with one mind<sup>A4</sup> striving side by side for the faith of the gospel, 28 and not frightened in anything by your opponents<sup>5</sup>. This is a clear omen to them of their destruction<sup>6</sup>, but of your salvation, and that from God. 29 For it has been granted<sup>7</sup> to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake, 30 engaged in the same conflict which you saw and now hear to be mine<sup>8</sup>.

2:1 So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any incentive of love, any participation in the Spirit<sup>B9</sup>, any affection and sympathy, 2 complete my joy by being of the same mind<sup>A10</sup>, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. 3 Do nothing from selfishness or conceit, but in humility count others better<sup>11</sup> than yourselves. 4 Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. <sup>5</sup> Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, <sup>7</sup> but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant<sup>12</sup>, being born in the likeness of men. <sup>8</sup> And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. <sup>9</sup> Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, <sup>10</sup> that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, <sup>11</sup> and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; <sup>13</sup> for God is at work in you, both to will<sup>13</sup> and to work for his<sup>14</sup> good pleasure<sup>15</sup>.

<sup>19</sup> I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I may be cheered by news of you. <sup>20</sup> I have no one like him, who will be genuinely anxious for your welfare. <sup>21</sup> They all look after their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> But Timothy's worth you know, how as a son with a father he has served with me in the gospel. <sup>23</sup> I hope therefore to send him just as soon as I see how it will go with me; <sup>24</sup> and I trust in the Lord that shortly I myself shall come also.

<sup>25</sup> I have thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister to my need, <sup>26</sup> for he has been longing for you all, and has been distressed because you heard that he was ill. <sup>27</sup> Indeed he was ill, near to death. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup> I am the more eager to send him, therefore, that you may rejoice at seeing him again, and that I may be less anxious. <sup>29</sup> So receive him in the Lord with all joy; and honour such men, <sup>30</sup> for he nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete your service to me.

3:1 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is not irksome to me, and is safe for you.

knowing<sup>25</sup> Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as refuse, in order that I may gain Christ<sup>9</sup> and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, based on law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God<sup>26</sup> that depends on faith; <sup>10</sup> that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, <sup>11</sup> that if possible<sup>27</sup> I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

<sup>12</sup> Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. <sup>13</sup> Brethren, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but one thing I do, forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, <sup>14</sup> I press on toward the goal<sup>28</sup> for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Let those of us who are mature be thus minded; and if in anything you are otherwise minded, God<sup>29</sup> will reveal that also to you. <sup>16</sup> Only let us hold true to what we have attained.

<sup>17</sup> Brethren, join in imitating me, and mark those who so live as you have an example in us. <sup>18</sup> For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, live as enemies of the cross of Christ. <sup>19</sup> Their end is destruction, their god is the belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. <sup>20</sup> But our commonwealth is in heaven, and from it we await a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> who will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power which enables him even to subject all things to himself.

4:1 Therefore, my brethren, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved.

<sup>10</sup> I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me; you were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. <sup>11</sup> Not that I complain of want; for I have learned, in whatever state<sup>41</sup> I am, to be content. <sup>12</sup> I know how to be abased,

Letter of Paul to the Colossians<sup>1</sup>

1: Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ at Colos'sae:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray<sup>2</sup> for you, 4 because we have heard of your 1) faith in Christ Jesus and of the 2) love which you have for all the saints, 5 because of 3) the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel<sup>3</sup> 6 which has come to you, as indeed in<sup>G4</sup> the whole world it<sup>5</sup> is bearing fruit and growing-- so among<sup>G6</sup> yourselves, from the day you heard and understood<sup>7</sup> the grace of God in truth<sup>8</sup>, 7 as you learned it from Ep'aphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf 8 and has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

The pattern of progressive growth in the gospel<sup>9</sup>

9 And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray<sup>10</sup> for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will<sup>D</sup> in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 to lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God<sup>D</sup>. 11 May you be strengthened with all power<sup>11</sup>, according<sup>12</sup> to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance<sup>A13</sup> of the saints in light. 13 by delivering<sup>14</sup> us from the authority<sup>15</sup> of darkness and transferring<sup>16</sup> us to the kingdom<sup>A</sup> of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

15 He is the image<sup>17</sup> of the invisible God, the first-born<sup>C18</sup> of all creation<sup>E19</sup>; 16 for in him all things<sup>20</sup> were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities-- all things were created through him and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together<sup>21</sup>. 18 He is the head of the body, the church<sup>E22</sup>; he is the beginning, the first-born<sup>C</sup> from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent<sup>C</sup>. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things<sup>D</sup>, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

21 And you<sup>D</sup>, who once were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled<sup>D</sup> in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him, 23 provided that you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast<sup>23</sup>, not shifting from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which has been preached to every creature<sup>24</sup> under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister.

<sup>22</sup>Just as Christ was first in creation, so is He in respect of the church - the ideas parallel

<sup>24</sup> Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I complete<sup>25</sup> what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, <sup>25</sup> of which I became a minister according to the divine office which was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, <sup>26</sup> the mystery<sup>F</sup> hidden for ages and generations but now<sup>F</sup> made manifest<sup>F</sup> to his saints. <sup>27</sup> To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery<sup>G26</sup>, which is Christ in you<sup>27</sup>, the hope of glory<sup>28</sup>. <sup>28</sup> Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man mature in Christ<sup>H29</sup>. <sup>29</sup> For this I toil, striving with all the energy which he mightily inspires within me<sup>30</sup>.

2:1 For I want you to know how greatly I strive for you, and for those at La-odice'a, and for all who have not seen my face, <sup>2</sup> that their hearts may be encouraged as they are knit together in love, to have all the riches of assured understanding<sup>31</sup> and the knowledge of God's mystery, of Christ<sup>G32</sup>, <sup>3</sup> in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge<sup>33</sup>. <sup>4</sup> (I say this in order that no one may delude you with beguiling speech<sup>34</sup>.) <sup>5</sup> For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ<sup>H35</sup>.

<sup>6</sup> As therefore you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so live in him, <sup>7</sup> rooted<sup>36</sup> and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

<sup>8</sup> See to it that no one makes a prey of you by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits<sup>37</sup> of the universe<sup>3839</sup>, and not according to Christ. <sup>9</sup> For in him the whole fullness<sup>J</sup> of the godhead<sup>40</sup> dwells bodily, <sup>10</sup> and you have come to fullness<sup>J</sup> of life in him<sup>41</sup>, who is the head of all rule and authority. <sup>11</sup> In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of flesh in the circumcision of Christ; <sup>12</sup> and you were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead<sup>42</sup>. <sup>13</sup> And you, who were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh<sup>43</sup>, God made alive<sup>44</sup> together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, <sup>14</sup> having cancelled the bond which stood against us with its legal demands; this he set aside, nailing it to the cross. <sup>15</sup> He<sup>45</sup> disarmed the principalities and powers and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in him<sup>46</sup>.

<sup>12</sup> Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience, <sup>13</sup> forbearing one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving<sup>70</sup> each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. <sup>14</sup> And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect

The first letter of Paul to the Thessalonians<sup>1</sup>

1:; Paul, Silva'nus<sup>2</sup>, and Timothy<sup>3</sup>, To the church of the Thessalo'nians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
Grace to you and peace.

Past, present and future foundation of faith

2: For you yourselves know, brethren, that our visit to you was not in vain; <sup>2</sup> but though we had already suffered and been shamefully treated at Philip'pi<sup>20</sup>, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in the face of great opposition<sup>21</sup>. <sup>3</sup> For our appeal does not spring from error or uncleanness, nor is it made with guile<sup>22</sup>; <sup>4</sup> but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please men, but to please God who tests our hearts. <sup>5</sup> For we never used either words of flattery, as you know, or a cloak for greed<sup>23</sup>, as God is witness; <sup>6</sup> nor did we seek glory from men<sup>24</sup>, whether from you or from others, though we<sup>25</sup> might have made demands<sup>26</sup> as apostles<sup>27</sup> of Christ. <sup>7</sup> But we were gentle among you, like a nurse<sup>28</sup> taking care of her own<sup>29</sup> children. <sup>8</sup> So, being affectionately desirous of<sup>30</sup> you, we were ready to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you had become very dear to us.

<sup>9</sup> For you remember our labour and toil, brethren; we worked night and day that we might not burden any of you<sup>31</sup>, while we preached to you the gospel of God. <sup>10</sup> You are witnesses, and God also, how holy and righteous and blameless was our behaviour to you believers; <sup>11</sup> for you know how, like a father<sup>32</sup> with his own<sup>33</sup> children<sup>34</sup>, we instructed<sup>35</sup> each one of you,<sup>36</sup> encouraging<sup>37</sup> you and solemnly appealed to<sup>38</sup> you <sup>12</sup> to lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup> And we also thank God constantly for this, that when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men<sup>39</sup> but as what it really is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers. <sup>14</sup> For you, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus which are in Judea; for you suffered the same things from your own countrymen as they did from the Jews, <sup>15</sup> who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out, and displease God and oppose all men <sup>16</sup> by hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles that they may be saved-- so as always to fill up the measure of their sins. But God's wrath has come upon them at last!

<sup>17</sup> But since we were bereft of you, brethren, for a short time, in person not in heart, we endeavoured the more eagerly and with great desire to see you face to face; <sup>18</sup> because we wanted to come to you-- I, Paul, again and again-- but Satan hindered us. <sup>19</sup> For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you? <sup>20</sup> For you are our glory and joy.

3:<sup>1</sup> Therefore when we could bear it no longer, we were willing to be left behind at Athens alone, <sup>2</sup> and we sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in the gospel of Christ, to establish you in your faith and to exhort you, <sup>3</sup> that no one be moved by these afflictions. You yourselves know that this is to be our lot. <sup>4</sup> For when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we were to suffer affliction; just as it has come to pass, and as you know. <sup>5</sup> For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent that I might know your faith, for fear that somehow the tempter had tempted you and that our labour would be in vain.

<sup>6</sup> But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us the good news of your faith and love and reported that you always remember us kindly and long to see us, as we long to see you-- <sup>7</sup> for this reason, brethren, in all our distress and affliction we have been comforted about you through your faith; <sup>8</sup> for now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. <sup>9</sup> For what thanksgiving can we render to God for you, for all the joy which we feel for your sake before our God, <sup>10</sup> praying earnestly night and day that we may see you face to face and supply what is lacking in your faith?

<sup>11</sup> Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you; <sup>12</sup> and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love to one another and to all men, as we do to you, <sup>13</sup> so that he may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

4:<sup>1</sup> Finally, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that as you learned from us how you ought to live and to please God, just as you are doing, you do so more and more. <sup>2</sup> For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup> For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from unchastity; <sup>4</sup> that each one of you know how to take a wife for himself<sup>40</sup> in holiness<sup>41</sup> and honour, <sup>5</sup> not in the passion of lust

<sup>9</sup> But concerning love of the brethren you have no need to have any one write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another; <sup>10</sup> and indeed you do love all the brethren throughout Macedo'nia. But we exhort you, brethren, to do so more and more, <sup>11</sup> to aspire to live quietly, to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands<sup>42</sup>, as we charged you; <sup>12</sup> so that you may command the respect of outsiders, and be dependent on nobody.

<sup>12</sup> But we beseech you, brethren, to respect those who labour<sup>74</sup> among you and are over<sup>75</sup> you in the Lord and admonish you<sup>76</sup>, <sup>13</sup> and to esteem them very highly in love because of their work<sup>77</sup>. Be at peace among yourselves. <sup>14</sup> And we exhort you, brethren, admonish the idlers<sup>78</sup>, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all. <sup>15</sup> See that none of you repays evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to all. <sup>16</sup> Rejoice always, <sup>17</sup> pray constantly, <sup>18</sup> give thanks in all<sup>79</sup> circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. <sup>19</sup> Do not quench the Spirit, <sup>20</sup> do not despise prophesying, <sup>21</sup> but test everything<sup>80</sup>; hold fast what is good<sup>81</sup>, <sup>22</sup> abstain from every form of evil.

<sup>23</sup> May the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup> He who calls you is faithful, and he will do it.

<sup>27</sup> I adjure you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the brethren.

<sup>28</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

The second letter of Paul to the Thessalonians

1: Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy<sup>1</sup>, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren, as is fitting, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. 4 Therefore we ourselves boast of you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you are enduring.

5 This is evidence of the righteous judgement of God, that you may be made worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering-- 6 since indeed God deems it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, 7 and to grant rest with us to you who are afflicted, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, 8 inflicting vengeance upon those who do not know God and upon those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. 9 They shall suffer the punishment of eternal destruction and exclusion from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, 10 when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. 11 To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his call, and may fulfil every good resolve and work of faith by his power, 12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2: Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our assembling to meet him, we beg you, brethren, 2 not to be quickly shaken in mind or excited<sup>2</sup>, either by spirit or by word, or by letter purporting to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come, unless the rebellion<sup>3</sup> comes first, and the man of lawlessness<sup>4</sup> is revealed, the son of perdition, 4 who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God<sup>5</sup>. 5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you this? 6 And you know what is restraining him now so that he may be revealed in his time. 7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way. 8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, and the Lord Jesus will slay him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and his coming<sup>6</sup>. 9 The coming of the lawless one by the activity of Satan will be with all power and with pretended signs and wonders, 10 and with all wicked deception for those who are to perish, because they refused to love<sup>7</sup> the truth<sup>8</sup> and so be saved. 11 Therefore God sends upon them a strong delusion<sup>9</sup>, to make them believe what is false, 12 so that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness<sup>10</sup>.

13 But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. 14 To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brethren, stand firm and hold to the traditions<sup>11</sup> which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter.

<sup>16</sup> Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup> comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

3: Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may speed on and triumph, as it did among you, <sup>2</sup> and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men<sup>12</sup>; for not all have faith. <sup>3</sup> But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from evil. <sup>4</sup> And we have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will do the things which we command<sup>A</sup>. <sup>5</sup> May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

<sup>6</sup> Now we command<sup>A13</sup> you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away<sup>14</sup> from any brother who is living in idleness<sup>15</sup> and not in accord with the tradition<sup>16</sup> that you received from us. <sup>7</sup> For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate<sup>B17</sup> us; we were not idle when we were with you, <sup>8</sup> we did not eat any one's bread without paying<sup>18</sup>, but with toil and labour we worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you<sup>19</sup>. <sup>9</sup> It was not because we have not that right<sup>20</sup>, but to give you in our conduct an example<sup>21</sup> to imitate<sup>B</sup>. <sup>10</sup> For even when we were with you, we gave you this command<sup>A22</sup>: If any one will<sup>23</sup> not work, let him not eat<sup>24</sup>. <sup>11</sup> For we hear that some of you are living in idleness<sup>25</sup>, mere busybodies<sup>26</sup>, not doing any work. <sup>12</sup> Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work in quietness and to earn their own living<sup>27</sup>. <sup>13</sup> Brethren, do not be weary in well-doing<sup>28</sup>.

<sup>14</sup> If any one refuses to obey what we say in this letter, note that man, and have nothing to do<sup>29</sup> with him, that he may be ashamed<sup>30</sup>. <sup>15</sup> Do not look on him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

<sup>16</sup> Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

<sup>17</sup> I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. This is the mark in every letter of mine; it is the way I write. <sup>18</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

First letter of Paul to Timothy<sup>1</sup>

1: Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by command of God our Saviour and of Christ Jesus our hope,

2 To Timothy, my true child<sup>2</sup> in the faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I urged you when I was going to Macedonia, remain at Ephesus that you may charge certain persons not to teach any different doctrine<sup>3</sup>,<sup>4</sup> nor to occupy themselves with myths and endless genealogies which promote speculations rather than the divine training that is in faith;<sup>5</sup> whereas the aim<sup>4</sup> of our charge is love<sup>5</sup> that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith<sup>7</sup>.<sup>6</sup> Certain persons by swerving from these have wandered away into vain discussion<sup>8</sup>,<sup>7</sup> desiring to be teachers of the law, without understanding either what they are saying or the things about which they make assertions<sup>9</sup>.

8 Now we know that the law is good, if any one uses it lawfully,<sup>9</sup> understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just<sup>10</sup> but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,<sup>10</sup> immoral persons, sodomites, kidnappers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine,<sup>11</sup> in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted.

12 I thank him who has given me strength for this, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he judged me faithful by appointing me to his service,<sup>13</sup> though I formerly blasphemed and persecuted and insulted him; but I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief,<sup>14</sup> and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.<sup>15</sup> The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. And I am the foremost of sinners;<sup>16</sup> but I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience for an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life.<sup>17</sup> To the King of ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit to you, Timothy, my son, in accordance with the prophetic utterances<sup>11</sup> which pointed to you, that inspired by them you may wage the good warfare<sup>12</sup>,<sup>19</sup> holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting conscience, certain persons have made shipwreck of their faith,<sup>20</sup> among them Hymenaeus<sup>13</sup> and Alexander, whom I have delivered to Satan<sup>14</sup> that they may learn not to blaspheme.

2: First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all men,<sup>2</sup> for kings and all who are in high positions<sup>15</sup>, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, godly and respectful in every way.<sup>3</sup> This is good, and it is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour,<sup>4</sup> who desires all men to be saved<sup>16</sup> and to come

<sup>5</sup>Maturity is this, not teaching

<sup>7</sup>unhypocritical. Pure heart - right motives - not greed & immorality. Good conscience - so we can be open with people. Unhypocritical faith - so our love is genuine and not "put on"

<sup>9</sup>e.g. the law. Many Christian teachers are like this -as the scribes too - don't get to the root Matt 19:3-9

<sup>10</sup>Purpose of law is to expose sinners

<sup>11</sup>Must recall what these are, as needed

<sup>12</sup>1 Tim 6:12

<sup>15</sup>God is not intending this as an end in itself (maintaining the status quo) but with a view to easy doing of V4. Matt 28:18-20; Jer 29:7; Acts 9:31; 1 Cor 7:31; Jn 17:9, contrast Neh 4:16. The actions of leaders affect us all: Jewish leaders killed Christ, but all Jews suffered scattering. Leaders act on our behalf.

to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>5</sup> For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> who gave himself as a ransom for all, the testimony to which was borne at the proper time. <sup>7</sup> For this I was appointed a preacher and apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup> I desire then that in every place the men<sup>17</sup> should pray, lifting holy hands without anger<sup>18</sup> or quarrelling<sup>19</sup>; <sup>9</sup> also that women should adorn themselves modestly and sensibly in seemly apparel, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly attire <sup>10</sup> but by good deeds, as befits women who profess religion. <sup>11</sup> Let a woman learn in silence<sup>20</sup> with all submissiveness. <sup>12</sup> I permit no woman to teach<sup>21</sup> or to have authority<sup>22</sup> over the man<sup>23,24</sup>; she is to keep silent<sup>25</sup>. <sup>13</sup> For Adam was formed first, then Eve<sup>26</sup>; <sup>14</sup> and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived<sup>27</sup> and became a transgressor. <sup>15</sup> Yet woman will be saved<sup>28</sup> through bearing children<sup>29</sup>, if she<sup>30</sup> continues in faith and love and holiness, with modesty.

<sup>14</sup> I hope to come to you soon, but I am writing these instructions to you so that, <sup>15</sup> if I am delayed, you may know how one ought to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and bulwark of the truth<sup>39</sup>. <sup>16</sup> Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of our religion:

He was manifested in the flesh,
vindicated in the Spirit,
seen by angels,
preached among the nations,
believed on in the world,
taken up in glory.

4:<sup>1</sup> Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by giving heed to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons, <sup>2</sup> through the pretensions of liars whose consciences are seared, <sup>3</sup> who forbid marriage<sup>40</sup> and enjoin abstinence from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth<sup>41</sup>. <sup>4</sup> For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if<sup>42</sup> it is received with thanksgiving; <sup>5</sup> for then it is consecrated by the word of God and prayer.

<sup>9</sup> Let a widow be enrolled<sup>51</sup> if she is not less than sixty years of age, having been the wife of one husband; <sup>10</sup> and she must be well attested for her good deeds, as one who has brought up children, shown hospitality, washed the feet of the saints, relieved the afflicted, and devoted herself to doing good in every way<sup>52</sup>. <sup>11</sup> But refuse to enrol younger widows; for when they grow wanton against Christ they desire to marry, <sup>12</sup> and so they incur condemnation for having violated their first pledge<sup>53</sup>. <sup>13</sup> Besides that, they learn to be idlers,

<sup>51</sup> Widows appear to be a class of church-worker (1Tim 5:5) who are set apart and agree not to remarry (1Tim 5:11-12)

gadding about from house to house, and not only idlers but gossips and busybodies, saying what they should not. <sup>14</sup> So I would have younger widows marry, bear children, rule their households, and give the enemy no occasion to revile us. <sup>15</sup> For some have already strayed after Satan. <sup>16</sup> If any believing woman has relatives who are widows, let her assist them; let the church not be burdened, so that it may assist those who are real widows.

<sup>17</sup> Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in preaching and teaching; <sup>18</sup> for the scripture says, "You shall not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain," and, "The labourer deserves his wages." <sup>19</sup> Never admit any charge against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses<sup>54</sup>. <sup>20</sup> As for those who persist in sin, rebuke them in the presence of all<sup>55</sup>, so that the rest may stand in fear. <sup>21</sup> In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of the elect angels I charge you to keep these rules without favour, doing nothing from partiality. <sup>22</sup> Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands<sup>56</sup>, nor participate in another man's sins<sup>57</sup>; keep yourself pure.

6:1 Let all who are under the yoke of slavery regard their masters as worthy of all honour, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be defamed. <sup>2</sup> Those who have believing masters must not be disrespectful on the ground that they are brethren; rather they must serve all the better since those who benefit by their service are believers and beloved.

Teach and urge these duties. <sup>3</sup> If any one teaches otherwise and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching<sup>60</sup> which accords with godliness, <sup>4</sup> he is puffed up with conceit, he knows nothing; he has a morbid craving for controversy and for disputes about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, base suspicions, <sup>5</sup> and wrangling among men who are depraved in mind and bereft of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain. <sup>6</sup> There is great gain in godliness with contentment<sup>61</sup>; <sup>7</sup> for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world; <sup>8</sup> but if we have food and clothing<sup>62</sup>, with these we shall be content. <sup>9</sup> But those who desire to be rich<sup>63</sup> fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and hurtful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction. <sup>10</sup> For the love of money is the root of all evils; it is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced their hearts with many pangs.

The second letter of Paul to Timothy<sup>1</sup>

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup> I thank God whom I serve with a clear conscience, as did my fathers, when I remember you constantly in my prayers. <sup>4</sup> As I remember your tears, I long night and day to see you, that I may be filled with joy. <sup>5</sup> I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lo'is and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you. <sup>6</sup> Hence I remind you to rekindle the gift of God<sup>3</sup> that is within you through the laying on of my hands; <sup>7</sup> for God did not give us a spirit of timidity<sup>4</sup> but a spirit of power and love and self-control<sup>5</sup>.

<sup>8</sup> Do not be ashamed then of testifying to our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel in the power of God, <sup>9</sup> who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not in virtue of our works but in virtue of his own purpose and the grace which he gave us in Christ Jesus ages ago, <sup>10</sup> and now has manifested<sup>6</sup> through the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. <sup>11</sup> For this gospel I was appointed a preacher and apostle and teacher, <sup>12</sup> and therefore I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am sure<sup>7</sup> that he is able to guard until that Day what has been entrusted to me. <sup>13</sup> Follow the pattern of the sound words which you have heard from me, in the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus; <sup>14</sup> guard the truth that has been entrusted to you by the Holy Spirit who dwells within us<sup>8</sup>.

<sup>15</sup> You are aware that all who are in Asia turned away from me, and among them Phy'gelus and Hermog'enes. <sup>16</sup> May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiph'orus, for he often refreshed me; he was not ashamed of my chains, <sup>17</sup> but when he arrived in Rome he searched for me eagerly and found me-- <sup>18</sup> may the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that Day-- and you well know all the service he rendered at Ephesus.

<sup>2</sup>:<sub>1</sub> You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup> and what you have heard<sup>9</sup> from me before many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. <sup>3</sup> Share in suffering<sup>10</sup> as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. <sup>4</sup> No soldier on service gets entangled<sup>11</sup> in civilian pursuits<sup>12</sup>, since his aim is to satisfy the one who enlisted him. <sup>5</sup> An athlete is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. <sup>6</sup> It is the hard-working<sup>13</sup> farmer who ought to have the first share of the crops. <sup>7</sup> Think over what I say, for the Lord will grant you understanding in everything.

<sup>8</sup> Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, descended from David, as preached in my gospel, <sup>9</sup> the gospel for which I am suffering and wearing fetters like a criminal. But the word of God is not fettered. <sup>10</sup> Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain salvation in Christ Jesus with its eternal glory. <sup>11</sup> The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we shall also live with him;

<sup>12</sup> if we endure, we shall also reign with him;

if we deny him, he also will deny us;

<sup>13</sup>slog leads to reward

for he cannot deny himself.

<sup>14</sup> Remind them of this, and charge them before the Lord to avoid disputing about words<sup>15</sup>, which does no good, but only ruins the hearers. <sup>15</sup> Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who has no need to be ashamed<sup>16</sup>, rightly handling the word of truth. <sup>16</sup> Avoid such godless chatter, for it will lead people into more and more ungodliness, <sup>17</sup> and their talk will eat its way like gangrene. Among them are Hymenae'us<sup>17</sup> and Phile'tus, <sup>18</sup> who have swerved from the truth by holding that the resurrection is past already. They are upsetting the faith of some. <sup>19</sup> But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: "The Lord knows those who are his," and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity."

<sup>20</sup> In a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and earthenware, and some for noble use, some for ignoble. <sup>21</sup> If any one purifies himself<sup>18</sup> from what is ignoble, then he will be a vessel for noble use, consecrated and useful to the master of the house, ready for any good work. <sup>22</sup> So shun youthful passions and aim at righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call upon the Lord from a pure heart<sup>19</sup>. <sup>23</sup> Have nothing to do with stupid, senseless controversies<sup>20</sup>; you know that they breed quarrels<sup>21</sup>. <sup>24</sup> And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kindly to every one, an apt teacher, forbearing, <sup>25</sup> correcting his opponents with gentleness<sup>22</sup>. God may perhaps<sup>23</sup> grant that they will repent and come to know the truth, <sup>26</sup> and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will.

3:1 But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of stress. <sup>2</sup> For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, <sup>3</sup> inhuman, implacable, slanderers, profligates, fierce, haters of good, <sup>4</sup> treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, <sup>5</sup> holding the form of religion but denying the power<sup>24</sup> of it. Avoid such people<sup>25</sup>. <sup>6</sup> For among them are those who make their way into households and capture weak women<sup>26</sup>, burdened with sins<sup>27</sup> and swayed by various impulses, <sup>7</sup> who will listen<sup>28</sup> to anybody<sup>29</sup> and can never<sup>30</sup> arrive at a knowledge of the truth<sup>31</sup>. <sup>8</sup> As Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth<sup>32</sup>, men of corrupt mind and counterfeit faith; <sup>9</sup> but they will not get very far, for their folly will be plain to all, as was that of those two men.

<sup>10</sup> Now you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, <sup>11</sup> my persecutions, my sufferings, what befell me at Antioch, at Ico'nium, and at Lystra, what persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me. <sup>12</sup> Indeed all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will<sup>33</sup> be persecuted<sup>34</sup>, <sup>13</sup> while evil men and impostors<sup>35</sup> will go on from bad to worse, deceivers and

<sup>6</sup> For I am already on the point of being sacrificed<sup>53</sup>; the time of my departure has come. <sup>7</sup> I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup> Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing.

The letter of Paul to Titus

1: Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to further the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth which accords with godliness, 2 in hope of eternal life which God, who never lies, promised ages ago 3 and at the proper time manifested in his word through the preaching with which I have been entrusted by command<sup>1</sup> of God our Saviour;

4 To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.

The letter of Paul to Philemon

1:<sup>1</sup> Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,
To Phile'mon<sup>1</sup> our beloved fellow worker <sup>2</sup> and Ap'phia our sister and Archip'pus our fellow soldier, and the church in your house:

<sup>3</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> I thank my God always when I remember you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup> because I hear of your love and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and all the saints, <sup>6</sup> and I pray that the sharing of your faith may promote the knowledge of all the good that is ours in Christ. <sup>7</sup> For I have derived much joy and comfort from your love, my brother, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you.

<sup>8</sup> Accordingly, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do what is required, <sup>9</sup> yet for love's sake I prefer to appeal to you-- I, Paul, an ambassador and now a prisoner also for Christ Jesus-- <sup>10</sup> I appeal to you for my child, Ones'imus, whose father I have become in my imprisonment. <sup>11</sup> (Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful to you and to me.) <sup>12</sup> I am sending him back to you, sending my very heart. <sup>13</sup> I would have been glad to keep him with me, in order that he might serve me on your behalf during my imprisonment for the gospel; <sup>14</sup> but I preferred to do nothing without your consent in order that your goodness might not be by compulsion but of your own free will.

<sup>15</sup> Perhaps this is why he was parted from you for a while, that you might have him back for ever, <sup>16</sup> no longer as a slave but more than a slave, as a beloved brother, especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. <sup>17</sup> So if you consider me your partner, receive him as you would receive me. <sup>18</sup> If he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. <sup>19</sup> I, Paul, write this with my own hand, I will repay it-- to say nothing of your owing me even your own self. <sup>20</sup> Yes, brother, I want some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ.

<sup>21</sup> Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. <sup>22</sup> At the same time, prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping through your prayers to be granted to you.

The letter to the Hebrews<sup>1</sup>

1:<sup>1</sup> In many and various<sup>2</sup> ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; <sup>2</sup> but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world<sup>3</sup>. <sup>3</sup> He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high<sup>4</sup>, <sup>4</sup> having become as much superior to angels<sup>5</sup> as the name he has obtained<sup>6</sup> is more excellent than theirs.

<sup>5</sup> For to what angel did God ever say,

"Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee"?

Or again,

"I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son"?

<sup>6</sup> And again, when he brings the first-born into the world, he says,

"Let all God's angels worship him."

<sup>7</sup> Of the angels he says,

"Who makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire."

<sup>8</sup> But of the Son he says,

"Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever<sup>7</sup>,
the righteous sceptre is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

<sup>9</sup> Thou hast loved righteousness and hated lawlessness<sup>8</sup>;
therefore God, thy God, has anointed thee with the oil of gladness<sup>9</sup> beyond thy comrades."

<sup>10</sup> And,

"Thou, Lord, didst found the earth in the beginning,
and the heavens are the work of thy hands;

<sup>11</sup> they will perish, but thou remainest;
they will all grow old<sup>10</sup> like a garment,

<sup>12</sup> like a mantle thou wilt roll them up,
and they will be changed.

But thou art the same, and thy years will never end."

<sup>13</sup> But to what angel has he ever said,

"Sit at my right hand,

till I make thy enemies a stool for thy feet"?

<sup>14</sup> Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to serve<sup>11</sup>, for the sake of those who are to obtain salvation?

2:<sup>1</sup> Therefore we must pay the closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away<sup>12</sup> from it. <sup>2</sup> For if the message declared by angels was valid and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution, <sup>3</sup> how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard him, <sup>4</sup> while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his own will.

<sup>5</sup> For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. <sup>6</sup> It has been testified somewhere,

"What is man that thou art mindful of him,
or the son of man, that thou carest for him?"

<sup>7</sup> Thou didst make him for a little while lower than the angels, thou hast crowned him with glory and honour,

8 putting everything in subjection under his feet."

Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him. 9 But we see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, crowned with glory and honour because of the suffering of death<sup>A13</sup>, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for every one.

10 For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect<sup>A14</sup> through suffering<sup>A15</sup>. 11 For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified have all one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 saying,

"I will proclaim thy name to my brethren,
in the midst of the congregation I will praise thee."

13 And again,

"I will put my trust in him."

And again,

"Here am I, and the children God has given me."

14 Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook<sup>16</sup> of the same things<sup>17</sup>, that through death he might destroy him who has the power<sup>18</sup> of death<sup>19</sup>, that is, the devil, 15 and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong bondage. 16 For surely<sup>20</sup> it is not (with) angels that he is concerned<sup>21</sup> but (with) the descendants of Abraham<sup>2223</sup>. 17 Therefore he had to be made<sup>24</sup> like his brethren in every respect<sup>25</sup>, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make expiation for the sins of the people. 18 For because he himself has suffered<sup>26</sup> and been tempted<sup>27</sup>, he is able to help those who are tempted.

3: Therefore, holy brethren, who share in a heavenly call, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession. 2 He was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses also was faithful in God's house. 3 Yet Jesus has been counted worthy of as much more glory than Moses as the builder of a house has more honour than the house. 4 (For every house is built by some one, but the builder of all things is God.) 5 Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later, 6 but Christ was faithful over God's house as a son. And we are his house if we hold fast our confidence<sup>28</sup> and pride in our hope.

7 Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says,

"Today<sup>29</sup>, when you hear his voice, 8 do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion,
on the day of testing in the wilderness, 9 where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years.

10 Therefore I was provoked with that generation<sup>30</sup>,

<sup>12</sup> Take care, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart<sup>33</sup>, leading you to fall away from the living God<sup>34</sup>. <sup>13</sup> But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness<sup>35</sup> of sin<sup>36</sup>. <sup>14</sup> For we share in Christ, if only we hold our first confidence<sup>37</sup> firm to the end, <sup>15</sup> while it is said,

"Today, when you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

<sup>16</sup> Who were they that heard and yet were rebellious? Was it not all those who left Egypt under the leadership of Moses? <sup>17</sup> And with whom was he provoked forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup> And to whom did he swear that they should never enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? <sup>19</sup> So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

4:1 Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest<sup>38</sup> remains, let us fear lest any of you be judged to have failed to reach it. <sup>2</sup> For good news came to us just as to them; but the message which they heard did not benefit them, because it did not meet with faith<sup>39</sup> in the hearers<sup>40</sup>. <sup>3</sup> For we who have believed enter that rest<sup>41</sup>, as he has said,

"As I swore in my wrath, 'They shall never enter my rest,'"

although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. <sup>4</sup> For he has somewhere spoken of the seventh day in this way, "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works." <sup>5</sup> And again in this place he said,

"They shall never enter my rest."

<sup>6</sup> Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, <sup>7</sup> again he sets a certain day, "Today," saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted,

"Today, when you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."

<sup>8</sup> For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not speak later of another day. <sup>9</sup> So then, there remains a sabbath rest<sup>42</sup> for the people of God; <sup>10</sup> for whoever enters God's rest also ceases from his labours<sup>43</sup> as God did from his.

<sup>14</sup> Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. <sup>15</sup> For we have not a high priest who is unable to sympathise with our weaknesses<sup>49</sup>, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we<sup>50</sup> are, yet without sin<sup>51</sup>. <sup>16</sup> Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need<sup>52</sup>.

The contrast of priesthoods

5:<sup>1</sup> For every high priest chosen from among men<sup>53</sup> is appointed to act on behalf of men in relation to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. <sup>2</sup> He can deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is beset with weakness. <sup>3</sup> Because of this he is bound to offer sacrifice for his own sins<sup>54</sup> as well as for those of the people. <sup>4</sup> And one does not take the honour upon himself, but he is called by God, just as Aaron was.

<sup>5</sup> So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him,

"Thou art my Son<sup>55</sup>, today I have begotten thee";

<sup>6</sup> as he says also in another place,

"Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchiz'edek<sup>56</sup>."

<sup>7</sup> In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers<sup>57</sup> and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him out of<sup>58</sup> death, and he was heard<sup>59</sup> for his godly fear<sup>60</sup>. <sup>8</sup> Although he was a Son, he learned obedience<sup>61</sup> through what he suffered<sup>62</sup>, <sup>9</sup> and being made perfect he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, <sup>10</sup> being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchiz'edek.

<sup>11</sup> About this we have much to say which is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing. <sup>12</sup> For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need some one to teach you again the first principles of God's word. You need milk<sup>63</sup>, not solid food; <sup>13</sup> for every one who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a child. <sup>14</sup> But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their faculties trained by practice to distinguish good from evil.

<sup>48</sup> 1Cor 2:13-15. It kills (Eccles 12:7), as in Heb 3:17 with Heb 3:11, Heb 4:2-3. Also distinguishes natural and spiritual people (1Cor 2:13-15; 1Jn 4:5-6)

<sup>50</sup> (as Christians). Heb 2:18. The recorded temptations of Jesus were all external (Mt 4:1-11; Mt 26:39): none were internal as would be the case had He had sin in the flesh. The temptation was always to take an easy way, to fall away (Heb 6:6) from the requirements of God, which was just what these people faced. The idea that He was tempted in every natural way that fallen humans are tempted is manifestly false: thus He was never married, so never experienced the characteristic temptations of that state. It is also irrelevant to the purpose of the book.

<sup>51</sup> The temptation was to turn away from the divine purpose. These were the recorded temptations of Christ: in the wilderness, Peter's deflection, Gethsemane.

<sup>52</sup> He when tempted to give up Christ

<sup>60</sup> Because of righteousness of Christ, raised from death. Instead of offering for sins (Heb 5:3), He offers prayers. The penalty for sin was death, even in the absence of law, where sin was not counted (Rom 3:13-14). Indwelling sin would have exacted the full death penalty, as it still does. We have been released by death with Christ and resurrection. Christ always was separate (Heb 7:26).

<sup>62</sup> He understands the testing pressure to give up (Heb 4:15). All shaken that can be (Heb 12:27). We also redeem things through suffering <sup>63</sup> Predigested food provided by another: even scripture is milk, since it is a record made by men, inspired by the Spirit, of their experience of God. In particular Hebrews is milk!

6:<sup>1</sup> Therefore let us leave the elementary<sup>64</sup> doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works<sup>65</sup> and of faith toward God, <sup>2</sup> with instruction about ablutions, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgement<sup>66</sup>. <sup>3</sup> And this we will do if God permits. <sup>4</sup> For it is impossible to restore again to repentance<sup>67</sup> those who have once been enlightened<sup>68</sup>, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup> and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, <sup>6</sup> if they then commit apostasy<sup>69</sup>, since they crucify the Son of God on their own account and hold him up to contempt. <sup>7</sup> For land which has drunk the rain that often falls upon it, and brings forth vegetation useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God. <sup>8</sup> But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed; its end is to be burned<sup>70</sup>.

<sup>9</sup> Though we speak thus, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things that belong to salvation. <sup>10</sup> For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love which you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do. <sup>11</sup> And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness in realising the full assurance of hope<sup>71</sup> until the end, <sup>12</sup> so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those<sup>72</sup> who through faith and patience inherit the promises<sup>73</sup>.

<sup>13</sup> For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself, <sup>14</sup> saying, "Surely I will bless you and multiply you." <sup>15</sup> And thus Abraham, having patiently endured<sup>74</sup>, obtained the promise. <sup>16</sup> Men indeed swear by a greater than themselves, and in all their disputes an oath is final for confirmation. <sup>17</sup> So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he interposed with an oath, <sup>18</sup> so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible that God should prove false, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to seize the hope<sup>75</sup> set before us. <sup>19</sup> We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope<sup>76</sup> that enters into the inner shrine behind the curtain, <sup>20</sup> where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchiz'edek.

7:<sup>1</sup> For this Melchiz'edek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him; <sup>2</sup> and to him Abraham apportioned a tenth part of everything. He is first, by translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then he is also king of Salem, that is, king of peace. <sup>3</sup> He is without father<sup>77</sup> or mother or genealogy<sup>78</sup>, and has neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God he continues a priest for ever.

<sup>4</sup> See how great he is! Abraham the patriarch gave him a tithe of the spoils. <sup>5</sup> And those descendants of Levi who receive the priestly office have a commandment in the law to take tithes from the people, that is, from their brethren, though these also are descended from Abraham. <sup>6</sup> But this man who has not their genealogy received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. <sup>7</sup> It is beyond dispute that the inferior is blessed by the superior. <sup>8</sup> Here tithes are received by mortal men; there, by one of whom it is testified that he lives. <sup>9</sup> One might even say that Levi himself, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, <sup>10</sup> for he was still in the loins of his ancestor when Melchiz'edek met him.

<sup>65</sup>We were dead but God made us alive (Eph 2:1; Col 2:13; Lk 15:32; Eph 4:17-19,25-32), so must live well (Eph 5:3-16; Gal 5:19-24; Col 3:1-10; 1Thess 4:1-8; ). Only hope is rest in Christ (Jn 8:24; Heb 4:10; Heb 9:14)

<sup>11</sup> Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchiz'edek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup> For when there is a change in the priesthood<sup>79</sup>, there is necessarily a change in the law as well. <sup>13</sup> For the one of whom these things are spoken belonged to another tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar. <sup>14</sup> For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, and in connection with that tribe Moses said nothing about priests.

<sup>18</sup> On the one hand, a former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness<sup>19</sup> (for the law made nothing perfect); on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.

<sup>20</sup> And it was not without an oath. <sup>21</sup> Those who formerly became priests took their office without an oath, but this one was addressed with an oath,

"The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind,

"Thou art a priest for ever."

<sup>23</sup> The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; <sup>24</sup> but he holds his priesthood permanently<sup>81</sup>, because he continues for ever. <sup>25</sup> Consequently he is able for all time to save those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

<sup>26</sup> For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, unstained, separated from sinners, exalted above the heavens<sup>82</sup>. <sup>27</sup> He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people; he did this once for all when he offered up himself<sup>8384</sup>. <sup>28</sup> Indeed, the law appoints men in their weakness<sup>85</sup> as high priests, but<sup>86</sup> the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

8:1 Now the point in what we are saying is this: we have such a high priest, one who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven, <sup>2</sup> a minister in the sanctuary and the true tent which is set up not by man but by the Lord. <sup>3</sup> For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; hence it is necessary for this priest also to have something to offer. <sup>4</sup> Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are priests who offer gifts according to the law. <sup>5</sup> They serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly sanctuary; for when Moses was about to erect the tent, he was instructed by God, saying, "See that you make everything according to the pattern which was shown you on the mountain." <sup>6</sup> But as it is, Christ has obtained a ministry which is as much more excellent than the old as the covenant he mediates is better, since it is enacted on better promises. <sup>7</sup> For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion for a second.

"The days will come, says the Lord,

when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

<sup>9</sup> not like the covenant that I made with their fathers

on the day when I took them by the hand

<sup>79</sup> 1Sam 2:35

<sup>83</sup> Christ did not drink of the cup of salvation Himself, as he had no need (Heb 7:26), but drank the cup of damnation (Jn 18:11) (normally left in the Passover meal).

<sup>84</sup> This does not imply that Christ atoned for Himself: there is no suggestion anywhere that this is possible. Our problem is not committing sin but being sinners. This Christ was NOT: if He had been it would have resulted in His being spotted (1Pet 1:19; 1Cor 5:6) to lead them out of the land of Egypt;

for they did not continue<sup>88</sup> in my covenant,
and so I paid no heed to them, says the Lord.

<sup>10</sup> This is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel
after those days<sup>89</sup>, says the Lord:
I will put my laws into their minds<sup>90</sup>,
and write them on their hearts<sup>91</sup>,
and I will be their God,
and they shall be my people.

<sup>11</sup> And they shall not teach every one his fellow or every one his brother<sup>92</sup>, saying, 'Know the Lord'<sup>93</sup>, for all shall know me<sup>94</sup>, from the least of them to the greatest.

<sup>12</sup> For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more."

<sup>13</sup> In speaking of a new covenant he treats the first as obsolete<sup>95</sup>. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

9:1 Now even the first covenant had regulations for worship and an earthly sanctuary.

<sup>2</sup> For a tent<sup>96</sup> was prepared, the outer one, in which were the lampstand and the table and the bread of the Presence<sup>97</sup>; it is called the Holy Place. <sup>3</sup> Behind the second curtain stood a tent called the Holy of Holies, <sup>4</sup> having the golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant<sup>98</sup> covered on all sides with gold, which contained a golden urn holding the manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; <sup>5</sup> above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

<sup>6</sup> These preparations having thus been made, the priests go continually into the outer tent, performing their ritual duties; <sup>7</sup> but into the second only the high priest goes, and he but once a year, and not without taking blood which he offers for himself and for the errors of the people. <sup>8</sup> By this the Holy Spirit indicates that the way into the sanctuary is not yet opened as long as the outer tent<sup>99</sup> is still standing <sup>9</sup> (which is a parallel towards the present time<sup>100</sup>).
According to this arrangement, gifts and sacrifices are offered which cannot perfect<sup>101</sup> the conscience of the worshipper, <sup>10</sup> but deal only with food and drink and various ablutions, regulations for the body imposed until the time of reformation.

<sup>11</sup> But when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things that have come<sup>102</sup>, then through the greater and more perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation) <sup>12</sup> he entered once for all into the Holy Place, through<sup>103</sup> not the blood of goats and calves but his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption. <sup>13</sup> For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for <sup>88</sup>This is why the first covenant ends, and Jews are cut off and excluded (Gn 17:14) and why Jews must now find Christ (Mt 21:43; Jn 8:39)

them for refusing it.

obedience). Note: the inverted parallel with Heb 10:16 implies mind = heart, but see Jer 31:33.

the purification of the flesh, <sup>14</sup> how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish<sup>104</sup> to God, purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred which redeems them from the transgressions under the first covenant. <sup>16</sup> For where a will is involved, the death of the one who made it must be established. <sup>17</sup> For a will takes effect only at death, since it is not in force as long as the one who made it is alive. <sup>18</sup> Hence even the first covenant was not ratified without blood. <sup>19</sup> For when every commandment of the law had been declared by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, <sup>20</sup> saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded you." <sup>21</sup> And in the same way he sprinkled with the blood both the tent and all the vessels used in worship. <sup>22</sup> Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

<sup>23</sup> Thus it was necessary for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these rites, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. <sup>24</sup> For Christ has entered, not into a sanctuary made with hands, a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. <sup>25</sup> Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the Holy Place yearly with blood not his own; <sup>26</sup> for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. <sup>27</sup> And just as it is appointed for men to die once, and after that comes judgement, <sup>28</sup> so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin<sup>105</sup> but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

"Sacrifices and offerings thou hast not desired<sup>108</sup>, but a body<sup>109</sup> hast thou prepared<sup>110</sup> for me; <sup>6</sup> in burnt offerings and sin offerings
thou hast taken no pleasure.
<sup>7</sup> Then I said, 'Lo, I have come to do thy will, O God,' as it is written of me in the roll of the book."

<sup>8</sup> When he said above, "Thou hast neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings" (these are offered according to the law), <sup>9</sup> then he added, "Lo, I have come to do thy will." He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. <sup>10</sup> And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

<sup>11</sup> And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup> But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, <sup>13</sup> then to wait until his enemies should be made a stool for his feet. <sup>14</sup> For by a single offering he has perfected<sup>111</sup> for all time<sup>112</sup> those who are sanctified. <sup>15</sup> And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying<sup>113</sup>, <sup>16</sup> "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord:

I will put my laws on their hearts<sup>114</sup>
and write them on their minds,"

<sup>17</sup> then he adds,

"I will remember their sins<sup>115</sup> and their misdeeds no more."

<sup>18</sup> Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any<sup>116</sup> offering for sin<sup>117</sup>.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, brethren, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup> by the new and living way which he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, <sup>21</sup> and since we have a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup> let us draw near<sup>118</sup> with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled<sup>119</sup> clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water<sup>120</sup>. <sup>23</sup> Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering<sup>121</sup>, for he who promised is faithful; <sup>24</sup> and let us consider how to stir up one another to love<sup>122</sup> and good works<sup>123</sup>, <sup>25</sup> not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

<sup>26</sup> For if we sin deliberately<sup>124</sup> after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, <sup>27</sup> but a fearful prospect of judgement, and a fury of fire<sup>125</sup> which will consume the adversaries. <sup>28</sup> A man who has violated the law of Moses dies without mercy at the testimony of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup> How much worse punishment do you think will be deserved by the man who has 1) spurned the Son of God, and 2) profaned<sup>126</sup> the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and 3) outraged the Spirit of grace?<sup>127</sup>

<sup>30</sup> For we know him who said, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay." And again, "The Lord will judge his people." <sup>31</sup> It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>32</sup> But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings, <sup>33</sup> sometimes being publicly exposed to abuse and affliction, and sometimes being partners with those so treated. <sup>34</sup> For you had compassion on the prisoners, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one<sup>128</sup>. <sup>35</sup> Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. <sup>36</sup> For you have need of endurance, so that you may do the will of God and receive what is promised<sup>129</sup>.

and the coming one shall come and shall not tarry;
<sup>38</sup> but my righteous one shall live<sup>130</sup> by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him."

<sup>39</sup> But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and keep their souls.

11:<sup>1</sup> Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen<sup>131</sup>. <sup>2</sup> For by it the men of old received divine approval. <sup>3</sup> By faith we understand that the world was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was made out of things which do not appear.

<sup>4</sup> By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he received approval as righteous, God bearing witness by accepting his gifts; he died, but through his faith he is still speaking. <sup>5</sup> By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was attested as having pleased God. <sup>6</sup> And without faith it is impossible to please him. For whoever would draw near<sup>132</sup> to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards<sup>133</sup> those who seek him. <sup>7</sup> By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, took heed and constructed an ark for the saving of his household; by this<sup>134</sup> he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness which comes by faith.

<sup>8</sup> By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place which he was to receive as an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was to go. <sup>9</sup> By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign land<sup>135</sup>, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise. <sup>10</sup> For he looked forward to the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God. <sup>11</sup> By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised. <sup>12</sup> Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.

<sup>13</sup> These all died in faith, not having received<sup>136</sup> what was promised, but having seen it and greeted it from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. <sup>14</sup> For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. <sup>15</sup> If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. <sup>16</sup> But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city.

<sup>17</sup> By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer up his only son, <sup>18</sup> of whom it was said, "Through Isaac shall your descendants be named." <sup>19</sup> He considered that God was able to raise men even from the dead; hence, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back. <sup>20</sup> By faith Isaac invoked future blessings on Jacob and Esau. <sup>21</sup> By faith Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, bowing in worship over the head of his staff. <sup>22</sup> By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave directions concerning his burial<sup>137</sup>.

<sup>23</sup> By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid for three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful; and they were not afraid of the king's edict. <sup>24</sup> By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, <sup>25</sup> choosing rather to share ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. <sup>26</sup> He considered abuse suffered for the Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he looked to the reward. <sup>27</sup> By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king; for he endured as seeing him who is invisible. <sup>28</sup> By faith he kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood, so that the Destroyer of the first-born might not touch them.

<sup>29</sup> By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as if on dry land; but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned. <sup>30</sup> By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days. <sup>31</sup> By faith Rahab the harlot did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given friendly welcome to the spies.

tortured, refusing to accept release, that they might rise again to a better life. <sup>36</sup> Others suffered mocking and scourging, and even chains and imprisonment. <sup>37</sup> They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, ill-treated-- <sup>38</sup> of whom the world was not worthy-- wandering over deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

<sup>39</sup> And all these, though well attested by their faith, did not receive <sup>139</sup> what was promised, <sup>40</sup> since God had foreseen something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12: Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses <sup>140</sup>, let us <sup>141</sup> also lay aside every weight <sup>142</sup>, and sin which clings so closely <sup>143</sup>, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, <sup>2</sup> looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

<sup>3</sup> Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. <sup>4</sup> In your struggle against sin <sup>144</sup> you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood <sup>145</sup>. <sup>5</sup> And have you forgotten the exhortation which addresses you as sons?--<sup>146</sup>

"My son, do not regard lightly the discipline <sup>147</sup> of the Lord, nor lose courage when you are punished by him.

<sup>7</sup> It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? <sup>8</sup> If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. <sup>9</sup> Besides this, we have had earthly fathers to discipline us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? <sup>10</sup> For they disciplined us for a short time at their pleasure, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. <sup>11</sup> For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant; later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness <sup>148</sup> to those who have been trained by it.

<sup>18</sup> For you have not come to what may be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, <sup>19</sup> and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the

<sup>25</sup> See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less shall we escape if we reject him who warns from heaven. <sup>26</sup> His voice then shook the earth; but now he has promised, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven." <sup>27</sup> This phrase, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of what is shaken<sup>160</sup>, as of what has been made, in order that what cannot be shaken may remain<sup>161</sup>. <sup>28</sup> Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe; <sup>29</sup> for our God is a consuming fire.

13:<sup>1</sup> Let brotherly love continue. <sup>2</sup> Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. <sup>3</sup> Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you also are in the body. <sup>4</sup> Let marriage be held in honour<sup>162</sup> among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled; for God will judge the immoral and adulterous. <sup>5</sup> Keep your life free from love of money<sup>163</sup>, and be content<sup>164</sup> with what you have; for he has said<sup>165</sup>, "I will never fail you nor forsake you."<sup>166</sup> <sup>6</sup> Hence we can confidently say,

"The Lord<sup>167</sup> is my helper, I will not be afraid;
what can man do to me?"

<sup>18</sup> Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to act honourably in all things. <sup>19</sup> I urge you the more earnestly to do this in order that I may be restored to you the sooner.

<sup>20</sup> Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd<sup>182</sup> of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, <sup>21</sup> equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup> I appeal to you, brethren, bear with my word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly. <sup>23</sup> You should understand that our brother Timothy has been released, with whom I shall see you if he comes soon. <sup>24</sup> Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those who come from Italy send you greetings. <sup>25</sup> Grace be with all of you. Amen.

<sup>174</sup> Obey as a result of being persuaded (see Vine). ie "Be persuaded by your leaders..". This respect has to be earned, as a result of showing the Lord's authority through them (Heb 13:7) - see also Tit 2:7,15, contrast Tit 1:14. They need God's prophetic authority. Also note that this implies that every person is in a position to be able to judge what they say: there is no "expert" syndrome. They are not beyond rebuke if they sin. They are not to be domineering but serve (1Pet 5:3; 2Cor 1:24; Mk 10:42-45). They are to work hard, like a father (1Thess 2:9-12). They are to be esteemed (1Thess 5:12-13). Submission to groundless authority dangerous (Tit 1:14; 1Kings 13).

<sup>175</sup> Heb 13:7,24. It is the King's son who inherits the leadership. So with leaders, when they die it is the NEXT generation which takes the lead.

The letter of James

1: James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes in the Dispersion:
Greeting.

<sup>5</sup> If <sup>5</sup> any of you lacks wisdom<sup>6</sup>, let him ask<sup>7</sup> God, who gives to all men generously and without reproaching, and it will be given him. <sup>6</sup> But let him ask in faith, with no doubting<sup>8</sup>, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed<sup>9</sup> by the wind. <sup>7</sup> For that person must not suppose that a double-minded<sup>10</sup> man, unstable in all his ways, will receive anything<sup>11</sup> from the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> Let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation, <sup>10</sup> and the rich in his humiliation, because like the flower of the grass he will pass away. <sup>11</sup> For the sun rises with its scorching heat and withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beauty perishes. So will the rich man fade away in the midst of his pursuits.

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is the man who endures trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life which God has promised to those who love him. <sup>13</sup> Let no one say when he is tried<sup>12</sup>, "I am tried<sup>13</sup> by God"; for God cannot be tried<sup>14</sup> with evil and he himself tries<sup>15</sup> no one; <sup>14</sup> but each person is tried<sup>16</sup> when he is lured and enticed by his own desire<sup>17</sup>. <sup>15</sup> Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin; and sin when it is full-grown brings forth death.

<sup>1</sup>Jas 1:12. Trails make us seek God, and resolve whether we are to live by faith or feeling: as we walk by faith we are strengthened. Trials come from the desires of the flesh (Jas 1:12-15; Eph 4:22)

<sup>17</sup>We are tempted through our desires, whether the desires themselves are inherently good (Ps 21:2,4) or bad (2Thess 2:12), even Christ was so tempted. A man's temptations reveal his desires. Only through the Holy Spirit is this allurements conquered (Rom 8)

<sup>18</sup>Jas 1:4

<sup>19</sup>The Holy of Holies

<sup>20</sup>rule for "counselling" Col 4:6

<sup>21</sup>Contrast 2Cor 10:4

<sup>26</sup> If any one thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this man's religion is vain. <sup>27</sup> Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

2:<sup>1</sup> My brethren, show no partiality as you hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. <sup>2</sup> For if a man with gold rings and in fine clothing comes into your assembly, and a poor man in shabby clothing also comes in, <sup>3</sup> and you pay attention to the one who wears the fine clothing and say, "Have a seat here, please," while you say to the poor man, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," <sup>4</sup> have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? <sup>5</sup> Listen, my beloved brethren. Has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which he has promised to those who love him? <sup>6</sup> But you have dishonoured the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress you, is it not they who drag you into court? <sup>7</sup> Is it not they who blaspheme that honourable name which was invoked over you?

<sup>8</sup> If you really fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself," you do well. <sup>9</sup> But if you show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors. <sup>10</sup> For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become guilty of all of it. <sup>11</sup> For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," said also, "Do not kill." If you do not commit adultery but do kill, you have become a transgressor of the law. <sup>12</sup> So speak and so act as those who are to be judged under the law of liberty. <sup>13</sup> For judgement is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy; yet mercy triumphs over judgement<sup>28</sup>.

<sup>14</sup> What does it profit, my brethren, if a man says he has faith but has not works? Can his faith save him?<sup>29</sup> <sup>15</sup> If a brother or sister is ill-clad and in lack of daily food, <sup>16</sup> and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what does it profit? <sup>17</sup> So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

<sup>18</sup> But some one will say, "You have faith and I have works." Show me your faith apart from your works, and I by my works will show you my faith. <sup>19</sup> You believe that God is one; you do well<sup>30</sup>. Even the demons believe-- and shudder. <sup>20</sup> Do you want to be shown, you shallow man, that faith apart from works is barren? <sup>21</sup> Was not Abraham our father justified by works<sup>31</sup>, when he offered his son Isaac upon the altar? <sup>22</sup> You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by works<sup>32</sup>, <sup>23</sup> and the scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness"; and he was called the friend of God. <sup>24</sup> You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone. <sup>25</sup> And in the same way was not also Rahab the harlot justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way? <sup>26</sup> For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so faith apart from works<sup>33</sup> is dead.

3:<sup>1</sup> Let not many of you become teachers, my brethren, for you know that we who teach<sup>34</sup> shall be judged with greater strictness. <sup>2</sup> For we all make many mistakes, and if any one makes no mistakes in what he says he is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body

also. <sup>3</sup> If we put bits into the mouths of horses<sup>35</sup> that they may obey us, we guide their whole bodies. <sup>4</sup> Look at the ships also; though they are so great and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. <sup>5</sup> So the tongue is a little member and boasts of great things<sup>36</sup>. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire!

<sup>6</sup> And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is an unrighteous world among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the cycle of nature, and set on fire by hell. <sup>7</sup> For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by humankind, <sup>8</sup> but no human being can tame the tongue-- a restless evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup> With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse<sup>37</sup> men, who are made in the likeness of God. <sup>10</sup> From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brethren, this ought not to be so<sup>38</sup>. <sup>11</sup> Does a spring pour forth from the same opening fresh water and brackish?<sup>39</sup> <sup>12</sup> Can a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

<sup>13</sup> Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good life let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom. <sup>14</sup> But if you have bitter jealousy<sup>A40</sup> and selfish ambition<sup>41</sup> in your hearts, do not boast<sup>42</sup> and be false to the truth. <sup>15</sup> This wisdom is not such as comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual<sup>43</sup>, devilish. <sup>16</sup> For where jealousy<sup>A</sup> and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. <sup>17</sup> But the wisdom from above<sup>44</sup> is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, without uncertainty<sup>45</sup> or insincerity<sup>46</sup>. <sup>18</sup> And the harvest of righteousness<sup>47</sup> is sown in peace by those who make peace<sup>48</sup>.

The cause of conflict: self-centredness

4:<sup>49</sup> What causes wars, and what causes fightings among you?<sup>50</sup> Is it not your passions<sup>51</sup> that are at war in your members? <sup>2</sup> You desire<sup>52</sup> and do not have; so you kill<sup>53</sup>. And you covet and cannot obtain; so you fight and wage war. You do not have, because you do not ask. <sup>3</sup> You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions<sup>54</sup>. <sup>4</sup> Unfaithful creatures<sup>55</sup>! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God?<sup>56</sup> Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world<sup>57</sup> makes himself an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup> Or do you suppose it is in vain that the scripture says, "He yearns jealously<sup>58</sup> over the spirit which he has made to dwell in us"? <sup>6</sup> But he gives more grace; therefore it says,

Humility under the law

<sup>11</sup> Do not speak evil<sup>74</sup> against one another, brethren<sup>75</sup>. He that speaks evil against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law<sup>76</sup>. But if you judge the law<sup>77</sup>, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. <sup>12</sup> There is one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you that you judge<sup>78</sup> your neighbour?

Humility about our transitoriness

<sup>13</sup> Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and get gain"; <sup>14</sup> whereas you do not know about tomorrow. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes. <sup>15</sup> Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord will<sup>79</sup>, we shall live and we shall do this or that." <sup>16</sup> As it is, you boast in your arrogance<sup>80</sup>. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup> Whoever knows what is right to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin<sup>81</sup>.

5:1 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for the miseries that are coming upon you. <sup>2</sup> Your riches have rotted and your garments are moth-eaten. <sup>3</sup> Your gold and silver have rusted, and their rust will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure for the last days. <sup>4</sup> Behold, the wages of the labourers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. <sup>5</sup> You have lived on the earth in luxury and in pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter<sup>82</sup>. <sup>6</sup> You have condemned, you have killed the righteous man; he does not resist you.

<sup>7</sup> Be patient, therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it until it receives the early and the late rain. <sup>8</sup> You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. <sup>9</sup>

Do not grumble<sup>83</sup>, brethren, against one another, that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the doors. <sup>10</sup> As an example of suffering and patience, brethren, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. <sup>11</sup> Behold, we call those happy who were steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

<sup>12</sup> But above all, my brethren, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath, but let your yes be yes and your no be no, that you may not fall under condemnation.

<sup>13</sup> Is any one among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praise. <sup>14</sup> Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil<sup>84</sup> in the name of the Lord; <sup>15</sup> and the prayer of faith will save the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. <sup>16</sup> Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed<sup>85</sup>. The prayer of a righteous<sup>86</sup> man has great power in its effects<sup>87</sup>. <sup>17</sup> Eli'jah was a man of like nature with ourselves and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. <sup>18</sup> Then he prayed again and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

First letter of Peter

1:1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,
May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy we have been born anew<sup>6</sup> to a living<sup>7</sup> hope<sup>8</sup> through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4</sup> and to an inheritance which is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, <sup>5</sup> who by God's power are guarded through faith for a salvation<sup>9</sup> ready to be revealed in the last time. <sup>6</sup> In this you rejoice, though now for a little while you may have to suffer various trials, <sup>7</sup> so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold which though perishable is tested by fire<sup>10</sup>, may redound to praise and glory and honour at the revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>8</sup> Without having seen him you love him; though you do not now see him you believe in him and rejoice with unutterable and exalted joy. <sup>9</sup> As the outcome of your faith you obtain the salvation<sup>11</sup> of your souls<sup>12</sup>.

<sup>10</sup> The prophets who prophesied of the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired about this salvation; <sup>11</sup> they inquired what person or time was indicated by the Spirit of Christ within them when predicting the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glory. <sup>12</sup> It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in the things which have now been announced to you by those who preached the good news to you through the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which angels long to look.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore gird up your minds, be sober, set your hope fully upon the grace that is coming to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup> As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, <sup>15</sup> but as he who called you is holy, be<sup>13</sup> holy<sup>14</sup> yourselves in all your conduct; <sup>16</sup> since it is written, "You shall be holy<sup>15</sup>, for I am holy." <sup>17</sup> And if you invoke as Father him who judges each one impartially according to his deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile. <sup>18</sup> You know that you were ransomed from the futile<sup>16</sup> ways inherited from your fathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, <sup>19</sup> but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish<sup>17</sup> or spot. <sup>20</sup> He was destined<sup>18</sup> before the foundation of the world but was made manifest at the end of the times for your sake. <sup>21</sup> Through him you have confidence in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

praise those who do right. <sup>15</sup> For it is God's will that by doing right you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men. <sup>16</sup> Live as free men, yet without using your freedom as a pretext for evil; but live as servants of God. <sup>17</sup> Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the emperor<sup>43</sup>.

<sup>18</sup> Servants, be submissive to your masters with all respect, not only to the kind and gentle but also to the overbearing. <sup>19</sup> For one is approved if, mindful of God, he endures pain while suffering unjustly. <sup>20</sup> For what credit is it, if when you do wrong and are beaten for it you take it patiently? But if when you do right and suffer for it you take it patiently, you have God's approval. <sup>21</sup> For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example<sup>44</sup>, that you should follow in his steps. <sup>22</sup> He committed no sin; no guile was found on his lips. <sup>23</sup> When he was reviled<sup>45</sup>, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he trusted to him who judges justly. <sup>24</sup> He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree<sup>46</sup>, that having died to sin<sup>47</sup>, we might<sup>48</sup> live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. <sup>25</sup> For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd<sup>49</sup> and Guardian<sup>50</sup> of your souls.

3:1 Likewise you wives, be submissive to your husbands, so that some, though they do not obey the word, may be won without a word by the behaviour of their wives, <sup>2</sup> when they see your reverent and chaste behaviour. <sup>3</sup> Let not yours be the outward adorning with braiding of hair, decoration of gold, and wearing of fine clothing, <sup>4</sup> but let it be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable jewel of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious. <sup>5</sup> So once the holy women who hoped in God used to adorn themselves and were submissive to their husbands, <sup>6</sup> as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. And you are now her children if you do right and let nothing terrify you.

<sup>7</sup> Likewise you husbands, live considerately with your wives, bestowing honour on the woman as the weaker sex, since you are joint heirs of the grace of life, in order that your prayers may not be hindered.

<sup>8</sup> Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy, love of the brethren, a tender heart and a humble mind. <sup>9</sup> Do not return evil for evil or reviling<sup>51</sup> for reviling; but on the contrary bless, for to this you have been called, that you may obtain a blessing. <sup>10</sup> For

"He that would love life and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil
and his lips from speaking guile<sup>52</sup>; <sup>11</sup> let him turn away from evil and do right;
let him seek peace and pursue it.
<sup>12</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer.
But the face of the Lord is against those that do evil."

<sup>13</sup> Now who is there to harm you if you are zealous for what is right? <sup>14</sup> But even if you do suffer<sup>53</sup> for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled, <sup>15</sup> but in your hearts reverence Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to make a defence to any one who calls you to account for the hope that is in you, yet do it with gentleness and reverence; <sup>16</sup> and keep your conscience clear<sup>A54</sup>, so that, when you are abused, those who revile your good behaviour in Christ may be put to shame. <sup>17</sup> For it is better to suffer for doing right, if that should be God's will, than for doing wrong. <sup>18</sup> For Christ also died<sup>55</sup> for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit; <sup>19</sup> in which he went and preached to the spirits in prison<sup>56</sup>, <sup>20</sup> who<sup>57</sup> did not obey when God's patience waited in the days of Noah during the building of the ark<sup>58</sup>, in which a few, that is, eight persons<sup>59</sup>, were saved through water<sup>60</sup>. <sup>21</sup> Baptism<sup>61</sup>, which corresponds to this, now saves you, (not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal<sup>62</sup> to God for<sup>63</sup> a clear<sup>64</sup> conscience<sup>65</sup>), through the resurrection<sup>66</sup> of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup> who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.

4:<sup>1</sup> Since therefore Christ suffered<sup>67</sup> in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same thought, for whoever has suffered in the flesh<sup>68</sup> has ceased from sin<sup>69</sup>, <sup>2</sup> so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer by human passions but by the will of God. <sup>3</sup> Let the time that is past suffice for doing what the Gentiles like to do, living in licentiousness, passions, drunkenness, revels, carousing, and lawless idolatry. <sup>4</sup> They are surprised that you do not now join them in the same wild profligacy, and they abuse you; <sup>5</sup> but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. <sup>6</sup> For this is why the gospel was preached even to the dead, that though judged in the flesh like men, they might live in the spirit like God<sup>70</sup>.

<sup>7</sup> The end of all things is at hand; therefore keep sane and sober for your prayers. <sup>8</sup> Above all hold unflinching your love for one another, since love covers a multitude of sins. <sup>9</sup> Practice hospitality ungrudgingly to one another. <sup>10</sup> As each has received a gift, employ it for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: <sup>11</sup> whoever speaks, as one who utters oracles of God; whoever renders service, as one who renders it by the strength which God supplies; in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom<sup>71</sup> belong glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup> Beloved, do not be surprised<sup>72</sup> at the fiery ordeal which comes upon you to prove you, as though something strange were happening to you. <sup>13</sup> But rejoice in so far as you share Christ's sufferings<sup>73</sup>, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. <sup>14</sup> If you are reproached for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. <sup>15</sup> But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or a wrongdoer, or a mischief-maker; <sup>16</sup> yet if one suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but under that name let him glorify God. <sup>17</sup> For the time has come for judgement to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God? <sup>18</sup> And

"If the righteous man is scarcely saved, where will the impious and sinner appear?"

<sup>19</sup> Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will do right and entrust their souls to a faithful Creator.

1:; That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands<sup>2</sup>, concerning the word of life--<sup>2</sup> the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us--<sup>3</sup> that which we have seen and heard<sup>3</sup> we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship<sup>4</sup> with us<sup>5</sup>; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

<sup>25</sup> Present. i.e "continue to have". Contrast "doing sin" in Jn 8:34, and 1 Jn 3:4,8; in 1 Jn 3:8 the one doing sin is of the devil. However "having sin" seems common in John's gospel (Jn 9:41; 15:22,24; 19:11). John does not use the word "practice" in connection with sin, but seems to use "do" to mean the same thing (see Vine New Testament Words: Sin)

<sup>26</sup> Sin here may signify "erroneous thinking" or "wrong attitudes" - see Souter's lexicon, in which case "to have sin" denotes to "have the wrong attitude" - this would then contrast with "do sin" which would be to bear the fruit of such attitudes. This may be another way of expressing the concept of "original sin".

<sup>27</sup> Compare John 9:41 & Jn 15:22,24, which imply that people "have sin" only when the truth is spoken to them (certainly this is what gives the "knowledge of sin" which makes it accountable see Rom 3:20; 7:7), and it becomes exposed, and they know about it (cf Rom 5:13; 7:8). "Sin" here is (perhaps) the indwelling principle of sin (that runs amok in spite of the will of the person afflicted - see Romans 7), as opposed to its (wilful?) practice, leading to its manifestation as sinS (v9). It seems that John's opponents were saying that men are not sinful - that there is no such thing as sin: the gnostic heresy played down the importance of the body and material things in general to such an extent that what the

By this we may be sure<sup>E</sup> that we are in him: <sup>6</sup> he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

<sup>18</sup> Children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come; therefore we know that it is the last hour. <sup>19</sup> They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they all are not of us. <sup>20</sup> But you have been anointed<sup>F</sup> by the Holy One, and you all know. <sup>21</sup> I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and know that no lie is of the truth. <sup>22</sup> Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup> No one who denies the Son has the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also<sup>62</sup>. <sup>24</sup> Let what you heard from the beginning<sup>63</sup> abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father. <sup>25</sup> And this is what he has promised<sup>64</sup> us, eternal life.

<sup>28</sup> And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. <sup>29</sup> If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. <sup>2</sup> Beloved, we are God's children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like<sup>70</sup> him, for we shall see him as he is. <sup>3</sup> And every one who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

<sup>4</sup> Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. <sup>5</sup> You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. <sup>6</sup> No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. <sup>7</sup> Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does right is righteous<sup>71</sup>, as he is righteous. <sup>8</sup> He who commits<sup>72</sup> sin is of the devil; for the devil has sinned from the beginning. in him, and he cannot sin because he is born of God. <sup>10</sup> By this it may be seen who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not do right is not of God, nor he who does not love his brother.

<sup>11</sup> For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, <sup>12</sup> and not be like Cain who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. <sup>13</sup> Do not wonder, brethren, that the world hates you. <sup>14</sup> We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. <sup>15</sup> Any one who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. <sup>16</sup> By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren <sup>74</sup>. <sup>17</sup> But if any one has the world's goods<sup>75</sup> and sees his brother in need<sup>76</sup>, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? <sup>18</sup> Little children, let us not love in word or speech but in deed and in truth<sup>77</sup>.

<sup>19</sup> By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him <sup>20</sup> whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. <sup>21</sup> Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; <sup>22</sup> and we receive from him whatever we ask<sup>78</sup>, because we keep his commandments<sup>79</sup> and do what pleases him. <sup>23</sup> And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. <sup>24</sup> All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

4: <sup>1</sup> Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup> By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit<sup>80</sup> which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, <sup>3</sup> and every spirit which does not confess Jesus is not of God. This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already. <sup>4</sup> Little children, you are of God, and have overcome them; for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. <sup>5</sup> They are of the world, therefore what they say is of the world, and the world listens to them<sup>81</sup>. <sup>6</sup> We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us<sup>82</sup>, and he who is not of God does not listen<sup>83</sup> to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

<sup>7</sup> Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and he who loves is born of God and knows God. <sup>8</sup> He who does not love does not know God; for God is love. <sup>9</sup> In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. <sup>10</sup> In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins. <sup>11</sup> Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another<sup>84</sup>. <sup>12</sup> No man has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

<sup>13</sup> By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his own Spirit. <sup>14</sup> And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Saviour of the world<sup>85</sup>. <sup>15</sup> Whoever confesses<sup>C</sup> that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. <sup>16</sup> So we know and believe the love God has for us<sup>86</sup>. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides<sup>87</sup> in him. <sup>17</sup> In this<sup>C88</sup> is love perfected<sup>G89</sup> with us, that we may have confidence<sup>90</sup> for the day of judgement, because as he is so are we in this world. <sup>18</sup> There is no fear<sup>91</sup> in love, but perfect love<sup>G92</sup> casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears is not perfected in love<sup>G93</sup>. <sup>19</sup> We love<sup>94</sup>, because he first loved us. <sup>20</sup> If any one says<sup>95</sup>, "I love God," and hates his brother<sup>96</sup>, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother<sup>97</sup> whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. <sup>21</sup> And this commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

5:<sup>1</sup> Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child. <sup>2</sup> By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. <sup>3</sup> For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome<sup>98</sup>. <sup>4</sup> For whatever is born of God overcomes<sup>99</sup> the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. <sup>5</sup> Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?<sup>100</sup>

<sup>6</sup> This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. <sup>7</sup> And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth. <sup>8</sup> There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree. <sup>9</sup> If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has borne witness to his Son. <sup>10</sup> He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne to his Son. <sup>11</sup> And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup> He who has the Son has life; he who has not the Son of God has not life.

<sup>13</sup> I write this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life. <sup>14</sup> And this is the confidence which we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will<sup>101</sup> he hears us. <sup>15</sup> And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him. <sup>16</sup> If any one sees his brother committing what is not a mortal<sup>102</sup> sin, he will ask, and God will give him life for those whose sin is not mortal. There is sin which is mortal; I do not say that one is to pray for that. <sup>17</sup> All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not mortal.

<sup>18</sup> We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

<sup>19</sup> We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one.

<sup>20</sup> And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. <sup>21</sup> Little children, keep yourselves from idols<sup>103</sup>.

The second letter of John

<sup>1</sup> The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth, and not only I but also all who know the truth, <sup>2</sup> because of the truth which abides in us and will be with us for ever:

<sup>3</sup> Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup> I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children following the truth, just as we have been commanded by the Father. <sup>5</sup> And now I beg you, lady, not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning, that we love one another. <sup>6</sup> And this is love, that we follow his commandments; this is the commandment, as you have heard from the beginning, that you follow love. <sup>7</sup> For many deceivers have gone out into the world, men who will not acknowledge the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh; such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. <sup>8</sup> Look to yourselves, that you may not lose what you have worked for, but may win a full reward. <sup>9</sup> Any one who goes ahead and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God; he who abides in the doctrine has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup> If any one comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into the house or give him any greeting; <sup>11</sup> for he who greets him shares his wicked work.

<sup>12</sup> Though I have much to write to you, I would rather not use paper and ink, but I hope to come to see you and talk with you face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

The third letter of John

<sup>2</sup> Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in health; I know that it is well with your soul. <sup>3</sup> For I greatly rejoiced when some of the brethren arrived and testified to the truth of your life, as indeed you do follow the truth. <sup>4</sup> No greater joy can I have than this, to hear that my children follow the truth.

<sup>5</sup> Beloved, it is a loyal thing you do when you render any service to the brethren, especially to strangers, <sup>6</sup> who have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey as befits God's service. <sup>7</sup> For they have set out for his sake and have accepted nothing from the heathen. <sup>8</sup> So we ought to support such men, that we may be fellow workers in the truth.

<sup>9</sup> I have written something to the church; but Diot'rephes, who likes to put himself first<sup>1</sup>, does not acknowledge my authority. <sup>10</sup> So if I come, I will bring up what he is doing, prating against me with evil words. And not content with that, he refuses himself to welcome the brethren, and also stops those who want to welcome them and puts them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. He who does good is of God; he who does evil has not seen God. <sup>12</sup> Deme'trius has testimony from every one, and from the truth itself; I testify to him too, and you know my testimony is true.

<sup>13</sup> I had much to write to you, but I would rather not write with pen and ink; <sup>14</sup> I hope to see you soon, and we will talk together face to face.

<sup>15</sup> Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends, every one of them.

The letter of Jude

1: Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James,
To those who are called, beloved in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ:
2 May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

3 Beloved, being very eager to write to you of our common salvation, I found it necessary to write appealing to you to contend for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. 4 For admission<sup>1</sup> has been secretly gained by some who long ago were written of as receiving<sup>2</sup> this condemnation, ungodly persons who pervert the grace of our God into licentiousness<sup>3</sup> and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to remind you, though you were once for all fully informed, 1) that he who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe<sup>4</sup>. 6 2) And the angels that did not keep their own position but left their proper dwelling<sup>5</sup> have been kept by him in eternal chains in the nether gloom until the judgement of the great day; 7 3) just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise acted immorally and indulged in unnatural lust, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.

8 Yet in like manner these dreamers<sup>6,7</sup> defile the flesh<sup>8</sup>, reject authority<sup>9</sup>, and revile the glorious ones<sup>10</sup>. 9 But when the archangel Michael, contending with the devil, disputed about the body of Moses, he did not presume to pronounce a reviling judgement upon him, but said, "The Lord rebuke you." 10 But these men revile whatever they do not perceive<sup>11</sup>, and by those things that they perceive naturally, as do unreasoning animals<sup>12</sup>, they are destroyed. 11 Woe to them! For they walk 1) in the way of Cain<sup>13</sup>, and 2) abandon themselves for the sake of gain to Balaam's error<sup>14</sup>, and 3) perish in Korah's rebellion<sup>15</sup>. 12 These are blemishes on your love feasts, as they boldly carouse together, looking after themselves<sup>16</sup>; waterless clouds, carried along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, twice dead, uprooted; 13 wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame<sup>17</sup>; wandering stars for whom the nether gloom of darkness has been reserved for ever.

14 It was of these also that Enoch in the seventh generation from Adam prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord came with his holy myriads, 15 to execute judgement on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness which they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him." 16 These are grumblers, malcontents, following their own passions, loud-mouthed boasters, flattering people to gain advantage.

17 But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; 18 they said to you, "In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions<sup>18</sup>." 19 It is these who set up divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. 20 But thrones, and seated on the thrones were twenty-four elders, clad in white garments, with golden crowns upon their heads. <sup>5</sup> From the throne issue flashes of lightning, and voices and peals of thunder, and before the throne burn seven torches of fire, which are the seven spirits of God; <sup>6</sup> and before the throne there is as it were a sea of glass, like crystal.

And round the throne, on each side of the throne, are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind: <sup>7</sup> the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with the face of a man, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup> And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all round and within, and day and night they never cease to sing,

"Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!"

<sup>9</sup> And whenever the living creatures give glory and honour and thanks to him who is seated on the throne, who lives for ever and ever, <sup>10</sup> the twenty-four elders fall down before him who is seated on the throne and worship him who lives for ever and ever; they cast their crowns before the throne, singing,

<sup>11</sup> "Worthy art thou, our Lord and God,
to receive glory and honour and power,
for thou didst create all things,
and by thy will they existed and were created."

5:<sup>1</sup> And I saw in the right hand of him who was seated on the throne a scroll written within and on the back, sealed with seven seals; <sup>2</sup> and I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?" <sup>3</sup> And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it, <sup>4</sup> and I wept much that no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to into into it. <sup>5</sup> Then one of the elders said to me, "Weep not; lo, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals."

<sup>6</sup> And between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders, I saw a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, with seven horns and with seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth; <sup>7</sup> and he went and took the scroll from the right hand of him who was seated on the throne. <sup>8</sup> And when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp, and with golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints; <sup>9</sup> and they sang a new song, saying,

"Worthy art thou to take the scroll and to open its seals, for thou wast slain and by thy blood didst ransom men for God from every tribe and tongue and people and nation, <sup>10</sup> and hast made them a kingdom and priests to our God,
and they shall reign on earth."

<sup>11</sup> Then I looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voice of many angels, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, <sup>12</sup> saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing!" <sup>13</sup> And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all therein, saying, "To him who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might for ever and ever!" <sup>14</sup> And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshipped.

6:<sup>1</sup> Now I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say, as with a voice of thunder, "Come!" <sup>2</sup> And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and its rider had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

<sup>3</sup> When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come!" <sup>4</sup> And out came another horse, bright red; its rider was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that men should slay one another; and he was given a great sword.

<sup>5</sup> When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come!" And I saw, and behold, a black horse, and its rider had a balance in his hand; <sup>6</sup> and I heard what seemed to be a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; but do not harm oil and wine"<sup>42</sup>!"

<sup>7</sup> When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come!" <sup>8</sup> And I saw, and behold, a pale horse, and its rider's name was Death<sup>43</sup>, and Hades followed him; and they were given power over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by wild beasts of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the witness they had borne; <sup>10</sup> they cried out with a loud voice, "O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before thou wilt judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell upon the earth?" <sup>11</sup> Then they were each given a white robe and told to rest a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brethren should be complete, who were to be killed as they themselves had been.

<sup>12</sup> When he opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood, <sup>13</sup> and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as the fig tree sheds its winter fruit when shaken by a gale; <sup>14</sup> the sky vanished like a scroll that is rolled up<sup>44</sup>, and every mountain and island was removed from its place. <sup>15</sup> Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the generals and the rich and the strong, and every one, slave and free, hid in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains, <sup>16</sup> calling to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who is seated on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; <sup>17</sup> for the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand before it?"

7: <sup>1</sup> After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, that no wind might blow on earth or sea or against any tree. <sup>2</sup> Then I saw another angel ascend from the rising of the sun, with the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm earth and sea, <sup>3</sup> saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God upon their foreheads." <sup>4</sup> And I heard the number of the sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand sealed, out of every tribe of the sons of Israel, <sup>5</sup> twelve thousand sealed out of the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand of the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand of the tribe of Gad, <sup>6</sup> twelve thousand of the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand of the tribe of Naph'tali, twelve thousand of the tribe of Manas'seh, <sup>7</sup> twelve thousand of the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand of the tribe of Is'sachar, <sup>8</sup> twelve thousand of the tribe of Zeb'ulun, twelve thousand of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand sealed out of the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>9</sup> After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no man could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, <sup>10</sup> and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb!" <sup>11</sup> And all the angels stood round the throne and round the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, <sup>12</sup> saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen."

<sup>13</sup> Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, clothed in white robes, and whence have they come?" <sup>14</sup> I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night within his temple; and he who sits upon the throne will shelter them with his presence<sup>45</sup>.

<sup>16</sup> They shall 1) hunger no more, neither 2) thirst any more; the 3) sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat<sup>46</sup>.

<sup>17</sup> For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water; and 4) God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

8:<sup>1</sup> When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. <sup>2</sup> Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. <sup>3</sup> And another angel came and stood at the altar with a golden censer; and he was given much incense to mingle with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar before the throne; <sup>4</sup> and the smoke of the incense rose with the prayers of the saints from the hand of the angel before God. <sup>5</sup> Then the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar and threw it on the earth; and there were peals of thunder, voices, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

<sup>6</sup> Now the seven angels who had the seven trumpets made ready to blow them.

<sup>7</sup> The first angel blew his trumpet, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, which fell on the earth; and a third of the earth was burnt up, and a third of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

<sup>8</sup> The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain, burning with fire, was thrown into the sea; <sup>9</sup> and a third of the sea became blood, a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> The third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from heaven, blazing like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the fountains of water. <sup>11</sup> The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died of the water, because it was made bitter.

<sup>12</sup> The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of their light was darkened; a third of the day was kept from shining, and likewise a third of the night.

<sup>13</sup> Then I looked, and I heard an eagle crying with a loud voice, as it flew in midheaven, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, at the blasts of the other trumpets which the three angels are about to blow!"

9:<sup>1</sup> And the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star fallen from heaven to earth, and he was given the key of the shaft of the bottomless pit; <sup>2</sup> he opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and from the shaft rose smoke like the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened with the smoke from the shaft. <sup>3</sup> Then from the smoke came locusts on the earth, and they were given power like the power of scorpions of the earth; <sup>4</sup> they were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any green growth or any tree, but only those of mankind who have not the seal of God upon their foreheads; <sup>5</sup> they were allowed to torture them for five months, but not to kill them, and their torture was like the torture of a scorpion, when it stings a man. <sup>6</sup> And in those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, and death will fly from them.

<sup>7</sup> In appearance the locusts were like horses arrayed for battle; on their heads were what looked like crowns of gold; their faces were like human faces, <sup>8</sup> their hair like women's hair, and their teeth like lions' teeth; <sup>9</sup> they had scales like iron breastplates, and the noise of their wings was like the noise of many chariots with horses rushing into battle. <sup>10</sup> They have tails like scorpions, and stings, and their power of hurting men for five months lies in their tails. <sup>11</sup> They have as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit; his name in Hebrew is Abad'don, and in Greek he is called Apol'lyon.

<sup>13</sup> Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God, <sup>14</sup> saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates." <sup>15</sup> So the four angels were released, who had been held ready for the hour, the day, the month, and the year, to kill a third of mankind. <sup>16</sup> The number of the troops of cavalry was twice ten thousand times ten thousand; I heard their number. <sup>17</sup> And this was how I saw the horses in my vision: the riders wore breastplates the colour of fire and of sapphire and of sulphur, and the heads of the horses were like lions' heads, and fire and smoke and sulphur issued from their mouths. <sup>18</sup> By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed, by the fire and smoke and sulphur issuing from their mouths. <sup>19</sup> For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; their tails are like serpents, with heads, and by means of them they wound.

<sup>20</sup> The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshipping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot either see or hear or walk; <sup>21</sup> nor did they repent of their murders or their sorceries or their immorality or their thefts.

He had a little scroll open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea, and his left foot on the land, <sup>3</sup> and called out with a loud voice, like a lion roaring; when he called out, the seven thunders sounded. <sup>4</sup> And when the seven thunders had sounded, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said, and do not write it down." <sup>5</sup> And the angel whom I saw standing on sea and land lifted up his right hand to heaven <sup>6</sup> and swore by him who lives for ever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it, that there should be no more delay, <sup>7</sup> but that in the days of the trumpet call to be sounded by the seventh angel, the mystery of God, as he announced to his servants the prophets, should be fulfilled.

<sup>8</sup> Then the voice which I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, "Go, take the scroll which is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land." <sup>9</sup> So I went to the angel and told him to give me the little scroll; and he said to me, "Take it and eat; it will be bitter to your stomach, but sweet as honey in your mouth." <sup>10</sup> And I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it; it was sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it my stomach was made bitter. <sup>11</sup> And I was told, "You must again prophesy about many peoples and nations and tongues and kings."

11: <sup>1</sup> Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff, and I was told: "Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship there, <sup>2</sup> but do not measure the court outside the temple; leave that out, for it is given over to the nations, and they will trample over the holy city for forty-two months. <sup>3</sup> And I will grant my two witnesses power to prophesy for one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."

<sup>4</sup> These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands which stand before the Lord of the earth. <sup>5</sup> And if any one would harm them, fire pours out from their mouth and consumes their foes; if any one would harm them, thus he is doomed to be killed. <sup>6</sup> They have power to shut the sky, that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying, and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. <sup>7</sup> And when they have finished their testimony, the beast that ascends from the bottomless pit will make war upon them and conquer them and kill them, <sup>8</sup> and their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which is allegorically called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup> For three days and a half men from the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations gaze at their dead bodies and refuse to let them be placed in a tomb, <sup>10</sup> and those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and make merry and exchange presents, because these two prophets had been a torment to those who dwell on the earth. <sup>11</sup> But after the three and a half days a breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. <sup>12</sup> Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up hither!" And in the sight of their foes they went up to heaven in a cloud. <sup>13</sup> And at that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>14</sup> The second woe has passed; behold, the third woe is soon to come.

<sup>15</sup> Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever." <sup>16</sup> And the twenty-four elders who sit on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshipped God, <sup>17</sup> saying,

"We give thanks to thee, Lord God Almighty, who art and who wast, that thou hast taken thy great power and begun to reign.

<sup>18</sup> The nations raged, but thy wrath came,
and the time for the dead to be judged,
for rewarding thy servants, the prophets and saints,
and those who fear thy name, both small and great,
and for destroying the destroyers of the earth."

<sup>19</sup> Then God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple; and there were flashes of lightning, voices, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail.

12: <sup>1</sup> And a great portent appeared in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars; <sup>2</sup> she was with child and she cried out in her pangs of birth, in anguish for delivery. <sup>3</sup> And another portent appeared in heaven; behold, a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems upon his heads. <sup>4</sup> His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bear a child, that he might devour her child when she brought it forth; <sup>5</sup> she brought forth a male child, one who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron, but her child was caught up to God and to his throne, <sup>6</sup> and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, in which to be nourished for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

<sup>7</sup> Now war arose in heaven, Michael and his angels fighting against the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought, <sup>8</sup> but they were defeated and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. <sup>9</sup> And the great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world-- he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. <sup>10</sup> And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. <sup>11</sup> And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death. <sup>12</sup> Rejoice then, O heaven and you that dwell therein! But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!"

<sup>13</sup> And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had borne the male child. <sup>14</sup> But the woman was given the two wings of the great eagle that she might fly from the serpent into the wilderness, to the place where she is to be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time. <sup>15</sup> The serpent poured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, to sweep her away with the flood. <sup>16</sup> But the earth came to the help of the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river which the dragon had poured from his mouth. <sup>17</sup> Then the dragon was angry with the woman, and went off to make war on the rest of her offspring, on those who keep the commandments of God and bear testimony to Jesus. And he stood on the sand of the sea.

13:<sup>1</sup> And I saw a beast rising out of the sea, with ten horns and seven heads, with ten diadems upon its horns and a blasphemous name upon its heads. <sup>2</sup> And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, its feet were like a bear's, and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. And to it the dragon gave his power and his throne and great authority. <sup>3</sup> One of its heads seemed to have a mortal wound, but its mortal wound was healed, and the whole earth followed the beast with wonder. <sup>4</sup> Men worshipped the dragon, for he had given his authority to the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who can fight against it?"

<sup>5</sup> And the beast was given a mouth uttering haughty and blasphemous words, and it was allowed to exercise authority for forty-two months; <sup>6</sup> it opened its mouth to utter blasphemies against God, blaspheming his name and his dwelling, that is, those who dwell in heaven. <sup>7</sup> Also it was allowed to make war on the saints and to conquer them. And authority was given it over every tribe and people and tongue and nation, <sup>8</sup> and all who dwell on earth will worship it, every one whose name has not been written before the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb that was slain. <sup>9</sup> If any one has an ear, let him hear:

if any one slays with the sword, with the sword must he be slain.

Here is a call for the endurance<sup>47</sup> and faith of the saints.

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw another beast which rose out of the earth; it had two horns like a lamb and it spoke like a dragon. <sup>12</sup> It exercises all the authority of the first beast in its presence, and makes the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose mortal wound was healed. <sup>13</sup> It works great signs, even making fire come down from heaven to earth in the sight of men; <sup>14</sup> and by the signs which it is allowed to work in the presence of the beast, it deceives those who dwell on earth, bidding them make an image for the beast which was wounded by the sword and yet lived; <sup>15</sup> and it was allowed to give breath to the image of the beast so that the image of the beast should even speak, and to cause those who would not worship the image of the beast to be slain. <sup>16</sup> Also it causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, to be marked on the right hand or the forehead, <sup>17</sup> so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark, that is, the name of the beast or the number of its name. <sup>18</sup> This calls for wisdom: let him who has understanding reckon the number of the beast, for it is a human number, its number is six hundred and sixty-six.

14:<sup>1</sup> Then I looked, and lo, on Mount Zion stood the Lamb, and with him a hundred and forty-four thousand who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup> And I heard a voice from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder; the voice I heard was like the sound of harpers playing on their harps, <sup>3</sup> and they sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and before the elders. No one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who had been redeemed from the earth. <sup>4</sup> It is these who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are chaste<sup>48</sup>; it is these who follow the Lamb wherever he goes; these have been redeemed from mankind as first fruits for God and the Lamb, <sup>5</sup> and in their mouth no lie was found, for they are spotless.

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw another angel flying in midheaven, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and tongue and people; <sup>7</sup> and he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, for the hour of his judgement has come; and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the fountains of water."

<sup>9</sup> And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If any one worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, <sup>10</sup> he also shall drink the wine of God's wrath, poured unmixed into the cup of his anger, and he shall be tormented with fire and sulphur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. <sup>11</sup> And the smoke of their torment goes up for ever and ever; and they have no rest, day or night, these worshippers of the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name."

<sup>13</sup> And I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth." "Blessed indeed," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labours, for their deeds follow them!"

<sup>14</sup> Then I looked, and lo, a white cloud, and seated on the cloud one like a son of man, with a golden crown on his head, and a sharp sickle in his hand. <sup>15</sup> And another angel came out of the temple, calling with a loud voice to him who sat upon the cloud, "Put in your sickle, and reap, for the hour to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is fully ripe." <sup>16</sup> So he who sat upon the cloud swung his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

<sup>17</sup> And another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup> Then another angel came out from the altar, the angel who has power over fire, and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, "Put in your sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for its grapes are ripe." <sup>19</sup> So the angel swung his sickle on the earth and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God; <sup>20</sup> and the wine press was trodden outside the city, and blood flowed from the wine press, as high as a horse's bridle, for one thousand six hundred stadia.

15: <sup>1</sup> Then I saw another portent in heaven, great and wonderful, seven angels with seven plagues, which are the last, for with them the wrath of God is ended.

<sup>2</sup> And I saw what appeared to be a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who had conquered the beast and its image and the number of its name, standing beside the sea of glass with harps of God in their hands. <sup>3</sup> And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and wonderful are thy deeds, O Lord God the Almighty!
Just and true are thy ways, O King of the ages!

<sup>4</sup> Who shall not fear and glorify thy name, O Lord?
For thou alone art holy.

All nations shall come and worship thee,
for thy judgements have been revealed."

<sup>5</sup> After this I looked, and the temple of the tent of witness in heaven was opened, <sup>6</sup> and out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues, robed in pure bright linen, and their breasts girded with golden girdles. <sup>7</sup> And one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who lives for ever and ever; <sup>8</sup> and the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were ended.

16:<sup>1</sup> Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven angels, "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls<sup>49</sup> of the wrath of God."

<sup>2</sup> So the first angel went and poured his bowl on the earth, and foul and evil sores came upon the men who bore the mark of the beast and worshipped its image.

<sup>3</sup> The second angel poured his bowl into the sea, and it became like the blood of a dead man, and every living thing died that was in the sea.

<sup>4</sup> The third angel poured his bowl into the rivers and the fountains of water, and they became blood. <sup>5</sup> And I heard the angel of water say,

"Just art thou in these thy judgements,
thou who art and wast, O Holy One.

<sup>6</sup> For men have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink. It is their due!"

<sup>7</sup> And I heard the altar cry,

"Yea, Lord God the Almighty, true and just are thy judgements!"

<sup>8</sup> The fourth angel poured his bowl on the sun, and it was allowed to scorch men with fire; <sup>9</sup> men were scorched by the fierce heat, and they cursed the name of God who had power over these plagues, and they did not repent and give him glory.

<sup>10</sup> The fifth angel poured his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was in darkness; men gnawed their tongues in anguish <sup>11</sup> and cursed the God of heaven for their pain and sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

<sup>12</sup> The sixth angel poured his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, to prepare the way for the kings from the east. <sup>13</sup> And I saw, issuing from the mouth of the dragon and from the mouth of the beast and from the mouth of the false prophet, three foul spirits like frogs; <sup>14</sup> for they are demonic spirits, performing signs, who go abroad to the kings of the whole world, to assemble them for battle on the great day of God the Almighty. <sup>15</sup> ("Lo, I am coming like a thief! Blessed is he who is awake, keeping his garments that he may not go naked and be seen exposed!") <sup>16</sup> And they assembled them at the place which is called in Hebrew Armageddon.

<sup>17</sup> The seventh angel poured his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" <sup>18</sup> And there were flashes of lightning, voices, peals of thunder, and a great earthquake such as had never been since men were on the earth, so great was that earthquake. <sup>19</sup> The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and God remembered great Babylon, to make her drain the cup of the fury of his wrath. <sup>20</sup> And every island fled away, and no mountains were to be found; <sup>21</sup> and great hailstones, heavy as a hundred-weight, dropped on men from heaven, till men cursed God for the plague of the hail, so fearful was that plague.

17:<sup>1</sup> Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the judgement of the great harlot who is seated upon many waters<sup>50</sup>, <sup>2</sup> with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication<sup>51</sup>, and with the wine of whose fornication the dwellers on earth have become drunk." <sup>3</sup> And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness, and I saw a woman<sup>52</sup> sitting on a scarlet beast<sup>53</sup> which was full of blasphemous names, and it had seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup> The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and bedecked with gold and jewels and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup<sup>54</sup> full of abominations and the impurities of her fornication; <sup>5</sup> and on her forehead was written a name of mystery: "Babylon the great, mother<sup>55</sup> of harlots<sup>56</sup> and of earth's abominations." <sup>6</sup> And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood<sup>57</sup> of the saints and the blood of the martyrs of Jesus.

When I saw her I marvelled greatly. <sup>7</sup> But the angel said to me, "Why marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns that carries her. <sup>8</sup> The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is to ascend from the bottomless pit and go to perdition; and the dwellers on earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will marvel to behold the beast, because it was and is not and is to come. <sup>9</sup> This calls for a mind with wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains<sup>58</sup> on which the woman is seated; <sup>10</sup> they are also seven kings, five of whom have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come, and when he comes he must remain only a little while. <sup>11</sup> As for the beast<sup>59</sup> that was and is not, it is an eighth but it belongs to the seven, and it goes to perdition. <sup>12</sup> And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received royal power, but they are to receive authority as kings for one hour, together with the beast. <sup>13</sup> These are of one mind and give over their power and authority to the beast; <sup>14</sup> they will make war on the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, for he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called and chosen and faithful."

<sup>15</sup> And he said to me, "The waters that you saw, where the harlot is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. <sup>16</sup> And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the harlot<sup>60</sup>; they will make her desolate and naked, and devour her flesh and burn her up with fire, <sup>17</sup> for God has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose by being of one mind and giving over their royal power to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. <sup>18</sup> And the woman that you saw is the great city which has dominion over the kings of the earth."

It has become a dwelling place of demons,
a haunt of every foul spirit,
a haunt of every foul and hateful bird;
<sup>3</sup> for all nations have drunk<sup>62</sup> the wine of her impure passion, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her,
and the merchants of the earth have grown rich
with the wealth of her wantonness."

<sup>4</sup> Then I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her<sup>63</sup>, my people, lest you take part in her sins, lest you share in her plagues;
<sup>5</sup> for her sins are heaped high as heaven,
and God has remembered her iniquities.
<sup>6</sup> Render to her as she herself has rendered,
and repay her double for her deeds;
mix a double draught for her in the cup she mixed.
<sup>7</sup> As she glorified herself and played the wanton,
so give her a like measure of torment and mourning.
Since in her heart she says, 'A queen<sup>64</sup> I sit,
I am no widow, mourning I shall never see<sup>65</sup>,' <sup>8</sup> so shall her plagues come in a single day<sup>66</sup>, pestilence and mourning and famine,
and she shall be burned with fire;
for mighty is the Lord God who judges her."

"Alas! alas! thou great city, thou mighty city, Babylon!
In one hour has thy judgement come."

<sup>11</sup> And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, since no one buys their cargo any more, <sup>12</sup> cargo of gold, silver, jewels and pearls, fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet, all kinds of scented wood, all articles of ivory, all articles of costly wood, bronze, iron and marble, <sup>13</sup> cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and slaves, that is, human souls.

And all shipmasters and seafaring men, sailors and all whose trade is on the sea, stood far off <sup>18</sup> and cried out as they saw the smoke of her burning,

"What city was like the great city?"

<sup>19</sup> And they threw dust on their heads, as they wept and mourned, crying out,

"Alas, alas, for the great city where all who had ships at sea grew rich by her wealth!
In one hour she has been laid waste.

<sup>20</sup> Rejoice over her, O heaven,
O saints and apostles and prophets,
for God has given judgement for you against her!"

<sup>21</sup> Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying,

"So shall Babylon the great city be thrown down with violence,
and shall be found no more;

<sup>22</sup> and the sound of harpers and minstrels, of flute players and trumpeters, shall be heard in thee no more;

<sup>23</sup> and the light of a lamp shall shine in thee no more;
and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall be heard in thee no more;
for thy merchants were the great men of the earth,
and all nations were deceived by thy sorcery.

<sup>24</sup> And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on earth."

19:<sup>1</sup> After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying,

"Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, <sup>2</sup> for his judgements are true and just;
he has judged the great harlot
who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and he has avenged on her the blood of his servants."

<sup>3</sup> Once more they cried,

"Hallelujah! The smoke from her goes up for ever and ever."

<sup>4</sup> And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God who is seated on the throne, saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!" <sup>5</sup> And from the throne came a voice crying,

"Praise our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, small and great."

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty thunderpeals, crying,

"Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns.

<sup>7</sup> Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory,

for the marriage of the Lamb has come,
and his Bride has made herself ready<sup>68</sup>;

<sup>8</sup> it was granted her to be clothed with fine linen,
bright and pure"--

for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.

<sup>9</sup> And the angel said to me, "Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb." And he said to me, "These are true words of God." <sup>10</sup> Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brethren who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God." For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! He who sat upon it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war. <sup>12</sup> His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems; and he has a name inscribed which no one knows but himself. <sup>13</sup> He is clad in a robe dipped in blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God. <sup>14</sup> And the armies of heaven, arrayed in fine linen, white and pure, followed him on white horses. <sup>15</sup> From his mouth issues a sharp sword with which to smite the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron; he will tread the wine press of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty. <sup>16</sup> On his robe and on his thigh he has a name inscribed, King of kings and Lord of lords.

<sup>17</sup> Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he called to all the birds that fly in midheaven, "Come, gather for the great supper of God, <sup>18</sup> to eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great." <sup>19</sup> And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against him who sits upon the horse and against his army. <sup>20</sup> And the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who in its presence had worked the signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshipped its image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulphur. <sup>21</sup> And the rest were slain by the sword of him who sits upon the horse, the sword that issues from his mouth; and all the birds were gorged with their flesh.

20:<sup>1</sup> Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain. <sup>2</sup> And he seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, <sup>3</sup> and threw him into the pit, and shut it and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years were ended. After that he must be loosed for a little while.

<sup>4</sup> Then I saw thrones, and seated on them were those to whom judgement was committed. Also I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony to Jesus and for the word of God, and who had not worshipped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life, and reigned with Christ a thousand years. <sup>5</sup> The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended. This is the first<sup>69</sup> resurrection. <sup>6</sup> Blessed and holy is he who shares in the first resurrection! Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and they shall reign with him a thousand years.

<sup>7</sup> And when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be loosed from his prison <sup>8</sup> and will come out to deceive the nations which are at the four corners of the earth, that is, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle; their number is like the sand of the sea. <sup>9</sup> And they marched up over the broad earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city; but fire came down from heaven and consumed them, <sup>10</sup> and the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulphur where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw a great white throne and him who sat upon it; from his presence earth and sky fled away, and no place was found for them. <sup>12</sup> And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Also another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged by what was written in the books, by what they had done. <sup>13</sup> And the sea gave up the dead in it, Death and Hades gave up the dead in them, and all were judged by what they had done. <sup>14</sup> Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire; <sup>15</sup> and if any one's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire<sup>70</sup>.

21:<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. <sup>2</sup> And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband; <sup>3</sup> and I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them; <sup>4</sup> he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away."

<sup>5</sup> And he who sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." <sup>6</sup> And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the fountain of the water of life without payment<sup>71</sup>. <sup>7</sup> He who conquers shall have this heritage, and I will be his God and he shall be my son. <sup>8</sup> But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the polluted, as for murderers, fornicators, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their lot shall be in the lake that burns with fire<sup>72</sup> and sulphur, which is the second death."

<sup>9</sup> Then came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues, and spoke to me, saying, "Come, I will show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb." <sup>10</sup> And in the Spirit he carried me away to a great, high mountain, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, <sup>11</sup> having the glory of God, its radiance like a most rare jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup> It had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes<sup>73</sup> of the sons of Israel were inscribed; <sup>13</sup> on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. <sup>14</sup> And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> And he who talked to me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city and its gates and walls<sup>74</sup>. <sup>16</sup> The city lies foursquare, its length the same as its breadth; and he measured the city with his rod, twelve thousand stadia; its length and breadth and height are equal. <sup>17</sup> He also measured its wall, a hundred and forty-four cubits by a man's measure, that is, an angel's. <sup>18</sup> The wall was built of jasper, while the city was pure gold, clear as glass. <sup>19</sup> The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every jewel; the first was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, <sup>20</sup> the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst. <sup>21</sup> And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, each of the gates made of a single pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.

<sup>22</sup> And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. <sup>23</sup> And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine upon it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb<sup>75</sup>. <sup>24</sup> By its light shall the nations walk; and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory into it, <sup>25</sup> and its gates shall never be shut by day-- and there shall be no night there; <sup>26</sup> they shall bring into it the glory and the honour of the nations. <sup>27</sup> But nothing unclean shall enter it, nor any one who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

22:<sup>1</sup> Then he showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb <sup>2</sup> through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life<sup>76</sup> with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup> There shall no more be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall worship him; <sup>4</sup> they shall see his face, and his name shall be on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> And night shall be

<sup>8</sup> I John am he who heard and saw these things. <sup>17</sup> The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come." And let him who hears say, "Come." And let him who is thirsty come<sup>81</sup>, let him who desires take the water of life without price<sup>82</sup>.

<sup>18</sup> I warn every one who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if any one adds<sup>83</sup> to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book, <sup>19</sup> and if any one takes away<sup>84</sup> from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

<sup>20</sup> He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!
